Summary and Analysis of Case: Treasurers of political committees are required to report all financial activity. The Reports Analysis Division (RAD) referred Joe Lavigne for Congress and William Pitard Wynne, Treasurer (Respondents or the Committee) for a series of errors beginning with the 2006 October Quarterly Report and continuing through the 2006 30 Day Post General Report. In addition to math discrepancies, the errors also included the disclosure of excessive and/or otherwise prohibited contributions, and a failure to adequately itemize contributions and disbursements. The Committee is the principal campaign committee for Joseph Francis Lavigne, an unsuccessful candidate for the 2006 General Election.
