To the Office of General Counsel:

A complaint, MUR#5946, has been made against me alleging that as a candidate for election to Mayor of Bellingham, Washington, I 'solicited and accepted campaign contributions from one or more Canadian property development firms.' The complaint further alleges that these alleged illegal contributions were solicited with knowledge of their illegality.

The facts alleged are in fact incorrect as regards the contributions made to my campaign in the complaint letter. The corporation in question, '10th and McKenzie Ltd. Partnership,' is a corporation registered in Washington State, and is an equal partnership between a husband who is Canadian and a wife who is a citizen of the United States. Nonetheless, on hearing of the perception of impropriety regarding this contribution, it was returned, and the check refunding the contribution has cleared at this point.

In light of this fact, the case is moot in my estimation. If you would like further clarity on any issues surrounding this complaint as they pertain to my own candidacy, please call me at 360.202.1122, or you can email me at dan@pikeformayor.com.

Thanks for your consideration and attention in this matter,

Dan Pike,
