CERTIFICATION

I, Marjorie W. Emmons, recording secretary for the Federal Election Commission executive session of January 15, 1985, do hereby certify that the Commission took the following actions in MUR 1830:

1. Failed on a vote of 3-3 to pass a motion to find reason to believe that the National Republican Congressional Committee and Jack McDonald, as Treasurer, and the Republican National Committee and William J. McManus, as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d) by exceeding party expenditure limitations in connection with the "Elevator" television advertisement.

Commissioners Harris, McDonald, and McGarry voted affirmatively for the motion. Commissioners Aikens, Elliott, and Reiche dissented.

Dear Mr. Braden:

On October 24, 1984, the Commission notified your client of a complaint alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

The Commission, on January 15, 1985, determined that on the basis of the information in the complaint and information provided by your client, there is no reason to believe that a violation of any statute within its jurisdiction has been committed in connection with the production and broadcast of the "Other Guy" television advertisement.

Also on January 15, 1985, the Commission was equally divided on the question of whether to find reason to believe a violation of any statute within its jurisdiction has been committed in connection with the production and broadcast of the "Elevator" television advertisement.

Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter. This matter will become part of the public record within 30 days.

Sincerely,

Charles N. Steele

Re: MUR 1830

Dear Mr. Franks:

The Federal Election Commission has reviewed the allegations contained in your complaint dated October 22, 1984 and determined, on January 15, 1985, that on the basis of information provided in your complaint and information provided by the Respondents, there is no reason to believe that a violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("Act") has been committed in connection with the production and broadcast of the "Other Guy" television advertisement.

Also on January 15, 1985, the Commission was equally divided on the question of whether to find reason to believe that a violation of the Act was committed in connection with the production and broadcast of the "Elevator" television advertisement.

Accordingly, the Commission has decided to close the file in this matter. The Federal Election Campaign Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

Should additional information come to your attention which you believe establishes a violation of the Act, you may file a complaint pursuant to the requirements set forth in 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) and 11 C.F.R. § 111.4.

1978-10, 1975-87

SUMMARY OF ALLEGATIONS

On October 22, 1984, the Office of General Counsel received a complaint from the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC") alleging that Respondents, National Republican Congressional Committee ("NRCC") and Republican National Committee ("RNC"), violated the expenditure limitations of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d) by failing to allocate expenditures made for two television advertisements among Republican candidates for the House, as required by 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a).

FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

In the Fall of 1984, the NRCC and RNC paid for the production and nationwide airing of two television commercials which are the subject matter of this complaint. This report shall adopt the titles given the two advertisements in both the DCCC complaint and the NRCC response, one being called the "Elevator" ad and the second the "Other Guy" ad.

The relevant text from the Elevator ad states, (See Attachment A for the full text),

Say aren't you our Democratic Congressman?
It is him!

Find out if your Congressman is for higher taxes or just vote Republican

The Other Guy ad states, in part, (See Attachment B for the full text),

For 29 years, Democrats have controlled the House
Vote Republican.

DCCC charges that NRCC and RNC have violated the Act by failing to allocate the costs of the commercials to the political party spending limitations which apply by law to NRCC/RNC activities on behalf of Republican candidates for the U.S. House of Representatives. DCCC contends that NRCC, as agent for the RNC for § 441a(d) spending authority, has exercised this spending authority up to the maximum permissible by law, before allocating any of the expenditures incurred for the advertisements at issue.

DCCC's contention that allocation is required in the present case is based on several grounds. According to the complaint, this type of media advertising does not constitute the type of generic, ticket-wide political activity that is exempt from the allocation requirements by virtue of the operating expenditure exceptions enumerated in 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(c). Instead, DCCC argues that NRCC/RNC spending for these advertisements is on behalf of specific, clearly identified candidates in each Congressional district: the Republican candidates for the House.

According to DCCC, reference to a specific Federal office, such as the House of Representatives, is an unambiguous reference to the candidate seeking that office, regardless of whether or not a specific candidate is named. No reference was made in the commercials to Presidential, Senatorial, Gubernatorial or other offices. This situation is to be distinguished, they suggest, from a reference to all Democratic candidates generally. Within the context of the general election, the commercials urge each viewer to vote against one candidate only, his or her Democratic Congressman, and vote for one only, the Republican candidate.

Separate responses were received from the NRCC and RNC on December 3, 1984. NRCC contends that their advertisements constitute a type of generic political activity by a political party which is not subject to contribution or expenditure limitations. NRCC argues that the advertisements themselves preclude their being characterized as allocable expenditures. The ads do not identify any candidate by name or image. Nor do the ads request that anyone vote for a specific Republican candidate for Congress. They were not used selectively for the benefit of a few particular candidates, they were for the benefit of Republican Congressional candidates generally in order to promote the overall Republican Party goal of winning a majority of Congressional elections. The NRCC contends that both it and the DCCC exist solely to elect a majority of their parties' candidates to the House, and the non-allocable expenses could not be made without reference to the office which is the subject of the committee's goals.

The RNC argues, in part, that the two ads at issue were never meant to be limited solely to advocating the election of Republican candidates to the House of Representatives. Instead the ads' purpose, according to RNC, was to elect Republican nominees to the "Presidency, the United States Senate, State Senates, State Assemblies, City Councils, Mayors, County Commissioners, Township Trustees, and Republican dog wardens."

RNC also argues that these expenditures should be classified as "get-out-the-vote" drives and need not be allocated because there is no clearly identified candidate on whose behalf the expenditures were made. RNC would limit the meaning of "clearly identified" to a specific or particular candidate, and in their view, that is impossible in the present case since the ads were run in every Congressional district. RNC contends that because there are 435 separate Congressional offices, these ads are not "office-specific" spending.

Under certain circumstances spending by political parties requires allocation among candidates subject to the Act's legal limitations. The general rule requiring allocation, 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a) states, Expenditures... made on behalf of more than one candidate shall be attributed to each candidate in proportion to, and shall be reported to reflect, the benefit reasonably expected to be derived.

Expenditures so allocated are subject to the limitations on multicandidate contributions of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(2)(A) and coordinated party expenditures of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d)(3).

The general rule of allocation is subject to the exceptions delineated in 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(c), known as "operating expenditures." Operating expenditures include disbursements for such items as rent, personnel, overhead, general administrative costs, fund-raising, voter registration drives, get-out-the-vote activities, or other day-to-day costs of political committees. The amount of these expenditures is not subject to any dollar limitations under the Act (See Advisory Opinion 1975-87), and need not be allocated among individual candidates unless, these expenditures are made on behalf of a clearly identified candidate and the expenditure can be directly attributed to that candidate. 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(c).

The Act defines "clearly identified" as where the candidate's name appears, a photograph or drawing of a candidate appears, or the identity of the candidate is apparent by unambiguous reference. 2 U.S.C. § 431(18); 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(d).

In Advisory Opinion 1984-15, the Commission considered for the first time whether a national party committee's expenditures for national or regional advertising, encompassing combined issue advocacy and an electioneering message, could be made without allocation to individual candidates or whether they must be so allocated and subject to the limitations of 2 U.S.C. § 441a. The Commission found that such expenditures would be subject to the legal limitations where the advertisements identified a specific

Federal office, in that case the Presidency, and where the reference was unambiguous and made the identity of the candidate apparent. The Commission went on to say that the same result would hold if an ad referred to "all Democratic Presidential candidates" but not if it referred to all Democratic candidates generally.

The two NRCC/RNC advertisements are distinguishable on the basis of content. The Elevator ad does not identify by name or photograph any Democratic Congressman or candidate for the House of Representatives. However, this ad contains the visual image of an actor purporting to be a Democratic Congressman. The ad also contains a verbal identification of this person as "our Democratic Congressman." The unambiguous reference in the ad is to a Democratic Congressman.

Reference to the office is sufficient to make the identity of the candidate apparent, under the reasoning developed in Advisory Opinion 1984-15. Each viewer of the advertisement lives in only one Congressional district and votes for only one Congressional candidate. The import and purpose of the Elevator ad is to diminish support for any Democratic Congressional candidates and to garner support for the Republican Congressional candidates. The ad makes express reference to the office of Representative, and the only election which will pose such a choice for the viewer is the general election for the House in the viewer's district.

R 5 0 4 0 5 1 3 7 5 8

Because the Elevator ad clearly identifies a candidate for Federal office, the Regulations require that the expenditures be allocated among candidates. For this reason, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the NRCC and Jack McDonald, as treasurer, and the RNC and William J. McManus, as treasurer, violated 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a) by failing to allocate the expenditure made in connection with the Elevator television advertisement.

A determination that allocation is required will have two consequences. First, in those Congressional districts where NRCC exhausted its § 441a(d) expenditure limitation on behalf of its Republican nominee, the additional allocation required by this advertisement will place NRCC in excess of the statutory limitation applicable to that nominee and in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d)(3).*/ Therefore, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the NRCC and Jack McDonald, as Treasurer, and the RNC and William J. McManus, as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d)(3) by exceeding permissible party expenditure limitations.

*/ A detailed "D" Index of NRCC section 441a(d) expenditures on behalf of Republican House candidates for election cycle 1983-84 is attached as Attachment 4. (Run date - December 17, 1984). In order to determine the amount of excess expenditure made on behalf of each candidate, the amount of media time purchased for the Elevator ad on television stations throughout the nation will have to be ascertained. This, in turn, will require an apportionment of such money spent among the Congressional districts covered by each respective station.

Second, NRCC's failure to include the allocation required of the Elevator ad expenditures on the relevant reports filed with the Commission will give rise to a reporting violation. All section 441a(d) expenditures must be disclosed pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(4)(H)(iv). Therefore, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the NRCC and Jack McDonald, as treasurer, and the RNC and William J. McManus, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(4) by failing to report § 441a(d) expenditures.

