RE: MUR 7120

Dear Mr. Jordan and Ms. DeBeau,

Our firm represents Domingo Precision Components, Inc. ("DPC"). I reviewed your letter dated August 10, 2016 in connection with DPC's contribution to Pete for Congress ("Committee") and alleged violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 ("FECA"). Pursuant to FECA, I am writing this letter on behalf of DPC to demonstrate that no action should be taken against DPC.

To address your concerns, please find the enclosed letter from the Committee counsel to the Federal Election Commission, which, among other things, provides that the Committee is refunding all the potentially prohibited contributions received from corporations, including the contribution from DPC. Please note, DPC takes FECA obligations very seriously and is willing to take all necessary steps to prevent violation of such obligations, including, without limitation, accepting the refund from the Committee.

As a result of such letter and refund, we consider this matter closed, but please contact me should you have further questions or concerns. This letter is sent without prejudice to DPC's rights, defenses and claims, all of which are expressly reserved.

Very Truly Yours,

GOLAN & CHRISTIE LLP
