Hi Heather,

Ready For Ron consents to the Commission's request for an extension.

Dear Ms. Rodriguez-Baz:

The Commission has asked me to seek a two-week extension (with a new deadline of September 21) to allow additional time for the Commission to consider your advisory opinion request and comment on behalf of Ready for Ron. If you grant the extension, the Commission plans to consider your request at its September 15 open meeting. Do you consent to the extension?

Sincerely,

Heather Filemyr
