INTERNAL REPORT CHECKED: Cleaver for Congress and Ruff Political Action Committee

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

On July 30, 1984, the Office of General Counsel received a signed, sworn and notarized complaint (See Attachment 1) from Eldridge Cleaver (hereinafter "Complainant") alleging violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (hereinafter the "Act"), by Neal Blair (hereinafter "Respondent").^{1/}

Specifically, Complainant alleges that Mr. Blair 1) "destroyed [Mr. Cleaver's] independent candidacy for Representative of the 8th Congressional District of California and;

^{1/} Also on July 30, 1984, the Office of General Counsel received a signed, sworn and notarized complaint from Susan Thompson, treasurer for Cleaver for Congress Committee alleging violations of the Act by Neal Blair and Harold Goode based on the same factual activity. This complaint was numbered MUR 1747. The Office of General Counsel has recommended that MUR 1747 be merged into MUR 1749.

2) diverted and plundered "funds solicited from the public and donated by the public for [his] campaign, with checks made out to Cleaver for Congress, and cashed the checks through an unauthorized account named "Cleaver for Congress.2/

Counsel for Respondent requested and was granted an extension of time to answer the complaint. On August 28, 1984, the Office of General Counsel received a response from Counsel for Respondent on behalf of Neal Blair and Harold Goode with regard to both MURS 1747 and 1749.

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

2 U.S.C. § 432(h)(1) states, inter alia, that "[each] political committee shall designate one or more... institutions ... as its campaign depository or depositories." Additionally, 2 U.S.C. § 432(h)(1) also states that all receipts received by the Committee must be deposited into such accounts and all disbursements made by the committee must be drawn on such accounts.

Here, Complainant alleges that Neal Blair has "diverted in excess of $50,000 from public donations, using an unauthorized bank account" (See Attachment 1 page 1 of the attachments). Susan Thompson in MUR 1747 makes substantially the same allegations against both Mr. Blair and Harold Goode.

2/ Ms. Thompson makes similar allegations stating that Mr. Blair and Mr. Goode accepted, misappropriated, and misused campaign funds solicited in Eldridge Cleaver's name through unauthorized bank transactions.

The consolidated response, of Counsel for Respondents, contends that the Cleaver account at Dominion National Bank was authorized by Eldridge Cleaver. Moreover, Respondents also contend that the depository was "closed consistent with the authority which Cleaver originally granted to Blair and with a full accounting" (See Attachment 2, page 17 of the attachments). The consolidated response contained, among other things affidavits of Mr. Blair and Mr. Goode and a financial accounting of the Cleaver for Congress account at the Dominion National Bank (See Attachment 2, pages 19-75 of the attachments).

The response and affidavit of Mr. Blair states that he is a political and public policy consultant. According to the response and affidavit, "Mr. Blair was solicited for financial and other support by Cleaver on January 17, 1984." (See Attachment 2, pages 15, 19 and 23 of the attachments). At Cleaver's request, Mr. Blair agreed to fundraise and retain the services of professional political consultants for his election campaign.

According to the response and affidavits, Mr. Cleaver requested and approved the engaging of the services of Mr. Goode as the accountant and the opening of a depository for the Cleaver for Congress Committee. Goode states in his affidavit that he opened the Dominion National Bank account on or about March 1, 1984, (See Attachment 2, pages 15 and 27 of the attachments). Mr. Goode affirms that Mr. Goode and the complainant, Mr. Cleaver were two of the four individuals who signed the bank's authorization card and had authority to write checks on the account. A copy of the bank authorization card was an attachment to the response. (See Attachment 2, page 30 of the attachments).

According to the response and Goode affidavit, Mr. Goode was contacted on or about April 15, 1984, by Susan Thompson who stated she was the treasurer of the committee. At her request, Mr. Goode mailed her copies of the financial statements, contributor checks and a completed Schedule B of FEC Form 3X which reflected the financial activity of the Dominion National Bank account through March 31, 1984. (See Attachment 2, pages 15 and 28 of the attachments).

Mr. Goode affirms that thereafter he prepared monthly financial reports that were sent to Ms. Thompson. (See Attachment 2, pages 32-75 of the attachments). Mr. Goode also indicates in his affidavit that a total of $9,600 was wired at various times from the account at Dominion National Bank to the Committee's other depository at Wells Fargo Bank in Oakland, California. (See Attachment 2, pages 15 and 28 of the attachments).

Additionally, pursuant to Cleaver's request as affirmed by Mr. Blair, vendors were retained and debts to them were paid out of the Dominion National Bank account. (See Attachment 2, pages 15 and 20-21 of the attachments).

Mr. Blair states that on or around June 1, 1984, in a conference call with Cleaver and others, Mr. Cleaver indicated that he wished the Dominion National Bank account to be closed. Mr. Blair states in the affidavit, that since other contributions were anticipated, he told Cleaver that he would terminate activities on his behalf and have Goode close the account after receipts from all bills and mail solicitations had been received and paid. (See Attachment 2, pages 16 and 20-21 of the attachments). Mr. Blair indicates that he "believed that if the account was closed in a different manner, Cleaver would have refused to pay the debts owed by the Committee which Cleaver had asked Blair to incur on his behalf". (See Attachment 2, pages 16 and 22 of the attachments).

According to the response and affidavit counsel for Cleaver was told on July 5, 1984, that the account was being closed. (See Attachment 2, pages 16, 21 and 24 of the attachments). On July 12, 1984, Mr. Goode closed the Dominion National Bank account. (See Attachment 2, pages 16 and 28 of the attachments). However, on July 13, 1984, Mr. Goode states that additional contributions were received which was deposited into a new Cleaver account. From this account Mr. Goode paid outstanding debts. The new Cleaver Account was finally closed on July 31, 1984. (See Attachment 2, pages 16, 21 and 28 of the attachments).

It appears from the evidence submitted that Eldridge Cleaver personally and in writing authorized the establishment of the Cleaver account with Dominion National Bank. Receipts and disbursements to support the candidacy of Cleaver pursuant to § 432(h) were also made through that account.

Upon notification by Cleaver to close the account, Respondents terminated the account and its activity in a timely fashion under the circumstances. Moreover, the financial information provided to complainant and to us appears to give a full accounting of the financial activity of the Cleaver Account at the Dominion National Bank.

Therefore, the Office of General Counsel finds no reason to believe Neal Blair and/or Harold Goode violated 2 U.S.C.

RECOMMENDATION

1. Find no reason to believe Neal Blair and/or Harold Goode violated 2 U.S.C. § 432(h) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

HOWARD J. RUFF

REDEMPTION

As we are now up to our hips in the "silly season," we must look at political issues which can impact the economy and investments.

The people we elect to Congress and to the White House will have a major impact on the investment outlook. They can and will affect the free market (your right to invest in whatever you choose) and the future of inflation.

About three times a year, I like to get off of my chest a lot of political issues that affect investors, and two of these issues have become very urgent. As the investment markets have been very quiet and the last issue was a bit heavy, let's tackle them now. Next week we'll be back into heavy-duty investment advice again.

An extraordinary story is developing which may give us a chance to defeat one of Congress' most dedicated enemies of the free market. Whenever a small segment of business or free enterprise is under legislative assault, you can be sure Ron Dellums is on the other side of the fence. He is also a pivotal figure in the exponential growth of the entitlement programs that collectively are destroying the purchasing power of the dollar. The story of his challenger is almost beyond belief, but here it is.

ELDRIDGE CLEAVER is one of the most interesting and controversial men in recent American history. One of the founders of the BLACK PANTHER party, he was a true revolutionary. He served years in prison, was at the core of much of the revolutionary racial ferment of the 50's and 60's, was a powerful charismatic voice of revolution, and probably was the most important Marxist Whitey. It was Eldridge Cleaver. Cleaver fled America 1968 to avoid prosecution for attempted murder, and spent years in Cuba and other communist countries, including seven months attending Pyongyang University in North Korea. He was taught all of the principles of revolution and communist subversion, especially how to make outside communist subversion look like a grass roots revolution.

During those years, however, a miracle occurred. After seeing communism up close, he became disillusioned with the communist dream which had motivated his hatred for America and its white society. He had been in the belly of the beast, and it was all a lie. He concluded that he had been dead wrong all of his life. Along the way he also had become deeply interested in the Bible and became a confirmed believer in Jesus Christ, which motivated a desire to repent and make amends, and gave him the courage to return to face the charges against him. His return to America was a minor sensation in 1975, especially when he renounced communism and announced that he loved America and that the free enterprise system was the best hope for blacks.

With the same energy, intellect and charisma that he had brought to the evil causes he had espoused, he began to reorganize his life to be a force for good, to compensate for the evil he had done.

Members of the Ruff PAC staff became acquainted with Cleaver through a mutual friend, Dr. Cleon Skousen, director of the Freeman Institute. After watching him closely for several years, we are convinced that this change is real and permanent.

I have spent several hours with Eldridge, and I'm not easy to fool. I've seen them all. His transformation is genuine. He is an immensely articulate spokesman for America, free enterprise and Christianity. After many hours of discussion, it has become apparent that Eldridge Cleaver's political, economic and social views are virtually indistinguishable from mine, as incredible as that sounds. He has means. All vestiges of his former hatred of "whitey" are gone. He's an ardent Reagan supporter and would also be an ardent supporter of Free the Eagle in Congress.

We found out recently that he has decided to enter the race for the Northern California Congressional seat held by Dellums, a seven-term congressman, whose voting record and political philosophy are indistinguishable from that of hard-core Marxists. He rarely, if ever, takes a position that deviates significantly from the Kremlin "line." I'm not alleging he's a Soviet agent, but he is a philosophical soul mate.

