Dear Ms. Hemsley,

I hope this e-mail finds you well. Stefan and I were able to confer with our client over the weekend and can now provide the following responses to your questions:

What proportion (if any) of RYAM's business income is derived from Rayonier?

RYAM has no ongoing ordinary course business with Rayonier and, therefore, RYAM has no business-related revenue generated from sales to Rayonier.

What proportion (if any) of Rayonier's business income is derived from RYAM?

Rayonier has no ongoing ordinary course business with RYAM and, therefore, Rayonier has no business-related revenue generated from sales to RYAM.

Thanks in advance for your time and assistance. Should you have any follow-up inquiries, please do not hesitate to reach out to us.

Have a good week,
Ben

Dear Messrs. Passantino and Keane,

We have been asked to convey the following questions to you in conjunction with the Commission's consideration of Advisory Opinion Request 2014-18 (RYAM) at its open meeting on December 11, 2014.

What proportion (if any) of RYAM's business income is derived from Rayonier?

What proportion (if any) of Rayonier's business income is derived from RYAM?

We would appreciate your response by email. Your response may be considered part of your advisory opinion request; if so, it will be posted as such on the Commission's website.
