BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of	)
	)	MUR 1142/1255,
Reagan for President Committee	)	1349, 1360

CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

This matter was initiated by the Federal Election Commission (hereinafter "the Commission"), pursuant to information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities. The Commission has found probable cause to believe that the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee") violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) in connection with MUR 1142/1255 and MUR 1349. The Commission has found reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f), 441b(a), and 434(b)(8) in connection with MUR 1360.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and the Committee, having duly entered into conciliation pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(A)(i) with respect to MUR 1142/1255 and MUR 1349, and having participated in informal methods of conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe with respect to MUR 1360, do hereby agree as follows:

I. The Federal Election Commission has jurisdiction over the Committee, and the subject matter of this case. This agreement is entered into pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(A)(i) as to MURs 1142/1255 and 1349, and has the effect of an agreement entered into pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(A)(i) with regard to MUR 1360. The Committee has had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken in this matter, and enters into this agreement voluntarily.

II. A. (1) The Committee registered with the Commission on March 5, 1979, as the principal campaign committee of Ronald Reagan for the 1980 presidential primary elections.

B. (1) Section 44la(f) of Title 2, United States Code, prohibits a political committee from knowingly accepting a contribution from an individual which aggregates in excess of $1,000 per election.

(2) Section 44la(a)(1)(A) of Title 2, United States Code, prohibits single or aggregated contributions in excess of $1,000 from any person to any candidate or authorized committee of that candidate with respect to any election to federal office.

(3) Section 103.3(b) of Title 11, Code of Federal Regulations, requires that contributions which appear to be illegal are to be returned within ten days of receipt or, if deposited, are to be noted as being possibly illegal and duly investigated. If the legality of a contribution cannot be established, it is to be refunded "within a reasonable time."

(4) Section 100.7(c) of Title 11, Code of Federal Regulations, provides that, "any contribution or payment made by a married individual shall not be attributed to that individual's spouse, unless otherwise specified by that individual or by the individual's spouse."

(5) Section 104.8(c) of Title 11, Code of Federal Regulations, states that "absent evidence to the contrary, any contribution made by check, money order, or other written instrument shall be reported as a contribution by the last person signing the instrument prior to delivery to the candidate or committee," and Section 104.8(d) provides that "a contribution which represents contributions by more than one person shall indicate on the written instrument, or on an accompanying written statement signed by all contributors, the amount to be attributed to each contributor."

C. (1) During 1979 and 1980, the Committee accepted certain contributions from 370 individuals, the aggregate amounts of which exceeded $1,000 from each person and which totalled $187,349.94. Of this amount, $120,856.94 ultimately was refunded by the Committee.

Refund checks totalling $14,405 were not cashed by contributors to whom they were issued. The Committee reattributed a total of $66,493 of the $187,349.94 amount to persons other than the originally reported contributors.

(2) The Committee contends that because of the volume of receipts during the primary campaign, it established a computerized system to record and aggregate contributions for purposes of complying with the reporting requirements and contribution limits. During the campaign the Committee received $13,890,201 in contributions. The Committee further contends that when its computerized system indicated that an individual's contribution had placed him or her in excess of the limitation, it used best efforts to verify the fact, to obtain necessary documentation enabling it to reattribute where appropriate, and to refund excessive amounts not reattributable.

(3) The Commission has found that the Committee's acceptance of the contributions cited in section II, C(1), was a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) and that the Committee did not refund contributions or obtain reattributions of contributions within a reasonable period of time after acceptance of the contributions at issue. The average time taken for issuance of the refunds here involved was nine months.

The average time taken for making the reattributions involved herein was nine and one-half months. The Commission has considered the return of excessive contributions and reattributions as a factor in mitigation of the violation.

D. (1) Section 431(8)(A)(i) of Title 2, United States Code, defines a "contribution" as including any gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money or anything of value made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for federal office.

(2) Mr. Charles Wick was a volunteer worker who supervised the candidate's announcement dinner, which took place in New York, on November 13, 1979. During the period from September 12, 1979, through November 15, 1979, Mr. Wick paid expenses totalling $18,712.54 in connection with this event using his own cash, checks, and credit cards. Mary Jane Wick, a volunteer worker for the Committee, also paid expenses of $766.05 on December 31, 1979, in connection with this event using her personal check. Each of these individuals previously had contributed $1,000 to the Committee on March 26, 1979.

(3) On January 18, 1980, Mr. Wick submitted to the Committee a request for $19,478.59 for the expenses he paid ($18,712.54), and for the expenses paid by Mary Jane Wick ($766.05). On April 9, 1980, (i.e., 81 days after the date of the Wicks' invoice), the Committee reimbursed Charles Wick and Mary Jane Wick in the amount of $19,478.59.

(4) The Committee contends that all other expenses in connection with the November 13, 1979, fundraising event were paid directly by the Committee. The Committee further contends that it assumed reasonably that these were all of the expenses incurred in connection with the event, that the Committee had not authorized Mr. or Mrs. Wick to incur additional expenses or to pay for them with private funds, and that the Committee was not aware that Mr. and Mrs. Wick had paid expenses in excess of their contribution limitations until it received a request for reimbursement. The Committee contends further that its action after it received notice of the payment was reasonable, since Mr. Wick was reimbursed by the Committee 81 days from the date that he and Mrs. Wick submitted their expenses to the Committee. During that time, the Committee verified these expenses, confirmed the connection between these charges and the Committee's activities, and ultimately decided to authorize payment.

(5) The Commission has found that the Committee accepted contributions in excess of the limitation in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) when Mr. and Mrs. Wick paid the above expenses during the period of September 12, 1979, through December 31, 1979 because such payments constituted advances, i.e., contributions, to the Committee, and the actions and knowledge of the Wicks may be imputed to the Committee.

E. (1) North Hollywood Glass Company ("NHGC") is a sole proprietorship owned and operated by Richard Gulbranson. It manufactures glass doors and windows. Between August 31, 1979, and October 31, 1979, NHGC incurred expenses totalling $5,680.00 with regard to the organization of a political fundraising event conducted on October 11, 1979. The expenses were incurred for such costs as printing, postage, caterers, and wages.

(2) By invoice dated October 31, 1979, the NHGC billed the Committee for the above expenses, and was reimbursed on December 3, 1979, i.e., within 33 days from the date on which NHGC's request for reimbursement was submitted.

(3) The Committee contends that it did not know that the NHGC had made expenditures on behalf of the Committee in excess of its limitation until it received NHGC's request for reimbursement. Furthermore, the Committee contends that upon receipt of information that expenses in excess of the limits had been incurred, it acted promptly to verify these expenses, confirm their connection with Committee activities, and reimburse the NHGC.

(4) The Commission has found that the NHGC made an excessive contribution to the Committee when it paid expenses of the fundraiser which totalled more than $1,000, and that, when these payments were made, the Committee accepted an excessive contribution in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). The Commission has found that the NHGC incurred the above expenses on behalf of the Committee outside the ordinary course of its business and that the actions and knowledge of Mr. Gulbranson may be imputed to the Committee.

F. (1) On August 28, 1979, Charles K. Fletcher, the treasurer of the Committee for the State of Hawaii, made a $5,000 deposit using his personal funds. This deposit was made to the Hilton Hawaiian Village in connection with a fundraising event conducted in Hawaii on September 4, 1979. The Committee reimbursed Mr. Fletcher for the $5,000 deposit on January 25, 1980.

(2) The Committee contends that it had not authorized Mr. Fletcher to make the above deposit and had no actual knowledge that he had done so until it received notification to that effect. The Committee further contends that it acted reasonably after it learned of

Mr. Fletcher's payment and promptly refunded his deposit.

(3) The Commission has found that the Committee accepted a contribution in excess of the limitation in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) when Mr. Fletcher made a $5,000 deposit in connection with a fundraiser in Hawaii. The Commission has found that the actions and knowledge of Mr. Fletcher may be imputed to the Committee.

G. (1) Section 441b(a) of Title 2, United States Code, prohibits a federal political committee from knowingly accepting a contribution from a corporation.

(2) Luther Thomas, who is usually known as Tommy Thomas, was the Florida State Chairman of the Committee. During the period April 3, 1979, through August 26, 1980, he incurred travel and related expenses totalling $9,466.60 for hotels, airfare, telephones, meals, and car rentals. Tommy Thomas Chevrolet Co., Inc. ("TTCC"), an incorporated entity, which is wholly owned by Luther Thomas, paid these expenses. On September 30, 1980, the Committee received a letter from a Ms. Laurens P. Russell, an employee of TTCC, on TTCC letterhead which sought reimbursement for the above expenses. Ms. Russell stated that at the request of "Mr. Tommy Thomas" she was enclosing a "list of checks paid by Tommy Thomas Chevrolet" and "original documents substantiating the enumerated charges," which amounted to $9,466.60.

(3) Section 434(b)(8) of Title 2, United States Code, requires a political committee to report the amount and nature of an outstanding obligation.

(4) The Committee, on its 10 day pre-general election report, 30 day post-general election report, and 1980 Year-End Report, reported an obligation of $9,466.60 to the individual, Tommy Thomas. The date of the obligation was reported as September 30, 1980, and the nature of the obligation was reported as "travel expense." The Committee's April 15, 1981, Quarterly Report, reported an expenditure on February 12, 1981, of $9,180.29 to Tommy Thomas as reimbursement for travel expenses.

(5) The Committee contends that it never authorized Mr. Thomas to have TTCC pay the above expenses, and that it did not know that TTCC had done so until it received Ms. Russell's letter requesting reimbursement. The Committee also contends that it owed no obligation to TTCC and that its method of reporting was not unreasonable.

(6) The Commission has found that the Committee accepted a corporate contribution from TTCC in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) when TTCC paid the expenses incurred by Tommy Thomas in the course of his activity on behalf of the Committee. The Commission has found that these expenses were incurred outside the ordinary course of TTCC business and that the actions and knowledge of Tommy Thomas may be imputed to the Committee. Further, the Commission has found that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(8) when it improperly reported an obligation to the individual, Tommy Thomas, rather than to TTCC.

III. Because the Committee and the Commission desire to conclude this matter without further formal proceedings on the unresolved issues, the Committee agrees to pay a civil penalty of Nine Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($9,500) in connection with those matters referenced in Section II C, and Two Thousand Five Hundred Dollars ($2,500) in connection with those matters referenced in Section II D, E, F, and G, pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(5)(A).

IV. A. Except as provided by IV C below, this agreement shall constitute a complete bar to any further action by the Commission with regard to matters addressed in this agreement.

B. The Committee agrees that it shall not undertake any activity which is in violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. § 431, et seq.

C. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance with this agreement. If the Commission believes that Section III of this agreement has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

D. It is mutually agreed that this agreement shall become effective on the date that all parties hereto have executed same and the Commission has approved the entire agreement.

E. The Committee shall have fifteen days to comply with the requirements contained in Section III of this agreement.

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the matter of	)
	)	MUR 1142/1255
Ruth C. Crocker	)

CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

This matter having been initiated by the Federal Election Commission (hereinafter "the Commission"), pursuant to information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, and after reason to believe having been found that Ruth C. Crocker ("Respondent") violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making contributions to the Reagan for President Committee totaling $2200.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and Respondent, having duly entered into conciliation pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(A)(i) do hereby agree as follows:

I. The Commission has jurisdiction over the Respondent, and the subject matter of this proceeding.

II. Respondent has had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken in this matter.

III. Respondent and the Commission voluntarily enter into this Agreement.

IV. The relevant facts in this matter are as follows:

1. Respondent made the following contributions to the Reagan for President Committee: $100 received on September 25, 1979; $1000 on December 21, 1979; $1000 on February 25, 1979; and $100 on March 24, 1980, for an aggregate total of $2200.

2. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) prohibits single or aggregated contributions in excess of $1000 from any person to any candidate or authorized committee of that candidate with respect to any election to Federal office.

V. By making the above-listed contributions, Respondent violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). Respondent contends said violation was unknowing and unintentional.

VI. Respondent agrees that she shall not undertake any activity which is in violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. § 431, et seq.

VII. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance with this agreement. If the Commission believes that this agreement or any requirement thereof has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the appropriate District of California.

VIII. This agreement shall become effective as of the date that all parties hereto have executed same and the Commission has approved the entire agreement.

SUBJECT: Information concerning Emma Bardwell

On November 10, 1982, I received by means of the criss-cross telephone directory for Los Angeles the names and telephone numbers of several persons who live close to the address we had for Ms. Emma Bardwell, a respondent in MUR 1142. Because we had received no responses from her to the notification of the Commission's finding of probable cause, it had become necessary to learn more details as to her present situation.

The first person I telephoned was Mrs. Laslo Gach who lives at 721 North Fuller Avenue, Hollywood, California, an address located across the street from the one listed for Ms. Bardwell. Mrs. Gach stated that Ms. Bardwell had passed away in March, 1982, and also estimated that Ms. Bardwell had been close to ninety years in age.

Re: MUR 1360

Dear Mr. Gross:

Enclosed please find a check in the amount of $200.00 drawn on the Reagan-Bush Compliance Fund in payment of the civil penalty assessed against Peter Hon under his MUR 1360 conciliation agreement. This check replaces the $200.00 check originally forwarded to the FEC for the penalty assessed against Mr. Hon which was drawn on the Reagan for President Committee's operating account.

The Reagan for President Committee also is taking appropriate steps to transfer $788.00 from the Reagan-Bush Compliance Fund to the Reagan for President operating account as a reimbursement for the amount of civil penalties assessed pursuant to the provisions of MUR 1142/1255 conciliation agreements of North Hollywood Glass Company and Messrs. Green and Hardy which were paid from the operating account.

Dear Mr. Parker:

We have been retained to assist the Reagan for President Committee with its post-election audit, looking toward a termination of its reporting requirements under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

The Committee's records show that during the primary campaign you sent the Committee checks in the amount of $1,160.00. In accordance with Federal law, $160.00 was refunded as in excess of the individual contribution limitation. You returned that check with a letter which indicated that the $160.00 was a contribution from your wife, Barbara Dresslar Parker. The Committee's reports were corrected to reflect this change, and a copy of your letter was submitted to the Federal Election Commission.

During the course of the Commission's recent audit, however, the Commission requested that we obtain your wife's signature to support the allocation of the $160.00 contribution to her. In order to resolve this matter, we would greatly appreciate your wife signing the enclosed form, verifying her intent to make a separate contribution.

On behalf of the Committee, we again thank you for your generosity and support during the campaign and your cooperation during our post-campaign compliance effort.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please call me collect.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Payson:

Our law firm has been retained to assist the Reagan-Bush Committee during its post-election audit and, particularly, in completing its reporting requirements under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

The Committee's records indicate that you made two contributions during the primary campaign of $1,000.00 each. On the second contribution check you indicated that it was to be treated as a joint contribution from you and Mrs. Payson. Consequently, the Committee subsequently amended its reports to show a $500.00 contribution from your wife, and refunded the remaining $500.00 in August, 1980, in order to comply with the $1,000.00 limitations on individual contributions. In addition, copies of your contribution checks and the refund check were later submitted to the Federal Election Commission.

Nevertheless, during the course of the Commission's audit of the Reagan-Bush Committee, the Commission requested additional documentation that your $1,500.00 total contribution was intended as a joint contribution from you and Mrs. Payson. In order to comply with their request, we would greatly appreciate it if you and your wife would sign the enclosed form, thereby verifying your intent to make separate contributions.

On behalf of the Committee, we thank you for your generosity and support during the campaign and for your cooperation in this post-campaign compliance effort.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Deutsch:

We have been retained to assist the Reagan-Bush Committee with its post-election audit, looking toward a termination of its reporting requirements under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

The Committee's records show that during the primary campaign you sent the Committee a check in the amount of $2,000.00. In response to a Committee inquiry, you indicated in writing that $1,000.00 of that contribution was to be attributed to your wife, Betty Deutsch. The Committee's reports were corrected to reflect this change, and a copy of the verification form, signed by you, was submitted to the Federal Election Commission.

During the course of the Commission's recent audit, however, the Commission requested that we obtain your wife's signature to support the allocation of the $1,000.00 contribution to her. In order to resolve this matter, we would greatly appreciate your wife signing the enclosed form, verifying her intent to make a separate contribution.

On behalf of the Committee, we again thank you for your generosity and support during the campaign and your cooperation during our post-campaign compliance effort.

If you have any questions concerning this matter, please call me collect.

Sincerely,

PIERSON, BALL & DOWD

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of	)
	)	MUR 1142/1255
Richard J. Greene	)

CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

This matter having been initiated by the Federal Election Commission (hereinafter "the Commission") in the ordinary course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, and, after investigation, the Commission having found probable cause to believe that Richard J. Greene (hereinafter the "Respondent") has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A):

WHEREFORE, the Commission and the Respondent having duly entered into conciliation as provided for in 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(A)(i) do hereby agree as follows:

I. The Federal Election Commission has jurisdiction over the Respondent and the subject matter in this case.

II. The Respondent has had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken in this matter.

III. The Respondent enters into this agreement with the Commission voluntarily.

IV. The pertinent facts in this matter are as follows:

A. Respondent made the following contributions to the Reagan for President Committee (hereinafter "the Committee"): $1,000 on September 30, 1979; $200 on March 24, 1980; and $1,000 on May 16, 1980, for an aggregate total of $2,200. The September 30, 1979 contribution was for a $500 per plate fund raising dinner which Respondent attended with his wife.

B. On August 25, 1980, the Committee sent to Respondent a refund check in the amount of $1,200.

C. On October 17, 1980, Respondent sent to the Committee a letter containing a statement of allocation signed by Respondent and Respondent's wife indicating their intention that $1,000 of the $2,200 at issue be considered a contribution from Mrs. Greene. On January 5, 1981, the Committee refunded $200 to Mr. Greene.

D. Respondent contends that he did not intend to contribute more to the Committee than was legally permissible. The statement of allocation submitted on October 17, 1980, along with the fact that the first $1,000 contribution was for an event which Respondent attended with his wife, reflects that lack of intent.

WHEREFORE, the parties to this Agreement agree as follows:

A. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) prohibits single or aggregated contributions in excess of $1,000 from any person to any candidate or authorized committee of that candidate with respect to any election to federal office.

B. 11 C.F.R. § 104.8(c) states that "absent evidence to the contrary, any contribution made by check ... shall be reported as a contribution by the last person signing the instrument...". 11 C.F.R. § 104.8(d requires either a designation of co-contributors on the written instrument itself or an accompanying written instrument signed by all contributors.

C. Respondent presented documentation directing allocation of two $1,000 contributions made in September, 1979, and May, 1980, in October, 1980, or five months after the date of the last contribution.

D. Allocation documentation submitted five months after a contribution is made is not deemed to have accompanied the contribution instrument, nor to have been submitted within a reasonable time.

E. By making the above-listed contributions, the Commission found that the Respondent violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a (a)(1)(A). Respondent contends that if any violation occurred it was inadvertent and unintentional.

F. Respondent will now, and in the future, comply with the contribution limitations set forth at 2 U.S.C. § 441a (a)(1)(A).

G. A civil penalty of One Hundred and Twenty Dollars ($120) will be paid to the United States Treasury.

V. General Conditions

A. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning any of the facts at issue herein, or on its own motion, may review compliance with this Agreement or any requirement thereof has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

B. Respondent shall have no more than thirty (30) days from the date this agreement becomes effective to comply with and implement the requirements contained in this agreement and to so notify the Commission.

C. It is further agreed that this Agreement, unless violated, shall constitute a complete bar to any further action by the Commission with regard to the facts set forth in this Agreement.

D. It is mutually agreed that this Agreement will become effective on the date that all parties hereto have executed the same and the Commission has approved the entire agreement.

CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

This matter having been initiated by the Federal Election Commission (hereinafter "the Commission") in the ordinary course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, and, after investigation, the Commission having found probable cause to believe that North Hollywood Glass Company (hereinafter the "Respondent") has violated 2 U.S.C. ~ 44la(a)(1)(A):

WHEREFORE, the Commission and the Respondent having duly entered into conciliation as provided for in 2 U.S.C. § 437g (a)(4)(A)(i) do hereby agree as follows:

I. The Federal Election Commission has jurisdiction over the Respondent and the subject matter in this case.

II. The Respondent has had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken in this matter.

III. The Respondent enters into this agreement with the Commission voluntarily.

IV. The pertinent facts in this matter are as follows:

A. Respondent is an unincorporated business entity which manufactures rolling aluminum glass doors and windows.

B. Between August 31, 1979, and October 18, 1979, Respondent paid $5,680.60 in expenses incurred in connection with a fundraising event held on behalf of the candidacy of Ronald Reagan on October 11, 1979.

C. Respondent sent a bill for $5,680.60 to the Reagan for President Committee (hereinafter "the Committee") on October 31, 1979, and was reimbursed by the Committee on December 3, 1979.

WHEREFORE, the parties to this Agreement agree as follows:

A. Former 2 U.S.C. § 431(e)(1) and 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A) define contribution to include "a gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money or anything of value made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for federal office...."

B. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) prohibits single or aggregated contributions in excess of $1,000 from any person to any candidate or authorized committee of that candidate with respect to any election to federal office.

C. Former 2 U.S.C. § 431(g) and 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) define "person" to include, "an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, labor organization or any other organization or group of persons...."

D. By incurring expenditures totaling $5,680.60 in connection with the fundraising event at issue, the Commission found that Respondent made an impermissible advance and hence violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

E. Respondent contends that it did not make a contribution to the Committee, but rather provided an extension of credit in the ordinary course of business for which it was compensated. Respondent further contends that if any violation occurred, it was inadvertent and unintentional.

F. Respondent will now, and in the future, comply with the contribution limitations set forth at 2 U.S.C. § 441a (a)(1)(A).

G. A civil penalty of Four Hundred Sixty-Eight Dollars ($468) will be paid to the United States Treasury.

V. General Conditions

A. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning any of the facts at issue herein, or on its own motion, may review compliance with this Agreement. If the Commission believes that this Agreement or any requirement thereof has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

B. Respondent shall have no more than thirty (30) days from the date this agreement becomes effective to comply with and implement the requirements contained in this agreement and to so notify the Commission.

C. It is further agreed that this Agreement, unless violated, shall constitute a complete bar to any further action by the Commission with regard to the facts set forth in this Agreement.

D. It is mutually agreed that this Agreement will become effective on the date that all parties hereto have executed the same and the Commission has approved the entire Agreement.

MEMORANDUM

TO : The Commission

FROM : Charles N. Steele
General Counsel

BY: Kenneth A. Gross
Associate General Counsel

Charles K. Fletcher

On November 10, 1981, the Commission found probable cause to believe that Charles K. Fletcher had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making a $5,000 payment to the Hilton Hawaiian Village on behalf of the Reagan for President Committee. This payment, made on August 30, 1979, constituted a portion of a $12,000 advance deposit required by the payee with regard to a fundraising event held on September 4, 1979 on behalf of the candidacy of Ronald Reagan. On January 15, 1980, the Committee reimbursed Mr. Fletcher in full for his $5,000 payment. The Committee has stated that Mr. Fletcher served as treasurer of the Hawaii Reagan for President Committee.

On March 23, 1982, counsel for Mr. Fletcher informed this Office that Mr. Fletcher does not wish to enter into conciliation.

On April 6, 1982, the Commission failed in MUR 1349, by a vote of 3-3, to find probable cause to believe that Charles Wick had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making $18,712 in expenditures between September 12, 1979, and November 15, 1979, on behalf of the Reagan for President Committee. Mr. Wick was reimbursed for these expenditures on April 9, 1980. 1/

1/ The Commission also decided to take no further action against Mrs. Mary Jane Wick with regard to $1,776 in expenditures which she made on behalf of the Reagan for President Committee and for which she was reimbursed.

Upon receipt of notification that the Commission had not found probable cause to believe that Mr. Wick had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A), counsel for Mr. Fletcher submitted the attached letter to this Office suggesting that this Office recommend that the Commission "reconsider its 'probable cause' determination with respect to Mr. Fletcher." (See Attachment 1). In light of the Commission's failure to take action against Mr. Wick, this Office agrees that it would be inconsistent to pursue a finding of a violation by Mr. Fletcher. The two factual situations are very similar in that both gentlemen made expenditures in excess of $1,000 on behalf of the Reagan for President Committee for which they were reimbursed five to seven months later. It is therefore the recommendation of this Office that the Commission take no further action against Mr. Fletcher.

Recommendations

1. Take no further action against Mr. Charles K. Fletcher with regard to a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

2. Send attached letter.

Re: MUR 1360: Matter of Charles K. Fletcher

Dear Mr. Steele:

In your letter of April 8, 1982, you notified us that the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission") did not find "probable cause to believe" that Mr. Charles Wick and Mrs. Mary Jane Wick violated the contribution limits of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). The allegations against Mr. Wick arose in connection with an advancement of funds he made on behalf of the Reagan for President Committee (the "Committee") as its agent.

The issues presented to the Commission by its General Counsel's office in the Wick matter to the Committee are substantially the same as the issues raised with regard to Mr. Charles Fletcher. It remains our position that Mr. Fletcher's transactions did not result in a contribution to the Committee because he was merely acting as an agent of the Committee by advancing funds on its behalf with authority and the expectation of reimbursement. We believe it appropriate for the Office of the General Counsel to recommend to the Commission to reconsider its "probable cause" determination with respect to Mr. Fletcher.

Any assistance you can give in this matter is most appreciated. Please do not hesitate to call if you have any questions concerning this matter.

Sincerely,

Edward L. Weidenfeld

CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

This matter having been initiated by the Federal Election Commission (hereinafter "the Commission"), pursuant to information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, and after probable cause to believe having been found that Antoinette S. Wiking ("Respondent") violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making contributions to the Reagan for President Committee totaling Two Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($2,800).

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and the Respondent, having duly entered into conciliation pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(A)(i) do hereby agree as follows:

I. The Commission has jurisdiction over the Respondent, and the subject matter of this proceeding.

II. Respondent has had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken in this matter.

III. Respondent enters voluntarily into this Agreement with the Commission .

IV. The pertinent facts in this matter are as follows:

A. Respondent made the following contributions to the Reagan for President Committee: Three Hundred Dollars ($300) received on March 23, 1979; Three Hundred Dollars ($300) on May 22, 1979; Five Hundred Dollars ($500) on October 31, 1979; Five Hundred Dollars ($500) on November 14, 1979; One Hundred Dollars ($100) on January 5, 1980; One Hundred Dollars ($100) on January 25, 1980; Five Hundred Dollars ($500) on February 20, 1980; and Five Hundred Dollars ($500) on March 5, 1980, for an aggregate total of Two Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($2,800).

B. The Reagan for President Committee repaid to Respondent the sum of One Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($1,800) on August 11, 1980.

C. Respondent makes reference to the following facts in mitigation of the alleged violation hereunder:
During the period of the contributions referred to hereinabove, Respondent, a woman of eighty years of age, was under the care of her physician, Dr. Corcoran, South Coast Hospital, Laguna Beach, California, who was treating her for high blood pressure and related illnesses which she suffered at that time requiring her hospitalization. Furthermore, Respondent was not aware at the time of said political contributions of the prohibition against contributions in excess of One Thousand Dollars ($1,000), nor did she have any intention whatsoever to violate any law and in particular the Federal Election Campaign act of 1971. In fact, had Respondent known of such prohibition she would not have made any contributions in excess of the statutory limit and that but for her lack of awareness of said limitation said excess contributions would not have occurred.

D. 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(l)(A) prohibits single or aggregated contributions in excess of $1,000 from any person to any candidate or authorized committee of that candidate with respect to any election to federal office.

V. By making the above-listed contributions of Two Thousand Eight Hundred Dollars ($2,800), Respondent violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(l)(A).

VI. Respondent agrees that she shall not undertake any activity which is in violation of the Federal Election Campaign act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. § 431, et seq. and in particular warrants under penalty of perjury never again to make any political contributions in excess of the statutory limitation as established under law.

VII. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance with this agreement. If the Commission believes that this agreement or any requirement thereof has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

VIII. This agreement shall become effective as of the date that all parties hereto have executed same and the Commission has approved the entire agreement.

IX. Respondent shall have no more than thirty (30) days from the date this agreement becomes effective to comply with and implement the requirements contained in this agreement and to so notify the Commission.

Re: MUR 1360: Matter of Charles K. Fletcher

Dear Mr. Steele:

In your letter of April 8, 1982, you notified us that the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission") did not find "probable cause to believe" that Mr. Charles Wick and Mrs. Mary Jane Wick violated the contribution limits of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). The allegations against Mr. Wick arose in connection with an advancement of funds he made on behalf of the Reagan for President Committee (the "Committee") as its agent.

The issues presented to the Commission by its General Counsel's office in the Wick matter to the Committee are substantially the same as the issues raised with regard to Mr. Charles Fletcher. It remains our position that Mr. Fletcher's transactions did not result in a contribution to the Committee because he was merely acting as an agent of the Committee by advancing funds on its behalf with authority and the expectation of reimbursement. We believe it appropriate for the Office of the General Counsel to recommend to the Commission to reconsider its "probable cause" determination with respect to Mr. Fletcher.

LAW OFFICES

Any assistance you can give in this matter is most appreciated. Please do not hesitate to call if you have any questions concerning this matter.

Sincerely,

Edward L. Weidenfeld

Dear Ms. Weissenborn:

Thank you so much for your help of the other day regarding Miss Helen Moorehead's problem "MUR 1142/1255".

To reiterate our conversation, Miss Moorehead is 89 years old. She is very perky, but I am certain she cannot and does not keep track of matters such as campaign contributions. I note she gave a total of $2225.00 in eleven separate contributions. I am also certain she didn't realize she gave over the limit. I assume if the Reagan for President Committee said they returned her excess contribution, they probably did. However, I cannot say one way or another. Miss Moorehead was very concerned about the direction of the country and as a good citizen felt it imperative to contribute.

I have no doubt you people did send information to her regarding this case. She did have a major problem because the house she was living in was sold and she had to move out. This period of time was early spring to the present. She has not yet moved into a permanent living situation and is living in a motel.

Miss Moorehead would like to have this matter resolved as soon as possible. It is my feeling that when and if the Reagan Campaign returned her campaign contribution, the matter should have been resolved at that time and would have been if Miss Moorehead had responded with the proper papers. Obviously the papers came at a confusing time in her life.

Please let me know your thoughts on this. I am not a lawyer but merely a friend who has known Miss Moorehead for the past 15 years.

It is our understanding, as a result of your conversation, that you have not received a letter from this Office dated November 16, 1981, (copy enclosed) which informed you that the Federal Election Commission has found probable cause to believe that you violated the Federal Election Campaign Act by making contributions in 1979 and 1980 to the Reagan for President Committee in excess of $1,000. With that letter was a proposed conciliation agreement, another copy of which we have also enclosed herein.

Dear Mrs. Bardwell:

This letter is to confirm your conversation, on December 8, 1981, with Anne A. Weissenborn, an attorney with this Office. It is our understanding, as a result of your conversation, that you have not received a letter from this Office dated November 16, 1981, (copy enclosed) which informed you that the Federal Election Commission has found probable cause to believe that you violated the Federal Election Campaign Act by making contributions in 1979 and 1980 to the Reagan for President Committee in excess of $1,000. With that letter was a proposed conciliation agreement, another copy of which we have also enclosed herein.

The Commission would like to resolve this matter with you as quickly as possible. We urge you to show this letter and its enclosures to your attorney or to a friend or a member of your family who would be willing to contact Anne Weissenborn on your behalf. Ms. Weissenborn can be reached at (202) 523-4175 or at the Commission's toll free number (800) 424-9530.

Sincerely,

Charles N. Steele

Dear Ms. Weissenborn:

Thank you so much for your help of the other day regarding Miss Helen Moorehead's problem "MUR 1142/1255".

To reiterate our conversation, Miss Moorehead is 89 years old. She is very perky, but I am certain she cannot and does not keep track of matters such as campaign contributions. I note she gave a total of $2225.00 in eleven separate contributions. I am also certain she didn't realize she gave over the limit. I assume if the Reagan for President Committee said they returned her excess contribution, they probably did. However, I cannot say one way or another. Miss Moorehead was very concerned about the direction of the country and as a good citizen felt it imperative to contribute.

I have no doubt you people did send information to her regarding this case. She did have a major problem because the house she was living in was sold and she had to move out. This period of time was early spring to the present. She has not yet moved into a permanent living situation and is living in a motel.

Miss Moorehead would like to have this matter resolved as soon as possible. It is my feeling that when and if the Reagan Campaign returned her campaign contribution, the matter should have been resolved at that time and would have been if Miss Moorehead had responded with the proper papers. Obviously the papers came at a confusing time in her life.

Please let me know your thoughts on this. I am not a lawyer but merely a friend who has known Miss Moorehead for the past 15 years.

Sincerely,

John D. Harney

Dear Ms. Bardwell:

On November 10, 1981, the Commission determined that there is probable cause to believe that you violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) in connection with the 1979-1980 presidential election campaign.

The Commission has a duty to attempt to correct such violations within a period of thirty to ninety days by informal methods of conference, conciliation and persuasion, and by entering into a conciliation agreement. If we are unable to reach an agreement during that period, the Commission may institute a civil suit in United States District Court and seek payment of a civil penalty.

We enclose a conciliation agreement which this Office is prepared to recommend to the Commission in settlement of this matter. If you agree with the provisions of the enclosed agreement, please sign and return it, along with the civil penalty, to the Commission within ten days. We will then recommend that the Commission approve the agreement. Please make your check for the civil penalty payable to the United States Treasurer.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

EXECUTIVE SESSION

I. Background

These matters were generated as the result of information compiled by the Reports Analysis Division during the ordinary course of review of reports submitted by the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee") and by the Audit Division during its review of the Committee's records. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that the Committee had violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(9) and 441a(f), and that Maxy Pope Alles, Emma Bardwell, Margaret B. Bartlett, Ruth C. Crocker, James M. Forgotson, Richard J. Green, Leonard W. Hardy, Lucille W. Herbert, Frank M. Klamt, Elsa W. Mark, L. Randolph Mason, T. Cecil Meador, Jesse B. Moore, Helen L. Moorehead, Antoinette S. Wiking, Moran Interests, North Hollywood Glass Company, and Charles K. Fletcher had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

All respondents were notified of the Commission's findings and all but four replied to the notifications. Following analysis of all responses received, this Office prepared a series of briefs and letters which were mailed to the respondents on July 6, 1981. Copies of these briefs and letters were circulated to the Commission on an informational basis that same day. Reply briefs or other forms of response have been received on behalf of all but four of the respondents.

II. Legal Analysis

A. Violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) by the Reagan for President Committee.

The General Counsel's Brief states that in thirteen instances of expenditure itemization the Committee failed to report the names of the providers of goods and services, but, rather, listed the committee agents who obtained such goods or services as the payees. The Committee argues that it "fully complied with (all) statutory and regulatory requirements". It asserts that the Commission policy of requiring the reporting of ultimate payees has "no legal significance" because it was not formulated by means of formal rulemaking procedures and because it is "inconsistent with the statute and the Commission's regulations." (Counsel's Reply Brief for Committee, pages 3-6).

The Commission's requirement that authorized committees report as payees the person who provided the goods or services involved in an expenditure represents an interpretation of both the Federal Election Campaign Act and the Commission's own regulations. It is an established rule of administrative law that agencies may interpret their own regulations, and that such interpretations are controlling unless "plainly erroneous or inconsistent with the regulation." Sutherland, Statutes and Statutory Constitution, § 31.06, quoting Immigration and Naturalization Service v. Stanisic, 395 U.S. 62 (1969).

The statute and regulations here at issue, 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5) (formerly (2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9)) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4)(i) (formerly 11 C.F.R. § 104.2(b)(9)) require committees to report "each person" to whom an "expenditure" in excess of a given amount (now $200) is made. As early as 1976, and thus prior to the promulgation of regulations, the Commission interpreted "expenditure" as not including payments made to committee personnel for the purchase of goods and services from third parties. Rather, such payments were deemed intra-committee transfers. The "expenditure" was the payment made by that committee agent to the provider of the goods or services involved; thus, the person receiving the reported expenditure would be of necessity the provider of the goods or services involved, not a committee agent. See Notice to All Candidates and Committees, September 30, 1976. Since May 1, 1977, the date of the first promulgation of the Commission's regulations, this same interpretation has been consistently applied to the regulations implementing 2 U.S.C. § 434(b), and committees have been placed on notice to this effect. The Committee's argument that the Commission's reporting requirement is without legal significance is therefore without foundation. Indeed, to permit the reporting of payments to committee agents when the monies involved were used to pay other parties would run counter to the public disclosure purposes of the Federal Election Campaign Act.

The Committee also argues that it is inconsistent with the statute and regulation for the Commission to require the identification of the actual providers of goods and services purchased by a committee because the statute requires only reporting of the purpose of the expenditure, not its particulars. This argument, however, confuses the reporting of "persons" (i.e., payees) with the reporting of purposes and therefore is not relevant to the issue at hand.

Given the failure of the Committee to amend its reports to disclose the ultimate payees of the expenditures here at issue, it remains the recommendation of this Office that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5).

B. Violations of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by the Committee.

1. Receipt of excessive contributions from individual contributors.

Counsel's response to the recommendation of this Office concerning the Committee's receipt of excessive contributions from individuals 1/ contains several defenses, namely a lack of "knowing" acceptance, the alleged inapplicability of the reasonable time provisions of 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b) related to refunds of illegal contributions, and the assertion that refunds or reattributions were made or received within "a reasonable time."

Counsel argues that this Office must show that the Committee "had knowledge at the time of acceptance of the contribution that the contribution had in fact exceeded the $1,000 contribution limitation" in order to support a finding of knowing acceptance of illegal contributions pursuant to Section 441a(f).

It is the position of this Office that the Committee knew that it was accepting contributions from the individuals involved and that it had the responsibility of assuring that such contributions were aggregated with any previously received. 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(l)(A) prohibits the making of contributions which aggregate in excess of $1,000 per election, while 2 U.S.C. § 44la(f) prohibits committees from accepting contributions which violate Section 44la(a)(l)(A). As a result of these provisions, a recipient committee has a positive duty to aggregate all contributions received from individual contributors. Failure to maintain a timely and accurate aggregation system cannot be deemed to provide a defense regarding later determinations that excessive contributions have been accepted. Otherwise, committees would soon discover that non-aggregation worked to their benefit by allowing them to plead ignorance of excessive aggregate receipts. A premium would be placed upon incomplete recordkeeping, opening committees to possible violation of 2 U.S.C. § 432 but protecting them from allegations of receipt of illegal contributions.

1/ The number of individuals now stands at 127 and the amount of excessive contributions at $102,720. See Attachment 1 for adjusted listing.

3 0 4 0 5 8 1 6 5

Indeed, the court in one of the cases cited by the Committee in support of its argument, namely, United States v. Jewell, 532 F.2d 697 (9th Cir. 1976), quotes leading authorities to the effect that in criminal law the deliberate closing of one's eyes to available knowledge has been deemed to be the equivalent of the possession of actual knowledge. Although the present issue involves civil law only, the principle remains the same. The fact that the Committee knew that it was accepting contributions which it was under a duty to aggregate with any other contributions from the same person supports a finding of a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 44la(f) when actual excessive aggregated contributions are determined to have been accepted.

It should also be noted that, in fact, the Committee itself showed, through its 1979 disclosure reports, that it was in actual knowledge of $31,620 in possibly excessive contributions received from sixty-two persons or approximately one-half of those whose contributions are at issue in the present matter. The report filed by the Committee for the second quarter of 1979 contained notations that receipts totaling $2,500 from four contributors were excessive and would be refunded, while the report filed for the third quarter contained similar notations as to excessive contributions totaling $1,275 from eight individuals. The Committee's Year-end Report for 1979 contained asterisks marking 49 reported contributors whose excessive contributions totaling $24,845 are at issue in this matter, and also the following explanation:

> This contribution may exceed limit, is being reviewed, and if in excess will be refunded February, 1980.

Later, in April, 1980, the Audit Division presented the Committee with a list of 128 individuals who had apparently exceeded their limitations as of December 30, 1979; contributions from 125 of these individuals are still at issue in this matter. 2/ Therefore, the Committee had actual notice in 1979 of excessive contributions totaling $31,620, and gained further actual knowledge about $41,935 of the amount here at issue in April, 1980, as a result of the Commission's audit for a total of $73,555. Regarding the additional excessive amounts identified by the Audit Division, the Committee cannot excuse itself from the necessity of aggregating these contributions prior to notification by the Audit Division. Its responsibilities in this regard dated from the receipt of the contributions involved.

2/ The sixty-two individuals earlier identified by the Committee were included in this list.

With regard to the remainder of the amount at issue, or $29,265, this figure represents additional contributions made in 1980 by individuals who had already exceeded their limitations in 1979 ($22,090) and contributions from five individuals who exceeded their limitations in 1980 ($7,175). Again, it was the Committee's responsibility to aggregate the contributions from these individuals, and it should not be permitted to plead unknowing acceptance of excessive contributions on the basis of failure to aggregate.

The Committee also argues that 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b) and its requirement that illegal contributions be refunded within a "reasonable time" is inapplicable to the present issue because the regulatory section heading in the Code of Federal Regulations is followed by a citation to 2 U.S.C. § 432(h)(1) which concerns campaign depositories. This Office finds that this argument represents a misunderstanding of the function of the statutory citation and totally ignores both the clear language of the regulation which was first prescribed in 1977 and the discussion of that regulation in the Commission's Explanation and Justification which accompanied the 1977 regulations. The statutory citation relied upon by the Committee appears only in the Code of Federal Regulations, not in the official version of the regulation published in the Federal Register. The citation was included by the Commission as a reference for the convenience of readers and not as part of the regulation itself. Therefore, it is the content of the regulation which governs, not an unofficial citation accompanying the heading.

The Explanation and Justification for 11 C.F.R. § 103.3 stated:

> Contributions of questionable legality shall either be returned to the contributor or deposited while the treasurer determines the validity of the contribution. This subsection was added by the Commission at the suggestion of many Committees as a guide to the proper handling of questionable contributions.

The regulation itself clearly concerns the handling of possibly illegal contributions, including requirement of refunds within a reasonable time. The fact that it is included with the section on campaign depositories does not prevent its applicability in the present matter which involves the type of situation the regulation was designed to reach.

Counsel also states that the Committee "did, in fact, refund or reattribute all excess contributions within a reasonable time after becoming aware that a contributor had exceeded the $1,000 limitation" and that these refunds or reattributions include the excess contributions which this Office alleges to have not yet been addressed. (Counsel's Reply Brief for Committee, pp. 8-9). No documentation supporting the latter assertion has been supplied. Counsel argues that the time taken to refund or reattribute the excessive contributions were reasonable given other demands upon computer time, the need to verify excessive contributions before notifying contributors, the time needed to correspond with contributors, and the committee's move from California to Virginia in July, 1980.

It remains the position of this Office that the time taken by the Committee to make refunds or to secure reattributions of virtually all of its apparently excessive receipts was not reasonable, and that this position is supported by an analysis of the Committee's own reports as well as by the findings of the Audit Division. Beginning as early as its second quarterly report filed in July, 1979, the Committee acknowledged receipt of possibly excessive contributions, but, with only one exception, took an average of at least five months and often much longer to rectify those which it had itself identified. Excessive contributions from two persons noted in the above second quarterly report for 1979, totaling $1,750 were reported as having been reattributed only in May, 1980, or one year later. The excessive portions of contributions from two additional individuals noted in the same report and totaling $750 were reported as having been refunded in May and June, 1980. The excessive portions of contributions from six individuals totaling $1,100 noted in the third quarterly report for 1979 were reported as reattributed in May, 1980 and the excessive portions of an additional two contributors noted in the same report, totaling $175, were reported as refunded that same month, i.e., at least eight months after their receipt.

Excessive contributions from thirteen individuals totaling $6,150. noted in the Committee's Year-End Report for 1979 were reported as reattributed or found by the Audit Division to have been reattributed in May, 1980 ($2,000 to one person), August, 1980 ($450 to two persons), November, 1980 ($1,850 to three persons), and December, 1980 ($800 to three persons), and in March, 1981 ($950 to three persons), or an average of 11.6 months after the end of the report period. Only one in the sum of $100 appears to have been reattributed in a timely fashion, namely in November, 1979. Excessive portions of thirty-two other contributions noted in the same report, totaling $18,345, were reported as refunded in August, 1980 ($4,350 to eight persons), in October, 1980 ($3,375 to two persons), and in December, 1980 ($3,375 to five persons), and in January, 1981 ($845 to nine persons), in March, 1981 ($2,900 to five persons), and in April, 1981 ($3,500 to three persons) for an average of 12 months needed for final committee action, beginning at the close of the fourth quarter, 1979.

The information provided by the Audit Division to the Committee in April, 1980, regarding excessive 1979 contributions not noted by the Committee identified $41,935 in apparently excessive contributions from seventy-eight individuals. The Committee has reported reattributions involving $19,500. Of $6,000 in contributions from six individuals who first appeared to have exceeded their limitations during the second quarter, 1979, two reattributions were secured in May, 1980 ($2,000), one in November, 1980 ($1,000), one in December, 1980 ($1,000) and two in March, 1981 ($2,000) with an average time of 16.5 months required to rectify the apparent illegalities, dated from the end of the reporting period involved. Regarding apparent excessive contributions received as of the third quarter of 1979, the Committee has reported $8,000 in reattributions involving eight individuals, two of these reattributions having been secured in May, 1980 ($2,000) and six in November, 1980 ($6,000) for an average of 12.5 months required for rectification after the end of the report period involved. The Committee has also addressed ten reattributions of excessive contributions totaling $5,500 identified by the Audit Division as received in the fourth quarter of 1979; seven of these reattributions were secured in May, 1980 ($3,800), two in December, 1980 ($700) and one in March, 1981 ($1,000) for an average of 6.7 months required for rectification from the end of the report period. Regarding the same Audit Division-identified 1979 contributions, the Committee has also reported refunds totaling $14,985. Of this amount, $3,125 represented excessive contributions received from six individuals during the second quarter of 1979; excessive amounts were refunded in May, 1980 ($1,750 to two persons), in August, 1980 ($250 to one person), in January, 1981 ($100 to one person), and in March, 1981 ($1,025 to two persons) with an average of 12.6 months taken for this purpose. Excessive contributions totaling $5,875 from nine individuals were recorded for the third quarter of 1979; refunds have been reported to one person in May, 1980 ($50), to two persons in August, 1980 ($775), to one person in January, 1981 ($50), to one person in March, 1981 ($1,000) and to four persons in April, 1981 ($4,000), an average 15.5 months having been required to make these refunds. And for the fourth quarter of 1979, the Committee's records showed excessive contributions of $5,485 from twelve individuals with refunds reported to five persons in August, 1980 ($1,835), to four persons in December, 1980 ($2,250), to one person in January, 1981 ($50), to one person in March, 1981 ($350) and to one person in April, 1981 ($1,000) with an average of 11 months taken to make these refunds. One additional excessive contribution of $250 received during the fourth quarter was refunded in a timely fashion in December, 1979. The contribution date of another $250 received in 1979 is unclear; it was refunded in March, 1981.

No evidence has been provided for either reattributions or refunds related to $3,450 in excessive contributions from five individuals identified by the Committee in its Year-End Report for 1979 or for $7,500 in additional excessive 1979 contributions from fifteen persons identified by the Audit Division.

Also included in this matter is $29,265 in excessive contributions received by the Committee during 1980 which represented additions to those made by twenty-four contributors who had already exceeded their limitations in 1979 ($22,090) or which caused five other contributors to exceed their limitations for the first time in 1980 ($7,175). Regarding the additional amounts contributed by persons already over their limits, the Committee took an average of six months from the date of the last contributions made by these contributors to either reattribute or refund the additional excessive amounts involved. The refunds were made to twelve individuals in August, 1980 ($15,275), to one individual in October, 1980 ($406), to six persons in December, 1980 ($3,100) and to one individual in January, 1981 ($125). Three reattributions totaling $1,234 were reported for August, 1980, and an additional reattribution of $200 was reported in December, 1980. The exact date of a reattribution of $1,000 is unclear. No response has been received with regard to $750 in 1980 contributions.

Three of the individuals who first exceeded their limitations in 1980 did so in March, while one exceeded his in April and one in May. Required refunds totaling $7,025 were made in August, 1980, for an average response time of four months. One of these refunds involving $1,000 has since been voided and a reattribution in the same amount received in October, 1980. A reallocation of $150 was made in August, 1980.

Based upon the above analysis of the timing of Committee reported rectification of $90,920 in excessive contributions, 3/ plus the fact that neither Committee records nor reports show reallocations or refunds of an additional $11,450 in excessive contributions, this Office reaffirms its recommendation that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Reagan for President Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

C. Apparently Excessive Contributions Received by the Committee from Moran Interests

Counsel for the Committee concurs with the recommendation of the Office of General Counsel contained in its Brief. This Office now reaffirms its recommendation that the Commission find no probable cause to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) with regard to the receipt of contributions from Moran Interests.

D. Receipt of Excessive Contribution from North Hollywood Glass Company

As stated in the brief submitted by this Office, North Hollywood Glass Company made $5,680.60 in expenditures on behalf of Ronald Reagan for a fundraiser held on October 11, 1979, submitted an invoice to the Committee on October 31, 1979, and was reimbursed on December 3, 1979.

---

3/ At the time of the post-primary audit, the Committee supplied documentation for $2,884 in reattributions and for $13,656 in refunds. Responses from individual contributors who are respondents in this matter have confirmed an additional $9,160 in reported refunds and $1,000 in reported reattributions. No additional documentation has been examined.

Contrary to counsel's contention, the issue here is not whether the Company was reimbursed within a reasonable period of time. This Office finds that it was. Rather, the issue is whether a business entity whose ordinary course of business involves, not political fundraising, but the sale of plate glass doors and windows may legally make $5,680 in reimburseable expenditures involving a fundraising event on behalf of a candidate. It remains the position of this Office that such expenditures constituted advances totaling $5,680.60 and thus an excessive contribution pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A)(i) and 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). 4/

In his brief, counsel to the Committee argues that North Hollywood Glass Company ("the Company") must be considered a "vendor", not a "contributor"; that "advances" are limited by regulation to extensions of credit beyond normal business practice; that the Company's expenditures were analogous to the rental by a corporate entity of office space to a political committee as permitted by 11 C.F.R. § 114.9(d); and that the fundraiser at issue was a public relations event in the ordinary course of business.

4/ In MUR 1360, the Commission found reason to believe that an individual acting as a fundraiser for the Committee had made excessive in-kind contributions to the Committee because he had not been reimbursed by the Committee within a reasonable time. This Office believes that that situation is distinguishable from the present one because in MUR 1360 the individual was serving as a Committee volunteer and agent.