Dellums also was implicated in a recent scandal where many congressmen were accused of cocaine usage and trafficking. After a halfhearted "investigation" (white wash?), no charges were filed because of "insufficient evidence," although rumors of Dellums' cocaine usage have been circulating among his colleagues for years.

It is commonly believed on the street that Dellums has extensive connections with unsavory, drug-related crime figures who are reputedly involved in a business that produces nine-figure profits for the underworld. Many of Cleaver's former associates in the revolutionary movement are also involved in this drug traffic. There is no proof available to us that Dellums is illegally involved in drug trafficking, but he does have some very strange friends.

Cleaver's challenge of Dellums creates a fascinating opportunity to get Dellums out of the Congress. If Cleaver, as an independent, only steals 10% to 15% of the vote from Dellums, any good Republican challenger could win. But we believe Cleaver has a real chance to win. In either case, Dellums is gone!

Dellums now knows Ruff PAC will support Cleaver. He has already told a reporter for a San Francisco area paper that "Ruff is a racist in business with South Africa." The last time I looked, Cleaver was black. If I'm a racist, I sure picked

Financial Success Report

Eldridge is still a big figure to many people in Oakland and Berkeley where the Black Panther party has its roots, despite the fact that he not only has made no secret of his changed views, but has been publicly espousing them.

He's a brilliant platform personality. He's impressive in person, not because he is charismatic like Jesse Jackson, but because of an aura of quiet strength. He has one of the finest minds I've ever confronted, and is extremely articulate.

I think Eldridge Cleaver is one of the most remarkable characters in modern history, a conclusion I've drawn after wading through a swamp of skepticism. It's difficult to believe that a man who has committed such crimes can become what I believe he has become, and yet I have no remaining doubts.

There is probably no congressional race in America this year where our opponent is so totally opposed to what we believe in and fight for. No one knows this better than Eldridge Cleaver, because many of Dellums' friends are also Cleaver's former friends and associates.

Some of you may have trouble with all this. It requires an inordinate amount of Christian forgiveness and a leap of faith to believe it--and to forgive and forget Cleaver's past crimes. But bear in mind that he is now in such a unique position to do good that when his life on earth is over, the "net" of Eldridge Cleaver could be far more good than any of us could ever accomplish. Beating Dellums is a start.

Were it not for the religious component, which I have seen transform lives and literally change peoples' personalities and deepest beliefs, this would all be pretty hard to swallow. But this great story of human redemption has touched me deeply. If you had told me ten years ago that someday I would literally embrace Eldridge Cleaver in brotherhood, I'd have called for the men in white coats with nets.

I have asked Eldridge to speak at our San Diego National Convention, as well as to conduct workshops on the techniques of communist revolution. During his classes at Pyongyang, he wrote down everything his teachers said, and he has stacks of journals. Someday when that is published, it will give us more insight into the com-than anything ever written. I hope to help him get it published. In the meantime, come to the San Diego convention and make up your own mind. This will be an extraordinary event.

If you want to help Cleaver, send your contributions to: Cleaver For Congress, c/o Ruff PAC, Box 881, Centerville, VA 22020.

Re: Matters Under Review 1747 & 1749

Dear Mr. Steele:

This office represents Neal B. Blair and Harold Goode. Enclosed please find executed Statements of Designation of Counsel.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) we hereby submit this letter and the enclosed Affidavit of Neal B. Blair (hereafter "Blair Affidavit") and Affidavit of Harold Goode (hereafter "Goode Affidavit") in response to the complaints filed by Susan M. Thompson, treasurer of the Cleaver For Congress Committee ("Committee"), and Elridge Cleaver which have been designated by your office as Matters Under Review ("MURs") 1747 and 1749, respectively. We respectfully request that the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") take no action against our clients on the basis of these complaints, except to find no reason to believe that any violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act ("Act") has been committed.

THE COMPLAINTS

The complaints make two similar allegations. Mr. Cleaver alleges that Blair (1) "destroyed" Cleaver's candidacy and (2) conspired "to divert and plunder funds solicited from the public and donated by the public for [Cleaver's]

campaign, with checks made out to CLEAVER FOR CONGRESS, and cashed through an unauthorized account named CLEAVER FOR CONGRESS."

Thompson alleges (1) that there was a "veritable sabotage and destruction of Mr. Cleaver's campaign" and (2) that Blair and Goode violated 2 U.S.C. § 432 by maintaining a campaign depository which she "never approved of."

FACTS

Neal B. Blair is a political and public policy consultant. Blair Affidavit ¶ 2. Blair was solicited for financial and other support by Cleaver on January 17, 1984. Id. ¶ 3. Blair had discussions with Cleaver at which time he agreed to personally assist Cleaver in his election campaign. Id. ¶ 4. At Cleaver's request, Blair agreed to undertake fundraising efforts on his behalf and to retain the services of professional political consultants for the election campaign. Id. ¶ 5.

At Cleaver's request and with his knowledge, Blair retained the services of an accountant, Harold Goode. Id. ¶ 6. With Cleaver's approval, Blair instructed Goode to open a depository for the Cleaver for Congress Committee. Id. ¶ 7. Goode opened the account ("Cleaver Account") on or about March 1, 1984. Goode Affidavit ¶ 4. Among the four individuals who signed the bank's authorization card was Elridge Cleaver. Id. (copy of executed signature card attached thereto).

On or about April 15, 1984 Goode was called by Susan Thompson, who stated that she was treasurer of the Committee. Id. ¶ 5. At her request, Goode mailed to her copies of financial statements, contributor checks and a completed Schedule B of FEC form 3x which reflected the financial activity of the Cleaver Account through March 31, 1984. Id. Each month thereafter, Goode prepared and submitted to the Committee similar financial information. Id. (copies attached thereto). At the Committee's request Goode wired a total of $9,600 at various dates from the Cleaver Account to the Committee's other depository at the Wells Fargo Bank in Oakland, California. Id. ¶ 10.

Pursuant to Cleaver's request, Blair retained the services of various vendors on behalf of the Committee. Blair Affidavit ¶ 8. These vendors were to be paid from the Cleaver Account. Id. ¶ 7.

On or about June 1, 1984 Blair had a conference telephone call with Cleaver and others at which time Cleaver expressed his desire that the Cleaver Account be closed. Id. ¶ 9. At that time contributions to the account were anticipated. Id. Blair informed Cleaver that he would cease any further activities on Cleaver's behalf and would instruct Goode to close the account after all receipts from direct mail solicitations were in hand and bills paid. Id. Blair believed that if the account were closed in a different manner, Cleaver would have refused to pay the debts owed by the Committee which Cleaver had asked Blair to incur on his behalf. Id. ¶ 15.

On or about June 19, 1984 Blair notified Thompson that the Committee had failed to file any necessary reports or registration statements with the FEC. Id. ¶ 10. Blair previously had advised Thompson of such reporting obligations. Id.

On July 5, 1984 counsel for Cleaver was advised that the account was being closed. Id. ¶ 12. On July 12, 1984 Goode closed the Cleaver Account. Goode Affidavit ¶ 8. On July 13, 1984 Goode received additional contributions which were deposited into a new Cleaver Account. Id. ¶ 9. The contributions were used to pay outstanding debts and the Cleaver Account was finally closed on July 31, 1984. Id.

At all times Blair acted in good faith and pursuant to Cleaver's authorization and approval. Blair Affidavit ¶ 14. The Cleaver Account was closed in a manner consistent with Cleaver's original authorization that it be opened, funds raised and debts incurred. Id. Thompson was regularly kept apprised of the transactions in the Cleaver Account. Id.; Goode Affidavit ¶¶ 5 & 6.

Cleaver withdrew as a candidate because he failed to collect the 1000 signatures needed to qualify for the ballot. Blair Affidavit ¶ 16.

DISCUSSION

I. Blair and Goode Did Not "Destroy" or "Sabotage" Cleaver's Campaign.

The FEC, of course, has no jurisdiction over vague allegations that someone has "destroyed" or "sabotaged" a person's campaign. These outlandish accusations, even if true, do not constitute a violation of the Act. Blair and Goode deny such charges.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire

II. The Cleaver Account Was Authorized
by Elridge Cleaver.

Section 432(h)(1) of Title 2 U.S.C. states in pertinent part that "[e]ach political committee shall designate one or more . . . depositories." Section 432(e)(1) states in pertinent part that "[a]ny candidate . . . who receives a contribution, or any loan . . . , or makes a disbursement in connection with such campaign, shall be considered, for purposes of this Act, as having received the contribution or loan, or as having made the disbursement, as the case may be, as an agent of the authorized committee or committees of such candidate."

Contrary to the allegations by the complainants, the Cleaver Account was an authorized depository of the Cleaver for Congress Committee. Cleaver approved the account. Blair Affidavit ¶ 7. Cleaver signed a bank authorization card for the account. Goode Affidavit ¶ 4. Thompson knew of the account and received financial statements regarding the account. Id. ¶¶ 5 & 6. The Committee requested and received wire transfers to its other depository in Oakland, California, totaling $9,600. Id. ¶ 10. The complainants knowingly benefitted from the account and were kept fully apprised of the account's transactions:

Upon notification from Cleaver, Blair ceased activities on Cleaver's behalf and commenced the winding down and closing of the account. Id. ¶ 7; Blair Affidavit ¶ 9. The Cleaver Account was closed on July 31, 1984 when all contributions were in hand and applied towards outstanding debts, which Cleaver had asked Blair to incur on his behalf. Blair Affidavit ¶¶ 9 & 13-15; Goode Affidavit ¶ 9. Cleaver, through counsel, was apprised of Blair's actions and provided with a full accounting of all transactions. Blair Affidavit ¶ 13.

