UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Michael Wundsam,

Complainant,

vs.

Kirk Morris for Congress,

Respondent

MUR # 5969

RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL
2008 JAN 25 A 10: 15

COMPLAINT

Now comes, Michael Wundsam, and complaining of the above-named respondent alleges as follows:

- 1.) Respondent, a principal campaign committee for Kirk Morris, a candidate in Illinois' 8th Congressional District does not request the personal information that is required by law for donations over $200 when said donation is made through the candidate's website. (see attached)
- 2.) The maximum donations allowed as well as who is barred from donating to a political campaign is not given on their website. (see attached)
- 3.) The campaign website as well as campaign yard signs do not have the legally required "Paid for by Kirk Morris for Congress" disclaimer. (see attached)

WHEREFORE, Complainant respectfully requests that the Federal Election Commission investigate the allegations in this complaint with all possible speed and, if warranted, sanction the Respondent.

Respectfully submitted,

Michael Wundsam

MESSAGE OF THE DAY

Melissa Bean voted "Yes" to making the Patriot Act permanent. Kirk Morris believes that any act that allows for potential threats to civil liberties, while sometimes necessary in dangerous times, should have a sunset provision. Wouldn't you agree?

NEWSFLASH

KIRK MORRIS HONORED BY CHICAGO VETERANS GROUP AS CITIZEN OF THE YEAR FOR HIS SERVICE TO VETERANS

Chicago - Gurnee resident Kirk Morris was honored by a Veterans Organization in Chicago for his work on behalf of Illinois veterans.

Morris is running for the Republican nomination for the Eighth Congressional District seat currently held by Democrat Melissa Bean. He faces Ken Arnold from Gurnee and Steve Greenberg from Buffalo Grove in the February 5, 2008 primary election.

Morris received the "Citizen of the Year Award" from the McCathy Group in a ceremony held at St. Cajetan's Church in Chicago on Saturday January 5th. The Group cited Morris for "his service above and beyond" the call of duty to Illinois veterans. The event was witnessed by more than 2,000 people who filled the pews.

In a speech responding to the award Kirk Morris asked

A very kind letter to the Editor

With all the hard work that goes into a campaign, letter like the one below are one of the things that makes it all worth it.

Morris has the heart for Congress

I received a phone call recently indicating that this year's elections should expect to cost more than $300 million per party.

The politicians talk bad about "big business" and we need to vote because of our "children." Politics is big business and they are hurting my kids with their costly and wasteful legislation.

Candidates are selected by their parties on the likeability and "deep pockets."

We need a national referendum for term limits.

It's time for a change in the Senate and Congress, especially in the 8th Congressional District.

As I monitor Melissa Bean, I do not see her participation in supporting veterans' issues or sponsoring issues for the veterans and the troops. Support Kirk Morris (Gold Star Dad), who is running in the 8th District against the traditional Republican elders.

Since his son's death, he has worked tirelessly for supporting the troops, Gold Star families, Fischer House, and Lt. Gov. Pat Quinn's program supporting the Guard, Reserves and lives inside the 8th District.

Google Kirk Morris, and then Google his opponents and decide who should be the next Republican candidate to represent the 8th District.

Kirk doesn't have deep pockets, but he has the heart to represent the 8th District, the veteran community and can get the job done.

The Pioneer Press Newspapers endorse Kirk Morris for the 8th District Republican nomination!

Kirk Morris has spent his life as an 8th District resident. Born in Palestine, raised in Barrington and Richmond, he has lived in Gurnee for the past 17 years. He and wife, Vickie, care for a blended family that includes Jennifer, a college student, two seniors, Lauren and Taylor, sophomore Austin, and 4th grader Dylan. The family mourns the loss of the oldest

The McCarthy Group was founded by Colonel Joseph McCarthy, who received the Congressional Medal of Honor for his actions at Iwo Jima. During World War II, McCarthy was a captain commanding a rifle company attached to the Second Battalion, 24th Marines, and led an assault team across exposed ground to wipe out positions holding up the advance of his company.

The same Marine Corps Unit is now a reserve unit headquartered in Chicago. The battalion has been activated for second tour in Iraq

Also receiving Honors Saturday, was Marine Sgt Brian Woznicki, who earned three Purple Hearts in his two deployments to Iraq. One was Spring of 2004, the same place and time PFC Geoffrey Morris, son of Kirk Morris, was killed in Iraq.

Chicago Firemen also presented an Iron cross to Navy Chaplain 2nd Lt. John Conrac, who served with the Marines on two tours in Iraq and is headed back for another deployment by the end of January. The cross was cut from the iron beam from the former World Trade Center on September 12, 2001.

"This cross has a lot of emotion and meaning attached to it. I will carry this to the Battlefield far any all to see. What a wonderful symbol and memoriam for those that are taking the battle back to those that caused such great loss of life in NY on September 11th," said Conrac.

The Chicago Police Drum and Bagpipe Corps added ceremonial and processional music to the event.

stands out, however, because of his extensive volunteer work and experience on environmental issues. Morris is a forest preserve nature guide, the vice president of an alternative fuels conversion company and a member of the lieutenant governor's Alternate Fuels Development Committee.

Morris has become a knowledgeable advocate for veterans and their families since his U.S. Marine son was killed in Iraq in 2004. Yet, he is not running an emotion-driven campaign for sympathy votes. In fact, during his Pioneer Press endorsement interview, Morris did not mention his son's death. Instead, he detailed his views on a variety of issues, including his belief that experienced military commanders – not politicians – should determine the course of action in Iraq.

Morris' campaign lacks Greenberg's vast financial resources, but we think he would be the party's best option for the Nov. 4 General Election.

son, Marine PFC Geoff, killed in Iraq on April 4th of 2004, who was looked up to and adored by his younger siblings.