It is the opinion of this Office that in order for a business entity to be deemed a "vendor", and not a contributor, it must be shown that that business entity provides the specific goods or services purchased by a committee as part of its ordinary business practice. The mere fact that a company presents a bill or invoice to a committee does not make the activity for which the bill is presented an ordinary business practice of the company involved. The Commission has in the past applied the concept of ordinary business practice to situations not involving the extension of credit. 5/

It is the opinion of this Office that, given the discrepancy between the Company's usual business activity of glass sales and its involvement in political fundraising, it should not have extended credit (i.e., made an advance) to the Committee in excess of its $1,000 contribution limitation. To permit any business entity for which no agency relationship has been claimed to expend unlimited sums in excess of its contribution limitation outside of its ordinary business activities on behalf of a candidate, provided only that prompt reimbursement is made, would be to undermine the contribution limitation provisions of the Act.

Counsel also states that even if "ordinary course of business" refers to services or products, it would be permissible for a business entity such as the Company to engage in the type of

5/ For example, in AO 1976-86, the Commission emphasized the standard practice of a billboard company in relation to a question concerning the timing of the display of ads after the contract period had elapsed. And in its Response to AOR 1976-56 the Commission found that whether or not a hotel could provide complimentary accommodations to Federal candidates depended upon its usual practice with regard to other, non-candidate guests.

activities at issue because these activities are analogous to the provisions in the Commission's regulations which permit corporations to make their facilities available to political candidates provided reimbursement is made within a commercially reasonable time. This Office believes that a distinction exists between the rental of corporate or other business facilities when they are already in place and a situation in which a business entity actually expends additional sums over and above its normal costs as is the case in the present situation. For this reason counsel's analogy is not valid.

Lastly, counsel argues that arranging a political fundraiser is within the Company's ordinary course of business because it served a public relations function. The statute and regulations do not address this issue. However, it should be noted that the Internal Revenue Code, as an exception to the general rule permitting deductions for "all the ordinary and necessary expenses in carrying out any trade or business" (26 C.F.R. § 162(a)), prohibits the "deduction of any amount paid or received (whether by way of contribution, gift or otherwise) for participation in, or intervention in, any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office." (26 C.F.R. § 162(e)(2)). Therefore, for tax purposes, the Company could not claim that its fundraising activities were within its ordinary course of business, and it should not be permitted to do so in the present matter.

For the above reasons, this Office reaffirms its recommendation that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the

8 3 0 4 0 3 8 1 6 3 7

Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting an excessive contribution from North Hollywood Glass Company.

E. Receipt of Excessive Contribution from Charles K. Fletcher

Counsel for the Committee argues that Mr. Fletcher's expenditure of $5,000, made to the Hilton Hawaiian Village Hotel on August 28, 1979, as a security deposit related to a fundraiser, was a reimburseable expense incurred on behalf of the Committee, not a contribution. According to counsel, Mr. Fletcher was the treasurer of the Hawaii Reagan for President Committee and thus was an agent of the Committee. His expenditure was incurred by him as an agent and was made on behalf of the Committee "with the expectation that reimbursement would be forthcoming." (Counsel's Reply Brief for Commiteee, page 14). Counsel argues several positions: (1) that as an agent of the Committee Mr. Fletcher's expenditure was made on behalf of, and reimbursed by, the Committee, and thus cannot be a contribution; (2) that if it is assumed Mr. Fletcher was not an agent, the Committee had no knowledge of the expenditure at the time it was made and therefore "did not knowingly accept an excessive contribution"; and (3) if the expenditure was an excessive contribution, it was repaid within a reasonable time." (Counsel's Reply Brief for Committee, page 15).

An analysis of these defenses shows that they are mutually exclusive. Either Mr. Fletcher was an agent of the Committee, or he wasn't. Counsel has already asserted that he was as part of Mr. Fletcher's and the Committee's defenses. Either Mr. Fletcher sought reimbursement in a reasonable manner and within a reasonable time, or he didn't, and counsel has asserted that he "pursued all reasonable and available means to obtain a reimbursement." If Mr. Fletcher was an agent of the Committee, and he did pursue reimbursement within a reasonable time, the Committee had knowledge of his expenditure at the time it was made and/or at the time it was notified of his need for reimbursement. Counsel's argument regarding lack of Committee's notice outside an agency relationship is not supported by the facts.

It has recently come to the attention of this Office that on September 20, 1979, the Committee apparently received a copy of a memorandum written to the master file of the Hawaii Reagan for President Committee in which Mr. Fletcher's loans to that Committee are spelled out in detail. The memorandum ends with the sentence "Reagan for President is to reimburse Mr. Fletcher for these advances." (Attachment 2). 6/

Therefore, if Mr. Fletcher is deemed a Committee agent, the Committee was on notice of his required reimbursement as of August 28, 1979, the day he made the $5,000 expenditure. Whether or not he was an agent, the Commitee no later than September 20, 1979, was on notice of Mr. Fletcher's desire for reimbursement and it was incumbent upon the Committee to see that such repayment was made. It was not, however, until January 25, 1980, or four months after notification, that the Committee made the required reimbursement. This Office does not find such timing to have been reasonable, and therefore reaffirms its recommendation that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Reagan for President Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

6/ This memorandum also cites an additional "loan" by Mr. Fletcher to the Committee of $688.44 in the form of payment for 10 1/2 dozen T-shirts. No evidence of Committee action regarding this amount is in the possession of this Office.

F. Apparently Excessive Contributions Made by Fifteen Individuals

1. Ms. Maxy Pope Alles

Counsel for respondent has filed a response to the General Counsel's brief. His correction of the figure for the Committee's repayment time from nine months to seven and one-half months after receipt of respondent's last contribution is accepted.

Counsel has expanded upon the defense presented earlier regarding $250 of Mrs. Alles' contribution by stating that due to a clerical error a check for $250 intended for the CFR Educational Foundation was made payable to the Reagan for President Committee. It is stated that Mrs. Alles assumed that the check had been sent to the Foundation until the $250 was returned as part of the Committee's refund. Counsel also asserts that Mrs. Alles had not realized that pre-candidacy contributions count toward the contributor's $1,000 limitation once the recipient becomes a candidate, and therefore intended her first $1,000 contribution to be used for pre-candidacy purposes. Finally, counsel states that upon learning that her pre-candidacy contribution did count toward her limitation, Mrs. Alles initiated the eventual Committee refund.

It has been Commission practice to consider such defenses as mitigating circumstances to be taken into account when conciliating a civil penalty. They have not been deemed sufficient basis for a finding of no probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred. On the other hand, Mrs. Alles has already entered into a conciliation agreement with the Commission in MUR 1057 with regard to her violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(3) during 1978; this conciliation agreement included a $1,600 penalty. The contributions involved in the present matter were separate from and later than those involved in MUR 1057, but were made prior to the Commission's finding of reason to believe in the earlier matter. There is no indication that Mrs. Alles has exceeded her limitations since 1979. Given her age, etc., and the above factors, this Office withdraws its earlier recommendation and now recommends that no further action be taken with regard to her excessive contribution made in 1979.

2. Emma Bardwell

No response to the General Counsel's Brief has been received from Ms. Bardwell. This Office reaffirms its recommendation that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Emma Bardwell violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

3. Margaret B. Bartlett

Ms. Bartlett has designated counsel for the Committee as her counsel. On October 14, 1981, counsel filed a reply to the General Counsel's Brief. In the reply brief, counsel argues that Mrs. Bartlett, who is 82 years old, did not knowingly violate the Act, that any violation was the result of Committee error, and that a full refund has been made. Although ignorance of the law and mistakes and refund by a recipient would generally serve only as mitigating factors, in the present instance, in light of Mrs.

8 5 0 4 0 3 8 1 6 7 1

Bartlett's age, this Office withdraws the recommendation in its Brief, and now recommends that the Commission take no further action with regard to her excessive contribution.

4. Ruth C. Crocker

Counsel for Mrs. Crocker has requested informal conciliation. On September 29, 1981, the Commission approved a proposed conciliation agreement which has been forwarded to counsel.

5. James M. Forgotson

Counsel for the Committee has responded to the General Counsel's Brief on behalf of Mr. Forgotson and concurs with the recommendation of this Office that no further action be taken with regard to the excessive contributions made by this respondent.

6. Richard J. Greene

Counsel for the Committee has responded to the General Counsel's Brief on behalf of Mr. Greene.

Counsel is incorrect in his statement that the General Counsel's Brief does not acknowledge Mrs. Greene's portion of the contributions at issue. The brief points out that in a letter dated October 17, 1980, signed by both Mr. and Mrs. Greene, it was explained that $2,000 of the contributions at issue was intended to have been divided equally between these two individuals. It is the position of this Office, however, that this designation was not timely.

11 C.F.R. § 104.8(c) states that "absent evidence to the contrary, any contribution made by check...shall be reported as a contribution by the last person signing the instrument..."

8 0 4 0 3 8 1 6 7

11 C.F.R. § 104.8(d) requires either a designation of co-contributors on the written instrument itself or an accompanying written instrument signed by all contributors. In cases of joint accounts, these regulations thus require that the person who signs the check be deemed the contributor unless there is supporting documentation indicating that a different attribution is intended.

In the present situation, the only documentation directing allocation between Mr. and Mrs. Greene was their October 17, 1980 letter which was written five months after the last $1,000 contribution at issue was made, one year after the first contribution of $1,000 was made, and only following Mr. Greene's receipt of notification of the Commission's finding of reason to believe.

It is the opinion of this Office that allocations at such a late date do not serve to rectify the originally excessive contribution. Therefore, this Office reaffirms its recommendation that the Commission find reason to believe that Richard J. Greene violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

7. Leonard W. Hardy

Mr. Hardy has designated counsel for the Committee as his counsel. On October 14, 1981, counsel filed a reply to the General Counsel's Brief. Mr. Hardy's excessive contributions are acknowledged, but counsel pleads the lack of a knowing violation, argues that his violation was the result of "an error of accumulation" by the Committee, and notes that a full refund has been made. The facts that the excessive amounts of Mr. Hardy's contributions were refunded and that he was the victim of the Committee's mistake serve only to mitigate the situation, not to eliminate the violation. Counsel cites no other extenuating circumstances. Therefore, This Office reaffirms its recommendation that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Leonard W. Hardy violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

8. Lucille W. Herbert

In response to the General Counsel's brief a representative of Mrs. Herbert called to inform this Office that a conservator has been appointed to handle her financial affairs because of her failing mental capacity. Correspondence received earlier from Mrs. Herbert appears to confirm this situation. Therefore, this Office wishes to withdraw the recommendation in its brief in favor of a recommendation that no further action be taken with regard to Lucille W. Herbert's excessive contribution.

9. Frank M. Klamt

Both Mr. Klamt and counsel for the Committee have responded to the General Counsel's Brief on behalf of Mr. Klamt. Counsel presents two arguments, the first seeming to be that the excessive amount of Mr. Klamt's contribution, or $1,250, was made to, or intended for the Compliance Fund, by which is apparently meant the Reagan-Bush Compliance Fund, and the second that if there was any excessive contribution it was the result of Committee error. In the first instance, it should be noted that the Reagan-Bush Compliance Fund did not come into existence until late May, 1980, while the last contribution received by the Committee from Mr. Klamt was dated in January, 1980. The fact that the excessive amounts of Mr. Klamt's contributions were refunded to him in August, 1980, and later recontributed by himself and his wife to the Compliance Fund, does not eliminate his excessive contribution to the Committee itself. Counsel's second argument, that Mr. Klamt may have relied on an erroneous Committee solicitation or been the victim of an erroneous Committee accumulation also serves only to mitigate the situation, not to eliminate the violation. On the other hand, in light of Mr. Klamt's own response (Attachment 3) in which he raises problems with his eyesight, etc., this Office recommends that no further action be taken with regard to his excessive violation.

8 3 0 4 0 3 6 1 6 7

10. Elsa M. Mark

Counsel for Mrs. Mark has requested informal conciliation. On September 29, 1981, the Commission approved a proposed conciliation agreement which has been forwarded to counsel.

11. L. Randolph Mason

Counsel for Mr. Mason has responded to the General Counsel's Brief. In this response, it is stated that Mr. Mason is 95 years of age and of deteriorating mental and physical capacity. In light of these facts, this Office withdraws the recommendation in its Brief and now recommends that the Commission take no further action with regard to L. Randolph Mason's excessive contribution.

12. T. Cecil Meador

This Office reaffirms its recommendation that no further action be taken with regard to Mr. Meador's excessive contribution because he is now deceased.

8 3 0 4 0 3 8 1 5 7 5

13. Jesse B. Moore

Mr. Moore has responded to the General Counsel's Brief. In his reply brief he states that he was unaware of the contribution limitation until after the Committee called the matter to his attention. Prior to receipt of this letter, Mr. Clymer Wright, who served as finance chairman for the Committee in Texas, telephoned this Office on behalf of Mr. Moore, expressing the latter's concern about the issue of his excessive contribution and stating that Mr. Moore is quite elderly. Although ignorance of the law would in usual situations serve only to mitigate a violation, in the present instance this Office withdraws the recommendation in its Brief, and now recommends that the Commission accept this defense and take no further action with regard to Jesse B. Moore's excessive contribution.

14. Helen L. Moorehead

Ms. Moorehead has not responded to the General Counsel's Brief. This Office reaffirms its recommendation that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Helen L. Moorehead violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

15. Antoinette S. Wiking

Ms. Wiking has not responded to the General Counsel's Brief. This Office reaffirms its recommendation that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Antoinette S. Wiking violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

G. Apparent Excessive Contribution Made by Moran Interests

Counsel for the Committee has responded to the General Counsel's Brief on behalf of Moran Interests and concurs with the recommendation of the Office of General Counsel.

This Office now reaffirms its recommendation that the Commission find no probable cause to believe that Moran Interests violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

H. Excessive Contribution Made by North Hollywood Glass Company

Counsel for the Committee has responded to the General Counsel's Brief on behalf of North Hollywood Glass Company. The defenses raised on behalf of the Company parallel those raised on behalf of the Committee and are discussed in Section D, above. For the reasons cited earlier, this Office reaffirms its recommendation that the Commission find probable cause to believe that North Hollywood Glass Company violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

I. Excessive Contribution Made by Charles K. Fletcher

Counsel for the Committee has responded to the General Counsel's Brief on behalf of Mr. Fletcher. The defenses raised on behalf of Mr. Fletcher parallel those raised on behalf of the Committee and are discussed in Section E, above. For these reasons set forth in that discussion, this Office reaffirms its recommendation that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Charles K. Fletcher violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

III. Discussion of Conciliation and Civil Penalties

Proposed conciliation agreements are attached regarding all respondents with regard to whom this Office has recommended a finding of probable cause to believe. In each instance, the suggested civil penalty represents 50% of the amount of excessive receipts or contributions involved in the agreement. The civil penalty included in the agreement to be sent to the Committee does not include an amount related to the violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9); an admission of wrongdoing would seem sufficient in that regard.

IV. Recommendations

1. Find probable cause to believe that the Reagan for President Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) and 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

2. Find probable cause to believe that Emma Bardwell, Richard J. Greene, Leonard W. Hardy, Helen L. Moorehead, and Antoinette S. Wiking violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

3. Find probable cause to believe that North Hollywood Glass Company violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

4. Find probable cause to believe that Charles K. Fletcher violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

Re: MUR 1142/1255

Dear Sir:

I have been held in violation since about July in 1980, it taken a lot of time to get some one to - represent you on a election year and a lot more time to get action I am sorry that it has taken so much time.

It was in the back of my mind that $1000. was the limit for the year, in my case I had recieved a refund of $1250 from the Reagan for President Committee. This made me square with the F.E.C. My second mistake put me right back in the frying Pan. I wanted to Compensate The Reagan Bush Compliance Fund for their help My first thought was that Both, Reagan & Bush would each be good for $1000. each But I only wanted to give $1250 thinking they could split it. The mistake I made was not splitting at this time. The Reagan Bush Committee Sent me the Papers and me and my wife Split the $1250 contribution. $250. was Put in my Wifes Name

I been a sick man through most of this I lost my right in 1977 and almost lost my left eye, from a Glacoma operation in 1979 in June. This is the reason or one of the Reasons, it is so hard to write + read. It is real easy to Oversight When you see Double. Pleas close this file forever, Respectfully Yours,

If we are unable to reach an agreement during that period, the Commission may institute a civil suit in United States District Court and seek payment of a civil penalty.

We enclose a conciliation agreement which this Office is prepared to recommend to the Commission in settlement of this matter. Re: MUR 1142/1255: Matter of Margaret B. Bartlett

Dear Ms. Weissenborn:

In accordance with the procedures of the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") as set forth in 11 C.F.R. § 111.16, counsel for Margaret B. Bartlett hereby responds to the General Counsel's letter of July 6, 1981.*/ That letter recommended that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Mrs. Bartlett violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making a contribution to the Reagan for President Committee ("Committee") in excess of $1,000.

Based upon the following factual and legal discussion, it is respectfully requested that the General Counsel withdraw its recommendation from the Commission's consideration and take no further action against Mrs. Bartlett with respect to her alleged excessive contribution.

*/ Pursuant to FEC regulation 11 C.F.R. § 111.16(c), 3 copies of Mrs. Bartlett's response are enclosed. In addition, 10 copies of this brief have been filed with the Secretary of the Commission.

3 0 4 0 3 8 1 7 1 2

General Counsel's Allegations

The General Counsel's brief recommends that the Commission find "probable cause" to believe that Mrs. Bartlett violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making contributions to the Committee in excess of the Act's $1,000 limit for individuals.

Facts

Between May 1979 and May 1980, Mrs. Bartlett made several contributions to the Reagan for President Committee. One contribution received by the Committee on March 18, 1980 for $500, actually represented a joint contribution from Marsom Bartlett and Margaret B. Bartlett. By letter dated March 28, 1980, ten days after the Committee's receipt of the $500 check, Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett notified the Committee that $250 was contributed by each of them. (See Attachment A).

In the normal course of reviewing contribution receipts, the Committee discovered a questionable excess contribution on the part of Mrs. Bartlett. By check dated August 25, 1980, the Committee refunded $2,450 to Mrs. Bartlett. (See Attachment B).

Discussion

Mrs. Bartlett did not knowingly violate any provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act. Prior to receiving the "reason to believe" notice from the Commission, Mrs. Bartlett was unaware of the $1,000 contribution limit for individuals. Consequently, Mrs. Bartlett made several contributions to the Reagan for President Committee which in the aggregate exceeded $1,000. Nevertheless, the Committee refunded all excess amounts to Mrs. Bartlett, rendering her within the legal limit.

Mrs. Bartlett, who is 82 years of age, frequently receives solicitations for contributions of a political or social nature and readily contributes to these causes. When Mrs. Bartlett contributed to the Committee, she did so with the intent of fully complying with the law. If there was an excess contribution, it resulted solely from an error of accumulation and all excess amounts subsequently were refunded to Mrs. Bartlett by the Committee. Because the Commission has already obtained compliance with the Act, no purpose is served by finding Mrs. Bartlett in violation of the law.

Private political fund raising remains an integral part of the presidential primary process. Fund raising takes many forms from direct mail to celebrity galas. Individuals who are not fully aware of the statutory technicalities applicable to political contributions may inadvertently exceed their limits. To hold Mrs. Bartlett in violation of the Act in these circumstances would unduly chill the political financing process as contributors may become wary of making contributions in the future. This result does not serve the intended public financing purposes of the Federal Election Campaign Act. In Mrs. Bartlett's case, the Commission has already obtained compliance with the Act. No further action against Mrs. Bartlett is warranted.

Conclusion

In light of the above factual and legal discussion, it is respectfully requested that no further action be taken against Mrs. Bartlett and that the file on this matter be closed.

Sincerely,

Edward L. Weidenfeld

Re: MUR 1142/1255: Matter of Leonard W. Hardy

Dear Ms. Weissenborn:

In accordance with the procedures of the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") as set forth in 11 C.F.R. § 111.16, counsel for Leonard B. Hardy hereby responds to the General Counsel's letter of July 6, 1981.*/ That letter recommended that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Mr. Hardy violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making a contribution to the Reagan for President Committee ("Committee") in excess of $1,000.

Based upon the following factual and legal discussion, it is respectfully requested that the General Counsel withdraw its recommendation from the Commission's consideration and take no further action against Mr. Hardy with respect to his alleged excessive contribution.

*/ Pursuant to FEC regulation 11 C.F.R. § 111.16(c), 3 copies of Mr. Hardy's response are enclosed. In addition, 10 copies of this brief have been filed with the Secretary of the Commission.

General Counsel's Allegations

The General Counsel's brief recommends that the Commission find "probable cause" to believe that Mr. Hardy violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making contributions to the Committee in excess of the Act's $1,000 limit for individuals.

Facts

On five separate occasions between August 1979 and April 1980, Mr. Hardy made contributions to the Reagan for President Committee which totaled $3,000. In the normal course of reviewing contribution receipts, the Committee discovered a questionable excess contribution on the part of Mr. Hardy. By check dated August 11, 1980, the Committee refunded $2,000 to Mr. Hardy. (See Attachment A).

Discussion

Mr. Hardy did not knowingly violate any provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act. Prior to receiving the "reason to believe" notice from the Commission, Mr. Hardy was unaware of the $1,000 contribution limit for individuals. Consequently, Mr. Hardy made several contributions to the Reagan for President Committee which, in the aggregate, exceeded $1,000. Nevertheless, the Committee refunded all excess amounts to Mr. Hardy, rendering him within the legal limit.

Mr. Hardy contributed to the Committee in response to mail solicitations he received. When Mr. Hardy contributed to the Committee, he did so with the intent of fully complying with the law. If there was an excess contribution, it resulted solely from an error of accumulation and all excess amounts subsequently were refunded to Mr. Hardy by the Committee. Because the Commission has already oabtained compliance with the Act, no purpose is served by finding Mr. Hardy in violation of the law.

Private political fund raising remains an integral part of the presidential primary process. Fund raising takes many forms from direct mail to celebrity galas. Individuals who are not fully aware of the statutory technicalities applicable to political contributions may inadvertently exceed their limits. To hold Mr. Hardy in violation of the Act in these circumstances would unduly chill the political financing process as contributors may become wary of making contributions in the future. This result does not serve the intended public financing purposes of the Federal Election Campaign Act. In Mr. Hardy's case, the Commission has already obtained compliance with the Act. No further action against Mr. Hardy is warranted.

Conclusion

In light of the above factual and legal discussion, it is respectfully requested that no further action be taken against Mr. Hardy and that the file on this matter be closed.

Gentlemen:

Please note that this letter is intended to be a reply brief on my behalf concerning Case. No. MUR 1142/1255.

Although I concur with your General Counsel's brief regarding my contributions to Reagan For President made by me from August 3, 1979 through March 12, 1980, I submit that I was unaware that these contributions violated the federal election laws in any manner.

The first time I became aware of a possible violation is when the Reagan For President Committee called the matter to my attention. I then contacted Clymer Wright of Houston, Texas Finance Chairman, Reagan For President, who advised me that presidential campaigns had a legal contribution limit of $1,000. per person prior to the national convention.

There was never intent on my part to violate any federal laws, and I pray that this reply brief will put this matter to rest.

Sincerely,

Jesse B Moore

Re: Elsa W. Mark
MUR 1142/1255

Dear Ms. Weissenborn:

The purpose of this letter is to formally request that Elsa Mark enter into an informal conciliation agreement with your office. It is my understanding that such an agreement will be prepared by you and forwarded to us for review by Mrs. Mark. It is further my understanding that due to this request no briefing process need be completed by Mrs. Mark or on her behalf at this time.

As we discussed on the phone, Mrs. Mark is eighty-six years of age and during the years of 1979 and 1980 apparently made substantial charitable and political contributions to the point where her financial status was in jeopardy. As a result, we have had an attorney-in-fact designated, and Mrs. Mark no longer handles her own finances.

As I stated to you, it will take substantial digging to find out just what happened and to locate all of Mrs. Mark's records. Her nephew, Warren Kratzke, is attempting to do this. The general impression that I get is that when Mrs. Mark received an appeal in the mail that she deemed worthwhile that she sent a check without knowing if she may have contributed something previously to the same cause, and without having any idea just how much she had contributed or that she should be wary of any law that might affect her contributions. In addition, Mrs. Mark had had a stroke which seems to have contributed to the fact that quite often she was unable to recall what she had done just a day or two before.

I would sincerely trust that these matters would be taken into consideration in preparation of a proposed informal conciliation agreement. If I can provide any additional information or documentation, please contact me accordingly.

Thank you for your courtesy and consideration.

Yours very truly,

Paul A. Melchert

Re: MUR 1142/1255: Matter of North Hollywood Glass Company

Dear Ms. Emmons:

In accordance with the procedures of the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") set forth at 11 C.F.R. § 111.16, counsel for North Hollywood Glass Company ("Company") hereby responds to the General Counsel's letter of July 6, 1981.*/ That letter recommended that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Company violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making a contribution to the Reagan for President Committee ("Committee") in excess of $1,000.

Based upon the following factual and legal discussion, it is respectfully requested that the General Counsel withdraw its recommendation from the Commission's consideration and take no further action against the Company with respect to its alleged excessive contribution.

*/ Pursuant to FEC regulation 11 C.F.R. § 111.16(c), 10 copies of the Company's response are enclosed. In addition, 3 copies of this brief have been filed with the Office of the General Counsel.

3 3 0 4 0 5 8 1 7 3

General Counsel's Allegations

The General Counsel asserts that certain reimbursed expenses incurred by the North Hollywood Glass Company constitute a contribution in excess of the $1,000 limitation set forth in 2 U.S.C. § 441(a)(1)(A). The General Counsel argues that the Company made a prohibited contribution because it incurred expenses on behalf of the Committee out of its "ordinary course of business."

Facts

In 1979, the North Hollywood Glass Company organized a fund raising event ("event") on behalf of Ronald Reagan. In connection with that event, the Company incurred expenses of $5,680.60. By invoice dated October 31, 1979 (the day the last expense was noted), the Company billed the Committee for every expense it incurred in relation to the fund raiser, including the time spent by its staff on the event and the payroll taxes associated with the personnel costs. Within thirty days from receipt of the invoice, the Company was fully reimbursed.

Discussion

The General Counsel's Brief allegs that North Hollywood Glass Company violated 2 U.S.C § 441a(a)(1)(A) by advancing funds to the Committee in excess of $1,000. This position has no basis in law or fact. The North Hollywood Glass Company must be considered a vendor and not a contributor to the Reagan for President Committee. As stated in the "Fact" section above, the Company provided services to the Committee in accordance with an agreement to organize a fund raising event. These services were provided by the Company in exchange for compensation that reflected the value of the services rendered. This agreement resulted in a vendor/vendee relationship as demonstrated by the fact that the Company promptly invoiced the Committee for the full value of all services rendered upon completion of performance and received payment in full. No "contribution" was involved.

The General Counsel's allegation that the Company made an illegal contribution is further refuted by the Act and its implementing regulations. The definition of "contribution" includes an "advance". 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A)(i). The Federal Election Commission regulation implementing this statutory provision further defines "advance" as "[t]he extension of credit by any person for a length of time beyond normal business or trade practice...." 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(a)(4) (emphasis added). "Normal business or trade practice" modifies the length of time for extending credit. There is no reference to the nature of the contributor's business in the statute or the regulation. Thus, contrary to the General Counsel's assertions, only the time within which the Company sought and received reimbursement is at issue.

North Hollywood Glass Company did not extend credit to the Committee for any length of time beyond its normal business practice. It billed the Committee on the day it last noted an expense and received payment within thirty days of the Committee's receipt of the invoice. Under such circumstances, the expenses incurred by the Company do not constitute an "advance" to the Committee and hence a prohibited contribution.

The General Counsel's interpretation of "ordinary course of business" is further reputed by other regulations which are analagous to the North Hollywood Glass situation. For example, 2 U.S.C. § 441b prohibits a corporation from making a contribution in connection with any presidential election. Corporations are permitted, however, to make their facilities available to political campaign committees if such committees reimburse the corporation within a commercially reasonable time in the amount of the normal and usual rental charge for the services provided. See 11 C.F.R. § 114.9(d).

This regulation permits an incorporated business entity to offer its office facilities to a political committee provided it charges the committee the normal fee for the facilities used and receives reimbursement within a commercially reasonable time. This arrangement is clearly authorized even though it is not the ordinary practice of the business entity to rent out its office facilities. If the General Counsel's strained interpretation of "normal business practice" is applied to this example, however, the business could not make its facilities available to a political committee since such an arrangement would constitute a prohibited contribution. This result is contrary to the expressed intent of the Act and its implementing regulations.

It should additionally be noted that public relations activities such as the event at issue are recognized as ordinary and usual business activities. North Hollywood Glass employs a variety of promotional techniques such as the event at issue. The General Counsel's allegation that such longstanding business practices are not "ordinary" for the trade or practice is not supportable in law or fact. North Hollywood Glass Company did not contribute money to the Reagan for President Committee and hence did not violate 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

Conclusion

In light of the above factual and legal discussion, it is respectfully requested that no further action be taken against the North Hollywood Glass Company and that the file in this matter be closed.

Sincerely yours

Edward L. Weidenfeld

Re: MUR 1142/1255: Matter of Charles K. Fletcher

Dear Ms. Emmons:

In accordance with the procedures of the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") set forth at 11 C.F.R. § 111.16, counsel for Mr. Charles K. Fletcher hereby responds to the General Counsel's letter of July 6, 1981.*/ In that letter, the General Counsel stated that he was prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Mr. Fletcher violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making a contribution to the Reagan for President Committee ("Committee") in excess of $1,000.

Based upon the following factual and legal discussion, it is respectfully requested that the General Counsel withdraw its recommendation from the Commission's consideration and take no further action against Mr. Fletcher with respect to his alleged excessive contribution.

*/ Pursuant to FEC regulation 11 C.F.R. § 111.16(c), 10 copies of Mr. Fletcher's response are enclosed. In addition, 3 copies of this brief have been filed with the Office of the General Counsel.

General Counsel's Allegations

The General Counsel's Brief alleges that Mr. Fletcher violated 2 U.S.C. § 441(a)(1)(A) by making an advance on behalf of the Reagan for President Committee and thus making a contribution to the Committee in the amount of $5,000.

Facts

Charles Fletcher was the Treasurer of the Hawaii Reagan for President Committee. In that capacity, Mr. Fletcher arranged for a fund raising event at the Hilton Hawaiian Village which took place on September 4, 1979. The purpose of this event was to promote the campaign of Ronald Reagan. In organizing this event, Mr. Fletcher paid $5,000 of a $12,000 deposit required by the hotel. Mr. Fletcher provided this deposit on behalf of the Committee with the understanding that he would be reimbursed promptly by the Committee.

Mr. Fletcher requested an immediate reimbursement from the event's receipts, but the receipts (including the $5,000 that was to be set aside for reimbursement to Mr. Fletcher) were sent to the national campaign headquarters of the Reagan for President Committee. As a consequence, Mr. Fletcher's reimbursement was processed through the national office.

By check dated January 25, 1980, the Committee reimbursed Mr. Fletcher in full for the expenditures he incurred on its behalf. On February 12, 1980, Mr. Fletcher returned $1,401.60 to the Committee, a sum which was refunded to him from the Hilton Hawaiian Village.

Discussion

Contrary to the General Counsel's allegations, Mr. Fletcher did not make a $5,000 contribution to the Reagan for President Committee. Mr. Fletcher incurred an expense on behalf of the Committee and subsequently received a reimbursement. Such a transaction does not constitute a contribution, advance or loan and is permitted under the Act.

An individual may incur expenses on behalf of a political committee and receive a subsequent reimbursement without that amount being deemed a contribution subject to the Act's limitations. This position is supported by past pronouncements of the Commission itself. For example, in the Financial Control and Compliance Manual for Presidential Candidates Receiving Public Financing, July 1979, it is stated at pp. 138-143 that a political committee should report the overall reimbursements to an individual for expenditures on Schedule B with memo entries detailing the ultimate recipients and particulars of each expenditure above $100. This requirement implicitly approves of the concept of individuals expending funds on behalf of a political committee in the expectation of reimbursement. In those instances an individual is not deemed to have made a contribution. This is precisely the situation involved in the Fletcher transaction. Mr. Fletcher paid a portion of the hotel deposit on behalf of the Committee and requested immediate reimbursement which he subsequently received from the Committee. In these circumstances, no contribution is involved.

The General Counsel's allegations that Mr. Fletcher extended credit or advanced money to the Committee is further refuted by the regulations themselves. 11 C.F.R. §100.7(a)(4) provides that:

> The extension of credit by any person for a length of time beyond normal business or trade practice is a contribution unless the creditor has made a commercially reasonable attempt to collect the debt. (Emphasis added).

Even if Mr. Fletcher did extend credit to the Committee as alleged in the General Counsel's Brief, he did not make a proscribed "contribution". Mr. Fletcher pursued all reasonable and available means to obtain a reimbursement from the Committee, a reimbursement which was in fact paid to him. Under these circumstances, Mr. Fletcher did not loan or advance money to the Committee and hence did not make a "contribution" as contemplated by the Act and its implementing regulations.

Conclusion

In light of the above factual and legal discussion, it is respectfully requested that no further action be taken against Mr. Fletcher and that the file in this matter be closed.

Sincerely yours,

Edward L. Weidenfeld

Re: MUR 1142/1255: Matter of Richard J. Greene

Dear Ms. Emmons:

In accordance with the procedures of the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") set forth at 11 C.F.R. § 111.16, counsel for Richard J. Greene hereby responds to the General Counsel's letter of July 6, 1981.*/ That letter recommended that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Mr. Greene violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making a contribution to the Reagan for President Committee ("Committee") in excess of $1,000.

Based upon the following factual and legal discussion, it is respectfully requested that the General Counsel withdraw its recommendation from the Commission's consideration and take no further action against Mr. Greene with respect to his alleged excessive contribution.

*/ Pursuant to FEC regulation 11 C.F.R. § 111.16(c), 10 copies of Mr. Greene's response are enclosed. In addition, 3 copies of this brief have been filed with the Office of the General Counsel.

General Counsel's Allegations

The General Counsel's Brief recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Richard J. Greene violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making a contribution to the Reagan for President Committee in excess of $1,000. This provision provides that no person shall make contributions "to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000...."

Facts

By checks dated September 30, 1979 and May 16, 1980, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Greene made two $1,000 contributions to the Reagan for President Committee. These checks were drawn on the joint account of the Greenes. On March 24, 1980, Mr. Greene made an additional contribution of $200. In the ordinary course of reviewing contribution receipts, the Committee discovered an apparently excessive contribution on the part of Mr. Greene. By check dated August 25, 1980, the Committee refunded $1,200 to Mr. Greene. This amount represented that portion of Mr. Greene's contribution which apparently exceeded the $1,000 limit for individuals. As subsequently reflected in their letter of October 17, 1980, however, Mr. and Mrs. Greene intended that both of the $1,000 contributions be split equally between them. In response to the Greene's letter (and because the Greene's never received the Committee's first refund check) the Committee refunded $200 to Mr. Greene by check dated January 5, 1981.

Discussion

The General Counsel's brief does not acknowledge Mrs. Greene's portion of the contributions at issue, thereby attributing an excess contribution of $1,200 to Mr. Greene. The General Counsel's position is in error.

The contribution checks sent by the Greenes were drawn on a joint account with both spouses' names clearly appearing on the face of each check. In addition, in a letter signed by both spouses, the Greenes informed the Committee that "it was and is our intention that $1,000 be attributed to each of us." (See Attachment A). These two factors demonstrate that the Greenes permissibly contributed $1,000 each to the Reagan for President Committee as authorized by 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(i)(1). The Greenes have supplied ample evidence that their contributions were equally attributable to each. See 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(c). Consequently, the means by which they attributed their contributions is sufficient for compliance with the Act.

The General Counsel's Brief argues that the two $1,000 contributions are attributable only to Mr. Greene because the Committee previously assumed so when it originally refunded $1,200 to Mr. Greene. The intention of the contributors, not the presumed assumptions of the Committee, controls the attribution of a contribution in these circumstances.

The only real issue with respect to the contributions of Mr. Greene is the $200 excess over the $1,000 limitation for individuals. Because Mr. Greene never intended to contribute more than was legally permissible and in light of the fact that the excessive portion of his contribution was refunded by the Committee, no purpose is served by finding Mr. Greene in violation of the law. An error was made and subsequently rectified by a refund which now places Mr. Greene within his legal contribution limit.

Private political fund raising remains an integral part of the presidential primary process. Fund raising takes many forms, from direct mail to celebrity galas. Individuals who are not fully aware of the statutory technicalities applicable to political contributions may inadventently exceed their limits by small amounts. To hold Mr. Greene in violation of the Act in these circumstances would unduly chill the political financing process as contributors may become wary of making any contribution in the future. This result does not serve the intended public financing purposes of the Federal Election Campaign Act. In Mr. Greene's case, the Commission has already obtained compliance with the Act. No further action against Mr. Greene is warranted.

Conclusion

In light of the above factual and legal discussion, it is respectfully requested that no further action be taken against Mr. Greene and that the file in this matter be closed.

Sincerely yours,

Edward L. Weidenfeld

Re: MUR 1142/1255: Matter of Frank M. Klamt

Dear Ms. Emmons:

In accordance with the procedures of the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") as set forth in 11 C.F.R. § 111.16, counsel for Mr. Frank M. Klamt hereby responds to the General Counsel's letter of July 6, 1981.*/ That letter recommended that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Mr. Klamt violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making a contribution to the Reagan for President Committee Committee ("Committee") in excess of $1,000.

Based upon the following factual and legal discussion, it is respectfully requested that the General Counsel withdraw its recommendation from the Commission's consideration and take no further action against Mr. Klamt with respect to his alleged excessive contribution.

*/ Pursuant to FEC regulation 11 C.F.R. § 111.16(c), 10 copies of Mr. Klamt's response are enclosed. In addition, 3 copies of this brief have been filed with the Office of the General Counsel.

General Counsel's Allegation

The General Counsel's Brief recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Mr. Klamt violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making contributions to the Committee in excess of the Act's $1,000 limit for individuals.

Facts

Mr. Klamt contributed $1,000 to the Reagan for President primary campaign on March 13, 1979. On May 21, 1979, Mr. Klamt made an additional contribution of $250. The next year, apparently in response to a solicitation from the Committee, Mr. Klamt contributed $1,000 to the Committee's Compliance Fund by check dated January 7, 1980.

In the normal course of reviewing contribution receipts, the Committee discovered a questionable excessive contribution on the part of Mr. Klamt. By check dated August 11, 1980, the Committee refunded $1,250 to Mr. Klamt. Thereafter, Mr. Klamt notified the Committee that he had intended the $1,250 to be designated for the Committee's Compliance Fund, $250 to be donated by Mrs. Klamt and $1,000 from Mr. Klamt. (See Attachment A).

Discussion

Mr. Klamt made contributions authorized under the Act. Mr. Klamt contributed $1,000 to the primary campaign of Mr. Reagan, $1,000 to the Reagan-Bush Compliance Fund and Mrs. Klamt contributed $250 to the Compliance Fund. Under these circumstances, no excessive contributions are at issue.

In the Committee's ordinary review process, it discovered an apparent excessive contribution by Mr. Klamt and refunded $1,250 to him. Thereafter, Mr. Klamt contributed $1,000 and Mrs. Klamt contributed $250 to the Reagan Bush Compliance Fund. The law permits an individual to contribute $1,000 for the presidential primary campaign and $1,000 for the Compliance Fund. (See FEC Record, August and September, 1980.) The facts in this case demonstrate that Mr. Klamt was within these limits and did not contribute to the Committee in violation of the law.

Even if Mr. Klamt did make an excessive contribution, all surplus amounts were refunded to him by the Committee, rendering him within the legal limit. Mr. Klamt never knowingly made contributions beyond the amount authorized by law. It appears that Mr. Klamt's $1,000 contribution in January 1980 was made as a result of inaccurate information he received from the Reagan for President Committee. Apparently the Committee sent out solicitations in early January which contained a clerical error to the effect that contributors could donate more than $1,000 to the campaign. (See Attachment B.) In an apparent response to that solicitation, Mr. Klamt contributed an additional $1,000 to the Committee.

When Mr. Klamt contributed to the Committee, he did so with the intent of fully complying with the law. Mr. Klamt's letter to the Commission, which was forwarded by cover letter dated August 5, 1981, clearly demonstrates this fact. If there was an excessive contribution it resulted solely from an error of accumulation and all excessive amounts subsequently were refunded to Mr. Klamt by the Committee. The Commission has already obtained compliance with the Act. Under these circumstances, no purpose is served by finding Mr. Klamt in violation of the law.

Private political fund raising remains an integral part of the presidential primary process. Fund raising takes many forms, from direct mail to celebrity galas. Individuals who are not fully aware of the statutory technicalities applicable to political contributions may inadventently exceed their limits by small amounts. To hold Mr. Klamt in violation of the Act in these circumstances would unduly chill the political financing process as contributors may become wary of making any contribution in the future. This result does not serve the intended public financing purposes of the Federal Election Campaign Act. In Mr. Klamt's case, the Commission has already obtained compliance with the Act. No further action against Mr. Klamt is warranted.

8 3 0 4 0 0 8 1 7 5

Conclusion

In light of the above factual and legal discussion, it is respectfully requested that no further action be taken against Mr. Klamt and that the file in this matter be closed.

Sincerely yours,

Edward L. Weidenfeld

Dear Mr. Klamt:

Recently you received a letter from us explaining that you were not in violation of any laws concerning excess contributions. However, we have now discovered that you have contributed $1,250.00 to the Reagan Bush Compliance Fund. The maximum allowable contribution per individual is $1,000.00

We are enclosing a form that will enable you to split the contribution between you and your wife. After splitting the contribution by placing $250.00 in your wife's name, she will still be eligible to contribute $750.00 to the Compliance Fund. We would appreciate the return of this form regardless of your response. I assure you that we will not lose this documentation as apparently happened in the past. You will find enclosed a return envelope for your convenience.

Thank you for your most generous support and please pardon these inconveniences.

Dear Friend:

In early January you received a solicitation from Reagan for President which may have contained an error. A number of our supporters were asked to contribute more than their $1000 legal limit - - a result of a clerical error.

So that no misunderstanding exists, I wish to stress that each individual may legally contribute no more than $1000 to Ronald Reagan's Presidential Campaign Committee.

We apologize for any confusion this may have caused, and thank you both for your generosity and support over the past years. Governor Reagan needs your continued support in order to win the Republican nomination in the fall election.

Sincerely,

Bay Buchanan

Re: MUR 1142/1255: Matter of James M. Forgotson

Dear Ms. Emmons:

By letter dated July 6, 1981, the Office of the General Counsel notified counsel for Mr. James M. Forgotson that it was prepared to recommend that the Commission take no further action with regard to Mr. Forgotson's contributions to the Reagan for President Committee ("Committee"). Prior to that time the Commission had found reason to believe that Mr. Forgotson may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441(a)(1)(A) by making contributions to the Committee which apparently exceeded the statutory limitation of $1,000.

Given the minimal amount, if any, of the excessive contribution at issue and the fact that the Committee refunded more than that amount to Mr. Forgotson, counsel concurs with the recommendation of the General Counsel that this matter be dismissed.

In light of this recommendation, it is respectfully requested that the Commission take no further action against Mr. Forgotson and close the file in this matter. In accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 111.16(c), three copies of this response have been filed with the Office of the General Counsel.

Sincerely yours,

Re: MUR 1142/1255: Matter of Moran Interests

Dear Ms. Emmons:

By letter dated July 6, 1981, the Office of the General Counsel notified counsel for Moran Interests that it was prepared to recommend that the Commission find no probable cause to believe that Moran Interests violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. Prior to that time the Commission found reason to believe that Moran Interests may have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441(a)(1)(A) by making contributions to the Reagan for President Committee in excess of $1,000.

Following the Commission's original "reason to believe" finding, evidence was presented to the Commission which demonstrated that the contribution from Moran Interests represented six individual $1,000 donations. As a result, the General Counsel is now of the opinion that no violation of the law has occurred and that the files in this matter should be closed.

Counsel for Moran Interests concurs with the recommendation of the Office of General Counsel. Because there is no factual dispute that any individual contributions to the Committee exceeded $1,000, the Commission should follow the General Counsel's recommendation and find no probable cause to believe that Moran Interests violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

In light of the above, it is respectfully requested that no further action be taken against Moran Interests and that the file in this matter be closed. In accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 111.16(c), three copies of this response have been filed with the Office of the General Counsel.

Sincerely yours,

Re: MUR 1142/1255: Response of Reagan Bush Committee

Dear Ms. Emmons:

In accordance with the procedures of the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") set forth at 11 C.F.R. § 111.16, counsel for the Reagan Bush Committee ("Committee") hereby responds to the General Counsel's letter of July 6, 1981.*/ In that letter, the General Counsel stated that he was prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) [as amended and codified in 2 U.S.C. § 434(B)(5)] and 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Based upon the following factual and legal discussion, it is respectfully requested that the General Counsel withdraw its recommendation from the Commission's consideration and take no further action against the Committee with respect to its alleged violation of the above-cited statutory provisions.

*/ Pursuant to FEC regulation 11 C.F.R. § 111.16(c), 10 copies of the Committee's response are enclosed. In addition, 3 copies of this brief have been filed with the Office of the General Counsel.

FAILURE TO REPORT THE ULTIMATE PAYEES OF EXPENDITURES

Facts

During the course of the campaign, RBC representatives incurred campaign related expenses. It was the policy of the RBC to reimburse each person for actual costs incurred upon presentation of proper documentation (e.g., receipts, credit card charge slips, etc.). Each reimbursement was recorded with a notation describing the name and address of the person receiving the reimbursement, and the date, amount and purpose of the reimbursement. The documents submitted to support the expenditure were retained by the RBC and made available to the FEC auditors.

General Counsel's Argument

The General Counsel recommended a finding of probable cause to believe that the RBC violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) as amended and codified in 2 U.S.C. §434(b)(5) because:

> In its expenditure reports dated April 10, 1979, July 10, 1979, and October 10, 1979, the Committee reported thirteen apparent reimbursement expenditures totaling $10,724.92, each of which was in excess of $200 and each of which listed as payee the committee staff person or volunteer who received the reimbursement, not the actual person who provided the goods or services involved. (Emphasis added).

This was found to constitute probable cause that a violation had occurred because:

> It has been a long-standing Commission policy that committee reports must set forth the actual use to which funds are put so that the ultimate payee which provided the services is disclosed. See Notice to all Candidates and Committees, September 29, 1976; FEC Record, October 12, 1976, at 2; Financial Control and Compliance Manual for Presidential Candidates Receiving Public Financing (Primary Election Financing), July, 1979, at 138-139. . . . The deficiencies in the Committee's reports are that Committee agents are listed as payees, with no additional information provided as to the actual sources of the goods and services purchased.

Analysis

The expenditure reporting requirements found in the law and its implementing regulations are straight forward. 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5) requires that each disbursement report shall disclose:

> [T]he name and address of each -
> > (A) person to whom an expenditure in an aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year is made . . ., together with the date, amount, and purpose of such operating expenditures . . . . (Emphasis added.)

11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4) states that:

> Each authorized committee shall report the full name and address of each person in each of the following categories, as well as the information required by each category.
> > (i) Each person to whom an expenditure in an aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year is made . . ., together with the date, amount and purpose of each expenditure.
> > (A) As used in 11 CFR 104.3(b)(4), 'purposes' means a brief statement or description of why the disbursement was made. Examples . . . include . . . media, salary, polling, travel, party fees, phone banks, travel expenses, travel expense reimbursement . . . . (Emphasis added.)

The RBC fully complied with these statutory and regulatory requirements. The General Counsel's recommendation of probable cause rests upon the RBC's alleged violation of certain "long-standing" FEC "policies." The RBC contends that these "long-standing policies" have no legal significance. It must also be noted that the RBC did, in fact, comply with the policies in question.

The "policies" referenced by the General Counsel are of no legal significance for the following reasons: (1) the FEC is prohibited by statute from interpreting or administering the Act unless such action is accomplished through the formal rule-making process; and (2) the "policies" are inconsistent with U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) as amended and codified in 2 U.S.C. § 434(b(5) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4).

Because of the highly sensitive area regulated by the Federal Election Campaign and Presidential Election Campaign Fund Acts, 2 U.S.C. §§ 431 et seq. and 26 U.S.C. §§ 9001 et seq. (hereinafter the "Act"), Congress intended to prevent administration of the Act in a manner contrary to Congressional intent. For this reason, Congress required that all proposed rules and regulations be submitted to Congress for review. (2 U.S.C. § 438(d), as amended; 26 U.S.C. §§ 9009, 9039, as amended.) This statutory mandate is clear on its face and the legislative history confirms:

> [T]hat the advisory opinions and regulations shall be the only means through which the Commission may establish guidelines and procedures for carrying out the Act. In any case in which the Commission desires that an opinion of counsel shall have any operative effect on any person, the Commission must propose a regulation based on the opinion of counsel. . . . [T]he Committee determined that to prevent the Commission from interpreting the Act in a manner inconsistent with the congressional intent it is necessary to treat on the same basis, situations in which an advisory opinion is issued and those in which a regulation is issued.

H.R. REP. No. 94-917, 94th Cong., 2nd Sess. 3 (1976), reprinted in LEGISLATIVE HISTORY OF FEDERAL ELECTION CAMPAIGN ACT AMENDMENTS OF 1976, at 803 (1977). (Emphasis added.) The legislative history of the 1980 amendments to the Act, includes the following:

> Section 106 amends Section 307 of the Act relating to the powers of the Federal Election Commission as follows:
> (1) Section 307(a)(9) of the Act as redesignated by Section 105(3) of the bill is stricken from the Act. This section, which allowed the Commission to formulate general policy with respect to the administration of the Act and Title 26, was deleted to insure that the formulation of general policy is done through the regulatory process which is open to public comment.

H.R. REP. No. 96-422, 96th Cong., 1st Sess. 18, reprinted in [1979] U.S. CODE CONG. & AD. NEWS 2860, 2879. (Emphasis added.) The "policies" cited by the General Counsel are not binding because they are not formally promulgated rules or regulations and Congress has clearly prohibited the FEC from administering the Act in any way except through the designated rule-making process.

The "policies" are also inconsistent with the statutory and the regulatory provisions on reporting requirements and thus are not binding. Bowles v. Seminole Rock and Sand Co., 325 U.S. 410 (1945). Section 434(b)(5) of Title 2 requires that the date, amount, and purpose, as well as the name and address of each person to whom an expenditure exceeding $200 is made, be reported. Congress has stated that reporting the purpose of an expenditure requires:

> [A] short statement or description, no more than one or two words in most cases, of why the money was spent. The particulars, i.e., the details of the disbursement, are not required by the statute. Supplying the purpose will provide the public with an overall picture of what the committee's money is spent on without placing an undue burden on the committee treasurer.

H.R. REP. No. 96-422, 96th Cong. 1st Sess. 18, reprinted in [1979] U.S. CODE CONG. & AD. NEWS 2860, 2878. (Emphasis added.) The regulation administering 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5), 11 C.F.R. 104.3(b)(4) sets forth similar requirements.