These facts and the documents referred to and appended to the Affidavits of Blair and Goode conclusively prove that Cleaver personally and in writing authorized the campaign depository (the Cleaver Account). Such actions by a candidate are deemed the actions of the candidate's authorized committee. 2 U.S.C. § 432(e)(1).

In addition, Thompson personally knew of and by her actions approved of the depository. Upon notice to Blair, the depository was closed consistent with the authority which Cleaver originally granted to Blair and with a full accounting.

18

It is the complainants, not the respondents, who may have violated various provisions of the Act. Notwithstanding Blair's repeated warnings regarding reporting obligations, id. § 10, the complainants failed to file timely or accurate registration statements and financial reports. The registration statement designating this depository was not filed even though Cleaver personally authorized the Cleaver Account. Reports were not filed timely or completely even though the information necessary to complete and file such reports were sent to the Committee on a monthly basis at the complainants' request.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Blair and Goode respectfully request that the FEC take no action with respect to them other than to find no reason to believe that they have violated the Act.

Sincerely,

Jan W. Baran

AFFIDAVIT OF NEAL B. BLAIR

Neal B. Blair for his affidavit deposes and says:

1. I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein and am competent to testify thereto.

2. I am a political and public policy consultant and maintain an office in Washington, D.C. I am a resident of Centreville, Virginia.

3. I received a letter from Eldrige Cleaver dated January 17, 1984 (copy attached) soliciting financial and other support for his campaign for United States Representative from the 8th Congressional District of California.

4. I had discussions with Mr. Cleaver at which time I agreed to personally assist him in his election campaign.

5. At Mr. Cleaver's request I agreed to undertake fundraising efforts on his behalf and to retain the services of professional political consultants for his election campaign.

6. At Mr. Cleaver's request and with his knowledge I retained the services of Harold Goode, accountant, on behalf of the Cleaver for Congress Committee ("Committee").

7. With Mr. Cleaver's approval I instructed Mr. Goode to open a depository for the Committee in an appropriate institution in the Commonwealth of Virginia. This depository was to be used to deposit Committee contributions from contributors whom I directly or indirectly was responsible for soliciting. The depository also was to be used to pay for the goods and services of the professional political consultants whom I had been asked to retain on behalf of the Committee.

8. Pursuant to Mr. Cleaver's request I retained the services of a direct mail marketing firm (Martin Advertising), a survey research firm (Decision Making Information) and a political consulting firm (Prince & Associates) on behalf of the Committee. These firms rendered their respective services on behalf of the Committee with Mr. Cleaver's knowledge and to his benefit.

9. On or about June 1, 1984 I had a conference telephone call with Mr. Cleaver, Susan Thompson, the Committee's treasurer and John Hix and Lynn Joiner of Prince & Associates. Mr. Cleaver at that time expressed his desire to close the depository which had been established in Virginia on his behalf. I then informed Mr. Cleaver that I would cease any further activities on his behalf and instruct Mr. Goode to close the account after all receipts from direct mail solicitations were in hand and bills paid. I so instructed Mr. Goode.

10. On or about June 19, 1984, my counsel advised me that the Committee as of that date had failed to file any reports or registration statements with the Federal Election Commission, as required by law. By letter dated June 20, 1984 (copy attached) I advised Ms. Thompson that she, on behalf of the Committee, must file reports and statements disclosing the Committee's depositories. I had previously advised Ms. Thompson of her reporting obligations.

11. On or about June 27, 1984 I was contacted by J. Curtis Herge, counsel for Mr. Cleaver. I referred him to my counsel.

12. My counsel advised me that he had informed Mr. Herge that I had ceased my activities on behalf of Mr. Cleaver and that the account would be closed upon receipt of outstanding contributions and payment of outstanding bills. Financial data through June 30, 1984 regarding the depository was sent to Mr. Herge by my counsel on July 5, 1984 (copy of letter attached). Mr. Herge confirmed receipt by letter of July 10, 1984 (copy attached).

13. To the best of my knowledge the Virginia depository was closed on July 31, 1984. Mr. Herge was notified of this action by my counsel by letter dated August 1, 1984 (copy attached).

14. At all times my actions on behalf of Mr. Cleaver were undertaken in good faith and pursuant to his authorization and approval. The Virginia depository was closed in a manner consistent with Mr. Cleaver's original authorization that it be opened, funds raised and debts incurred. His campaign treasurer, Ms. Thompson, was regularly kept apprised of the transactions in that depository.

15. I believe that if the Virginia depository were closed in a manner different than as set forth above, Mr. Cleaver would have refused to pay the debts owed by the Committee which he had asked me to incur on his behalf. The activities that I have undertaken on his behalf were taken at his request and with his full knowledge and permission.

16. To the best of my knowledge, Mr. Cleaver withdrew as a candidate because he failed to collect the 1000 signatures needed to qualify for the ballot.

Dear Neal:

Hope this letter finds you well. I am happy and excited about the present prospects for some sound political progress in this country. I want to share with you what I am doing.

The accompanying packet will inform you of my candidacy for the House of Representatives, California's 8th Congressional District, now occupied by Ron Dellums, an ideological leftwing enemy of America. I want you to take an interest in my campaign, as I feel that my support of the Free Enterprise system, of replacing welfare with work, of steadfastly and vigorously supporting free institutions and the democratic process, while vigorously opposing Communism and all forms of oppression, exploitation, and totalitarianism, will be appreciated by you.

I firmly believe that if you build a better mousetrap, the world will beat a path to your door.

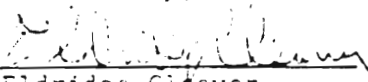

I believe that we have reached a great period of creativity and growth. We will go forward and not backward, as long as we stick to programs and proposals that are both economically viable and constitutionally sound.

We certainly would appreciate it if you could help us now, at the beginning, with a healthy contribution that will help us get off the ground.

We will keep you informed of our progress. We believe our campaign will receive lots of attention because it poses fundamental questions in a classic form. We are going to organize an ideological debate with the lefties in Berkeley. It will make a great document which we can then use in other places.

Thank you very much. Hoping to hear from you soon. I remain,

Yours truly,

Eldridge Cleaver

Re: Cleaver for Congress

Dear Jan:

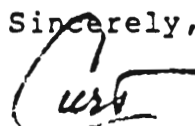

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter, dated July 5, 1984, with which was enclosed various financial statements regarding the account of Cleaver for Congress at the Dominion National Bank.

It appears that there is a balance of $33.14 in the account of Cleaver for Congress at Dominion National Bank and that there is one outstanding invoice from D.M.I. in the amount of $11,500.00. I would appreciate it if you would confirm those figures and also let me know whether any additional charges and expenses are anticipated. I would also appreciate it if you would let me know whether any additional contributions are being received.

In light of the discussions to date, I trust Neal has terminated his activities on behalf of Cleaver for Congress. It is my hope that, once we identify all the outstanding obligations, we can close the account at Dominion National Bank and forward the balance and any future contributions to Cleaver for Congress in California.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

J. Curtis Herge

Re: Cleaver For Congress

Dear Curt:

Enclosed please find a copy of records regarding receipts, disbursements and outstanding debts for the Cleaver For Congress Committee ("Committee"). The records pertain to transactions on behalf of the Committee from two Virginia bank accounts which have been closed as of July 31, 1984 according to Harold Goode, an accountant. The two accounts were at Dominion National Bank and First American Savings & Loan. Records through June 30, 1984 were previously sent to the Committee on various dates to its Oakland, California address. The enclosed set of documents are provided to you in case your client did not preserve the prior copies.

Please note that two outstanding debts remain: Decision Making Information ($746.86) and Prince & Associates ($3,029.45).

As per your client's request, all activities on behalf of Mr. Cleaver which were previously authorized by him and the Committee have been terminated. I trust that this resolves all outstanding issues in this matter.

Sincerely,

Jan W. Baran

AFFIDAVIT OF HAROLD GOODE

Harold Goode for his affidavit deposes and says:

1. I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein and am competent to testify thereto.
2. I am an accountant doing business as Goode Accounting Services of Centreville, Virginia.
3. On or about March 1, 1984 I was retained by Neal B. Blair on behalf of the Elridge Cleaver for Congress Committee ("Committee") for purposes of opening a bank account for the Committee and maintaining the books and records of such an account.
4. On or about March 1, 1984 I opened a bank account ("Cleaver Account") in the name of "Cleaver for Congress" with Dominion National Bank. Four individuals signed the bank's authorization cards for this account: Neal B. Blair, Carl Lqeber, myself and Elridge Cleaver (copy of executed signature card attached).

5. On or about April 15, 1984 I was called by Susan Thompson who stated that she was treasurer of the Committee. At her request I mailed to her on the same date copies of financial statements, contributor checks and a completed Schedule B of FEC form 3x which reflected the financial activity of the Cleaver Account through March 31, 1984.

6. Each month subsequent to April 15, 1984, I prepared and submitted to the Committee monthly financial statements such as those referred to in paragraph 5 (copies of monthly financial statements attached; copies of checks and disbursements available upon request).

7. On or about June 1, 1984 I was requested by Mr. Blair to wind down the account. Specifically, Mr. Blair asked me to close the Cleaver Account after receipt of all outstanding contributions and payment of debts.

8. On July 12, I closed the Cleaver Account.

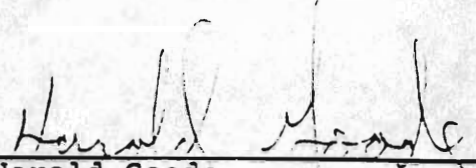

9. On July 13 I received additional contributions. These contributions were deposited into a new Cleaver Account at the First American Savings & Loans. Outstanding debts were paid and the account was closed on July 31, 1984.

10. At the Committee's request, I wired a total of $9,600 at various dates from the Cleaver Account to the Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter. This matter will become a part of the public record within 30 days.

