9 Dear Ms. Laham and Mr. Renaud:

10 We are responding to your advisory opinion request on behalf of Club for 11 Growth, Inc. (the "Club") concerning the application of the Federal Election Campaign 12 Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act"), and Commission regulations to its plans to 13 establish, administer, and pay the solicitation costs of a new independent expenditure-14 only political committee (the "Committee"). The Committee plans to make only 15 independent expenditures, and to solicit unlimited contributions solely from individuals 16 in the general public, including contributions given for specific independent expenditures.
17 The Committee does not intend to coordinate its communications or expenditures with 18 any candidate, candidate committee, or political party committee.

19 Based on the representations in the request and the analysis below, the 20 Commission concludes that the Club may establish and administer the Committee, and 21 the Committee may solicit and accept unlimited contributions from individuals in the 22 general public, including contributions given for specific independent expenditures.

23 Background

24 The facts presented in this advisory opinion are based on your letter received on 25 May 21, 2010.

26 The Club is an incorporated non-profit social welfare organization exempt from 27 Federal taxes under section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code. It has a separate

1 segregated fund (“SSF”), Club for Growth PAC (“Club PAC”). The Club plans to 2 establish, administer, and pay the solicitation costs of the Committee, which would be 3 organized as a tax-exempt organization under section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code
4 and would be incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia. The Club intends 5 to register the Committee with the Commission, and the Committee will file regular 6 reports and independent expenditure reports.¹ The President of the Club will serve as the 7 Treasurer of the Committee.²

8 The Committee intends to make only independent expenditures, which will 9 include all the disclaimers and notices required by the Act and Commission regulations.
10 It plans to solicit contributions solely from individuals that may be unlimited in amount 11 and solicited or given for specific independent expenditures. The Club states that such 12 solicitations will also include all disclaimers and notices required by the Act and 13 Commission regulations. The costs of the solicitations would be paid by the Club if 14 permissible, or otherwise would be paid by the Committee.

15 The Committee will not accept contributions from any political committee 16 (including any separate segregated fund, authorized committee, or political party 17 committee), candidate, labor organization, foreign national, government contractor, or 18 corporation, except that the Club will pay for some or all of the Committee’s 19 establishment, administrative, and solicitation costs.

¹ The Commission notes that this advisory opinion implicates issues that will be the subject of forthcoming rulemakings in light of the Citizens United, EMILY’s List, and SpeechNow decisions. The results of that rulemaking may require the Commission to update its registration and reporting forms to facilitate public disclosure. In the meantime, the Committee may include a letter with its Form 1 Statement of Organization clarifying that it intends to accept unlimited contributions for the purpose of making independent expenditures. See Attachment A. Electronic filers may include such a letter as a Form 99.

² Currently, the President of the Club serves as Treasurer of Club PAC. Statement of Organization, Club for Growth PAC (Apr. 14, 2009), available at: www.fec.gov (last visited Jul. 16, 2010).

1 The Club states that the Committee will not, itself, make any contributions or 2 transfer any funds to any political committee if the amount of a contribution to the 3 recipient committee is governed by the Act, nor will the Committee make any 4 coordinated communications or coordinate any expenditures with any candidate, 5 authorized committee, political party committee, or agent of such persons. Finally, the 6 Committee will not accept contributions from Club PAC, nor will it make any 7 contributions or transfer any funds to Club PAC.

- 21 1. If the Club pays the Committee's establishment, administrative, and solicitation
22 expenses, may the Committee solicit and accept contributions from the general 23 public?
24

25 Yes, based on the representations in the request and consistent with the analysis 26 below, the Committee may solicit and accept contributions from the general public.