The "policies" cited by the General Counsel are inconsistent with 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5) and 11 C.F.R. 104.3(b)(4) because the policies require a comprehensive break-down of each reimbursement, while the statute and regulation require only a brief statement, such as "travel" or "salary." The policies also require information concerning the "actual sources of the goods and services purchased," while the statute and regulation require only a description of why the expense was incurred. Because of these substantial inconsistencies, the policies have no legal significance.

Even assuming that these policies do, in fact, set forth requirements that must be met by a political committee, the RBC clearly complied with these policies. As noted in the facts, specific documentation showing the "actual sources of the goods and services purchased" was retained by the RBC as support for each expenditure. These materials were reviewed by the auditors. Thus, the RBC provided the FEC with all the information necessary to determine the ultimate payee of the expenditures in question.

CONTRIBUTIONS RECEIVED BY THE COMMITTEE FROM 130 INDIVIDUALS

Facts

In the course of the campaign, the RBC received thousands of contributions. Records of each contribution were created and entered into a computer system that was programmed to match donors with contributions. This matching was necessary to avoid accepting contributions in excess of the allowable limit of $1,000 per contributor. Reports were generated that identified contributors who might have made contributions exceeding $1,000. Contributors, once identified, were contacted immediately to verify the total amount of contributions made. Upon confirmation of an excess contribution, refunds and reattributions were made as appropriate.

General Counsel's Argument

After a review of alleged excess contributions and the refunding and reattribution process (e.g., splitting joint contributions between husband and wife), the General Counsel recommended a finding of probable cause to believe that a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) had occurred because of:

> the Committee's failure to address $38,670 in apparently excessive contributions, the unreasonableness of the time the Committee has taken in making reported refunds and in obtaining reported reattributions, and the lack of full supporting documentation for $38,400 in reported refunds and reattributions . . . .

Analysis

The General Counsel's recommended finding of probable cause of a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) is incorrect because 2 U.S.C. 441a(f) only concerns a knowing violation of 2 U.S.C. 441a:

> No candidate or political committee shall knowingly accept any contribution . . . in violation of the provisons of this section.

2 U.S.C. 441a(f) (emphasis added). "Knowingly" is not defined by statute or regulation, but, in general implies that a person has knowledge of all of the facts which establish a violation of the statute. See e.g., Oregon-Washington R. & Nav. Co. v. U.S., 205 F. 337 (9th Cir. 1913); United States v. Key Line Freight, Inc., 481 F. Supp. 91 (1977). Therefore, unless the General Counsel can show that the RBC had knowledge at the time of acceptance of the contribution that the contributor had in fact exceeded the $1,000 contribution limitation, the RBC cannot be found to have knowingly accepted a prohibited contribution. The General Counsel has offered no such evidence.

In addition, knowledge may not be imputed because of an inadvertent or negligent failure to become aware of the facts. See United States v. Jewell, 532 F.2d 697 cert. denied, 426 U.S. 951 (1976); United States v. Haney Chevrolet, Inc., 371 F. Supp. 381 (M.D. Fla. 1974). Therefore, even if it is assumed arguendo that because of system inadequacies the RBC did not know at the time of acceptance that a contribution exceeded the $1,000 limitation, a violation of 2 U.S.C. 441a(f) still could not have occurred. This fact is implicitly acknowledged by the General Counsel for alleged excess contributions received prior to January 1, 1980.

> In the present instance the Committee was notified at the exit conference with FEC auditors in late April, 1980, of the names of all the individuals who had made the apparently excessive contributions here at issue, together with the amounts and dates of the 1979 portions of those contributions. Therefore, by that date the Committee was no longer dependent upon its computer for its knowledge of the status of contributions received through December 31, 1979.

It is equally true for all contributions received thereafter, that unless the General Counsel can produce evidence that the RBC knew at the time the contribution was accepted that it was an excess contribution, no violation of 2 U.S.C. 441a(f) can be found.

In an effort to find a violation of 2 U.S.C. 441a(f), the General Counsel implies that a failure to refund or reattribute excess contributions within a reasonable time after awareness of the fact that a donor had exceeded the $1,000 limitation results in a knowing acceptance of a prohibited contribution and a violation of 2 U.S.C. 441a(f). However, 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) contains no requirements for refund or reattribution within a reasonable time nor do its implementing regulations.

The General Counsel cites 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b) to support the contention that 2 U.S.C. 441a(f) requires refund or reattribution within a reasonable time. However, that regulation implements 2 U.S.C. § 432(h)(1), as amended ("Campaign depositions; designations, maintenance of accounts, etc.; petty cash fund for disbursements; record of disbursement") and is clearly inapplicable to the issue at hand. Therefore, refund or reattribution of an excess contribution within a reasonable time is irrelevant in establishing a knowing acceptance of a prohibited contribution.

However, the RBC did, in fact, refund or reattribute all excess contributions within a reasonable time after becoming aware that a contributor had exceeded the $1,000 limitation. Therefore, the RBC did not violate 2 U.S.C. 441a(f) as interpreted by the General Counsel or 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b). "Reasonable time" is not defined by the statute or the regulations. However, the Supreme Court has stated that the determination of a reasonable time "is a question of law, depending upon all the circumstances of the particular case." Paine v. Central Vermont Railroad Co., 118 U.S. 152, 160 (1886).

The RBC acted in a reasonable time in refunding or reattributing excess contributions in view of the following circumstances: (1) other compliance and operational demands upon computer time; (2) the need to verify internally reported excess contributions prior to contacting the contributor; (3) time required to correspond with a contributor who appeared to have exceeded the $1,000 limit; and (4) a change in location by the RBC in July, 1980 from California to Virginia. Considering these circumstances, the refund or reattribution of all excess contributions (including the $38,670 of excess contributions alleged by the General Counsel not to have been addressed by the RBC) was made within a reasonable time, and, therefore, the RBC complied with 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b).

For all of these reasons, the General Counsel's recommended finding of probable cause concerning receipt of excess contributions should be withdrawn from Commission consideration.

APPARENTLY EXCESSIVE CONTRIBUTION RECEIVED BY THE COMMITTEE FROM NORTH HOLLYWOOD GLASS COMPANY

Facts

In 1979, the North Hollywood Glass Company ("Company") organized a fund raising event on behalf of the RBC. In connection with that event, the Company incurred expenses of $5,680.60. By invoice dated October 31, 1979 (the day the last expense was noted), the company billed the RBC for every expense it incurred in relation to the fund raiser, including the time spent by its staff on the event and the payroll taxes associated with the personnel costs. Less than one month after receipt of this bill, the RBC paid the Company in full.

General Counsel's Argument

The General Counsel recommended a finding of probable cause to believe that a violation of 2 U.S.C. 441a(f) had occurred because:

> the expenditures incurred by the Company were made outside the ordinary course of business, the portion of those expenditures which exceeded the aggregate of $1000 permitted by 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) were illegal and should have been refunded by the > Committee within 10 days of their receipt pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 103.3. Having contracted with the Company for reception-related services, the Committee was aware that expenses would be incurred prior to the tendering of a bill by the Company to the Committee. On September 7, 1979, the Company exceeded its $1000 contribution limitation. . . . Therefore, the Committee's payment of the Company's bill took place three months after the Company began to exceed its contribution limitation, a period of time which was not reasonable.

According to the General Counsel, therefore, on September 7, 1980, when the Company had incurred expenses exceeding $1,000, the RBC had knowingly accepted a contribution in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Analysis

The Company Must Be Considered a Vendor and Not a Contributor

As stated in the "Facts" section above, the Company provided services to the RBC in accordance with an agreement to organize a fund-raising event. The services were to be provided by the Company in exchange for compensation that would reflect the value of the services rendered. That this agreement resulted in a vendor/vendee relationship is demonstrated clearly by the fact that the Company promptly invoiced the RBC for the full value of all services rendered upon completion of performance.

The General Counsel asserts that such a relationship resulted in a contribution by the Company to the RBC. However, contribution, as defined by 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A)(i), does not include the sale of goods or services by a vendor to a political committee. Therefore, the sale of services by the Company to the RBC was not a contribution, and the RBC did violate 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

The Services Provided by the Company Were Not an Advance and, Hence, Not a Contribution

The General Counsel asserts that the expenses incurred by the Company constitute a contribution because they were not incurred in the "ordinary course of business." It is the opinion of the General Counsel that this term applies to both the accepted billing practices of the business or trade and to the products or services supplied. This interpretation is not supported by the Act or its implementing regulations.

The General Counsel recommends a finding of probable cause to believe that the RBC violated 2 U.S.C. 441a(f) because the Company advanced funds to the RBC in excess of $1,000 in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). As provided by statute, the definition of "contribution" includes an "advance". 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A)(i). The FEC regulations which implement this statutory provision, however, limit the meaning of the term "advance" to "[t]he extension of credit by any person for a length of time beyond normal business or trade practice. . . ." 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(a)(4) (emphasis added). The language of the regulation is clear. "Normal business or trade practice" modifies the length of time for extending credit. It does not, as the General Counsel asserts, refer to the nature of the business conducted. Thus, only the time within which the Company sought and received reimbursement is at issue in determining the RBC's compliance with the law.

The Company did not extend credit to the RBC for any length of time beyond its normal business practice. It billed the RBC on the day it last noted an expense and received payment within thirty days of the RBC's receipt of the invoice. The practice followed by the Company was that followed in billing any other customer. Under such circumstances, the expenses incurred by the Company do not constitute an "advance" to the RBC and, hence, a prohibited contribution.

Assuming arguendo that "ordinary course of business" does refer to the services performed or products provided by the Company, such an application would be in conflict with other regulations analogous to the instant matter which permissibly define conduct by a business during a campaign. For example, 2 U.S.C. § 441b prohibits a corporation from making a contribution in connection with any presidential election. Corporations are permitted, however, to make their facilities available to political compaign committees if such committees reimburse the corporation within a commercially reasonable time in the amount of the normal and usual rental charge for the services provided. See, 11 C.F.R. § 114.9(d).

Under 2 U.S.C. § 441b, an incorporated business entity could offer its office facilities to a political committee provided it charged the committee the normal fee for the facilities used and received reimbursement within a commercially reasonable time. Under the FEC's regulations, this arrangement is clearly authorized even though it is not the corporation's ordinary business practice to rent out its office facilities. If the General Counsel's strained interpretation of "normal business practice" is applied to this example, however, the business could not make its facilities available to a political committee as it is not its ordinary practice to rent out its office space. This result is contrary to the clear language of the regulation. But it is exactly this result which the General Counsel would adopt with respect to the North Hollywood Glass Company.

Moreover, public relations events such as the fund raiser at issue are accepted components of a business' ordinary and usual business activity, since businesses derive a commensurate commercial return from the services provided. The Company has participated in such activities for many years for this reason. The General Counsel's allegation that such long-standing business practices are not "ordinary" for the trade or practice is incorrect and does not support a charge that the Company made a prohibited contribution.

For each of these reasons, the Company never made an advance to the RBC and, hence, did not violate 2 U.S.C. § 441a(1)(A). Therefore, the RBC cannot be found to have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

The RBC Did Not Knowingly Accept A Contribution In Violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f)

Assuming that the Company's expenditures did in fact constitute a contribution, the RBC still cannot be found to have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) because the RBC did not knowingly receive a contribution in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a. As discussed in the previous section, to act "knowingly" a person must have knowledge of all of the facts which establish a violation of the statute. Contrary to the statement in the General Counsel's letter, the RBC had no knowledge of the extent of the expenditures by the Company until receipt of the invoice. Therefore, at the time the Company incurred the expenditures (i.e., made the alleged "contribution"), RBC had no knowledge of their amount and did not knowingly accept a prohibited contribution.

As also noted previously, the timing of a refund of an excess contribution is irrelevant in establishing a violation of 2 U.S.C. 441a(f). However, assuming arguendo that at the time of receipt of the invoice, the RBC was required by 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b) to refund the contribution within a reasonable time, RBC met this requirement. A refund was made within thirty days of notification, clearly a reasonable time. Consequently, the RBC did not knowingly accept a contribution in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

APPARENTLY EXCESSIVE CONTRIBUTION RECEIVED BY THE COMMITTEE FROM CHARLES K. FLETCHER

Facts

Charles Fletcher served as the Treasurer of the Hawaii Reagan for President Committee. In this capacity, Mr. Fletcher arranged for a fund raising event at the Hilton Hawaiian Village which took place on September 4, 1979. The purpose of this event was to promote the campaign of Ronald Reagan. In organizing this event, Mr. Fletcher paid $5,000 of a $12,000 deposit required by the hotel. Mr. Fletcher provided this deposit on behalf of the RBC with the understanding that he would be reimbursed by the Committee as, in fact, he was.

Although Mr. Fletcher requested an immediate reimbursement from the event's receipts, the receipts (involving the $5,000 that was to be set aside for reimbursement to Mr. Fletcher) were mistakingly sent to the national campaign headquarters of the Reagan for President Committee. As a consequence, Mr. Fletcher's reimbursement had to be processed through the national office. By check dated January 25, 1980, the Committee reimbursed Mr. Fletcher in full for the expenditures he incurred on its behalf.

General Counsel's Argument

The General Counsel recommended a finding of probable cause to believe that a violation of 2 U.S.C. 441a(f) had occurred because:

> As treasurer in Hawaii, Mr. Fletcher may be deemed to have been an agent of the Committee, thereby placing the Committee in constructive knowledge of his $5,000 payment to the Hawaiian Village [Hotel]. Whether or not Mr. Fletcher expected reimbursement, he expended his own funds on behalf of the Committee and thereby made a loan or > advance, and therefore, a contribution in the amount of $5,000. The deposit/ contribution was made on August 30, 1979, and not reimbursed until January 25, 1980. (Emphasis added).

Analysis

Mr. Fletcher Did Not Make a Contribution

Throughout the campaign, representatives of the RBC routinely incurred expenditures on behalf of the RBC. These expenditures, for purposes of control and accountability, were required to be financed at the time of expenditure from the personal financial resources of the individual, subject to reimbursement by the RBC upon verification of the appropriateness of the expenditure and submission of appropriate documentation (e.g., cash register receipts, charge slips, etc.). Such expenditures under law or regulation are considered to be expenditures of the RBC and not contributions to the RBC. (See, 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4).)

The $5,000 expenditure by Mr. Fletcher was incurred as an agent of the RBC and was made, like all expenditures incurred by individuals employed by or under the control of the RBC, on behalf of the RBC and with the expectation that reimbursement would be forthcoming. In fact, reimbursement was requested by Mr. Fletcher and thereafter made by the RBC.

The expenditure by Mr. Fletcher is indistinguishable from other reimbursable expenditures incurred on behalf of the RBC by its representatives. Such expenditures are not contributions under law or regulations, and, hence, Mr. Fletcher's expense cannot be considered a contribution.

The General Counsel's allegations that Mr. Fletcher extended credit or advanced money to the Committee is further refuted by the regulations themselves. 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(a)(4) states that:

> The extension of credit by any person for a length of time beyond normal business or trade practice is a contribution, unless the creditor has made a commercially reasonable attempt to collect the debt. (Emphasis added.)

As can be seen from this provision, even if Mr. Fletcher did extend credit to the Committee as alleged by the General Counsel, he did not make a contribution. Mr. Fletcher pursued all reasonable and available means to obtain a reimbursement from the RBC and reimbursement was made. Under these circumstances, Mr. Fletcher did not loan or advance money to the RBC so as to make a contribution as contemplated by the Act and its implementing regulations. Because Mr. Fletcher's expense was not a contribution, the RBC cannot be found to have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

The RBC Did Not Knowingly Accept a Contribution in Violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f)

Because, as noted by the General Counsel, Mr. Fletcher was an agent of the RBC, his expenditure made on behalf of the RBC and reimbursed by the RBC cannot be a contribution. Assuming, however, that Mr. Fletcher was not an agent of the RBC, the RBC cannot be found to have accepted knowingly a contribution in excess of $1,000 in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). At the time Mr. Fletcher made the "contribution" by making the hotel deposit, the RBC had no knowledge of the transaction and, therefore, the RBC did not knowingly accept a prohibited contribution.

Assuming arguendo that the RBC is required by 2 U.S.C. 441a(f) to refund an excess contribution within a reasonable time, RBC clearly complied with that requirement. Reasonable time is affected by the circumstances. The circumstances affecting the timing of repayments were discussed previously. In Mr. Fletcher's situation, the timing of reimbursement was further affected by an error in handling the reimbursement request. Therefore, reimbursement made within five months from incurrence is clearly reasonable. Therefore, the RBC did not accept a contribution in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Conclusion

The Reagan Bush Committee respectfully requests that for all of the reasons cited above, the General Counsel withdraw each of the four recommended findings of probable cause from Commission consideration.

Sincerely yours

Edward L. Weidenfeld

Re: Elsa W. Mark
MUR 1142/1255

Dear Ms. Weissenborn:

Mr. Warren Kratzke has contacted me regarding the notice of violation sent to Mrs. Elsa W. Mark by certified mail on July 6, 1981. Mr. Kratzke is the attorney-in-fact for Elsa W. Mark. A copy of the Power of Attorney is enclosed.

Mrs. Mark is eighty-six years of age and just passed on the July 6th letter to Mr. Kratzke. Mr. Kratzke tried calling you at your number on July 30 and July 31 and left a message with your secretary.

Mr. Kratzke contacted me inasmuch as he was very concerned that the fifteen days during which Mrs. Mark was to respond had already passed when he first saw the letter among her papers. It is, therefore, requested that an additional fifteen day period be granted so that a conciliation attempt may be made, or we may prepare a response in the event this matter cannot be disposed of by conciliation.

We do believe that we have an obligation to Mrs. Mark to prepare such a response inasmuch as we have known her for sometime and how strongly she always felt about certain political issues. At the same time, however, I am absolutely certain that she has never had an intent to violate any law. We will obtain the facts as best we can ascertain them and get back to you. In the meantime, it would be most appreciated if you could call me as to any possible disposition of this case without further legal entanglements.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

Yours very truly,

Paul A. Melchert

Re: MUR 1142/1255

Dear Sir:

I have been held in violation since about July in 1980, it taken a lot of time to get some one to represent you on a election year and a lot more time to get action I am sorry that it has taken so much time.

It was in the back of my mind that $1000. was the limit for the year, in my case I had recieved a refund of $1250 from the Reagan for President Committee. This made me square with the F.E.C. My second mistake put me right back in the frying Pan. I wanted to Compensate The Reagan Bush Compliance Fund for their help. My first thought was that Both, Reagan & Bush would each be good for $1000. each But I only wanted to give $1250 thinking they could split it. The mistake I made was not splitting at this time. The Reagan Bush Committee Sent me the Papers and me and my wife Split the $1250 contrabution. $250. was put in my wifes Name

I been a sick man through most of this I lost my right in 1977 and almost lost my left eye, from a Glacoma operation in 1979 in June. This is the reason or one of the Reasons, it is so hard to write & read. It is real easy to Oversight When you see Double. Please Close this file forever. Respectfully yours,

Maxy Pope Alles)

RESPONSE TO GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

For whatever reason the allegations of elapsed time before the refund of excess contributions have been overstated in General Counsel's Brief, as is apparent from the dates in that Brief. For example, the refund was made 7 1/2 months after the last contribution, not 9 months later as alleged.

The "confusion regarding the CFTR Educational Foundation" is that the final $250 was intended to be a contribution to that Foundation; by clerical error the check was written instead to the Reagan for President Committee. (Mrs. Alles is 81, has extremely poor eyesight, and has all her checks prepared by her administrative assistant.)

The refund was initiated by Mrs. Alles, not by the Committee as speculated in General Counsel's Brief. When Mrs. Alles and her administrative assistant learned that pre-candidacy contributions and campaign contributions count toward the same $1,000 limit, the assistant called the Committee and was advised the excess would be returned. The return check also included the $250, which until that time Mrs. Alles assumed had been sent to the CFTR Educational Foundation for which it was intended.

Only $1,000 was contributed with the intent that it be used for the 1980 federal election campaign. Another $1,000 was contributed in the belief that it would be used for pre-campaign expenses excluded under Regulations §100.7(b)(1). The final $250 was intended for another organization. When it was learned all but $1,000 would not be used for the intended purposes, the excess was reclaimed.

Without the intent to make money available to the Committee for campaign purposes, Mrs. Alles did not make contributions within the meaning of 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(1)(A) except to the extent of the permissible $1,000.

We respectfully request that the Commission find that no probable cause exists to believe that Maxy Pope Alles violated 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(1)(A).

Alternatively, we request that the Commission "otherwise order a termination of Commission proceedings" as provided for in Regulation §111.17(b). The prosecution of a near-blind 81 year old for payments made under an initial mistake of fact and later recovered before the commencement of Commission proceedings would serve no appropriate Commission purpose, would not be the type of expenditure of effort and funds intended by enabling legislation, and would rightly bring the Commission and its operations into disrepute.

Re: MUR 1142/1255

Dear Mr. Steel:

On July 7 and 8, 1981, we received seven individual "reason to believe" notices with regard to the above-referenced MURs. In light of the following reasons, we respectfully request an extension of 30 days, up to and including August 7, 1981, to respond to these matters.

First, before we can respond on behalf of the individuals cited in MUR 1142/1255, a letter of authorization must be obtained from each of them sanctioning our representation as counsel.

Second, it has been extremely difficult to locate the Committee files which relate to the contributions at issue in MUR 1142/1255. Interviews also will need to be conducted with former Committee staff members, a particularly time consuming process.

Finally, we are currently devoting a major portion of our efforts in preparing a response to the FEC Interim Audit Report of the Reagan Bush Committee. The amount of work required to complete this response will not permit us to spend the time necessary to respond fully and accurately to MUR 1142/1255.

Therefore, in light of the above, a 30-day extension is hereby requested.

Sincerely,

Edward L. Weidenfeld

Re: L. Randolph Mason
MUR 1142/1255

The Secretary of the Federal Election Commission
Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Mr. Secretary:

We represent L. Randolph Mason who is referred to in the General Counsel's brief dated July 2, 1981.

I would like to bring the following matters to your attention:

1. L. Randolph Mason was born on January 23, 1886. He is, therefore, now 95 years of age.

2. Mr. Mason's physical and mental health have both deteriorated substantially and he now is and has been for some time under nursing care 24 hours a day.

3. Under these circumstances, it is impossible to communicate with Mr. Mason concerning this matter.

4. Attached hereto is a xerox copy of the four payments apparently referred to in the General Counsel's brief. I call your particular attention to the following:

COPY

RECEIVED
81 JUL 20 P12:57

A. Check No. 12105 is dated by Mr. Mason March 14, 1978, which, I believe, must have been an error as it was not cashed until over one year after that date.

B. The payee of check No. 12413 was apparently not completed by Mr. Mason, but stamped by some other person.

C. Check No. 12264 is dated within three days of the check referred to in paragraph B.

Under these circumstances, it seems clear to me that Mr. Mason did not "knowingly" or "willfully" violate the law. It is my belief that his checks were sent in response to solicitations and that he did not remember having previously made donations to this Committee. Mr. Mason has been vague about his affairs for several years and his memory is known to have been faulty.

As General Counsel's brief points out, the excess contributions were refunded by the Reagan for President Committee to Mr. Mason.

Under these circumstances, I respectfully urge that L. Randolph Mason not be found to have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

Very truly yours,

George B. Snell

Re: MUR 1142/1255

Dear Mr. Weidenfeld:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, the Federal Election Commission, on September 30, 1980, found reason to believe that the Reagan for President Committee had violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) [now 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5) and 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) and instituted an investigation in this matter.

After considering all the evidence available to the Commission, the Office of General Counsel is prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that violations have occurred.

Submitted for your review is a brief stating the position of the General Counsel on the legal and factual issues of the case. Within fifteen days of your receipt of this notice, you may file with the Secretary of the Commission a brief (10 copies if possible) stating your position on the issues and replying to the brief of the General Counsel. (Three copies of such brief should also be forwarded to the Office of General Counsel, if possible.) The General Counsel's brief and any brief which you may submit will be considered by the Commission before proceeding to a vote of probable cause to believe.

A finding of probable cause to believe requires that the Office of General Counsel attempt for a period of not less than thirty, but not more than ninety days, to settle this matter through a conciliation agreement. This does not preclude settlement of this matter through conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, if you so desire.

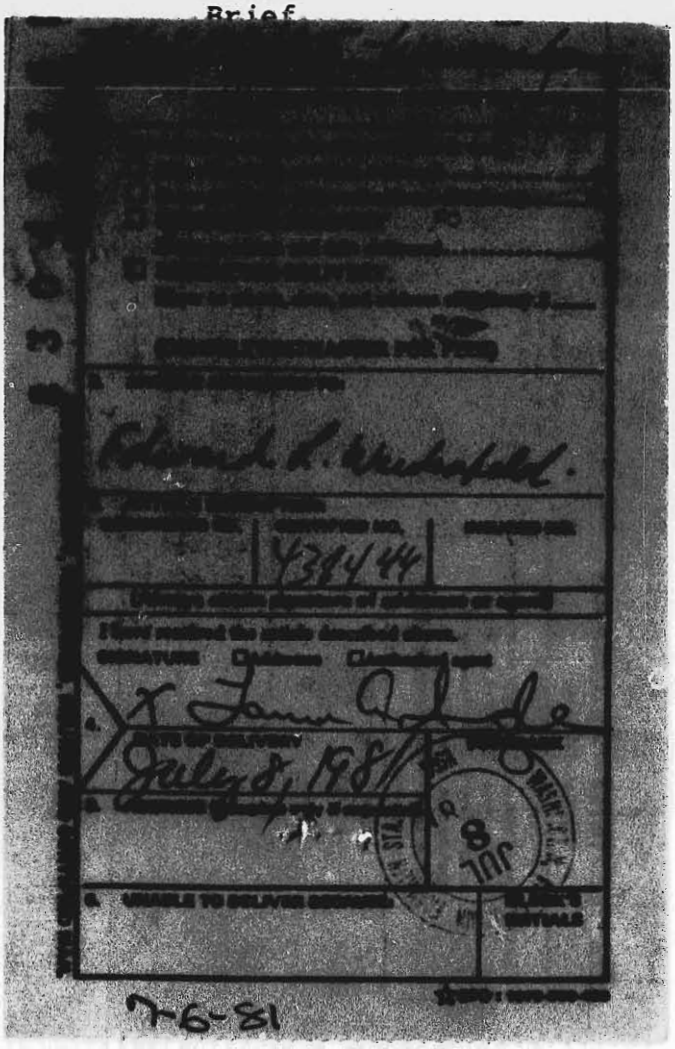

Should you have any questions, please contact Anne A. Weissenborn, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 523-5071.

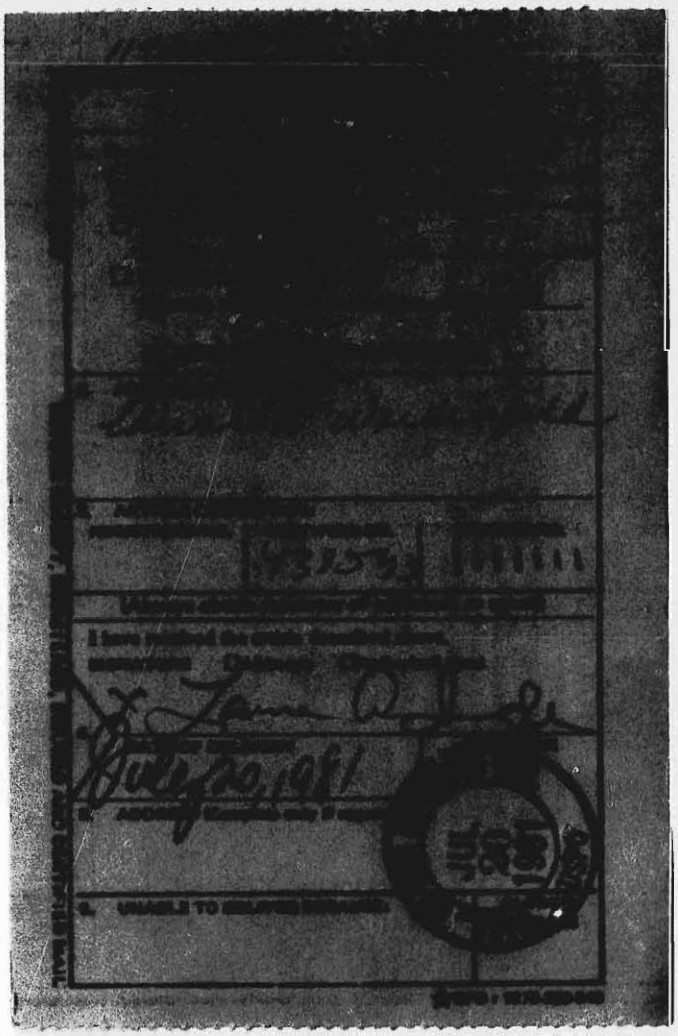

Sincerely,

Emma Bardwell	)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by referrals from the Reports Analysis Division and from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that Emma Bardwell had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making excessive contributions to the Reagan for President Committee, and the respondent was notified of this finding.

Ms. Bardwell has not submitted a response to the Commission's notification.

II. Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to candidates to $1000 per election. Ms. Bardwell made contributions to the Reagan for President Committee as follows: $500 on March 19, 1979; $300 on July 11, 1979; $200 on July 31, 1979; $500 on November 13, 1979; $600 on January 1, 1980; and $1000 on March 10, 1980. The Committee refunded the excessive portion of these contributions, or $2100, on August 11, 1980. This refund was thus made nine months after Ms. Bardwell first exceeded her limitation and five months after her last contribution.

Any exceeding of the contribution limitations established by 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) represents a violation of law. A refund by the recipient may mitigate the donor's violation, particularly if the contributor requested such a refund; however, it does not erase the violation. In the present instance the refund was apparently initiated by the Committee, albeit nine months after Ms. Bardwell first exceeded her limitation.

Given the excessive contributions involved in this matter, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Emma Bardwell has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) and consider any mitigating factors in our attempts to come to a resolution of this matter.

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of)
) MUR 1142/1255
Margaret B. Bartlett)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by referrals from the Reports Analysis Division and from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that Margaret B. Bartlett had violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) by making excessive contributions to the Reagan for President Committee, and the respondent was notified of this finding.

On November 7, 1980, the Commission received a response from Ms. Bartlett. (See Attachment).

II. Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to candidates to $1000 per election. Ms. Bartlett, according to Committee reports and records, made contributions to the Reagan for President Committee as follows: $100 on May 22, 1979; $1000 on August 13, 1979; $500 on October 11, 1979; $50 on January 28, 1980; $50 on February 11, 1980; $500 on March 18, 1980; and $1000 on May 14, 1980. The Committee refunded $2450 to Ms. Bartlett on August 11, 1980. This refund was thus made one year after Ms. Bartlett first exceeded her limitation and three months after her last contribution.

In her response, Ms. Bartlett stated, "I find that I have no records to cover the 'Reagan for President Committee' except one for $100.00 . . . . Therefore, I must take exception to your violation by me to 2 U.S.C. for my account . . . . I believe that there have been mistakes in your summary." The Reagan for President Committee has, however, reported the above-listed contributions from Ms. Bartlett, and the Audti Division has confirmed the Committee's refund of $2450 to her.

Any contributions which exceed the limitations established by 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) represent a violation of law. A refund by the recipient may mitigate the donor's violation, particularly if the contributor requests such a refund; however, it does not erase the violation. In the present instance the refund was apparently initiated by the Committee, albeit more than a year after Ms. Bartlett first exceeded her limitation.

Given the $3200 in contributions from Ms. Bartlett reported by the Committee, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Margaret B. Bartlettt has violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) and consider any mitigating factors in attempts to come to a resolution of this matter.

It was with the help of persons such as you that we successfully ended the primary campaign with the nomination of Ronald Reagan.

Our records indicate that you contributed $3,450.00 during the primary. We are, therefore, refunding you $2,450.00. Please find our check enclosed for that amount.

The Reagan/Bush Compliance Fund has recently been established to raise and expend money for legal and accounting costs related to the general election (see attached fact sheet). BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of)

Ruth C. Crocker)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by referrals from the Reports Analysis Division and from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that Ruth C. Crocker had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making excessive contributions to the Reagan for President Committee, and the respondent was notified of this finding.

On October 24, 1980, Mrs. Beatrice O'Connor, secretary and bookkeeper for Ms. Crocker, submitted a response on the latter's behalf. (See Attachment).

II. Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to candidates to $1000 per election. Ms. Crocker made contributions to the Reagan for President Committee as follows: $100 on September 26, 1979; $1000 on December 21, 1979; $1000 on February 25, 1980; and $100 on March 24, 1980. The Committee refunded the excessive portion of these contributions, or $1200, on August 11, 1980. This refund was thus made eight months after Ms. Crocker first exceeded her limitation and five months after her last contribution.

In her response, Mrs. O'Conner assumes responsibility for the contributions at issue, stating that she "was operating under the misconception that contributions were calculated on a calendar year basis... Had I not been operating under a misconception and had the ledger and worksheets been posted on a current basis, this would not have happened." Mrs. O'Conner asserts that "(t)here was no intentional violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act on the part of Lady Crocker...."

Any contributions which exceed the limitations established by 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) represent a violation of law. Any misunderstanding concerning the law and any refunds by the recipient may mitigate the donor's violation, particularly if the contributor requested such a refund; however, they do not erase the violation. In the present instance a refund was apparently initiated by the Committee, albeit eight months after Ms. Crocker first exceeded her limitation.

Given her acknowledged excessive contributions, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Ruth C. Crocker has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A), and consider any mitigating factors in our attempts to come to a resolution of this matter.

Re: MUR 1142/1255

Gentlemen:

This letter acknowledges your letter addressed to "Mrs. Ruth C. Crocker" regarding a possible violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

I am Lady Crocker's secretary and bookkeeper, and it is my responsibility to handle these matters and to see that something like this does not happen. Unfortunately, I was operating under the misconception that contributions were calculated on a calendar year basis, and have now educated myself on the proper procedures to follow. Had I not been operating under a misconception and had the ledger and worksheets been posted on a current basis, this would not have happened. There was no intentional violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act on the part of Lady Crocker; she makes every effort to be in compliance with all laws, federal and otherwise.

This error on my part was discovered by the Reagan people and $1,200.00 was refunded to Lady Crocker on August 8, 1980, as is evidenced by the attached photocopies.

I trust the information submitted in this letter will aid you in your analysis, and you will find that Lady Crocker did not intentionally violate the Federal Election Laws.

Cordially,

Beatrice O'Connor

Within fifteen days of your receipt of this notice, you may file with the Secretary of the Commission a brief (10 copies if possible) stating your position on the issues and replying to the brief of the General Counsel. (Three copies of such brief should also be forwarded to the Office of General Counsel, if possible.) The General Counsel's brief and any brief which you may submit will be considered by the Commission before proceeding to a vote of probable cause to believe a violation has occurred.

A finding of probable cause to believe requires that the Office of General Counsel attempt for a period of not less than thirty, but not more than ninety days to settle this matter through a conciliation agreement. This does not preclude settlement of this matter through conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, if you so desire.

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of)
) MUR 1142/1255
James M. Forgotson)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by referrals from the Reports Analysis Division and from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that James M. Forgotson had violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) by making excessive contributions to the Reagan for President Committee, and the respondent was notified of this finding.

On October 15, 1980, Mr. Forgotson designated Mary Lee Garfield, counsel for the Committee, to represent him in this matter. On December 18, 1980, and March 18, 1981, counsel submitted a response and documentation behalf of Mr. Forgotson.

II. Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to candidates to $1000 per election. Mr. Forgotson made contributions to the Reagan for President Committee as follows: $100 on March 23, 1979; $100 on May 21, 1979; $50 on May 29, 1979; $250 on June 19, 1979; $10 on July 20, 1979; $25 on August 6, 1979; $100 on October 15, 1979; $25 on October 20, 1979; $25 on November 14, 1979; and $500 on November 19, 1979, for a total of $1185.

In addition, on March 19, 1980, a check for $1000 drawn on the account of James M. Forgotson was received by the Committee. A typewritten notation on the check stated "Contribution from Mrs. James M. Forgotson." The Committee attributed this $1000 contribution to Mr. Forgotson, bringing his aggregate total to $2185.

11 C.F.R. § 104.8(c) and (d) state that "(a)bsent evidence to the contrary, any contribution made by check . . . shall be reported as a contribution by the last person signing the instrument prior to delivery to the candidate or committee. A contribution which represents contributions by more than one person shall indicate on the written instrument . . . the amount to be attributed to each contributor."

In its amended report dated August 28, 1980, the Committee reported that Mr. Forgotson's contributions totaled $2,185, that $500 of the November 19, 1979 contribution had been reattributed to Mrs. Forgotson, and that $1,185 had been refunded on August 11, 1980.

Supporting documentation for the $500 reattribution has not been provided. However, given the notation on the March 19, 1980, check, which this Office finds to constitute sufficient evidence of allocation pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 104.8(d), it now appears that Mrs. Forgotson was the contributor of $1000 of the amount attributed to Mr. Forgotson as of March 19, 1980. Therefore, Mr. Forgotson has exceeded his contribution by, at most, $185.

The Office of General Counsel recommends that, given the minimal amount of the excessive contribution now at issue and the fact that the Committee made a refund of more than this amount, no further action be taken with regard to Mr. Forgotson's contributions and that the file in this matter be closed.

General Counsel's Recommendation

1. Take no further action as regards the $185 in excessive contributions made by Mr. James M. Forgotson to the Reagan for President Committee.

2. Close the file in this matter.

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of)
) MUR 1142/1255
Richard J. Greene)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by referrals from the Reports Analysis Division and from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that Richard J. Greene had violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) by making excessive contributions to the Reagan for President Committee, and the respondent was notified of this finding.

On October 15, 1980, Mr. Greene designated Loran A. Smith, counsel for the Committee, to represent him in this matter. On December 18, 1980, and January 16, 1981, counsel for the Committee, Mary Lee Garfield, submitted responses on behalf of Mr. Greene.

II. Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to candidates to $1000 per election. According to Committee reports, Mr. Greene made contributions to the Reagan for President Committee as follows: $1000 on September 30, 1979; $200 on March 24, 1979; and $1000 on May 16, 1980. The Committee mailed a refund check to

Mr. Greene for the apparently excessive portion of these contributions, or $1200, on August 25, 1980.

On October 17, 1980, Mr. Greene and his wife submitted a letter to the Committee stating that the $1000 contributions made on September 30, 1979, and on May 16, 1980, were from a joint account and that their intention was for $1000 to be attributed to each of them. (See Attachment I). The letter is signed by both Mr. and Mrs. Greene. Because the first refund check from the Committee never cleared its account, a second check, this time for $200, was sent to Mr. Greene on January 5, 1981. (See Attachment 2).

11 C.F.R. § 104.8(d) provides that "(a) contribution which represents contributions by more than one person shall indicate on the written instrument, or on an accompanying written statement signed by all contributors, the amount of be attributed to each contributor." In the present instance the attribution letter submitted by Mr. and Mrs. Greene was written thirteen months after the first $1000 contribution at issue and six months after the last. In addition, this letter was apparently written in response to the notification of the Commission's reason to believe finding send to Mr. Greene on October 8, 1980. Given the Committee's assumption in August of 1980 that a refund was required, there can have been no indication on the contribution instruments that both Mr. and Mrs. Greene were to be considered contributors.

Given the lack of reasonably contemporaneous attributions of the contributions at issue, and the excessive amount of the aggregated contributions without such attribution, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Richard J. Greene has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

General Counsel's Recommendation

Find probable cause to believe that Richard J. Greene has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by referrals from the Reports Analysis Division and from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that Leonard W. Hardy had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making excessive contributions to the Reagan for President Committee, and the respondent was notified of this finding.

Mr. Hardy has not submitted a response to the Commission's notification.

II. Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to candidates to $1000 per election. Mr. Hardy made contributions to the Reagan for President Committee as follows: $250 on August 19, 1979; $500 on October 15, 1979; $500 on November 28, 1979; $750 on January 10, 1980; and $1000 on April 29, 1980. The Committee refunded the excessive portion of these contributions, or $2000, on August 11, 1980. This refund was thus made nine months after Mr. Hardy first exceeded his limitation and four months after his last contribution.

Any contribution which exceeds the limitations established by 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) represents violations of law. A refund by the recipient may mitigate the donor's violation, particularly if the contributor requested such a refund; however, it does not erase the violation. In the present instance the refund was apparently initiated by the Committee, albeit nine months after Mr. Hardy first exceeded his limitation.

Given the excessive contributions involved, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Leonard W. Hardy has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) and consider any mitigating factors in our attempts to come to a resolution of this matter.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by referrals from the Reports Analysis Division and from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that Lucille W. Herbert had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making excessive contributions to the Reagan for President Committee, and the respondent was notified of this finding.

On October 21, 1980, the Commission received a response from Mrs. Herbert. (See Attachment).

II. Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to candidates to $1000 per election. Mrs. Herbert, made contributions to the Reagan for President Committee as follows: $300 on July 11, 1979; $100 on October 23, 1979; $500 on November 6, 1979; $25 on November 16, 1979; $250 on Janaury 7, 1980; $100 on January 21, 1980; $1000 on February 5, 1980; and $100 on February 25, 1980. The Committee refunded the excessive portion of these contributions, or $1375, on August 11, 1980. This refund was thus made seven months after Mrs. Herbert first exceeded her limitation and six months after her last contribution.

Mrs. Herbert included with her response information in support of an alleged $1500 refund from the Committee and copies of all of the checks with which she made her contributions.

Contributions in excess of the limitations established by 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) represent violations of law. A refund by the recipient may mitigate the donor's violation, particularly if the contributor requested such a refund; however, it does not erase the violation. GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by referrals from the Reports Analysis Division and from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that Frank M. Klamt had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making excessive contributions to the Reagan for President Committee, and the respondent was notified of this finding.

On October 16, 1980, Mr. Klamt designated Loren A. Smith, counsel for the Committee, to represent him in this matter. On December 18, counsel for the Committee, Mary Lee Garfield,

II. Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to candidates to $1000 per election. Mr. Klamt made contributions to the Reagan for President Committee as follows: $1000 on March 15, 1979; $250 on May 25, 1979; and $1000 on Janaury 10, 1980. The Committee refunded the excessive portion of these contributions, or $1250, on August 11, 1980. This refund was thus made fifteen months after Mr. Klamt first exceeded his limitation and seven months after [illegible]tion.

Counsel has argued that Mr. Klamt's $250 contribution was the result of an "oversight," and that many persons confuse the $1000 per election limitation related to candidates with the limitation per calendar year on contributions to committees. Counsel states that "this is probably not the sort of violation that the Commission should pursue," and that "'compliance' with the law" has been accomplished by the Committee's refund.

More generally, Counsel argues that "the purpose of the Commission is to 'obtain compliance' with the Act, not to punish people." Counsel cites a number of factors which may result in such excessive contributions, including ignorance of the law, the inclusion of amounts paid for admission to fundraisers as contributions, and the use of purchased mailing lists with duplications of names. It is contended that to pursue individual contributors would be "diametrically opposed to the stated purpose of the FECA" because it would make them "wary" of contributing in the future.

It is the position of the Office of General Counsel that the purpose of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) is to limit actual and apparent corruption by limiting the contributions which individuals may make to candidates per election. The amount of the statutory limitation has not been found to be unreasonable by the courts. Therefore, any exceeding of the limitation represents a violation of law. A refund by the recipient may mitigate the donor's violation, particularly if the contributor requested such a refund; however, it does not erase the violation. In the present instance, the refund was apparently initiated by the Committee, albeit more then a year after Mr. Klamt first exceeded his limitation.

8 3 0 4 3 5 8 1 8 1 6

GIen his acknowledged excessive cotnributions, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Frank M. Klamt has violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(l)(A) and consider any mitigating factors in our attempts to come to a resolution of this matter.

Within fifteen days of your receipt of this notice, you may file with the Secretary of the Commission a brief (10 copies if possible) stating your position on the issues and replying to the brief of the General Counsel. (Three copies of such brief should also be forwarded to the Office of General Counsel, if possible.) The General Counsel's brief and any brief which you may submit will be considered by the Commission before proceeding to a vote of probable cause to believe a violation has occurred.

A finding of probable cause to believe requires that the Office of General Counsel attempt for a period of not less than thirty, but not more than ninety days to settle this matter through a conciliation agreement. This does not preclude settlement of this matter through conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, if you so desire.

In the Matter of	)
	)	MUR 1142/1255
Elsa W. Mark	)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by referrals from the Reports Analysis Division and from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that Elsa W. Mark had violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) by making excessive contributions to the Reagan for President Committee, and the respondent was notified of this finding.

Ms. Mark has not submitted a response to the Commission's notification.

II. Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to candidates to $1000 per election. Ms. Mark made contributions to the Reagan for President Committee as follows: $50 on September 15, 1979; $100 on September 20, 1979; $175 on October 26, 1979; $250 and $150 on November 20, 1979; $500 on December 26, 1979; $250 on January 30, 1980; $250 on February 11, 1980; $250 and $250 on February 22, 1980; $350 on March 6, 1980; $150 on March 17, 1980; $250 on March 19 1980; $250 on April 11, 1980; $250 on April 17, 1980; and $250 on April 26, 1980. The Committee refunded the excessive portion of these contributions, or $2725, on August 11, 1980. This refund was thus made eight months after Ms. Mark first exceeded her limitation and four months after her last contribution.

Any contributions in excess of the limitations established by 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) represent violations of law. A refund by the recipient may mitigate the donor's violation, particularly if the contributor requested such a refund; however, it does not erase the violation. In the present instance the refund was apparently initiated by the Committee, albeit eight months after Ms. Mark first exceeded her limitation.

Given the excessive contributions involved, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Elsa W. Mark has violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A), and consider any mitigating factors in our attempts to come to a resolution on this matter.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by referrals from the Reports Analysis Division and from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that L. Randolph Mason had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making excessive contributions to the Reagan for President Committee, and the respondent was notified of this finding.

On October 14, 1980, counsel for Mr. Mason submitted a response on his behalf. (See Attachment).

II. Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to candidates to $1000 per election. Mr. Mason made contributions to the Reagan for President Committee as follows: $1000 on March 23, 1979; $500 on January 22, 1980; $500 on January 28, 1980; and $500 on March 17, 1980. The Committee refunded the excessive portion of these contributions, or $1500, on August 11, 1980. This refund was thus made seven months after Mr. Mason first exceeded his limitation and five months after his last contribution.

3 5 0 4 0 1 8 1 8 3

In his response, counsel states the belief that because the Reagan for President Committee refunded the excessive portion of Mr. Mason's contributions, "...he is now in compliance with the law."

Contributions which exceed the limitations established by 11 C.F.R. § 441a(a)(1)(A) represent violations of law. A refund by the recipient may mitigate the donor's violation, particularly if the contributorn requested such a refund; however, it does not erase the violation. In the present instance the refund was apparently initiated by the Committee, albeit seven months after Mr. Mason first exceeded his limitation.

Given his acknowledged excessive contributions, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that L. Randolph Mason has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) and consider any mitigating factors in our attempts to come to a resolution of this matter.

I. Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by referrals from the Reports Analysis Division and from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that T. Cecil Meador had violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) by making excessive contributions to the Reagan for President Committee, and the respondent was notified of this finding.

On October 18, 1980, counsel for Mr. Meador informed the Commission that Mr. Meador is now deceased and that as soon as an administrator was appointed for his estate the Commission would be advised. No additional information has been received.

II. Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to candidates to $1000 per election. Mr. Meador made contributions to the Reagan for President Committee as follows: $50 on October 1, 1979; $1000 on November 29, 1979; and $1000 on January 11, 1980. The Committee reported refunding the excessive portion of these contributions, or $1500, on August 11, 1980. This refund was thus made nine months after Mr. Meador first exceeded his limitation and seven months after his last contribution.

Any contributions which exceed the limitations set forth at 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) represent a violation of law. A refund by the recipient may mitigate the violation, particularly if the contributor requested such a refund; however, it does not erase the violation. In the present instance the refund was apparently initiated by the Committee, albeit nine months after Mr. Meador first exceeded his limitation.

On the other hand, given Mr. Meador's death since the contributions were made, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission take no further action and close the file in this matter.

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of)
North Hollywood Glass) Company)

MUR 1142/1255

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by a referral from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that the North Hollywood Glass Company ("Company") had violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) by making an advance and thus a contribution to Ronald Reagan in the sum of $5680.60.

Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from persons to candidates for federal office to $1000 per election. 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) defines "person" to include an "association, corporation, . . . or any other organizatiom or group of persons . . . . " 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A)(i) includes advances in its definition of "contribution."

Between August 31 and October 18, 1979, the Company an unincorporated business entity which manufactures rolling aluminum glass doors and windows, made expenditures totaling $5680.60 for a reception held on October 11, 1980, on behalf of Ronald Reagan. The Company billed the Committee on October 31, 1979, and was paid on December 3, 1979.

In the response submitted by counsel for the Committee on behalf of the Company it is argued that the Company did not service, billed the Committee, and was paid." It is further stated that "North Hollywood Glass billed the Reagan campaign for every expense incurred . . . . North Hollywood Glass billed the Committee the day the last expense was noted and was paid thirty-four days later. This is not the action of a [sic] one intending to make a contribution."

The fact that the Company contracted for services and billed the Committee for its expenses is apparently viewed by counsel as being in the Company's normal course of business. Counsel seems to interpret the phrase "ordinary course of business" to encompass a company's procedures for granting credit, seeking repayment, etc., but not to include the "normal" products or services offered by that business. In the present situation a company in the business of selling glass doors and windows undertook the totally different activity of organizing a reception for Ronald Reagan. It is the opinion of the Office of General Counsel that the phrase "ordinary course of business" includes the products or services normally offered by a company as well as the manner in which it permits payment for such products or services. Here it was not the Company's ordinary course of business to enter into a contract to organize a reception for a candidate for federal office.

Given the fact that the expenditures incurred by the Company were made outside its ordinary course of business, the portion of those expenditures which exceeded an aggregated total of $1000 were illegal, Therefore, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that North Hollywood Glass Company has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

General Counsel's Recommendation

Find probable cause to believe that the North Hollywood Glass Company has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(A)(1)(A).

Dear Mr. Weidenfeld:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilites, the Federal Election Commission, on September 30, 1980, found reason to believe that North Hollywood Glass Company had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A), and instituted an investigation in this matter.

After considering all the evidence available to the Commission, the Office of the General Counsel is prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred.

Submitted for your review is a brief stating the position of the General Counsel on the legal and factual issues of the case. Within fifteen days of your receipt of this notice, you may file with the Secretary of the Commission a brief (10 copies if possible) stating your position on the issues and replying to the brief of the General Counsel. (Three copies of such brief should also be forwarded to the Office of General Counsel, if possible.) The General Counsel's brief and any brief which you may submit will be considered by the Commission before proceeding to a vote of probable cause to believe a violation has occurred.

