GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORTSENSITIVE*I. BACKGROUND

On September 29, 1983, the Commission found reason to believe Voters for Choice and Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i) by failing to file the 1982 First Quarterly Report timely. Neither Voters for Choice nor Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer, submitted a response to the Commission's reason to believe finding. On January 17, 1984, the General Counsel mailed a brief to the respondents (see the General Counsel's Brief in MUR 1575). After a 20 day extension of time to respond, the respondents submitted a Reply Brief on February 23, 1984 (see the Reply Brief in MUR 1575). */

II. LEGAL ANALYSIS

In response to the General Counsel's Brief the respondents argue that they "acted responsibly and in good faith." The respondents maintain that as soon as they were notified by the Reports Analysis Division that the 1982 First Quarterly Report had not been filed, "Voters cooperated fully with the Commission to reconstruct the information and correct the filing." According to the response submitted, the former bookkeeper for

*/ The Reply Brief notes that the respondents "have no record or recollection" of receiving notice of the reason to believe finding in this matter.

Voters for Choice prepared a draft of the First Quarterly Report which was reviewed and approved by Kristina Kiehl who then "signed the appropriate form for filing and had no reason to believe the report was not actually filed." The respondents conclude their argument by stating that they had "every reason to believe they had complied fully with the requirements" of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a).

Although the respondents argue that they had every reason to believe they complied with the filing requirements of the Act because the appropriate forms were signed by the treasurer, it is nevertheless the responsibility of the reporting entity and its treasurer to ensure that such requirements are in fact met. There has been no demonstration by the respondents that the report in question was mailed or hand-delivered to the Commission for filing. Hence, it remains the recommendation of the General Counsel that there is probable cause to believe Voters for Choice and Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i).

RE: MUR 1575
Voters for Choice;
Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer

Dear Ms. Harmon:

On , 1984, the Commission determined there is probable cause to believe that your clients, Voters for Choice and Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer, committed a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i), a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, in connection with the filing of the 1982 April Quarterly report.

The Commission has a duty to attempt to correct such violations for a period of thirty to ninety days by informal methods of conference, conciliation and persuasion, and by entering into a conciliation agreement. If we are unable to reach an agreement during that period, the Commission may institute civil suit in United States District Court and seek payment of a civil penalty.

We enclose a conciliation agreement that this office is prepared to recommend to the Commission in settlement of this matter. If you agree with the provisions of the enclosed agreement, please sign and return it along with the civil penalty to the Commission within ten days. I will then recommend that the Commission approve the agreement. Please make your check for the civil penalty payable to the U.S. Treasurer.

If you have any questions or suggestions for changes in the enclosed conciliation agreement, please contact Maura White, the staff member assigned to this matter, at 523-4057.

Sincerely,

Charles N. Steele

REPLY BRIEF

Introduction

We believe that Voters and Kristina Kiehl acted responsibly and in good faith. As set forth in more detail in the attached Affidavit of Kristina Kiehl, both she and Voters for Choice acted in good faith and believed they had complied fully with 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i). When Voters was notified by the Reports Analysis Division that The First Quarterly Report had not been filed, Voters cooperated fully with the Commission to reconstruct the information and correct the filing.

Voters has no record or recollection of ever receiving notification of the Commission's reason to believe finding. Upon receiving the Commission's notification of probable cause, Voters has acted swiftly and responsibly to reconstruct the events and respond fully to the Commission's allegations.

Statement of the Case

Voters for Choice ("Voters") is a small organization staffed mainly by volunteers. It has, from time to time, employed a part-time bookkeeper and a staff member, both for low salaries. Unfortunately, over the past two years there has been a high turnover in both of these positions.

In January 1982, Voters for Choice, through its Executive Director Susan Dickler, hired as its part-time bookkeeper Brenda Berry. Ms. Berry came highly recommended and Voters had every reason to expect her to perform in a capable and competent manner. As stated in more detail in the attached Affidavits of Kristina Kiehl and Susan Dickler, Voters made every effort to ensure that Ms. Berry was fully aware of the filing requirements of the Commission and other government entities.

Ms. Berry did in fact prepare a draft of the First Quarterly Report, which was reviewed and approved by Kristina Kiehl as Treasurer. Ms. Kiehl signed the appropriate form for filing and had no reason to believe the report was not actually filed. Ms. Berry also prepared the Second Quarterly Report for 1982, which was again approved and signed by Ms. Kiehl. This second report was indeed timely filed with the Commission.

