As you are aware, the settlement agreement will be made part of the record that is released to the public. The Commission will also place on the record copies of the referral, correspondence exchanged between your office and this office prior to our entry into settlement negotiations and reports prepared for the Commission by this office to assist in its consideration of this matter. Case Name: Republican Leadership Council Federal PAC

NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT

This matter was initiated by the Federal Election Commission (Commission) pursuant to information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. Following review of the matter, and in an effort to promote compliance with the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, (FECA) and resolve this matter, the Commission entered into negotiations with Cleta Mitchell, Esq., representing the Republican Leadership Council Federal PAC and Ronald R. Gravino, in his official capacity as Treasurer (the Committee or Respondents). It is understood that this agreement will have no precedential value relative to any other matters coming before the Commission.

Negotiations between the Commission and Respondents addressed the issues raised in this referral. The parties agree to resolve the matter according to the following terms:

1. The Commission entered into this agreement as part of its responsibility for administering the FECA, and in an effort to promote compliance on the part of Respondents. The Commission's use of alternative dispute resolution procedures ("ADR") is guided by "The Administrative Dispute Resolution Act of 1996," 5 U.S.C. § 572 and is an extension of 2 U.S.C. § 437g.
2. Respondents voluntarily enter into this agreement with the Commission.
3. The Reports Analysis Division (RAD) referred the Respondents for the cumulative nature of deficiencies on reports filed with the Commission in the 2005-2006 election cycle which disclosed the Committee was not in substantial compliance with the FECA.
4. A political committee may be referred if, after an internal review of reports filed by the committee, the Commission determines the reports do not meet the threshold requirements for substantial compliance with the FECA. 2 U.S.C. § 437(g).
5. Respondents acknowledge some reporting challenges during the 2006 election cycle. Respondents contend, however, that after retaining the services of an experienced treasurer and changing reporting software, the Committee resolved the deficiencies. In addition, Respondents argue that a major deficiency during the 2006 election cycle was addressed in ADR 385. In resolving ADR 385, Respondents contend they developed and instituted internal controls, and additional financial and compliance procedures, as well as paid a civil penalty of $2,500.

6. Respondents, in an effort to avoid similar errors in the future, agree to: (a) develop written tracking and response procedures for Requests for Additional Information (RFAs); (b) train Committee staff on adequate itemization for reporting purposes with specific attention to the itemization of disbursements; and (c) at the beginning of the next two election cycles, furnish RAD with details of the Committee's "best efforts" procedures.
7. Respondents agree that all information provided to resolve this matter is true and accurate to the best of their knowledge and that they sign this agreement under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746.
8. The parties agree that if Respondents fail to comply with the terms of this settlement, the Commission may undertake civil action in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia to secure compliance.
9. This agreement shall become effective on the date signed by all parties and approved by the Commission. Respondents shall comply with the terms of this agreement as set out in paragraph 6 above.
10. This Negotiated Settlement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties on ADR 449 (RAD 08L08), and resolves only those issues identified in paragraph 3 above. No other statement, promise or agreement, either written or oral, made by either party, not included herein, shall be enforceable.