A finding of probable cause to believe requires that the Office of General Counsel attempt for a period of not less than thirty, but not more than ninety days to settle this matter through a conciliation agreement. This does not preclude settlement of this matter through conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, if you so desire.

In the Matter of)
) MUR 1142/1255
Moran Interests)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by a referral from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that Moran Interests had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) by making excessive contributions to the Reagan for President Committee, and the respondent was notified of this finding. Counsel for the Committee has responded on behalf of Moran Interests.

II. Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from persons to candidates for Federal office to $1000 per election. 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) includes individuals and partnerships in its definition of "person". The Commission's finding of reason to believe that that Moran Interests had violated Section 441a(a)(1)(A) was based upon the assumption that this entity is a partnership and thus a person for purposes of contribution limitations. It is, however, counsel's argument that Moran Interests is not a partnership, but, rather, a joint account of six individuals. In support of this argument a letter has been submitted which accompanied the $6,000 check sent to the Committee. (See Attachment). This letter stated that the check represented $1000 contributions from John J. Moran, Rose V. Moran, John A. Moran, Jeanne Moran Cunningham, Cary M. Moran, and Louis A. Cunningham, four of whom are authorized signatories on the account, and two the spouses of signatories. The $6000 check and the accompanying letter were signed only by John J. Moran. A notation on the check stated that the purpose was a "political cont. from JJM, RVM, JAM, JMC, CPM, TAC".

11 C.F.R. § 104.8(d) provides that "(a) contribution which represents contributions by more than one person shall indicate on the written instrument, or on an accompanying written statement signed by all contributors, the amount to be attributed to each contributor." In the present instance the written statement accompanying the contribution, which explained its intended division, contained only one signature; however, the written instrument itself indicated the intended division by listing the initials of the contributors involved. It appears that the combination of these two documents satisfies the requirements of 11 C.F.R. § 104.8(d). Therefore, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find no probable cause to believe that Moran Interests has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) and close the file in this matter.

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of)
) MUR 1142/1255
Charles K. Fletcher)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by a referral from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that Charles K. Fletcher had violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) by making an advance on behalf of the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee") and thus a contribution to the Committee in the sum of $5,000.00. The respondent was notified of this finding. On April 21, 1981, Mr. Fletcher responded. (See Attachment).

Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from persons to candidates for federal office and their authorized committees committees to $1000 per election. 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A) defines "contribution" to include "any gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money . . . made by any person for purposes of influencing any election for federal office."

On August 30, 1979, Charles K. Fletcher paid $5000 of a required $12,000 advance deposit required by the Hilton Hawaiian Village with regard to a fundraising event held on September 4, 1979 on behalf of Ronald Reagan's candidacy. The remaining $7000 was paid with a check drawn on a bank account designated Reagan for President - Hawaii. The Committee reimbursed Mr. Fletcher on January 25, 1980, and reported this expenditure as being for "professional services." On February 12, 1980, Mr. Fletcher returned $1,401.60 to the Committee; this sum represented a refund which he had received from the Hilton Hawaiian Village. Mr. Fletcher served as Treasurer of the Hawaii Reagan for President Committee.

As noted above, 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) includes advances and and loans within its definition of "contribution."

In his April 21, 1981, response to the Commission's finding of reason to believe Mr. Fletcher states, "The $5,000 check which I gave to the Hilton Hawaiian Village was a personal check from Charles K. and Jeannette F. Fletcher as a guarantee deposit and not a contribution." The fact that his deposit was reimbursed by the Committee is relied upon as showing that no contribution was involved.

Counsel for the Committee argues that Mr. Fletcher, "then treasurer in Hawaii," "did not consider this a contribution or loan. He expected, asked for and received reimbursement for this expense." Counsel also urges the Commission to look at "the position of the person making the expenditure, the type of expenditure, and the expectation of the person making the expenditure in differentiating between loans, contributions, advances and reimbursable expenses," and also at the response of the committee involved. Counsel does not, however, address each of these factors as they relate to Mr. Fletcher's expenditure. Nor does the statute provide for such a differentiation of transactions.

As treasurer in Hawaii, Mr. Fletcher may be deemed an agent of the Committee, thereby placing the Committee in constructive knowledge of his $5000 payment to the Hawaiian Village. Whether or not Mr. Fletcher expected reimbursement, he expended his own funds on behalf of the Committee and thereby made a loan or advance, and therefore a contribution, in the amount of $5,000. The contribution was made on August 30, 1979, and not reimbursed until January 25, 1980.

As noted above, Mr. Fletcher, in his response, states that the $5000 check for the hotel deposit came from himself and his wife. 11 C.F.R. § 104.8(d) provides that "(a) contribution which represents contributions by more than one person shall indicate on the written instrument or on an accompanying writing signed by all contributors, the amount to be attributed to each contributor." In the present instance neither a copy of the written instrument indicating Mrs. Fletcher's involvement nor a copy of an accompanying written statement explaining her share of the deposit and bearing her signature has been provided. Absent such a showing of contemporaneous intent to make a joint deposit, and the fact the Mr. Fletcher's explanation was received nineteen months after the date of the transaction in question, the entire $5000 deposit is attributable to him.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

The issue involved in this matter was brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by referrals from the Reports Analysis Division and from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to remieve that Maxy Pope Alles had violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) by making excessive contributions to the Reagan for President Committee.

On November 7, 1980, counsel for Mrs. Alles submitted submitted a response on her behalf. (See Attachment).

II. Legal Analysis

2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to candidates to $1000 per election. Mrs. Alles made contributions to the Reagan for President Committee as follows: $1000 on March 28, 1979; $1000 on May 29 , 1979; and $250 on September 28, 1979. The Committee refunded the excessive portion of these contributions, or $1250, on May 12, 1980. This refund was thus made one year after

Mrs. Alles first exceeded her limitation and nine months after her last contribution.

Counsel has acknowledged that Mrs. Alles contributed $2500 to the Reagan for President Committee in 1979, but also states that $1000 was contributed before Mr. Reagan became a candidate and that $250 was thought to be a contribution to the CFTR Educational Foundation. Counsel argues that Mrs. Alles did not understand that pre-candidacy contributions "counted toward the limit once he announced"; no explanation is offered for the alleged confusion regarding the CFTR Educational Foundation.

Any contributions which exceed the limitations set forth at 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) represent a violation of law. The contributor's state of mind at the time the contributions were made may serve to mitigate the violation, as may a refund by the recipient, particularly if the contributor requested such a refund. However, these circumstances do not erase the violation. In the present instance the refund was apparently initiated by the Committee, albeit more than a year after Mrs. Alles first exceeded her limitation.

Given her acknowledged excessive contributions, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that Maxy Pope Alles has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) and consider any mitigating factors in our attempts to come to a resolution of this matter.

Re: MUR 1142/1255
Maxy Pope Alles

Dear Mr. McGarry:

This is in response to your letter of October 8 to Mrs. Maxy Pope Alles.

It appears that Mrs. Alles did, in fact, contribute $2,250 to the Reagan for President Committee in 1979. It also appears, however, that when it was learned there had been an excess contribution the $1,250 excess was refunded to Mrs. Alles. Enclosed is a copy of her June 2, 1980 deposit slip for the refund that can presumably be confirmed by the Reagan for President Committee.

The background for originally exceeding the limits is as follows: The first $1,000 was made before Mr. Reagan announced that he was a candidate, and Mrs. Alles did not understand that counted toward the limit once he had announced. The additional $250 was thought to be a tax-deductible contribution to an educational organization, CFTR Educational Foundation. The net effect, in any event, is that after the refund Mrs. Alles' total contribution to the Reagan for President Committee is $1,000.

Yours truly,

SUJBECT: Supplement to the Probable Cause Brief Submitted to the Reagan for President Committee -- MUR 1142/1255

On July 6, 1981, this Office circulated to the Commission for informational purposes copies of the General Counsel's brief sent to the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"). It has since been noted that the most recent quarterly report submitted by the Committee contained transactions involving the disposition of apparently excessive contributions which were not taken into consideration in the brief circulated. In order to bring that brief up to date, this Office is sending to the Committee the attached supplement which pertains only to Part II, B, 1. The revised figures contained in the supplement do not alter the proposed recommendation regarding a finding of probable cause to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

SUPPLEMENT TO GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

This supplement is intended to provide a update of the information contained in Part II, B, 1 of the General Counsel's Brief which concerns the apparent violation by the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee") of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

8 3 0 4 0 6 1 9 0

II. Legal Analysis

In the brief submitted to the Committee it is stated that the total amount of the excessive contributions from individuals involved in this part of MUR 1142/1255 is $104,070. The April 15, 1981, quarterly report filed with the Commission by the Committee states that apparently excessive contributions from three persons, which total $1500, were the result of data processing errors. In addition, an error of duplication involving $250 has been found in the original brief. Therefore, the total is now reduced to $102,320.

The April 15, 1981 quarterly report also stated that reattributions had been received for fifteen of the apparently excessive contributions involved in this matter about which it was earlier believed that no action had been taken. This brings the total of reported reattributed contributions to fifty (50) totaling $30,659. (Two of these reattributed contributions, which total $1200, have also been reported as refunds.) At the time of the post-primary audit of the Committee's activities, full documentation for $17,625 in reported reattributions (i.e., a letter or other document signed by the additional individual(s) involved in the contribution was not available, and has not yet been provided. The total of reported reattributions now needing supporting documentation equals $28,675. Eight of the newly reported reattributions, totaling $7500, are stated to have been received in 1979; however, at least four totaling $2250 were not received until December, 1980, and March, 1981. As was noted in the original brief, the supporting documentation which has been made available for reattributed contributions was apparently obtained at least five months after the initial contribution was made.

Regarding refunds, the April 15 quarterly report asserts that twenty-four (24) refunds have been made since the beginning of 1981 and thus since the post-primary audit, bringing the total number of reported refunds to sixty-two (62) and the total amount to $54,511. (Again, the amount of two of these reported refunds, or $1200, has also been reported as reattributed. In addition, as reported in the original brief, the Committee has apparently refunded $1500 more than necessary to three individuals.) At the time of the post-primary audit $20,775 in refunds were not fully documented. With the addition of the most recently reported refunds, the figure for refunds in need of supporting documentation now stands at $28,895. Although two of the refunds reported in April, 1981, involve reissues of earlier refunds, twenty-two others totaling $7570 were first made in January and March of 1981, and thus at least thirteen months after the contributors began to exceed their limits and at least nine months after the Audit Division informed the Committee of the specific, apparently excessive contributions found during its review of the Committee's records.

Attached is a revised listing of the individuals whose contributions are involved in this matter.

As a result of these most recently reported reattributions and refunds, the amount of the apparently excessive contributions received by the Committee for which no apparent action has been taken has been reduced to $19,950 involving twenty-nine individuals.

Given the Committee's apparent failure to address $19,950 in excessive contributions, the unreasonableness of the time the Committee has taken in making reported refunds and in obtaining many of its reported reattributions, and the lack of full supporting documentation for $38,400 in reported refunds and reattributions at the time of the post-primary audit, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting excessive contributions from individuals.

Dear Mr. Weidenfeld,

On July 6, 1981, this Office sent to you the brief which we propose to present to the Commission with regard to violations by the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee") of certain provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. It has since been noted that the facts set forth in Part II, B, 1 of the brief do not reflect information provided in the Committee's April 15, 1981, quarterly report submitted to the Commission as regards refunds and reattributions of excessive contributions.

The attached supplement to the General Counsel's brief contains revised figures which take into account the contents of the April 15 report. The recommendation which this Office proposes to make to the Commission regarding the Committee's violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) remains the same as that contained in the original brief.

Because of the new information contained in this supplement, any brief which you wish to submit on behalf of the Committee for presentation to the Commission need not be filed until fifteen days after your receipt of this letter.

Sincerely,

Charles N. Steele
General Counsel

Re: MUR 1142/1255

Dear Mr. Gross:

This acknowledges receipt of your July 6 letter and the enclosed General Counsel's Brief. We intend to file a responding brief to correct several inaccuracies in General Counsel's Brief. It will take us a few days to assemble some of the information and we request the opportunity to file our brief by August 1, 1981.

Your pursuit of this matter under the circumstances is most surprising to us and we wonder what type of conciliation agreement you would propose.

Yours truly,

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. Statement of the Case

The issues involved in this matter were brought to the attention of the Office of General Counsel by referrals from the Reports Analysis Division and from the Audit Division. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee") had violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(9) [now 434(b)(5)] by failing to properly report the payees of committee expenditures, and 44la(f) by receiving excessive contributions.

Notification of the Commission's determination was sent to the Committee on October 8, 1980. The Committee has responded through counsel to the allegations involved.

II. Legal Analysis

A. Failure to Report the Ultimate Payees of Expenditures

Former 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) required committees to identify "each person to whom expenditures have been made . . . in excess of $100, (and) the amount, date and purpose of such expenditure . . . . " On January 8, 1980, this provision was replaced by 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5) which requires committees to provide "the name and address of each person to whom an expenditure . . . in excess of $200 within the calendar year is made . . .

to meet a candidate or committee operating expense, together with the date, amount and purpose of such operating expenditure . . . ." In its expenditure reports dated April 10, 1979, July 10, 1979, and October 10, 1979, the Committee reported thirteen apparent reimbursement expenditures totaling $10,724.92, each of which was in excess of $200 and each of which listed as payee the committee staff person or volunteer who received the reimbursement, not the actual person or vendor who provided the goods or services involved.

In the response submitted by counsel for the Committee to the Commission's notification of its finding of reason to believe (Attachment I), it is stated that the term "ultimate payees . . . is a term of art with which we are heretofore unfamiliar. It does not appear in the statutes or in the regulations." Counsel further contends that the purposes reported for the expenditures at issue meet the requirements of 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4)(i)(A), and that a requirement to report every ultimate payee of expenditures "becomes so extensive as to make the reporting impossible as well as meaningless." Counsel argues that the legislative history of the 1979 amendments to the Federal Election Campaign Act emphasized simplified reporting, and sets out a hypothetical breakdown of ultimate recipients involved in a single reimbursement expenditure. (Attachment I, pages 1-2).

It has been a long-standing Commission policy that committee reports must set forth the actual use to which funds are put so that the ultimate payee which provided services is disclosed. See Notice to all Candidates and Committees, September 29, 1976; FEC Record, October 12, 1976, at 2; Financial Control and Compliance Manual for Presidential Candidates Receiving Public Financing (Primary Election Financing), July, 1979, at 138-139. As explained in the Manual, if reimbursements for expenditures other than travel and subsistence are included in a report, "each payee included in the reimbursement report with charges in excess of $100 (now $200) must be separately listed . . . . " (at 139). Counsel's hypothetical example of the type of detail to which a requirement of "ultimate payees" could lead goes far beyond what is required. The deficiencies in the Committee's reports are that Committee agents are listed as payees, with no additional information provided as to the actual sources of the goods and services purchased.

Given the Committee's failure to provide the names of the providers of the goods and services involved with certain expenditures reported by the Committee, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Committee has violated former 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) and 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5).

B. Excessive Contributions

1. Contributions Received by the Committee from 130 Individuals

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from persons to candidates for Federal office and their authorized committees to $1000 per election. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) prohibits knowing acceptance by candidates or by officers or employees of a political committee of contributions from individuals for the benefit or use of a candidate in violation of the limitations set forth at 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b) requires that contributions which appear to be illegal shall be returned within 10 days of receipt or, if deposited, shall be noted as being possibly illegal and duly investigated. If the legality of such contributions cannot be established, they are to be refunded "within a reasonable time."

The Reports Analysis Division, (RAD), through its review of the Committee's April 10, July 10 and October 10, 1979, reports, determined that the Committee had received contributions in excess of $1000 per contributor per election and that reimbursements had not been made as of the date of the RAD referral to the Office of General Counsel, January 11, 1980. Additional excessive contributions were noted in the Committee's Year-End Report for 1979. The Audit Division later reviewed the Committee's records through December 31, 1979, and found that excessive contributions totaling $75,820 had been received and not refunded as of that date. Following the Audit Division's review and in answer to requests for additional information sent by the Reports Analysis Division, the Committee reported a series of reattributions, refunds and corrections of computer errors regarding apparently excessive contributions. These reports revealed additional excessive contributions. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that the Committee and fifteen individuals had violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(f) and 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A) respectively.

3 3 0 4 0 5 8 1 9 2 6

The Interim Post Primary Audit Report for the Committee, considered by the Commission on November 13, 1980, contained a listing of individuals who appeared to have exceeded their contribution limitations for the primary campaign period. The total of the apparently excessive contributions made by listed individuals who exceeded their limitation in 1979, together with those made by unlisted individuals who are the named respondents in this matter, was $104,070. 1/

Attached to this brief is a listing of the individuals whose contributions are included in this matter, together with any reported and/or confirmed disposition of excessive amounts. (See Attachment II).

1/ Four of the respondents in this matter exceeded their contribution limitations as the result of a combination of their 1979 and 1980 contributions. Contributions received from additional individuals who exceeded their limitations in 1980 are being addressed in MUR 1360.

The report amendments filed by the Committee on May 27, August 28, and December 22, 1980, concerning thirty-two (32) of the above apparently excessive contributions indicated that $19,609 had been reattributed to individuals other than who were originally cited as contributors. Supporting documentation, i.e. a letter or other document signed by the additional individual(s) involved in the contribution, has been provided for five individuals for whom $1984 in reattributions have been reported. Regarding an additional $1850 involving three individuals, the Committee has submitted insufficient documentation of refunds rather than reattributions. The Committee has also provided sufficient documentation in support of $1900 in reattributions for four individuals not listed in the above amendments, $1000 of which was originally reported as a refund. All told, $17,625 in reported reattributions remain to be fully documented.

The nine reattributions for which adequate supporting documentation has been made available, totaling $3884, were apparently not obtained until at least five months after the contributor to whom the contribution was originally attributed began to exceed his or her limitation.

These same amendments plus the Year-End Report filed in January, 1981, reported that $46,641 had been refunded to thirty-nine (39) individuals as of December 30, 1980. The Committee apparently refunded $250 in excess of the amounts required to two individuals, and $1000 to a third person for an aggregate excessive amount of $1500. Responses from or on behalf of seven of the individuals who are respondents in this matter have confirmed receipt of refunds totaling $6960, not counting a reduction of $1000 in one reported refund as the result of reattribution. The Audit Division has confirmed separately that complete documentation, i.e. the front and back of refund checks, exists for an additional $16,156 in refunds made to fourteen individuals, and also that documentation exists for a reattribution of $250 in lieu of a refund. There therefore remains $20,775 in reported refunds to eighteen persons still unconfirmed.[2/]

Of the total of $23,116 in required refunds of contributions which have been confirmed, $1,250 was repaid to one person in May, 1980, $14,560 to thirteen persons in August, 1980, $3,781 to two persons in October, 1980, and $3,575 to four persons in December, 1980, while $200 was re-sent to one individual in January, 1981.

The Committee has submitted no amendments nor evidence of reattributions or refunds with regard to $38,670 in apparently excessive contributions received from sixty-three (63) individuals.[3/]

The emphasis of the response submitted by counsel for the Committee is upon the reasonableness of the time taken to make the reattributions or refunds which have been reported. In the response counsel cites incidental errors, the Committee's move

2/ $13,800 of this amount involves reported refunds made to seven individuals who are respondents in this matter. Six of these individuals have not responded to the notifications of reason to believe findings sent to them and thus have neither confirmed nor denied receiving refunds. The attorney for the estate of the seventh has not raised the issue of a refund. Copies of the front and back of any refund checks involved have not been made available to this Office.

3/ This figure includes three contributors for whom partial refunds and/or partial reattributions totaling $2,225 have been documented. $750 of their contributions remains unaddressed.

from California to Virginia, the computerization of the contributor files, the time required to contact contributors in order to confirm excessiveness, matching fund submissions in January, 1980, and the lack of an appearance of illegality regarding the contributions at issue as evidence of the reasonableness of the time needed by the Committee. In the last regard, counsel argues that "(a)lmost all of the cited contributors exceeded the $1000 limit only by aggregating their contributions." Therefore there was no "actuality or appearance of corruption" involved in the initial acceptance of the individual contributions. (Attachment I, page 4).

Given the statutory limitations on contributions from individuals, it is the burden of all political committee to develop a system for the rapid and accurate aggregation of contributions and for the disposal of those portions of contributions found to be excessive. In the present instance the Committee was notified at the exit conference with FEC auditors in late April, 1980, of the names of all the individuals who had made the apparently excessive contributions here at issue, together with the amounts and dates of the 1979 portions of those contributions. Therefore, by that date the Committee was no longer dependent upon its computer for its knowledge of the status of contributions received through December 31, 1979. As of late April, if not earlier, these contributions appeared to be illegal and the Committee had only a "reasonable" time to determine that the contributions were in fact legal or to refund the excessive amounts involved. The Committee has apparently failed to take either step with regard to $38,670 in contributions, and has taken an average of 10 months, and as much as 20 months, from the time of receipt, and, with one exception, four months or more after receiving a listing from the FEC auditors, to make those refunds or to obtain those reattributions which have been confirmed. Such timing is not reasonable.

Given the Committee's failure to address $38,670 in apparently excessive contributions, the unreasonableness of the time the Committee has taken in making reported refunds and in obtaining reported re-attributions, and the lack of full supporting documentation for $38,400 in reported refunds and reattributions, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting excessive contributions from individuals.

C. Apparently Excessive Contributions Received by the Committee from Moran Interests

On August 2, 1979, a check for $6000 was written to the order of Reagan for President. The check contained the printed name "Moran Interests" as the payee and was signed by John J. Moran. The check contained the notation that it was a "political contribution from JJM, RUM, JAM, JMC, CPM, and TAC." It was understood by the Audit Division that Moran Interests was a partnership, with the result that an excessive contribution was deemed to have been made pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) and 2 U.S.C. § 431(11). On October 2, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that Moran Interests had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

In its response on behalf of the respondent to the Commission's notification, counsel for the Committee states that Moran Interests is not a partnership. (Attachment III, page 3). Rather, the check issued was written on a six-way joint account and represented six $1000 contributions rather than one $6000 contribution. In support of this position the Committee has furnished a copy of the letter which accompanied the contribution in which six individuals are named as the intended contributors. (See Attachment IV). Four of these persons are stated to be authorized signatories on the account, and two are the spouses of signatories. The signature of only one person, John J. Moran, appears on the face of the instrument and on the accompanying letter.

11 C.F.R. § 104.8(d) provides that "(a) contribution which represents contributions by more than one person shall indicate on the written instrument, or on an accompanying writing signed by all contributors, the amount to be attributed to each contributor." In the present instance the written statement accompanying the contribution, which explained the intended division of the contribution, contained only one signature; however, the written instrument itself indicated the intended division by listing the initials of the contributors involved. It appears that the combination of these two documents satisfies the requirements of 11 C.F.R. § 104.8(d). Therefore, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find no probable cause to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) with regard to receipt of the contribution here at issue.

3 3 0 4 0 5 8 1 9 1 5

D. Apparently Excessive Contributions Received by the Committee from North Hollywood Glass Company

Between August 31 and October 18, 1979, North Hollywood Glass Company ("the Company"), an unincorporated business entity which manufactures rolling aluminum glass doors and windows, made expenditures totaling $5,680.60 for a fundraising event held on October 11, 1980, on behalf of Ronald Reagan. (See Attachment V). The Company billed the Committee on October 31, 1979, and was reimbursed on December 3, 1979. On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that the Committee had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting an advance and thus a contribution to Ronald Reagan in the sum of $5,680.60.

2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A)(i) defines "contribution" as including "any gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit or money . . . made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office." In the response submitted by Committee counsel on behalf of the Company it is argued that the Company did not make an advance to the Reagan campaign, but, rather, "performed a service, billed the Committee, and was paid." It is further stated that "North Hollywood Glass billed the Reagan campaign for every expense incurred . . . . North Hollywood Glass billed the Committee the day the last expense was noted and was paid thirty-four days later. This is not the action of a [sic] one intending to make a contribution." (Attachment III, page 4).

The fact that the Company contracted for services and billed the Committee for its expenses is apparently viewed by counsel as being in the Company's normal course of business. Counsel seems to interpret the phrase "ordinary course of business" to encompass but not to include the "normal" products or services offered by that company. In the present instance a company in the business of selling glass doors and windows undertook the totally different activity of organizing a reception for Ronald Reagan. It is the opinion of the Office of General Counsel that the phrase "ordinary course of business" includes the products or services normally offered by a company as well as the manner in which it permits payment for such products or services. In the present instance it was not in the Company's ordinary course of business to enter into a contract to organize a reception for a candidate for federal office.

Given the fact that the expenditures incurred by the Company were made outside the ordinary course of business, the portion of those expenditures which exceeded the aggregate of $1000 permitted by 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) were illegal and should have been refunded by the Committee within 10 days of their receipt pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 103.3. Having contracted with the Company for reception-related services, the Committee was aware that expenses would be incurred prior to the tendering of a bill by the Company to the Committee. On September 7, 1979, the Company exceeded its $1000 contribution limitation. (See Attachment V). Therefore, the Committee's payment of the Company's bill took place three months after the Company began to exceed its contribution limitation, a period of time which was not reasonable.

The Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find probable cause to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting an excessive contribution from North Hollywood Glass Company.

E. Apparently Excessive Contribution Received by the Committee from Charles K. Fletcher

On August 30, 1979, Charles K. Fletcher paid $5000 of a required $12,000 advance deposit required by the Hilton Hawaiian Village with regard to a fundraising event to be held on September 4, 1979, on behalf of Ronald Reagan. The remaining $7000 was paid with a check drawn on a bank account designated Reagan for President - Hawaii. The Committee reimbursed Mr. Fletcher on January 25, 1980, and reported this expenditure as being for "professional services." On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting an excessive contribution from Mr. Fletcher.

As noted above, 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) includes advances, loans and deposits of money within its definition of "contribution." In his own response to the Commission's finding of reason to believe, Mr. Fletcher states that his $5,000 check to the hotel "was a personal check from Charles K. and Jeannette T. Fletcher as a guarantee deposit, not a contribution." (Attachment VI). Counsel for the Committee argues that Mr. Fletcher, "then treasurer in Hawaii," "did not consider this a contribution or loan. He expected, asked for, and received reimbursement for this expense." (Attachment I, page 4). Counsel also urges the Commission to look at "the position of the person making the expenditure, the type of expenditure, and the expectation of the person making the expenditure in differentiating between loans, contributions, advances and reimbursable expenses," and also at the response of the committee involved as regards repayment. Counsel does not, however, address each of these factors as they relate to Mr. Fletcher's deposit. Nor does the statute provide for

As treasurer in Hawaii, Mr. Fletcher may be deemed to have been an agent of the Committee, thereby placing the Committee in constructive knowledge of his $5000 payment to the Hawaiian Village. Whether or not Mr. Fletcher expected reimbursement, he expended his own funds on behalf of the Committee and thereby made a loan or advance and therefore a contribution in the amount of $5,000. The deposit/contribution was made on August 30, 1979, and not reimbursed until January 25, 1980.

As noted above, Mr. Fletcher, in his April 21, 1981, response to the Commission's finding of reason to believe, states that the $5000 check for the hotel deposit came from himself and his wife. However, neither a copy of the written instrument indicating Mrs. Fletcher's involvement nor a copy of an accompanying written statement explaining her share of the deposit and bearing her signature has been provided pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 104.8(d). Absent such a showing of contemporaneous intent to make a joint deposit, and the fact that Mr. Fletcher's explanation was received nineteen months after the date of the transaction in question, the entire $5000 deposit is attributable to him.

The Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting an excessive contribution from Charles K. Fletcher.

General Counsel's Recommendations

1. Find probable cause to believe that the Reagan for President Committee violated former 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) and 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5).

2. Find probable cause to believe that the Reagan for President Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting excessive contributions from 130 individuals totaling $104,070.

3. Find no probable cause to believe that the Reagan for President Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting an excessive contribution from Moran Interests.

4. Find probable cause to believe that the Reagan for President Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting an excessive contribution from the North Hollywood Glass Company.

RECEIVED
GENERAL COUNSEL

Federal Election Commission

Re: MUR 1142/1255

Dear Mr. Chairman:

In response to your Notification of Reason to Believe Finding, dated October 8, 1980 we would like to submit the information and Exhibits here enclosed for the consideration of the Commission.

The RtB cites:

(1) failure to report "ultimate payees" of certain expenditures;
(2) excessive contributions by individuals; and under sections;
(b) a partnership contribution;
(c) a contribution by North Hollywood Glass Co.;
(d) an advance deposit of $5,000.
(3) an excessive contribution by the candidate which the Commission has decided not to pursue.

In connection with the last named item (3), at this time we would seek to correct the record by noting that the policy of insurance was not purchased out of the personal funds of Governor Reagan, but the premium was paid by the Committee.

(1) Failure to Report Ultimate Payees

We would note in passing the term "ultimate payees" (your quotation marks) is a term of art with which we were heretofore unfamiliar. It does not appear in the statutes or in the regulations. We believe that in our reports we provided the name, date, amount and purpose of the expenditure, in conformity with 11 CFR 104.3(b)(4)(i). Your citation is confusing as we are an authorized committee. 11 CFR 104.3 (b)(4)(i)(A) makes clear, by indicating as satisfactory responses "travel expense reimbursement" (as opposed to Eastern Airlines) and "dinner expense" (as opposed to McDonalds), that the "ultimate payee" concept has not entered the regulatory scheme. We are unfortunately not privy to the Memorandum approved by the Commission on July 22, 1980. This Tuesday Meeting was presumably an Executive Session and the outcome of matters there discussed are unknown to us. In any event, whatever changes that may have been wrought by Memorandum rather than a rule making occurred after the date of the expenditures in question.

Documentation on all these expenditures was made available to the auditors. The particulars of each of these expenditures were detailed, and the purpose clear when reported so as to leave no doubt as to how these funds were spent.

The Commission is concerned about the Committee's use of postage as an explanation. The Committee is concerned that the Commission is not aware of the "ultimate" payee in this case, since there exists only one vendor of postage in the United States.

When an individual is reimbursed for expenditures, reporting every "ultimate payee" involved becomes so extensive as to make the reporting impossible as well as meaningless. We are aware of no legislative or FEC history that argues in favor of the "ultimate payee" concept. The legislative history of the 1979 amendments is full of references to simplified reporting, not more complex reporting.

The ultimate payee concept also has some severe definitional problems. We would report " $500 to Joe Jones for travel reimbursement." We could report "$500 to Eastern Airlines". We could report "$30 to travel agency, $50 to pilot, $40 to co-pilot,$30 to navigator, $50 to attendants, $80 to Exxon, $50 to airport, $20 to luggage handling, $20 to food caterer, $80 to taxes, and $50 to EAL management and stockholders. The "ultimate payee" concept becomes totally meaningless for disclosure purposes and impossible to implement. Once the Commission goes beyond "person to whom an expenditure ... is made," the purpose of disclosure is negated and reporting an expenditure to an "ultimate payee" when we have issued a check to someone else will make auditing almost impossible.

2. Excessive Contributions

While this section is titled as above, it seems more properly to relate to a finding by your auditors that contributions from individuals that exceeded $1,000 were not refunded to them in a "reasonable" time. "Reasonable" as it appeared in 11 CFR 103.3(b)(2) is not construed.

There are undoubtedly incidental errors in our reporting, computer errors, and time lags which cannot now be accounted for. There is, however, no indication that excessive contributions were purposefully held, or refunds delayed. Indeed, as demonstrated by our reports, we refunded more than we needed to (Jesse B. Moore, Margaret Bartlett, James Forgotson) in some instances. Our move from the West coast to the East coast occasioned a large portion of the delay. We had to reorganize in our new surroundings and coordinate our new records to determine how far along we were with determinations of legality of various contributions.

Since the contributor's file is computerized, it was often six (6) weeks before a specific contribution came to the attention of the Treasurer's Office as an excessive contribution.

Letters were sent to all contributors who exceeded $250, to ask if the contribution was meant to be split. Contributors who appeared to have exceeded the limit received the same letter. The turn around on such letters was often weeks.

Although only sixteen contributors were cited by the Commission, the computer reports would often list hundreds of apparent excessive contributions. Letters had to be sent, contributors called, and research done on the files before these contributions could be confirmed to be excessive.

In January, matching funds submissions placed an additional strain on the accounting staff. With the accounting staff working eighty-hour weeks, there was no available time to properly research the contributions, contact the contributors and confirm the excessive nature of contributions.

The General Counsel's report cites 11 CFR 103.3(b) which refers to contributions "which appear to be illegal." None of the cited contributions appear to be illegal. They were all individual checks. None of the individuals appear to be a foreign national. Only one (1) check is for over $1,000 and that could have been a joint contribution. As noted by the Supreme Court in Buckley v. Valeo the "(p)rimary purpose ... is to limit actuality and appearance of corruption resulting from large individual financial contributions."

Contributions which are refunded, obviously do not have the actuality or appearance of corruption. Almost all of the cited contributors exceeded the $1,000 limit only by aggregating their contributions. To the best of our knowledge, the Commission has not proceeded against contributors past the RtB stage when the excessive portion of the contribution has been refunded. All of the excessive contributions have been refunded.

The Committee received a check for $6,000 from Moran Interests. This is a six-way joint account. The contribution is six (6) $1,000 contributions from six (6) people rather than one (1) six thousand dollar contributions from a partnership or other entity. The Commission has previously ruled that joint accounts can be used for contributions from more than one (1) person.

North Hollywood Glass incurred expenses of $5,680.60 in connection with food and labor for a fundraiser. They paid, we were billed October 31, and we paid December 3, 1979. If this is deemed an excessive contribution, it was refunded quite promptly -- less than 30 days counting mail time. Ordinarily, we are not billed for refunds of contributions. This item should correctly be considered an ordinary campaign expenditure, billed and paid in the ordinary course of business.

Charles K. Fletcher, then treasurer in Hawaii, arranged for a fundraiser at the Hawaiian Village. A deposit was required to hold the space. Mr. Fletcher did not consider this a contribution or loan. He expected, asked for, and received reimbursement for his expenses. We tried to pay directly all campaign expenses, but it proved difficult to control in detail the activities of 50 state organizations. All staff personnel would like a regulation requiring prompt reimbursement, but we are unaware of any such existing regulation or any authority for the Commission to issue such a regulation.

We believe the Commission should look at the position of the person making the expenditure, the type of expenditure, and the expectation of the person making the expenditure in differentiating between loans, contributions, advances and reimbursable expenses. In questionable cases the Commission should look at the response of the committee. Did the committee solicit the advance and delay reimbursement? Did the committee know of the expenditure before the fact and did it promptly reimburse? It is difficult to construe the expenditures as illegal "contributions." Even with normal denominated contributions, the committee cannot be held liable for receiving excessive contributions, just for retaining them.

We agree that MUR's 1142 and 1255 should be merged.

We urge the Commission to determine that there has been no violation of 2 U.S.C. 434(b)(9). Our reporting conformed to the requirements of 11 CFR 104.3(b)(4)(i)(A).

We urge the Commission to determine that there has been no violation of 2 U.S.C. 441a(f). The contributions were innocently received and were refunded.

We urge the Commission to find that there was no violation of 2 U.S.C.441a(1)(A) by Moran Interests, North Hollywood Glass Company, and Charles K. Fletcher.

We urge the Commission to close the file regarding the remaining excessive contributors as the excessive contributions have been refunded.

The Commission should correct any audit to show that the Committee, not Ronald Reagan, paid for the insurance policy.

Very truly yours,

Mary Lee Garfield

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Please accept my appologies in taking so long to respond. The end of the campaign and the beginning of the transition were more hectic than we anticipated. It has taken us longer to investigate the allegations in the MUR and acquire authorizations than we originally thought would be required and our Treasurer, Bay Buchanan, is now in the hospital. Since the purpose of the Commission is to seek to obtain compliance with the law, we have attempted to completely answer the questions raised in MUR 1142/1255 and dispense with the matter at this time.

Excessive contributions

We are aware of no cases in the past in which the Commission has pursued excessive contributors where the excessive portion of the contribution was refunded. The purpose of the Commission is to "obtain compliance" with the Act, not to punish people. Ignorance of the law does not excuse violations; but the Commission should consider the circumstances of contributors. Committees must register with the FEC and are given the law and regulations. They are on notice that they must comply with the FECA and can therefore be held to a higher standard. Contributors may not even know that the FECA exists. They respond to various appeals and provide the information requested, i.e. their identification.

Dinners or receptions are frequently held as fund raisers with various admission charges. Contributors (and especially large contributors) don't understand that they cannot attend a function because they have already given their limit. They did not intend to make an excessive contribution, frequently they did not intend to make a contribution at all - they just wanted to go to the function.

Campaigns raise the bulk of their contributions through direct mail solicitations. Lists are bought and rented for each mailing. The lists are on magnetic tape or disc. It is physically possible to match the lists against existing contributor lists but the cost is prohibitive. Consequently many people who have already contributed receive additional solicitations. If they receive a solicitation from a campaign, they assume the campaign will not send them a solicitation unless it was lawful for them to contribute. To the extent contributors are aware of the law they rely on the campaign to straighten out any problems. Campaigns do this by refunding any excessive contributions.

One of the main objections to the FEC in the debate on the 1979 amendments was the FEC's insistance that campaigns harass contributors to get their identification. Congress had to write specific language to prohibit the Commission from enforcing their interpretation of the statute. Prosecuting excessive contributors serves no purpose. It does make contributors wary of contributing in the future. It does make campaigns more difficult to finance, and it does lower participation in the political process. These effects are diametrically opposed to the stated purpose of the FECA. We would hope that the Commission will reconsider its decision to pursue excessive contributors.

2.(1) Mr. Forgotson contributed $1,000 to the Reagan Campaign on November 19, 1979. He had previously contributed $685. The campaign asked him if he intended to spilt the contribution with his wife. He responded on December 12, 1979 (copy enclosed). Unfortunately they split the contribution $500 from each which put Mr. Forgotson $185 above his limit. Mrs. Forgotson then made a contribution of $1,000 on March 19, 1980 which put her $500 over the limit. The Reagan Committee refunded $1,185 which was $600 more than was required. Large contributions, i.e. over $1,000, are caused by ignorance of the law. Excessive contributions which result from numerous small contributions are the result of carelessness or forgetfulness. One rarely remembers every contribution made over the last year, or every bill paid. The contributions were excessive and must be refunded, but it is hard to discern a valid purpose in pursuing the Forgotsons.

(2) Mr. and Mrs. Green made a contribution of $1,000 on October 11, 1979 and a contribution of $1,000 on May 29, 1980. They intended both contributions to be split equally between them (letter enclosed). Mr. Green forgot that he had made an individual contribution of $200 on March 24, 1980. The Reagan Committee refunded $1,200 to Mr. Green on August 11, 1980. Mr. Green did exceed the contribution limit by $200 but he was refunded his whole contribution, not just the excess. Surely this is an innocuous mistake, and has been corrected.

(3) Mr. Klamt contributed $1,000 to the Reagan campaign on March 15, 1979. He made an additional contribution of $250 to the campaign on May 25 ,1979 which was an "oversight." The next year he made a $1,000 contribution on January 10, 1980. Many people confuse the $1,000 per election limit for candidates with the $1,000 per year limit for committees. While this is incorrect, it is probably not the sort of violation that the Commission should pursue. To "obtain compliance" with the law the Commission would require the Reagan Committee to refund the excessive contributions. This was done August 11, 1980.

(4) Mr. Meador will not violate the law again. This is not the preferred solution for all excessive contributors.

2.(b) The RTB notification lists a $6,000 contribution from "Moran Interests, a partnership." This is a simple mistake of fact. Moran Interests is not a partnership. It is a family joint account. The letter (attached) accompanying the contribution is quite clear that the contribution represented six individuals. Moran Interests does not exist as a separate entity. It does consist of more than two people, but it does not engage in business or commerce; the Morans are not co-owners of a business for profit. The Morans simply have a joint account.

We regret the confusion caused by the Committee's original response. 2 USC§431(11) does include partnership in the definition of "person." The General Council is correct in his interpretation of the law but the facts he was given were wrong.

We trust the Commission will note this correction and dismiss the allegations concerning the Morans.

2.(c) The RtB notification lists a $5680.60 "contribution" from North Hollywood Glass Co. North Hollywood Glass never made a contribution to the Reagan Campaign. It performed a service, billed the Committee, and was paid. 2 USC§431 (8)(A)(i) includes "advance" within the definition of "contribution." However 11 CFR§100.7(a)(4) limits this to an "extention of credit...for a length of time beyond normal business or trade practice..." The regulation is a reasonable interpretation of 2 USC§431(8)(A)(i), otherwise campaigns would have to pay everytime a bill approached $1,000. This is not normal practice for any business.

As you are aware campaigns simply do not have a sufficient staff to handle every aspect of a campaign. They contract out the details of something like the reception in question. North Hollywood Glass in turn had to contract for many of the services required, e.g. printing, postage, and catering. No one knows exactly how much the cost will be until after the fact.

North Hollywood Glass billed the Reagan Campaign for every expense incurred including the time spent by its staff and the payroll taxes associated with the personnel costs. North Hollywood Glass billed the Committee the day the last expense was noted and was paid thirty-four days later. This is not the action of a one intending to make a contribution.

We do not understand how the audit staff could construe a normal billing as a contribution, or how it could become a R&B finding. We hope the Commission will act expeditiously to make clear that services rendered, or goods supplied, and billed in the normal course of business do not constitute an advance or contribution.

We hope this information will provide you with a basis for a determination that these matters should be promptly dismissed.

Sincerely,

Mary Lee Garfield

CHARLES K. FLETCHER
Chairman Emeritus

Washington, D.C. 20463

Attention: Mr. Charles N. Steele, General Counsel

Mr. Kenneth A. Cross, Associate General Counsel

Gentlemen:

I have received your letters of October 8, 1980 and April 10, 1981, copies of which are enclosed. This reply is within the 15 days allowed me upon receipt of the notification of April 10, 1981.

I was informed by the Chief Counsel, Mr. Loren A. Smith of the Reagan & Bush Committee, that they would represent me in this matter due to the fact that an error was made in the committee accounting, and I enclose copies of two letters, October 23, 1980 and November 3, 1980, to substantiate this fact.

Recently I was in Washington, D.C. and contacted Honorable Bay Buchanan, Secretary of the Treasury of the United States and formerly Treasurer of the Reagan Committee in Los Angeles, California. She quickly acknowledged that an accounting error was made and referred me to Mr. Scott B. Mackenzie, Treasurer of the Reagan for President Committee, P.O. Box 4207, Arlington, Va. 22204. His letter of April 7, 1981, copy of which is attached with supporting data, is addressed to the Internal Revenue Service, Memphis, Tennessee 37501.

This letter is self-explanatory and the error was made when Form 1099-NEC was made out that Charles K. Fletcher received fees, commissions and other compensation from the Reagan for President Committee in 1980.

The $5,000.00 check which I gave to the Hilton Hawaiian Village was a personal check from Charles K. and Jeannette T. Fletcher as a guarantee deposit and not a contribution. This is further proven by the copy enclosed of the Reagan for President check #269 signed by Bay Buchanan for reimbursement to me for Hilton Hawaiian Village payment of $5,000.00 on the Riggs National Bank of Washington, D.C. dated June 25, 1980

I enclose a copy of a letter from the Hilton Hawaiian Village dated April 1, 1981 which covers the $5,000.00 guarantee deposit by personal check from me as Finance Chairman. The overpayment of $1,401.60 received by me was forwarded to Bay Buchanan, Treasurer of the Reagan for President Committee.

Kina'u Boyd Kamali'i, House Minority Leader, Hawaii House of Representatives, also wrote a letter dated April 1, 1981, copy enclosed, regarding the $5,000.00 reimbursement I received from the Reagan Committee.

I hope this response to you will close the matter and if you have any further questions, please contact Mr. Loren A. Smith, Chief Counsel of the Reagan & Bush Committee or Mary Lee Garfield, Deputy Counsel, who represents me in this legal matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles K. Fletcher

Dear Bay:

I have been in San Diego and have just returned to Honolulu to find the two checks that you sent me for $500.00 and $5,000.00, and I thank you very much. It now is in order for me to return to you a check for $1,401.60 which was refunded to me from the Hilton Hawaiian Village in regards to the Reagan function held on September 4, 1979. As you will remember, I gave them a check for $5,000.00 to guarantee this affair.

Also, I received a letter from you splitting the funds between Mrs. Fletcher and myself so that we each will have contributed $1,000.00. Unfortunately, Mrs. Fletcher is in San Diego, and I will not be seeing her until this weekend when I will get her signature, and I will send the signed affidavit to you from San Diego. There may be some other matters I may wish to take up with you but Linda Jaffray, my secretary, is out of the office having recently had a baby girl. Therefore, I must get the details from her before I can let you know any further.

I hope the funds are coming in satisfactorily from Hawaii, and I thank you for sending me the print-offs for funds received up to December 31, 1979. Whenever you have any later information, even though it is not completed to a point of another print-off, will you please let me know what money has come into the office from Hawaii as of the most recent date.

Kindest personal regards and best wishes.

Thank you for your generous contribution to the Reagan for President committee. We sincerely believe that with the help of individuals such as you, we will elect Ronald Reagan President of the United States.

Our records indicate that you have contributed $2500.00 to our committee. Since Federal law limits contributions to $1000.00 per person, we are, therefore, refunding you $500.00. Please find our check enclosed for that amount.

While preparing the General Counsel's Brief in this matter it was discovered that no proof of delivery had been received for three of the RTB letters sent out to respondents. Attempts to trace the letters have netted one post office's response that they have no record of delivery. Therefore we would like to re-send the letters by first class mail.

As was noted in the most recent interim investigatory report on this MUR, we can proceed with the rest of the matters and respondents involved while waiting for a response from these three persons.

RESPONDENT Charles K. Fletcher

BACKGROUND

This matter was generated as the result of information compiled by the Audit Division during the ordinary course of its review of the records of the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"). The Audit Division has found evidence that you contributed $5000 to the Committee in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Committee's records show that on September 4, 1979, you paid $5000 of a $12,000 advance deposit to the Hilton Hawaiian Village in conjunction with a fundraising event held on behalf of Ronald Reagan. You were apparently reimbursed by the Committee on January 25, 1980.

2 U.S.C. § 431(a)(8)(i) defines a "contribution" to include "any gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money ... made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office." 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to $1000 per candidate per election.

Based on the foregoing analysis, the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that you have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

RE: MUR 1142/1255

Dear Mrs. Moorehead:

On October 8, 1980, a letter was sent to you by certified mail informing you that the Federal Election Commission, in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, had found evidence that you have violated a section of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). Because it appears possible that you did not receive that letter, we are writing again to inform you of the Commission's finding. A copy of the initial letter and a summary of your possible violation are enclosed, as is a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations.

As is noted in the enclosed letter, any response which you wish to make must be submitted within 15 days of your receipt of this notification. If you have any questions, please contact Anne A. Weissenborn, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 523-5071.

INTERIM INVESTIGATIVE REPORT #3

General Counsel's Briefs are being prepared for submission to the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee") and to most of the eighteen contributors involved in this matter. In the cases of three contributors additional information is being supplied by counsel for the Commission which may serve to resolve the issues in which those individuals are involved. It has been learned that three of the other individuals apparently never received notification of the Commission's RTB finding and those letters are being re-sent. It is the intention of this Office to proceed with the matters involving respondents who did receive notification, and to deal with the remaining three at a later time.

CHARLES K. FLETCHER

Attention: Mr. Charles N. Steele, General Counsel

Mr. Kenneth A. Cross, Associate General Counsel

Gentlemen:

I have received your letters of October 8, 1980 and April 10, 1981, copies of which are enclosed. This reply is within the 15 days allowed me upon receipt of the notification of April 10, 1981.

I was informed by the Chief Counsel, Mr. Loren A. Smith of the Reagan & Bush Committee, that they would represent me in this matter due to the fact that an error was made in the committee accounting, and I enclose copies of two letters, October 23, 1980 and November 3, 1980, to substantiate this fact.

Recently I was in Washington, D.C. and contacted Honorable Bay Buchanan, Secretary of the Treasury of the United States and formerly Treasurer of the Reagan Committee in Los Angeles, California. She quickly acknowledged that an accounting error was made and referred me to Mr. Scott B. Mackenzie, Treasurer of the Reagan for President Committee, P.O. Box 4207, Arlington, Va. 22204. His letter of April 7, 1981, copy of which is attached with supporting data, is addressed to the Internal Revenue Service, Memphis, Tennessee 37501.

This letter is self-explanatory and the error was made when Form 1099-NEC was made out that Charles K. Fletcher received fees, commissions and other compensation from the Reagan for President Committee in 1980.

The $5,000.00 check which I gave to the Hilton Hawaiian Village was a personal check from Charles K. and Jeannette T. Fletcher as a guarantee deposit and not a contribution. This is further proven by the copy enclosed of the Reagan for President check #269 signed by Bay Buchanan for reimbursement to me for Hilton Hawaiian Village payment of $5,000.00 on the Riggs National Bank of Washington, D.C. dated June 25, 1980

MAILING ADDRESS: P. O. BOX 20, HONOLULU, HAWAII 96810 TELEPHONE (808) 531-6868

Chartered in 1850 by King David Kalakaua

I enclose a copy of a letter from the Hilton Hawaiian Village dated April 1, 1981 which covers the $5,000.00 guarantee deposit by personal check from me as Finance Chairman. The overpayment of $1,401.60 received by me was forwarded to Bay Buchanan, Treasurer of the Reagan for President Committee.

Kina'u Boyd Kamali'i, House Minority Leader, Hawaii House of Representatives, also wrote a letter dated April 1, 1981, copy enclosed, regarding the $5,000.00 reimbursement I received from the Reagan Committee.

I hope this response to you will close the matter and if you have any further questions, please contact Mr. Loren A. Smith, Chief Counsel of the Reagan & Bush Committee or Mary Lee Garfield, Deputy Counsel, who represents me in this legal matter.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles K. Fletcher

BACKGROUND

This matter was generated as the result of information compiled by the Audit Division during the ordinary course of its review of the records of the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"). The Audit Division has found evidence that you contributed $5000 to the Committee in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Committee's records show that on September 4, 1979, you paid $5000 of a $12,000 advance deposit to the Hilton Hawaiian Village in conjunction with a fundraising event held on behalf of Ronald Reagan. You were apparently reimbursed by the Committee on January 25, 1980.

2 U.S.C. § 431(a)(8)(i) defines a "contribution" to include "any gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money ... made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office." 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to $1000 per candidate per election.

Based on the foregoing analysis, the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that you have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

RE: MUR 1142/1255

Dear Mr. Fletcher:

On October 8, 1980, a letter was sent to you by certified mail informing you that the Federal Election Commission, in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, had found evidence that you have violated a section of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). Because it appears possible that you did not receive that letter, we are writing again to inform you of the Commission's finding. A copy of the initial letter and a summary of your possible violation are enclosed, as is a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations.

