11 Dear Messrs. Passantino and Groth:

12 We are responding to your advisory opinion request on behalf of Price for 13 Congress (the “Committee”), concerning the application of the Federal Election 14 Campaign Act, 52 U.S.C. §§ 30101-45 (the “Act”), and Commission regulations to the 15 Committee’s proposal to contribute funds to establish and operate a non-profit
16 organization. The Commission concludes that the Act and Commission regulations 17 permit the Committee to donate its funds to the organization as proposed.

18 Background

19 The facts presented in this advisory opinion are based on your letter received on 20 June 5, 2019 and on reports filed with the Commission. Price for Congress is the 21 principal campaign committee of former Congressman Dr. Thomas Price.¹ As of its 22 April 15, 2019 quarterly report, the Committee had $1,767,729.00 in total assets.
23 Advisory Opinion Request at AOR002.² The Committee now proposes to transfer some,

Dr. Price is also a former chairman of the House Budget Committee and most recently served as Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services. See Robert Pear and Thomas Kaplan, Tom Price Is Confirmed as Health Secretary, N.Y. TIMES (Feb. 10, 2017), <https://www.nytimes.com/2017/02/10/us/politics/tom-price-health-and-human-services.html>.

1 but not all, of the Committee’s assets to establish and operate a non-profit organization
2 (the “Organization”) that will register as a tax-exempt social welfare organization under 3 section 501(c)(4) of the Internal Revenue Code.³ AOR002. Funds donated by the 4 Committee to the Organization and any income generated therefrom will be placed in a 5 separate segregated account and will not be comingled with other assets of the 6 Organization. AOR002. Such funds would be used to advance the Organization’s social 7 welfare purpose of engaging in research, education, and publications related to health, 8 budget, and public policy matters. AOR001. The Organization will publish research, 9 presentations, or other publications under Dr. Price’s name in connection with his official 10 duties as President and CEO of the Organization, and neither Dr. Price nor any member 11 of his family will be eligible to receive any type of royalties or fees for such works.
12 AOR004. The Organization “will not attempt to influence legislation nor participate or 13 intervene in any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for 14 public office.” AOR001. The Organization may promote and organize unpaid 15 opportunities for Dr. Price to speak, write, publish, or otherwise make appearances to 16 present the work of the Organization. AOR001-002.

17 Dr. Price will serve as the Organization’s president and chief executive officer.
18 AOR001. In these capacities, Dr. Price would have authority to make staffing decisions, 19 including hiring and firing decisions and setting compensation for employees. Id. The 20 Organization’s bylaws would prohibit Dr. Price from receiving any compensation from 21 the Organization. Id. This restriction would also apply to any members of Dr. Price’s

³ The Committee also notes that “[i]t is contemplated that the Committee may also transfer funds to the Organization at a future time.” AOR002.

1 family, former employees of the Committee, and former employees of Dr. Price's official
2 public offices, if any, who serve the Organization in any capacity. Id. The Organization
3 may, however, decide to amend its bylaws and compensate such individuals or Dr. Price
4 in the future if permitted by applicable law (as further described below). AOR002.
5 Additionally, the Organization may reimburse Dr. Price for out-of-pocket expenses
6 incurred on behalf of the Organization in his role as president and CEO. AOR001.
7 Notwithstanding the foregoing, until such time as all funds donated by the Committee
8 have been expended by the Organization, neither Dr. Price, members of his family, 9 former employees of the Committee nor any former employees of Dr. Price's official 10 public offices shall be eligible for any form of compensation, gift or grant, or materials or 11 reimbursement for any expenses that would constitute a "personal use" described in 52
12 U.S.C. § 30114(b)(2)(A)-(I) and section 113.1(g)(1)(i)(A)-(J) of Commission regulations.
13 AOR002.

14 Question Presented

15 May the Committee donate its funds to establish and operate the Organization?

16 Legal Analysis

17 Yes, the Committee may donate its funds to the Organization because the 18 donation of funds to a 501(c)(4) social welfare organization as proposed constitutes a 19 "lawful purpose" under 52 U.S.C. § 30114(a)(6) and 11 C.F.R. § 113.2(e), and no 20 Committee funds will be converted to personal use for the benefit of Dr. Price or any 21 other person.

22 The Act identifies six categories of permissible uses of contributions accepted by 23 a federal candidate, including "for any other lawful purpose." 52 U.S.C. § 30114(a)(6);

1 see also 11 C.F.R. § 113.2(e). Such contributions may not, however, be converted by any 2 person to personal use. 52 U.S.C. § 30114(b)(1); 11 C.F.R. § 113.2(e). Conversion to 3 personal use occurs when a contribution or amount is used “to fulfill any commitment, 4 obligation, or expense of a person that would exist irrespective of the candidate’s election
5 campaign or individual’s duties as a holder of Federal office.” 52 U.S.C. § 30114(b)(2); 6 see also 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g).