The Other Guy advertisement, unlike the Elevator ad, contains no visual image or verbal identification of anyone purporting to be a Democratic Congressman. Nor does this ad make apparent any candidates's identity by unambiguous reference, because the ad simply makes no reference at all to a candidate by name, photograph, or office. The ad does use the word "House" in referring to Democratic control thereof. However, this is a reference to the institution, as opposed to a reference to the office or office holder. The primary focus of this ad is the Democrats' tax program, as distinguished from the Elevator ad which focuses on the support of the program by the viewer's "Congressman."

Because the Other Guy ad does not clearly identify any candidate, any expenditures made can qualify under the Regulations as generic political spending, which need not be allocated among candidates. For this reason the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that the NRCC and Jack McDonald, as treasurer, or the RNC and William J. McManus, as treasurer, violated 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a) by not allocating expenditures made in connection with the Other Guy television advertisement. Additionally, the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that the NRCC and Jack McDonald, as treasurer, or the RNC and William J. McManus, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d) or 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(4) in connection with the Other Guy ad.

RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Find reason to believe that the National Republican Congressional Committee and Jack McDonald, as Treasurer, and the Republican National Committee and William J. McManus, as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d) by exceeding party expenditure limitations in connection with the "Elevator" television advertisement.
2. Find reason to believe that the National Republican Congressional Committee and Jack McDonald, as Treasurer, and the Republican National Committee and William J. McManus, as Treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(4) by failing to report § 441a(d) expenditures made in connection with the "Elevator" television advertisement.
3. Find reason to believe that the National Republican Congressional Committee and Jack McDonald, as Treasurer, and the Republican National Committee and William J. McManus, as Treasurer, violated 11 C.F.R. § 106.1 by failing to allocate expenditures made in connection with the "Elevator" television advertisement.
4. Find no reason to believe that the National Republican Congressional Committee and Jack McDonald, as Treasurer, and the Republican National Committee, and William J. McManus, as Treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d) in connection with the "Other Guy" television advertisement.
5. Find no reason to believe that the National Republican Congressional Committee and Jack McDonald, as Treasurer, and the Republican National Committee, and William J. McManus, as Treasurer violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(4) in connection with the "Other Guy" television advertisement.

THE OTHER GUY AD - RNC/NRCC

The Democrats have big tax increases in mind.

Now if you were a farmer, you might think it's the city people who will pay and vis versa.

If you are a working person, you might think corporations will get taxed more.

You might think it's the other person who will pay the tax increases, but do you know what?

The other person is you.

The Democratic program would cost the average household this much ($157) more a month.

Re: MUR 1830

Dear Mr. Steele:

This office represents the National Republican Congressional Committee ("NRCC"). This letter, the attached affidavit of Lawrence J. Halloran ("Halloran Aff.") and the enclosed videotape containing two political advertisements are submitted pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) in response to a complaint filed by the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC"), which has been denominated Matter Under Review ("MUR") 1830. For the reasons set forth herein, the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") should find no reason to believe that NRCC has violated the Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended ("Act").

FACTS

In the Fall of 1984 NRCC and the Republican National Committee ("RNC") paid for the production and airing of two television advertisements. Halloran Aff. ¶¶ 5 & 6. These advertisements are entitled "The Other Guy" and "Elevator." Id. ¶ 4 (a videotape cassette containing these advertisements accompanies Mr. Halloran's affidavit and hereby is submitted to the FEC and expressly incorporated herein by reference).

The advertisements were broadcast into all states and the District of Columbia. Id. ¶ 6. The advertisements reached all American television viewers. Id. The purpose of the advertisements was to promote the overall Republican Party goal of winning a majority of congressional elections. Id. ¶ 7. This advertising campaign was planned and conducted for the benefit of Republican congressional campaigns generally, and was not for the benefit of a particular candidate or a particular few candidates. Id.

These advertisements do not contain the name or image of any candidate for federal office. Id. ¶ 8. The advertisements advocate the election of unnamed Republican candidates for the House of Representatives.

ARGUMENT

DCCC alleges that the costs of "The Other Guy" and "Elevator" advertisements constitute spending by NRCC that is subject to either a contribution limit, 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a), or a party spending limit, id. § 441a(d)(3). However, this type of generic political activity by a political party long has been recognized as activity which is not subject to contribution or expenditure limitation.

In its first year of operation the FEC expressly noted that the Act does not limit a wide range of on-going party activity. In Advisory Opinion 1975-87, which was issued to NRCC, the FEC cited extensive "uncontroverted" legislative history. Advisory Opinion 1975-87, Fed. Election Camp. Fin. Guide (CCH) ¶ 5178 at 10,121 (Jan. 13, 1976). This history makes clear that Congress did not intend for the Act to curtail the traditional political party advocacy of "the congressional campaign committees" such as NRCC. Id. citing Cong. Rec. H 10332-33 (daily ed. Oct. 10, 1974) (remarks of Rep. Frenzel). Congressman Frenzel stated that "normal day-to-day expenses" of party committees need not be attributed to any candidates. Id. Congressman Frenzel explained that normal day-to-day expenses include research, speech writing, general party organization and travel, party publications, fundraising and staff. Id. He did not say that party non-allocable expenses were limited to these activities. The only caveat was that the expense cannot "contribute directly to any candidate's campaign effort," id., or as Senator Clark stated, "these expenditures are not made on behalf of a clearly identifiable Federal candidate." Id. citing Cong. Rec. 5 18529-50 (daily ed. Oct. 8, 1974) (remarks of Senator Clark).

Thus the FEC ruled that NRCC may conduct a candidates conference without allocating any expense to participating candidates even though "the matters discussed at the NRCC Conference obviously have some political impact." Id. The basis relied upon by the FEC for its conclusions was the legislative history and the fact that the activity "promotes overall Republican party goals -- that is, winning a majority of Congressional elections." Id. (emphasis added). The FEC recognized that NRCC may promote these goals without allocating expenses to candidates provided that the activity is not "planned and conducted for the benefit of a particular few candidates as distinguished from Republican Congressional candidates generally." Id. (emphasis added).<sup>1/</sup>

In subsequent opinions and in regulations the FEC consistently has required allocation of expenses by party committees to candidates only if the "expenditures are made on behalf of a clearly identified candidate and the expenditures can be directly attributed to that candidate." 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(c); see Advisory Opinion 1978-50, Fed. Election Camp. Fin. Guide (CCH) ¶ 5353 (Sept. 19, 1978); Advisory Opinion 1978-46, Fed. Election Camp. Fin. Guide (CCH) ¶ 5348 (Sept. 5, 1978); Advisory Opinion 1978-10, Fed. Election Camp. Fin. Guide (CCH) ¶ 5340 (Aug. 29, 1978).

<sup>1/</sup> The DCCC complaint heavily relies on Advisory Opinion 1984-15 for the proposition that advocacy which refers to a specific federal office must be allocated to candidates for that office. Such a position is contradicted by Advisory Opinion 1975-87. Furthermore, Advisory Opinion 1984-15 was decided in the limited factual context of party advertising regarding the Office of President. There is only one President and only one election contest for that office. On the other hand, there are 435 Congressmen and an equal number of contests.

The Act and its history as set forth above officially recognizes NRCC and DCCC as the congressional campaign arms of their respective parties. Their very reason for existing is to elect a majority of their parties' candidates to the House. The non-allocable expenses which Congressman Frenzel and the FEC acknowledge can be undertaken by NRCC and DCCC (such as fundraising) hardly could be made without reference to the office for which candidates supported by these committees run. Otherwise how can these committees promote what the FEC described as their legitimate non-allocable overall goal, i.e., "winning a majority of Congressional elections?" Advisory Opinion 1975-87, supra (emphasis added).

The advertisements at issue in this matter do not identify any candidate. Halloran Aff. ¶ 8. They were broadcast throughout the United States. Id. ¶ 6. They were not selectively used for the benefit of just a few candidates, they were for the benefit of "Republican Congressional candidates generally." Advisory Opinion 1975-87, supra; Halloran Aff. ¶ 7. Accordingly, the expenses paid by NRCC for these advertisements need not be allocated to any 1984 Republican candidate for Congress.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above the FEC should find no reason to believe that NRCC violated the Act.

Sincerely,

AFFIDAVIT
LAWRENCE J. HALLORAN

Lawrence J. Halloran for his affidavit deposes and says:

1. I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein and am competent to testify thereto.

2. I am Legal Counsel for the National Republican Congressional Committee ("NRCC").

3. I have read the complaint filed by the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC") which has been denominated Matter Under Review 1830 by the Federal Election Commission ("FEC").

4. The DCCC complaint refers to two political advertisements referred to as "The Other Guy" and "Elevator". I have provided to NRCC's outside counsel, Baker & Hostetler, a true and complete copy of each advertisement on one Beta format videotape cassette which is to be submitted to the FEC with this affidavit.

5. The advertisements referred to in paragraph 4 were produced and aired over broadcast television through a joint project between NRCC and The Republican National Committee ("RNC"). The costs of such advertisements were equally divided between and paid by NRCC and RNC.

6. The advertisements referred to in paragraph 4 were broadcast in the Fall of 1984 into all states and the District of Columbia and reached all American television viewers.

7. The purpose of the advertisements referred to in paragraph 4 was to promote the overall Republican party goal of winning a majority of congressional elections. The advertising campaign was planned and conducted for the benefit of Republican congressional campaigns generally, and was not for the benefit of a particular candidate or a particular few candidates.