27 The United States Supreme Court recently held that corporations may make 28 unlimited independent expenditures using corporate treasury funds. Citizens United v.
29 FEC, 558 U.S. ___, 130 S. Ct. 876 (2010).³ In addition, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the

³ Even before Citizens United, incorporated membership organizations like the Club could spend unlimited amounts from their general treasury on the administrative and overhead costs associated with a separate

1 District of Columbia Circuit recently held that “the contribution limits of 2 U.S.C.
2 441a(a)(1)(C) and 441a(a)(3) are unconstitutional as applied to individuals’ contributions
3 to SpeechNow,” an independent expenditure group.⁴ SpeechNow v. FEC, 599 F.3d 686, 4 689 (D.C. Cir. 2010); see also EMILY’s List v. FEC, 581 F. 3d 1, 10 (D.C. Cir. 2009) (“.
5 . individual citizens may spend money without limit (apart from the limit on their own 6 contributions to candidates or parties) in support of the election of particular 7 candidates”). The decision in SpeechNow was predicated on the Supreme Court’s 8 holding in Citizens United “that independent expenditures, including those made by 9 corporations, do not give rise to corruption or the appearance of corruption.” Citizens
10 United, 130 S. Ct. at 909; see SpeechNow, 599 F.3d at 693.

11 The court made clear, though, that it was “only decid[ing] these questions as 12 applied to contributions to SpeechNow, an independent expenditure-only group.” 13 SpeechNow, 599 F.3d at 696. Its holding did not affect limits on direct contributions to 14 candidates or political party committees, including in-kind contributions in the form of 15 coordinated communications” Id. In addition, the court held that the “reporting
16 requirements of 2 U.S.C. 432, 433, and 434(a) and the organizational requirements of 2 17 U.S.C. 431(4) and 431(8) can constitutionally be applied to SpeechNow.” Id. at 689.

18 Relying on these two cases, the Club asks whether it may solicit and accept 19 contributions from the general public if the Club pays the Committee’s establishment, segregated fund, even if that SSF made independent expenditures. See 2 U.S.C. § 441b(b)(2)(C) (exempting corporate payment of administrative and fundraising costs from definitions of contribution and expenditure); 11 CFR114.1(a)(2)(iii) (same).

⁴ On May 27, 2010, in accordance with the circuit court’s order, the United States District Court of the District of Columbia entered an order that the Act’s contribution limits (2 U.S.C. 441a(a)(1)(C) and 441a(a)(3)) and implementing regulations could not be constitutionally applied against SpeechNow or the individuals who contribute to it.

1 administrative and solicitation expenses. In Citizens United, the Supreme Court held 2 that independent corporate political spending cannot be limited. Therefore, a corporation 3 may establish and administer a political committee that makes only independent 4 expenditures. Moreover, because the Committee, like SpeechNow, intends to make only 5 independent expenditures, there is no basis to impose contribution limits on the 6 Committee.⁵

7 As noted above, the President of the Club, who currently serves as Club PAC's 8 Treasurer, will also serve as the Treasurer of the Committee. Because a corporation, 9 through its restricted class events⁶ or its SSF, may lawfully coordinate with Federal 10 candidates and party committees under certain circumstances, the overlap of duties could 11 potentially compromise the independence of communications made by the Committee.
12 However, the Club represents that the Committee will not engage in coordinated activity, 13 and will comply with the requirements of 11 CFR 109.21(d).⁷ Specifically, the 14 Commission assumes that candidates or authorized committees will not request or 15 suggest communications to agents of the Committee, nor will candidates or their agents 16 assent to communications suggested by the Committee or any of its agents. See 11 CFR 17 109.21(d)(1). Candidates or authorized committees will not be materially involved in 18 communications made by the Committee and will not substantially discuss 19 communications or the candidate's plans, projects, activities, or needs with the ⁵ See SpeechNow, 599 F.3d at 693 (the court's holding was predicated on the "independence of independent expenditures").

⁶ See 11 CFR 114.2(c).

⁷ The request states that the Committee "will not, per the regulations of the FEC or applicable Federal law, coordinate any communications or other expenditure with any candidate, candidate committee, political party committee, or their agents." Request at 2. Moreover, the Committee will not accept contributions from Club PAC, nor will it make any contributions or transfer any funds to Club PAC. Id.

