NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT

This matter was initiated by the Federal Election Commission (Commission) pursuant to information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. Following review of the matter, and in an effort to promote compliance with the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, (FECA) and resolve this matter, the Commission entered into negotiations with Neil Reiff, Esq., representing the Democratic Party of Arkansas and Karen Garcia, in her official capacity as Treasurer (the Committee or Respondents). It is understood that this agreement will have no precedential value relative to any other matters coming before the Commission.

Negotiations between the Commission and Respondents addressed the issues raised in this referral. The parties agree to resolve the matter according to the following terms:

1. The Commission entered into this agreement as part of its responsibility for administering the FECA, and in an effort to promote compliance on the part of Respondents. The Commission's use of alternative dispute resolution procedures (ADR) is guided by "The Administrative Dispute Resolution Act of 1996," 5 U.S.C. § 572 and is an extension of 2 U.S.C. § 437g.
2. Respondents voluntarily enter into this agreement with the Commission.
3. The Reports Analysis Division (RAD) referred the Respondents for the cumulative nature of deficiencies on reports filed with the Commission in the 2006 election cycle which disclosed the Committee was not in substantial compliance with the FECA.
4. A political committee may be referred if, after an internal review of reports filed by the committee, the Commission determines the reports do not meet the threshold requirements for substantial compliance with the FECA. 2 U.S.C. § 437(g).
5. Respondents contend they terminated the services of the individual in charge of the Committee's financial activities and hired an experienced compliance specialist in 2007. The new compliance specialist oversaw a voluntary reconciliation of the Committee's 2006 election cycle financial records and the reports filed with the FEC. The compliance specialist certified the results of the reconciliation with the Commission.