8. The advertisements referred to in paragraph 4 do not contain the name or image of any candidate for federal office.

RE: MUR 1830

Dear Mr. Steele:

This letter is in response to the complaint by the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (DCCC) which alleges, in part, that the Republican National Committee (RNC) has violated certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. This letter is the response of the Republican National Committee pursuant to 11 CFR Section 111.6(a). This response will demonstrate clearly to the Commission that no further action should be taken in connection with this complaint because the complainant, the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, fails to meet the statutory and regulatory requirements of the Federal Election Commission. The complaint does not contain a clear and concise presentation of facts which describe a violation of any statute or regulation over which the Commission has jurisdiction. [2 USC Section 437g(a) (1); 11 CFR Section 111.4(d)3(4)].

The DCCC correctly observes that the RNC, in conjunction with the National Republican Congressional Committee (NRCC), has conducted a national media program urging Americans to vote Republican. The DCCC is correct when it states that the RNC has financed advertisements with the purpose and anticipated effect of electing Republican nominees to the House of Representatives. This observation is immaterial because it fails also to observe that these advertisements had the express purpose and anticipated effect of electing Republican nominees to the Presidency, the United States Senate, State Senates, State Assemblies, City Councils, Mayors, County Commissioners, Township Trustees and Republican dog wardens. The RNC makes no expenditures which do not have as their ultimate purpose and anticipated effect the election of Republican candidates to federal, state, and local office. The DCCC states that the function of the ads is beyond question. They are right, their function as is expressly stated in each advertisement is to urge their viewers to vote Republican. The arguments used to persuade the viewer to vote for Republican candidates is the twenty-nine years of Democratic control of the House of Representatives and the position of many Democrat leaders supporting higher taxes.

The assertion that such ads are unlawful is in direct conflict with Federal Election Commission regulations, past Commission advisory opinions and the First Amendment to the Constitution. Federal Election Commission regulations provide that expenditures for the get-out-the-vote drives of such committees need not be attributed to individual candidate's expenditure or contribution limits "unless these expenditures are made on behalf of a clearly identified candidate and the expenditure can be directly attributed to that candidate." [11 CFR Section 106.1(c)(1)(2)]. The expenditures of the RNC for these advertisements are not on behalf of a clearly identified candidate and they cannot be attributed directly to any candidate. Federal Election Commission regulations provide that "clearly identified" has three tests.

1. The candidate's name appears. In none of the advertisements does the name of any candidate for federal office appear.
2. A photograph or drawing of a candidate appears. In none of the advertisements does the photograph or drawing of any candidate for federal office appear.
3. The identity of the candidate is apparent by unambiguous reference. [11 CFR Section 106.1(d)].

To which candidates are these ads making unambiguous references? These advertisements appeared in every Congressional District in the United States. To which specific candidate, or candidates, are we making an unambiguous reference? If you accept the argument that an ad making reference to the Democratic control of the House of Representatives or referring to the fact that

Democratic leaders favor higher taxes is an unambiguous reference to a clearly identified candidate for office, you render the words, "clearly identified," meaningless. Such a statutory interpretation would be so chilling upon political discussion as to render that particular statutory analysis clearly in conflict with the First Amendment.

The DCCC asserts that "the Commission has spoken clearly and decisively on the issue in this complaint and that the FEC has specifically held that 441a(d) limitations apply to expenditures which refer to a specific federal office regardless of whether a specific candidate is named." What they fail to observe is that the advisory opinion on which they base their analysis (AO 1984-15) makes reference only to expenditures on behalf of the Republican and Democratic Presidential nominees of which each party has only one. A reference to the Democratic presidential nominee, the Democratic candidate for president, even without that candidate's name or photograph appearing in an advertisement is an unambiguous reference to a particular candidate. A reference to the control by the Democratic Party of House of Representatives is not an unambiguous reference to a particular candidate. Unfortunately, there are hundreds of Democratic nominees and Congressmen.

In one of the ads, an actor portraying an unidentified Democratic Congressman appears. The DCCC asserts this is an unambiguous reference to a clearly identified candidate. Since the actor in the advertisement was a white male, does this mean that the position of the DCCC is that this white male actor is an unambiguous reference to Democratic Congresswomen, or black Democratic Congressmen or women?

An argument bemoaning the Democratic control of the House of Representatives or Democratic tax plans is not "office-specific spending." There are 435 separate Congressional offices. The ads do not request that anyone vote for a specific Republican candidate for Congress or even Republican candidates for Congress. These ads do not, but could, I believe, make a general request for individuals to vote for Republican candidates for Congress if no reference was made to a specific, clearly identified candidate or candidates. No allocation to any expenditure limit would be required even accepting the questionable contention of the DCCC that office-specific spending is not "generic" because there are 435 different Congressional offices.

For the Commission to acquiesce in the DCCC's decision would be to reject nine years of its consistent interpretation of its statutes. In January of 1976, in Advisory Opinion 1975-86, the Commission stated that "...the Commission cannot reasonably conclude that the organizers of the conference intended to benefit a particular candidate or candidates; indeed the NRCC is far too large and amorphous a group to be said to represent a particular candidate or candidates; all that can be concluded is that the conference promotes overall Republican party goals -- that is, winning a majority of Congressional elections. Since the monies spent in organizing the conference cannot be said to be earmarked for a particular campaign, they cannot be attributed to the contribution or expenditure limitations of the candidates who attend."

If the Commission finds a candidate conference too amorphous for allocation, how can the Commission hope to attribute specific expenditures to specific candidates from advertisements which have aired in 435 Congressional Districts? The advertisements promote their stated goal of voting Republican, a much less specific goal than the candidate conference which this Commission determined required no allocation.

The Commission should immediately dismiss the DCCC's complaint, unless it desires to turn its back on nine years of its interpretation of the statute, and also ignore the First Amendment to our Constitution.

Very truly yours,

Attached please find a breakdown of the RNC's national advertising effort classified by Congressional districts.

The RNC advertised in a total of 412 Congressional districts in 47 states plus the District of Columbia.

In addition to spot buying in 141 media markets, the RNC also bought network time and cable system advertising. This information is found in addenda of this report.

If you desire any additional information, we will provide it upon request.

RE: MUR 1830
National Republican Congressional Committee
Jack McDonald, as Treasurer

Dear Mr. Baran:

The Federal Election Commission notified your client on October 24, 1984, of a complaint alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). A copy of the complaint was forwarded to your client at that time. We acknowledge receipt of your explanation of this matter which was dated December 3, 1984.

Upon further review of the allegations contained in the complaint and information supplied by you, the Commission, on , 1985, determined that there is reason to believe that the National Republican Congressional Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d) and § 434(b)(4), provisions of the Act. Specifically, it appears that the National Republican Congressional Committee and Jack McDonald, as Treasurer, made coordinated party expenditures, by sponsoring the "Elevator" television advertisement, in excess of § 441a(d) limitations and failed to report these expenditures in violation of § 434(b)(4). No similar finding was made with respect to the "Other Guy" television advertisement sponsored by the National Republican Congressional Committee. You may submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Please submit any such response, along with your answers to the enclosed questions, within ten days of your receipt of this notification.

The Office of General Counsel would like to settle this matter through conciliation prior to a finding of probable cause; however, in the absence of any information which demonstrates that no further action should be taken against your client, the Office of General Counsel must proceed to the next compliance stage as noted on page 2, paragraph 2 of the enclosed procedures.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. §§ 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that your client wishes the matter to be made public. If you have any questions, please contact Eric Kleinfeld, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 523-4000.

QUESTIONS FOR THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL COMMITTEE

On October 22, 1984, a complaint was filed with the Federal Election Commission against the National Republican Congressional Committee ("NRCC") the subject of which was a television commercial sponsored by NRCC on behalf of Republican House candidates. A transcript of the commercial, known as the "Elevator ad" was included with the complaint and is attached to these questions as Attachment A. All references in the questions to the advertisement refer to the above-mentioned Elevator ad.

1. Please list the names and addresses of all television stations on which the advertisement was broadcast.

2. Please list the amounts paid to each television station in Question 1 from which media time was purchased for the advertisement.

3. What was the total production cost incurred in producing the advertisement?

Dear Mr. McManus:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-Please identify the name and address of the recipient candidate/committee for the in-kind contribution(s) disclosed on Schedule B for Line 21.

-Itemized disbursements must include a brief statement or description of why the disbursements were made. Please amend Schedule F of your report (Coordinated Expenditures) to clarify the following descriptions: "Voter Reg. Costs," "Voter Program" and "Voter Contact." For further guidance regarding acceptable purposes of disbursements, please refer to 11 CFR 104.3(b)(3).

An amendment to your original report(s) correcting the above problem(s) should be filed with the Federal Election Commission within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter. If you need assistance, please feel free to contact me on our toll-free number, (800) 424-9530. My local number is (202) 523-4048.

Dear Mr. McManus:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-Schedule F supporting Line 23 discloses an expenditure of $16,919 to the Missouri Republican State Committee and an expenditure of $20,000 to Connecticut GOTV, the purpose of which have been listed as "Transfer-Out". Please provide greater clarification regarding the nature of these coordinated expenditures.

-Your report discloses in-kind contributions made on behalf of Federal candidates. The original payments for the goods and services have been itemized as operating expenditures and included in the total for Line 19 of the Detailed Summary Page. In addition, the attribution to each Federal candidate has been noted as a memo entry on supporting Schedule B for Line 21 (Contributions to Federal Candidates and Other Political Committees).

For future reporting, it is recommended that the amount of such activity be subtracted from Line 19 and added to Line 21 of the Detailed Summary Page. This method of reporting would clarify the public record to the extent that the total amount of contributions to Federal candidates (including in-kind contributions) would be reflected on Line 21 of the Detailed Summary Page.