As is noted in the enclosed letter, any response which you wish to make must be submitted within 15 days of your receipt of this notification. If you have any questions, please contact Anne A. Weissenborn, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 523-5071.

Dear Mr. Chairman:

We are still assembling the documentation to respond adequately to the above captioned MURS.

We are requesting additional time in which to file a response. Since the alleged violations appear to have been corrected, a continuance will not change the position of any of the parties. Although I believe we will be able to submit both legal and factual materials relevant to your analysis early next week, we ask that the time for our response be extended until November 10, 1980.

Dear Mr. Fletcher:

It was so nice speaking with you recently regarding the financial arrangements for the "Reagan For President" event which was held at our hotel on Tuesday, September 4, 1979.

To the best of my recollection, this is what transpired:

- All my negotiations and contracts were made and signed by Representative Kinau Kamalii.

- In accordance with Hilton policy, full pre-payment is required for events of this nature. . .50% of the entire bill based on your running guaranteed count was due on August 28, 1979, and the final guaranteed count and balance due to be paid by August 31, 1979.

- Based on your guaranteed number of guests, the committee owed the hotel $12,000.00.

- A check for $7,000.00 on the Reagan for President-Hawaii account was sent to me as a partial payment. A balance of $5,000.00 was outstanding, and because you were the financial chairman, it was necessary for us to accept a personal check from you covering the guarantee on August 29, 1979, in order for us to proceed with the party plans.

- At the conclusion of the event, we found that there was an over-payment of $1,401.60. Since you were the finance chairman, I was instructed by Representative Kinau Kamalii to return this amount to you.

Mr. Fletcher, to the best of my knowledge, the foregoing sequence of action occurred regarding payment of the "Reagan For President" fundraising event.

Kindest regards.

April 1, 1981

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

I am writing on behalf of Mr. Charles Fletcher to add what information I have regarding a $5,000.00 reimbursement he received from the Reagan for President campaign committee.

First, however, permit me to provide some personal background as a context. I am a member of the Hawai'i State House of Representatives and serve as the House Minority Leader. From 1979-80, I was also the State Chairman of the "Hawai'i Reagan for President" Committee and continued in the same role for the Reagan-Bush campaign. Mr. Fletcher was an early supporter of President Reagan's candidacy and was involved in the early stages of the nomination campaign as Finance Chairman for the State of Hawai'i.

As part of the national effort to assure the nomination of Mr. Reagan as the Republican candidate, fundraising events and activities were conducted in all of the states. The Hawai'i effort was kicked off by a cocktail party/fundraiser on September 4, 1979, at the Hilton Hawaiian Village Coral Ballroom.

However, because this event was the initial effort of our Hawai'i campaign there was not enough "seed money" on account to pay the entire $12,000 as a deposit to the hotel. We asked Mr. Fletcher if he would provide the $5,000 required to make up the full amount. Our agreement was that such money would be paid directly to the Hilton Hawaiian Village Hotel, and that the deposit and all other fundraiser expenses would then be paid out of ticket receipts.

Unfortunately, the person in charge of the activity, Gerald Kremkow, did not follow proper procedures, and sent all of the fundraiser receipts to the national campaign headquarters in Los Angeles. Needless to say, Mr. Kremkow did not continue in that position.

However, it was then essential that our local account be brought back into line. The only way that this order could be restored was with the issuance of checks from the coordinating committee in California. Thus, Mr. Fletcher finally received his repayment from them.

State Capitol, Room 425, Honolulu 96813
Phone (808) 548-7560

It is my understanding that a great deal of confusion has surrounded that transmittal. I hope that this letter will clarify the situation: the $5,000 guaranteed deposit to the Hilton Hawaiian Village was repaid -- the check Mr. Fletcher received from the Reagan campaign does not and should not be considered remuneration and/or additional taxable income.

If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Kina'u Boyd Kamali'i

Dear Ann:

This afternoon you again requested a copy of a check written by Mr. James Forgotson on March 11, 1980 which was referred to in a letter dated October 15, 1980 to Mary Lee Garfield. That check, which demonstrates that the contribution was from Mrs. Forgotson, is attached.

I trust that insofar as the Forgotsons are concerned, the issue of excessive contributions will be dropped. I would appreciate your written confirmation of this fact.

Thanks again for your cooperation.

INTERIM INVESTIGATIVE REPORT #2

On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee") had violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) and § 441a(f), and that certain individual contributors and business entities had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). Notifications of the Commission's findings were sent to the respondents. Responses have been received from the Committee and from, or on behalf of, nine individual contributors and one of the business entities. Three of the individuals and one of the businesses have designated the Committee's counsel as their representative, and the Committee has submitted a response on behalf of these respondents.

On December 31, 1980, the Audit Division referred to this Office further information concerning apparent violations of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) and § 441a(f) which were discovered during the post-primary audit of the Committee's records. In addition, two additional violations of these provisions, not addressed earlier, have been found in the referral from the Reports Analysis Division upon which this matter was originally based. This Office is in the process of preparing a report

Dear Mr. Chairman:

In my response to you of December 18, 1980, I informed you that while Mr. and Mr. Richard J. Greene had only exceeded their contribution limit by $200, the Committee had refunded $1,200 to the Greenes. Mr. Greene informed us by letter that the refund check had never been received. A $1,200 refund check (copy enclosed) was mailed on August 25, 1980, but we have not received the cancelled check from the bank.

We called Mr. Greene and he requested that $200 be refunded to him rather than $1,200. A new refund check of $200 (copy enclosed) was therefore mailed on January 5, 1981. Our next report will reflect this change. Please note, however, that my December 18th response was incorrect and that only $200 was refunded to the Greenes.

Please accept my apologies for this unfortunate mistake and modify the record to reflect the change in the amount refunded to the Greenes.

Very truly yours,

Mary Lee Garfield

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Please accept my appologies in taking so long to respond. The end of the campaign and the beginning of the transition were more hectic than we anticipated. It has taken us longer to investigate the allegations in the MUR and acquire authorizations than we originally thought would be required and our Treasurer, Bay Buchanan, is now in the hospital. Since the purpose of the Commission is to seek to obtain compliance with the law, we have attempted to completely answer the questions raised in MUR 1142/1255 and dispense with the matter at this time.

Excessive contributions

We are aware of no cases in the past in which the Commission has pursued excessive contributors where the excessive portion of the contribution was refunded. The purpose of the Commission is to "obtain compliance" with the Act, not to punish people. Ignorance of the law does not excuse violations; but the Commission should consider the circumstances of contributors. Committees must register with the FEC and are given the law and regulations. They are on notice that they must comply with the FECA and can therefore be held to a higher standard. Contributors may not even know that the FECA exists. They respond to various appeals and provide the information requested, i.e. their identification.

Dinners or receptions are frequently held as fund raisers with various admission charges. Contributors (and especially large contributors) don't understand that they cannot attend a function because they have already given their limit. They did not intend to make an excessive contribution, frequently they did not intend to make a contribution at all - they just wanted to go to the function.

Campaigns raise the bulk of their contributions through direct mail solicitations. Lists are bought and rented for each mailing. The lists are on magnetic tape or disc. It is physically possible to match the lists against existing contributor lists but the cost is prohibitive. Consequently many people who have already contributed receive additional solicitations. If they receive a solicitation from a campaign, they assume the campaign will not send them a solicitation unless it was lawful for them to contribute. To the extent contributors are aware of the law they rely on the campaign to straighten out any problems. Campaigns do this by refunding any excessive contributions.

One of the main objections to the FEC in the debate on the 1979 amendments was the FEC's insistance that campaigns harass contributors to get their identification. Congress had to write specific language to prohibit the Commission from enforcing their interpretation of the statute. Prosecuting excessive contributors serves no purpose. It does make contributors wary of contributing in the future. It does make campaigns more difficult to finance, and it does lower participation in the political process. These effects are diametrically opposed to the stated purpose of the FECA. We would hope that the Commission will reconsider its decision to pursue excessive contributors.

2.(1) Mr. Forgotson contributed $1,000 to the Reagan Campaign on November 19, 1979. He had previously contributed $685. The campaign asked him if he intended to spilt the contribution with his wife. He responded on December 12, 1979 (copy enclosed). Unfortunately they split the contribution $500 from each which put Mr. Forgotson $185 above his limit. Mrs. Forgotson then made a contribution of $1,000 on March 19, 1980 which put her $500 over the limit. The Reagan Committee refunded $1,185 which was $600 more than was required. Large contributions, i.e. over $1,000, are caused by ignorance of the law. Excessive contributions which result from numerous small contributions are the result of carelessness or forgetfulness. One rarely remembers every contribution made over the last year, or every bill paid. The contributions were excessive and must be refunded, but it is hard to discern a valid purpose in pursuing the Forgotsons.

(2) Mr. and Mrs. Green made a contribution of $1,000 on October 11, 1979 and a contribution of $1,000 on May 29, 1980. They intended both contributions to be split equally between them (letter enclosed). Mr. Green forgot that he had made an individual contribution of $200 on March 24, 1980. The Reagan Committee refunded $1,200 to Mr. Green on August 11, 1980. Mr. Green did exceed the contribution limit by $200 but he was refunded his whole contribution, not just the excess. Surely this is an innocuous mistake, and has been corrected.

(3) Mr. Klamt contributed $1,000 to the Reagan campaign on March 15, 1979. He made an additional contribution of $250 to the campaign on May 25 ,1979 which was an "oversight." The next year he made a $1,000 contribution on January 10, 1980. Many people confuse the $1,000 per election limit for candidates with the $1,000 per year limit for committees. While this is incorrect, it is probably not the sort of violation that the Commission should pursue. To "obtain compliance" with the law the Commission would require the Reagan Committee to refund the excessive contributions. This was done August 11, 1980.

(4) Mr. Meador will not violate the law again. This is not the preferred solution for all excessive contributors.

2.(b) The RTB notification lists a $6,000 contribution from "Moran Interests, a partnership." This is a simple mistake of fact. Moran Interests is not a partnership. It is a family joint account. The letter (attached) accompanying the contribution is quite clear that the contribution represented six individuals. Moran Interests does not exist as a separate entity. It does consist of more than two people, but it does not engage in business or commerce; the Morans are not co-owners of a business for profit. The Morans simply have a joint account.

We regret the confusion caused by the Committee's original response. 2 USC§431(11) does include partnership in the definition of "person." The General Council is correct in his interpretation of the law but the facts he was given were wrong.

We trust the Commission will note this correction and dismiss the allegations concerning the Morans.

2.(c) The RtB notification lists a $5680.60 "contribution" from North Hollywood Glass Co. North Hollywood Glass never made a contribution to the Reagan Campaign. It performed a service, billed the Committee, and was paid. 2 USC§431 (8)(A)(i) includes "advance" within the definition of "contribution." However 11 CFR§100.7(a)(4) limits this to an "extention of credit...for a length of time beyond normal business or trade practice..." The regulation is a reasonable interpretation of 2 USC§431(8)(A)(i), otherwise campaigns would have to pay everytime a bill approached $1,000. This is not normal practice for any business.

As you are aware campaigns simply do not have a sufficient staff to handle every aspect of a campaign. They contract out the details of something like the reception in question. North Hollywood Glass in turn had to contract for many of the services required, e.g. printing, postage, and catering. No one knows exactly how much the cost will be until after the fact.

North Hollywood Glass billed the Reagan Campaign for every expense incurred including the time spent by its staff and the payroll taxes associated with the personnel costs. North Hollywood Glass billed the Committee the day the last expense was noted and was paid thirty-four days later. This is not the action of a one intending to make a contribution.

We do not understand how the audit staff could construe a normal billing as a contribution, or how it could become a R&B finding. We hope the Commission will act expeditiously to make clear that services rendered, or goods supplied, and billed in the normal course of business do not constitute an advance or contribution.

We hope this information will provide you with a basis for a determination that these matters should be promptly dismissed.

Sincerely,

Mary Lee Garfield

Re: MUR 1142/1255

Dear Mr. Chairman:

In response to your Notification of Reason to Believe Finding, dated October 8, 1980 we would like to submit the information and Exhibits here enclosed for the consideration of the Commission.

The RtB cites:

(1) failure to report "ultimate payees" of certain expenditures;
(2) excessive contributions by individuals; and under sections;
(b) a partnership contribution;
(c) a contribution by North Hollywood Glass Co.;
(d) an advance deposit of $5,000.
(3) an excessive contribution by the candidate which the Commission has decided not to pursue.

In connection with the last named item (3), at this time we would seek to correct the record by noting that the policy of insurance was not purchased out of the personal funds of Governor Reagan, but the premium was paid by the Committee.

(1) Failure to Report Ultimate Payees

We would note in passing the term "ultimate payees" (your quotation marks) is a term of art with which we were heretofore unfamiliar. It does not appear in the statutes or in the regulations. We believe that in our reports we provided the name, date, amount and purpose of the expenditure, in conformity with 11 CFR 104.3(b)(4)(i). Your citation is confusing as we are an authorized committee. 11 CFR 104.3 (b)(4)(i)(A) makes clear, by indicating as satisfactory responses "travel expense reimbursement" (as opposed to Eastern Airlines) and "dinner expense" (as opposed to McDonalds), that the "ultimate payee" concept has not entered the regulatory scheme. We are unfortunately not privy to the Memorandum approved by the Commission on July 22, 1980. This Tuesday Meeting was presumably an Executive Session and the outcome of matters there discussed are unknown to us. In any event, whatever changes that may have been wrought by Memorandum rather than a rule making occurred after the date of the expenditures in question.

Documentation on all these expenditures was made available to the auditors. The particulars of each of these expenditures were detailed, and the purpose clear when reported so as to leave no doubt as to how these funds were spent.

The Commission is concerned about the Committee's use of postage as an explanation. The Committee is concerned that the Commission is not aware of the "ultimate" payee in this case, since there exists only one vendor of postage in the United States.

When an individual is reimbursed for expenditures, reporting every "ultimate payee" involved becomes so extensive as to make the reporting impossible as well as meaningless. We are aware of no legislative or FEC history that argues in favor of the "ultimate payee" concept. The legislative history of the 1979 amendments is full of references to simplified reporting, not more complex reporting.

The ultimate payee concept also has some severe definitional problems. We would report " $500 to Joe Jones for travel reimbursement." We could report "$500 to Eastern Airlines". We could report "$30 to travel agency, $50 to pilot, $40 to co-pilot,$30 to navigator, $50 to attendants, $80 to Exxon, $50 to airport, $20 to luggage handling, $20 to food caterer, $80 to taxes, and $50 to EAL management and stockholders. The "ultimate payee" concept becomes totally meaningless for disclosure purposes and impossible to implement. Once the Commission goes beyond "person to whom an expenditure ... is made," the purpose of disclosure is negated and reporting an expenditure to an "ultimate payee" when we have issued a check to someone else will make auditing almost impossible.

2. Excessive Contributions

While this section is titled as above, it seems more properly to relate to a finding by your auditors that contributions from individuals that exceeded $1,000 were not refunded to them in a "reasonable" time. "Reasonable" as it appeared in 11 CFR 103.3(b)(2) is not construed.

There are undoubtedly incidental errors in our reporting, computer errors, and time lags which cannot now be accounted for. There is, however, no indication that excessive contributions were purposefully held, or refunds delayed. Indeed, as demonstrated by our reports, we refunded more than we needed to (Jesse B. Moore, Margaret Bartlett, James Forgotson) in some instances. Our move from the West coast to the East coast occasioned a large portion of the delay. We had to reorganize in our new surroundings and coordinate our new records to determine how far along we were with determinations of legality of various contributions.

Since the contributor's file is computerized, it was often six (6) weeks before a specific contribution came to the attention of the Treasurer's Office as an excessive contribution.

Letters were sent to all contributors who exceeded $250, to ask if the contribution was meant to be split. Contributors who appeared to have exceeded the limit received the same letter. The turn around on such letters was often weeks.

Although only sixteen contributors were cited by the Commission, the computer reports would often list hundreds of apparent excessive contributions. Letters had to be sent, contributors called, and research done on the files before these contributions could be confirmed to be excessive.

In January, matching funds submissions placed an additional strain on the accounting staff. With the accounting staff working eighty-hour weeks, there was no available time to properly research the contributions, contact the contributors and confirm the excessive nature of contributions.

The General Counsel's report cites 11 CFR 103.3(b) which refers to contributions "which appear to be illegal." None of the cited contributions appear to be illegal. They were all individual checks. None of the individuals appear to be a foreign national. Only one (1) check is for over $1,000 and that could have been a joint contribution. As noted by the Supreme Court in Buckley v. Valeo the "(p)rimary purpose ... is to limit actuality and appearance of corruption resulting from large individual financial contributions."

Contributions which are refunded, obviously do not have the actuality or appearance of corruption. Almost all of the cited contributors exceeded the $1,000 limit only by aggregating their contributions. To the best of our knowledge, the Commission has not proceeded against contributors past the RtB stage when the excessive portion of the contribution has been refunded. All of the excessive contributions have been refunded.

The Committee received a check for $6,000 from Moran Interests. This is a six-way joint account. The contribution is six (6) $1,000 contributions from six (6) people rather than one (1) six thousand dollar contributions from a partnership or other entity. The Commission has previously ruled that joint accounts can be used for contributions from more than one (1) person.

North Hollywood Glass incurred expenses of $5,680.60 in connection with food and labor for a fundraiser. They paid, we were billed October 31, and we paid December 3, 1979. If this is deemed an excessive contribution, it was refunded quite promptly -- less than 30 days counting mail time. Ordinarily, we are not billed for refunds of contributions. This item should correctly be considered an ordinary campaign expenditure, billed and paid in the ordinary course of business.

Charles K. Fletcher, then treasurer in Hawaii, arranged for a fundraiser at the Hawaiian Village. A deposit was required to hold the space. Mr. Fletcher did not consider this a contribution or loan. He expected, asked for, and received reimbursement for his expenses. We tried to pay directly all campaign expenses, but it proved difficult to control in detail the activities of 50 state organizations. All staff personnel would like a regulation requiring prompt reimbursement, but we are unaware of any such existing regulation or any authority for the Commission to issue such a regulation.

We believe the Commission should look at the position of the person making the expenditure, the type of expenditure, and the expectation of the person making the expenditure in differentiating between loans, contributions, advances and reimbursable expenses. In questionable cases the Commission should look at the response of the committee. Did the committee solicit the advance and delay reimbursement? Did the committee know of the expenditure before the fact and did it promptly reimburse? It is difficult to construe the expenditures as illegal "contributions." Even with normal denominated contributions, the committee cannot be held liable for receiving excessive contributions, just for retaining them.

We agree that MUR's 1142 and 1255 should be merged.

We urge the Commission to determine that there has been no violation of 2 U.S.C. 434(b)(9). Our reporting conformed to the requirements of 11 CFR 104.3(b)(4)(i)(A).

We urge the Commission to determine that there has been no violation of 2 U.S.C. 44la(f). The contributions were innocently received and were refunded.

We urge the Commission to find that there was no violation of 2 U.S.C.44la(l)(A) by Moran Interests, North Hollywood Glass Company, and Charles K. Fletcher.

We urge the Commission to close the file regarding the remaining excessive contributors as the excessive contributions have been refunded.

The Commission should correct any audit to show that the Committee, not Ronald Reagan, paid for the insurance policy.

Very truly yours,

Mary Lee Garfield

INTERIM INVESTIGATIVE REPORT #1

On September 30, 1980, the Commission found reason to believe that the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee") has violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(9) and 44la(f), and that certain named individual contributors plus Moran Interests and North Hollywood Glass Company have violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A).

Notification of the Commission's findings have been sent to respondents. The Committee's counsel has submitted a response and also has stated that the Committee has made offers to all other respondents to represent them before the Commission. Written responses have been received from or on behalf of five of the individual contributors, three of whom have designated the Committee's counsel as their representative, and from North Hollywood Glass Company which has also designated the same counsel. Acknowledgments of receipt of the Commission's notification have not yet been received from four individuals. In addition, determinations will have to be made concerning the willingness of the remaining respondents to be represented by Committee counsel.

Dear Sirs:-

After very careful review of your letter of October 8th (received October 20th) I find that I have no records to cover the "Reagan for President Committee" except one for $100.00. I have cancelled checks from some other committees and persons running for election.

Therefore I must take exception to your violation by one to 2 U.S.C. for my account. I have received postage for many other names such as "Pett" and other names, all of which I am returning, therefore I believe that you have mistaken in your summary.

Yours Sincerely,

Margaret B. Bartlett

Re: MUR 1142/1255
Maxy Pope Alles

Dear Mr. McGarry:

This is in response to your letter of October 8 to Mrs. Maxy Pope Alles.

It appears that Mrs. Alles did, in fact, contribute $2,250 to the Reagan for President Committee in 1979. It also appears, however, that when it was learned there had been an excess contribution the $1,250 excess was refunded to Mrs. Alles. Enclosed is a copy of her June 2, 1980 deposit slip for the refund that can presumably be confirmed by the Reagan for President Committee.

The background for originally exceeding the limits is as follows: The first $1,000 was made before Mr. Reagan announced that he was a candidate, and Mrs. Alles did not understand that counted toward the limit once he had announced. The additional $250 was thought to be a tax-deductible contribution to an educational organization, CFTR Educational Foundation. The net effect, in any event, is that after the refund Mrs. Alles' total contribution to the Reagan for President Committee is $1,000.

Yours truly,

TUTTLE & TAYLOR

HAND DELIVERED

October 28, 1980

910965

Honorable Max Friedersdorf
Chairman, Federal Election Commission
1325 K Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Mr. Chairman:

In response to your letter of October 8, 1980, concerning MURS 1142 and 1255, Reagan for President would like to submit the following information.

The Commission cites:

(1) Failure to report "ultimate payees" of certain expenditures

(2) Excessive contributions

- (a) Individual contributions
- (b) A partnership contribution
- (c) A contribution from Hollywood Glass Co.
- (d) An advance deposit of $5,000 by Mr. Charles Fletcher

(3) An expenditure by the candidate

The Committee will use a corresponding outline in its response for the sake of clarity.

(1) Reagan for President is of the opinion that it has properly reported all expenditures and meets the best effort requirements in complying with the Federal Election Campaign Laws. The following points are offered to support this position.

(a) The Committee cites 13 expenditures amounting to less than $11,000 as not being properly documented. Considering the size of the campaign operation and the thousands of expenditures reported, these 13 expenditures do not warrant citing the Committee in violation of federal law.

Paid for by Reagan Bush Committee. United States Senator Paul Laxalt, Chairman. Bay Buchanan, Treasurer.

(b) Documentation on these expenditures was made available to the auditors.

(c) The particulars of each of these expenditures were detailed and the purpose clear when reported, so as to leave no doubt as to how these funds were spent.

(d) The Commission is concerned about the Committee's use of postage as an explanation. The Committee is concerned that the Commission is not aware of the "ultimate" payee in this case, since there exists only one vendor of postage in the United States.

(e) When an individual is reimbursed for expenditures, reporting every "ultimate payee" involved becomes so extensive as to make the reporting impossible as well as meaningless. The Committee feels that this is not the intent of the law.

(2) (a) The Committee as well as sixteen of its contributors have been cited as possibly in violation of sections 44la(f) and 44la(a)(l)(A) respectively of the Federal Election Campaign Laws.

It is important to note that the contributors did not knowingly contribute more than $1,000, and that since all of the refunds were made these contributors are now within the legal limit. The problem lies in the timeliness of the refunds, something the actual contributors had no control of.

The Committee acknowledges that refunding some of the excessive contributions appears to have taken an unreasonable period of time. However, when the circumstances outlined below are considered, the Committee feels certain the Commission will agree that the period of time under discussion was indeed reasonable.

(i) Since the contributor's file is computerized, it is often six weeks before a specific contribution will come to the attention of the Treasurer's Office as excessive.

(ii) Letters were sent to all contributors who exceeded $250, to ask if the contribution was meant to be split. Contributors who appeared to have exceeded the limit received the same letter. The turn around on such letters was often weeks.

(iii) Although only sixteen contributors were cited by the Commission, the computer reports would often list hundreds of apparent excessive contributions. Letters had to be sent contributors called, and research done on the files before these contributions could be confirmed to be excessive.

(iv) In January, matching funds submissions placed an additional strain on the accounting staff. With the accounting staff working eighty-hour weeks, there was no available time to properly research the contributions, contact the contributors and confirm the excessive nature of contributions.

(b) The Commission comments on a contribution to the Committee from the partnership Moran Interests. The Committee did not accept a partnership contribution. It did, however, receive a check for $6,000 drawn for convenience on a partnership check, but representing individual contributions from several persons. The Committee treated these moneys as it was intended, as individual contributions, both with respect to the Reagan-Bush master file and the FEC reports.

(c) North Hollywood Glass Company incurred expenses related to a fundraising event on behalf of Governor Reagan. Within thirty days of receipt of documentation of these expenses the Committee reimbursed North Hollywood Glass. The thirty-day payment period is within a normal business cycle and must be considered reasonable. The Committee views such an expense as authorized expenditures billed and paid in the ordinary course of business.

(d) Charles K. Fletcher did advance moneys on behalf of the Committee. At all times he expected reimbursement and did not understand that such an advance could be construed as a contribution. Once the Committee learned of the advance and informed Mr. Fletcher of the problem he immediately requested reimbursement and received a check.

(3) In a footnote, the Commission comments that the issue of a policy constituted a contribution was not addressed in the Kennedy situation since "the Committee made the purchase, rather than the candidate as did Mr. Reagan".

It was, however, addressed in the Reagan situation. It is interesting to note that Reagan for President, not Governor Reagan, purchased the policy and that these circumstances do indeed appear to be the same. This payment was reported on the FEC report and documentation supplied the FEC auditors.

The Committee trusts that the additional information provided will clarify the questions raised and lead to the dismissal of this matter.

Very truly yours,

Bay Buchanan

Re: MUR 1142/1255

Gentlemen:

This letter acknowledges your letter addressed to "Mrs. Ruth C. Crocker" regarding a possible violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

I am Lady Crocker's secretary and bookkeeper, and it is my responsibility to handle these matters and to see that something like this does not happen. Unfortunately, I was operating under the misconception that contributions were calculated on a calendar year basis, and have now educated myself on the proper procedures to follow. Had I not been operating under a misconception and had the ledger and worksheets been posted on a current basis, this would not have happened. There was no intentional violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act on the part of Lady Crocker; she makes every effort to be in compliance with all laws, federal and otherwise.

This error on my part was discovered by the Reagan people and $1,200.00 was refunded to Lady Crocker on August 8, 1980, as is evidenced by the attached photocopies.

I trust the information submitted in this letter will aid you in your analysis, and you will find that Lady Crocker did not intentionally violate the Federal Election Laws.

Cordially,

Beatrice O'Connor

Dear Mr. Chairman:

We have sent telegrams to all those individuals named in your notification of reason to believe they had violated the Act by making excessive contributions, telling them we would represent them before the Commission, if they so desired. We have not yet heard from all of them. Those from whom we have heard are forwarding various documents to us, all of which we have not yet received.

There are common elements in all these alleged violations, and in the interest of regulatory economy, this group of contributions which you have found reason to believe are excessive can be considered together.

We are requesting additional time in which to file a response. Since the alleged violations appear to have been corrected, a continuance will not change the position of any of the parties. Accordingly, we ask that the time for our response be extended until November 10, 1980.

I called the telephone to talk to Anne A. Weissenborn. She talked loud and louder that I couldn't hear when she wouldn't tell me her name.

Your letter is so excellent, I made a copy of the three- letter that I can read them very often.

I am very old now with 79 years. Also, I have been ill since my husband died.

We were worked together for the 50 years.

I continually working with our pictures and many of them buy from them. Camera Press in London sells all of the pictures I send to them.

When I was driving home a crazy boy swung his truck around and smashed the front of my new Chrysler and also my ribs were smashed also. For two years I still have pain in my ribs.

I am trying to write better letters when I read your letter many times.

BACKGROUND

This matter was generated as the result of information compiled by the Audit Division during the ordinary course of its review of the records of the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"). The Audit Division has found evidence that you have contributed $2,375 to the Committee in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Committee's records show that the following contributions were made by you:

AMOUNTS AND DATES OF CONTRIBUTIONS
$ 300	7/11/79
100	10/23/79
500	11/6/79
25	11/16/79
250	1/7/80
100	1/21/80
1000	2/5/80
100	2/25/80

2 U.S.C. § 441a (a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to federal candidates to $1000 per election.

Based on the foregoing analysis, the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that you have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

If you have any questions, please contact Anne A. Weissenborn, the attorney assigned to this matter at (202) 523-5071. For your information, we have enclosed a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations.

My husband died the night of June 4, 1976.

On June 5th, Saturday, in Globe, Arizona, and Mr. McKusick put Reverend Ray Elkins into the Trance. Mrs. McKusick took charge of the film-tapes and wrote Herb's Trance of the tape for Mrs. Herbert. Ray Elkins brought the information to me after the Memorial in Tucson was over on June 7th.

ODKA talked from GOD to Ray Elkins:

"And now we should speak unto Mrs. Herbert. We have received into our keeping that of your husband, Charles. Weep not, for tears of gladness.

"But we should also say these words from him unto you. " I shall be with you each day. But there is much to be accomplished upon the earth. The preparation for the coming of the Messiah. I shall do my part in guiding you as you should do your part in the fulfillment of that to come, for it is the greater of all things. Love is like a mirror. All memories of the places we have beeh shall come to thy mind. Dwell not on the past. Reach unto the future, for that of the future holds great beauty unto thee."

It was a long time before before I could find the preparation for the coming of Messiah. I did not know what I should do.

Finally the information popped into my mind that I should send money to the hungry people to keep them alive. From this time on I have sent a great deal to save many people.

BACKGROUND

This matter was generated as the result of information compiled by the Audit Division during the ordinary course of its review of the records of the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"). The Audit Division has found evidence that the North Hollywood Glass Co. contributed $5,680.60 to the Committee in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Audit Division has found that your company paid expenses totaling $5,680.60 for a fundraiser event on behalf of Ronald Reagan which was held on October 11, 1979. It is understood that you billed the Committee on October 31, 1979, and were reimbursed on December 3, 1979.

2 U.S.C. § 431(a)(8)(i) defines "contribution" to include "any gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money ... made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office. As noted above, 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) includes in its definition of "person" "any other organization or group of persons", thereby including an unincorporated business entity. Thus the expenditures made by the North Hollywood Glass Co. on behalf of Ronald Reagan constituted, until reimbursed, an advance and thus a contribution. These expenditures exceeded the statutory limitation of $1000 per person per election, thereby placing the company in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

Based on the foregoing analysis, the Federal Election Commission has found:

Reason to believe that the North Hollywood Glass Company has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A)

File MUR 1142/1255

Dear Mrs. Garfield:

This letter hereby authorizes you to handle the matter of a possible contribution violation as stated in the letter dated October 8, 1980 and received this date from the Federal Election Committee. We are attaching a copy of this letter for your file.

Also, as you discussed with my secretary this morning, we are enclosing a xerox copy of each of the checks listed in the Commission's letter. Please make note of check number 8926 in the amount of $1,000.00 dated March 11, 1980 which clearly states that the contribution is from Mrs. Forgotson.

Also enclosed is a copy of the Reagan for President contribution refund check number 1186 dated August 25, 1980 in the amount of $1,185.00. Your letter of even date stated that this amount was in excess of the amount allowed. However, if you find that we are not in error and want the $1,185.00 returned to you, I will be glad to send you another check in that amount.

In addition, enclosed is a copy of my check number 9216 dated August 28, 1980 in the amount of $1,000.00 made payable to the 1980 Republican Presidential Campaign Committee which was to be used for TV-Radio programs. I thought you might want to be informed of this contribution.

Everyday we get letters requesting campaign contributions, and we have responded to many - all in good faith. Perhaps each committee should notify us when our maximum is reached and not send any more requests for funds.

I would appreciate a copy of any and all of your correspondence regarding this matter.

Very truly yours,

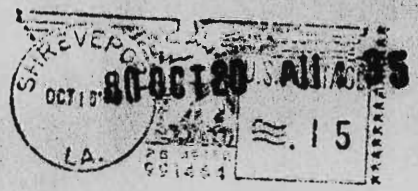

James M. Forgotson

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is to notify you that the Federal Election Commission, in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, has found evidence that the Reagan for President Committee has violated certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). In addition, questions have been raised concerning Ronald Reagan's involvement in the agreement entered into between your committee and Riggs National Bank of Washington, D.C., for a $1,000,000 loan. A summary of the possible violations and a discussion of information in hand concerning the bank loan is enclosed.

Under the Act you have an opportunity to demonstrate in writing that no action should be taken against the commitete in connection with these matters. Your response must be submitted within 15 days of receipt of this letter. If no response is received within 15 days, the Commission may take further action based on the available information.

BACKGROUND

These matters were generated as the result of information compiled by the Reports Analysis Division during the ordinary course of review of reports submitted by the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"), and by the Audit Division during its review of the Committee's records for the period of February 26, 1979, to December 31, 1979.

In its initial referral to this Office the Reports Analysis Division found that the Committee during 1979 had apparently violated former 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(2), 434(b)(6) and 434(b)(9) and 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by failing to provide required information pertaining to itemized contributors and to fundraisers, by failing to provide sufficiently detailed particulars for and the ultimate payees of expenditures, and by accepting excessive contributions. These issues have been reviewed by the Office of General Counsel as MUR 1142. Later, the Audit Division referred to this Office possible violations of 26 U.S.C. § 9035, 2 U.S.C. § 441a (a)(1)(A), 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), and 2 U.S.C. § 441b in the forms respectively of the candidate's apparent guarantee of a $1,000,000 bank loan obtained by the Committee in October, 1979, the making and acceptance of excessive contributions, and the possible involvement of an incorporated entity in the financing of a Committee fundraiser. These latter issues have been reviewed by this Office as part of MUR 1255.

A report on all issues involved in MUR 1142 was submitted to the Commission by this Office on April 15, 1980. At its April 22, 1980 meeting the Commission declined, by a vote of 3-2, to take the actions recommended by this Office, in part pending resolution of questions regarding the proper reporting of the particulars of expenditures.

Just prior to and shortly after the April 22, 1980 Commission meeting the Committee submitted information satisfying the requirements of 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(2) and 434(b)(6) and partially meeting the requirements of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) by the addition of more detailed particulars of expenditures.

The Office of General Counsel has recommended that, because of the overlapping of issues involved, the Commission merge MUR's 1142 and 1255.

3 5 0 4 0 6 8 2 1 0 3

LEGAL ANALYSIS

1. Failure to Report the Ultimate Payees of Expenditures

The Reports Analysis Division has determined that in its April 10, July 10, and October 10, 1979, reports the Committee failed to cite the "ultimate payees" of certain expenditures; the reports identify only persons apparently acting as Committee agents (as defined at 11 C.F.R. § 102.9(b) (2)(i)(A)) who secured certain goods and services for the Committee, not the person or vendor who actually provided such.

11 C.F.R. § 104.3(c)(3)(i) requires the itemization on committee reports of

> Each person to whom an expenditure in an aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year is made ... together with the date, amount, and purpose of such operating expenditure:

The Commission has defined "each person to whom an expenditure ... is made" as the person who provides goods and services to a committee. (See the Memorandum to the Commission from this Office dated July 19, 1980, and approved by the Commission on July 22, 1980, entitled "Can We Require Title 26 Documentation for a Title 2 Report and, If So, Have We?" for the most recent reaffirmation of this policy.) At the very least the ultimate payee should be given in the description of the expenditure's purpose, e.g., "hospitality suite at Royal Hotel".

Listed below are the expenditures at issue:

April 10, 1979 Report

Lynn R. Fillman	Purchase of Office equipment	3/15/79	$2,600.00
Paul Laxalt	Reimbursement Reception expenses	3/31/79	783.00

Bruce Eriksen	Reimbursement for expenses related to Iowa State Fair	8/14/79	385.00
Gerald E. Krembow	Reimbursement for newspaper	8/30/79	1,067.29
Jerry Waters/T. Malleys	Reimbursement for promotional materials	7/12/79	1,500.00

* As amended on May 16, 1980

8304021-3

Kinau Kamili	in part reimbursement for campaign materials	5/16/79	$645.90

The Office of General Counsel has recommended that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9).

2. Excessive Contributions

(a) As noted in the earlier report on MUR 1142 submitted by this Office, the Reports Analysis Division determined through its review of the Committee's April 10, July 10 and October 10 reports that the Committee had accepted contributions in excess of $1000 per election from individuals for which reimbursements had not been reported as of the dates of the referrals despite notification by the Commission. This placed the Committee in apparent violation of 2 U.S.C.. § 44la(f) and the contributors in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A). Additional excessive contributions were noted by RAD in the Committee's Year End Report for 1979. The Audit Division's review of Committee records through December 31, 1979, confirmed that 128 excessive contributions totaling $75,820 had been received and not refunded as of the Audit Division's review, while 78 other, apparently excessive contributions had either been brought within the statutory limits by means of attribution letters from the contributors or found to be the result of computer errors. In these latter instances the Committee's reports had not yet been amended.

Since the review by the Audit Division the Committee has reported reattributions, refunds or corrections of computer errors for a number of the contributions received in 1979 and identified as being apparently excessive by either RAD or the Audit Division. Eleven of the thirteen refunds of 1979 contributions were made in May, 1980. More recently, on August 28, 1980, the Committee submitted responses to two RFAI's detailing similar information for persons who have made contributions in both 1979 and 1980. Refunds in these instances were made in August, 1980.

Individual contributors who, according to Committee responses to RFAI's, have apparently exceeded the contribution limitation by more than $1000 are listed below. As will be noted, some have exceeded the limitation by over $1000 solely on the basis of their 1979 contributions which were included in the figures cited in the interim Audit Report with regard to excessive contributions, while others have gone over the limitation by this much as a result of a combination of their 1979 and 1980 contributions.

Name	Amounts and Dates Of Contributions		Amount of Excess	Date of Refund
Maxy Pope Alles	$1000	3/28/79	$1250	5/12/80 *

* The Committee originally reported this excessive contribution in its October 10, 1979, report and noted that a refund would be made that month. The same notation was made with regard to other excessive contributions of lesser amounts which were later reported as reattributed or refunded or both in the Committee's amendments of May 21, 1980.

Examination of the findings made by the Audit Division during the threshold audit and of RFAI responses has revealed that by December 31, 1979, thirty-five other individuals had apparently exceeded the contribution limitation by $1000 exactly, while nine additional persons apparently exceeded the limitation by $1000 as a result of a combination of their 1979 and 1980 contributions. Numerous additional individuals have exceeded the limitation by lesser amounts. *

11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b) requires that contributions which appear to be illegal shall be returned to the contributor within 10 days of receipt or, if deposited, shall be noted as being possibly illegal. If the contributions' legality cannot later be established, they are to be refunded within a reasonable time. In the above listed instances the Committee's refunds were made at a minumum of five months after the date of receipt of the contribution which caused the contributor to exceed his or her limitation. In certain cases as much a a year passed before such a refund was made. Such lapses of time do not appear to be "reasonable"

(b) Another apparently excessive contribution was made in the form of a check for $6000 drawn on Moran Interests, a partnership. It is the Committee's position that so long as each of the six partners agrees to an attribution of a $1000 share in the contribution, no limitation has been exceeded. The Committee bases its position on its reading of 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(e) which states:

> A contribution by a partnership shall
> (1) Be attributed to each partner in direct proportion to his or her share in the partnership profits ...; or
> (2) Be attributed by agreement of the parties, ...

* Several additional individuals who appear to have contributed amounts which exceed the contribution limitations by more than $1000 have been identified by the Audit Division and, dependent upon the Committee's response to the final threshold audit report just approved by the Commission, may be added to the above listing at a later date

However, 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) states that "(n)o person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1000." 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) (formerly 2 U.S.C.. § 431(h)) defines "person" as including "an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, labor organization, or any other organization or group of persons...." Therefore, partnership contributions come within the limitations set forth in Section 441a(a)(1)(A). (See also 11 C.F.R. § 9034.2(c)(4)(iii)) Moran Interests has apparently violated 2 U.S.C. 441a(a)(1)(A).

(c) In yet another instance the auditors found that expenses totaling $5680.60 for a fundraising event on behalf of Ronald Reagan held on October 11, 1979, had been paid for by the North Hollywood Glass Co., an unincorporated business entity. The company met these expenses between August 31 and October 18, 1979, billed the Committee on October 31, 1979 and was reimbursed on December 3, 1979.

2 U.S.C. § 431(a)(8)(i) defines "contribution" to include "any gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money ... made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office." As noted above, 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) includes in its definition of "person" "any other organization or group of persons", thereby including an unincorporated business entity. The expenditures made by the North Hollywood Glass Co. on behalf of Ronald Reagan constituted, until reimbursed, an advance and thus a contribution. These expenditures exceeded the statutory limitation of $1000 per person per election, thereby placing the company in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

(d) The auditors also found that a group of persons in Hawaii organized a fundraising event on behalf of Ronald Reagan which was held on September 4, 1979. One of these persons, Charles K. Fletcher, paid $5000 of a $12,000 advance deposit to Hilton Hawaiian Village on August 30, 1979, in conjunction with the event. On January 25, 1980, the Committee reimbursed Mr. Fletcher, the lateness of the reimbursement allegedly being due to lack of knowledge on the Committee's part. (In its monthly report of January expenditures the Committee reported a $5000 payment to Charles K. Fletcher for "professional services").

As noted above, an advance of monies for the purpose of influencing a federal election constitutes a contribution. Therefore Charles K. Fletcher has apparently violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a (a)(1)(A).

The Audit Division has posed questions concerning the possible involvement of Pioneer Properties, Inc., in the above advance of $5000 in light of Mr. Fletcher's employment by that corporation and the fact that the group of persons who organized the fundraiser reimbursed the corporation for the use of office space. This Office finds that at present there is insufficient evidence to indicate any corporate involvement in the advance, but will attempt to ascertain whether such existed during its investigation of Mr. Fletcher's apparent violation.

* On February 12, 1980, Mr. Fletcher sent to the Committee a check for $1401.60 which represented a refund for a like amount received by him from the Hilton Hawaiian Village.

The Office of General Counsel has recommended that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(f) by accepting excessive contributions and that the individual contributors listed in subsection (a) above, the North Hollywood Glass Co., Moran Interests and Charles K. Fletcher have violated 2 U.S.C. § 44la(a)(1)(A).

3. Expenditure by Candidate

On October 11, 1979, the Committee entered into a loan and security agreement with The Riggs National Bank of Washington, D.C. ("Riggs") pursuant to which Riggs made a loan of $1,000,000 to the Committee in the form of a revolving line of credit for the period between October 11, 1979, and May 31, 1980. (Attachment I). The agreement provided that the loan would be secured by an assignment of all Committee interests in the Presidential primary matching funds to which the Committee or the candidate might become entitled and by all deposits of the Committee in Riggs. The interest rate to be charged was to be at a rate equal to the rate charged by Riggs for prime commercial loans of 90-day maturities. The principal was to be payable on June 30, 1980, and the first interest payment on December 31, 1979. On October 19, 1979, Ronald Reagan and the treasurer of the Committee signed an "Assignment and Grant of Security Interest" to Riggs of all Presidential primary matching funds to which either Mr. Reagan or the Committee was at that time entitled or to which they would later become entitled. (Attachment II). The first advance on the loan was made to the Committee on October 11, 1979, in the sum of $400,000. Subsequent advances were made on November 1, November 5 and November 8, 1979, bringing the total to $1,000,000. (Attachment III).

On January 14, 1980, an amendment to the loan agreement was apparently executed. This amendment increased the amount of the loan to $2,000,000. (Attachment IV). A second "Assignment and Grant of Security Interest" to Riggs of primary matching funds was also signed at that time. (Attachment V).

On September 18, 1979, prior to the signing of the loan and security agreements, Ronald Reagan submitted a letter to Riggs. (Attachment VI). In this letter Mr. Reagan stated that he had been informed that Riggs was unwilling to make the loan of $1,000,000 to the Committee without his guarantee. He agreed that if he had not been certified to receive primary matching funds by January 15, 1980, he would "unconditionally and absolutely guarantee due and punctual payment of the principal of such loan and of each note issued by the committee pursuant to said loan agreement, the interest thereon and any other monies due or which may become due thereon...." He stated that "(t)his guaranty shall become null and void and of no effect if I become eligible to receive Presidential primary matching funds under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971." Mr. Reagan also purchased a $1,000,000 life insurance policy on October 24, 1979, which cites Riggs as the primary beneficiary. (Attachment VII). He also assigned to Riggs his interest in the policy as "collateral security", apparently for the loan. (Attachment VIII). Neither the letter of guarantee nor the life insurance policy are mentioned in the loan agreement signed on October 11, 1979, nor in the amendment to that agreement.

The Presidential Primary Matching Fund Act contains no definition of "expenditure", nor do the Commission's regulations with regard to the public funding of primary elections. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, has defined "expenditure" to include a "purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money or anything of value, made for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or the election, of any person to Federal office ...." (Former 2 U.S.C. § 431(f); see also 2 U.S.C. § 431(9)(A)). The Commission's regulations in effect in October of 1979 defined "payment" to include "a guarantee or endorsement by a candidate or a political committee of a loan". (Former 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(b)(i)(B); presently 11 C.F.R. § 100.8 (a)(1)(i)). Although it is clear that the execution of the guarantee is an expenditure for purposes of former 2 U.S.C. § 431(f), whether the execution of the guarantee constituted a qualified campaign expense by Mr. Reagan in connection with his campaign for nomination to the Office of President, in violation of 26 U.S.C. § 9035, is less clear.

On January 10, 1980, Ronald Reagan certified to the Commission that he and his committee had not and would not make qualified campaign expenses "in excess of the limitations of such expenses under 26 U.S.C. § 9035." On January 14, 1980, the Commission certified to Treasury Mr. Reagan's eligibility to receive matching funds. The Commission prescribed regulations on February 15, 1980, which clarified that a candidate and his or her authorized committee shall certify that they have not incurred and will not incur expenditures in connection with the candidate's campaign for nomination in excess of 11 C.F.R. § 9035. See 11 C.F.R. § 9033.2(b). Prior to the prescription of that regulation, the statute and regulations only stated that the candidate will not incur qualified campaign expenses in excess of $50,000. Since it was not until February 15, 1980, that the regulation made it clear that a candidate could not make expenditures in excess of $50,000 prior to certification for eligibility, the Office of General Counsel has recommended that no action be taken as to the personal guarantee of Ronald Reagan.

Mr. Reagan's purchase of the life insurance policy constituted an actual rather than a conditional expenditure on his part. The policy was something "of value" obtained by Mr. Reagan for purposes remained alive throughout the period of time it was in effect. It was not a guarantee of payment in the event of default but only in the event of Mr. Reagan's death. It is therefore the opinion of the Office of General Counsel that the value of Mr. Reagan's expenditure should be limited to the cost of the premium involved in the purchase of the policy or $8,420. Such valuation would not in itself cause expenditures set forth in 26 U.S.C. § 9035. *

The Office of General Counsel has recommended that the Commission take no action as to a violation of 26 U.S.C. § 9035 by Ronald Reagan.

COMMISSION DETERMINATIONS

Based on the above analyses the Federal Election Commission has determined

1. That MUR's 1142 and 1255 are to be merged.

2. That there is reason to believe that the Reagan for President Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(9) and 441a(f).

3. That there is reason to believe that Maxy Pope Alles, Emma Bardwell, Margaret B. Bartlett, Ruth C. Crocker, James M. Forgotson, Richard J. Green, Leonard W. Hardy, Lucille W. Herbert, Frank M. Klamt, Elsa W. Mark, L. Randolph Mason, T. Cecil Meador, Jesse B. Moore, Helen L. Moorehead, Warren N. Porter, Antoinette S. Wiking, Moran Interests, North Hollywood Glass Company, and Charles K. Fletcher have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

4. That no action is to be taken as to a violation of 26 U.S.C. § 9035 by Ronald Reagan.

* A similar situation was present in MUR 1195 in which the complainant questioned whether a loan made to the Kennedy for President Committee by the Chemical Bank of New York had been made in the ordinary course of business. In that instance the bank required the committee to obtain insurance policies on Mr. Kennedy's health and life as a precondition for granting the loan, which was secured by the candidate's expectation of receipt of public matching funds. The MUR did not address the issue of whether the policies constituted contributions by Mr. Kennedy, and if so, what the value of such contributions would be. In the Kennedy situation the committee made the purchase, rather than the candidate as did Mr. Reagan; however, this distinction does not seem enough to warrant attributing to Mr. Reagan a contribution in the amount of the value which the policy would have had in the event of his death.

BACKGROUND

This matter was generated as the result of information compiled by the Audit Division during the ordinary course of its review of the records of the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"). The Audit Division has found evidence that Moran Interests contributed $6000 to the Committee in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Committee's records show that a $6000 contribution has been received which was made by means of a check drawn on Moran Interests, a partnership.

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) states that "(n)o person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1000. 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) (formerly 2 U.S.C. § 431(h)) defines "person" as including "an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, labor organization, or any other organization or group of persons. . . " Therefore, partnership contributions come within the limitations set forth in Section 441a(a)(1)(A).

Based on the above analysis, the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that Moran Interests has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

BACKGROUND

This matter was generated as the result of information compiled by the Audit Division during the ordinary course of its review of the records of the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"). The Audit Division has found evidence that the North Hollywood Glass Co. contributed $5,680.60 to the Committee in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Audit Division has found that your company paid expenses totaling $5,680.60 for a fundraiser event on behalf of Ronald Reagan which was held on October 11, 1979. It is understood that you billed the Committee on October 31, 1979, and were reimbursed on December 3, 1979.

2 U.S.C. § 431(a)(8)(i) defines "contribution" to include "any gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money ... made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office. As noted above, 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) includes in its definition of "person" "any other organization or group of persons", thereby including an unincorporated business entity. Thus the expenditures made by the North Hollywood Glass Co. on behalf of Ronald Reagan constituted, until reimbursed, an advance and thus a contribution. These expenditures exceeded the statutory limitation of $1000 per person per election, thereby placing the company in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

Based on the foregoing analysis, the Federal Election Commission has found:

Reason to believe that the North Hollywood Glass Company has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A)

REPORTS ANALYSIS REFERRAL UPDATE

*ORIGIN: Reports Analysis Division

DATE SEPTEMBER 26, 1980

ANALYST Mike Thompson

TO: Office of General Counsel
ATTENTION: Anne Weissenborn

TEAM CHIEF Irene Allen

COMPLIANCE REVIEW $3

THROUGH: STAFF DIRECTOR

FROM: ASSISTANT STAFF DIRECTOR FOR REPORTS ANALYSIS

MUR No. 1142

DATE OF ORIGINAL REFERRAL _____

SUPPLEMENT

On September 16, 1980, this office forwarded a Referral Update regarding MUR 1142. That update was based on a cursory review of the amendment submitted by the Reagan for President Committee dated August 28, 1980. As such, the update contained only summary information regarding the response.