7 The Committee represents in its request that the Organization will operate and 8 qualify as a tax-exempt, not-for-profit corporation under section 501(c)(4) of the Internal 9 Revenue Code, and will use any Committee-donated funds to advance the Organization’s 10 social welfare purpose of engaging in research, education, and publications related to 11 health, budget, and public policy matters.⁴ AOR001-2. The Act and Commission 12 regulations do not prohibit the contribution of campaign funds to a 501(c)(4) organization 13 for this purpose.⁵ Accordingly, the only question for the Commission to consider is

⁵ 52 U.S.C. § 30114(a)(3) and 11 C.F.R. § 113.2(b) permit the donation of campaign funds to “an organization described in section 170(c)” of the Internal Revenue Code (“I.R.C.”). Section 170(c) describes the types of organizations for which charitable donations by individuals are tax deductible. 26 U.S.C. § 170(c). In various prior advisory opinions, the Commission has permitted the donation of campaign funds to organizations that qualify for tax-exempt status under section 501(c)(3) of the I.R.C., because it determined that such entities qualify as section 170(c) organizations. See, e.g., Advisory Opinion 2012-05 (Lantos); Advisory Opinion 2005-06 (McInnis). For purposes of this advisory opinion, the Commission makes no determination as to whether a 501(c)(4) organization could qualify as an organization described in section 170(c) of the I.R.C. under the Act and Commission regulations. Rather, the Commission analyzes the proposed transfer of Committee funds under the “any other lawful purpose” prong of 52 U.S.C. § 30114(a)(6). See Advisory Opinion 1993-10 (Colorado) at 3 (“The Commission has found that transfers and donations to other recipients where section 170[(c)] does not apply may still be permissible under the ‘any other lawful purpose’ clause of section [30114(a)]”).

1 whether the proposed donation of campaign funds to the Organization will result in the 2 conversion of any of the donated funds to personal use.

3 The Act and Commission regulations provide a non-exhaustive list of uses of 4 campaign funds that are per se personal use. 52 U.S.C. § 30114(b)(2); 11 C.F.R.
5 § 113.1(g)(1)(i). For uses of campaign funds not included on this list, the Commission 6 determines, on a case-by-case basis, whether the use is a prohibited “personal use,” i.e., 7 whether campaign funds are used to pay expenses that would exist irrespective of the 8 candidate’s campaign or federal officeholder duties. 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(1)(ii).

9 In Advisory Opinion 1993-10 (Colorado), the Commission recognized that 10 transfers and donations to a non-profit corporation not covered by section 170(c) of the 11 Internal Revenue Code would constitute a “lawful purpose” so long as the former 12 candidate donor “would not receive any compensation for his involvement in the 13 proposed non-profit corporation beyond reimbursement of ordinary expenses incurred on 14 its behalf.” Advisory Opinion 1993-10 (Colorado) at 3; see also Advisory Opinion 1986-15 39 (Carafiello) at 2 (approving the donation of a former candidate’s campaign funds to a 16 trust fund for an orphaned child unrelated to the candidate because the donation “would 17 not benefit [the former candidate] in any apparent financial respect”). Similarly, here, the 18 Committee has represented that Dr. Price will be eligible for reimbursement of out-of-19 pocket expenses incurred in connection with his official Organization-related duties; 20 however, he will not receive compensation for his role as President and CEO of the 21 Organization and neither Dr. Price nor any member of his family will be eligible to 22 receive any type of royalties or fees for the Organization’s works. AOR001-002.

1 This proposal is also consistent with practices approved by the Commission in 2 prior advisory opinions addressing the donation of campaign funds by former federal 3 candidates and officeholders to nonprofit organizations under 11 C.F.R. § 113.2(b).⁶ In 4 Advisory Opinion 1996-40 (Hancock), for instance, the Commission approved the 5 donation of funds from a retiring congressman's campaign committee to a nonprofit 6 organization for which the congressman served as president and chairman of the board of 7 directors. See Advisory Opinion 1996-40 (Hancock) at 2; see also Advisory Opinion
8 1983-27 (McDaniel) (approving donation of campaign committee funds to nonprofit 9 organization for which the donor-candidate served as chairman of the board of directors); 10 Advisory Opinion 1997-01 (Bevill) (approving donation of campaign committee funds to 11 foundation for which the donor-former congressman, his wife and daughter would serve 12 as board directors). In each of the aforementioned advisory opinions, the donor-13 candidates or officeholders retained significant authority over the donee organization 14 after the committee funds were contributed; nevertheless, the Commission found that the 15 contributed funds would not accrue to their personal benefit because they would not 16 receive compensation from the donee organization until such time as the organization had 17 expended the donated funds. See Advisory Opinion 1996-40 (Hancock) at 2; Advisory 18 Opinion 1983-27 (McDaniel) at 2; Advisory Opinion 1997-01 (Bevill) at 3. It follows 19 that, because Dr. Price will receive no compensation from the Organization, his role as

⁶ Although in each of these advisory opinions the recipient non-profit organization was registered as a 501(c)(3) rather than a 501(c)(4) organization, the personal use analysis therein is applicable to the present facts given the similarities between the present facts and the donor-candidates' relationships with the recipient organizations in those advisory opinions.