An amendment to your original report(s) correcting the above problem(s) should be filed with the Federal Election Commission

Reference: October Quarterly Report (7/1/84-9/30/84)

Dear Mr. McManus:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-Your report discloses contributions which may have been drawn on corporate accounts (examples of such contributions are attached). You are advised that contributions from corporations are prohibited by the Act, unless made from separate segregated funds established by the corporations. (2 U.S.C. §441b) If you have received corporate contributions, the Commission recommends that you refund the full amounts to the donors, or transfer the funds to a non-Federal account. Please inform the Commission immediately in writing and provide a photocopy of your check(s) for the refund(s) or transfer(s)-out. In addition, the disbursement should be itemized on Schedule B for Line 26a or 27 of your next report.

Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning the acceptance of prohibited contributions, prompt action on your part to refund or transfer-out any such prohibited contributions will be taken into consideration.

If you find, however, that the contributions in question were not drawn from prohibited corporate accounts, and there is another explanation regarding the manner in which such entries have been disclosed, please clarify this matter for the public record.

-Schedule B for Line 26(c) discloses a contribution refund of $10,000 to Titsch & Assoc. A cursory review of your 1984 reports, however, indicates that the contribution was not itemized. Please explain this discrepancy.

An amendment to your original report(s) correcting the above problem(s) should be filed with the Federal Election Commission within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter. Dear Mr. Maikovich:

Enclosed please find the executed Affidavit Of Lawrence J. Halloran. A copy of an unexecuted affidavit was submitted yesterday along with a response by this office on behalf of the National Republican Congressional Committee to the complaint in the above-captioned matter.

Mr. Halloran has been out of town and was unable to provide us with the executed version at the time of our original filing.

Please contact me if there are any questions concerning this document.

Sincerely,

Lawrence J. Halloran for his affidavit deposes and says:

1. I have personal knowledge of the facts contained herein and am competent to testify thereto.
2. I am Legal Counsel for the National Republican Congressional Committee ("NRCC").
3. I have read the complaint filed by the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC") which has been denominated Matter Under Review 1830 by the Federal Election Commission ("FEC").
4. The DCCC complaint refers to two political advertisements referred to as "The Other Guy" and "Elevator". I have provided to NRCC's outside counsel, Baker & Hostetler, a true and complete copy of each advertisement on one Beta format videotape cassette which is to be submitted to the FEC with this affidavit.
5. The advertisements referred to in paragraph 4 were produced and aired over broadcast television through a joint project between NRCC and The Republican National Committee ("RNC"). The costs of such advertisements were equally

Dear Mr. Steele:

This office represents the National Republican Congressional Committee ("NRCC"). This letter, the attached affidavit of Lawrence J. Halloran ("Halloran Aff.") and the enclosed videotape containing two political advertisements are submitted pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) in response to a complaint filed by the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC"), which has been denominated Matter Under Review ("MUR") 1830. For the reasons set forth herein, the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") should find no reason to believe that NRCC has violated the Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended ("Act").

FACTS

In the Fall of 1984 NRCC and the Republican National Committee ("RNC") paid for the production and airing of two television advertisements. Halloran Aff. ¶¶ 5 & 6. These advertisements are entitled "The Other Guy" and "Elevator." Id. ¶ 4 (a videotape cassette containing these advertisements accompanies Mr. Halloran's affidavit and hereby is submitted to the FEC and expressly incorporated herein by reference).

The advertisements were broadcast into all states and the District of Columbia. Id. ¶ 6. The advertisements reached all American television viewers. Id. The purpose of the advertisements was to promote the overall Republican Party goal of winning a majority of congressional elections. Id. ¶ 7. This advertising campaign was planned and conducted for the benefit of Republican congressional campaigns generally, and was not for the benefit of a particular candidate or a particular few candidates. Id.

These advertisements do not contain the name or image of any candidate for federal office. Id. ¶ 8. The advertisements advocate the election of unnamed Republican candidates for the House of Representatives.

DCCC alleges that the costs of "The Other Guy" and "Elevator" advertisements constitute spending by NRCC that is subject to either a contribution limit, 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a), or a party spending limit, id. § 441a(d)(3). However, this type of generic political activity by a political party long has been recognized as activity which is not subject to contribution or expenditure limitation.

In its first year of operation the FEC expressly noted that the Act does not limit a wide range of on-going party activity. In Advisory Opinion 1975-87, which was issued to NRCC, the FEC cited extensive "uncontroverted" legislative history. Advisory Opinion 1975-87, Fed. Election Camp. Fin. Guide (CCH) ¶ 5178 at 10,121 (Jan. 13, 1976). This history makes clear that Congress did not intend for the Act to curtail the traditional political party advocacy of "the congressional campaign committees" such as NRCC. Id. citing Cong. Rec. H 10332-33 (daily ed. Oct. 10, 1974) (remarks of Rep. Frenzel). Congressman Frenzel stated that "normal day-to-day expenses" of party committees need not be attributed to any candidates. Id. Congressman Frenzel explained that normal day-to-day expenses include research,

Charles N. Steele, Esquire
December 3, 1984

speech writing, general party organization and travel, party publications, fundraising and staff. Id. He did not say that party non-allocable expenses were limited to these activities. The only caveat was that the expense cannot "contribute directly to any candidate's campaign effort," id., or as Senator Clark stated, "these expenditures are not made on behalf of a clearly identifiable Federal candidate." Id. citing Cong. Rec. 5 18529-50 (daily ed. Oct. 8, 1974) (remarks of Senator Clark).

Thus the FEC ruled that NRCC may conduct a candidates conference without allocating any expense to participating candidates even though "the matters discussed at the NRCC Conference obviously have some political impact." Id. The basis relied upon by the FEC for its conclusions was the legislative history and the fact that the activity "promotes overall Republican party goals -- that is, winning a majority of Congressional elections." Id. (emphasis added). The FEC recognized that NRCC may promote these goals without allocating expenses to candidates provided that the activity is not "planned and conducted for the benefit of a particular few candidates as distinguished from Republican Congressional candidates generally." Id. (emphasis added).<sup>1/</sup>

In subsequent opinions and in regulations the FEC consistently has required allocation of expenses by party committees to candidates only if the "expenditures are made on behalf of a clearly identified candidate and the expenditures can be directly attributed to that candidate." 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(c); see Advisory Opinion 1978-50, Fed. Election Camp. Fin. Guide (CCH) ¶ 5353 (Sept. 19, 1978); Advisory Opinion 1978-46, Fed. Election Camp. Fin. Guide (CCH) ¶ 5348 (Sept. 5, 1978); Advisory Opinion 1978-10, Fed. Election Camp. Fin. Guide (CCH) ¶ 5340 (Aug. 29, 1978).

<sup>1/</sup> The DCCC complaint heavily relies on Advisory Opinion 1984-15 for the proposition that advocacy which refers to a specific federal office must be allocated to candidates for that office. Such a position is contradicted by Advisory Opinion 1975-87. Furthermore, Advisory Opinion 1984-15 was decided in the limited factual context of party advertising regarding the Office of President. There is only one President and only one election contest for that office. On the other hand, there are 435 Congressmen and an equal number of contests.

The Act and its history as set forth above officially recognizes NRCC and DCCC as the congressional campaign arms of their respective parties. Their very reason for existing is to elect a majority of their parties' candidates to the House. The non-allocable expenses which Congressman Frenzel and the FEC acknowledge can be undertaken by NRCC and DCCC (such as fundraising) hardly could be made without reference to the office for which candidates supported by these committees run. Otherwise how can these committees promote what the FEC described as their legitimate non-allocable overall goal, i.e., "winning a majority of Congressional elections?" Advisory Opinion 1975-87, supra (emphasis added).

Charles N. Steele, Esquire
December 3, 1984

8 5 0 4 0 5 1 3 9 6 5

The advertisements at issue in this matter do not identify any candidate. Halloran Aff. ¶ 8. They were broadcast throughout the United States. Id. ¶ 6. They were not selectively used for the benefit of just a few candidates, they were for the benefit of "Republican Congressional candidates generally." Advisory Opinion 1975-87, supra; Halloran Aff. ¶ 7. Accordingly, the expenses paid by NRCC for these advertisements need not be allocated to any 1984 Republican candidate for Congress.

CONCLUSION

For the reasons set forth above the FEC should find no reason to believe that NRCC violated the Act.

Sincerely,

Jan W. Baran

RE: MUR 1830

Dear Mr. Steele:

This letter is in response to the complaint by the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (DCCC) which alleges, in part, that the Republican National Committee (RNC) has violated certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. This letter is the response of the Republican National Committee pursuant to 11 CFR Section 111.6(a). This response will demonstrate clearly to the Commission that no further action should be taken in connection with this complaint because the complainant, the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, fails to meet the statutory and regulatory requirements of the Federal Election Commission. The complaint does not contain a clear and concise presentation of facts which describe a violation of any statute or regulation over which the Commission has jurisdiction. [2 USC Section 437g(a) (1); 11 CFR Section 111.4(d)3(4)].

8 5 0 4 0 5 1 3 9 6 9

The DCCC correctly observes that the RNC, in conjunction with the National Republican Congressional Committee (NRCC), has conducted a national media program urging Americans to vote Republican. The DCCC is correct when it states that the RNC has financed advertisements with the purpose and anticipated effect of electing Republican nominees to the House of Representatives. This observation is immaterial because it fails also to observe that these advertisements had the express purpose and anticipated effect of electing Republican nominees to the Presidency, the United States Senate, State Senates, State Assemblies, City Councils, Mayors, County Commissioners, Township Trustees and Republican dog wardens. The RNC makes no expenditures which do not have as their ultimate purpose and anticipated effect the election of Republican candidates to federal, state, and local office. The DCCC states that the function of the ads is beyond question. They are right, their function as is expressly stated in each advertisement is to urge their viewers to vote Republican. The arguments used to persuade the viewer to vote for Republican candidates is the twenty-nine years of Democratic control of the House of Representatives and the position of many Democrat leaders supporting higher taxes.