This supplement is intended to expand on that update and to provide the OGC with a more detailed account of certain information contained in the committee's response. Additional problems are also detailed which deal with excessive contributions from individuals.

1) The update of September 16, 1980 stated that the committee's response was inadequate because certain contributors had not been addressed. (See Attachment 1.) Upon a more detailed review, we have found that the committee did address the following two individuals:

Antoinette Whiking and Jesse B. Moore

As noted in the committee's response, refunds and allocations have been made for these individuals which bring the total contributed by each to $1,000 or less.

2) The committee has amended certain information on contributions from other individuals as well; however, certain problems have been encountered in accounting for these contributions and in the amount of refunds made, if any. The following list and accompanying attachments will detail these problems: (Cases where the contributor may still be in violation of 441a(a)).

a) Bell, Charles D. (See Attachment 2)

Total to Allocate = $2,680
Total "Reported" on Amendment = $2,430
Total Allocated by Committee = $2,180
Discrepancy still not accounted for: $500

8304062204

b) Roper, John L. (See Attachment 3)

Total to Allocate = $1,750
There has been no refund to date of the excessive $750.

c) Schwartz, Milton I. (See Attachment 4)

Total to Allocate = $1,500
Total Allocated = $1,000

Contribution of $500 on 2/24/80 not allocated or refunded.

NOTE: The principal place of business disclosed for this contributor is "Valley Hospital." The contribution which was not addressed by the committee has "Valley Hospital" as the contributors address. Apparently, they feel that these are two distinct individuals although there is no evidence to support this. (Nor is there an explanation of the circumstances.)

d) Butler, Mildred B. (See Attachment 5)

Actual Total to Allocate = $1,315
Committee's Total Allocation = $1,215
Amount Refunded by Committee = $215
Still excessive by $100 due to math error by committee.

e) Montano, Victoria G. (See Attachment 6)

1. Total to Allocate = $4,200
   Total Allocated = $1,960
   Discrepancy not accounted for = $2,240

2. Actual amount Allocated to Victoria = $1,050
   Committee's Total Allocated to Victoria = $950
   No Refund disclosed. Therefore, contributor is excessive by $50 (or more).

f) Forgotson, James M. (See Attachment 7)

1. Actual Total to Allocate = $3,685
   Total Allocated = $2,685
   Discrepancy not accounted for = $1,000*

   *Discrepancy consists of $500 contribution on 2/20/80 which the committee disclosed but did not allocate and a contribution of $500 on 4/8/80 which was not addressed by the committee. (See #2.)

f) Forgotson, James M. (Continued)

2. Actual total to be allocated to James M. = $3,185
Total allocated to James M. by committee = $2,185
Amount refunded to James M. Forgotson = $1,185
Still excessive by $1,000*

*Committee could still allocate $500 to Mrs. Forgotson but there remains $500 excessive even in this case.

g) Granger, Clarence (See Attachment 8)

Total to Allocate = $1,100
Total Allocated = $850
Discrepancy not accounted for = $250

h) MacDonald, Angus (See Attachment 9)

Actual Total to Allocate = $3,000
Total Allocated/Refunded = $2,000 (Includes $500 refund)
Discrepancy is due to a $1,000 contribution from Angus MacDonald received on 5/29/80 which was not included in the committee's calculations. Still excessive by $1,000.

i) Payson, Charles S. (See Attachment 10)

Total to Allocate = $2,000
Total Allocated/Refunded = $1,500 (Includes $500 refund)
Discrepancy not accounted for = $500*

*$500 discrepancy consists of a $500 contribution on 12/27/79 which was acknowledged but not allocated or refunded by committee.

j) Petrizzo, Thomas (See Attachment 11)

Total to Allocate = $1,250
Total Allocated = $1,250*

*This total was split 50/50% between Mr. Thomas and Mrs. Josephine Petrizzo for $625 each. However, Mrs. Petrizzo has already contributed $500 to the committee on 12/31/79. Her total is now excessive by $125.

k) Haas, Warren R. (See Attachment 12)

Total to Allocate = $1,400
Total Allocated = $1,400
Discrepancy not accounted for = $200 (Excessive for Mr. Haas.)

3) Several other discrepancies were noted during the review of this amendment but do not constitute any major problems. Most are errors in amounts which do not affect the total amount contributed or are typographical errors which are easily corrected on the computer. An example of this is the corrections for Hazel K. Bowerman: (Attachment 13)

> Actual total contributed is $2,050 whereas the committee discloses a total of $1,050. The committee notes, however, that $1,050 is refunded and this has been verified on the committee's September 20 Monthly Report.

This update and supplement refers only to the most recent amendment submitted by the committee and the RFAIs of May 2, 1980 and July 21, 1980. Previous contributions which were found to be excessive are not addressed in this update but are the subject of continuing review by your office and this division.

MUR No. 1142

DATE OF ORIGINAL REFERRAL

PURPOSE:

On August 20, 1980 the Reagan for President Committee (1980 Primary PCC) filed a partial response to an RFAI dated May 2, 1980, (Second Notice May 23, 1980), regarding the committee's March Monthly Report, (see MUR Update dated Aug. 25, 1980).

On September 2, 1980 the committee filed an additional response which, in addition to completing the information required in the RFAI dated May 2, also supplies some information requested in an RFAI dated July 21, 1980, (Second Notice August 25, 1980), covering the April, May and June Monthly Reports.

This response is INADEQUATE, however, as it does not address the following items requested in the July 21, 1980 RFAI:

1) Excessive contributions (apparent) from the following individuals:

a)	Moore, Jesse B	Aggregate = $2,500
b)	Whittier, N. Paul	2,000
c)	Whittier, Leland K.	2,000
d)	Whiking, Antoinette	3,600
e)	Wilkins, C.H.	2,000
f)	Woods, Edward F.	1,450

2) Partnership contribution of $3,000 from Seacoast Towers South

3) Twelve (12) apparent Corporate Contributions totalling $6,500

4) The amount of an earmarked contribution from Robert W. Dove

5) An explanation for the lag time in reporting of certain expenditures (up to three months outside reporting periods).

ATTACHMENTS: (1) Copy of Request for Additional Information and Second Notice dated July 21, 1980 and August 25, 1980 respectively.
(2) Copy of committee's response rec'd September 2, 1980

*Commission unit which initiated original Referral (e.g. AUDIT/RAD/OGC).
INFORMATION, or RESULTS OF RAD ACTION, as appropriate.

*Includes total that should have been allocated. See notes below.

Allocated by Committee:

Charles D. Bell:

12/31/79	$500
1/22/80	$250 2/
5/16/80	$250 3/
TOTAL	$1,000

10/29/79	$200
11/20/79	$500
3/31/80	$100
TOTAL	$900

Mrs. Doris Muir:

3/10/80	$280

TOTAL ALLOCATED = $2,180

1/ This contribution was apparently not originally reported by the committee. It is added here to be consistent with the committee's list of "reported" contributions that should be allocated. The other two contributions of $100 each are included because the committee included them in the list, (although the Commission does not enter these lesser amounts into the computer).

2/ This contribution was originally reported as $750. There is no further allocation of hte remaining $500.

3/ This contribution was disclosed by the committee on the original disclosure report but not included in the committee's list of "reported" contributions. The total that should have been allocated is therefore $2,680, (as shown above). The committee did, however, allocate this contribution.

The total which must still be addressed is $500. This results from the allocation of a $750 contribution down to $250 with no further explanation.

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

These matters were generated as the result of information compiled by the Reports Analysis Division during the ordinary course of review of reports submitted by the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"), and by the Audit Division during its review of the Committee's records for the period of February 26, 1979, to December 31, 1979.

In its initial referral to this Office the Reports Analysis Division found that the Committee during 1979 had apparently violated former 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(2), 434(b)(6) and 434(b)(9) and 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by failing to provide required information pertaining to itemized contributors and to fundraisers, by failing to provide sufficiently detailed particulars for and the ultimate payees of expenditures, and by accepting excessive contributions. These issues have been reviewed by the Office of General Counsel as MUR 1142. Later, the Audit Division referred to this Office possible violations of 26 U.S.C. § 9035, 2 U.S.C. § 441a (a)(1)(A), 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), and 2 U.S.C. § 441b in the forms respectively of the candidate's apparent guarantee of a $1,000,000 bank loan obtained by the Committee in October, 1979, the making and acceptance of excessive contributions, and the possible involvement of an incorporated entity in the financing of a Committee fundraiser. These latter issues have been reviewed by this Office as part of MUR 1255.

A report on all issues involved in MUR 1142 was submitted to the Commission by this Office on April 15, 1980. At its April 22, 1980 meeting the Commission declined, by a vote of 3-2, to take the actions recommended by this Office, in part pending resolution of questions regarding the proper reporting of the particulars of expenditures.

Just prior to and shortly after the April 22, 1980 Commission meeting the Committee submitted information satisfying the requirements of 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(2) and 434(b)(6) and partially meeting the requirements of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) by the addition of more detailed particulars of expenditures.

The Office of General Counsel recommends that, because of the overlapping of issues involved, the Commission merge MUR's 1142 and 1255.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

1. Failure to Report the Ultimate Payees of Expenditures

The Reports Analysis Division has determined that in its April 10, July 10, and October 10, 1979, reports the Committee failed to cite the "ultimate payees" of certain expenditures; the reports identify only persons apparently acting as Committee agents (as defined at 11 C.F.R. § 102.9(b) (2)(i)(A)) who secured certain goods and services for the Committee, not the person or vendor who actually provided such.

11 C.F.R. § 104.3(c)(3)(i) requires the itemization on committee reports of

> Each person to whom an expenditure in an aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year is made ... together with the date, amount, and purpose of such operating expenditure:

The Commission has defined "each person to whom an expenditure ... is made" as the person who provides goods and services to a committee. (See the Memorandum to the Commission from this Office dated July 19, 1980, and approved by the Commission on July 22, 1980, entitled "Can We Require Title 26 Documentation for a Title 2 Report and, If So, Have We?" for the most recent reaffirmation of this policy.) At the very least the ultimate payee should be given in the description of the expenditure's purpose, e.g., "hospitality suite at Royal Hotel".

Listed below are the expenditures at issue:

April 10, 1979 Report

Lynn R. Fillman	Purchase of Office equipment	3/15/79	$2,600.00

Kinau Kamili	in part reimbursement for campaign materials	5/16/79	$645.90

The Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9).

2. Excessive Contributions

(a) As noted in the earlier report on MUR 1142 submitted by this Office, the Reports Analysis Division determined through its review of the Committee's April 10, July 10 and October 10 reports that the Committee had accepted contributions in excess of $1000 per election from individuals for which reimbursements had not been reported as of the dates of the referrals despite notification by the Commission. This placed the Committee in apparent violation of 2 U.S.C.. § 441a(f) and the contributors in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). Additional excessive contributions were noted by RAD in the Committee's Year End Report for 1979. The Audit Division's review of Committee records through December 31, 1979, confirmed that 129 excessive contributions totaling $75,820 had been received and not refunded as of the Audit Division's review, while 61 other, apparently excessive contributions had either been brought within the statutory limits by means of attribution letters from the contributors or found to be the result of computer errors. In these latter instances the Committee's reports had not yet been amended.

Since the review by the Audit Division the Committee has reported reattributions, refunds or corrections of computer errors for a number of the contributions received in 1979 and identified as being apparently excessive by either RAD or the Audit Division. Eleven of the thirteen refunds of 1979 contributions were made in May, 1980. More recently, on August 28, 1980, the Committee submitted responses to two RFAI's detailing similar information for persons who have made contributions in both 1979 and 1980. Refunds in these instances were made in August, 1980.

Individual contributors who, according to Committee responses to RFAI's, have apparently exceeded the contribution limitation by more than $1000 are listed below. As will be noted, some have exceeded the limitation by over $1000 solely on the basis of their 1979 contributions and thus were included in the figures cited in the interim Audit Report with regard to excessive contributions, while others have gone over the limitation by this much as a result of a combination of their 1979 and 1980 contributions.

Name	Amounts and Dates Of Contributions		Amount of Excess	Date of Refund
Maxy Pope Alles	$1000	3/28/79	$1250	5/12/80 *

* The Committee originally reported this excessive contribution in its October 10, 1979, report and noted that a refund would be made that month. The same notation was made with regard to other excessive contributions of lesser amounts which were later reported as reattributed or refunded or both in the Committee's amendments of May 21, 1980.

Examination of the findings made by the Audit Division during the threshold audit and of RFAI responses has revealed that by December 31, 1979, thirty-three other individuals had apparently exceeded the contribution limitation by $1000 exactly, while nine additional persons apparently exceeded the limitation by $1000 as a result of a combination of their 1979 and 1980 contributions. Numerous additional individuals have exceeded the limitation by lesser amounts. *

11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b) requires that contributions which appear to be illegal shall be returned to the contributor within 10 days of receipt or, if deposited, shall be noted as being possibly illegal. If the contributions' legality cannot later be established, they are to be refunded "within a reasonable time. In the above listed instances the Committee's refunds were made at a minumum of five months after the date of receipt of the contribution which caused the contributor to exceed his or her limitation. In certain cases as much a a year passed before such a refund was made. Such lapses of time do not appear to be "reasonable".

(b) Another apparently excessive contribution was made in the form of a check for $6000 drawn on Moran Interests, a partnership. It is the Committee's position that so long as each of the six partners agrees to an attribution of a $1000 share in the contribution, no limitation has been exceeded. The Committee bases its position on its reading of 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(e) which states:

> A contribution by a partnership shall
> (1) Be attributed to each partner in direct proportion to his or her share in the partnership profits ...; or
> (2) Be attributed by agreement of the parties, ...

* Several additional individuals who appear to have contributed amounts which exceed the contribution limitations by more than $1000 have been identified by the Audit Division and, dependent upon the Committee's response to the final threshold audit report just approved by the Commission, may be added to the above listing at a later date.

However, 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) states that "(n)o person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1000." 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) (formerly 2 U.S.C.. § 431(h)) defines "person" as including "an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, labor organization, or any other organization or group of persons...." Therefore, partnership contributions come within the limitations set forth in Section 441a(a)(1)(A). (See also 11 C.F.R. § 9034.2(c)(4)(iii)) Moran Interests has apparently violated 2 U.S.C. 441a(a)(1)(A).

(c) In yet another instance the auditors found that expenses totaling $5680.60 for a fundraising event on behalf of Ronald Reagan held on October 11, 1979, had been paid for by the North Hollywood Glass Co., an unincorporated business entity. The company met these expenses between August 31 and October 18, 1979, billed the Committee on October 31, 1979 and was reimbursed on December 3, 1979.

2 U.S.C. § 431(a)(8)(i) defines "contribution" to include "any gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money ... made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office." As noted above, 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) includes in its definition of "person" "any other organization or group of persons", thereby including an unincorporated business entity. The expenditures made by the North Hollywood Glass Co. on behalf of Ronald Reagan constituted, until reimbursed, an advance and thus a contribution. These expenditures exceeded the statutory limitation of $1000 per person per election, thereby placing the company in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

(d) The auditors also found that a group of persons in Hawaii organized a fundraising event on behalf of Ronald Reagan which was held on September 4, 1979. One of these persons, Charles K. Fletcher, paid $5000 of a $12,000 advance deposit to Hilton Hawaiian Village on August 30, 1979, in conjunction with the event. On January 25, 1980, the Committee reimbursed Mr. Fletcher, the lateness of the reimbursement allegedly being due to lack of knowledge on the Committee's part. (In its monthly report of January expenditures the Committee reported a $5000 payment to Charles K. Fletcher for "professional services"). *

As noted above, an advance of monies for the purpose of influencing a federal election constitutes a contribution. Therefore Charles K. Fletcher has apparently violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a (a)(1)(A).

The Audit Division has posed questions concerning the possible involvement of Pioneer Properties, Inc., in the above advance of $5000 in light of Mr. Fletcher's employment by that corporation and the fact that the group of persons who organized the fundraiser reimbursed the corporation for the use of office space. This Office

* On February 12, 1980, Mr. Fletcher sent to the Committee a check for $1401.60 which represented a refund for a like amount received by him from the Hilton Hawaiian Village.

the fact that the group of persons who organized the fundraiser reimbursed the corporation for the use of office space. This Office finds that at present there is insufficient evidence to indicate any corporate involvement in the advance, but will attempt to ascertain whether such existed during its investigation of Mr. Fletcher's apparent violation.

The Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting excessive contributions and that the individual contributors listed in subsection (a) above, the North Hollywood Glass Co., Moran Interests and Charles K. Fletcher have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

3. Expenditure by Candidate

On October 11, 1979, the Committee entered into a loan and security agreement with The Riggs National Bank of Washington, D.C. ("Riggs") pursuant to which Riggs made a loan of $1,000,000 to the Committee in the form of a revolving line of credit for the period between October 11, 1979, and May 31, 1980. (Attachment I). The agreement provided that the loan would be secured by an assignment of all Committee interests in the Presidential primary matching funds to which the Committee or the candidate might become entitled and by all deposits of the Committee in Riggs. The interest rate to be charged was to be at a rate equal to the rate charged by Riggs for prime commercial loans of 90-day maturities. The principal was to be payable on June 30, 1980, and the first interest payment on December 31, 1979. On October 19, 1979, Ronald Reagan and the treasurer of the Committee signed an "Assignment and Grant of Security Interest" to Riggs of all Presidential primary matching funds to which either Mr. Reagan or the Committee was at that time entitled or to which they would later become entitled. (Attachment II). The first advance on the loan was made to the Committee on October 11, 1979, in the sum of $400,000. Subsequent advances were made on November 1, November 5 and November 8, 1979, bringing the total to $1,000,000. (Attachment III).

On January 14, 1980, an amendment to the loan agreement was apparently executed. This amendment increased the amount of the loan to $2,000,000. (Attachment IV). A second "Assignment and Grant of Security Interest" to Riggs of primary matching funds was also signed at that time. (Attachment V).

On September 18, 1979, prior to the signing of the loan and security agreements, Ronald Reagan submitted a letter to Riggs. (Attachment VI). In this letter Mr. Reagan stated that he had been informed that Riggs was unwilling to make the loan of $1,000,000 to the Committee without his guarantee. He agreed that if he had not been certified to receive primary matching funds by January 15, 1980, he would "unconditionally and absolutely guarantee due and punctual payment of the principal of such loan and of each note issued by the committee pursuant to said loan agreement, the interest thereon and any other monies due or which may become due thereon...." He stated that "(t)his guaranty shall become null and void and of no effect if I become eligible to receive Presidential primary matching funds under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971." Mr. Reagan also purchased a $1,000,000 life insurance policy on October 24, 1979, which cites Riggs as the primary beneficiary. (Attachment VII). He also assigned to Riggs his interest in the policy as "collateral security", apparently for the loan. (Attachment VIII). Neither the letter of guarantee nor the life insurance policy are mentioned in the loan agreement signed on October 11, 1979, nor in the amendment to that agreement.

The Presidential Primary Matching Fund Act contains no definition of "expenditure", nor do the Commission's regulations with regard to the public funding of primary elections. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, has defined "expenditure" to include a "purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money or anything of value, made for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or the election, of any person to Federal office ...." (Former 2 U.S.C. § 431(f); see also 2 U.S.C. § 431(9)(A)). The Commission's regulations in effect in October of 1979 defined "payment" to include "a guarantee or endorsement by a candidate or a political committee of a loan". (Former 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(b)(i)(B); presently 11 C.F.R. § 100.8 (a)(1)(i)). Although it is clear that the execution of the guarantee is an expenditure for purposes of former 2 U.S.C. § 431(f), whether the execution of the guarantee constituted a qualified campaign expense by Mr. Reagan in connection with his campaign for nomination to the Office of President, in violation of 26 U.S.C. § 9035, is less clear.

On January 10, 1980, Ronald Reagan certified to the Commission that he and his committee had not and would not make qualified campaign expenses "in excess of the limitations of such expenses under 26 U.S.C. § 9035." On January 14, 1980, the Commission certified to Treasury Mr. Reagan's eligibility to receive matching funds. The Commission prescribed regulations on February 15, 1980, which clarified that a candidate and his or her authorized committee shall certify that they have not incurred and will not incur expenditures in connection with the candidate's campaign for nomination in excess of 11 C.F.R. § 9035. See 11 C.F.R. § 9033.2(b). Prior to the prescription of that regulation, the statute and regulations only stated that the candidate will not incur qualified campaign expenses in excess of $50,000. Since it was not until February 15, 1980, that the regulation made it clear that a candidate could not make expenditures in excess of $50,000 prior to certification for eligibility, the Office of General Counsel recommends that no action be taken as to the personal guarantee of Ronald Reagan.

Mr. Reagan's purchase of the life insurance policy constituted an actual rather than a conditional expenditure on his part. The policy was something "of value" obtained by Mr. Reagan for purposes of influencing his campaign. The question then becomes one of the valuation of that policy and thus of the expenditure. The policy involved term insurance and thus had no value in itself so long as Mr. Reagan remained alive throughout the period of time it was in effect. It was not a guarantee of payment in the event of default but only in the event of Mr. Reagan's death. It is therefore the opinion of the Office of General Counsel that the value of Mr. Reagan's expenditure should be limited to the cost of the premium involved in the purchase of the policy or $8,420. Such valuation would not in itself cause expenditures set forth in 26 U.S.C. § 9035. *

The Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission take no action as to a violation of 26 U.S.C. § 9035 by Ronald Reagan.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. That the Commission merge MUR's 1142 and 1255.

2. That the Commission find reason to believe that the Reagan for President Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(9) and 441a(f).

3. That the Commission find reason to believe that Maxy Pope Alles, Emma Bardwell, Margaret B. Bartlett, Ruth C. Crocker, James M. Forgotson, Richard J. Green, Leonard W. Hardy, Lucille W. Herbert, Frank M. Klamt, Elsa W. Mark, L. Randolph Mason, T. Cecil Meador, Jesse B. Moore, Helen L. Moorehead, Warren N. Porter, Antoinette S. Wiking, Moran Interests, North Hollywood Glass Company, and Charles K. Fletcher have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

4. That the Commission take no action as to a violation of 26 U.S.C. § 9035 by Ronald Reagan.

5. That the attached letters and notifications be sent.

* A similar situation was present in MUR 1195 in which the complainant questioned whether a loan made to the Kennedy for President Committee by the Chemical Bank of New York had been made in the ordinary course of business. In that instance the bank required the committee to obtain insurance policies on Mr. Kennedy's health and life as a precondition for granting the loan, which was secured by the candidate's expectation of receipt of public matching funds. The MUR did not address the issue of whether the policies constituted contributions by Mr. Kennedy, and if so, what the value of such contributions would be. In the Kennedy situation the committee made the purchase, rather than the candidate as did Mr. Reagan; however, this distinction does not seem enough to warrant attributing to Mr. Reagan a contribution in the amount of the value which the policy would have had in the event of his death.

RONALD REAGAN

The Riggs National Bank of Washington, D.C.
1503 Pennsylvania Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20005

Dear Sirs:

I, Ronald Reagan, hereby request that The Riggs National Bank of Washington, D.C. ("Riggs") make a loan of $1,000,000.00 in the nature of a revolving credit to the Reagan for President Committee (the "committee") to be evidenced by the committee's promissory note or notes and supplemented by loan agreement between the committee and Riggs.

I have been informed that Riggs is unwilling to make such a loan unless I guarantee it in accordance with the terms of this letter.

In order to induce Riggs to make such a loan and extend such credit to the committee and enter into such loan agreement, and in consideration therefore, I hereby:

1. If by January 15, 1980 I have not for any reason been certified by the Federal Election Commission as eligible to receive Presidential primary matching funds under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, unconditionally and absolutely guarantee due and punctual payment of the principal of such loan and of each note issued by the committee pursuant to said loan agreement, the interest thereon and any other monies due or which may become due thereon, and the due and punctual performance and observance by the committee of all the other terms, covenants, and conditions of any such note and said loan agreement, whether according to the original terms thereof, at any earlier or accelerated date or dates as provided therein, or pursuant to any extension of time or to any change or changes in the terms, covenants and conditions thereof now or at any time hereafter made or granted.

10960 WILSHIRE BOULEVARD, LOS ANGELES, CALIFORNIA 90024

2. Waive diligence, presentment, protest, notice of dishonor, demand for payment, extension of time for payment, notice of acceptance of this guarantee, non-payment at maturity and indulgences and of notices of every kind, and consent to any and all forbearances and extension of the time of payment of any such note, and to any and all changes in the terms, covenants and conditions thereof or of said loan agreement hereafter made or granted.

3. Agree that no delay on the part of Riggs in the exercise of any rights hereunder or failure to exercise the same shall operate as a waiver of such rights, and that no notice to or demand on the maker of any promissory note shall be deemed to be a waiver of any obligation hereunder or of the rights of Riggs to take further action action without notice or demand.

4. Agree that it shall not be necessary for Riggs, to enforce this contract of guaranty, to first institute suit against the committee to recover the amount of such loan or any part thereof.

5. Agree that in the event this guaranty is placed in the hands of an attorney for enforcement, I will reimburse Riggs for all expenses incurred, including reasonable attorney's fees.

6. Agree that this guaranty shall be an unconditional continuing guaranty, and shall continue until receipt by Riggs of cancellation in writing signed by me, provided that such cancellation shall not affect my then existing liability hereunder as to indebtedness previously incurred by the committee and further provided that my continuing liability hereunder shall not exceed at any one time the amount of $1,000,000.00 plus interest and all expenses of enforcement including reasonable attorney's fees.

7. This guaranty shall become null and void and of no effect if I become eligible to receive Presidential primary matching funds under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

8. Agree that this guaranty shall inure to the benefit of and may be enforced by Riggs and its successors and assigns, and of any assignee from Riggs of such loan or any part thereof, and shall be binding upon and enforceable upon me and my personal representative and assigns.

Yours truly,

Ronald Reagan

RONALD REAGAN

Ms. Bay Buchanan, Treasurer
Reagan for President Committee

Arlington, Virginia 22204

RE: MURS 1142 and 1255

Dear Ms. Buchanan,

This letter is to notify you that the Federal Election Commission, in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, has found evidence that the Reagan for President Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 434(b)(9). In addition, the Commission has determined that MURS 1142 and 1255 are to be merged. The Commission has also decided to take no action as to a violation of 26 U.S.C. § 9035 by Ronald Reagan arising from his guarantee of a $1,000,000 loan obtained by the Reagan for President Committee from Riggs National Bank of Washington. A summary of the possible viclations is enclosed.

Under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, you have an opportunity to demonstrate in writing that no action should be taken against the Committee in connection with these matters. Your response must be submitted within 15 days of receipt of this letter. If no response is received within 15 days the Commission may take further action based on the available information.

Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of the issues with regard to which the Commission has found reason to believe that violations have occurred.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public.

If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by sending a letter of representation stating the name, address, and telephone number of such counsel, and a statement authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other recommendations from the Commission.

BACKGROUND

These matters were generated as the result of information compiled by the Reports Analysis Division during the ordinary course of review of reports submitted by the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"), and by the Audit Division during its review of the Committee's records for the period of February 26, 1979, to December 31, 1979.

In its initial referral to this Office the Reports Analysis Division found that the Committee during 1979 had apparently violated former 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(2), 434(b)(6) and 434(b)(9) and 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by failing to provide required information pertaining to itemized contributors and to fundraisers, by failing to provide sufficiently detailed particulars for and the ultimate payees of expenditures, and by accepting excessive contributions. These issues have been reviewed by the Office of General Counsel as MUR 1142. Later, the Audit Division referred to this office possible violations of 26 U.S.C. § 9035, 2 U.S.C. § 441a (a)(1)(A), 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), and 2 U.S.C. § 441b in the forms respectively of the candidate's apparent guarantee of a $1,000,000 bank loan obtained by the Committee in October, 1979, the making and acceptance of excessive contributions, and the possible involvement of an incorporated entity in the financing of a Committee fundraiser. These latter issues have been reviewed by this Office as part of MUR 1255.

A report on all issues involved in MUR 1142 was submitted to the Commission by this Office on April 15, 1980. At its April 22, 1980 meeting the Commission declined, by a vote of 3-2, to take the actions recommended by this Office, in part pending resolution of questions regarding the proper reporting of the particulars of expenditures.

Just prior to and shortly after the April 22, 1980 Commission meeting the Committee submitted information satisfying the requirements of 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(2) and 434(b)(6) and partially meeting the requirements of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) by the addition of more detailed particulars of expenditures.

The Office of General Counsel has recommended that, because of the overlapping of issues involved, the Commission merge MUR's 1142 and 1255.

LEGAL ANALYSIS

1. Failure to Report the Ultimate Payees of Expenditures

The Reports Analysis Division has determined that in its April 10, July 10, and October 10, 1979, reports the Committee failed to cite the "ultimate payees" of certain expenditures; the reports identify only persons apparently acting as Committee agents (as defined at 11 C.F.R. § 102.9(b) (2)(i)(A)) who secured certain goods and services for the Committee, not the person or vendor who actually provided such.

11 C.F.R. § 104.3(c)(3)(i) requires the itemization on committee reports of

> Each person to whom an expenditure in an aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year is made ... together with the date, amount, and purpose of such operating expenditure:

The Commission has defined "each person to whom an expenditure ... is made" as the person who provides goods and services to a committee. (See the Memorandum to the Commission from this Office dated July 19, 1980, and approved by the Commission on July 22, 1980, entitled "Can We Require Title 26 Documentation for a Title 2 Report and, If So, Have We?" for the most recent reaffirmation of this policy.) At the very least the ultimate payee should be given in the description of the expenditure's purpose, e.g., "hospitality suite at Royal Hotel".

Listed below are the expenditures at issue:

Lynn R. Fillman	Purchase of Office equipment	3/15/79	$2,600.00

* As amended on May 16, 1980

The Office of General Counsel has recommended that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9).

2. Excessive Contributions

(a) As noted in the earlier report on MUR 1142 submitted by this Office, the Reports Analysis Division determined through its review of the Committee's April 10, July 10 and October 10 reports that the Committee had accepted contributions in excess of $1000 per election from individuals for which reimbursements had not been reported as of the dates of the referrals despite notification by the Commission. This placed the Committee in apparent violation of 2 U.S.C.. § 441a(f) and the contributors in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). Additional excessive contributions were noted by RAD in the Committee's Year End Report for 1979. The Audit Division's review of Committee records through December 31, 1979, confirmed that 129 excessive contributions totaling $75,820 had been received and not refunded as of the Audit Division's review, while 61 other, apparently excessive contributions had either been brought within the statutory limits by means of attribution letters from the contributors or found to be the result of computer errors. In these latter instances the Committee's reports had not yet been amended.

Since the review by the Audit Division the Committee has reported reattributions, refunds or corrections of computer errors for a number of the contributions received in 1979 and identified as being apparently excessive by either RAD or the Audit Division. Eleven of the thirteen refunds of 1979 contributions were made in May, 1980. More recently, on August 28, 1980, the Committee submitted responses to two RFAI's detailing similar information for persons who have made contributions in both 1979 and 1980. Refunds in these instances were made in August, 1980.

Individual contributors who, according to Committee responses to RFAI's have apparently exceeded the contribution limitation by more than $1000 are listed below. As will be noted, some have exceeded the limitation by over $1000 solely on the basis of their 1979 contributions and thus were included in the figures cited in the interim Audit Report with regard to excessive contributions, while others have gone over the limitation by this much as a result of a combination of their 1979 and 1980 contributions.

* The Committee originally reported this excessive contribution in its October 10, 1979, report and noted that a refund would be made that month. The same notation was made with regard to other excessive contributions of lesser amounts which were later reported as reattributed or refunded or both in the Committee's amendments of May 21, 1980.

Examination of the findings made by the Audit Division during the threshold audit and of RFAI responses has revealed that by December 31, 1979, thirty-three other individuals had apparently exceeded the contribution limitation by $1000 exactly, while nine additional persons apparently exceeded the limitation by $1000 as a result of a combination of their 1979 and 1980 contributions. Numerous additional individuals have exceeded the limitation by lesser amounts. *

11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b) requires that contributions which appear to be illegal shall be returned to the contributor within 10 days of receipt or, if deposited, shall be noted as being possibly illegal. If the contributions' legality cannot later be established, they are to be refunded "within a reasonable time. In the above listed instances the Committee's refunds were made at a minumum of five months after the date of receipt of the contribution which caused the contributor to exceed his or her limitation. In certain cases as much a a year passed before such a refund was made. Such lapses of time do not appear to be "reasonable".

(b) Another apparently excessive contribution was made in the form of a check for $6000 drawn on Moran Interests, a partnership. It is the Committee's position that so long as each of the six partners agrees to an attribution of a $1000 share in the contribution, no limitation has been exceeded. The Committee bases its position on its reading of 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(e) which states:

> A contribution by a partnership shall
> (1) Be attributed to each partner in direct proportion to his or her share in the partnership profits ...; or
> (2) Be attributed by agreement of the parties, ...

* Several additional individuals who appear to have contributed amounts which exceed the contribution limitations by more than $1000 have been identified by the Audit Division and, dependent upon the Committee's response to the final threshold audit report just approved by the Commission, may be added to the above listing at a later date.

However, 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) states that "(n)o person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1000." 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) (formerly 2 U.S.C.. § 431(h)) defines "person" as including "an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, labor organization, or any other organization or group of persons...." Therefore, partnership contributions come within the limitations set forth in Section 441a(a)(1)(A). (See also 11 C.F.R. § 9034.2(c)(4)(iii)) Moran Interests has apparently violated 2 U.S.C. 441a(a)(1)(A).

(c) In yet another instance the auditors found that expenses totaling $5680.60 for a fundraising event on behalf of Ronald Reagan held on October 11, 1979, had been paid for by the North Hollywood Glass Co., an unincorporated business entity. The company met these expenses between August 31 and October 18, 1979, billed the Committee on October 31, 1979 and was reimbursed on December 3, 1979.

2 U.S.C. § 431(a)(8)(i) defines "contribution" to include "any gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money ... made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office." As noted above, 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) includes in its definition of "person" "any other organization or group of persons", thereby including an unincorporated business entity. The expenditures made by the North Hollywood Glass Co. on behalf of Ronald Reagan constituted, until reimbursed, an advance and thus a contribution. These expenditures exceeded the statutory limitation of $1000 per person per election, thereby placing the company in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

(d) The auditors also found that a group of persons in Hawaii organized a fundraising event on behalf of Ronald Reagan which was held on September 4, 1979. One of these persons, Charles K. Fletcher, paid $5000 of a $12,000 advance deposit to Hilton Hawaiian Village on August 30, 1979, in conjunction with the event. On January 25, 1980, the Committee reimbursed Mr. Fletcher, the lateness of the reimbursement allegedly being due to lack of knowledge on the Committee's part. (In its monthly report of January expenditures the Committee reported a $5000 payment to Charles K. Fletcher for "professional services").

As noted above, an advance of monies for the purpose of influencing a federal election constitutes a contribution. Therefore Charles K. Fletcher has apparently violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a (a)(1)(A).

The Audit Division has posed questions concerning the possible involvement of Pioneer Properties, Inc., in the above advance of $5000 in light of Mr. Fletcher's employment by that corporation and the fact that the group of persons who organized the fundraiser reimbursed the corporation for the use of office space. This Office the fact that the group of persons who organized the fundraiser reimbursed the corporation for the use of office space. This Office finds that at present there is insufficient evidence to indicate any corporate involvement in the advance, but will attempt to ascertain whether such existed during its investigation of Mr. Fletcher's apparent violation.

* On February 12, 1980, Mr. Fletcher sent to the Committee a check for $1401.60 which represented a refund for a like amount received by him from the Hilton Hawaiian Village.

The Office of General Counsel has recommended that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting excessive contributions and that the individual contributors listed in subsection (a) above, the North Hollywood Glass Co., Moran Interests and Charles K. Fletcher have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

3. Expenditure by Candidate

On October 11, 1979, the Committee entered into a loan and security agreement with The Riggs National Bank of Washington, D.C. ("Riggs") pursuant to which Riggs made a loan of $1,000,000 to the Committee in the form of a revolving line of credit for the period between October 11, 1979, and May 31, 1980. The agreement provided that the loan would be secured by an assignment of all Committee interests in the Presidential primary matching funds to which the Committee or the candidate might become entitled and by all deposits of the Committee in Riggs. The interest rate to be charged was to be at a rate equal to the rate charged by Riggs for prime commercial loans of 90-day maturities. The principal was to be payable on June 30, 1980, and the first interest payment on December 31, 1979. On October 19, 1979, Ronald Reagan and the treasurer of the Committee signed an "Assignment and Grant of Security Interest" to Riggs of all Presidential primary matching funds to which either Mr. Reagan or the Committee was at that time entitled or to which they would later become entitled. The first advance on the loan was made to the Committee on October 11, 1979, in the sum of $400,000. Subsequent advances were made on November 1, November 5 and November 8, 1979, bringing the total to $1,000,000.

On January 14, 1980, an amendment to the loan agreement was apparently executed. This amendment increased the amount of the loan to $2,000,000. A second "Assignment and Grant of Security Interest" to Riggs of primary matching funds was also signed at that time.

On September 18, 1979, prior to the signing of the loan and security agreements, Ronald Reagan submitted a letter to Riggs. In this letter Mr. Reagan stated that he had been informed that Riggs was unwilling to make the loan of $1,000,000 to the Committee without his guarantee. He agreed that if he had not been certified to receive primary matching funds by January 15, 1980, he would "unconditionally and absolutely guarantee due and punctual payment of the principal of such loan and of each note issued by the committee pursuant to said loan agreement, the interest thereon and any other monies due or which may become due thereon...." He stated that "(t)his guaranty shall become null and void and of no effect if I become eligible to receive Presidential primary matching funds under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971." Mr. Reagan also purchased a $1,000,000 life insurance policy on October 24, 1979, which cites Riggs as the primary beneficiary. He also assigned to Riggs his interest in the policy as "collateral security", apparently for the loan. Neither the letter of guarantee nor the life insurance policy are mentioned in the loan agreement signed on October 11, 1979, nor in the amendment to that agreement.

The Presidential Primary Matching Fund Act contains no definition of "expenditure", nor do the Commission's regulations with regard to the public funding of primary elections. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, has defined "expenditure" to include a "purchase, payment, distribution, loan, advance, deposit, or gift of money or anything of value, made for the purpose of influencing the nomination for election, or the election, of any person to Federal office ...." (Former 2 U.S.C. § 431(f); see also 2 U.S.C. § 431(9)(A)). The Commission's regulations in effect in October of 1979 defined "payment" to include "a guarantee or endorsement by a candidate or a political committee of a loan". (Former 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(b)(i)(B); presently 11 C.F.R. § 100.8 (a)(1)(i)). Although it is clear that the execution of the guarantee is an expenditure for purposes of former 2 U.S.C. § 431(f), whether the execution of the guarantee constituted a qualified campaign expense by Mr. Reagan in connection with his campaign for nomination to the Office of President, in violation of 26 U.S.C. § 9035, is less clear.

On January 10, 1980, Ronald Reagan certified to the Commission that he and his committee had not and would not make qualified campaign expenses "in excess of the limitations of such expenses under 26 U.S.C. § 9035." On January 14, 1980, the Commission certified to Treasury Mr. Reagan's eligibility to receive matching funds. The Commission prescribed regulations on February 15, 1980, which clarified that a candidate and his or her authorized committee shall certify that they have not incurred and will not incur expenditures in connection with the candidate's campaign for nomination in excess of 11 C.F.R. § 9035. See 11 C.F.R. § 9033.2(b). Prior to the prescription of that regulation, the statute and regulations only stated that the candidate will not incur qualified campaign expenses in excess of $50,000. Since it was not until February 15, 1980, that the regulation made it clear that a candidate could not make expenditures in excess of $50,000 prior to certification for eligibility, the Office of General Counsel recommends that no action be taken as to the personal guarantee of Ronald Reagan.

Mr. Reagan's purchase of the life insurance policy constituted an actual rather than a conditional expenditure on his part. The policy was something "of value" obtained by Mr. Reagan for purposes of influencing his campaign. The question then becomes one of the valuation of that policy and thus of the expenditure. The policy involved remained alive throughout the period of time it was in effect. It was not a guarantee of payment in the event of default but only in the event of Mr. Reagan's death. It is therefore the opinion of the Office of General Counsel that the value of Mr. Reagan's expenditure should be limited to the cost of the premium involved in the purchase of the policy or $8,420. Such valuation would not in itself cause expenditures set forth in 26 U.S.C. § 9035. *

The Office of General Counsel has recommended that the Commission take no action as to a violation of 26 U.S.C. § 9035 by Ronald Reagan.

COMMISSION DETERMINATIONS

Based on the above analyses the Federal Election Commission has determined

1. That MUR's 1142 and 1255 are to be merged.

2. That there is reason to believe that the Reagan for President Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(9) and 441a(f).

3. That there is reason to believe that Maxy Pope Alles, Emma Bardwell, Margaret B. Bartlett, Ruth C. Crocker, James M. Forgotson, Richard J. Green, Leonard W. Hardy, Lucille W. Herbert, Frank M. Klamt, Elsa W. Mark, L. Randolph Mason, T. Cecil Meador, Jesse B. Moore, Helen L. Moorehead, Warren N. Porter, Antoinette S. Wiking, Moran Interests, North Hollywood Glass Company, and Charles K. Fletcher have violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

4. That no action is to be taken as to a violation of 26 U.S.C. § 9035 by Ronald Reagan.

* A similar situation was present in MUR 1195 in which the complainant questioned whether a loan made to the Kennedy for President Committee by the Chemical Bank of New York had been made in the ordinary course of business. In that instance the bank required the committee to obtain insurance policies on Mr. Kennedy's health and life as a precondition for granting the loan, which was secured by the candidate's expectation of receipt of public matching funds. The MUR did not address the issue of whether the policies constituted contributions by Mr. Kennedy, and if so, what the value of such contributions would be. In the Kennedy situation the committee made the purchase, rather than the candidate as did Mr. Reagan; however, this distinction does not seem enough to warrant attributing to Mr. Reagan a contribution in the amount of the value which the policy would have had in the event of his death.

BACKGROUND

This matter was generated as the result of information compiled by the Audit Division during the ordinary course of its review of the records of the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"). The Audit Division has found evidence that Moran Interests contributed $6000 to the Committee in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Committee's records show that a $6000 contribution has been received which was made by means of a check drawn on Moran Interests, a partnership.

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) states that "(n)o person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1000. 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) (formerly 2 U.S.C. § 431(h)) defines "person" as including "an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, labor organization, or any other organization or group of persons. . . " Therefore, partnership contributions come within the limitations set forth in Section 441a(a)(1)(A).

Based on the above analysis, the Federal Election Commission has found reason to believe that Moran Interests has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

BACKGROUND

This matter was generated as the result of information compiled by the Audit Division during the ordinary course of its review of the records of the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"). The Audit Division has found evidence that the North Hollywood Glass Co. contributed $5,680.60 to the Committee in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Audit Division has found that your company paid expenses totaling $5,680.60 for a fundraiser event on behalf of Ronald Reagan which was held on October 11, 1979. It is understood that you billed the Committee on October 31, 1979, and were reimbursed on December 3, 1979.

2 U.S.C. § 431(a)(8)(i) defines "contribution" to include "any gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money ... made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office. As noted above, 2 U.S.C. § 431(11) includes in its definition of "person" "any other organization or group of persons", thereby including an unincorporated business entity. Thus the expenditures made by the North Hollywood Glass Co. on behalf of Ronald Reagan constituted, until reimbursed, an advance and thus a contribution. These expenditures exceeded the statutory limitation of $1000 per person per election, thereby placing the company in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

Based on the foregoing analysis, the Federal Election Commission has found:

Reason to believe that the North Hollywood Glass Company has violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A)

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

The Committee's records show that on March 26, 1979, you contributed $1000, and that you later contributed $1000 on May 22, 1979 and $250 on September 25, 1979. 2 U.S.C. § 441a (a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to federal candidates to $1000 per election.

May Monthly Report (4/1/80 - 4/30/80)
June Monthly Report (5/1/80 - 5/31/80)

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of your reports. The review raised certain questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures and to the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act (the Act). An itemization of these areas follows:

The review of your reports discloses contributions which appear to exceed the limits set forth in 2 U.S.C. Section 441a (Attachment A). These contributions are in addition to those identified in previous letters from the Commission.

The Act precludes an individual or a political committee, other than a multicandidate committee, from making contributions to a candidate for Federal office in excess of $1,000 per election. If you have received contributions which exceed the limits, the Commission recommends that you refund to the donor the amounts in excess of $1,000. The return of the contributions should be reported immediately by letter and the refunds should appear on Schedule B-P for Line 27a in your next report. If you find that the contributions in question were disclosed improperly or incorrectly, please amend your reports to provide the clarifying information.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of excessive contributions, your prompt refund of the excessive amounts to the donors will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

The review of your May and June Monthly reports discloses contributions which appear to be in violation of 2 U.S.C. Section 441b (Attachment B). You are advised that contributions from corporations are prohibited by 2 U.S.C. Section 441b, unless made from separate segregated funds established by the corporations.

The Commission recommends that if you have received prohibited contributions, you refund the full amounts to the donors. You should notify the Commission immediately of your determination in this matter. The return of the contributions should be reported immediately by letter and should be disclosed as contribution refunds on Schedule B-P for Line 27a on your next report.

If you find that the sources of these contributions are permissible under the Act, please submit a statement for the public record which would clarify the sources and the exact nature of the amounts upon which the checks were drawn. If the sources of the contributions have been disclosed incompletely or incorrectly, please amend your original report to clarify the matter.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps in this matter, your prompt refund of any impermissible funds and response will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

In the Committee's April Monthly report you disclose on Schedule A-P for Line 18b an earmarked contribution from Concerned Citizen's Fund on 3/11/80 from Robert W. Dove. The amount contributed has been omitted. Please amend your report to disclose the amount of the contribution.

The Committee reports receipts in its May Monthly report that are up to three months outside of the reporting period. Please explain this time lag for the public record.

Amendments to your original reports correcting the above matters, and your statements regarding the possible acceptance of excessive and corporate contributions should be filed with the Commission within fifteen (15) days of the date of this notice. If you have any questions, please contact Chadwick R. Gore in our Reports Analysis Divison on the toll-free number, (800)424-9530. The local number is (202)523-4048.

MUR No. 1142

DATE OF ORIGINAL REFERRAL 1/11/80

PURPOSE:

This update is to inform Counsel's Office that the Reagan for President Committee has responded in part to the Request for Additional Information for the March 20 Monthly Report (2/1/80 - 2/29/80).

The response addresses expenditures only; there is no mention of the contributions which appear to be excessive. In addition, the committee's response to our request to clarify "Field Expenses" and "General Expenses" is quoted here:

"A more accurate description of 'Field Expenses" would be Professional Fees."

This statement does not address the question of "General Expenses" and still leaves doubt as to the clarity of "Professional Fees." This heading for "purpose" of expenditure has not been completely described as requested in prior RFAIs from RAD.

OUTCOME: (if applicable)

Attachment: Letter Response to RFAI from Reagan for President Committee - Received August 20, 1980.

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's review of your report. The report raised questions as to specific expenditures and to the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act (the Act). An itemization of these areas follows:

The committee discloses four expenditures on page 69, Line 24a, with a purpose of "Field Services" totaling $1,600. The committee also uses the purpose, "Partial Repayment of Expenses," on page 33, Line 24a. Such terms do not meet the requirements of 11 CFR 104.3(b)(4). Please amend your report to clarify the above terms to meet the criteria of 11 CFR 104.3(b)(4).

The following expenditures disclosed on the April monthly report need clarification as to the purposes and the identification of the ultimate payee(s). Specifically, the expenditures appear to have been made to agents acting on behalf of the committee since the associative property of a recognizable vendor of the goods and/or services described is lacking. If these expenditures were made to committee agents, please amend your report to disclose the ultimate recipients and purposes in accordance with 2 U.S.C. 434(b)(5):

p. 51, line 24a	Fran Griffin	Reimbursement for travel and furniture rental	3/25/80	$1,064.36
p. 156, line 24a	Howard Dunn	Reimbursement for equipment rental and rally expenses	3/24/80	$ 431.30

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of your 1979 and 1980 reports. The review raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures and to the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act (the Act). An itemization of these areas follows:

The review of your 1979 reports discloses contributions which appear to exceed the limits set forth in 2 U.S.C. 441a (pertinent schedules attached). These contributions are in addition to those identified in previous letters from the Commission.

The Act precludes an individual or a political committee, other than a multi-candidate committee, from making contributions to a candidate for Federal office in excess of $1,000 per election. If you have received contributions which exceed the limits, the Commission recommends that you refund to the donors the amounts in excess of $1,000. The return of the contributions should be reported immediately by letter and the refunds should appear on Schedule B-P for Line 27a in your next report. If you find that the contributions in question were disclosed improperly or incompletely, please amend your reports to provide the clarifying information.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of excessive contributions, your prompt refund of the excessive amounts to the donors will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

11 CFR 104.3(b)(4)(i) requires the name of each person to whom an expenditure in an aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year is made by the reporting committee to meet the committee's operating expenses, together with the date, amount and purpose of each expenditure. Please provide for the following expenditures purposes which were not disclosed in your report.

p. 4/Line 24a	Prudential Insurance Co. (include date & amount)
p. 55/Line 24a	Dragin Enterprises	2/25/80	$ 366.44
p. 55/Line 24a	David C. Hamblett	2/21/80	$3,500.00

p. 153/Line 24a	Gerald Sears West	2/2/80	$303.00
p. 196/Line 24a	John Meyers	2/14/80	$106.60
p. 231/Line 24a	RMRS System	2/22/80	$400.00

The committee discloses 31 expenditures on pages 108 through 112, inclusive, Line 24a, with a purpose of "Field Services" totaling $31,003.33. The committee also uses the term "general expenses" for various itemized expenditures on Line 24a. Such terms, "Field Services" and "general expenses," do not meet the requirements of 11 CFR 104.3(b)(4). Please amend your report to clarify the above terms to meet the criteria of 11 CFR 104.3(b)(4).

The following expenditures disclosed on the March monthly report need clarification as to the purposes and the identification of the ultimate payee(s). Specifically, the expenditures appear to have been made to agents acting on behalf of the committee since the associative property of a recognizable vendor of the goods and/or services described is lacking. If these expenditures were made to committee agents, please amend your report to disclose the ultimate recipients and purposes in accordance with 2 U.S.C. 434(b)(5).

p. 34/Line 24a	John Alderson Reimbursed for mileage, events, telephone, printing & supplies	2/14/80	$2,301.56
p. 41/Line 24a	Francis McGinnis Reimbursed for fund-raising	2/20/80	$ 530.00
p. 213/Line 24a	Judy B. Bewley Reimbursed for expenses	2/5/80	$ 252.06
p. 214/Line 24a	Judy B. Bewley Reimbursed for travel & rally expenses	2/12/80	$2,314.17
p. 215/Line 24a	Judy B. Bewley Reimbursed for rally expenses	2/19/80	$ 600.00

Amendments to your original reports correcting the above matters, and your statement regarding the possible acceptance of excessive contributions, should be filed with the Commission within fifteen (15) days of the date of this notice. If you have any questions, please contact Chadwick R. Gore in our Reports Analysis Division on the toll-free number, (800) 424-9530. The local nubmer is (202) 523-4048.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Haselhorst

INTERIM REPORT

At its Executive Session of April 22, 1980, the Commission did not approve the recommendations included in the First General Counsel's Report on the above-captioned matter. Thereafter, the Commission directed the Office of General Counsel to prepare a memorandum to all Commissioners dealing with disclosure requirements with respect to the ultimate recipient of committee expenditures.