There was a noticeable decline in Ms. Berry's performance and she was eventually fired by Voters. Another bookkeeper, Paulette Moss, was hired. Ms. Moss also came highly recommended and Voters was extremely pleased with her performance. When the Reports Analysis Division notified Voters of their failure to file in a timely fashion, Voters made every effort to remedy the situation. Voters worked intensely with the Commission representatives in order to bring their filings up-to-date. Voters reconstructed the information and filed the First Quarterly Report for 1982 on November 5, 1982.

Finally, the Commission states that notice of a reason to believe finding was sent to Voters. No date is specified for this notice. In telephone conversations with the Commission, it was stated that this notice was mailed on October 3, 1983, to Voters' old address at 1015 18th Street, N.W., Suite 310, Washington, D.C. 20036, and was returned to the Commission by the postal service. The notice was mailed again on October 28, 1983, to Voters new address at 2000 P Street, N.W., Suite 301, Washington, D.C. 20036. Voters has no record or recollection of receiving that notice. The Commission did not send the notice certified mail. The Commission contends Voters received the notice because it was not again returned by the postal service.

Conclusion

As stated above and detailed in the attached Affidavit of Kristina Kiehl and Susan Dickler, Voters for Choice and Kristina Kiehl have acted responsibly and in good faith. They had every reason to believe they had complied fully with the requirements of 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(a), 434(a)(i) and 434(a)(4)(A)(i). When Voters was notified that the documents had not been filed, Kristina Kiehl, on behalf of herself and Voters, took immediate action to respond to the Commission and cooperate fully in order to rectify the situation. Every effort has been made to correct Voters' filings and bring them up-to-date. Voters reports are now completely accurate and timely.

Therefore, because Voters and Kristina Kiehl acted responsibly and in good faith, we respectfully request that no adverse action be taken by the Commission and that the Commission dismiss this proceeding.

Respectfully submitted,

Gail Harmon

6. Michael Gelman, a C.P.A., met with Ms. Berry to explain the required filing of all reports and give her direction in the procedures to be followed. He remembers her to have appeared alert, responsive and apparently knowledgeable. He felt that she understood what was expected of her and that she would perform in a capable manner.

7. Under the direction of Kristina Kiehl, Ms. Berry prepared the First Quarterly Report for 1982 in a timely and responsible manner. I understand Ms. Kiehl reviewed and approved the draft documents prepared by Ms. Berry. Ms. Berry led me to believe that the forms had been properly filed with the Commission.

8. Ms. Berry also prepared the Second Quarterly Report for 1982. This document was prepared on time and submitted for Ms. Kiehl's review and approval. Ms. Kiehl signed the documents and they were indeed filed with the Commission on July 9, 1982. This, again, gave me no reason to believe the First Quarterly Report had not been filed.

9. In the summer of 1982, Ms. Berry's performance began noticeably to decline. She did not keep appointments and the officers had difficulty getting information from her. Ms. Berry was not responsive when asked for copies of documents, and, in fact, stalled and procrastinated when I asked for copies of the FEC reports. It was generally felt that she was not performing in a responsible manner. At this point, Voters fired Brenda Berry.

10. In August 1982, I hired Paulette Moss as Voter's new bookkeeper. She came highly recommended by the Corporation for Enterprise Development. Again, Michael Gelman, a C.P.A. discussed with both Paulette Moss and Beverly DeHonierto, the new Executive Assistant, all the reports that Voters must file.

11. When Voters received notification from the Commission that the First Quarterly Report had not been filed, we cooperated fully with Mark Kleinman and Commission representatives to clear up the record and correct the deficiencies. Voters filed the First Quarterly Report on November 5, 1982.

12. I understand Voters received the Commission's notice of request to find probable cause on January 18, 1984. As the former Executive Director, I, have acted quickly in cooperation with Ms. Kiehl and Voters to respond fully to the Commission's request.

Respectfully submitted,

GENERAL COUNSEL'S BRIEF

I. STATEMENT OF THE CASE

This matter was referred to the Office of General Counsel by the Reports Analysis Division. On September 29, 1983, the Commission found reason to believe Voters for Choice and Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i) by failing to file the 1982 First Quarterly Report timely. Neither Voters for Choice nor Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer, submitted a response to the Commission's reason to believe finding.