The assertion that such ads are unlawful is in direct conflict with Federal Election Commission regulations, past Commission advisory opinions and the First Amendment to the Constitution. Federal Election Commission regulations provide that expenditures for the get-out-the-vote drives of such committees need not be attributed to individual candidate's expenditure or contribution limits "unless these expenditures are made on behalf of a clearly identified candidate and the expenditure can be directly attributed to that candidate." [11 CFR Section 106.1(c)(1)(2)]. The expenditures of the RNC for these advertisements are not on behalf of a clearly identified candidate and they cannot be attributed directly to any candidate. Federal Election Commission regulations provide that "clearly identified" has three tests.

1. The candidate's name appears. In none of the advertisements does the name of any candidate for federal office appear.

2. A photograph or drawing of a candidate appears. In none of the advertisements does the photograph or drawing of any candidate for federal office appear.

3. The identity of the candidate is apparent by unambiguous reference. [11 CFR Section 106.1(d)].

To which candidates are these ads making unambiguous references? These advertisements appeared in every Congressional District in the United States. To which specific candidate, or candidates, are we making an unambiguous reference? If you accept the argument that an ad making reference to the Democratic control of the House of Representatives or referring to the fact that

Democratic leaders favor higher taxes is an unambiguous reference to a clearly identified candidate for office, you render the words, "clearly identified," meaningless. Such a statutory interpretation would be so chilling upon political discussion as to render that particular statutory analysis clearly in conflict with the First Amendment.

8 5 0 4 0 5 1 3 9 7 1

The DCCC asserts that "the Commission has spoken clearly and decisively on the issue in this complaint and that the FEC has specifically held that 441a(d) limitations apply to expenditures which refer to a specific federal office regardless of whether a specific candidate is named." What they fail to observe is that the advisory opinion on which they base their analysis (AO 1984-15) makes reference only to expenditures on behalf of the Republican and Democratic Presidential nominees of which each party has only one. A reference to the Democratic presidential nominee, the Democratic candidate for president, even without that candidate's name or photograph appearing in an advertisement is an unambiguous reference to a particular candidate. A reference to the control by the Democratic Party of House of Representatives is not an unambiguous reference to a particular candidate. Unfortunately, there are hundreds of Democratic nominees and Congressmen.

In one of the ads, an actor portraying an unidentified Democratic Congressman appears. The DCCC asserts this is an unambiguous reference to a clearly identified candidate. Since the actor in the advertisement was a white male, does this mean that the position of the DCCC is that this white male actor is an unambiguous reference to Democratic Congresswomen, or black Democratic Congressmen or women?

8 5 0 4 0 5 1 3 9 7 2

An argument bemoaning the Democratic control of the House of Representatives or Democratic tax plans is not "office-specific spending." There are 435 separate Congressional offices. The ads do not request that anyone vote for a specific Republican candidate for Congress or even Republican candidates for Congress. These ads do not, but could, I believe, make a general request for individuals to vote for Republican candidates for Congress if no reference was made to a specific, clearly identified candidate or candidates. No allocation to any expenditure limit would be required even accepting the questionable contention of the DCCC that office-specific spending is not "generic" because there are 435 different Congressional offices.

For the Commission to acquiesce in the DCCC's decision would be to reject nine years of its consistent interpretation of its statutes. In January of 1976, in Advisory Opinion 1975-86, the Commission stated that "...the Commission cannot reasonably conclude that the organizers of the conference intended to benefit a particular candidate or candidates; indeed the NRCC is far too large and amorphous a group to be said to represent a particular candidate or candidates; all that can be concluded is that the

If the Commission finds a candidate conference too amorphous for allocation, how can the Commission hope to attribute specific expenditures to specific candidates from advertisements which have aired in 435 Congressional Districts? The advertisements promote their stated goal of voting Republican, a much less specific goal than the candidate conference which this Commission determined required no allocation.

The Commission should immediately dismiss the DCCC's complaint, unless it desires to turn its back on nine years of its interpretation of the statute, and also ignore the First Amendment to our Constitution.

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. McDonald:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-Your report discloses an apparent contribution(s) from a corporation(s) (pertinent portion attached). You are advised that a contribution from a corporation is prohibited by the Act, unless made from a separate segregated fund established by the corporation. 2 U.S.C. §441b(a).

The Commission notes the intended refund of the prohibited contribution(s). Although the Commission may take further legal steps concerning this matter, your prompt action in refunding the contribution(s) will be taken into consideration.

Any amendment or clarification should be filed with the Federal Election Commission. If you need assistance, please feel free to contact me on our toll-free number, (800) 424-9530. My local number is (202) 523-4048.

Re: MUR 1830

Dear Mr. Maikovich:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation of November 8, 1984, I hereby confirm that this office represents the National Republican Congressional Committee ("NRCC") in the above-captioned matter. Enclosed please find an executed Statement of Designation of Counsel to this effect.

This matter has been initiated by an administrative complaint filed against our client by the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee. In accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1), we have fifteen days after notification of such a complaint in which to respond and demonstrate in writing to the Commission that no action should be taken. According to my calculations, this period ends on November 13, 1984. As I mentioned to you in our telephone conversation, the filing of this complaint immediately before the 1984 general election makes it difficult for NRCC to respond within the fifteen day period. As you know, this constitutes the time of greatest activity by NRCC. Furthermore, NRCC wishes to provide to the FEC duplicate video tapes of the generic political advertisements which are the subject of the complaint. (In this regard I am waiting notice from you as to which track video tape format, i.e., 3/4" tape or 1/2" VHS or Beta, would be most useful to the Commission.) For these reasons

Andrew Maikovich
November 9, 1984

NRCC requests an extension of twenty days up to and including December 3, 1984 within which to file its written response.

Thank you for your favorable consideration of this request.

Sincerely,

Jan W. Baran

Dear Mr. McDonald:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-This report shows beginning balances owed to two creditors, Capitol Video and 1st American Bank of Washington (Taxes) which were not disclosed as outstanding on the previous report. Please clarify the discrepancy for the public record.

-Please clarify the purpose of the payments to SFM Media Corporation. If a portion or all of these expenditures were made on behalf of specifically identified Federal candidates, they should be disclosed on Schedule B or F for Line 21 or 23 and include the amount, name, address and office sought by each candidate. 11 CFR 104.3(b) and 106.1.

An amendment to your original report(s) correcting the above problem(s) should be filed with the Federal Election Commission within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter. If you need assistance, please feel free to contact me on our toll-free number, (800) 424-9530. My local number is (202) 523-4048.

Dear Mr. Franks,

On October 22, 1984, we received your complaint against the National Republican Congressional Committee and the Republican National Committee alleging violations of the Federal Election Campaign laws. The respondents have been notified of the complaint and a staff member assigned to analyze your allegations.

Further on October 29, 1984, we received your "Motion for Expedited Procedures" which in effect was a request for injunctive relief. The Commission has considered your motion and determined not to commence an action seeking injunctive relief at this time.

You will be notified as soon as the Commission takes final action on your complaint. Should you have or receive any additional information on this matter, please forward it to this office. We suggest that this information be sworn to in the same manner as your original complaint.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (202) 523-4000.

MEMORANDUM TO: The Commission

FROM: Charles N. Steele
General Counsel

By: Kenneth A. Gross
Associate General Counsel KAG

SUBJECT: MUR 1830

On October 22, 1984, the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC") filed a complaint against the National Republican Congressional Committee ("NRCC") and the Republican National Committee ("RNC"), alleging that NRCC and RNC violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d)(3) expenditure limitations by not allocating expenditures to individual candidates after running television ads which asked citizens to vote against Democratic Congressmen.

Under 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d)(3), party committees are limited to spending $10,000 per House candidate in the general election, the amount adjusted annually to account for changes in the Consumer Price Index. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(c). The NRCC exercises authority as the agent of the RNC and state committees in various states where Republican nominees are seeking election to the House. The complaint alleges the NRCC has exercised this spending authority up to the maximum in most states, without including any apportionment for the ads in question.

Complainant argues that the two RNC commercials are understood by the viewers in the district in which they are aired to refer to the specific Democratic and Republican candidates for the House of Representatives in their district and that the commercials oppose the Democratic candidate while supporting the Republican candidate. The first commercial concludes with the lines:

For 29 years, Democrats have controlled the House.
Vote Republican.
Keep taxes down.

The relevant text from the second ad states:

Say, aren't you a Democratic Congressman?
It is him.

Find out if your Congressman is for higher taxes or just vote Republican...

Complainant relies heavily on AO 1984-15, which held that 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d) limitations apply to expenditures which refer to a specific federal office. This opinion, however, was in response to a proposed commercial featuring the Office of the President. Whether commercial use of the words "House" or "Congressman" identifies a specific federal office, for which expenditures would be attributed to individual candidates for 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d) purposes, appears to be a novel issue before the Commission.

INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

On October 29, 1984, DCCC filed a "Motion for Expedited Procedures" with the Commission (Attachment I). This motion is in effect a request for injunctive relief. The Commission is empowered to initiate a civil action if it is unable to correct or prevent a violation of the Act. 2 U.S.C. § 437d(a)(6) and § 437g(a)(6). However, the procedure for pursuing an immediate remedy is problematic since the Commission must normally wait 15 days for a response to a complaint before it takes action. While it would seem that under extraordinary circumstances the 15 day response period could be shortened, there is only one precedent for doing so but in that case the respondent did in fact respond within a shortened time; thus, it was never tested. When time is of the essence, we recommend that the Commission adopt the high standard required to obtain a temporary restraining order. See First General Counsel's Report for MURs 1167, 1168, and 1170 - The Nashua Telegraph Case - approved by the Commission February 21, 1980. Thus, while the Commission should not ordinarily proceed before the response period expires, it may authorize seeking injunctive relief when:

- (1) There is a substantial likelihood that the complaint sets forth a violation of the Act;
- (2) Failure of the Commission to act expeditiously will result in irreparable harm to the complainant or some other party;
- (3) Expeditious action will not result in undue harm or prejudice to the interests of other persons; and
- (4) The public interest would be served by expeditious handling of the matter.

Due to the novelty of the issue, and because of the legal questions raised concerning whether the language of the commercials clearly identify and support specific Republican candidates, this office cannot be certain that "there is a substantial likelihood that the complaint sets forth a violation of the Act." Thus, we are not recommending that injunctive action be taken at this time. If the Commission agrees, we ask that it approve the attached letters to the respondents and complainant.

RECOMMENDATIONS

The Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission:

1. Not seek injunctive relief at this time.
2. Approve the attached letters.

MUR

1730

NOV 1 1984
FEB 9 1985

RECEIVED
GENERAL COUNSEL

MOTION FOR EXPEDITED PROCEDURES

I. INTRODUCTION

The Complaint filed by the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC") in this action describes clear, substantial and ongoing violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 ("the Act"), 2 U.S.C. § 431 et seq., by the Republican National Congressional Committee ("RNCC") and the Republican National Committee ("RNC"). At issue are millions of illegal dollars spent by respondents in hundreds of Congressional Districts. And every penny is intended and calculated to influence the elections of Republican nominees for the House of Representatives.

There are eleven (11) days remaining before Election Day. The law of this case, and the respondents' violations of the law, is clear and simple. DCCC hereby urges the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") to exercise its authority to expedite the consideration of this Complaint and the enforcement of the Act against those respondents.

As this Motion will demonstrate, the facts and circumstances of this matter satisfy all requirements for the Commission's resort to extraordinary expedited consideration and enforcement procedures.

I. STANDARD FOR EXPEDITED TREATMENT

In connection with three complaints filed with the Commission on February 19, 1980 (MUR Nos. 1167, 1168 and 1170), the Commission's General Counsel submitted a report on February 20, 1980 addressing, inter alia, the Commission's authority and the circumstances under which it should exercise its authority to provide an expedited review and enforcement of a Complaint.

In that case, several candidates for the Republican Presidential nomination objected to proposed corporate expenditures to finance a debate between only two of seven candidates in the upcoming New Hampshire primary. Because the debate was proposed to occur on February 23, 1980 and the New Hampshire primary followed only days later on February 26, 1980, all three complainants requested expedited Commission consideration. The General Counsel's February 20 report to the Commission affirmed the Commission's authority to grant this relief and concluded, on grounds equally applicable to DCCC's Complaint, that the exercise of this authority was required in the urgent circumstances of the case.

In reaching his conclusion, the General Counsel noted but dismissed possible arguments that the fifteen day response period provided respondents in 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) was somehow a barrier to expedited Commission enforcement action. The General Counsel concluded that the fifteen day period was strictly applicable only to complaints alleging past violations of the Act, but did not prohibit expedited response from the Commission to facts demonstrating continuing or future violations.

The General Counsel found generally that "[t]he Commission has always followed expedited complaint procedures prior to elections and there is no indication that Congress sought to eliminate such handling of complaints." General Counsel's Report, (MUR Nos. 1167, 1168 and 1170) ("General Counsel's Report", at p.10. The General Counsel recommended that in determining whether to expedite its compliance procedures in specific cases, the Commission apply a standard "such as that required in order to obtain a temporary restraining order from a court." Id. at 11. Under this standard, the Commission would expedite its procedures when:

- (1) There is a substantial likelihood that the complaint sets forth a violation of the Act;
- (2) Failure of the Commission to act expeditiously will result in irreparable harm to the complainant or some other party;
- (3) Expeditious action will not result in undue harm or prejudice to the interests of other persons;
- (4) The public interest would be served by such expeditious handling of the matter.

General Counsel's Report, at pp. 11-12.

In the case then before the Commission, the General Counsel concluded that the complaints over illegal financing of the New Hampshire Republican Presidential candidate debate satisfied the criteria for expedited enforcement.

III. THE PRESENT CASE CLEARLY SATISFIES THE FEC'S STANDARD FOR EXPEDITED ENFORCEMENT

Consideration of the four criteria for expedited enforcement in the present case clearly demonstrates that DCCC's Complaint warrants expedited treatment by the Commission.

A. Likelihood of Success on the Merits

The Complaint demonstrates that the NRCC and RNC advertisements broadcast to date, which are scheduled for broadcast in the same or substantially similar form through the November 6 elections, constitute a violation of the § 441a(d)(3) limitations. The NRCC and RNC refusal to allocate the expenditures for these advertisements to the candidates directly benefited by them is flatly contrary to both Commission regulations (11 C.F.R. § 106.1) and the specific Commission holding in Advisory Opinion 1984-15. The advertisements at issue expressly advocate the election of Republican nominees for the House of Representatives. As the attached Affidavit of Mr. Martin D. Franks, Executive Director of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (the "Franks Aff.") shows, Democratic nominees in the Congressional districts blanketed by these advertisements have found that the voting public and the media understand the ads to be advocating what they expressly and unambiguously advocate - the election of specific Republican nominees, and the defeat of specific Democratic nominees for the House. Attached to Mr. Franks' Affidavit, moreover, is new evidence that respondents intended to make such clear and unambiguous references to the Democratic and Republican nominees in each Congressional District where the advertisement is shown. The Complaint sets forth a clear and convincing demonstration that Respondents can make no plausible defense of their illegal expenditures.

The General Counsel's Report that established the criteria for expedited treatment found that the "substantial likelihood of success" requirement was satisfied in that case because "the complaints give reason to believe that the Act will be violated." The showing made in the present Complaint clearly satisfies the requirement that there be substantial likelihood that the Complaint sets forth a violation of the Act.

B. Irreparable Harm to Democratic House Nominees

The illegal expenditure of millions of dollars to influence House elections cannot be denied to be harmful to

85040514011

DCCC, its constituent members and Democratic nominees for the House generally. Mr. Franks testifies, on the basis of his professional judgment and experience, to this clear harm to the Democratic Party. See Franks Aff. ¶ 6.

C. Absence of Undue Harm or Prejudice to Respondents or Republican Nominees for the House.

The Complaint requests that the Commission seek to bring the NRCC and the RNC into compliance with the Act, either through conciliation or through resort to the federal courts in an action for injunctive relief. Because the Act requires that Respondents' expenditures be allocated to Republican nominees directly benefited thereby, and because Respondents have already exercised their spending authority up to the maximum allowed in most Congressional Districts and will shortly do so in the others, Respondents' advertisements must be terminated in those Districts where which maximum spending limits have been or will shortly be reached. Moreover, in general, Respondents should be required to allocate and report accordingly the costs of these coordinated expenditures. Such compliance with the law cannot be viewed as an undue harm or prejudice to either the respondents or the Republican candidates they support. The respondents would simply be required to comply with the law. Republican candidates who would otherwise benefit from continued broadcast of these advertisements would only be denied the fruits of illegal expenditures. Requiring persons to operate within the limitations of the law is not the kind of harm or prejudice which can prevent the application of expedited procedures.

D. Public Interest

Finally, it is beyond argument that the public interest will be served by expeditious enforcement of the terms of the Act. Because the illegal expenditures at issue here are coming so close to the election, when Respondents expect them to be most effective and evasive of agency or judicial review, the Act would be wholly frustrated, if not openly mocked, by a Commission failure to act now.

IV. THE COMMISSION SHOULD ADDRESS THIS MOTION FOR EXPEDITED PROCEDURES IMMEDIATELY

In its February 20, 1980 Opinion, the General Counsel's office recognized the harmful effect of protracted procedures "particularly in cases such as this where the putative respondent is not a candidate and the persons allegedly harmed are candidates participating in an imminent election." General Counsel's Report, at p.10. The General Counsel's Report realized that the Commission must take a realistic view of the impact of its decision-making process on events occurring in a relatively short time span. In the present case, DCCC has presented the Commission with a Complaint outlining a clear, present, substantial and continuing violation of the Act. In addition, DCCC has requested, and demonstrated why it is entitled to, expedited enforcement of its Complaint. In this connection, DCCC contends that the Commission is obligated in the interest of fairness and in the public interest to act immediately upon this request for expedited enforcement. The Commission's own credibility, as well as the goals and purposes of the Act, will be seriously damaged by a failure to promptly address and respond to this matter.

The General Counsel's Report itself recommends that if the Commission declines to act expeditiously "the complainants should be notified immediately that their requests for expedited handling were denied." General Counsel's Report, at p. 15. As the General Counsel stated in a footnote to this recommendation "the complainants, or any one of them, may seek injunctive relief on their own initiative." General Counsel's Report at p. 15, note 4. Accordingly, DCCC requests that it be informed immediately of the Commission's decision with regard to the granting of expedited handling of this matter.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED October 26, 1984.

AFFIDAVIT OF MARTIN D. FRANKS

I, MARTIN D. FRANKS, being first duly sworn hereby deposes and says:

1. I am the Executive Director of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, and am authorized to make this statement on behalf of the Committee and its constituent members who are incumbent members of the House of Representatives seeking re-election on November 6, 1984.

2. The Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee is organized and operated as the committee of the national Democratic Party charged with supporting for election and re-election Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives.

