Re: Advisory Opinion Request 2010-25

Dear Mr. Goodman:

This letter responds to your letters dated September 9 and 20, 2010, as supplemented by your letters dated October 13 and November 1, 2010, and your email dated September 27, 2010, requesting an advisory opinion on behalf of RG Entertainment, Ltd., Star Parker, Star Parker for Congress, Motive Entertainment, Inc., engage4 LLC, and InService America, Inc. The purpose of this letter is to inform you that the Commission has concluded its consideration of your advisory opinion request without issuing an advisory opinion.

On October 1, 2010, the Commission released for public comment Agenda Document No. 10-63, which contained two alternative drafts of an advisory opinion in response to your request. On October 6, 2010, the Commission released Agenda Document Nos. 10-63-A and 10-63-B, which contained revised versions of the two alternative drafts.

At its Open Meeting of October 7, 2010, the Commission considered but did not approve any of the draft advisory opinions. Under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, the affirmative vote of four members of the Commission is required for the Commission to render an advisory opinion. See 2 U.S.C. 437c(c) and 437d(a)(7); see also 11 CFR 112.4(a). The Commission voted 3-3 on Agenda Document No. 10-63-A, and 3-3 on Agenda Document 10-63-B. Thus, the Commission did not approve either draft by the required affirmative vote of four members.

Agenda Document Nos. 10-63, 10-63-A, and 10-63-B are enclosed for your convenience. None of these documents should be considered an advisory opinion by the
