

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

August 2, 2018

CERTIFIED MAIL
RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

ADVISORY OPINION 2018-10

David Bateman
United Utah Party Candidate Committee
1172 W 700 N, Suite 300
Lindon, UT 84042

Dear Mr. Bateman:

We are responding to your request on behalf of the United Utah Party Candidate Committee (“UUP”) regarding its status as a state committee of a political party under the Federal Election Campaign Act, 52 U.S.C. §§ 30101-45 (the “Act”), and Commission regulations. The Commission concludes that UUP qualifies as a state committee of a political party.

Background

The facts presented in this advisory opinion are based on your letter received June 22, 2018 and public disclosure reports filed with the Commission.

Utah law has recognized UUP as a “Qualified Political Party” since 2017. See Advisory Opinion Request (“AOR”) at AOR001, AOR004. UUP nominated and placed a federal candidate on the ballot under its name in the 2017 special election for the 3rd Congressional District of Utah. See AOR001. The candidate, Jim Bennett, received and spent over $5,000 according to disclosure reports filed with the Commission.<sup>1</sup> UUP also has endorsed several candidates running for congressional, state, and county offices in the current election cycle. See AOR001. UUP is not affiliated with a national party. Id.

---

<sup>1</sup> Jim Bennett for Congress, October Quarterly Report, FEC Form 3 at 2 (Oct. 15, 2017), <http://docquery.fec.gov/pdf/502/201710159075676502/201710159075676502.pdf>.

UUP's Constitution outlines the party structure by providing procedures for the election of officers and their duties, UUP Const. arts. III-IV at AOR020-026; holding an annual party convention and publishing an official party platform, UUP Const. art. III at AOR020-024; and establishing an executive committee responsible for governing the direction of the party, UUP Const. art. III at AOR020-024. The executive committee consists of a chairperson, vice chairperson, treasurer, and secretary. UUP Const. art. III at AOR020. The executive committee determines the rules of its own proceedings, sets policy for the orderly conduct of party business, authorizes expenditures in the interests of the party, adopts resolutions and takes positions on issues of concern, and determines membership classification. Id. at AOR021. At the local level, UUP is organized by county, with each county unit governed by its own chairperson, vice chairperson, secretary, and treasurer. UUP Const. art. IV at AOR025. UUP's Constitution sets forth responsibilities for each county organization to develop the "fullest membership in the county, hold regularly scheduled meetings, encourage candidates for elective office, to form and maintain an effective campaign organization, and to promote the general interests of the party." UUP Const. art. IV at AOR025-026. UUP's Bylaws provide procedures for nominating candidates for public office and for conducting state conventions. UUP Bylaws, art. IV at AOR032-034.

Question Presented

Does UUP qualify as a state committee of a political party under the Act and Commission regulations?

Legal Analysis and Conclusion

Yes, UUP qualifies as a state committee of a political party under the Act and Commission regulations.

A "state committee" is an organization that, "by virtue of the bylaws of a political party . . . is part of the official party structure and is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the political party at the [s]tate level, . . . as determined by the Commission." 11 C.F.R. § 100.14(a); 52 U.S.C. § 30101(15). A "political party" is an "association, committee, or organization that nominates a candidate for election to any [f]ederal office whose name appears on the election ballot as the candidate of such association, committee, or organization." 52 U.S.C. § 30101(16); 11 C.F.R. § 100.15.

To qualify as a state committee of a political party, a state party organization not affiliated with a national political party must (1) itself qualify as a "political party"; (2) possess an official structure; and (3) be responsible for the day-to-day operation of a party at the state level. See, e.g., Advisory Opinion 2016-24 (Independence Party of Minnesota); Advisory Opinion 2012-04 (Justice Party of Mississippi); Advisory Opinion 2008-12 (Independent Party of Oregon); Advisory Opinion 2007-23 (Independence Party of New York).

(1) Qualification as a Political Party

To qualify as a political party, UUP must nominate at least one candidate for federal office whose name appears on the ballot as the candidate of the UUP. See 52 U.S.C. § 30101(16); 11 C.F.R. § 100.15. An individual is a candidate if the individual or his or her authorized committee has received contributions aggregating in excess of $5,000 or made expenditures aggregating in excess of $5,000. See 52 U.S.C. § 30101(2); 11 C.F.R. § 100.3(a)(1).