Re: MUR 1749

Dear Mr. Cleaver:

The Federal Election Commission has reviewed the allegations of your complaint dated July 30, 1984, and determined that on the basis of the information provided in your complaint and information provided by the Respondent there is no reason to believe that a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") has been committed.

Accordingly, the Commission has decided to close the file in this matter. The Federal Election Campaign Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

Should additional information come to your attention which you believe establishes a violation of the Act, you may file a complaint pursuant to the requirements set forth in 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) and 11 C.F.R. § 111.4.

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

On July 30, 1984, the Office of General Counsel received a signed, sworn and notarized complaint from Susan Thompson, treasurer for Cleaver for Congress Committee alleging violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended by Neal Blair and Harold Goode.

Specifically, Complainant alleges that Mr. Blair and Mr. Goode accepted, misappropriated, and misused campaign funds solicited in Eldridge Cleaver's name through unauthorized transactions.

These allegations are the same as those made by Eldridge Cleaver in MUR 1749. Therefore, the Office of General Counsel recommends the Commission merge this matter into MUR 1749.

RECOMMENDATION

1. Merge MUR 1747 into 1749.

To Whom it May Concern:

This is to state that I, Susan M. Thompson, Treasurer, Cleaver for Congress, am filing this report with the Federal Election Commission with an accompanying protest and complaint.

Neal B. Blair, President, RUFF/Pac and Harold Goode, accountant for RUFF/Pac have flagrantly violated section 432, Subchapter 1, Chapter 14, Title 2 of the Federal Election Campaign Laws as compiled January 1980 by the Federal Election Commission.

These violations have always been against my instructions, requests and desires. I have repeatedly requested that these violations be corrected and instead of cooperation, I have been faced with nothing but blatant disregard for my appointed position as Treasurer of the Cleaver for Congress campaign. I have instructed Neal B. Blair and Harold Goode to discontinue their activity regarding unauthorized transactions. They have never obliged either me or the law of the land which very clearly states my responsibilities and authority as Treasurer of record for a congressional campaign.

In the end this has resulted in a veritable sabotage and destruction of Mr. Cleaver's campaign as Neal B. Blair has diverted and drained all of the funds from his solicitations for funds using Mr. Cleaver's name. Without the funds that were contributed by people all over the United States who were hoping to help Mr. Cleaver there will be no candidacy in November as there are not the necessary funds to enable Mr. Cleaver to appear on the ballot. Mr. Blair has knowingly accepted funds that were meant for Mr. Cleaver's campaign and misappropriated and misused that which was intended for use, here in the Eighth District, to further the campaign.

I have never approved of or been given any opportunity to review transactions with the Dominion Bank in Virginia. I have been denied access to information concerning this account and all transactions that were involved using it. Of late, since private legal action was initiated by Mr. Cleaver, there has been a hurried cover up and rush of material to this office as a pretense of compliance with the law. This is not to say that Neal B. Blair or Harold Goode are truly working within the law or my authority. For example, the account at Dominion Bank has never been formally closed, even after written command from Mr. Cleaver.

Therefore, I am filing the lawful accounting of the Cleaver for Congress campaign and signing my name to it. But there is nothing in the Constitution which requires me to sign my name to actions which I know to be illegal. I am reporting all illegal activity which I have knowledge of to you in the form of an unsigned report which concerns the unauthorized Cleaver for Congress Committee, aka Free the Eagle aka RUFF/Pac.

Most Respectfully Yours,

Susan M. Thompson

Re: Matters Under Review 1747 & 1749

Dear Mr. Steele:

This office represents Neal B. Blair and Harold Goode. Enclosed please find executed Statements of Designation of Counsel.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a) (1) we hereby submit this letter and the enclosed Affidavit of Neal B. Blair (hereafter "Blair Affidavit") and Affidavit of Harold Goode (hereafter "Goode Affidavit") in response to the complaints filed by Susan M. Thompson, treasurer of the Cleaver For Congress Committee ("Committee"), and Elridge Cleaver which have been designated by your office as Matters Under Review ("MURs") 1747 and 1749, respectively. We respectfully request that the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") take no action against our clients on the basis of these complaints, except to find no reason to believe that any violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act ("Act") has been committed.

THE COMPLAINTS

The complaints make two similar allegations. Mr. Cleaver alleges that Blair (1) "destroyed" Cleaver's candidacy and (2) conspired "to divert and plunder funds solicited from the public and donated by the public for [Cleaver's]

campaign, with checks made out to CLEAVER FOR CONGRESS, and cashed through an unauthorized account named CLEAVER FOR CONGRESS."

Thompson alleges (1) that there was a "veritable sabotage and destruction of Mr. Cleaver's campaign" and (2) that Blair and Goode violated 2 U.S.C. § 432 by maintaining a campaign depository which she "never approved of."

FACTS

Neal B. Blair is a political and public policy consultant. Blair Affidavit ¶ 2. Blair was solicited for financial and other support by Cleaver on January 17, 1984. Id. ¶ 3. Blair had discussions with Cleaver at which time he agreed to personally assist Cleaver in his election campaign. Id. ¶ 4. At Cleaver's request, Blair agreed to undertake fundraising efforts on his behalf and to retain the services of professional political consultants for the election campaign. Id. ¶ 5.

At Cleaver's request and with his knowledge, Blair retained the services of an accountant, Harold Goode. Id. ¶ 6. With Cleaver's approval, Blair instructed Goode to open a depository for the Cleaver for Congress Committee. Id. ¶ 7. Goode opened the account ("Cleaver Account") on or about March 1, 1984. Goode Affidavit ¶ 4. Among the four individuals who signed the bank's authorization card was Elridge Cleaver. Id. (copy of executed signature card attached thereto).

On or about April 15, 1984 Goode was called by Susan Thompson, who stated that she was treasurer of the Committee. Id. ¶ 5. At her request, Goode mailed to her copies of financial statements, contributor checks and a completed Schedule B of FEC form 3x which reflected the financial activity of the Cleaver Account through March 31, 1984. Id. Each month thereafter, Goode prepared and submitted to the Committee similar financial information. Id. (copies attached thereto). At the Committee's request Goode wired a total of $9,600 at various dates from the Cleaver Account to the Committee's other depository at the Wells Fargo Bank in Oakland, California. Id. ¶ 10.

Pursuant to Cleaver's request, Blair retained the services of various vendors on behalf of the Committee. Blair Affidavit ¶ 8. These vendors were to be paid from the Cleaver Account. Id. ¶ 7.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire
August 28, 1984

On or about June 1, 1984 Blair had a conference telephone call with Cleaver and others at which time Cleaver expressed his desire that the Cleaver Account be closed. Id. ¶ 9. At that time contributions to the account were anticipated. Id. Blair informed Cleaver that he would cease any further activities on Cleaver's behalf and would instruct Goode to close the account after all receipts from direct mail solicitations were in hand and bills paid. Id. Blair believed that if the account were closed in a different manner, Cleaver would have refused to pay the debts owed by the Committee which Cleaver had asked Blair to incur on his behalf. Id. ¶ 15.

On or about June 19, 1984 Blair notified Thompson that the Committee had failed to file any necessary reports or registration statements with the FEC. Id. ¶ 10. Blair previously had advised Thompson of such reporting obligations. Id.

On July 5, 1984 counsel for Cleaver was advised that the account was being closed. Id. ¶ 12. On July 12, 1984 Goode closed the Cleaver Account. Goode Affidavit ¶ 8. On July 13, 1984 Goode received additional contributions which were deposited into a new Cleaver Account. Id. ¶ 9. The contributions were used to pay outstanding debts and the Cleaver Account was finally closed on July 31, 1984. Id.

At all times Blair acted in good faith and pursuant to Cleaver's authorization and approval. Blair Affidavit ¶ 14. The Cleaver Account was closed in a manner consistent with Cleaver's original authorization that it be opened, funds raised and debts incurred. Id. Thompson was regularly kept apprised of the transactions in the Cleaver Account. Id.; Goode Affidavit ¶¶ 5 & 6.

Cleaver withdrew as a candidate because he failed to collect the 1000 signatures needed to qualify for the ballot. Blair Affidavit ¶ 16.

DISCUSSION

I. Blair and Goode Did Not "Destroy" or "Sabotage" Cleaver's Campaign.

The FEC, of course, has no jurisdiction over vague allegations that someone has "destroyed" or "sabotaged" a person's campaign. These outlandish accusations, even if true, do not constitute a violation of the Act. Blair and Goode deny such charges.

II. The Cleaver Account Was Authorized
by Elridge Cleaver.

Section 432(h)(1) of Title 2 U.S.C. states in pertinent part that "[e]ach political committee shall designate one or more . . . depositories." Section 432(e)(1) states in pertinent part that "[a]ny candidate . . . who receives a contribution, or any loan . . ., or makes a disbursement in connection with such campaign, shall be considered, for purposes of this Act, as having received the contribution or loan, or as having made the disbursement, as the case may be, as an agent of the authorized committee or committees of such candidate."

Contrary to the allegations by the complainants, the Cleaver Account was an authorized depository of the Cleaver for Congress Committee. Cleaver approved the account. Blair Affidavit ¶ 7. Cleaver signed a bank authorization card for the account. Goode Affidavit ¶ 4. Thompson knew of the account and received financial statements regarding the account. Id. ¶¶ 5 & 6. The Committee requested and received wire transfers to its other depository in Oakland, California, totaling $9,600. Id. ¶ 10. The complainants knowingly benefitted from the account and were kept fully apprised of the account's transactions.