1 Committee or its agents. See 11 CFR 109.21(d)(2) - (3). In sum, the Commission 2 assumes that the President will manage the Corporation and his responsibilities as 3 Treasurer of the Committee and Club PAC without causing the Committee to engage in 4 coordinated activities.⁸ Therefore, based on the representations in the request and the 5 analysis above, the Committee may solicit and accept unlimited contributions from the 6 general public even if the Club pays the Committee's establishment, administrative and 7 solicitation expenses.

8 2. If the Club pays the Committee's establishment, administrative, and solicitation 9 expenses, may the Committee solicit and accept funds earmarked for specific 10 independent expenditures?

11 12 Yes, consistent with the analysis in Question 1, the Committee may solicit and 13 accept funds earmarked for specific independent expenditures.

14 The Commission's current regulation at 11 CFR 110.1(h) limits a person that has 15 already contributed to a specific candidate from also contributing to an unauthorized 16 political committee if the contributor "give[s] with the knowledge that a substantial 17 portion will be contributed to, or expended on behalf of, that candidate for the same 18 election." Section 110.1(h) "governs the circumstances under which contributions to a 19 candidate and his or her authorized campaign committee(s) must be aggregated with 20 contributions to other political committees for the purposes of the contribution limits of § 21 110.1." Explanation and Justification, Contribution and Expenditure Limitations and

⁸ Although the firewall provided for in the Commission's regulations is not mandatory, establishing such effective prophylactic measures would be one sufficient way to address potential concerns with respect to the conduct standards of the Commission's coordination rule. See 11 CFR 109.21(h) (Safe harbor for establishment and use of a firewall); see also MUR 5506 (EMILY's List), First General Counsel's Report at 5-8 (concluding that there was no reason to believe that the organization made excessive contributions in the form of coordinated communications, based in large part on the organization's establishment of "firewall" measures).

1 Prohibitions, 52 F R 760, 765 (Jan. 9, 1987). In other words, the Commission's 2 earmarking regulation is designed to prevent the circumvention of contribution limits.

3 However, the Club has represented that the Committee will not, itself, make any 4 contributions or transfer any funds to any political committee if the amount of a 5 contribution to the recipient committee is governed by the Act, nor will the Committee 6 make any coordinated communications or coordinate any expenditures with any 7 candidate, authorized committee, political party committee, or agent of such persons.

8 Thus, because there is no possibility of circumvention of any contribution limit, section 9 110.1(h) and its rationale do not apply to the Committee's solicitations or any 10 contributions it receives that are earmarked for specific independent expenditures.

11 3. Do the answers to Questions 1 or 2 change if the Committee pays its own 12 establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses?

13
14 No, the answers to Questions 1 and 2 do not change if the Committee pays its 15 own establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses.

16 The Club's proposed payment of the Committee's establishment, administrative, 17 and solicitation expenses are not exempt from the definition of "contribution" or 18 "expenditure" because the Committee is not an SSF.⁹ Therefore, any establishment, 19 administrative, or solicitation expenses paid by the Club must be reported by the 20 Committee as contributions from the Club.¹⁰ Alternatively, the proposed political 21 committee may pay its own establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses.

⁹ Under the Act and Commission regulations, a corporation may use its general treasury funds to pay the costs of establishing, administering, or soliciting contributions to its SSF, without a resultant contribution or expenditure. See 2 U.S.C. 441b(b)(2)(C); see also 2 U.S.C. 431(8)(B)(vi).

¹⁰ See 2 U.S.C. 431(8), 434(b); 11 CFR 104.3(a).

1 The Commission expresses no opinion regarding the possible applicability of any 2 Federal or State tax laws or other laws to the matters presented in your request, as those 3 issues are outside its jurisdiction.