UUP is recognized under Utah law as a “Qualified Political Party” and has placed one individual seeking federal office on a special election ballot in Utah’s 3rd congressional district. AOR001. That individual, Jim Bennett, disclosed receiving more than $5,000 in contributions and thus was a candidate under the Act.

See 52 U.S.C. § 30101(2); 11 C.F.R. § 100.3(a). Because it placed at least one federal candidate on the ballot, UUP qualifies as a political party under the Act and Commission regulations.

(2) Official Party Structure

The Commission has long explained that a state party organization not affiliated with a national political party must possess an official party structure to obtain state party committee status. See, e.g., Advisory Opinion 2016-24 (Independence Party of Minnesota); Advisory Opinion 2012-04 (Justice Party of Mississippi); Advisory Opinion 2008-12 (Independent Party of Oregon); Advisory Opinion 2000-21 (State Committee of the New York State Conservative Party); Advisory Opinion 2000-14 (New York State Committee of the Working Families Party). UUP’s Constitution and Bylaws, as discussed above, establish UUP’s organizational structure from a statewide level down through various local levels, and empower party officials to govern the day-to-day affairs of the party. See AOR001. Notably, UUP’s Constitution and Bylaws outline the party convention format and the nominating process for candidates. UUP Const., art. III at AOR021-024; UUP Bylaws, art. IV at AOR032-034. Accordingly, UUP has the requisite official party structure to qualify as a state committee of a political party.

(3) Responsibility for Day-to-Day Operation of a Political Party

Finally, to qualify as a state committee of a political party, the organization, by virtue of its bylaws or by operation of state law, must be responsible for the day-to-day operation of a political party at the state level. See 52 U.S.C. § 30101(15); 11 C.F.R. § 110.14(a); see also Advisory Opinion 2016-24 (Independence Party of Minnesota); Advisory Opinion 2012-04 (Justice Party of Mississippi); Advisory Opinion 2008-12 (Independent Party of Oregon); Advisory Opinion 2007-23 (Independence Party of New York).

In addition to holding an annual convention, publishing a party platform, and establishing an executive committee, UUP Const. art. III at AOR020-024, UUP also establishes county organizations, which are responsible for developing county membership, holding regular meetings, recruiting candidates, campaigning, and promoting the general interests of the party, UUP Const. art. IV at AOR024-026. These activities are consistent with the “day-to-day” operations previously recognized by the Commission for other state party committees that are unaffiliated with national political parties. See, e.g., Advisory Opinion 2016-24 (Independence Party of Minnesota); Advisory Opinion 2012-04 (Justice Party of Mississippi); Advisory Opinion 2008-12 (Independent Party of Oregon); Advisory Opinions 2007-23 (Independence Party of New York). Thus, UUP is responsible for the day-to-day operations of a political party at the state level.

In sum, because UUP is a political party, possesses an official party structure, and is responsible for the day-to-day operation of the political party at the state level, the Commission determines that UUP qualifies as a state committee of a political party under the Act and Commission regulations.

This response constitutes an advisory opinion concerning the application of the Act and Commission regulations to the specific transaction or activity set forth in your request. See 52 U.S.C. § 30108. The Commission emphasizes that, if there is a change in any of the facts or assumptions presented, and such facts or assumptions are material to a conclusion presented in this advisory opinion, then the requestor may not rely on that conclusion as support for its proposed activity. Any person involved in any specific transaction or activity which is indistinguishable in all its material aspects from the transaction or activity with respect to which this advisory opinion is rendered may rely on this advisory opinion. See 52 U.S.C. § 30108(c)(1)(B). Please note that the analysis or conclusions in this advisory opinion may be affected by subsequent developments in the law including, but not limited to, statutes, regulations, advisory opinions, and case law. Any advisory opinions cited herein are available on the Commission’s website.

On behalf of the Commission,

Caroline C. Hunter
Chair