Upon notification from Cleaver, Blair ceased activities on Cleaver's behalf and commenced the winding down and closing of the account. Id. ¶ 7; Blair Affidavit ¶ 9. The Cleaver Account was closed on July 31, 1984 when all contributions were in hand and applied towards outstanding debts, which Cleaver had asked Blair to incur on his behalf. Blair Affidavit ¶¶ 9 & 13-15; Goode Affidavit ¶ 9. Cleaver, through counsel, was apprised of Blair's actions and provided with a full accounting of all transactions. Blair Affidavit ¶ 13.

These facts and the documents referred to and appended to the Affidavits of Blair and Goode conclusively prove that Cleaver personally and in writing authorized the campaign depository (the Cleaver Account). Such actions by a candidate are deemed the actions of the candidate's authorized committee. 2 U.S.C. § 432(e)(1).

In addition, Thompson personally knew of and by her actions approved of the depository. Upon notice to Blair, the depository was closed consistent with the authority which Cleaver originally granted to Blair and with a full accounting.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire

It is the complainants, not the respondents, who may have violated various provisions of the Act. Notwithstanding Blair's repeated warnings regarding reporting obligations, id. § 10, the complainants failed to file timely or accurate registration statements and financial reports. The registration statement designating this depository was not filed even though Cleaver personally authorized the Cleaver Account. Reports were not filed timely or completely even though the information necessary to complete and file such reports were sent to the Committee on a monthly basis at the complainants' request.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Blair and Goode respectfully request that the FEC take no action with respect to them other than to find no reason to believe that they have violated the Act.

Sincerely,

Jan W. Baran

OFFICE OF THE
GENERAL COUNSEL
RECEIVED
P 3:43

AFFIDAVIT OF NEAL B. BLAIR

Neal B. Blair for his affidavit deposes and says:

1. I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein and am competent to testify thereto.

2. I am a political and public policy consultant and maintain an office in Washington, D.C. I am a resident of Centreville, Virginia.

3. I received a letter from Eldrige Cleaver dated January 17, 1984 (copy attached) soliciting financial and other support for his campaign for United States Representative from the 8th Congressional District of California.

4. I had discussions with Mr. Cleaver at which time I agreed to personally assist him in his election campaign.

5. At Mr. Cleaver's request I agreed to undertake fundraising efforts on his behalf and to retain the services of professional political consultants for his election campaign.

6. At Mr. Cleaver's request and with his knowledge I retained the services of Harold Goode, accountant, on behalf of the Cleaver for Congress Committee ("Committee").

7. With Mr. Cleaver's approval I instructed Mr. Goode to open a depository for the Committee in an appropriate institution in the Commonwealth of Virginia. This depository was to be used to deposit Committee contributions from contributors whom I directly or indirectly was responsible for soliciting. The depository also was to be used to pay for the goods and services of the professional political consultants whom I had been asked to retain on behalf of the Committee.

8. Pursuant to Mr. Cleaver's request I retained the services of a direct mail marketing firm (Martin Advertising), a survey research firm (Decision Making Information) and a political consulting firm (Prince & Associates) on behalf of the Committee. These firms rendered their respective services on behalf of the Committee with Mr. Cleaver's knowledge and to his benefit.

9. On or about June 1, 1984 I had a conference telephone call with Mr. Cleaver, Susan Thompson, the Committee's treasurer and John Hix and Lynn Joiner of Prince & Associates. Mr. Cleaver at that time expressed his desire to close the depository which had been established in Virginia on his behalf. I then informed Mr. Cleaver that I would cease any further activities on his behalf and instruct Mr. Goode to close the account after all receipts from direct mail solicitations were in hand and bills paid. I so instructed Mr. Goode.

10. On or about June 19, 1984, my counsel advised me that the Committee as of that date had failed to file any reports or registration statements with the Federal Election Commission, as required by law. By letter dated June 20, 1984 (copy attached) I advised Ms. Thompson that she, on behalf of the Committee, must file reports and statements disclosing the Committee's depositories. I had previously advised Ms. Thompson of her reporting obligations.

11. On or about June 27, 1984 I was contacted by J. Curtis Herge, counsel for Mr. Cleaver. I referred him to my counsel.

12. My counsel advised me that he had informed Mr. Herge that I had ceased my activities on behalf of Mr. Cleaver and that the account would be closed upon receipt of outstanding contributions and payment of outstanding bills. Financial data through June 30, 1984 regarding the depository was sent to Mr. Herge by my counsel on July 5, 1984 (copy of letter attached). Mr. Herge confirmed receipt by letter of July 10, 1984 (copy attached).

13. To the best of my knowledge the Virginia depository was closed on July 31, 1984. Mr. Herge was notified of this action by my counsel by letter dated August 1, 1984 (copy attached).

14. At all times my actions on behalf of Mr. Cleaver were undertaken in good faith and pursuant to his authorization and approval. The Virginia depository was closed in a manner consistent with Mr. Cleaver's original authorization that it be opened, funds raised and debts incurred. His campaign treasurer, Ms. Thompson, was regularly kept apprised of the transactions in that depository.

15. I believe that if the Virginia depository were closed in a manner different than as set forth above, Mr. Cleaver would have refused to pay the debts owed by the Committee which he had asked me to incur on his behalf. The activities that I have undertaken on his behalf were taken at his request and with his full knowledge and permission.

16. To the best of my knowledge, Mr. Cleaver withdrew as a candidate because he failed to collect the 1000 signatures needed to qualify for the ballot.

Dear Neal:

Hope this letter finds you well. I am happy and excited about the present prospects for some sound political progress in this country. I want to share with you what I am doing.

The accompanying packet will inform you of my candidacy for the House of Representatives, California's 8th Congressional District, now occupied by Ron Dellums, an ideological leftwing enemy of America. I want you to take an interest in my campaign, as I feel that my support of the Free Enterprise system, of replacing welfare with work, of steadfastly and vigorously supporting free institutions and the democratic process, while vigorously opposing Communism and all forms of oppression, exploitation, and totalitarianism, will be appreciated by you.

I firmly believe that if you build a better mousetrap, the world will beat a path to your door.

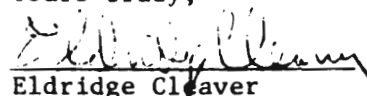

I believe that we have reached a great period of creativity and growth. We will go forward and not backward, as long as we stick to programs and proposals that are both economically viable and constitutionally sound.

We certainly would appreciate it if you could help us now, at the beginning, with a healthy contribution that will help us get off the ground.

We will keep you informed of our progress. We believe our campaign will receive lots of attention because it poses fundamental questions in a classic form. We are going to organize an ideological debate with the lefties in Berkeley. It will make a great document which we can then use in other places.

Thank you very much. Hoping to hear from you soon. I remain,

Yours truly,

Eldridge Cleaver

Re: Cleaver for Congress

Dear Jan:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter, dated July 5, 1984, with which was enclosed various financial statements regarding the account of Cleaver for Congress at the Dominion National Bank.

It appears that there is a balance of $33.14 in the account of Cleaver for Congress at Dominion National Bank and that there is one outstanding invoice from D.M.I. in the amount of $11,500.00. I would appreciate it if you would confirm those figures and also let me know whether any additional charges and expenses are anticipated. I would also appreciate it if you would let me know whether any additional contributions are being received.

In light of the discussions to date, I trust Neal has terminated his activities on behalf of Cleaver for Congress. It is my hope that, once we identify all the outstanding obligations, we can close the account at Dominion National Bank and forward the balance and any future contributions to Cleaver for Congress in California.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

J. Curtis Herge

Re: Cleaver For Congress

Dear Curt:

Enclosed please find a copy of records regarding receipts, disbursements and outstanding debts for the Cleaver For Congress Committee ("Committee"). The records pertain to transactions on behalf of the Committee from two Virginia bank accounts which have been closed as of July 31, 1984 according to Harold Goode, an accountant. The two accounts were at Dominion National Bank and First American Savings & Loan. Records through June 30, 1984 were previously sent to the Committee on various dates to its Oakland, California address. The enclosed set of documents are provided to you in case your client did not preserve the prior copies.

Please note that two outstanding debts remain: Decision Making Information ($746.86) and Prince & Associates ($3,029.45).

As per your client's request, all activities on behalf of Mr. Cleaver which were previously authorized by him and the Committee have been terminated. I trust that this resolves all outstanding issues in this matter.

Sincerely,

Jan W. Baran

Dear Counsel:

I wish to bring to your attention, with outrage and indignation, what I believe to be a criminal conspiracy to,

- (1) Destroy my Independent candidacy for Representative of the 8th Congressional District of California, and
- (2) To divert and plunder funds solicited from the public and donated by the public for my campaign, with checks made out to CLEAVER FOR CONGRESS*, and cashed through an unauthorized account named CLEAVER FOR CONGRESS.

Neal Blair, President of RUFF-PAC, has diverted in excess of $50,000 from public donations, using the unauthorized bank account.

I have repeatedly demanded that Neal Blair and his confederates close the bank account and cease all activity*.

HOWARD J. RUFF

REDEMPTION

As we are now up to our hips in the "silly season," we must look at political issues which can impact the economy and investments.

The people we elect to Congress and to the White House will have a major impact on the investment outlook. They can and will affect the free market (your right to invest in whatever you choose) and the future of inflation.

About three times a year, I like to get off of my chest a lot of political issues that affect investors, and two of these issues have become very urgent. As the investment markets have been very quiet and the last issue was a bit heavy, let's tackle them now. Next week we'll be back into heavy-duty investment advice again.

An extraordinary story is developing which may give us a chance to defeat one of Congress' most dedicated enemies of the free market. Whenever a small segment of business or free enterprise is under legislative assault, you can be sure Ron Dellums is on the other side of the fence. He is also a pivotal figure in the exponential growth of the entitlement programs that collectively are destroying the purchasing power of the dollar. The story of his challenger is almost beyond belief, but here it is.