4 This response constitutes an advisory opinion concerning the application of the 5 Act and Commission regulations to the specific transaction or activity set forth in your 6 request. See 2 U.S.C. 437f. The Commission emphasizes that, if there is a change in any 7 of the facts or assumptions presented, and such facts or assumptions are material to a 8 conclusion presented in this advisory opinion, then the requestor may not rely on that 9 conclusion as support for its proposed activity. Any person involved in any specific 10 transaction or activity which is indistinguishable in all its material aspects from the 11 transaction or activity with respect to which this advisory opinion is rendered may rely on 12 this advisory opinion. See 2 U.S.C. 437f(c)(1)(B). Please note that the analysis or 13 conclusions in this advisory opinion may be affected by subsequent developments in the 14 law including, but not limited to, statutes, regulations, advisory opinions, and case law.

Re: Form 1, Statement of Organization—Unlimited Contributions

To Whom It May Concern:

This committee intends to make independent expenditures, and consistent with the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit decision in SpeechNow v. FEC, it therefore intends to raise funds in unlimited amounts. This committee will not use those funds to make contributions, whether direct, in-kind, or via coordinated communications, to federal candidates or committees.

9 Dear Ms. Laham and Mr. Renaud:

10 We are responding to your advisory opinion request on behalf of Club for 11 Growth, an incorporated non-profit social welfare organization exempt from Federal 12 taxes under section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code (the "Corporation"), 13 concerning the application of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended 14 (the "Act"), and Commission regulations to the Corporation's plans to establish, 15 administer, and financially support a new political committee (the "Committee"). The 16 Corporation has represented that it plans (a) for the Committee to make only independent 17 expenditures and (b) for the Committee to solicit and accept contributions only from 18 individuals in the general public, including contributions given for specific independent 19 expenditures.¹

20 The principal rationale underlying your request for an advisory opinion is that 21 "the campaign finance regime administered by the FEC has changed" as a result of the 22 recent decision by the Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit in 23 SpeechNow.org v. FEC, 599 F.3d 686 (D.C. Cir. 2010) (en banc) ("SpeechNow").

24 In SpeechNow, the court held that the Act's contribution limits were 25 unconstitutional as applied to funds from individuals received by SpeechNow.org, a

¹ Under the Act, an "independent expenditure" is an expenditure by a person that expressly advocates the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate and that is not made in concert or cooperation with or at the request or suggestion of the candidate, the candidate's authorized political committee, a political party committee or the agents of any of the foregoing. 2 U.S.C. § 431(17).

1 political committee that (1) only makes independent expenditures; (2) is not connected to 2 any corporation; and (3) is not affiliated with any other political committee. In 3 SpeechNow, the court granted SpeechNow.org’s as-applied challenge to the Act’s 4 contribution limits precisely because SpeechNow.org only makes independent 5 expenditures and therefore the Act’s contribution limits advanced no “anti-corruption 6 interest.” The holding in the SpeechNow decision was expressly limited to the “as-7 applied” challenge brought before the court by an entity that (a) is not connected to any 8 corporation and (b) operates wholly independently of all other political committees, and 9 the court’s decision does not have force beyond the facts presented by SpeechNow.org to 10 the court.²

11 The Committee, as proposed by the Corporation, would be materially 12 distinguishable from SpeechNow.org because (a) the Committee would be connected to 13 the Corporation³ and (b) the Committee would be affiliated with Club for Growth PAC, 14 the Corporation’s already existing separate segregated fund (“SSF”) that itself makes 15 contributions to Federal candidates. Nevertheless, the Corporation is asking the 16 Commission to issue an advisory opinion that would apply the holding in SpeechNow to 17 the Committee and its activities.

18 Because of its connections to the Corporation and to Club for Growth PAC, and 19 because the Corporation plans to have its President, who already currently serves as ² “We should be clear . . . that we only decide these questions [regarding the constitutionality of the Act] as applied to contributions to SpeechNow, an independent expenditure-only group.” SpeechNow, 599 F.3d at 696; “In an as-applied challenge, there is a narrow focus on the particular plaintiff’s behavior and whether the statute is constitutional as applied to her.” Roulette v. City of Seattle, 97 F.3d 300 (9th Cir. 1996) (citing Broadrick v. Oklahoma, 413 U.S. 601, 612, 93 S.Ct. 2908 (1973)).