1 president and CEO of the Organization will not result in his personal use of the donated 2 funds.

3 The request also states that, although the Organization’s bylaws will prohibit Dr.
4 Price, his family members, former Committee employees, and the former employees of 5 Dr. Price’s official public offices from receiving compensation, the Organization will 6 leave open the possibility that in the future, after all Committee funds have been 7 expended by the Organization for social welfare purposes, these individuals could 8 become eligible for compensation. AOR001-002. Further, as stated above, Dr. Price will 9 be eligible for reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with his 10 official Organization-related duties; however, he will not receive any reimbursement for 11 expenses that would constitute “personal use” under the Act or Commission regulations
12 until such time as the Organization has exhausted all funds donated by the Committee.
13 Id.

14 This compensation and reimbursement arrangement is consistent with those in 15 Advisory Opinion 2012-05 (Lantos), where the Commission approved the donation of a 16 former congressman’s campaign funds to a non-profit foundation that employed and paid 17 salaries to several of the congressman’s family members, including his daughter, who 18 served as the foundation’s president. Advisory Opinion 2012-05 (Lantos) at 2.⁷ Because

⁷ The Commission’s approval of the donation was conditioned upon several representations, including the foundation’s pledges to: (1) deposit donated funds into a separate account segregated from other foundation assets, (2) not use donated funds or any income generated therefrom to provide compensation, gifts or grants, or any materials or reimbursement for any expenses within the scope of 52 U.S.C. § 30114(b)(2)(A)-(I) or 11 C.F.R. § 113.1(g)(1)(i)(A)-(J) to any member of the late congressman’s family, or former campaign committee or congressional office employees, and (3) not use the donated funds or any income generated therefrom to influence any election. See Advisory Opinion 2012-05 (Lantos) at 2. The requestor here has made identical representations.

1 the Committee has represented that it and the Organization will adhere to the conditions 2 approved by the Commission in Advisory Opinion 2012-05 (Lantos) until such time as 3 all Committee funds have been expended by the Organization, the proposed 4 compensation and reimbursement framework are similarly permissible under the Act and 5 Commission regulations.⁸

6 Finally, the organization has also stated its intention to publish research, 7 presentations and publications under Dr. Price's name and promote or organize unpaid
8 opportunities for Dr. Price to speak, write, publish, or otherwise make appearances to 9 present the Organization's work. AOR001-002. None of these activities would result in 10 the personal use of Committee funds by Dr. Price or any other person. Because Dr. Price 11 will not be compensated for these activities, and the Organization has already pledged not 12 to provide compensation to Dr. Price while Committee funds remain in the 13 Organization's accounts, no personal financial benefit will directly accrue to Dr. Price, 14 his family or former employees as a result of the Organization's publication of research, 15 presentations, or other publications under Dr. Price's name, or Dr. Price's appearances on 16 behalf of the Organization. Consequently, the Organization's intention to publish 17 research, presentations and publications under Dr. Price's name and promote or organize 18 unpaid opportunities for Dr. Price to speak, write, publish or otherwise make appearances 19 to present the Organization's work do not alter the Commission's conclusion that the ⁸ The Advisory Opinion Request notes that the Committee will initially transfer only some of its assets to the Organization and may transfer additional remaining funds at a later date. AOR002. In the event that, after the initial funds contributed to the Organization by the Committee have been expended by the Organization, the Committee then contributes additional funds to the Organization, the conditions and limitations regarding the use of donated funds described herein will apply to any later donated funds until such time as all funds donated by the Committee have been expended by the Organization.

1 proposed donation of Committee funds to the Organization is a permissible use of 2 contributions accepted by the Committee.

3 Conclusion

4 The Commission concludes that the Act and Commission regulations permit the 5 Committee to donate its funds to the Organization because the donation of campaign 6 funds to a 501(c)(4) organization as proposed constitutes a “lawful purpose” under 52
7 U.S.C. § 30114(a)(6) and 11 C.F.R. § 113.2(e) and no Committee funds will be converted 8 to personal use for the benefit of Dr. Price or any other person.
