Dear People,

Please accept AO 2021-11 Draft B.

I don't like texts any more than you probably do, but if people have opted-in for them, political entities should be allowed to send them.

Thanks,
Jonathan Reiss

Hello,

I am writing to let you know that I support AO 2021-11 DRAFT B. Political text messages help down-ballot candidates on a budget reach out to voters, and allow grassroots organizations to educate supporters. They are an important tool of democracy in the modern era, distinct from fax-machine spam.

Sincerely,

Vanessa MacDougal

I support a rule that would distinguish political text messages, directed to people who want them, from newspaper ads and fax-machine spam. Individuals should have the tools to determine what messages they see, and to omit messages that are rife with misinformation. Thank you.
