Re: ADR 464 (MUR 6007)

Dear Mr. Dougherty:

On May 7, 2008, the Federal Election Commission ("FEC" or "Commission") notified Jim King for Congress of a complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. A copy of the complaint was enclosed with the notification.

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to exercise its prosecutorial discretion and take no further action against the Respondents Jim King for Congress and Leo D. Dougherty, Treasurer. In its memorandum to the Commission, dated July 1, 2008, this office stated:

Summary: This matter should be dismissed because the clerical error in the summary of the 2008 April Quarterly Report has been corrected by the filing of an amended 2008 April Quarterly Report, and there is no evidence to support the allegation of inadequate itemization of contributions. OGC referred Jim King for Congress and Leo D. Dougherty, Treasurer (Respondents or the Committee) based on a complaint filed by Angie Langley. Complainant alleges that Respondents failed to adequately itemize contributions, and the 2008 April Quarterly Report has an obvious math error in the summary page. The complaint further alleges that it is not believable that Respondents received so many small contributions that did not require itemization.

The Committee acknowledges that there was a clerical error that resulted in a math discrepancy in its 2008 April Quarterly Report, but Respondents filed an amended report to correct the record. In addition, Respondents contend the allegation of a failure to adequately itemize contributions was not accurate, and affirm the accuracy of the number of small contributions not requiring itemization.

Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on October 29, 2008.

The FEC is obligated by federal regulations to make a finding to terminate its proceedings public, as well as the basis therefore. 11 C.F.R. § 111.20(b). In addition, the Commission will also place on the record copies of the complaint, correspondence exchanged between Respondent(s) and the Commission, and reports prepared for the Commission by this office to assist in its consideration of this matter. Accordingly, copies of documents relative to this matter will be forwarded shortly to the FEC's Public Information Office.

If you have any questions regarding this matter please be in touch. My telephone number is 202-694-1665.

Sincerely,

Lynn M. Fraser, Acting Director,
