Donna,

Pursuant to our telephone conversation a few minutes ago and as requested, I am writing to clarify the $500 donation my wife (Moe) and I made to Danny Tarkanian's congressional campaign.

This was a personal contribution made jointly by my wife (30-years on New Year's Eve) and myself. The funds came directly from our personal joint account. We are long-time personal friends of Danny's; he played for me as an undergraduate when I was an assistant basketball coach at UNLV in the 1980's and my wife was a classmate of his at Bishop Gorman HS in Las Vegas.

I certainly do not understand Michael Roberson's concern about our $500 donation in his complaint, but feel free to call if you need any additional information.