This office has spent considerable time over the past several weeks in preparing this memorandum, and anticipates having a comprehensive document to the Commission by June 24, 1980. After the issues treated in the memorandum are resolved, the Office of General Counsel will be prepared to submit its recommendations to the Commission.

Since the Executive Session of April 22, 1980, the Reports Analysis Division has referred two updates on MUR 1142 based on responses of the Reagan for President Committee to Commission Requests For Additional Information. Further reports and recommendations will be based on all information received, as well as on resolved policy matters.

MUR No. 1142

DATE OF ORIGINAL REFERRAL 1-11-80

This MUR Update is to inform the General Counsel's Office that the Reagan for President Committee on May 27, 1980, responded to the Commission's letter to the Committee of March 24, 1980. (Attachments 1 & 2 respectively)

The Committee states that "questions concerning receipts are clarified in the attachment." This is so, but there are certain entries that either leave the matter unresolved or raise new questions that need to be addressed.

1. Mr. Leonard Robin - originally appeared in the July 10, 1979, Report as 6/28/79, $1,000. Again appeared in the Year End Report as 10/12/79, $1,000. The Committee's amendment reports that a refund was made to Mr. Robin on 11/26/79 in the amount of $1,000. A review of the Schedules A-P for Line 27a for the Committee's Year End Report (Attachment 3) on which the refund should have been itemized fails to show any such refund. Since there are no unitemized refunds and the reported refund fails to appear in the itemized refunds it appears that the Committee failed to itemize the refund.
2. Mr. Neil Papiano - originally appeared in the July 10, 1979, Report as 5/03/79, $1,000. Again appeared in the Year End Report as 10/26/79, $1,000. There is no itemized refund reported in any of the Committee's reports and the amendment reports "Information Pending." This is an inadequate response to the RFAI.
3. Mr. Harvey Koelln - originally appeared in the July 10, 1979, Report as 6/5/79, $250. Again appeared in the October 10, 1979, Report as 9/21/79, $800. The amendment reports that the refund of $50 was made on 5/7/80, eight months after the excessive contribution was made. Is this a timely refund?
4. Miss Helen L. Moorehead - This contributor has a rather lenghthy contribution history which can be seen at page 11 of the committee's amendment (attachment 1). Miss Moorehead became excessive on 9/18/79. The total refund was made 5/12/80 in the amount of $1225, eight months after the excessive contribution was received. Is this a timely refund?
5. Mr. Russell S. Britton III - Mr. Britton contributed $25 on 6/1/79, the Committee amendment reports, and appeared in the Year End Report with an aggregate total of $1100. The Committee reports a refund of $125 on 5/16/80. The Committee failed to properly keep track of the individuals limit from the period of the July 10, 1979, Report through the Year End Report or they would have disclosed an aggregate of $1125. The Committee made a refund a full seven months after the individual limit was exceeded. Is this a timely refund?

6. Co-Operative Sav Loan Assoc. - This contribution was reported in the Committee's Year End Report. The RFAI requested that the Committee attribute the contribution to the proper individual. As of May 27, 1980, two months after the information was requested, the Committee's response is "Information Pending." This is an inadequate response.

In the amendment's final paragraph, the Treasurer states that "Once again you request that the contribution refunds correspond to the original contributions. Since refunds must be itemized and only some contributions are itemized, this is not possible, nor is it required." First, the Treasurer misses the point that not all refunds are required to be itemized. Second, the Treasurer fails to realize or address those corporate contributions which are required to be itemized that the Committee failed to itemize. Those which should have been itemized specifically in this report are:

1.	Jack Hupp & Assoc.	1/28/80-refund	$1,000
2.	Peotome Machine Company	1/28/80-refund	$ 250
3.	Rips Opticians	1/28/80-refund	$1,000
4.	Sterling Engineering & Surveying Company	1/28/80-refund	$1,000

The Committee's system of failing to itemize the corporate receipts has hidden the timeliness of the refund and has failed to comply with 2 U.S.C. 441b, 434(b)(3)(A). It may be appropriate to apply the standards of 2 U.S.C. 437g(a)(5)(B) in the process of making a determination in this matter.

While there are portions of this amendment that are adequate, the Committee has failed to properly amend their reports, including all supporting schedules and all Detailed Summary and Summary Pages. The MUR recommendations should include recommendations that the Committee properly amend their reports as appropriate.

The Office of General Counsel should make note that the Audit Workpapers are currently in the Office and may provide background information on some of the matters in this MUR. Certainly the Treasurer of the Committee has referred RAD to consult the Audit sources. The Commission may want to inform the Treasurer that the Audit papers and the findings of the Audit are not neccessarily on the public record, and that referring to them in a respose to an RFAI may bring attention to matters that are not meant to be on the public record at this time.

Dear Mr. Haselhorst,

This letter is in response to your letter dated March 24, 1980 requesting additional information. Questions concerning receipts are clarified in the attachment.

As for principal place of business and occupation, Reagan for President requests this information on all its direct mail solicitations and reports it whenever provided by the contributor.

Once again you request that contribution refunds correspond to the original contributions. Since refunds must be itemized and only some contributions are itemized, this is not possible, nor is it required. Records document every refund and these records are available to your audit staff.

If there are any other questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

24 March 1980

Ms. Bay Buchanan, Treasurer
Reagan for President (C00108308)
9341 Airport Boulevard, Suite 1430
Los Angeles, California 90045

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of your 1979 and 1980 reports. The review raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures and to the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act, (the Act). An itemization of these areas follows:

The review of your 1979 reports discloses contributions which appear to exceed the limits set forth in 2 U.S.C. 441a (pertinent schedules attached). These contributions are in addition to those identified in previous letters from the Commission.

The Act precludes an individual or a political committee, other than a multi-candidate committee, from making contributions to a candidate for Federal office in excess of $1,000 per election. If you have received contributions which exceed the limits, the Commission recommends that you refund to the donors the amounts in excess of $1,000. The return of the contributions should be reported immediately by letter and the refunds should appear on Schedule B-P for Line 27a in your next report. If you find that the contributions in question were disclosed improperly or incompletely, please amend your reports to provide the clarifying information.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of excessive contributions, your prompt refund of the excessive amounts to the donors will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

2 U.S.C. 434(b) requires the identification of each person who makes a contribution to the reporting committee during the reporting period, whose contribution or contributions have an aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year, or in any lesser amount if the reporting committee should so choose, together with the date and amount of any such contribution. 2 U.S.C. 431(13) defines identification to be, "in the case of an individual, the name, the mailing address, and the occupation of such individual, as well as the name of his or her employer." Your February Monthly Report fails to provide occupations for 29 percent of the contributors (182 of 628) and the name of employer for 60 percent of the contributors (376 of 628). These occupations and names of employers, or evidence of your efforts to obtain this information from the contributors, are requested by the Commission.

On Schedule A-P for Line 17a of your Year-End Report, you disclose a contribution received from Co Operative Sav Loan Assoc (page 59) for $1,000. Please clarify these entries to provide the full names, mailing addresses, occupations, names of employers, aggregate year-to-date totals and the amount contributed by the individual to whom the contributions should be attributed.

The committee discloses several corporate check refunds on Schedule B-P for Line 27a in the February Monthly Report but does not disclose the corresponding receipts. Please amend your report to disclose the receipt of these funds on Schedule A-P for Line 17a. If the contribution refunds were improperly reported, please amend your report to clarify the matter for the public record.

Amendments to your original reports correcting the above matters, and your statement regarding the possible acceptance of excessive contributions, should be filed with the Commission within fifteen (15) days of the date of this notice. Be advised that 11 C.F.R. 104.2(b)(9) requires that the "particulars" be provided for each expenditure which exceeds $100 in the aggregate to a single payee. Payee means the ultimate recipient of the monies expended, not an agent of the committee who expends the monies. Where applicable you are asked to amend your report to disclose the ultimate recipients of the monies involved in the expenditures underlined above. In addition, provide more details as to the purposes of these expenditures; those provided are too vague.

The following information is requested by the Commission:

4. 2 U.S.C. 434(b) and 11 C.F.R. 104.2(b) require the identification, occupation, and principal place of business, if any, of each person who has made a contribution to or for a committee or candidate in an amount or value in excess of $100, or in an amount less than $100 if the person's contributions within a calendar year total more than $100, together with the amount and the date of each contribution. 11 C.F.R. 100.12 defines "Principal Place of Business" as "the full name under which the business is conducted and the city and state in which the person is employed or conducts business". Your report omits this information in 45% of the entries (333 of 734 entries). 35% were deemed inadequate because only an address was provided (260 of 734 entries). Therefore, 80% of the principal places of business were either omitted or inadequate and are requested by the Commission. 11 C.F.R. 100.11 defines "Occupation" as "principal job title or position and whether or not self-employed". Your report omits this information in 41% of the entries (303 of 734 entries). Please provide the Commission the information requested or evidence of your efforts to obtain the information from the contributors.

5. Contributions reported by your committee and grouped by receipt date, city, and state indicate that fundraising activity has occurred in the following locations on or about the date indicated:

Kansas City, Kansas	4-11-79
Indianapolis, Indiana	5-31-79
Metropolitan New York	6-18-79
Rapid City South Dakota	6-18-79
Los Angeles, California	6-28-79

The following expenditures are some of the items disclosed on Schedule B-P for Line 24a that also indicate that fundraising activity has taken place during the reporting period:

Franklyn C. Nofziger	reimbursed fundraising expenses	4-2-79	$ 104.00
Ms. VonDamm	fundraising	4-3-79	24.82

Travalodge	California Luncheon	6-8-79	1422.12
Jeff Hulick	reception	6-8-79	525.00

Federal Express Corp.	fundraising expenses	6-13-79	20.43
Host Airport Hotel	banquet	6-19-79	380.80
Hunt Valley Inn	reception 5-11-79	5-16-79	375.88
35 In-Kind Contributions	Minneapolis, MN luncheon	4-9-79	975.00

If the receipts grouped above were from fundraisers, or if the expenditures above were for fundraisers, be advised that 11 C.F.R. 104.2(b)(6) requires the disclosure of all fundraising events to include the dates, locations of the events, and the total gross proceeds of each event. This information should be reported on Schedule D-P and the total entered on Line 17c of the Detailed Summary Page as a memo entry. Receipts from individuals should be itemized in the appropriate manner. All receipts from political committees should be itemized on Schedule A-P for Line 18b regardless of the amount. Amend your report to disclose any and all fundraisers which your committee or agents of your committee have held. If no fundraisers have been held, so state.

MUR No. 1142

This Mur Update is to inform the Office of General Counsel that the Reagan for President Committee responded on May 27, 1980, to the Commission's letter to the Committee of February 29, 1980. (Attachments 1 & 2 respectively)

The Committee states in para #2 that the "questions concerning receipts are clarified in the attachment..." This is true in regards to certain contributors, but there are some apparent contributions that are either not addressed, or the manner of addressing them raises new questions and concerns. The committee fails to address the possible excessive contributions attributed to Richard Williams (micro #80031055371) and John L. Moriarity (micro #80031055342).

In the Committee's attachment is listed the resolution of the apparent excessive contributions. The following raise certain questions:

1. Forrest C. Lattner - originally appeared in the July 10, 1979, Report as 6/5/79, $2500.00, "EXCESS CONTRIBUTION REFUNDED IN JULY"(1979). This amendment reports that the actual refund was made 5/12/80.
2. Lester B. Whittlesey - originally appeared in the October 10, 1979, Report as 7/26/79, $100.00 and 8/7/79, $1,000.00, "EXCESS CONTRIBUTION BEING REFUNDED IN OCTOBER"(1979). This amendment reports that the actual refund was made 5/16/80.
3. Mrs. Maxy Pope Alles - originally appeared with an aggregate contribution total of $2250.00 as of 9/28/79 in the Committee's October 10, 1979, Report and noted as "EXCESS CONTRIBUTION BEING REFUNDED IN OCTOBER"(1979). This amendment reports that the refund was made 5/12/80.
4. Mrs. Jean C. Peterson - originally appeared with an aggregate contribution total of $1,075.00 as of 9/28/79 in the Committee's October 10, 1979, Report and noted as "EXCESS CONTRIBUTION BEING REFUNDED IN OCTOBER"(1979). This amendment reports that the actual refund was made 5/12/80.
5. G. Cal Setzer - originally appeared with an aggregate contribution total of $1050.00 as of 7/20/79 in the Committee's October 10, 1979, Report and noted as "EXCESS CONTRIBUTION BEING REFUNDED IN OCTOBER"(1979). This amendment reports that the actual refund was made 5/16/80.

The point of this list is to point out the significant lag time between the Committee's receipt of the excessive contributions, the notification by the Commission that the contribution might have been excessive, and the subsequent refund of the excess. The fact that the Committee printed erroneous and misleading statementsin its reports complicates the matter. These statements indicate that the Committee was aware at the time of the report that the contributions were excessive. The statements also indicate to the public that the Committee was in compliance and was not using the prohibited funds. It should be noted that the lag time varies from eleven to eight months. Thus the Committee had the appearance of compliance on the Public Record, and possibly failed to comply.

In addition to the matter addressed above, the last paragraph of the Committee's letter states that "All contributions to Reagan for President from individuals who aggregate more than $100.00 ($200.00 in 1980) are itemized." The Committee then goes on to explain that all refunds are properly itemized if over the proper dollar threshold, but that if under the threshold the committee does not itemize either the receipt or the refund. As can be seen in a breif review of the Detailed Summary Pages and the attached Schedules A-P (Attachment 3), the Committee has not reported any substantive unitemized refunds on Line 27b. The total unitemized refunds total fifteen dollars as of 4/31/80. The Committee has also itemized Corporate Refunds that are as great as $3,000.00 and as small as $5.00, obviously not in accord with the guidelines as stated by the letter from the Committee. None of these reported Corporate Refunds have been reported as itemized receipts, the total of which is $14,315.00. Thus the Committee is in error in assuming that none of these receipts are itemizable.

The two previous paragraphs are linked in several ways. First, 2 U.S.C. Section 431(11) defines person to include "an individual, partnership, committee, association, corporation, ..." Thus the disclosure of the receipts from corporations and from individuals is to take the same form. The Committee has failed to/performed the following:

1. Report the receipt of corporate contributions. This is mitigated by the disclosure of a refund and hides the disclosure of the timeliness of the refund and thus also whether the Committee used the money received from the Corporations.
2. Failed to report the refund of contributions(total unitemized campaign-to-date= $15.00.
3. Placed statements on the public record that indicate compliance with the Act that have subsequently been shown to be false by the Committee's own statements. This is in specific regard to the reporting statements of refunds in October and July.

The questions that arise in the review of this material center around 2 U.S.C. Sections 441a(f), 441b, 434(b)(3)(A), and 434(b)(4)(F).

It may be appropriate to consider the application of the standards of "knowing and willful" as applied in 2 U.S.C. 437g(a)(5)(B). The Committee appears to have been aware that the receipts from the corporations were prohibited and selectively left them off of the itemized receipts. The Committee was also aware of excessive contributions and then took from eight to eleven months to make the refunds.

The Committee fails to address para #8 of the Request for Additional Information which asks for clarification of a $99,801 error. RAD feels that this is definitely a significant error and requires an answer for the public record.

In para #3 of the Committee's response the Committee indicates that a particular vendor, Deaver & Hannaford, provides a variety of services to the Committee. The Committee then contends that the items referred to in para #8 requiring the ultimate payee need no further clarification. We feel that the terms used by the Committee for these items are vague and unacceptable with regard to the ultimate payee(see page 3, para #4, of the Request for Additional Information). The terms used fall into the same category as those defined as unacceptable in 11 CFR 104.3(b)(4)(i)(A).

Dear Mr. Haselhorst,

This letter is in response to your letter dated February 29, 1980 and requesting additional information for reports filed for year 1979.

Questions concerning receipts are clarified in the attachment with the exception of your concern for principal place of business and occupation. Reagan for President requests this information in all direct mail solicitations and it is reported whenever provided by the contributor.

Responses to additional information on expenditures is as follows.

(1) DEAVER & HANNAFORD — 10/15/79 — $17,965.00
Reimbursement for air transportation, food, lodging, miscellaneous travel, telephone and other office expenses.

(2) IMERO FIORENTINO ASSOC. — 11/13/79 — $1,175.00
Creative services, production, personnel & production supplies.

(3) A cashiers check was obtained from the United California Bank and sent to the following:

THE BOSTON GLOBE William T. Morrisey Blvd. Boston, MA 02125	Newspaper advertising	$4,207.50

RECEIVED

'80 MAY 27 PM 12:05

(4) NORTH HOLLYWOOD GLASS — 12/03/79 — $5,680.60
Reimbursement for printing, postage, personnel, equipment rental & catering expenses.

(5) The cash of $460.00 received by Lynn Woods on November 13, 1979 was expended at Governor Reagan's NY Announcement Dinner. Thirteen people were hired to help out at the dinner and were paid in cash for their services. Eight of these individuals received $25.00, while the remaining five received $50.00 each.

You indicated that four expenditures reported by Reagan for President may need clarification. It is our position that they do not.

All contributions to Reagan for President from individuals who aggregate more than $100.00 ($200.00 in 1980) are itemized. Otherwise the contributions are reported under the category "unitemized". If a contribution received is later identified as corporate or excessive it is refunded and each one properly itemized on Line 27A, "Loans, Loan Repayments, and Contribution Refunds Made". Since not all contribution refunds correspond to an itemized contribution it is not possible to report such a correspondence. Nor does the law request such a correspondence to be made. Excellent records were made available to your audit staff. I refer you to them.

If there are any questions please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

ATTACHMENT #2

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

February 29, 1980

Ms. Bay Buchanan, Treasurer
Reagan for President (C00108308)
9841 Airport Boulevard, Suite 1430
Los Angeles, CA 90045

References: July 10 (April 1, 1979 - June 30, 1979)
October 10 (July 1, 1979 - September 30, 1979)
Year End (October 1, 1979 - December 31, 1979)

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of your 1979 reports. The review raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and to the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act. An itemization of these areas follows:

The previous review of your July 10 and October 10 reports disclosed contributions on Schedule A-P for Line 17a which appear to exceed the limits set forth in 2 U.S.C. Section 441a and are noted "EXCESS CONTRIBUTION REFUNDED IN JULY" and "EXCESS CONTRIBUTION BEING REFUNDED IN OCTOBER" respectively (pertinent schedules attached). To date there have been no unitemized contribution refunds reported in subsequent reports, nor have those refunds required to be itemized been reported in subsequent reports.

The review of your Year End report discloses contributions on Scheduled A-P for Line 17a which also appear to exceed the limits set forth in 2 U.S.C. Section 441a (pertinent schedules attached).

The Act precludes an individual or a political committee, other than a multi-candidate political committee, from making contributions to a candidate for Federal office in excess of $1,000 per election. If you have received contributions which exceed the limits, the Commission recommends that you refund to the donors the amounts in excess of $1,000. The return of the contributions should be reported immediately by letter and the refund should appear on Schedule B-P for Line 27a in your next report. If you find that the contributions in question were disclosed improperly or incorrectly, please amend your reports with the clarifying information.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of excessive contribution your prompt refund of the excessive amounts to the donors will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

2 U.S.C. Section 434(b) and 11 C.F.R. Section 104.2(b) require the identification, occupation, and principal place of business, if any, of each person who has made a contribution to or for a committee or candidate for Federal office in an amount or value in excess of $100, or in an amount less than $100 if the person's contributions within the calendar year total more than $100, together with the amount and date of each contribution. 11 C.F.R. Section 100.12 defines "Principal Place of Business" as "the full name under which the person is employed or conducts business". Your Year End report omits this information for 43% of the entries (2,260 of 5,259). Thirty (30) percent were deemed inadequate because only an address was provided (1,575 of 5,259). Therefore, 73 percent of the principal places of business were either omitted or inadequate and are requested by the Commission. 11 C.F.R. Section 100.11 defines "Occupation" as "principal job title or position and whether or not self-employed". Your report omits this information in 35 percent of the entries (1,836 of 5,259). Please provide the Commission with the requested information or evidence of your efforts to obtain the information from the contributors.

On Schedule A-P for Line 17a of your Year End report you disclose contributions received from Spencer Metal Finishing (p.3) for $200, Bob's Custom Upholstery (p.499) for $200, James Lee Investments (p.500) for $300, and Pashayan Properties (p.651) for $500. Please clarify these entries to provide the full names, mailing addresses, occupations, aggregate year-to-date totals, and the amounts contributed by the individuals to whom the contributions should be attributed.

The committee itemizes contributions on Schedule A-P for Line 17a on the Year End report which exceed the total reported on Line 17a of the Detailed Summary Page by $99,801. Please amend your report to correct and/or clarify this discrepancy.

On Schedule A-P for Line 17a of your Year End report you disclose a contribution from Kern City Rep. Womans Club for $200. Please amend your report to disclsoe this transfer on a separate Schedule A-P for Line 18b, and make the appropriate adjustments in the totals for Lines 17a and 18b on the Detailed Summary Page of the report.

The committee has reported transfers received from "other" committees on Line 18a of the Detailed Summary Page. Please amend your report to disclose these transfers on Line 18b of the Detailed Summary Page.

Please provide the omitted purpose of the expenditure to Deaver & Hannaford on October 15, 1979, for $17,965.00 reported on Schedule B-P for Line 24a of your Year End report as required by 2 U.S.C. Section 434(b)(9) and 11 C.F.R. Section 104.2(b)(9).

Please provide the omitted purpose of the expenditure to Imero Fiorentino Associates on November 13, 1979, for $1,175.00 reported on Schedule B-P for Line 25a of your Year End report as required by 2 U.S.C. Section 434(b)(9) and 11 C.F.R. Section 104.2(b)(9).

The Commission has determined that when there is a very definitive associative property between a recognizable vendor who normally provides certain kinds of goods and/or services, and certain terms are used to describe the particulars, those terms are acceptable. In a case where the payee is not a recognizable vendor of the goods or services described, the same terms used for particulars are not acceptable. The following expenditures therefore need further clarification because there is no associative property between the particular of expenditure and the recognizable vendor:

United California Bank	Advertising	10/25/79	$4,207.50
North Hollywood Glass	Finance Event	12/03/79	5,680.60

Please amend your report to clarify the purposes of these expenditues so that the associative property is clear.

The following expenditures disclosed on the Year End report may need clarification as to the purposes and the identification of the payee(s). Specifically, if the expenditures were made to agents acting on behalf of the committee, then the ultimate recipient(s) and the purpose(s) of the expenditures must be itemized in accordance with 2 U.S.C. Section 434(b)(9):

Deaver & Hannaford	Reimbursement for expenses of advance team	12/19/79	$ 1,792.98
Alice Tyler	Reimbursement for Event Expenses	12/17/79	1,816.77
George Cordes	Rally Costs	11/30/79	1,083.59
Edward Priola	Reimbursement for expense of opening	10/24/79	615.00

The committee discloses on its Year End report expenditures to CASH, LYNN WOOD on November 13, 1979 for $450.00. Were these, in fact, cash expenditures? Please clarify these items.

The committee discloses in the Year End report a loan repayment to Lynn Kartavich on page 482, Schedule A-P for Line 24a, in the amount of $15.00. Please amend the report to disclose this transaction on either Line 27b or Schedule B-P for Line 27a as appropriate, correcting the totals for Line 24a as well.

The committee discloses several corporate check refunds on Schedule B-P for Line 27a in the Year End report but does not disclose the corresponding receipts. Please amend your report to disclose the receipt of these funds on Schedule A-P for Line 17a. If the contribution refunds were improperly reported, please amend your report to clarify the matter for the public record.

Be advised that you must supply the requested information to the Commission within fifteen (15) days from the date of this letter. If you have any questions, please contact Chadwick R. Gore in our Reports Analysis Division on the toll-free number (800)424-9530. The local number is (202)523-4048.

Sincerely,

MUR No. 1142

DATE OF ORIGINAL REFERRAL 1-11-80

This update is to inform the Office of General Counsel of the receipt from the Reagan for President Committee of a response to the Commission's letter to the Committee dated October 24, 1979.

Reports Analysis finds that the items noted as #1 and #3 are adequately addressed. The item noted as #2, which addresses particulars of expenditures, is inadequate. The Committee requests further clarification of what information is required by the Commission in order to properly address particulars. They also comment that they feel that the matter has been adequately addressed in the report(s). It should be noted that the letter to the Committee of October 24 clearly explains the particulars that are being requested, and that the letter was presented to the Commission prior to being sent to the Committee. It therefor clearly reflects and embodies the guidance of the Commission.

The finding by the Reports Analysis Staff that the Committee's response is inadequate is consistent with the previous findings in this area with this Committee, and is also further justification for the original findings and recommendations made to the Commission with regard to particulars of expenditures.

CERTIFIED MAIL
RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

Ms. Bay Buchanan
Treasurer
Reagan for President Committee
9841 Airport Boulevard
Suite 1430
Los Angeles, California 90045

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is in response to yours of July 3, 1979, in which you expressed uncertainty as to what further details your committee was being asked to supply pursuant to the Request for Additional Information (RFAI) sent to the Reagan for President Committee on May 23, 1979, by the Reports Analysis Division. It is hoped that this letter will provide the clarification sought.

An RFAI has several purposes. These letters serve as a method of securing additional information in order that the public record may be complete. Further, in order to carry out its supervisory responsibilities mandated by the FECA, the RFAI is one method by which the Commission attempts to ascertain whether or not a committee has complied with the requirements of the FECA and, in certain instances, may provide an opportunity for the committee to come into compliance with the Act; thereby obviating the need for the Commission to resort to its statutory civil enforcement powers.

Your letter of July 3 did not address the most serious issue raised in the May 23 RFAI, namely the Committee's failure to provide the occupations and principal places of business for a high percentage of contributors itemized on the April 10 report. No principal place of business is disclosed for 81% of these contributors. The information provided concerning an additional 7% is inadequate because only business addresses are disclosed. The report omits the occupations of 67% of the itemized contributors.

2 U.S.C. § 434(b) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.2(b) require disclosure of the identification, occupation and principal place of business of every contributor of an amount in excess of or aggregating in excess of $100 within a calendar year.

The second request in the RFAI involves further details concerning the "particulars" of specific committee expenditures. In the two instances regarding Deaver and Hannaford, the questions raised by the reports analysis were not related to the reporting of the purposes of the expenditures involved but rather to the nature of the payee. In other words, more specificity is needed as to why Deaver and Hannaford would be supplying both accommodations and printing. The Committee is asked to verify that this payee is in fact providing a variety of services for the Committee which include the specific ones listed on the report.

The request for further information concerning the payments to Marina City Club, Inc. and to Oakwood Apartments for apartment expenses was based upon the desire to determine the reasons for these expenditures. Were they, for example, related to travel arrangements or to meeting facilities, or is the Committee paying the personal expenses of staff members in lieu of salary?

Other items listed in the May 23rd request involved the possibility that the payee listed was not the ultimate recipient of the expenditure involved. This pertains in particular to the expenditures to Friends of Mike Curb and Lynn R. Fillman for the purchase of office equipment. Did these expenditures represent purchases of second-hand equipment or did Friends of Mike Curb and Lynn R. Fillman act as agents for the Committee in securing these items? If the latter applies, the Committee's reports should cite the ultimate payee involved.

A number of the other items listed in the May 23rd request provided as their purpose "reimbursement for air fare, food, lodging and misc. expenses" or another similar statement. Since the RFAI was sent to the Committee it has been determined that such descriptions as these for travel-related campaign expenses incurred by persons directly involved with the campaign will be sufficient. (See the Financial Control and Compliance Manual for Presidential Candidates Receiving Public Financing (Primary Election Financing), pages 138-139.) Therefore, all of these items listed in the RFAI may now be considered adequately disclosed.

Another category of items listed in the RFAI required more details concerning certain committee debts and obligations. It has now been determined that no further action is required on this matter.

The RFAI's reference to apparent groupings of contributions by geographical location and by date was included simply to point out that if any of these contributions involved fundraising events, such events must be itemized on Schedule D-P and the total amount received from all such events during a reporting period must be included as a memo entry on Line 14c of the Detailed Summary Sheet. If these contributions were the result of a mass mailing or other fundraising effort not involving an actual event, the present content of the reports is adequate.

Should you have additional questions, please contact Chadwick R. Gore on our toll-free line (800) 424-9530. Our local number is (202) 523-4048.

INTERIM REPORT OF THE AUDIT DIVISION ON REAGAN FOR PRESIDENT

I. Background

A. Overview

This interim report covers an audit of Reagan For President ("the Committee"), to determine whether there has been compliance with the provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). The audit was conducted pursuant to Section 9039(b) of Title 26 of the Internal Revenue Code which states, in part, that the Commission is authorized to prescribe rules and regulations in accordance with the provisions of subsection (c), to conduct examinations and audits (in addition to examinations and audits required by Section 9038(a)), to conduct investigations, and to require the keeping and submission of any books, records, and information, which it determines to be necessary to carry out the responsibilities under the chapter.

In addition, Section 9038.1(b) of Title 11 of the Code of Federal Regulations states that the Commission may conduct other examinations and audits from time to time as it deems necessary to carry out the provisions of this subchapter.

The Committee registered with the Federal Election Commission on February 28, 1979 as the principal campaign committee of the Honorable Ronald Reagan, candidate for the Republican nomination for President of the United States. The Committee maintains its headquarters in Los Angeles, California.

The Audit covered the period from February 26, 1979, the inception date of the Committee, through December 31, 1979. During this period, the Committee reported an opening cash balance of $-0-, total receipts of $7,210,953.66, total expenditures of $6,656,378.68, and a closing cash balance of $554,574.98.

This interim report is based on documents and working papers supporting each of the factual statements contained herein. They form part of the record upon which the Commission based its decisions on the matters addressed in the report and were available to the Commissioners and appropriate staff for review.

B. Key Personnel

The principal officers of the Committee during the period audited were Senator Paul Laxalt, Chairman and Ms. Bay Buchanan, Treasurer.

C. Scope

The audit included such tests as verification of total reported receipts, expenditures and individual transactions; review of required supporting documentation; analysis of debts and obligations; and such other audit procedures as deemed necessary under the circumstances.

II. Interim Audit Findings and Recommendations

A. Introduction to Findings

The objective of the threshold audit is to review the Committee's accounting policies and procedures in order to determine not only their current but also their potential ability to comply with Title 2 of the United States Code and Title 26 of the Internal Revenue Code, and to verify the accuracy of reports and statements filed during the audit period.

B. Audit Findings and Recommendations

1. Contribution Limitations

Section 441a(a)(1)(A) of Title 2 of the United States Code states that no person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election to Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1000. Further, during the period of audit, "Person", was defined in Section 100.13 of Title 11 of the Code of Federal Regulations to include a partnership and any other organization or group of persons; and Section 110.1(e)(3) of Title 11 of the Code of Federal Regulations required that contributions by a partnership shall not exceed the $1000 limit contained in Section 110.1(a)(1).

1a) During the review of contributions, the Audit staff noted 129 persons made contributions which exceeded, or when aggregated with other contributions from the same person were in excess of, the $1,000.00 limit. The total value of the excessive portions was $80,820. According to Committee records, these contributions had not been refunded to the contributors. One of the excessive contributions was a $6,000 check drawn on a partnership. In this situation, the Committee was of the opinion that if a check was supported by further documentation, such as letters from each of the six (6) partners comprising the partnership attributing $1,000 to each partner, no limitation would be exceeded.

1b) Our review also indicated 61 contributions that initially appeared excessive, but had been brought within the limits based upon letters from contributors authorizing the Committee to attribute a portion of the contribution(s) to another individual, such as husband and wife apportionments. The total value of these portions appearing as excessive in the reports is $88,870.00. Another situation encountered during the review was that because of errors (i.e., input, coding, etc.) in the Committee's data base for contributors 30 contributions had been duplicated on the reports (i.e. the same contribution itemized twice). The total value of these portions appearing as excessive in the reports is $29,453.28. The reports have not been amended to correct the public record with respect to the contributions mentioned in this paragraph.

The Committee agreed to review the apparent excessive contributions and rectify this situation by obtaining letters from contributors authorizing apportionment of the contribution(s). If the letters cannot be obtained, the Committee agreed to refund the excessive portions to the contributor(s). Further, the Committee agreed to amend its reports to correct the public record for contributions that appeared to be excessive, per the report but are, in fact, documented in Committee files as being within the limits. However, with respect to the $6000 partnership check, the Committee differed with the Audit staff on the interpretation of Section 110.1(e) of Title 11 of the Code of Federal Regulations in that they were of the opinion that an apportionment letter signed by each partner rendered the contribution(s) acceptable.

Recommendation

The Audit staff recommends that within 30 days of receipt of this notification, the Committee refund the excessive portions of the contributions noted in 1a) and provide evidence of the refunds (i.e. the front and back of each cancelled check used to make the refunds), or provide evidence clearly demonstrating that the contributions are, in fact, not excessive. Further, it is recommended that the Committee itemize the refunds in its next regularly scheduled report to the Commission. If the Committee can demonstrate to the Commission's satisfaction that certain contributions are not excessive, it is recommended that an amended report(s) be filed to correct the public record. Further, it is recommended that the amended report(s) include the contributions outlined in 1b) that have been corrected on the Committee's data base but currently appear as excessive on the Committee's reports as filed.

2. Allocation of Expenditures to States

Section 441a(b)(1)(A), and 441a(c) of Title 2 of the United States Code provides that no candidate for the office of President of the United States who has received matching funds may make expenditures in any one state aggregating in excess of the greater of 16 cents multiplied by the state voting age population or $200,000.00, adjusted by the Consumer Price Index.

Section 106.2(a) of Title 11 of the Code of Federal Regulations states that expenditures made by a Presidential candidate's authorized committee which seek to influence the nomination of the candidate in a particular state shall be attributed to that state. This section further requires that the allocation of expenditures shall be reported on FEC form 3Pc.

During the period of audit, Section 106.2(b) of Title 11 of the Code of Federal Regulations stated, in part, that expenditures for staff, media, printing, and other goods and services used in a campaign in a specific state shall be attributed to that State. Further, Section 106.2(c)(1) and (2) stated, in part, that expenditures for publication and distribution of newspaper, magazine, television, and other types of advertisements distributed in more than one state shall be attributed to each state in proportion to the estimated viewing audience or readership of voting age which can reasonably be expected to be influenced by these advertisements. Expenditures for travel within a state shall be attributed to that State. Expenditures for travel between States need not be attributed to any individual State.

Our review of expenditures for the audit period included testing to determine the Committee's compliance with the recordkeeping, reporting and allocation requirements of the Act. Based upon our review, which consisted of an examination of selected disbursements on a 100% basis plus an unrestricted random sample drawn from a separate population of approximately 6300 disbursements, we determined the following:

2a) Expenditures Reviewed on a 100% Basis

Seventy-eight expenditures totaling $237,586.75 were not allocated to the proper states, in consonance with the provisions outlined above. These expenditures represent approximately 26.09% of the total number of and 17.12% of the total dollar amount of expenditures within this review category;

2b) Expenditures Reviewed on a Sample Basis

Approximately 22.9% of the total quantity and 38% of the total dollar amount of expenditures reviewed in the sample were not allocated to the appropriate state(s).

Generally, the reasons for the allocation discrepancies noted in both of the above categories appeared to be a time delay in receiving the expenditure information from the state offices, and travel and salary expenditures made to individuals traveling and/or assigned within particular states and/or regional areas.

The Committee did not exceed the state spending limitations in any one state during 1979. However, increased activity during 1980 may cause some state limits to be exceeded if Committee procedures are not changed.

The Committee indicated that it would review the situation.

Recommendation

With respect to the allocation discrepancies noted in (2a) above, the audit staff recommends that within 30 days of receipt of this notification the Committee amend its state by state Allocation Schedule (FEC Form 3Pc) allocating the expenditures to the appropriate state(s).

8 3 0 4 0 3 8 2 8 1 3

With respect to the discrepancies noted in (2b) above, the Audit staff recommends that within 30 days of receipt of this notification the Committee review its disbursements and include within the amendment to FEC Form 3Pc the dollar value of any reallocation of expenditures to the appropriate states. Further, the Committee should provide the Audit staff with copies of the detailed working papers supporting the reallocation (bank account and check number, date, amount, payee, original allocation and adjusted allocation). Upon receipt of the amended FEC Form 3Pc and associated work papers, the Audit staff will review the Committee's adjusted allocation to determine the adequacy of the Committee's corrections to the State-by-State Allocation Schedule.

3. Qualified Campaign Expense Limitations

Section 9035(a) of Title 26 of the United States Code states, in part, that no candidate shall knowingly make expenditures from his personal funds, or the personal funds of his immediate family, in connection with his campaign for nomination for election to the Office of President in excess of, in the aggregate, $50,000.

During a review of loans received by the Committee, we noted a revolving credit agreement established with a bank on September 18, 1979. The Committee received four (4) loans from the revolving credit account, as follows:

11-01-79	200,000.00
11-05-79	200,000.00
11-08-79	200,000.00
Total	$1,000,000.00

Further review revealed that the revolving credit aggreement had been requested and guaranteed by the Candidate on behalf of the Committee. The agreement provided an unconditional continuing guaranty by the Candidate until he became eligible to receive Presidential primary matching funds under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. Further, the Candidate obtained a $1,000,000 life insurance policy on October 18, 1979 and assigned all right, title and interest in the policy as collateral security to the bank on October 24, 1979. An additional agreement provided, in part, that the Reagan For President Committee would indemnify the Candidate against any loss, expense, or other cost whatsoever, that might at any time arise out of the guaranty described above.

On January 14, 1980, the Commission determined by a vote of 5-0 that the Candidate fulfilled the requirements and established eligibility to receive primary matching fund payments. Additionally, on the same date, a $100,000.00 matching fund payment was certified by the Commission.

An assignment and grant of security interest in all presidential primary matching funds to which either the Candidate or Committee was then or thereafter entitled under the Act was assigned to the bank on January 14, 1980.

On the 1979 year-end report filed with the Commission, the loan was disclosed on the debts and obligations schedule as one (1) $1,000,000 loan received on December 31, 1979. The reported "nature of the loan (Details of the debt)" was: "Bank note -- January 15, 1980, at prime, not secured by matching funds."

The Committee Treasurer was of the opinion that there was no problem with these loans because of the agreements in support of them.

Recommendation

We recommend that this matter be referred to the Office of General Counsel for further review in conjunction with our memorandum dated March 20, 1980 which concerned the Committee's refusal to provide the listing of the Candidate's immediate family. In addition, we recommend that the Committee file an amended report fully disclosing the full nature of the loans, together with the correct dates and amounts of them.

4. Possible Corporate Contribution

Section 441b(a) of Title 2 of the United States Code states, in part, that it is unlawful for any corporation to make a contribution or expenditure in connection with any Federal Election to political office, and unlawful for any candidate, political committee, or other person to knowingly accept or receive any such contributions from a corporation.

During a review of Committee records in support of fundraising events, we noted an event held in Hawaii on September 4, 1979. An advance deposit of $12,000.00 was made to Hilton Hawaiian Village on August 30, 1979 in conjunction therewith. We determined that $7,000.00 of the deposit was paid with a check drawn on the Committee's Reagan For President - Hawaii bank account maintained at the Bank of Hawaii. The remainder ($5,000.00) of the deposit was paid by an individual employed by a Hawaiian corporation. We were unable to determine whether the individual used his personal funds or corporate funds to make the advance.

In addition to the information outlined above we noted that the Committee's office was located at the same address as the corporation, and the same bank and branch office thereof used by the Committee was also used by the corporation. We noted that the Committee reimbursed the corporation for the Committee's portion of overhead costs for the use of the office. However, we had no method of evaluating the reasonableness of the fair market value of the use of the office by the Committee. Further, we noted that on January 25, 1980 the Committee reimbursed the individual for the $5,000.00 advance. A memorandum on the check stated "Reimbursement for Hilton Hawaiian Village Payment". On September 11, 1979, the account maintained for the fundraising event was closed and the $21,747.25 residual balance was transferred to a national headquarters account in Los Angeles, California.

According to the Assistant Treasurer, a group of individuals in Hawaii put on the unauthorized fundraising event. However, since Ronald Reagan attended the event, the Committee recognized it as an authorized one, and organized a Reagan For President - Hawaii Committee.

It should be noted that the first bank account was opened on May 11, 1979 under the name of Reagan For President-Hawaii. During the period from May 11, 1979 through September 10, 1979, the total receipts and expenditures with respect to the account were both $1,638.22. Most of the expenditures appear to be for room deposits at the Kahala Hilton Hotels (the site of the event). The balance was transferred to the account noted below on September 7, 1979 and the account closed on September 10, 1979.

The second account was opened on August 14, 1979 at the same bank as the account noted above. This account was also under the name of Reagan For President - Hawaii. During the period from August 14, 1979 through September 18, 1979, the total receipts and expenditures flowing through the account were both $33,005.09. As we previously noted, on September 11, 1979 the residual balance of $21,747.25 was transferred from the account to Reagan For President National Headquarters in Los Angeles, California, and the account was closed. For the most part, the expenditures from this account appeared to be related to the fundraising event. The Committee recognized the depository on October 2, 1979 in an amendment to its statement of organization.

The Committee Treasurer stated that the individuals in Hawaii opened their own account for the event without the Committee's knowledge. However, when this was made known to the Committee, the individuals were advised to close the account. Shortly thereafter, Reagan for President-Hawaii was formed.

The Treasurer further stated that no attempt was made to disavow the Hawaii activity. Additionally, the Committee received the proceeds from the event and subsequently reimbursed the corporation and individual for costs incurred by them. Further, the reason for the delay in reimbursing the individual who had made the advance payment toward the event premises was because that fact was not known by the Committee.

Recommendation

Since it appears that the fundraising activities center around the corporation, the activities of which raise questions, the Audit staff recommends that this matter be referred to the Office of General Counsel for further review.

5. Possible Excessive Contribution

Section 441a(a)(1)(A) of Title 2, United States Code states that no person shall make contributions to any candidate and his authorized political committees with respect to any election for Federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000. During a review of Committee records in support of fundraising events, a reception held on Oct. 11, 1979 was noted for which all expenses were initially paid by North Hollywood Glass Co., an unincorporated California business entity.

Expenses for the event (printing, postage, catering, wages, etc) were incurred and paid by North Hollywood Glass Co. between August 31 and October 18, 1979. On Oct. 31, 1979, North Hollywood Glass Co. billed the Committee for the amount of the expenses - $5680.60. On Dec. 3, 1979, the Committee reimbursed North Hollywood Glass Co. for the full amount.

It is the Audit staff's opinion that the transactions described above are, in effect, an "advance" of monies by North Hollywood Glass Co. to the Committee, and as such, would appear to constitute a contribution in excess of the limitations set forth in 2 U.S.C. 441a(a)(1)(A).

Recommendation

Since it appears that the Committee constructively received a $5,680.60 advance from North Hollywood Glass Co., an amount in excess of limitations, the Audit staff recommends that this matter be referred to the Office of General Counsel for further review.

6. Finanicial Activity Not Accurately Stated

During the period audited, Section 434(b)(1), (8), (11) and (14) of Title 2 of the United States Code required the disclosure of the amount of cash on hand at the beginning of the reporting period; the total sum of all receipts and expenditures; and such other information as shall be required by the Commission.

Our reconciliation of the Committee's bank accounts to its disclosure reports indicated that (a) total reported receipts were understated $11,602.16, (b) total reported expenditures were understated $37,404.13, and (c) ending cash at December 31, 1979 was overstated $25,801.97. It appears that these discrepancies were caused by including as cash on hand the value of "unspent" funds transmitted from national headquarters bank accounts to various state office accounts. These "unspent" funds were classified as such by the Committee until the expenditure information was received from the state offices and accounts. In several instances the detailed information (i.e. listings of disbursements made) was not received on a timely basis for inclusion in the disclosure report covering the time period in which the funds were expended. Therefore, a portion of 1979 activity was included in the 1980 disclosure reports. Further, the Committee has not yet received one (1) set of bank statements and cancelled checks from a state bank account for December 1979. Therefore, this activity could not be accurately accounted for in the reconciliation process.

The Committee concurred with our view that the lag time was largely responsible for the difference and agreed to attempt to reduce the lag time for future reports.

8 3 0 4 0 3 8 2 8 1 6

Recommendation

The Audit staff recommends that within 30 days of receipt of this notification the Committee make available to the Audit staff the lacking bank statement and cancelled checks for reconciliation purposes. Further, it is recommended that the Committee revise its procedures in an endeavor to reduce the lag time involved in receiving the information from the state offices and accounts, thereby increasing the accuracy of reported financial activity in the future.

7. Loans and Letters of Credit

During the audit period Section 434(b)(12) of Title 2 of the United States Code required the disclosure of the amount and nature of debts and obligations owed by the Committee, in such form as the Commission may prescribe, and a continuous reporting of their debts and obligations until they are extinguished, together with a statement as to the circumstances and conditions under which any such debt or obligation is extinguished and the consideration therefore.

Further, the Commission has included within the Financial Control and Compliance Manual For Presidential Candidates Receiving Public Financing (Primary Election Financing), published July 1979, a suggested format for the disclosure of letters of credit.

7a) Disclosure of Loans

The Audit staff noted a bank loan received on September 6, 1979 for which the reported nature (details of the debt) on Schedule C-P consisted of only "Bank Loan." The Committee did not disclose the rate, duration and collateral (if any) used to secure the loan.

7b) Letter of Credit

A letter of credit in the amount of $30,000 was established with a bank on March 5, 1979 which was subsequently increased to $60,000 and then to $90,000 during calendar year 1979. The letter of credit, secured with money market certificates, was in favor of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company as security for a national telephone agreement. The Committee did not disclose the $30,000 initial increment, but disclosed the subsequent increases to $60,000 and $90,000 as addenda to its reports filed with the Commission. The recommended format specifies that letters of credit be disclosed on schedule C-P, Line 13 of the report.

Recommendation

With respect to the loan, the Audit staff recommends that, within 30 days of receipt of this notification, the Committee file an amended report fully detailing on Schedule CP Line 13 the nature of the loan, together with the security, collateral, and endorsements (if any) used to secure it.

With respect to the letter of credit, as noted above the Committee did file an addendum disclosing a portion of the information concerning the letter of credit, however the filing was deficient in two respects: (1) an addendum was used in lieu of FEC Schedule C-P and the amount, as reported, was not included in total debts owed by the Committee (FEC Form 3P, Line 13); and (2) the information contained in the addendum was incomplete in that the nature of the obligation (terms, collateral, default clause and penalty provisions, if any) was not disclosed.

Therefore, it is recommended that, at a minimum, the Committee amend the appropriate report(s) to disclose the nature of the obligation. The amendment may be effected by filing a letter with the Commission disclosing the required information. For reports filed in 1980, the Committee should adjust its filing practices to insure that all the relevant information relating to debts and obligations is disclosed on a timely basis.

8. Transfers Received From Non-Affiliated Committees

Section 434(b)(4) of Title 2 of the United States Code required, for the period audited, the disclosure of the name and address of each political committee or candidate from which the reporting committee received any transfers of funds, together with the amounts and dates of all transfers.

During the receipts review, the Audit staff noted 17 transfers totaling $4,755.79 received from non-affilitated committees which had not been itemized on the Committe's disclosure reports, although the dollar value was reported as unitemized contributions. The transfers cited herein represent approximately 50% of the total number and 29% of the total dollar amount of transfers received by the Committee.

The Treasurer stated that this was an apparent oversight on the part of the Committee, and agreed to amend its reports itemizing the transfers.

Recommendation

The Audit staff recommends that within 30 days of receipt of this notification the Committee file an amended report(s) with the Commission itemizing the transfers.

9. Earmarked Contributions

During the period of audit, Section 110.6 (C)(3) and (4) of Title 11 of the Code of Federal Regulations required that the recipient disclose on the next report each conduit through which the contribution passed.

Our review of transfers-in indicated that 49 earmarked contributions totaling $4,870.00 were received by the Committee during 1979. However, the Committee reported these earmarked contributions as though they were individual contributions (i.e. nonearmarked) and did not disclose the conduit(s) through which the contributions passed.

The Committee officials stated that the conduits were not disclosed because they were informed by a former Commission employee that disclosure of the conduit was unnecessary. However, the Committee agreed to amend its report(s) to disclose the conduits as required.

Recommendation

The Audit staff recommends that within 30 days of receipt of this notification the Committee file an amended report with the Commission disclosing the earmarked contributions in consonance with the provisions outlined above.

MUR No. 1142

DATE OF ORIGINAL REFERRAL 1-11-80

This is a referral update in the matter of the Reagan for President Committee and its failure to respond to a Request for Additional Information mailed to the Committee on March 24, 1980. (Attachment 1)

A second letter was sent to the Committee on April 17, 1980, informing the Committee that the Commission had not received a response to the March 24, 1980, letter from the Commission. (Attachment 2)

Special circumstances are involved in this matter. Since the Audit of the Committee transpired during the month of March, the analyst assisted on the Audit. At the time of the analyst's arrival at the Committee, a copy of the Request for Additional Information was hand-delivered to the Committee to provide additional lead time for their response. Copies of the pertinent schedules for the excessive contributions were delivered to the Committee so that they could examine their computer data base and respond promptly to the Committee. A meeting transpired with the proper Committee personnel and the matter of the excessive contributions was thoroughly discussed. Despite this additional assistance provided to the Committee, no response has been received from the Committee.(Attachment 3)

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

24 March 1980

Ms. Bay Buchanan, Treasurer
Reagan for President (C00108308)
9341 Airport Boulevard, Suite 1430
Los Angeles, California 90045

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of your 1979 and 1980 reports. The review raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures and to the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act, (the Act). An itemization of these areas follows:

The review of your 1979 reports discloses contributions which appear to exceed the limits set forth in 2 U.S.C. 441a (pertinent schedules attached). These contributions are in addition to those identified in previous letters from the Commission.