³ In fact, the Corporation represent that the President of the Corporation will also serve as the Committee’s Treasurer. See Advisory Opinion Request at 2.

1 Treasurer of the Club for Growth PAC,⁴ also serve as Treasurer of the proposed 2 Committee, the Committee and its activities would be materially distinguishable from 3 SpeechNow.org precisely in a way that would not insulate the Committee and its 4 activities from the possibility of corruption, or the appearance of corruption, in the same 5 way that SpeechNow.org was insulated from these concerns.

6 Accordingly, the Commission concludes that the Corporation's proposal would 7 require the Commission to broaden the reach of the DC Circuit Court's holding in 8 SpeechNow to the Committee and therefore would require modification of the 9 applicability of the Commission's regulations, which can only be properly achieved 10 though a notice-and-comment rulemaking conducted pursuant to the requirements of the 11 Administrative Procedure Act ("APA"), 5 U.S.C. 551 *et seq.*⁵ Specifically, the APA 12 requires that the Commission publish a Notice of Proposed Rulemaking in the Federal 13 Register and that "interested persons" be afforded "an opportunity to participate in the 14 rulemaking through submission of written data, views, or arguments" in response to such 15 a Notice. 5 U.S.C. 553(b)-(c).

16 The Commission's advisory opinion process is one in which the Commission 17 interprets existing law and is limited to requests "concerning the application of th[e] Act .
18 . . or a rule or regulation prescribed by the Commission" and therefore cannot be used to ⁵ "The APA's general rulemaking section, 5 U.S.C. § 553, sets down certain procedural requirements with which agencies must comply in promulgating legislative rules: there must be publication of a notice of proposed rulemaking; opportunity for public comment on the proposal; and publication of a final rule accompanied by a statement of the rule's basis and purpose." *Utility Solid Waste Group v. 5 its employees except in accordance with the provisions of this section.").

6 Although the Commission concludes that, after considering all the facts, the better 7 course of action at this time is to not broaden the reach of the DC Circuit Court's holding 8 in SpeechNow to the Committee through the advisory opinion process, these issues can, 9 and will be, appropriately considered in the Commission's upcoming rulemaking 10 proceedings.⁷ Additionally, the Corporation may use the Commission's procedures for 11 filing a petition for rulemaking to seek modifications of the Commission's regulations.
12 See 11 CFR 200.2.

13 Background

14 The facts presented in this advisory opinion are based on your letter received on 15 May 21, 2010.

16 As indicated above, the Corporation is an incorporated non-profit social welfare 17 organization exempt from Federal taxes under section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue 18 Code. The Corporation has already established, and currently supports and controls an 19 SSF, Club for Growth PAC, which makes contributions to Federal candidates, as well as ⁶ Although 2 U.S.C. 438(d) was invalidated as a result of the Supreme Court's decision in INS v. Chadha, 462 U.S. 919 (1983), the subsequently enacted Congressional Review Act, 5 U.S.C. 801 et seq., requires the Commission to submit similar reports to Congress prior to promulgating any new or revised regulations.

⁷ The Commission has posted a proposed rulemaking schedule, which contemplates completion of the Commission's EMILY's List and SpeechNow rulemakings by the end of the calendar year (available at <http://www.fec.gov/agenda/2010/mtgdoc1020.pdf>).

1 independent expenditures.⁸ The Corporation now plans to establish, administer, and 2 financially support the proposed Committee, a second “connected” political committee, 3 which would be organized as a tax-exempt organization under section 527 of the Internal 4 Revenue Code and would be incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia.
5 The President of the Corporation currently serves as the Treasurer of Club for Growth 6 PAC and would also serve as the Treasurer of the Committee.⁹ The Corporation intends 7 to have the Committee register with the Commission, and the Corporation represents that 8 the Committee will file regular reports and independent expenditure reports as required 9 by law.