The 1982 First Quarterly Report was required to be filed by April 15, 1982. On September 23, 1982, Voters for Choice was notified by the Reports Analysis Division that the Commission had not received the 1982 First Quarterly Report. The 1982 First Quarterly Report was filed on November 5, 1982.

II. LEGAL ANALYSIS

(a) The applicable law

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i), all political committees, other than authorized committees of a candidate, shall file quarterly reports, in a calendar year in which a regularly scheduled general election is held, no later than the

Attachment 1(i)

15th day after the last day of each calendar quarter (on April 15, July 15, and October 15), except that the report for the quarter ending on December 31 of such calendar year shall be filed no later than January 31 of the following calendar year. Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(1), each treasurer of a political committee is required to file reports of receipts and disbursements in accordance with the provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a).

(b) Application of the law to the facts

The 1982 First Quarterly Report was required to be filed on April 15, 1982. The 1982 First Quarterly Report was not filed until November 5, 1982, which was over six months late and after the 1982 general election. In the General Counsel's view, this failure to comply with the reporting requirements is a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i). No defense concerning this failure to file the report timely has been submitted by either respondent. Hence, it is the recommendation of the General Counsel that there is probable cause to believe Voters for Choice and Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i).

III. GENERAL COUNSEL'S RECOMMENDATION

Find probable cause to believe Voters for Choice and Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i).

Re: MUR 1575

Dear Ms. Kiehl:

Based on information ascertained in the normal course of carrying out its supervisory responsibilities, the Federal Election Commission, on September 29, 1983, found reason to believe that your committee, Voters for Choice, and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i) and instituted an investigation in this matter.

After considering all the evidence available to the Commission, the Office of the General Counsel is prepared to recommend that the Commission find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred. Submitted for your review is a brief stating the position of the General Counsel on the legal and factual issues of the case. Within fifteen days of your receipt of this notice, you may file with the Secretary of the Commission a brief (10 copies if possible) stating your position on the issues and replying to the brief of the General Counsel. (Three copies of such brief should also be forwarded to the Office of General Counsel, if possible.) The General Counsel's brief and any brief that you may submit will be considered by the Commission before proceeding to a vote of probable cause to believe a violation has occurred.

If you are unable to file a responsive brief within 15 days, you may submit a written request to the Commission for an extension of time in which to file a brief. The Commission will not grant any extensions beyond 20 days.

A finding of probable cause to believe requires that the Office of General Counsel attempt for a period of not less than thirty, but not more than ninety, days to settle this matter through a conciliation agreement.

Re: MUR 1575

Dear Ms. Kiehl:

On September 29, 1983, the Federal Election Commission determined that there is reason to believe that your committee, Voters for Choice, and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i), a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). The General Counsel's factual and legal analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you and your committee. Please submit, within ten days of your receipt of this letter, any materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter.

In the absence of any additional information which demonstrates that no further action should be taken against you and your committee, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation. Of course, this does not preclude the settlement of this matter through conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe if you so desire. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d).

If you and your committee intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address and telephone number of such counsel, and a statement authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

The investigation now being conducted will be confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you and your committee wish the investigation to be made public.

For your information, we have attached a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations of the Act. If you have any questions, please contact Maura White, the staff member assigned to this matter, at 202/523-4057.

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

The Voters for Choice committee ("Committee") and Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer, failed to file the 1982 First Quarterly Report timely, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i).

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

Kristina Kiehl has served as treasurer of the Committee since May 21, 1979. The Committee was notified on March 15, 1982, that the First Quarterly Report for 1982 was due on April 15, 1982. On September 23, 1982, the Committee was notified that the Commission had not received the First Quarterly Report. The First Quarterly Report was filed on November 5, 1982.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i), all political committees, other than authorized committees of a candidate, shall file quarterly reports, in a calendar year in which a regularly scheduled general election is held, no later than the 15th day after the last day of each calendar quarter (on April 15, July 15 and October 15), except that the report for the quarter ending on December 31 of such calendar year shall be filed no later than January 31 of the following calendar year.

