Re: ADR 427 (RAD 07L-47)
Stephanie Tubbs Jones for U.S. Congress and Saundra Berry, Treasurer

Dear Ms. Berry:

On July 25, 2005, the Reports Analysis Division of the Federal Election Commission ("FEC" or "Commission") determined that matters arising from its review of reports filed by Stephanie Tubbs Jones for U.S. Congress warranted further examination for possible violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to exercise its prosecutorial discretion and take no further action against the Respondents Stephanie Tubbs Jones for U.S. Congress and Saundra Berry, Treasurer. In its memorandum to the Commission, dated February 19, 2008, this office stated:

SUMMARY: A committee may be referred for audit under the Act if the cumulative nature of the reporting errors reveals the committee is not in substantial compliance with the law. 2 U.S.C. § 438(b). The Reports Analysis Division referred the Respondents (or "the Committee") for cumulative errors beginning with the 2005 Quarterly Report through the 2006 12-Day Pre-General Report. Some of the errors involved mathematical discrepancies, missing schedules, failures to itemize contributions, and failures to provide accurate or appropriate FEC Forms 3Z-1. The Committee, in response, explained that volunteers filed the reports and were inexperienced in campaign finance reporting.

Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on February 3, 2007.

The FEC is obligated by federal regulations to make a finding to terminate its proceedings public, as well as the basis therefore. 11 C.F.R. § 111.20(b). In addition, the Commission will also place on the record copies of the referral, correspondence exchanged between Respondent(s) and the Commission, and reports prepared for the Commission by this office to assist in its consideration of this matter. Accordingly, copies of documents relative to this matter will be forwarded shortly to the FEC's Public Information Office.

If you have any questions regarding this matter please be in touch. My telephone number is 202-694-1665.

Sincerely,

Lynn M. Fraser, Acting Director,
