Re: Joyce Dickerson for United States Senate -SC

Sui Sponten Disclaimers Manager;

I am Councilwoman Joyce Dickerson a candidate for the United States Senate from South Carolina, and I am writing to notify the Commission that I recently discovered that I have inadvertently omitted the disclaimer on a few pieces of printed materials (i.e., hand walking cards, yards signs and bumper stickers). Immediately, I have made every attempt to recall all materials to address and correct the problem by printing disclaimer stickers to be placed on the materials.

I humbly and sincerely want to alert your department as soon as I discovered the problem and take personal responsibility. Please be assured that it was not intentional; I attempted to be fiscally responsible with my limited funds and used a less expensive printer who did not catch the error. The materials were created, and printed by me personally and not by an outside organization.

I am asking for leniency for omitting the disclaimer on the above mentioned materials. I am acknowledging the fact that I made the mistake in the initial phase of my candidacy and I am making every effort to correct the problem. I humbly ask the Commission to consider my request for leniency. Again, I am making every effort to correct the problem.

Sincerely,

Councilwoman Joyce Dickerson