The 1982 First Quarterly Report was required to be filed on April 15, 1982. The First Quarterly Report was not filed until November 5, 1982, which was over six months late and after the 1982 general election. In the General Counsel's view, this failure to comply with the reporting requirements is a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i). Hence, it is the recommendation of the General Counsel that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee and Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i).

GENERATION OF MATTER

The Voters for Choice committee ("Committee") was referred to the Office of General Counsel by the Reports Analysis Division for failure to file the 1982 First Quarterly Report timely (Attachment 1). 1/ On July 26, 1983, the Commission determined to open a Matter Under Review.

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

1. The Facts

The Committee was notified on March 15, 1982, that the First Quarterly Report for 1982 was due on April 15, 1982. On September 23, 1982, the Committee was notified that the Commission had not received the First Quarterly Report. The Committee filed the First Quarterly Report on November 5, 1982. 2/

2. The Applicable Law

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i), all political committees, other than authorized committees of a candidate, shall file quarterly reports, in a calendar year in which a regularly scheduled general election is held, no later than the 15th day after the last day of each calendar quarter (on April 15, July 15 and October 15), except that the report for the quarter ending on December 31 of such calendar year shall be filed no later than January 31 of the following calendar year.

In the General Counsel's view, this failure to comply with the reporting requirements is a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i) by the Committee, and a violation by Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer. Hence, it is the recommendation of the General Counsel that the

Dear Ms. Kiehl:

On , 1983, the Federal Election Commission determined that there is reason to believe that your committee, Voters for Choice, and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i), a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). The General Counsel's factual and legal analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against you and your committee. Please submit, within ten days of your receipt of this letter, any materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter.

In the absence of any additional information which demonstrates that no further action should be taken against you and your committee, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation. Of course, this does not preclude the settlement of this matter through conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause to believe if you so desire. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d).

If you and your committee intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address and telephone number of such counsel, and a statement authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

The investigation now being conducted will be confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you and your committee wish the investigation to be made public.

For your information, we have attached a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations of the Act. If you have any questions, please contact Maura White, the staff member assigned to this matter, at 202/523-4057.

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

The Voters for Choice committee ("Committee") and Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer, failed to file the 1982 First Quarterly Report timely, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i).

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

Kristina Kiehl has served as treasurer of the Committee since May 21, 1979. The Committee was notified on March 15, 1982, that the First Quarterly Report for 1982 was due on April 15, 1982. On September 23, 1982, the Committee was notified that the Commission had not received the First Quarterly Report. The First Quarterly Report was filed on November 5, 1982.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i), all political committees, other than authorized committees of a candidate, shall file quarterly reports, in a calendar year in which a regularly scheduled general election is held, no later than the 15th day after the last day of each calendar quarter (on April 15, July 15 and October 15), except that the report for the quarter ending on December 31 of such calendar year shall be filed no later than January 31 of the following calendar year.

The 1982 First Quarterly Report was required to be filed on April 15, 1982. The First Quarterly Report was not filed until November 5, 1982, which was over six months late and after the 1982 general election. In the General Counsel's view, this failure to comply with the reporting requirements is a violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i). Hence, it is the recommendation of the General Counsel that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee and Kristina Kiehl, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i).

SUMMARY OF RAD ACTIONS

Referral Category 1 (Failure to File Timely Reports of Receipts and Disbursements)

The Voters for Choice committee was notified on March 15, 1982, that the First Quarterly Report for 1982 was due on April 15, 1982. On September 23, 1982, the committee was notified that the Commission had not received the report. The committee filed the April 15, 1982, Quarterly Report on November 5, 1982.

OGC ANALYSIS

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(c)(1)(i)(A), all political committees, other than authorized committees of a candidate, shall file quarterly reports, in a calendar year in which a regularly scheduled general election is held, no later than the 15th day after the last day of each calendar quarter (on April 15, July 15 and October 15), except that the report for the quarter ending on December 31 of such calendar year shall be filed no later than January 31 of the following calendar year.

The committee was required to file a Quarterly Report on April 15, 1982. Its failure to comply with the reporting requirements is an apparent violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(4)(A)(i) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(c)(1)(i)(A). In view of the fact that the report at issue was filed over six months late, and that the committee had a sizeable amount of activity during the 1981-1982 election cycle (see "Financial background" above), it is recommended that a matter under review be opened.

Recommendation

Open a Matter Under Review.