3. As Executive Director of DCCC, I have been informed by Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives that the advertisements referred to in the Complaint in this matter have been aired in their Congressional Districts, and that those advertisements have been received and understood by the voting public and the media as both specific and unambiguous attacks on their individual records or positions and as specific, supportive statements on the records and/or positions of their Republican opponents.

4. As Executive Director of the DCCC, I have been further informed by various Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives that advertisements similar to those referred to in the Complaint, which include specific and unambiguous references to the Democratic and Republican candidates in the viewer's district, have begun to air in a second wave of such specific advocacy of Republican House candidates.

5. Attached to this Affidavit as Exhibit A is a Memorandum dated October 12, 1984 from the Executive Director of the National Republican Congressional Committee to all Republican Congressional candidates which confirms the intentions of respondents to make clear reference in their advertisements to the specific Democratic and Republican nominees for the House in each viewer's Congressional district. This memorandum expressly states that the Republican Party program on behalf of its House nominees is being supported by "a multimillion dollar national advertising program which will continue to make the case that voters should support the Republican running in their district."

6. As Executive Director of DCCC, and in my professional judgment, this multimillion dollar Republican advertisement campaign conducted in violation of law has had and will continue to have a substantial and adverse impact on Democratic nominees for the House of Representatives.

MEMORANDUM

TO: All Republican Candidates
FROM: Joe Gaylord, Executive Director
RE: The Team Approach to Victory
DATE: Friday, October 12, 1984

Oct 16 1984

As we approach the end of a long, exciting and, I hope for each of you, successful campaign I want to share with you our thinking about how to approach the final three weeks.

This package contains materials for your use in convincing the voters of your district that your team -- the Republican team -- is the team of prosperity, of hope, of the future. At the same time, these materials provide the framework for convincing those same voters that your opponent as a member of the Democrat team stands for higher taxes, for an end to the economic recovery, and a return to the practices and policies of the past.

There are four major sections to this package: This memorandum, a video tape and audio tape, a nearly-camera-ready brochure, and supporting materials.

This memo will explain the scope of this project together with suggestions on how to use these materials to gain earned media, and what is available to supplement your paid media program.

3 1/2 inch

The video tape is 3 1/2 inch ~~VHS~~ format and contains the following:

1. A five minute program with Guy Vander Jagt, Jack Kemp, and Lynn Martin describing why the Democrat tax increase plan would be devastating to the country. This tape should be used at coffees, luncheon speeches, in-home fund raisers, and anywhere else where a five minute taped program would lend itself. As part of this program on of the 30 second commercials which have been running nationally is included.

2. A combination of two floor speeches by Rep. Newt Gingrich describing this team approach to winning the election, and talking about how a balanced budget can be achieved without raising taxes $157 per month.

3. The audio tape is the sound track of the video. I thought it might be useful if you had the ability to listen to the tape while you are driving between appearances.

The Brochure is camera ready with the exception of the final panel. Included in this package you will find suggested copy for that panel which should be used by your campaign to personalize the piece. Copies of this brochure (with copy from the NRCC on the back panel) are being mailed to every daily newspaper and major television station in the country. If you need help in getting this brochure finished call us immediately.

We will be sending several copies of the finished brochure with the NRCC copy and disclaimer as an example of how it looks when printed.

1. A sample press release.
2. A sample introduction for the five minute video tape program.
3. A written statement explaining the Team approach to this election.
4. A paper showing what percentage of the time individual Democrats supported the President, and what percentage of the time they voted the same way as Geraldine Ferraro, and their party support score (as computed by Congressional Quarterly).
5. A booklet filled with supporting facts, statements, and talking points.
6. Copies of the Congressional Record text of Rep. Gingrich's floor statements.
7. A Velox (camera ready art) of the brochure.
8. Suggested copy for the blank panel of the brochure.

As outlined in the statement explaining the project, voters generally have only two choices in voting for Member of Congress. They can either vote for the Democrat or they can vote for the Republican.

National polling data, our field reports from districts all over the country, and our political senses tell us that that running as a team with President Reagan is generally a net plus for Republicans. Being tied to Walter Mondale is a net negative for most Democrats.

This program is being supported by:

-- This package which is being sent to Republican Candidates for Congress throughout the nation;

-- A smaller package (containing only some of these materials) which is being sent to over 1,500 newspapers, broadcast outlets, columnists, and opinion leaders;

-- A briefing for the national media based in Washington, D.C. on Tuesday, October 16 explaining the program and pointing out the fact that many Democrats are still running away from the Mondale candidacy;

-- A multi-million dollar national advertising program which will continue to make the case that voters should support the Republican running in their district.

sometime during the week of October 15 (preferably on talk about the voters' choice between the two teams. If you can move the discussion to that kind of a choice -- The Republican team which promises NOT to raise taxes versus the Democrat team which has promised again and again to raise taxes by $157 per month-- then you will have sent a strong message to

In any event, see that they are left in libraries, at grocery stores, in hotel or motel lobbies -- any place where people are likely to pass by and pick up this type of material.

Use these points in all of your speeches and in your public statements. Even if your opponent says he is not in favor of the tax increase, accuse him of not telling the truth.

Walter Mondale is the embodiment of the mainstream of the Democratic party. He is not an outsider like Jimmy Carter. He is not the creation of the left-wing activists like George McGovern, he is the Democratic party.

Your opponent should be made to say, out loud, at every opportunity that he is voting for, and supporting Walter Mondale. You should say, at every opportunity, that you are supporting Ronald Reagan and the Republican view of the future.

If your opponent will not say he is voting for Mondale (or if he says he is supporting President Reagan), then you should look at the sheet which lists the comparisons between your opponent and the President. Look to see what percentage of the time he has voted WITH the administration. Then look across to see what percentage of the time he has voted the same way as Geraldine Ferraro. If the Ferraro percentage is higher than the administration percentage you have found a credibility gap. He has supported the Mondale approach, because he has voted that way. He has not supported the President's approach because he has only voted with the administration X percent of the time.

If you have any questions on how to handle this, call Rich Galen in the NRCC Public Affairs office.

We strongly urge you to consider including this team concept into your spot advertising over the last weeks of the campaign. Feel free to lift portions of statements from any of the materials and re-use it as it best suits your campaign.

This is a very powerful message. I recognize that each district is unique, but there are some themes which we believe transcend district variables. The concept of being a member of the team which favors continued economic growth and is opposed to $157 per month in new taxes is one of those themes.

I hope this material is useful to you. I sincerely believe that, if it is used properly, it can mean the difference of winning and losing some close elections. It WILL mean controlling the agenda for the final three weeks of the campaign. That is a vitally important accomplishment.

Dear Mr. Franks,

On October 22, 1984, we received your complaint against the National Republican Congressional Committee and the Republican National Committee alleging violations of the Federal Election Campaign laws. The respondents have been notified of the complaint and a staff member assigned to analyze your allegations.

Further on October 29, 1984, we received your "Motion for Expendited Procedures" which in effect was a request for injunctive relief. The Commission has considered your motion and determined not to commence an action seeking injunctive relief at this time.

You will be notified as soon as the Commission takes final action on your complaint. Should you have or receive any additional information on this matter, please forward it to this office. We suggest that this information be sworn to in the same manner as your original complaint.

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me at (202) 523-4000.

Dear Mr. McDonald:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-Your report discloses payments on Schedule D to Double Envelope and Envelopes Unlimited, which have not been recorded on Schedule B. Debt reductions must be reflected on Schedule B as well as on Schedule D. 2 U.S.C. §434(b)(5)(D).

-Please clarify the purpose of the payment to SFM Media Corporation. If a portion or all of this expenditure were made on behalf of specifically identified Federal candidates, it should be disclosed on Schedule B or F for Line 21 or 23 and include the amount, name, address and office sought by each candidate. 11 CFR 104.3(b) and 106.1.

An amendment to your original report(s) correcting the above problem(s) should be filed with the Federal Election Commission within fifteen (15) days of the date of this letter. If you need assistance, please feel free to contact me on our toll-free number, (800) 424-9530. My local number is (202) 523-4048.

MUR

1830

34 OCT 26 1984
PQ: 09

RECEIVED
OFFICE OF THE
GENERAL COUNSEL

MOTION FOR EXPEDITED PROCEDURES

I. INTRODUCTION

The Complaint filed by the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC") in this action describes clear, substantial and ongoing violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 ("the Act"), 2 U.S.C. § 431 et seq., by the Republican National Congressional Committee ("RNCC") and the Republican National Committee ("RNC"). At issue are millions of illegal dollars spent by respondents in hundreds of Congressional Districts. And every penny is intended and calculated to influence the elections of Republican nominees for the House of Representatives.

There are eleven (11) days remaining before Election Day. The law of this case, and the respondents' violations of the law, is clear and simple. DCCC hereby urges the Federal Election Commission ("Commission") to exercise its authority to expedite the consideration of this Complaint and the enforcement of the Act against those respondents.

As this Motion will demonstrate, the facts and circumstances of this matter satisfy all requirements for the Commission's resort to extraordinary expedited consideration and enforcement procedures.

I. STANDARD FOR EXPEDITED TREATMENT

In connection with three complaints filed with the Commission on February 19, 1980 (MUR Nos. 1167, 1168 and 1170), the Commission's General Counsel submitted a report on February 20, 1980 addressing, inter alia, the Commission's authority and the circumstances under which it should exercise its authority to provide an expedited review and enforcement of a Complaint.

In that case, several candidates for the Republican Presidential nomination objected to proposed corporate expenditures to finance a debate between only two of seven candidates in the upcoming New Hampshire primary. Because the debate was proposed to occur on February 23, 1980 and the New Hampshire primary followed only days later on February 26, 1980, all three complainants requested expedited Commission consideration. The General Counsel's February 20 report to the Commission affirmed the Commission's authority to grant this relief and concluded, on grounds equally applicable to DCCC's Complaint, that the exercise of this authority was required in the urgent circumstances of the case.

