Re: ADR 785 (RR 15L-12)
House Conservatives Fund and Lisa Lisker, Treasurer

Dear Mr. Willard:

The Federal Election Commission (FEC or Commission) referred a compliance issue to the FEC's Alternative Dispute Resolution Office (ADR Office) for processing. The referral by the Reports Analysis Division (RAD) was based on a review of reports filed by House Conservatives Fund which reflect a possible failure to comply with the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

The FEC established the ADR Program to provide an informal means for resolving matters that come before the Commission and to facilitate negotiations directly with House Conservatives Fund and Lisa Lisker, Treasurer (Respondents or the Committee). The ADR Program provides Respondents with an opportunity to negotiate settlement of a matter that is mutually agreeable. The negotiations occur prior to any Commission consideration of whether there is reason to believe a violation has occurred. If negotiations are successful, the resulting settlement would conclude the matter.

The Commission, in referring the matter to the ADR Office, determined that the case is eligible for processing in the ADR program. If Respondents decide to participate in the ADR Program, you must: 1) indicate in writing a willingness to have your case submitted for ADR processing; 2) agree to participate in the bilateral interest based negotiations; and 3) waive the statute of limitations while the matter is being processed under the FEC's ADR program.

The issues referred to the ADRO, and the focus of our subsequent negotiations are summarized as follows:

SUMMARY: RAD referred Respondents for for a failure to fully and accurately report all financial activity during the 2013-2014 election cycle. The Committee filed its 2014 Year End Report which included contributions totaling $30,614 that had been diverted by an outside vendor into a ghost account. The diversion of those funds resulted in the Committee to file inaccurate disclosure reports with the FEC.