10 Although Club for Growth PAC currently makes contributions to Federal 11 candidates, the Corporation represents that the Committee will only make independent 12 expenditures, which will include all the disclaimers and notices required by the Act and 13 Commission regulations. The Corporation indicates that it plans for the Committee to 14 solicit and accept contributions only from individuals, which may be unlimited in 15 amount, and which may be solicited or given for specific independent expenditures.
16 Such solicitations will also include all disclaimers and notices required by the Act and 17 Commission regulations. The costs of the solicitations would be paid by the Corporation 18 if permissible, or otherwise would be paid by the Committee.

19 The Corporation represents that the Committee will not accept contributions from 20 any political committee (including Club for Growth PAC or any other SSF, authorized 21 committee, or political party committee), candidate, labor organization, foreign national,

FEC Disclosure Database at www.fec.gov/finance/disclosure/imaging_info.shtml.

⁹ See notes 3-4, above,

1 government contractor, or corporation, except that the Corporation will pay for some or 2 all of the Committee's establishment, administrative, and solicitation costs.

3 The Committee will not, itself, make any contributions or transfer any funds to 4 any political committee if the amount of a contribution to the recipient committee is 5 governed by the Act, nor will the Committee make any coordinated communications or 6 coordinate any expenditures with any candidate, authorized committee, political party 7 committee, or agent of such persons.

8 Legal Background

9 On March 26, 2010, the United States Court of Appeals for the District of 10 Columbia Circuit issued its opinion in SpeechNow. Id. As discussed above, the court 11 held that the Act's contribution limits were unconstitutional as applied to contributions 12 from individuals given to, and received by, SpeechNow.org, a nonconnected political 13 committee making only independent expenditures, because the Act's contribution limits, 14 as applied to SpeechNow.org, advanced no "anti-corruption interest."¹⁰ Id. at 696; see 15 also Citizens United v. FEC, 130 S. Ct. 876, 909 (2010) (finding that "independent 16 expenditures . . . do not give rise to corruption or the appearance of corruption"). The 17 court made clear, however, that it was "only decid[ing] these questions as applied to 18 SpeechNow, an independent expenditure-only group."¹¹ SpeechNow, 599 F.3d at 696.

¹⁰ The court also upheld the Act's "organizational and reporting requirements" as applied to SpeechNow.org. Upon meeting the applicable thresholds, the group would be required to register with the Commission as a political committee and abide by the disclosure and reporting requirements applicable to political committees. SpeechNow, 599 F.3d at 696-98.

¹¹ On May 27, 2010, in compliance with the D.C. Circuit's opinion, the United States District Court of the District of Columbia issued an order that the Act's contribution limits (2 U.S.C. 441a(a)(1)(C) and 441a(a)(3)) and implementing regulations could not be constitutionally applied against SpeechNow.org or those who contribute to it. On June 11, 2010, the Commission filed a Motion to Alter or Amend the Judgment to reflect that the organizational, administrative, and reporting provisions of the Act are constitutional as applied to the plaintiffs. The Commission's motion remains pending. These, as well as

1 Any issues regarding contributions to candidates, for example, were not before the court 2 and therefore were not reached in the SpeechNow opinion. See id. Likewise, the 3 SpeechNow opinion did not reach the issue of contributions to independent expenditure-4 only groups made by persons other than individuals. See id.

5 Unlike the proposed Committee, SpeechNow.org has no “connected” corporation.
6 Memorandum and Findings in SpeechNow.org v. FEC, Civ. No. 08-0248 (2009 WL 7 3101036) (D.D.C. Sept. 28, 2009) at 20 (“If SpeechNow were deemed to be a political 8 committee, it would be classified as a ‘non-connected’ committee,” citing Scott Dep. at 9 17:14-18:2) (hereinafter “Findings”). Under its bylaws, SpeechNow.org could accept 10 donations solely from individuals and could not “accept, directly or indirectly, any 11 donations or anything of value from business corporations, labor organizations, national 13 committees. Id. at 5 (emphasis added). Its bylaws further require SpeechNow.org to 14 operate wholly independently of all political committees. Id. at 6. Accordingly, 15 SpeechNow.org was required to pay its establishment, administrative, and solicitation