ELDRIDGE CLEAVER is one of the most interesting and controversial men in recent American history. One of the founders of the BLACK PANTHER party, he was a true revolutionary. He served years in prison, was at the core of much of the revolutionary racial ferment of the 50's and 60's, was a powerful charismatic voice of revolution, and probably was the most important Marxist movements. If anyone ever killed a whitey, it was Eldridge Cleaver.

Cleaver fled America in 1968 to avoid prosecution for attempted murder, and spent years in Cuba and other communist countries, including seven months attending Pyongyang University in North Korea. He was taught all of the principles of revolution and communist subversion, especially how to make outside communist subversion look like a grass roots revolution.

During those years, however, a miracle occurred. After seeing communism up close, he became disillusioned with the communist dream which had motivated his hatred for America and its white society. He had been in the belly of the beast, and it was all a lie. He concluded that he had been dead wrong all of his life. Along the way he also had become deeply interested in the Bible and became a confirmed believer in Jesus Christ, which motivated a desire to repent and make amends, and gave him the courage to return to face the charges against him. His return to America was a minor sensation in 1975, especially when he renounced communism and announced that he loved America and that the free enterprise system was the best hope for blacks.

With the same energy, intellect and charisma that he had brought to the evil causes he had espoused, he began to reorganize his life to be a force for good, to compensate for the evil he had done.

Members of the Ruff PAC staff became acquainted with Cleaver through a mutual friend, Dr. Cleon Skousen, director of the Freeman Institute. After watching him closely for several years, we are convinced that this change is real and permanent.

I have spent several hours with Eldridge, and I'm not easy to fool. I've seen them all. His transformation is genuine. He is an immensely articulate spokesman for America, free enterprise and Christianity. After many hours of discussion, it has become apparent that Eldridge Cleaver's political, economic and social views are virtually indistinguishable from mine, as incredible as that sounds. He has years of experience. All vestiges of his former hatred of "whitey" are gone. He's an ardent Reagan supporter and would also be an ardent supporter of Free the Eagle in Congress.

We found out recently that he has decided to enter the race for the Northern California Congressional seat held by Dellums, a seven-term congressman, whose voting record and political philosophy are indistinguishable from that of hard-core Marxists. He rarely, if ever, takes a position that deviates significantly from the Kremlin "line." I'm not alleging he's a Soviet agent, but he is a philosophical soul mate.

Dellums also was implicated in a recent scandal where many congressmen were accused of cocaine usage and trafficking. After a halfhearted "investigation" (white wash?), no charges were filed because of "insufficient evidence," although rumors of Dellums' cocaine usage have been circulating among his colleagues for years.

It is commonly believed on the street that Dellums has extensive connections with unsavory, drug-related crime figures who are reputedly involved in a business that produces nine-figure profits for the underworld. Many of Cleaver's former associates in the revolutionary movement are also involved in this drug traffic. There is no proof available to us that Dellums is illegally involved in drug trafficking, but he does have some very strange friends.

Cleaver's challenge of Dellums creates a fascinating opportunity to get Dellums out of the Congress. If Cleaver, as an independent, only steals 10% to 15% of the vote from Dellums, any good Republican challenger could win. But we believe Cleaver has a real chance to win. In either case, Dellums is gone!

Dellums now knows Ruff PAC will support Cleaver. He has already told a reporter for a San Francisco area paper that "Ruff is a racist in business with South Africa." The last time I looked, Cleaver was black. If I'm a racist, I sure picked Eldridge is still (ero figure to many people in Oakland Berkeley where the Black Panther party had its roots, despite the fact that he not only has made no secret of his changed views, but has been publicly espousing them.

He's a brilliant platform personality. He's impressive in person, not because he is charismatic like Jesse Jackson, but because of an aura of quiet strength. He has one of the finest minds I've ever confronted, and is extremely articulate.

I think Eldridge Cleaver is one of the most remarkable characters in modern history, a conclusion I've drawn after wading through a swamp of skepticism. It's difficult to believe that a man who has committed such crimes can become what I believe he has become, and yet I have no remaining doubts.

There is probably no congressional race in America this year where our opponent is so totally opposed to what we believe in and fight for. No one knows this better than Eldridge Cleaver, because many of Dellums' friends are also Cleaver's former friends and associates.

Some of you may have trouble with all this. It requires an inordinate amount of Christian forgiveness and a leap of faith to believe it--and to forgive and forget Cleaver's past crimes. But bear in mind that he is now in such a unique position to do good that when his life on earth is over, the "net" of Eldridge Cleaver could be far more good than any of us could ever accomplish. Beating Dellums is a start.

Were it not for the religious component, which I have seen transform lives and literally change peoples' personalities and deepest beliefs, this would all be pretty hard to swallow. But this great story of human redemption has touched me deeply. If you had told me ten years ago that someday I would literally embrace Eldridge Cleaver in brotherhood, I'd have called for the men in white coats with nets.

I have asked Eldridge to speak at our San Diego National Convention, as well as to conduct workshops on the techniques of communist revolution. During his classes at Pyongyang, he wrote down everything his teachers said, and he has stacks of journals. Someday when that is published, it will give us more insight into the com-unist drive for revolution and subversion than anything ever written. I hope to help him get it published. In the meantime, come to our San Diego convention and make up your own mind. This will be an extraordinary event.

If you want to help Cleaver, send your contributions to: Cleaver For Congress, c/o Ruff PAC, Box 881, Centerville, VA 22020.

Re: Matters Under Review 1747 & 1749

Dear Mr. Steele:

This office represents Neal B. Blair and Harold Goode. Enclosed please find executed Statements of Designation of Counsel.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) we hereby submit this letter and the enclosed Affidavit of Neal B. Blair (hereafter "Blair Affidavit") and Affidavit of Harold Goode (hereafter "Goode Affidavit") in response to the complaints filed by Susan M. Thompson, treasurer of the Cleaver For Congress Committee ("Committee"), and Elridge Cleaver which have been designated by your office as Matters Under Review ("MURs") 1747 and 1749, respectively. We respectfully request that the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") take no action against our clients on the basis of these complaints, except to find no reason to believe that any violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act ("Act") has been committed.

THE COMPLAINTS

The complaints make two similar allegations. Mr. Cleaver alleges that Blair (1) "destroyed" Cleaver's candidacy and (2) conspired "to divert and plunder funds solicited from the public and donated by the public for [Cleaver's]

campaign, with checks made out to CLEAVER FOR CONGRESS, and cashed through an unauthorized account named CLEAVER FOR CONGRESS."

Thompson alleges (1) that there was a "veritable sabotage and destruction of Mr. Cleaver's campaign" and (2) that Blair and Goode violated 2 U.S.C. § 432 by maintaining a campaign depository which she "never approved of."

FACTS

Neal B. Blair is a political and public policy consultant. Blair Affidavit ¶ 2. Blair was solicited for financial and other support by Cleaver on January 17, 1984. Id. ¶ 3. Blair had discussions with Cleaver at which time he agreed to personally assist Cleaver in his election campaign. Id. ¶ 4. At Cleaver's request, Blair agreed to undertake fundraising efforts on his behalf and to retain the services of professional political consultants for the election campaign. Id. ¶ 5.

At Cleaver's request and with his knowledge, Blair retained the services of an accountant, Harold Goode. Id. ¶ 6. With Cleaver's approval, Blair instructed Goode to open a depository for the Cleaver for Congress Committee. Id. ¶ 7. Goode opened the account ("Cleaver Account") on or about March 1, 1984. Goode Affidavit ¶ 4. Among the four individuals who signed the bank's authorization card was Elridge Cleaver. Id. (copy of executed signature card attached thereto).

On or about April 15, 1984 Goode was called by Susan Thompson, who stated that she was treasurer of the Committee. Id. ¶ 5. At her request, Goode mailed to her copies of financial statements, contributor checks and a completed Schedule B of FEC form 3x which reflected the financial activity of the Cleaver Account through March 31, 1984. Id. Each month thereafter, Goode prepared and submitted to the Committee similar financial information. Id. (copies attached thereto). At the Committee's request Goode wired a total of $9,600 at various dates from the Cleaver Account to the Committee's other depository at the Wells Fargo Bank in Oakland, California. Id. ¶ 10.

Pursuant to Cleaver's request, Blair retained the services of various vendors on behalf of the Committee. Blair Affidavit ¶ 8. These vendors were to be paid from the Cleaver Account. Id. ¶ 7.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire

On or about June 1, 1984 Blair had a conference telephone call with Cleaver and others at which time Cleaver expressed his desire that the Cleaver Account be closed. Id. ¶ 9. At that time contributions to the account were anticipated. Id. Blair informed Cleaver that he would cease any further activities on Cleaver's behalf and would instruct Goode to close the account after all receipts from direct mail solicitations were in hand and bills paid. Id. Blair believed that if the account were closed in a different manner, Cleaver would have refused to pay the debts owed by the Committee which Cleaver had asked Blair to incur on his behalf. Id. ¶ 15.

On or about June 19, 1984 Blair notified Thompson that the Committee had failed to file any necessary reports or registration statements with the FEC. Id. ¶ 10. Blair previously had advised Thompson of such reporting obligations. Id.

On July 5, 1984 counsel for Cleaver was advised that the account was being closed. Id. ¶ 12. On July 12, 1984 Goode closed the Cleaver Account. Goode Affidavit ¶ 8. On July 13, 1984 Goode received additional contributions which were deposited into a new Cleaver Account. Id. ¶ 9. The contributions were used to pay outstanding debts and the Cleaver Account was finally closed on July 31, 1984. Id.

