NEGOTIATED SETTLEMENT

This matter was initiated by the Federal Election Commission (Commission) pursuant to information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. Following review of the matter, and in an effort to promote compliance with the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, (FECA) and resolve this matter, the Commission entered into negotiations with Alexander Rabb, representing the New York State Committee of the Working Families Party and Dorothy Siegel, in her official capacity as Treasurer (the Committee or Respondents). It is understood that this agreement will have no precedential value relative to any other matters coming before the Commission.

Negotiations between the Commission and Respondents addressed the issues raised in this referral. The parties agree to resolve the matter according to the following terms:

1. The Commission entered into this agreement as part of its responsibility for administering the FECA, and in an effort to promote compliance on the part of Respondents. The Commission's use of alternative dispute resolution procedures (ADR) is guided by "The Administrative Dispute Resolution Act of 1996," 5 U.S.C. § 572 and is an extension of 52 U.S.C. § 30109 (formerly 2 U.S.C. § 437g).
2. Respondents voluntarily enter into this agreement with the Commission.
3. The Reports Analysis Division (RAD) referred the Respondents for the cumulative nature of deficiencies on reports filed with the Commission in the 2009-2010 election cycle which disclosed the Committee was not in substantial compliance with the FECA.
4. A political committee may be referred if, after an internal review of reports filed by the committee, the Commission determines the reports do not meet the threshold requirements for substantial compliance with the FECA. 52 U.S.C. § 30109 (formerly 2 U.S.C. § 437g).
5. Respondents acknowledge that since the 2009-2010 election cycle, they have taken significant steps to upgrade their finance and compliance processes, including replacing the entire finance and compliance staff. Respondents' compliance processes are now overseen by an experienced Director of Compliance (who has completed FEC training) under the supervision of an experienced Chief Finance Officer. The Committee also upgraded accounting procedures to make the financial processes easier to track and reconcile.

6. Respondents, in an effort to avoid errors in the future, agree to: (a) develop and certify implementation of a compliance operations manual which includes internal controls consistent with those described in the Commission's Internal Controls and Political Committees advisory document (2007) and the Best Practices for Committee Management (published in the April 2009 Record, available at www.fec.gov/pages/brochures/bestpractices.shtml), as well as a process to track receipt of, and response to, communications with the Commission within ninety (90) days of the effective date of this agreement; (b) amend relevant 2009-2010 reports to address any inadequate responses to requests for additional information from RAD within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this agreement; and (c) pay a civil penalty of $5,500 within thirty (30) days of the effective date of this agreement.
7. Respondents agree that all information provided to resolve this matter is true and accurate to the best of their knowledge and that they sign this agreement under penalty of perjury pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746.
8. The parties agree that if Respondents fail to comply with the terms of this settlement, the Commission may submit any unpaid civil penalty to the U.S. Treasury for collection or undertake civil action in the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia to secure compliance.
9. This agreement shall become effective on the date signed by all parties and approved by the Commission. Respondents shall comply with the terms of this agreement as set out in paragraph 6 above, and shall certify compliance with the above settlement terms in writing to the Alternative Dispute Resolution Office on or before the date each term becomes due.
10. This Negotiated Settlement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties on ADR 744 (RAD 14L-37), and resolves those issues identified in paragraph 3 above. No other statement, promise or agreement, either written or oral, made by either party, not included herein, shall be enforceable.