17 These Findings are in sharp contrast to the representations made by the 18 Corporation regarding the planned Committee. Specifically, the planned Committee will 19 (a) be “connected” to the Corporation and (b) will be affiliated with Club for Growth 20 PAC, a political committee established, supported and controlled by the Corporation that 21 makes contributions directly to candidates.

other documents related to the SpeechNow litigation, are available at www.fec.gov/law/litigation/speechnow.shtml. The Solicitor General is not petitioning the Supreme Court to review the court’s decision, but SpeechNow.org has requested and received an extension of time to file a Petition for a Writ of Certiorari on the questions addressing registration, disclosure, and reporting.

11 Legal Analysis and Conclusions

12 As indicated above, SpeechNow.org was organized (indeed, is required by its own 13 bylaws) to operate wholly independently of any candidate or other political committees, 14 including political party committees. Findings at 6. Its operations are funded solely by 15 contributions from individuals; it could not – per its bylaws – accept “directly or 16 indirectly, any donation or anything of value” from, among others, corporations. Id. at 5.
17 Further, SpeechNow.org is prohibited under its bylaws from making “contributions or 18 donations of any kind directly or indirectly to any FEC-regulated candidate or political 19 committee” Id. at 6.

20 The Committee, unlike SpeechNow.org, will not operate independently. Instead, 21 the Corporation – serving as the Committee’s connected organization – will establish and 22 administer the Committee, see 11 CFR 100.6(a), and the Committee will receive financial 23 support (payment of its establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses) from the 24 Corporation – thereby providing a significant corporate subsidy to the Committee.

25 The Corporation, like any connected organization, will enjoy the inherent right to 26 control the Committee. See 11 CFR 114.5(d); see also Pipefitters Local Union No. 562 v.
27 U.S., 407 U.S. 385, 426 (1972) (“In these circumstances, it is difficult to conceive how a

1 valid political fund can be meaningfully ‘separate’ from the sponsoring union in any way
2 other than ‘segregated.’”), Bread Political Action Committee v. Federal Election
3 Commission, 635 F.2d 621, 624, n.3 (7th Cir. 1980) (en banc), rev’d on jurisdictional 4 grounds, 455 U.S. 577 (1982) (stating that “separate segregated funds are simply political 5 arms of the parent organizations”). Moreover, the Committee will be affiliated with the 6 Corporation’s SSF, Club for Growth PAC, which regularly makes contributions to 7 Federal candidates as well as contributions to other political committees, and may receive 8 contributions from persons other than individuals.¹²

9 SpeechNow.org was established to aggregate the contributions of individuals for 10 the purpose of making independent expenditures independently. The Committee, by 11 contrast, proposes engaging in this activity, with the aid of a corporate subsidy, while 12 controlled by a corporation, that also establishes, administers, and financially supports a 13 separate, contribution-making political committee.

14 The Commission concludes that the Committee, as well as its activities, are 15 materially different from SpeechNow.org and its activities and it would not be 16 appropriate for the Commission to broaden the reach of the jurisdiction of the SpeechNow 17 court, and the scope of its decision, especially when the court itself made clear that its 18 holding was limited to the as-applied challenge before it.

19 Accordingly, the Commission concludes that it will not issue an advisory opinion 20 broadening the reach of the holding in SpeechNow to the Committee and its proposed ¹² According to Commission regulations, “[a]ll committees (including a separate segregated fund . . .) established, maintained or controlled by the same corporation . . . are affiliated.”. 11 CFR 100.5(g)(2); see also 11 CFR 102.6(a) (“Transfers of funds may be made without limit on amount between affiliated committees . . .”).