At all times Blair acted in good faith and pursuant to Cleaver's authorization and approval. Blair Affidavit ¶ 14. The Cleaver Account was closed in a manner consistent with Cleaver's original authorization that it be opened, funds raised and debts incurred. Id. Thompson was regularly kept apprised of the transactions in the Cleaver Account. Id.; Goode Affidavit ¶¶ 5 & 6.

Cleaver withdrew as a candidate because he failed to collect the 1000 signatures needed to qualify for the ballot. Blair Affidavit ¶ 16.

DISCUSSION

I. Blair and Goode Did Not "Destroy" or "Sabotage" Cleaver's Campaign.

The FEC, of course, has no jurisdiction over vague allegations that someone has "destroyed" or "sabotaged" a person's campaign. These outlandish accusations, even if true, do not constitute a violation of the Act. Blair and Goode deny such charges.

84040492993

Charles N. Steele, Esquire
August 28, 1984
Page 4

II. The Cleaver Account Was Authorized
by Elridge Cleaver.

Section 432(h)(1) of Title 2 U.S.C. states in pertinent part that "[e]ach political committee shall designate one or more . . . depositories." Section 432(e)(1) states in pertinent part that "[a]ny candidate . . . who receives a contribution, or any loan . . ., or makes a disbursement in connection with such campaign, shall be considered, for purposes of this Act, as having received the contribution or loan, or as having made the disbursement, as the case may be, as an agent of the authorized committee or committees of such candidate."

Contrary to the allegations by the complainants, the Cleaver Account was an authorized depository of the Cleaver for Congress Committee. Cleaver approved the account. Blair Affidavit ¶ 7. Cleaver signed a bank authorization card for the account. Goode Affidavit ¶ 4. Thompson knew of the account and received financial statements regarding the account. Id. ¶¶ 5 & 6. The Committee requested and received wire transfers to its other depository in Oakland, California, totaling $9,600. Id. ¶ 10. The complainants knowingly benefitted from the account and were kept fully apprised of the account's transactions.

Upon notification from Cleaver, Blair ceased activities on Cleaver's behalf and commenced the winding down and closing of the account. Id. ¶ 7; Blair Affidavit ¶ 9. The Cleaver Account was closed on July 31, 1984 when all contributions were in hand and applied towards outstanding debts, which Cleaver had asked Blair to incur on his behalf. Blair Affidavit ¶¶ 9 & 13-15; Goode Affidavit ¶ 9. Cleaver, through counsel, was apprised of Blair's actions and provided with a full accounting of all transactions. Blair Affidavit ¶ 13.

These facts and the documents referred to and appended to the Affidavits of Blair and Goode conclusively prove that Cleaver personally and in writing authorized the campaign depository (the Cleaver Account). Such actions by a candidate are deemed the actions of the candidate's authorized committee. 2 U.S.C. § 432(e)(1).

In addition, Thompson personally knew of and by her actions approved of the depository. Upon notice to Blair, the depository was closed consistent with the authority which Cleaver originally granted to Blair and with a full accounting.

Charles N. Steele, Esquire
Page 5

It is the complainants, not the respondents, who may have violated various provisions of the Act. Notwithstanding Blair's repeated warnings regarding reporting obligations, id. ¶ 10, the complainants failed to file timely or accurate registration statements and financial reports. The registration statement designating this depository was not filed even though Cleaver personally authorized the Cleaver Account. Reports were not filed timely or completely even though the information necessary to complete and file such reports were sent to the Committee on a monthly basis at the complainants' request.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons stated above, Blair and Goode respectfully request that the FEC take no action with respect to them other than to find no reason to believe that they have violated the Act. .

Sincerely,

Jan W. Baran

RECEIVED

AFFIDAVIT OF NEAL B. BLAIR

Neal B. Blair for his affidavit deposes and says:

1. I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein and am competent to testify thereto.

2. I am a political and public policy consultant and maintain an office in Washington, D.C. I am a resident of Centreville, Virginia.

3. I received a letter from Eldridge Cleaver dated January 17, 1984 (copy attached) soliciting financial and other support for his campaign for United States Representative from the 8th Congressional District of California.

4. I had discussions with Mr. Cleaver at which time I agreed to personally assist him in his election campaign.

5. At Mr. Cleaver's request I agreed to undertake fundraising efforts on his behalf and to retain the services of professional political consultants for his election campaign.

6. At Mr. Cleaver's request and with his knowledge I retained the services of Harold Goode, accountant, on behalf of the Cleaver for Congress Committee ("Committee").

7. With Mr. Cleaver's approval I instructed Mr. Goode to open a depository for the Committee in an appropriate institution in the Commonwealth of Virginia. This depository was to be used to deposit Committee contributions from contributors whom I directly or indirectly was responsible for soliciting. The depository also was to be used to pay for the goods and services of the professional political consultants whom I had been asked to retain on behalf of the Committee.

8. Pursuant to Mr. Cleaver's request I retained the services of a direct mail marketing firm (Martin Advertising), a survey research firm (Decision Making Information) and a political consulting firm (Prince & Associates) on behalf of the Committee. These firms rendered their respective services on behalf of the Committee with Mr. Cleaver's knowledge and to his benefit.

9. On or about June 1, 1984 I had a conference telephone call with Mr. Cleaver, Susan Thompson, the Committee's treasurer and John Hix and Lynn Joiner of Prince & Associates. Mr. Cleaver at that time expressed his desire to close the depository which had been established in Virginia on his behalf. I then informed Mr. Cleaver that I would cease any further activities on his behalf and instruct Mr. Goode to close the account after all receipts from direct mail solicitations were in hand and bills paid. I so instructed Mr. Goode.

10. On or about June 19, 1984, my counsel advised me that the Committee as of that date had failed to file any reports or registration statements with the Federal Election Commission, as required by law. By letter dated June 20, 1984 (copy attached) I advised Ms. Thompson that she, on behalf of the Committee, must file reports and statements disclosing the Committee's depositories. I had previously advised Ms. Thompson of her reporting obligations.

11. On or about June 27, 1984 I was contacted by J. Curtis Herge, counsel for Mr. Cleaver. I referred him to my counsel.

12. My counsel advised me that he had informed Mr. Herge that I had ceased my activities on behalf of Mr. Cleaver and that the account would be closed upon receipt of outstanding contributions and payment of outstanding bills. Financial data through June 30, 1984 regarding the depository was sent to Mr. Herge by my counsel on July 5, 1984 (copy of letter attached). Mr. Herge confirmed receipt by letter of July 10, 1984 (copy attached).

13. To the best of my knowledge the Virginia depository was closed on July 31, 1984. Mr. Herge was notified of this action by my counsel by letter dated August 1, 1984 (copy attached).

14. At all times my actions on behalf of Mr. Cleaver were undertaken in good faith and pursuant to his authorization and approval. The Virginia depository was closed in a manner consistent with Mr. Cleaver's original authorization that it be opened, funds raised and debts incurred. His campaign treasurer, Ms. Thompson, was regularly kept apprised of the transactions in that depository.

15. I believe that if the Virginia depository were closed in a manner different than as set forth above, Mr. Cleaver would have refused to pay the debts owed by the Committee which he had asked me to incur on his behalf. The activities that I have undertaken on his behalf were taken at his request and with his full knowledge and permission.

16. To the best of my knowledge, Mr. Cleaver withdrew as a candidate because he failed to collect the 1000 signatures needed to qualify for the ballot.

Dear Neal:

Hope this letter finds you well. I am happy and excited about the present prospects for some sound political progress in this country. I want to share with you what I am doing.

The accompanying packet will inform you of my candidacy for the House of Representatives, California's 8th Congressional District, now occupied by Ron Dellums, an ideological leftwing enemy of America. I want you to take an interest in my campaign, as I feel that my support of the Free Enterprise system, of replacing welfare with work, of steadfastly and vigorously supporting free institutions and the democratic process, while vigorously opposing Communism and all forms of oppression, exploitation, and totalitarianism, will be appreciated by you.

I firmly believe that if you build a better mousetrap, the world will beat a path to your door.

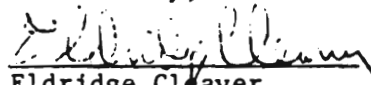

I believe that we have reached a great period of creativity and growth. We will go forward and not backward, as long as we stick to programs and proposals that are both economically viable and constitutionally sound.

We certainly would appreciate it if you could help us now, at the beginning, with a healthy contribution that will help us get off the ground.

We will keep you informed of our progress. We believe our campaign will receive lots of attention because it poses fundamental questions in a classic form. We are going to organize an ideological debate with the lefties in Berkeley. It will make a great document which we can then use in other places.

Thank you very much. Hoping to hear from you soon. I remain,

Yours truly,

Eldridge Cleaver

Re: Cleaver for Congress

Dear Jan:

This will acknowledge receipt of your letter, dated July 5, 1984, with which was enclosed various financial statements regarding the account of Cleaver for Congress at the Dominion National Bank.

It appears that there is a balance of $33.14 in the account of Cleaver for Congress at Dominion National Bank and that there is one outstanding invoice from D.M.I. in the amount of $11,500.00. I would appreciate it if you would confirm those figures and also let me know whether any additional charges and expenses are anticipated. I would also appreciate it if you would let me know whether any additional contributions are being received.

In light of the discussions to date, I trust Neal has terminated his activities on behalf of Cleaver for Congress. It is my hope that, once we identify all the outstanding obligations, we can close the account at Dominion National Bank and forward the balance and any future contributions to Cleaver for Congress in California.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

J. Curtis Herge

Re: Cleaver For Congress

Dear Curt:

Enclosed please find a copy of records regarding receipts, disbursements and outstanding debts for the Cleaver For Congress Committee ("Committee"). The records pertain to transactions on behalf of the Committee from two Virginia bank accounts which have been closed as of July 31, 1984 according to Harold Goode, an accountant. The two accounts were at Dominion National Bank and First American Savings & Loan. Records through June 30, 1984 were previously sent to the Committee on various dates to its Oakland, California address. The enclosed set of documents are provided to you in case your client did not preserve the prior copies.