The Act precludes an individual or a political committee, other than a multi-candidate committee, from making contributions to a candidate for Federal office in excess of $1,000 per election. If you have received contributions which exceed the limits, the Commission recommends that you refund to the donors the amounts in excess of $1,000. The return of the contributions should be reported immediately by letter and the refunds should appear on Schedule B-P for Line 27a in your next report. If you find that the contributions in question were disclosed improperly or incompletely, please amend your reports to provide the clarifying information.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of excessive contributions, your prompt refund of the excessive amounts to the donors will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

2 U.S.C. 434(b) requires the identification of each person who makes a contribution to the reporting committee during the reporting period, whose contribution or contributions have an aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year, or in any lesser amount if the reporting committee should so choose, together with the date and amount of any such contribution. 2 U.S.C. 431(13) defines identification to be, "in the case of an individual, the name, the mailing address, and the occupation of such individual, as well as the name of his or her employer." Your February Monthly Report fails to provide occupations for 29 percent of the contributors (182 of 628) and the name of employer for 60 percent of the contributors (376 of 628). These occupations and names of employers, or evidence of your efforts to obtain this information from the contributors, are requested by the Commission.

Request for Additional Information.
Reagan for President Committee (C00108308)

On Schedule A-P for Line 17a of your Year-End Report, you disclose a contribution received from Co Operative Sav Loan Assoc (page 59) for $1,000. On Schedule A-P for Line 17a of your February Monthly Report, you disclose contributions from Kuykendall Oil Prod. Co. (page 41) for $500 and from Pioneer Brokerage (page 55) for $500. Please clarify these entries to provide the full names, mailing addresses, occupations, names of employers, aggregate year-to-date totals and the amount contributed by the individual to whom the contributions should be attributed.

The committee discloses several corporate check refunds on Schedule B-P for Line 27a in the February Monthly Report but does not disclose the corresponding receipts. Please amend your report to disclose the receipt of these funds on Schedule A-P for Line 17a. If the contribution refunds were improperly reported, please amend your report to clarify the matter for the public record.

Amendments to your original reports correcting the above matters, and your statement regarding the possible acceptance of excessive contributions, should be filed with the Commission within fifteen (15) days of the date of this notice. If you have any questions, please contact Chadwick R. Gore in our Reports Analysis Division on the toll-free number, (800) 424-9530. The local number is (202) 523-4048.

Sincerely,

March 24, 1980

From: Chadwick R. Gore

Subject: Reagan for President RFAI Dated March 24, 1980

I have recently returned from assisting the Audit Team on site of the RFP. At that time I delivered a copy of the above RFAI to both Charlie Hanshaw and to Judy Harrison of the RFP. We met about the content of the letter and I fully explained the necessity for a prompt response from the Committee.

The discussion concerning this matter took place on the 21 of March. Since the letter is being mailed from the Commission on the 24th, then the committee will have had at least a week lead time on this matter.

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

This matter was generated as the result of information compiled by the Reports Analysis Division during the ordinary course of review of Quarterly Reports submitted by the Reagan for President Committee.

The Reports Analysis Division has found that the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee") during 1979 violated former 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(2), 434(b)(6) and 434(b)(9) and 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by failing to provide required information pertaining to itemized contributors and to fundraisers, by failing to provide sufficiently detailed particulars for expenditures, and by accepting excessive contributions. (See Attachments I-A and I-B).

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

1. Failure to Provide Information Concerning the Occupations and Principal Places of Business of Contributors.

The Reports Anaylsis Division has determined that in its April 10, 1979, report the Committee failed to report the occupations of 67% of the itemized contributors and the principal places of business of 81% of such contributors. An additional 7% of the entries of principal places of business were inadequate because only the address was provided, not the full name under which the business is conducted. In its July 10, 1979, report the Committee omitted contributors' occupations for 41% of its entries and contributors' principal places of business for 45% of the entries. In addition, 35% of the entries supplied for principal places of business were deemed inadequate because only an address was provided. And in its October 15, 1979, report the Committee omitted contributors' occupations for 39% of its entries and contributors' principal places of business for 50% of the entries. In addition, 30% of the entries regarding principal places of business have been found to be inadequate because only an address was provided.

The Committee was informed of these omissions in requests for additional information sent on May 23, 1979, October 12, 1979, and January 11, 1980 (see Attachments II, III and IV); however, the Committee has supplied neither the missing information nor evidence of efforts to obtain the information from the contributors involved.

2 U.S.C. § 434(b), the provision in effect during 1979, provide that "(w)hen committee treasurers and candidates show that best efforts have been used to obtain and submit information required by this subsection, they shall be deemed to be in compliance with his subsection." "Best efforts" assumes that some effort has been made to secure the required information. The Committee, however, has provided no evidence that such an effort was made.

This Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(2) has occurred on the part of the Committee.

2. Failure to Report Fundraisers

In its April 10, 1979, July 10, 1979, and October 10, 1979, reports the Committee failed to report aggregate figures for sales and collections on Line 17 of Form 3-P, page 2 and also failed to file Form D-P itemizing fundraisers, even though the Committee's itemization of contributions showed several instances of numerous contributions received on the same day from person living in the same city.

In response to RFAI's sent by the Reports Analysis Division the Committee has now submitted Form D-P's for its July 10 and October 10 reports and has made the appropriate entries on Lines 17 of its Form 3-P's. The Commmitee has not, however, furnished information as to whether or not fundraisers as yet unreported were held during the period covered by the April 10 report. Evidence that such events did take place is found in the itemization of contributions from numerous persons from Los Angeles which were received on March 14, 1979, and March 23, 1979; contributions from Inglewood received on March 20, 1979; ones from San Francisco received on March 23, 1979, and ones from Fort Lauderdale received on March 22, 1979. The Committee has not responded to inquiries about these contributions.

3 0 4 0 3 8 2 9 4 8

Former 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(6), which was in effect throughout 1979, required the reporting of the total amounts of proceeds derived from fundraising events. In addition, it was Commission policy that the itemization of fundraisers was required by 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(6) and and by 11 C.F.R. § 104.2(b)(6) and Congressional approval was obtained for the reporting forms to be used for this purpose. Therefore, the Committee was required to report the aggregate figures related to the proceeds from any fundraisers held and to itemize those events. The Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that there has been a violation of former 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(6) on the part of the Committee.

3. Failure to Report Sufficiently Detailed Particulars for Expenditures.

The Reports Analysis Division has determined that in its April 10, 1979, July 10, 1979 and October 15, 1979 reports the Committee failed to provided sufficiently detailed particulars with regard to certain expenditures as required by 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) throughout 1979. Requests for additional information in this regard were sent to the Committee May 23, 1979, October 12, 1979, and January 11, 1980. (See Attachments II, III and IV). In addition, on October 24, 1979 a letter was sent to the Committee explaining the additional information which should be provided with regard to the April 10 report and also removing the items involving reimbursements for transportation and travel-related costs from the earlier listing. (See Attachment V). The Committee has not submitted the requested amendments for any of the reports at issue.

It is the opinion of this Office that the particulars reported for certain of the expenditures questioned by the Reports Analysis Division are vague enough to warrant further action by the Commission. 1/ These expenditures are:

April 10, 1979, Report

Paul Laxalt	Reimbursement Reception expenses	3/31/79	$783

1/ Those expenditures included in the RFAIs but not included herein involve either the above-mentioned types of reimbursements for transportation and travel already dropped from consideration by the Commission or items which this Office does not find to be so uninformative as to warrant further action.

July 10, 1979 Report

Potomac International Corporation	reimbursement expenses	4/18/79	$ 2,220.07
Potomac International Corporation	special activities	4/26/79	499.00

October 10, 1979 Report

Vanguard Photography	General Expense	7/26/79	$ 220.18

In cases where the reported payee of an itemized expenditure was actually serving as an agent of the reporting committee in dealing with a third party vendor, that third party should be reported as the payee. In the present situation certain payees of itemized expenditures do not appear to have been the ultimate recipients of the payments involved. The expenditures were:

3 3 0 4 0 3 8 2 9 3 1

Requests for clarification and specification by the Committee with respect to the above items have met with no response.

The Office of General Counsel therefore recommends that the Commission find that a violation of former 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) has occurred on the part of the Committee.

4. The Reports Analysis Division has determined that the Committee has received a number of apparently excessive contributions for which reimbursements have not been reported despite notification by the Commission. The contributors and the dates and amounts of their contributions are as follows:

Jane Boeckman	3/19/79	$1000

Be advised that 11 C.F.R. 104.2(b)(9) requires that the "particulars" be provided for each expenditure which exceeds $100 in the aggregate to a single payee. Payee means the ultimate recipient of the monies expended, not an agent of the committee who expends the monies. Where applicable you are asked to amend your report to disclose the ultimate recipients of the monies involved in the expenditures underlined above. In addition, provide more details as to the purposes of these expenditures; those provided are too vague.

The following information is requested by the Commission:

4. 2 U.S.C. 434(b) and 11 C.F.R. 104.2(b) require the identification, occupation, and principal place of business, if any, of each person who has made a contribution to or for a committee or candidate in an amount or value in excess of $100, or in an amount less than $100 if the person's contributions within a calendar year total more than $100, together with the amount and the date of each contribution. 11 C.F.R. 100.12 defines "Principal Place of Business" as "the full name under which the business is conducted and the city and state in which the person is employed or conducts business". Your report omits this information in 45% of the entries (333 of 734 entries). 35% were deemed inadequate because only an address was provided (260 of 734 entries). Therefore, 80% of the principal places of business were either omitted or inadequate and are requested by the Commission. 11 C.F.R. 100.11 defines "Occupation" as "principal job title or position and whether or not self-employed". Your report omits this information in 41% of the entries (303 of 734 entries). Please provide the Commission the information requested or evidence of your efforts to obtain the information from the contributors.

5. Contributions reported by your committee and grouped by receipt date, city, and state indicate that fundraising activity has occurred in the following locations on or about the date indicated:

Indianapolis, Indiana	5-31-79
Metropolitan New York	6-18-79

The following expenditures are some of the items disclosed on Schedule B-P for Line 24a that also indicate that fundraising activity has taken place during the reporting period:

35 In-Kind Contributions	Minneapolis, MN luncheon	4-9-79	975.00

If the receipts grouped above were from fundraisers, or if the expenditures above were for fundraisers, be advised that 11 C.F.R. 104.2(b)(6) requires the disclosure of all fundraising events to include the dates, locations of the events, and the total gross proceeds of each event. This information should be reported on Schedule D-P and the total entered on Line 17c of the Detailed Summary Page as a memo entry. Receipts from individuals should be itemized in the appropriate manner. All receipts from political committees should be itemized on Schedule A-P for Line 18b regardless of the amount. Amend your report to disclose any and all fundraisers which your committee or agents of your committee have held. If no fundraisers have been held, so state.

Attachment III

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

11 January 1980

Ms. Bay Buchanan, Treasurer
Reagan for President (C00108308)
9841 Airport Boulevard, Suite 1430
Los Angeles, CA 90045

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's review of your April 10, July 10, and October 10, 1979, reports of receipts and expenditures.

The review indicated the receipt of apparent excessive contributions from individuals, and certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act and the Commission's regulations was omitted or in error. An itemization of this information follows:

The review of your reports discloses contributions on Schedule A-P for Line 17a which appear to exceed the limits set forth in 2 U.S.C. 441a (pertinent schedules attached). The Act precludes an individual or a political committee, other than a multi-candidate political committee, from making contributions to a candidate for Federal office in excess of $1,000 per election. If you have received contributions which exceed the limits, the Commission recommends that you refund to the donors the amounts in excess of $1,000. The return of the contributions should be reported immediately by letter and the refund should appear on Schedule B-P for Line 27a in your next report. If you find that the contributions in question were disclosed improperly or incorrectly, please amend your reports with the clarifying information.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of excessive contributions, your prompt refund of the excessive amounts to the donors will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

For your information, there appears to be a computer discrepancy in the last name of two contributors on the July 10 report. Dr. Henry Singleton and Mrs. Henry Sinleton should apparently have the same last name. Please amend this entry in your report. You may also need to make internal adjustments to properly aggregate the contributions for these individuals. This adjustment may be to split contributions from married persons, in all cases, when entering them into the computer. This would assist in avoiding the aggregate problem described herein. You may also consider the disclosure, or entry at least, of full first names when available, rather than just initials. This would also assist in identifying individuals more clearly.

2 U.S.C. Section 434(b) and 11 C.F.R. Section 104.2(b) require the identification, occupation, and principal place of business, if any, of each person who has made a contribution to or for a committee or candidate for Federal office in an amount or value in excess of $100, or in an amount less than $100 if the persons' contributions within the calendar year total more than $100, together with the amount and date of each contribution. 11 C.F.R. Section 100.12 defines "Principal Place of Business" as "the full name under which the person is employed or conducts business." Your October 10 report omits this information for 50 percent of the entries (741 of 1,461). Thirty (30) percent were deemed inadequate because only an address was provided (439 of 1,461). Therefore, 80 percent of the principal places of business were either omitted or inadequate and are requested by the Commission. 11 C.F.R. Section 100.11 defines "Occupation" as "principal job title or position and whether or not self-employed." Your report omits this information in 39 percent of the entries (583 of 1,461). Please provide the Commission with the requested information or evidence of your efforts to obtain the information from the contributors if unobtainable.

The total contributions itemized on Schedule A-P for Line 17a on your July 10 report of receipts and expenditures are $1,000 less than the amount reported on the Detailed Summary Page, Line 17a. The total contributions itemized on Schedule A-P for Line 17a on your October 10 report of receipts and expenditures are $100 less than the amount reported on the Detailed Summary Page, Line 17a. Please amend your July 10 and October 10 reports to adjust these figures.

The scheduled expenditures on Schedule B-P for Line 24a on your October 10 report of receipts and expenditures are $61.90 less than the amount reported on the Detailed Summary Page, Line 24a. The specific errors were found to be $61.36 on page 168 of Schedule B-P, $.72 on page 170 of Schedule B-P, and $.18 on page 172 of Schedule B-P. Please amend your report to correct these errors with the properly adjusted figures.

The scheduled debts and obligations for Line 13 on your October 10 report are $2,000 more than the amount reported on the Summary Page. The error is attributable to page 31, item B, for Line 13. The item's outstanding amount balance is reported as $2,724.25, but the total of the original debt is shown as $724.25. Please amend your report to correct this discrepancy.

The committee discloses transfers in the October 10 report from the Ketchum Campaign Account, Morality Action Committee, and the Silent American Majority. It is noted that they were included in previous reports as unitemized transfers. Please amend your reports to adjust the proper line totals, also making sure that the reporting of the transfers in this report do not inflate the committee's reported receipts.

The committee reports receiving a loan from the Santa Monica Bank on September 6, 1979, in the October 10 report. The committee is hereby requested to provide the duration of the loan, whether or not the loan is secured, the collateral involved in the loan if secured, the identification of any co-maker, endorser, or guarantor and (where applicable) the occupation and principal place of business of each, and the annual percentage rate (APR) of interest charged on each loan. Please amend your report to disclose this information.

The committee discloses an expenditure to Deaver & Hannaford, Inc., on April 26, 1979, in the amount of $1,276.00 for "repayment of rental deposit" on the July 10, 1979, report of receipts and expenditures (page 23 of Schedule B-P, Line 24a). Since no previous payment of a rental deposit has been disclosed, is this a reissue of a previous check? If so, does the reporting of this item inflate your expenditures and thereby require that the Summary and Detailed Summary Page totals be adjusted? Please clarify this particular of expenditure and make the appropriate schedule adjustments on this and previous reports, if applicable.

The committee discloses on its October 10 report an expenditure on July 27, 1979, of $1,470.00 to Madison Town Assoc. for "cash deposit." Was this, in fact, a deposit made in cash, or was it a check transaction? Please amend your report to clarify this matter.

The Commission has determined that when there is a very definitive associative property between a recognizable vendor who normally provides certains kinds of goods and/or services, and certain terms are used to describe the particulars, those terms are acceptable. In a case where the payee is not a recognizable vendor of the goods or services described, the same terms used for particulars are not acceptable. The following expenditures therefore need further clarification because there is no associative property between the particular of expenditure and the recognizable vendor:

Bruce Erikson	Postage	7/23/79	$315.00
Joseph R. Holmes	Promotional Material	7/10/79	910.00
Holmes Campaign	Promotion & Advertising Material	8/17/79	875.00

Please amend your report to clarify the purposes of expenditure so that the associative property is clear.

The following expenditures disclosed on the October 10 report may need clarification as to the purposes and the identification of the payee(s). Specifically, if the expenditures were made to agents acting on behalf of the committee, then the ultimate recipient(s) and the purposes(s) of the expenditures must be itemized in accordance with 2 U.S.C. Section 434(b)(9).

The committee discloses on the October 10 report an expenditure to Vanguard Photography with the particulars of "General Expense." This particular of expenditure is unacceptably vague. Please amend the October 10 report to clarify the purpose of this expenditure.

The committee discloses on the October 10 report, Schedule B-P for Line 24a, an expenditure to the Republican State Central Committee of California, 9/14/79, $1,175.00, for "tickets for convention." Please amend the October 10 report to clarify the purpose of the convention and the organization for whom the convention was held.

2 U.S.C. Section 434(b)(6) and 2 U.S.C. Section 434(b)(14) require the disclosure of the total amount of proceeds from:

(A) the sale of tickets to each dinner, luncheon, rally, and other fundraising event;

(B) mass collections made at such events; and

(C) sales of items such as political campaign pins, buttons, badges, flags, emblems, hats, banners, literature, and similar materials.

The following items disclosed on Schedule B-P for Line 24a of the October 10 report indicate that fundraisers appear to have occurred:

Sheraton-Boston Hotel	Rental of Banquet Room	8/20/79	70.00
Hilton Hawaiian Village Hotel	Catering Expense	8/29/79	7,000.00

In addition, the contributions received from the following areas, grouped by receipt date and locale, indicate that fundraising activity, possibly coordinated functions, has transpired and should be reported on Schedule D-P as required:

Boston, MA	7/11/79
St. Louis, MO	8/2/79
Wilkes Barre, PA	9/28/79

WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

October 24, 1979

CERTIFIED MAIL
RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

Ms. Bay Buchanan
Treasurer
Reagan for President Committee
9841 Airport Boulevard
Suite 1430
Los Angeles, California 90045

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is in response to yours of July 3, 1979, in which you expressed uncertainty as to what further details your committee was being asked to supply pursuant to the Request for Additional Information (RFAI) sent to the Reagan for President Committee on May 23, 1979, by the Reports Analysis Division. It is hoped that this letter will provide the clarification sought.

An RFAI has several purposes. These letters serve as a method of securing additional information in order that the public record may be complete. Further, in order to carry out its supervisory responsibilities mandated by the FECA, the RFAI is one method by which the Commission attempts to ascertain whether or not a committee has complied with the requirements of the FECA and, in certain instances, may provide an opportunity for the committee to come into compliance with the Act; thereby obviating the need for the Commission to resort to its statutory civil enforcement powers.

Your letter of July 3 did not address the most serious issue raised in the May 23 RFAI, namely the Committee's failure to provide the occupations and principal places of business for a high percentage of contributors itemized on the April 10 report. No principal place of business is disclosed for 81% of these contributors. The information provided concerning an additional 7% is inadequate because only business addresses are disclosed. The report omits the occupations of 67% of the itemized contributors.

2 U.S.C. § 434(b) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.2(b) require disclosure of the identification, occupation and principal place of business of every contributor of an amount in excess of or aggregating in excess of $100 within a calendar year.

3 3 0 4 0 3 8 2 9 3 5

The second request in the RFAI involves further details concerning the "particulars" of specific committee expenditures. In the two instances regarding Deaver and Hannaford, the questions raised by the reports analysis were not related to the reporting of the purposes of the expenditures involved but rather to the nature of the payee. In other words, more specificity is needed as to why Deaver and Hannaford would be supplying both accommodations and printing. The Committee is asked to verify that this payee is in fact providing a variety of services for the Committee which include the specific ones listed on the report.

The request for further information concerning the payments to Marina City Club, Inc. and to Oakwood Apartments for apartment expenses was based upon the desire to determine the reasons for these expenditures. Were they, for example, related to travel arrangements or to meeting facilities, or is the Committee paying the personal expenses of staff members in lieu of salary?

Other items listed in the May 23rd request involved the possibility that the payee listed was not the ultimate recipient of the expenditure involved. This pertains in particular to the expenditures to Friends of Mike Curb and Lynn R. Fillman for the purchase of office equipment. Did these expenditures represent purchases of second-hand equipment or did Friends of Mike Curb and Lynn R. Fillman act as agents for the Committee in securing these items? If the latter applies, the Committee's reports should cite the ultimate payee involved.

A number of the other items listed in the May 23rd request provided as their purpose "reimbursement for air fare, food, lodging and misc. expenses" or another similar statement. Since the RFAI was sent to the Committee it has been determined that such descriptions as these for travel-related campaign expenses incurred by persons directly involved with the campaign will be sufficient. (See the Financial Control and Compliance Manual for Presidential Candidates Receiving Public Financing (Primary Election Financing), pages 138-139.) Therefore, all of these items listed in the RFAI may now be considered adequately disclosed.

Another category of items listed in the RFAI required more details concerning certain committee debts and obligations. It has now been determined that no further action is required on this matter.

3 5 0 4 0 3 8 2 9 7 5

The RFAI's reference to apparent groupings of contributions by geographical location and by date was included simply to point out that if any of these contributions involved fundraising events, such events must be itemized on Schedule D-P and the total amount received from all such events during a reporting period must be included as a memo entry on Line 14c of the Detailed Summary Sheet. If these contributions were the result of a mass mailing or other fundraising effort not involving an actual event, the present content of the reports is adequate.

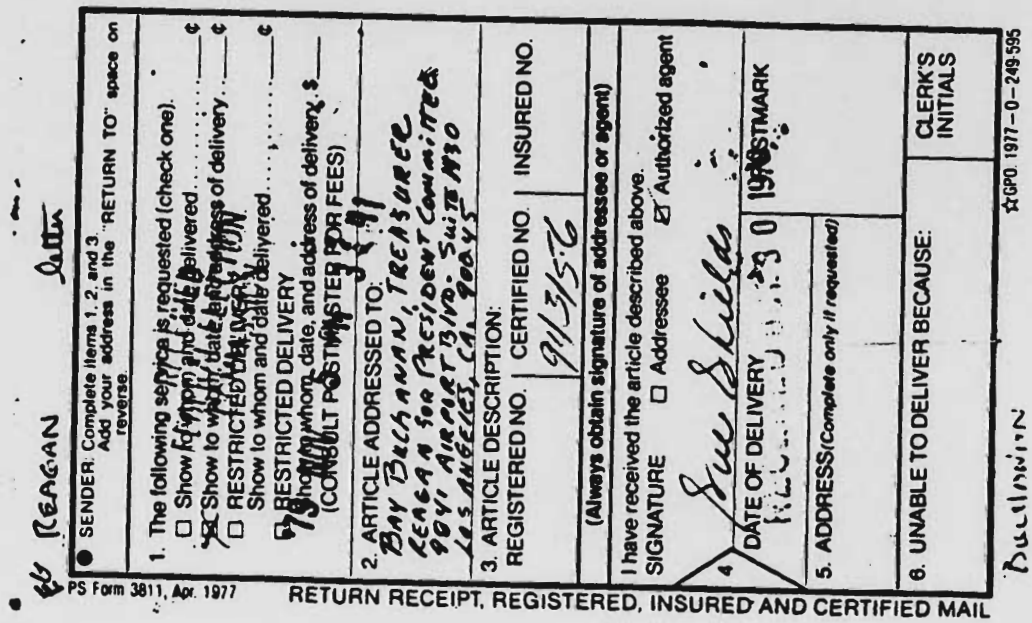

Should you have additional questions, please contact Chadwick R. Gore on our toll-free line (800) 424-9530. Our local number is (202) 523-4048.

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

The Federal Election Commission has notified you by means of requests for additional information dated May 23, 1979, October 12, 1979, and January 11, 1980, that certain information included in the April 10, July 10, and October 10, 1979, reports filed by the Reagan for President Committee was inadequate for purposes of meeting the requirements of former 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(2), 434(b)(6) and 434(b)(9), and of 11 C.F.R. §§ 104.2(b)(2) and 104.2(b)(9). In addition you have been notified of certain apparently excessive contributions received in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

Upon further review of the information available to the Commission, the Commission determined on April , 1980, that there is reason to believe that your committee has violated former 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(2), 434(b)(6) and 434(b)(9) and 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). A report on the Commission's findings is attached for your information. You may submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter.

As of this date we have received no written response from you in connection with the above issues. Please submit either appropriate amendments to the April 10, July 10 and October 10, 1979, reports or an explanation of why such amendments are not necessary within 10 days of your receipt of this letter. In addition, please indicate whether refunds of the apparently excessive contributions here at issue have been made.

In the absence of any additional information which demonstrates that no further action should be taken against your committee, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred, and proceed with formal conciliation. Of course, this does not preclude the settlement of this matter through informal conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, if you so desire.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public.

If you have any questions, please contact Anne A. Weissenborn, the attorney assigned to this matter under review, at (202) 523-5071.

Sincerely,

RESPONDENT Reagan for President Committee

Anne Weissenborn

(202) 523-4071

BACKGROUND

This matter was generated as the result of information compiled by the Reports Analysis Division during the ordinary course of review of the April 10, 1979, July 10, and October 10, 1979 quarterly reports submitted by the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"). The Reports Analysis Division finds that information supplied by the Committee is inadequate with regard to the itemization of occupations and principal places of business of contributors, the reporting of fundraisers, and the provision of particulars of expenditures, thus placing the Committee in apparent violation of 2 U.S.C. §§434(b)(2), 434(b)(6), and 434(b)(9). Evidence of the Committee's acceptance of excessive contribution has also been found, placing the Committee in violation of 2 U.S.C. §441a(f).

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

Failure to Report Occupations and Principal Places of Business

In its April 10, 1979, report the Committee failed to report the occupations of 67% of the itemized contributors and the principal places of business of 81% of such contributions. An additional 7% of the entries of principal places of business were inadequate because only the address was provided, not the full name under which the business is conducted. In its July 10, 1979 report, the Committee omitted conributors' occupations for 41% of its entries and contributors' principal places of business for 45% of the entries. In addition, 35% of the entries supplied for principal places of business were deemed inadequate because only an address was provided, and in its October 15, 1979 report the Committee omitted contributors' occupations for 39% of its entries and contributors' principal places of business for 50% of the entries. In addition, 30% of the entries regarding principal places of business have been found to be inadequate because only an address is provided.

The Committee was informed of these omissions in requests for additional information sent on May 23, 1979, October 12, 1979 and January 11,1980; however, the Committee has supplied neither the missing information nor evidence of efforts to obtain the information from the contributors involved. 2 U.S.C. §434(b), the statutory provision in effect throughout 1979, provided that "(w)hen committee tresurers and candidates show that best efforts have been used to obtain and submit information required by this subsection, they shall be deemed to be in compliance with this subsection." "Best efforts" assumes that some effort has been made to secure the required information. The Committee, however, has provided no evidence that such an effort was made.

Failure to Report Fundraisers

In its April 10, 1979, report the Committee failed to report aggregate figures for sales and collections on Line 17 of Form 3-P, page 2, and also failed to file Form D-P itemizing fundraising events, even though the Committee's itemization of contributors showed several instances of numerous contributions having been received on the same day from persons living in the same city. Specifically, such contributions were apparently received from persons in Los Angeles on March 14, 1979 and March 23, 1979; from persons in Inglewood on March 20, 1979; from residents of San Francisco on March 23, 1979; and from persons in Fort Lauderdale on March 22, 1979.

Former 2 U.S.C. §434(b)(6), which was in effect throughout 1979, required the reporting of the total amounts of proceeds derived from fundraising events. In addition, the Commission had determined that the itemization of fundraisers was required by 2 U.S.C. §434(b)(6) and by 11 C.F.R. §104.2(b)(6). Congressional approval was obtained for the reporting forms to be issued for this purpose. Therefore, the Committee was required to report the aggregate figures related to the proceeds from any fundraisers held, and to itemize those events.

Failure to Report Sufficiently Detailed Particulars for Expenditures

On its April 10, 1979, July 10, 1979, and October 10, 1979, reports the Committee failed to provide sufficiently detailed particulars with regard to certain expenditures as required by 2 U.S.C. §434(b)(9) throughout 1979. The Committee did not submit amendments for any of the reports at issue.

The Commission has determined that the following particulars for expenditures were too vague:

3304038297

April 10, 1979 Report

Paul Laxalt, reimbursement reception expenses	3/31/79	$ 783.00

July 10, 1979 Report

Potomac International Corp. reimbursement expense	4/18/79	2,220.07
Potomac International Corp. special activities	4/26/79	499.00
Henry A. Hunt, special activities	4/23/79	272.37
James W. Webb, II, expense reimbursement	5/8/79	405.66
Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease reimbursement expenses	6/20/79	1,755.06

October 10, 1979 Report

Vanguard Photography general expense	7/26/79	220.18

3 3 0 4 0 3 8 2 9 7 6

In cases where the reported payee of an itemized expenditure was actually serving as an agent of the reporting committee in dealing with a third party vendor, that third party should be reported as the payee. In the present situation certain payees of itemized expenditures do not appear to have been the ultimate recipients of the payments involved. The expenditures were:

Excessive Contributions

In its April 10, July 10, and October 10, 1979, reports the Committee's itemization of contributors indicates twelve instances where excessive contributions have apparently been received and not reimbursed. The contributors and the dates and amounts of their contributions are as follows:

Jane Boeckman	3/19/79	$1,000.00
	6/11/79	1,000.00
		$2,000.00

Based on the foregoing analysis, the Federal Election Commission has found:

1. Reason to believe the Reagan for President Committee has violated former 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(6), former 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9), former 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(9) and 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f).

BACKGROUND

This matter was generated as the result of information compiled by the Reports Analysis Division during the ordinary course of review of the April 10, July 10, and October 10, 1979 quarterly reports submitted by the Reagan for President Committee ("the Committee"). The Reports Analysis Division has found evidence that you have contributed $2,000 to the Committee in violation of 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(1)(A).

8 3 0 4 0 3 8 2 9 3 1

FACTUAL BASIS AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

The April 10, 1979, report submitted by the Committee shows that on March 19, 1979, you contributed $1,000, while the July 10, 1979 report indicates that you contributed a second $1,000 on June 11, 1979, for a total of $2,000. 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(1)(A) limits contributions from individuals to federal candidates per election to $1,000.

Based on the foregoing analysis, the Federal Election Commission has found:

Reason to believe that you violated 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(1)(A).

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20463

11 January 1980

Ms. Bay Buchanan, Treasurer
Reagan for President (C00108308)
9841 Airport Boulevard, Suite 1430
Los Angeles, CA 90045

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's review of your April 10, July 10, and October 10, 1979, reports of receipts and expenditures.

The review indicated the receipt of apparent excessive contributions from individuals, and certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act and the Commission's regulations was omitted or in error. An itemization of this information follows:

The review of your reports discloses contributions on Schedule A-P for Line 17a which appear to exceed the limits set forth in 2 U.S.C. 441a (pertinent schedules attached). The Act precludes an individual or a political committee, other than a multi-candidate political committee, from making contributions to a candidate for Federal office in excess of $1,000 per election. If you have received contributions which exceed the limits, the Commission recommends that you refund to the donors the amounts in excess of $1,000. The return of the contributions should be reported immediately by letter and the refund should appear on Schedule B-P for Line 27a in your next report. If you find that the contributions in question were disclosed improperly or incorrectly, please amend your reports with the clarifying information.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of excessive contributions, your prompt refund of the excessive amounts to the donors will be taken into consideration by the Commission.

For your information, there appears to be a computer discrepancy in the last name of two contributors on the July 10 report. Dr. Henry Singleton and Mrs. Henry Sinleton should apparently have the same last name. Please amend this entry in your report. You may also need to make internal adjustments to properly aggregate the contributions for these individuals. This adjustment may be to split contributions from married persons, in all cases, when entering them into the computer. This would assist in avoiding the aggregate problem described herein. You may also consider the disclosure, or entry at least, of full first names when available, rather than just initials. This would also assist in identifying individuals more clearly.

2 U.S.C. Section 434(b) and 11 C.F.R. Section 104.2(b) require the identification, occupation, and principal place of business, if any, of each person who has made a contribution to or for a committee or candidate for Federal office in an amount or value in excess of $100, or in an amount less than $100 if the persons' contributions within the calendar year total more than $100, together with the amount and date of each contribution. 11 C.F.R. Section 100.12 defines "Principal Place of Business" as "the full name under which the person is employed or conducts business." Your October 10 report omits this information for 50 percent of the entries (741 of 1,461). Thirty (30) percent were deemed inadequate because only an address was provided (439 of 1,461). Therefore, 80 percent of the principal places of business were either omitted or inadequate and are requested by the Commission. 11 C.F.R. Section 100.11 defines "Occupation" as "principal job title or position and whether or not self-employed." Your report omits this information in 39 percent of the entries (583 of 1,461). Please provide the Commission with the requested information or evidence of your efforts to obtain the information from the contributors if unobtainable.

The total contributions itemized on Schedule A-P for Line 17a on your July 10 report of receipts and expenditures are $1,000 less than the amount reported on the Detailed Summary Page, Line 17a. The total contributions itemized on Schedule A-P for Line 17a on your October 10 report of receipts and expenditures are $100 less than the amount reported on the Detailed Summary Page, Line 17a. Please amend your July 10 and October 10 reports to adjust these figures.

The scheduled expenditures on Schedule B-P for Line 24a on your October 10 report of receipts and expenditures are $61.90 less than the amount reported on the Detailed Summary Page, Line 24a. The specific errors were found to be $61.36 on page 168 of Schedule B-P, $.72 on page 170 of Schedule B-P, and $.18 on page 172 of Schedule B-P. Please amend your report to correct these errors with the properly adjusted figures.

The scheduled debts and obligations for Line 13 on your October 10 report are $2,000 more than the amount reported on the Summary Page. The error is attributable to page 31, item B, for Line 13. The item's outstanding amount balance is reported as $2,724.25, but the total of the original debt is shown as $724.25. Please amend your report to correct this discrepancy.

The committee discloses transfers in the October 10 report from the Ketchum Campaign Account, Morality Action Committee, and the Silent American Majority. It is noted that they were included in previous reports as unitemized transfers. Please amend your reports to adjust the proper line totals, also making sure that the reporting of the transfers in this report do not inflate the committee's reported receipts.

The committee reports receiving a loan from the Santa Monica Bank on September 6, 1979, in the October 10 report. The committee is hereby requested to provide the duration of the loan, whether or not the loan is secured, the collateral involved in the loan if secured, the identification of any co-maker, endorser, or guarantor and (where applicable) the occupation and principal place of business of each, and the annual percentage rate (APR) of interest charged on each loan. Please amend your report to disclose this information.

The committee discloses an expenditure to Deaver & Hannaford, Inc., on April 26, 1979, in the amount of $1,276.00 for "repayment of rental deposit" on the July 10, 1979, report of receipts and expenditures (page 23 of Schedule B-P, Line 24a). Since no previous payment of a rental deposit has been disclosed, is this a reissue of a previous check? If so, does the reporting of this item inflate your expenditures and thereby require that the Summary and Detailed Summary Page totals be adjusted? Please clarify this particular of expenditure and make the appropriate schedule adjustments on this and previous reports, if applicable.

The committee discloses on its October 10 report an expenditure on July 27, 1979, of $1,470.00 to Madison Town Assoc. for "cash deposit." Was this, in fact, a deposit made in cash, or was it a check transaction? Please amend your report to clarify this matter.

The Commission has determined that when there is a very definitive associative property between a recognizable vendor who normally provides certains kinds of goods and/or services, and certain terms are used to describe the particulars, those terms are acceptable. In a case where the payee is not a recognizable vendor of the goods or services described, the same terms used for particulars are not acceptable. The following expenditures therefore need further clarification because there is no associative property between the particular of expenditure and the recognizable vendor:

Bruce Erikson	Postage	7/23/79	$315.00
Joseph R. Holmes	Promotional Material	7/10/79	910.00
Holmes Campaign	Promotion & Advertising Material	8/17/79	875.00

Please amend your report to clarify the purposes of expenditure so that the associative property is clear.

The following expenditures disclosed on the October 10 report may need clarification as to the purposes and the identification of the payee(s). Specifically, if the expenditures were made to agents acting on behalf of the committee, then the ultimate recipient(s) and the purposes(s) of the expenditures must be itemized in accordance with 2 U.S.C. Section 434(b)(9).

The committee discloses on the October 10 report an expenditure to Vanguard Photography with the particulars of "General Expense." This particular of expenditure is unacceptably vague. Please amend the October 10 report to clarify the purpose of this expenditure.

The committee discloses on the October 10 report, Schedule B-P for Line 24a, an expenditure to the Republican State Central Committee of California, 9/14/79, $1,175.00, for "tickets for convention." Please amend the October 10 report to clarify the purpose of the convention and the organization for whom the convention was held.

2 U.S.C. Section 434(b)(6) and 2 U.S.C. Section 434(b)(14) require the disclosure of the total amount of proceeds from:

(A) the sale of tickets to each dinner, luncheon, rally, and other fundraising event;

(B) mass collections made at such events; and

(C) sales of items such as political campaign pins, buttons, badges, flags, emblems, hats, banners, literature, and similar materials.

RE: ISVI/79-6

Dear Mr. Haselhorst:

The entry questioned in your letter dated October 21, 1979 and referenced above, was a refund for office equipment from James H. Bunch on June 11, 1979 for $1152.63.

Due to circumstances beyond his control, Mr. Bunch was required to repurchase equipment purchased by Reagan for President from his business-Bunch Office Equipment. Bunch Office Equipment is a sole proprietorship, and therefore the entry, James H. Bunch, as opposed to Bunch Office Equipment, is appropriate.

If there are any further questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Bay Buchanan

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's interest in assisting candidates and committees who wish to comply with the Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended. During review of the July 10, 1979 Report of Receipts and Expenditures filed by your committee, we noticed an entry indicating that you may have received a contribution which exceeds the limits set forth in the Act. A copy of that portion of your report is attached so that a review of your records may be made.

The Act precludes individuals from making political contributions to a candidate for Federal office in excess of $1,000 per election.

The Commission recommends that if you find the contribution you received was in excess of the limits set forth in the Act you return the amount in excess of $1,000 to the donor. This return should be reported immediately by letter to the Commission and should be reflected as a contribution refund on your next report of receipts and expenditures. If you find that the entry in question is incomplete or incorrect, please submit a statement which would clarify this particular matter for the public record. You may do so by amending your original report by letter.

Please notify the Commission within fifteen (15) days from the date of this letter of the determination made on this matter. If you have any questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Chadwick R. Gore (800) 424-9530, our Reports Analyst assigned to you. Our local telephone number is (202) 523-4048.

Mr. Orlando B. Potter
Staff Director

1325 K Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Mr. Potter:

This is written in response to your letter of May 23. I have been in the hospital almost continuously since your letter arrived asking for additional information concerning our April 10th report. However, I have had a chance to consider your request and I am somewhat puzzled by the questions. You ask for more information or detail on items like "rent," "postage," or "air fare." What kind of additional detail are you talking about? For example, would you prefer: "Postage--American, flag picture with perforated edges in 15 cent denomination." The description of expenditures we have used provides all the relevant detail that exists!

Until we receive some new regulations or guidelines of general applicability we will continue to use our current reporting descriptions. Those were considered adequate in 1976 and unless the law has been changed, we have no reason to believe that they are not adequate today.

We must all remember the purpose of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and particularly its disclosure provisions. That purpose is to proivde the public with full information on how campaign dollars are spent by each and every candidate. It is not the law's purpose to make a hypertechnical game out of disclosure, fit only for the afficionados of election law administration. We know you have more urgent tasks as do we. We hope in the period to come we will be able to cooperate successfully to fulfill the law's important goals.

Very truly yours,

Bay Buchanan

Be advised that 11 C.F.R. 104.2(b)(9) requires that the "particulars" be provided for each expenditure which exceeds $100 in the aggregate to a single payee. Payee means the ultimate recipient of the monies expended, not an agent of the committee who expends the monies. Where applicable you are asked to amend your report to disclose the ultimate recipients of the monies involved in the expenditures underlined above. In addition, provide more details as to the purposes of these expenditures; those provided are too vague.

The following information is requested by the Commission:

4. 2 U.S.C. 434(b) and 11 C.F.R. 104.2(b) require the identification, occupation, and principal place of business, if any, of each person who has made a contribution to or for a committee or candidate in an amount or value in excess of $100, or in an amount less than $100 if the person's contributions within a calendar year total more than $100, together with the amount and the date of each contribution. 11 C.F.R. 100.12 defines "Principal Place of Business" as "the full name under which the business is conducted and the city and state in which the person is employed or conducts business". Your report omits this information in 45% of the entries (333 of 734 entries). 35% were deemed inadequate because only an address was provided (260 of 734 entries). Therefore, 80% of the principal places of business were either omitted or inadequate and are requested by the Commission. 11 C.F.R. 100.11 defines "Occupation" as "principal job title or position and whether or not self-employed". Your report omits this information in 41% of the entries (303 of 734 entries). Please provide the Commission the information requested or evidence of your efforts to obtain the information from the contributors.
5. Contributions reported by your committee and grouped by receipt date, city, and state indicate that fundraising activity has occurred in the following locations on or about the date indicated:

Kansas City, Kansas 4-11-79
Indianapolis, Indiana 5-31-79
Metropolitan New York 6-18-79
Rapid City South Dakota 6-18-79

The following expenditures are some of the items disclosed on Schedule B-P for Line 24a that also indicate that fundraising activity has taken place during the reporting period:

Franklyn C. Nofziger	reimbursed fundraising expenses	4-2-79	$ 104.00
Ms. VonDamm	fundraising	4-3-79	24.82

35 In-Kind Contributions	Minneapolis, MN luncheon	4-9-79	975.00

If the receipts grouped above were from fundraisers, or if the expenditures above were for fundraisers, be advised that 11 C.F.R. 104.2(b)(6) requires the disclosure of all fundraising events to include the dates, locations of the events, and the total gross proceeds of each event. This information should be reported on Schedule D-P and the total entered on Line 17c of the Detailed Summary Page as a memo entry. Receipts from individuals should be itemized in the appropriate manner. All receipts from political committees should be itemized on Schedule A-P for Line 18b regardless of the amount. Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's interest in assisting candidates and committees who wish to comply with the Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended. During review of the July 10, 1979 Report of Receipts and Expenditures filed by your committee, we noticed an entry indicating that you may have received a contribution which exceeds the limits set forth in the Act. A copy of that portion of your report is attached so that a review of your records may be made.

The Act precludes individuals from making political contributions to a candidate for Federal office in excess of $1,000 per election.

The Commission recommends that if you find the contribution you received was in excess of the limits set forth in the Act you return the amount in excess of $1,000 to the donor. This return should be reported immediately by letter to the Commission and should be reflected as a contribution refund on your next report of receipts and expenditures. If you find that the entry in question is incomplete or incorrect, please submit a statement which would clarify this particular matter for the public record. You may do so by amending your original report by letter.

Please notify the Commission within fifteen (15) days from the date of this letter of the determination made on this matter. If you have any questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact Chadwick R. Gore (800) 424-9530, our Reports Analyst assigned to you. Our local telephone number is (202) 523-4048.

Candidate/Committee: Reagan for President

DATE: 10/19/79

SUBJECT(S): ~~October~~ July 10 1979 RFAI & SV

Discussed 1SV1/79-6 about the apparent excessive contribution from James H. Bunch. Bunch had sold typewriters to the committee and had then been told by the police that the machines were stolen. He then had to buy them back from the Committee. Apparently the business did not have enough money to repay the committee, and he then made up the difference. She asked if it was a sole proprietorship if that would make a difference. I said that I would check on the corporate status and get back to her when she got the letter.

I then discussed the RFAI dated October 12, 1979. She said that the ultimate payee of the cash to Western Union should have been disclosed and that it was an omission.

The interest payment to the Sanata Monica Bank was paid in error for the letters of credit reported in the Q3 report. She said that she would write a letter explaining the problems with the letters of credit.

Read the particulars of expenditures to her and she agreed that some of them should ahve been disclosed. The ultimate payee worried her, so I said that I would try to have a more succinct explanation of the instances where they were necessary when we next talk.

Pointed out that the RFAI was again requesting contributor information. We discussed the court case on best efforts and what best efforts could possibly be, but did not try to resolve the question. She did indicate that the committee would probably not respond to this part of the RFAI.

Discussed the fundraising disclosure on the Schedule D-P. The counsel for the committee haas said to her that this is not required since the Act does not address or require it. I pointed out that the Act does allow us to request information which the committee has to disclose on the forms as required by the regulations. We concluded that the issue would probably need to be resolved at a higher level of dialogue than over the phone. However, the committee does have the information if necessary to disclose it.

CERTIFIED MAIL
RETURN RECEIPT REQUESTED

Ms. Bay Buchanan
Treasurer
Reagan for President Committee
9841 Airport Boulevard
Suite 1430
Los Angeles, California 90045

Dear Ms. Buchanan:

This letter is in response to yours of July 3, 1979, in which you expressed uncertainty as to what further details your committee was being asked to supply pursuant to the Request for Additional Information (RFAI) sent to the Reagan for President Committee on May 23, 1979, by the Reports Analysis Division. It is hoped that this letter will provide the clarification sought.

An RFAI has several purposes. These letters serve as a method of securing additional information in order that the public record may be complete. Further, in order to carry out its supervisory responsibilities mandated by the FECA, the RFAI is one method by which the Commission attempts to ascertain whether or not a committee has complied with the requirements of the FECA and, in certain instances, may provide an opportunity for the committee to come into compliance with the Act; thereby obviating the need for the Commission to resort to its statutory civil enforcement powers.

Your letter of July 3 did not address the most serious issue raised in the May 23 RFAI, namely the Committee's failure to provide the occupations and principal places of business for a high percentage of contributors itemized on the April 10 report. No principal place of business is disclosed for 81% of these contributors. The information provided concerning an additional 7% is inadequate because only business addresses are disclosed. The report omits the occupations of 67% of the itemized contributors.

2 U.S.C. § 434(b) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.2(b) require disclosure of the identification, occupation and principal place of business of every contributor of an amount in excess of or aggregating in excess of $100 within a calendar year.

The second request in the RFAI involves further details concerning the "particulars" of specific committee expenditures. In the two instances regarding Deaver and Hannaford, the questions raised by the reports analysis were not related to the reporting of the purposes of the expenditures involved but rather to the nature of the payee. In other words, more specificity is needed as to why Deaver and Hannaford would be supplying both accommodations and printing. The Committee is asked to verify that this payee is in fact providing a variety of services for the Committee which include the specific ones listed on the report.

The request for further information concerning the payments to Marina City Club, Inc. and to Oakwood Apartments for apartment expenses was based upon the desire to determine the reasons for these expenditures. Were they, for example, related to travel arrangements or to meeting facilities, or is the Committee paying the personal expenses of staff members in lieu of salary?

Other items listed in the May 23rd request involved the possibility that the payee listed was not the ultimate recipient of the expenditure involved. This pertains in particular to the expenditures to Friends of Mike Curb and Lynn R. Fillman for the purchase of office equipment. Did these expenditures represent purchases of second-hand equipment or did Friends of Mike Curb and Lynn R. Fillman act as agents for the Committee in securing these items? If the latter applies, the Committee's reports should cite the ultimate payee involved.

A number of the other items listed in the May 23rd request provided as their purpose "reimbursement for air fare, food, lodging and misc. expenses" or another similar statement. Since the RFAI was sent to the Committee it has been determined that such descriptions as these for travel-related campaign expenses incurred by persons directly involved with the campaign will be sufficient. (See the Financial Control and Compliance Manual for Presidential Candidates Receiving Public Financing (Primary Election Financing), pages 138-139.) Therefore, all of these items listed in the RFAI may now be considered adequately disclosed.

Another category of items listed in the RFAI required more details concerning certain committee debts and obligations. It has now been determined that no further action is required on this matter.

The RFAI's reference to apparent groupings of contributions by geographical location and by date was included simply to point out that if any of these contributions involved fundraising events, such events must be itemized on Schedule D-P and the total amount received from all such events during a reporting period must be included as a memo entry on Line 14c of the Detailed Summary Sheet. If these contributions were the result of a mass mailing or other fundraising effort not involving an actual event, the present content of the reports is adequate.

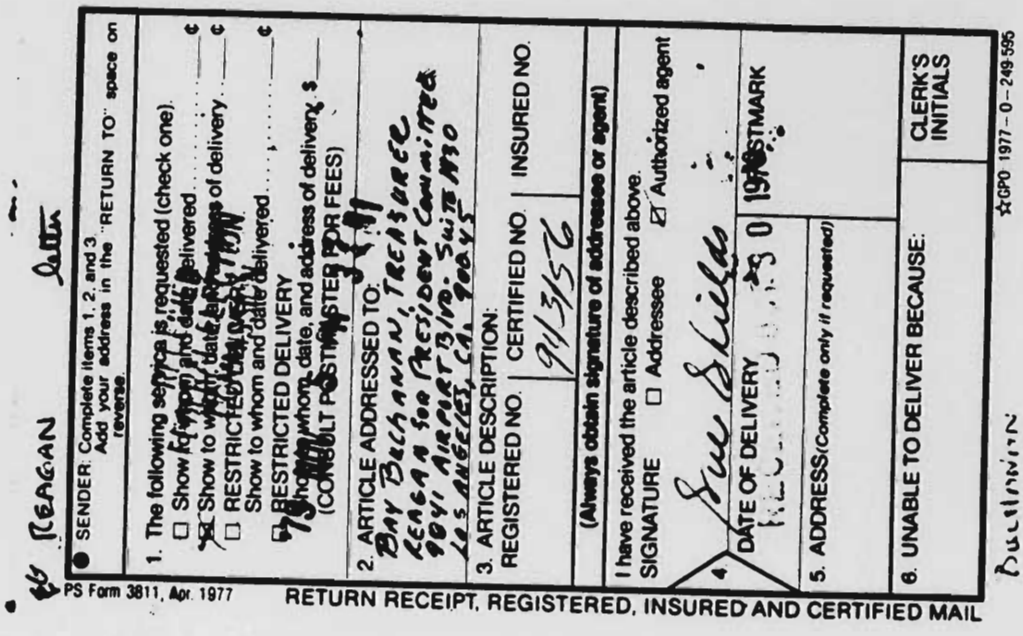

Should you have additional questions, please contact Chadwick R. Gore on our toll-free line (800) 424-9530. Our local number is (202) 523-4048.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Haselhorst

MEMO TO THE FILE

In Re: Meeting with Reagan Campaign Staff, December 17, 1979

Attending: Charlie Hanshaw, Audit
Chadwick R. Gore, RAD
Loren Smith, Reagan for President Counsel
Bay Buchanan, Treasurer, Reagan for President

This was a meeting to get to know each other and pass snipets at each other. I was greeted with, "The FEC Nit-Picker" from Loren Smith. We all passed general chatter. The only thing of substance that I recall was that Bay mentioned that they had not responded to the letters that they had received. I mentioned that I was working on the letters when I was told that they were here. She said that they were goning to respond sometime soon, but that they were so busy that they hadn't time to respond now.