1 activities and therefore the answers that follow are based on the Act and Commission
2 regulations as they currently exist. See 2 U.S.C. 437f(b). However, as indicated above, 3 these issues can, and will, be appropriately considered in the Commission's upcoming 4 rulemakings.

5 1. May the Committee solicit and accept donations from the general public if the 6 Corporation pays the costs of the solicitations?

8 The Commission concludes that the Corporation's proposal to fund the 9 Committee's solicitations is prohibited by the Act and Commission regulations. As set 10 forth in the request, the Corporation will serve as the Committee's connected 11 organization thereby making it an SSF of the Corporation. See 2 U.S.C. 431(7), 11 CFR 12 100.6. As an SSF, the Committee may solicit voluntary contributions at any time only 13 from its "restricted class," which consists of the connected corporation's executive and 14 administrative personnel, its stockholders, and the families of such persons. 2 U.S.C.
15 441b(b)(4)(A)(i), 11 CFR 114.1(c) and 114.5(g)(1); see also 2 U.S.C. 441b(b)(4)(B), 11
16 CFR 114.6 (prescribing conditions under which other employees may be solicited twice 17 yearly in writing).

18 Therefore the Commission concludes that neither the Corporation nor the 19 Committee – as the Corporation's SSF – may solicit contributions for its independent 20 expenditures (or any other purpose) from the general public.

21 2. May the Committee solicit and accept funds for specific independent expenditures
22 if the Corporation pays the costs of the solicitations?

24 Section 110.1(h) of the Commission regulations states that a person may 25 contribute both to a candidate (or his or her authorized committee) and a political 26 committee which has supported or anticipates supporting that same candidate only if

1 (among other things) that person “does not give with the knowledge that a substantial
2 portion will be contributed to, or expended on behalf of, that candidate for the same 3 election.” 11 CFR 110.1(h). See also Advisory Opinion 1984-02 (Gramm).

4 Accordingly, if the Committee solicits contributions to fund specific independent 5 expenditures that benefit clearly identified Federal candidates, the amount of any 6 contribution would be attributable to a contributor's maximum allowable contribution to 7 that same candidate. See 11 CFR 110.1(h).

8 For the reasons set forth above, the Commission concludes that a rulemaking 9 proceeding, properly conducted pursuant to the APA,¹³ is required in order to broaden the 10 reach of the holding in SpeechNow to the Corporation's plans to have the Committee 11 accept contributions for specific independent expenditures that expressly advocate the 12 election or defeat of a clearly identified Federal candidate without regard for a 13 contributor's previous contributions to that same Federal candidate.

14 3. Do the answers to Questions 1 or 2 change if the proposed political committee 15 pays its own establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses?
16

17 No. Even if the Corporation does not use its own treasury funds to finance the 18 Committee's establishment, administrative, and solicitation expenses, the Corporation 19 would still be the Committee's connected organization and, thus, would still control the 20 Committee. Accordingly, the Commission concludes that even if the Corporation does 21 not finance the Committee's expenses, as a connected organization, the Committee would 22 still be materially different from SpeechNow.org and the Commission will not broaden 23 the reach of the holding in SpeechNow to the Committee in an advisory opinion.

¹³ See note 5, above.

1 This response constitutes an advisory opinion concerning the application of the 2 Act and Commission regulations to the specific transaction or activity set forth in your 3 request. See 2 U.S.C. 437f. The Commission emphasizes that, if there is a change in any 4 of the facts or assumptions presented, and such facts or assumptions are material to a 5 conclusion presented in this advisory opinion, then the requestor may not rely on that 6 conclusion as support for its proposed activity. Any person involved in any specific 7 transaction or activity which is indistinguishable in all its material aspects from the 8 transaction or activity with respect to which this advisory opinion is rendered may rely on 9 this advisory opinion. See 2 U.S.C. 437f(c)(1)(B). Please note that the analysis or 10 conclusions in this advisory opinion may be affected by subsequent developments in the 11 law including, but not limited to, statutes, regulations, advisory opinions, and case law.