Please note that two outstanding debts remain: Decision Making Information ($746.86) and Prince & Associates ($3,029.45).

As per your client's request, all activities on behalf of Mr. Cleaver which were previously authorized by him and the Committee have been terminated. I trust that this resolves all outstanding issues in this matter.

Sincerely,

Jan W. Baran

Federal Elections Commission
attn: Clerk of the House
1036 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

FEC Identification Number 112127

To Whom it May Concern:

This is to state that I, Susan M. Thompson, Treasurer, Cleaver for Congress, am filing this report with the Federal Election Commission with an accompanying protest and complaint.

Neal B. Blair, President, RUFF/Pac and Harold Goode, accountant for RUFF/Pac have flagrantly violated section 432, Subchapter 1, Chapter 14, Title 2 of the Federal Election Campaign Laws as compiled January 1980 by the Federal Election Commission.

These violations have always been against my instructions, requests and desires. I have repeatedly requested that these violations be corrected and instead of cooperation, I have been faced with nothing but blatant disregard for my appointed position as Treasurer of the Cleaver for Congress campaign. I have instructed Neal B. Blair and Harold Goode to discontinue their activity regarding unauthorized transactions. They have never obliged either me or the law of the land which very clearly states my responsibilities and authority as Treasurer of record for a congressional campaign.

In the end this has resulted in a veritable sabotage and destruction of Mr. Cleaver's campaign as Neal B. Blair has diverted and drained all of the funds from his solicitations for funds using Mr. Cleaver's name. Without the funds that were contributed by people all over the United States who were hoping to help Mr. Cleaver there will be no candidacy in November as there are not the necessary funds to enable Mr. Cleaver to appear on the ballot. Mr. Blair has knowingly accepted funds that were meant for Mr. Cleaver's campaign and misappropriated and misused that which was intended for use, here in the Eighth District, to further the campaign.

I have never approved of or been given any opportunity to review transactions with the Dominion Bank in Virginia. I have been denied access to information concerning this account and all transactions that were involved using it. Of late, since private legal action was initiated by Mr. Cleaver, there has been a hurried cover up and rush of material to this office as a pretense of compliance with the law. This is not to say that Neal B. Blair or Harold Goode are truly working within the law or my authority. For example, the account at Dominion Bank has never been formally closed, even after written command from Mr. Cleaver.

3 4 0 4 0 4 9 3 0 5 7

Therefore, I am filing the lawful accounting of the Cleaver for Congress campaign and signing my name to it. But there is nothing in the Constitution which requires me to sign my name to actions which I know to be illegal. I am reporting all illegal activity which I have knowledge of to you in the form of an unsigned report which concerns the unauthorized Cleaver for Congress Committee, aka Free the Eagle aka RUFF/Pac.

Most Respectfully Yours,

Susan M. Thompson

Dear Sirs,

On response to your request for a final report of the fiscal activity of Cleaver for Congress, I have filled out the enclosed FEC forms.

You will also note that I have included the cover page of your totally unsatisfactory findings dated November 15, 1984. The findings were unsatisfactory in that they were a complete mockery of justice hurried through after a long stall. So evidence how badly you have ruled on this case, I have written a new statement, which is duly notarized and sworn to, which further points out the many discrepancies in RUFF/PAC's testimony.

Since the FEC failed to resolve this matter upon our complaint, Mr. Cleaver is now seeking private counsel.

As for an audit, we welcome one: we would like to see RUFF/PAC, Free the Eagle and Dominion bank undergo a thorough audit.

There is no point in further communication concerning the ~~false~~ Washington, D.C. "Cleaver for Congress" account. Howard Ruff and Paul B. Blair are solely responsible for its

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

On July 30, 1984, the Office of General Counsel received a signed, sworn and notarized complaint (See Attachment 1) from Eldridge Cleaver (hereinafter "Complainant") alleging violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (hereinafter the "Act"), by Neal Blair (hereinafter "Respondent").^{1/}

Specifically, Complainant alleges that Mr. Blair 1) "destroyed [Mr. Cleaver's] independent candidacy for Representative of the 8th Congressional District of California and;

^{1/} Also on July 30, 1984, the Office of General Counsel received a signed, sworn and notarized complaint from Susan Thompson, treasurer for Cleaver for Congress Committee alleging violations of the Act by Neal Blair and Harold Goode based on the same factual activity. This complaint was numbered MUR 1747. The Office of General Counsel has recommended that MUR 1747 be merged into MUR 1749.

STATEMENT BY SUSAN THOMPSON
RE FEC FINDINGS

I would like to respond to several of the F.E.C.'s findings when that commission found Neal B. Blair's activities acceptable under the law.

Mr. Blair falsely and without authorization or notification used Mr. Cleaver's photographs in brochures mailed to solicit funds. This was done without Mr. Cleaver's knowledge. The receipts from this brochure were then deposited into Dominion Bank into "one of approximately twenty different bank accounts," according to Mr. Richardson of Dominion Bank. He also stated at that time, that Howard Ruff was desirous of making bank card deposits available to potential donators, but that he, Mr. Richardson was extremely worried about the legal propriety of Mr. Ruff and Mr. Blair's banking activities.

It is my understanding that no committee shall falsely solicit funds in this manner. Furthermore, Mr. Richardson went on to state that funds were freely shifted from in and out of one large account and about twenty smaller feeder accounts. I had contacted Mr. Goode when I noticed that this had been done with one check that was supposed to be Cleaver for Congress funds. I showed the accounting statement that evidenced this money flow to Mr. Gary Edwards. I expressed concern about this to Mr. Edwards and told him that I considered this activity to be illegal and that Mr. Goode must immediately rectify the error. I called Mr. Goode at his home that Monday night and told him that he must explain and correct this error. He admitted that it was a mistake although I found his explanation as to why he had done it to be unacceptable. Under no circumstances were any shady dealings to be tolerated in the Cleaver for Congress campaign under my or Mr. Cleaver's direction. Evidently, Mr. Blair and Mr. Ruff have no such morality.

Neither Mr. Cleaver or I ever saw the brochures falsely obtained and printed until months after they were mailed. The funds received from this mailing never reached the Cleaver for Congress account in Oakland. Yet, the Cleaver for Congress account was billed for their printing by Remington Press.

As for attachment 2, pages 15 and 28, Mr. Goode refused to send me timely financial statements or copies of contributor checks. I never recieved EVER any bank statements from Dominion Bank to prove or verify the amounts and origin of deposits and withdrawals.

The reason why I spoke with Mr. Goode on April 15, 1984 was exactly because he refused to wire funds on a timely basis and the campaign lost the option on a prime headquarters, leased the very next day by the Gary Hart campaign. Not only illegal, but destructive and manipulative practice on the part of Blair and Goode.

Vendors were not retained with either Mr. Cleaver's approval or knowledge. The material used by the printers was illegal as Mr. Cleaver specified during the photography that the pictures were not to be used for any purpose and to stop the photography.

Mr. Cleaver went to Washington D.C. well before June 1, 1984 with the intent of visiting Dominion Bank. Mr. Blair's office attempted to block the visit to the bank by giving Mr. Cleaver false information about the bank's location. Mr. Cleaver was then forced to call the bank and demand that the false Cleaver for Congress account be closed. He was assured that his request would be honored, but it was not, due to Mr. Blair's direction to the bank officer.

As for the conference call between Prince and Associates, Gary Edwards, Eldridge Cleaver, Neal Blair and myself, Mr. Blair refused to place the entire funds remaining in a trust account here on the West Coast in a bank that Mr. Cleaver found to be acceptable (Based on our past experience with Dominion Bank we did not want any bank or escrow account to be part of any good ol' boy networking. The bank was to be of our choice, and of national function without any allegiances to special interests) Mr. Cleaver's refusal at the time of the call was not that he did not want to recognize all bills or that the funds should be placed in an escrow account. The point was that Mr. Cleaver should maintain, as granted by law, control over any funds raised in his name. This is what Mr. Blair refused to work with. He would not divest himself of control. It is illegal to practice overt racism and I should think that if the public ever gained access to the arguments of Mr. Blair that a black candidate "could not be trusted with money" that the resulting outcry would be extremely damaging to organizations that condoned Mr. Blair and Mr. Ruff's attitudes and actions.

All debts were to be honored. Both Mr. Cleaver and I stated this clearly at the time of the call. But, as we later found out, Mr. Blair had run up bills for unauthorized printings with Remington Press under the name of "Free the Eagle" which he then attempted to pay out of Cleaver for Congress funds.

Where did Mr. Goode get the authority to open a new Cleaver for Congress account on July 13, 1984? He was told during the conference call in June to cease ALL financial activity by both Mr. Cleaver and myself.

You can hardly state that a bank account was closed in a timely manner when it took over three months for Mr. Cleaver's request of closure to be honored. On or about March 28, 1984, Mr. Cleaver, Mrs. Cleaver, Carmen Bouchart and I attended a campaign training conference where we discussed the need to close the Dominion Bank account with, among others, Mr. Dewey Newman of Dallas, Oregon and Mr. Dick Minard of Reston, Virginia. Mr. Newman at that time, referred me to Mary Frances Widener of the American Institute of CPA's. She concurred with our concern when I spoke with her on April 7, 1984 and sent me reference materials that would better inform me of Mr. Cleaver's rights.

The ruling of the F.E.C. was incorrect. The respondents clearly violated code. The legal venues open to Mr. Cleaver are still open and the statute of limitations are not up. Mr. Cleaver and I have not yet finished with this matter.

Susanne M. Thompson

I swear that the above
is true.