In reaching his conclusion, the General Counsel noted but dismissed possible arguments that the fifteen day response period provided respondents in 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) was somehow a barrier to expedited Commission enforcement action. The General Counsel concluded that the fifteen day period was strictly applicable only to complaints alleging past violations of the Act, but did not prohibit expedited response from the Commission to facts demonstrating continuing or future violations.

The General Counsel found generally that "[t]he Commission has always followed expedited complaint procedures prior to elections and there is no indication that Congress sought to eliminate such handling of complaints." General Counsel's Report, (MUR Nos. 1167, 1168 and 1170) ("General Counsel's Report", at p.10. The General Counsel recommended that in determining whether to expedite its compliance procedures in specific cases, the Commission apply a standard "such as that required in order to obtain a temporary restraining order from a court." Id. at 11. Under this standard, the Commission would expedite its procedures when:

- (1) There is a substantial likelihood that the complaint sets forth a violation of the Act;
- (2) Failure of the Commission to act expeditiously will result in irreparable harm to the complainant or some other party;
- (3) Expeditious action will not result in undue harm or prejudice to the interests of other persons;
- (4) The public interest would be served by such expeditious handling of the matter.

General Counsel's Report, at pp. 11-12.

In the case then before the Commission, the General Counsel concluded that the complaints over illegal financing of the New Hampshire Republican Presidential candidate debate satisfied the criteria for expedited enforcement.

III. THE PRESENT CASE CLEARLY SATISFIES THE FEC'S STANDARD FOR EXPEDITED ENFORCEMENT

Consideration of the four criteria for expedited enforcement in the present case clearly demonstrates that DCCC's Complaint warrants expedited treatment by the Commission.

A. Likelihood of Success on the Merits

The Complaint demonstrates that the NRCC and RNC advertisements broadcast to date, which are scheduled for broadcast in the same or substantially similar form through the November 6 elections, constitute a violation of the § 441a(d)(3) limitations. The NRCC and RNC refusal to allocate the expenditures for these advertisements to the candidates directly benefited by them is flatly contrary to both Commission regulations (11 C.F.R. § 106.1) and the specific Commission holding in Advisory Opinion 1984-15. The advertisements at issue expressly advocate the election of Republican nominees for the House of Representatives. As the attached Affidavit of Mr. Martin D. Franks, Executive Director of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (the "Franks Aff.") shows, Democratic nominees in the Congressional districts blanketed by these advertisements have found that the voting public and the media understand the ads to be advocating what they expressly and unambiguously advocate - the election of specific Republican nominees, and the defeat of specific Democratic nominees for the House. Attached to Mr. Franks' Affidavit, moreover, is new evidence that respondents intended to make such clear and unambiguous references to the Democratic and Republican nominees in each Congressional District where the advertisement is shown. The Complaint sets forth a clear and convincing demonstration that Respondents can make no plausible defense of their illegal expenditures.

The General Counsel's Report that established the criteria for expedited treatment found that the "substantial likelihood of success" requirement was satisfied in that case because "the complaints give reason to believe that the Act will be violated." The showing made in the present Complaint clearly satisfies the requirement that there be substantial likelihood that the Complaint sets forth a violation of the Act.

B. Irreparable Harm to Democratic House Nominees

The illegal expenditure of millions of dollars to influence House elections cannot be denied to be harmful to

85040514036

DCCC, its constituent members and Democratic nominees for the House generally. Mr. Franks testifies, on the basis of his professional judgment and experience, to this clear harm to the Democratic Party. See Franks Aff. ¶ 6.

C. Absence of Undue Harm or Prejudice to Respondents or Republican Nominees for the House.

8 5 0 4 0 5 1 4 0 3 7

The Complaint requests that the Commission seek to bring the NRCC and the RNC into compliance with the Act, either through conciliation or through resort to the federal courts in an action for injunctive relief. Because the Act requires that Respondents' expenditures be allocated to Republican nominees directly benefited thereby, and because Respondents have already exercised their spending authority up to the maximum allowed in most Congressional Districts and will shortly do so in the others, Respondents' advertisements must be terminated in those Districts where which maximum spending limits have been or will shortly be reached. Moreover, in general, Respondents should be required to allocate and report accordingly the costs of these coordinated expenditures. Such compliance with the law cannot be viewed as an undue harm or prejudice to either the respondents or the Republican candidates they support. The respondents would simply be required to comply with the law. Republican candidates who would otherwise benefit from continued broadcast of these advertisements would only be denied the fruits of illegal expenditures. Requiring persons to operate within the limitations of the law is not the kind of harm or prejudice which can prevent the application of expedited procedures.

D. Public Interest

Finally, it is beyond argument that the public interest will be served by expeditious enforcement of the terms of the Act. Because the illegal expenditures at issue here are coming so close to the election, when Respondents expect them to be most effective and evasive of agency or judicial review, the Act would be wholly frustrated, if not openly mocked, by a Commission failure to act now.

IV. THE COMMISSION SHOULD ADDRESS THIS MOTION FOR EXPEDITED PROCEDURES IMMEDIATELY

In its February 20, 1980 Opinion, the General Counsel's office recognized the harmful effect of protracted procedures "particularly in cases such as this where the putative

respondent is not a candidate and the persons allegedly harmed are candidates participating in an imminent election." General Counsel's Report, at p.10. The General Counsel's Report realized that the Commission must take a realistic view of the impact of its decision-making process on events occurring in a relatively short time span. In the present case, DCCC has presented the Commission with a Complaint outlining a clear, present, substantial and continuing violation of the Act. In addition, DCCC has requested, and demonstrated why it is entitled to, expedited enforcement of its Complaint. In this connection, DCCC contends that the Commission is obligated in the interest of fairness and in the public interest to act immediately upon this request for expedited enforcement. The Commission's own credibility, as well as the goals and purposes of the Act, will be seriously damaged by a failure to promptly address and respond to this matter.

The General Counsel's Report itself recommends that if the Commission declines to act expeditiously "the complainants should be notified immediately that their requests for expedited handling were denied." General Counsel's Report, at p. 15. As the General Counsel stated in a footnote to this recommendation "the complainants, or any one of them, may seek injunctive relief on their own initiative." General Counsel's Report at p. 15, note 4. Accordingly, DCCC requests that it be informed immediately of the Commission's decision with regard to the granting of expedited handling of this matter.

RESPECTFULLY SUBMITTED October 26, 1984.

MUR _____

National Republican Congressional Committee, and Republican National Committee

AFFIDAVIT OF MARTIN D. FRANKS

I, MARTIN D. FRANKS, being first duly sworn hereby deposes and says:

1. I am the Executive Director of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, and am authorized to make this statement on behalf of the Committee and its constituent members who are incumbent members of the House of Representatives seeking re-election on November 6, 1984.

2. The Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee is organized and operated as the committee of the national Democratic Party charged with supporting for election and re-election Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives.

3. As Executive Director of DCCC, I have been informed by Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives that the advertisements referred to in the Complaint in this matter have been aired in their Congressional Districts, and that those advertisements have been received and understood by the voting public and the media as both specific and unambiguous attacks on their individual records or positions and as specific, supportive statements on the records and/or positions of their Republican opponents.

4. As Executive Director of the DCCC, I have been further informed by various Democratic candidates for the House of Representatives that advertisements similar to those referred to in the Complaint, which include specific and unambiguous references to the Democratic and Republican candidates in the viewer's district, have begun to air in a second wave of such specific advocacy of Republican House candidates.

5. Attached to this Affidavit as Exhibit A is a Memorandum dated October 12, 1984 from the Executive Director of the National Republican Congressional Committee to all Republican Congressional candidates which confirms the intentions of respondents to make clear reference in their advertisements to the specific Democratic and Republican nominees for the House in each viewer's Congressional district. This memorandum expressly states that the Republican Party program on behalf of its House nominees is being supported by "a multimillion dollar national advertising program which will continue to make the case that voters should support the Republican running in their district."

6. As Executive Director of DCCC, and in my professional judgment, this multimillion dollar Republican advertisement campaign conducted in violation of law has had and will continue to have a substantial and adverse impact on Democratic nominees for the House of Representatives.

DATED this 26TH day of October, 1984.

MEMORANDUM

Oct 16 1984

TO: All Republican Candidates
 FROM: Joe Gaylord, Executive Director
 RE: The Team Approach to Victory
 DATE: Friday, October 12, 1984

As we approach the end of a long, exciting and, I hope for each of you, successful campaign I want to share with you our thinking about how to approach the final three weeks.

This package contains materials for your use in convincing the voters of your district that your team -- the Republican team -- is the team of prosperity, of hope, of the future. At the same time, these materials provide the framework for convincing those same voters that your opponent as a member of the Democrat team stands for higher taxes, for an end to the economic recovery, and a return to the practices and policies of the past.

There are four major sections to this package: This memorandum, a video tape and audio tape, a nearly-camera-ready brochure, and supporting materials.

This memo will explain the scope of this project together with suggestions on how to use these materials to gain earned media, and what is available to supplement your paid media program.

The video tape is <sup>34 inch</sup> ~~1/2 inch~~ VHS format and contains the following:

1. A five minute program with Guy Vander Jagt, Jack Kemp, and Lynn Martin describing why the Democrat tax increase plan would be devastating to the country. This tape should be used at coffees, luncheon speeches, in-home fund raisers, and anywhere else where a five minute taped program would lend itself. As part of this program on of the 30 second commercials which have been running nationally is included.

2. A combination of two floor speeches by Rep. Newt Gingrich describing this team approach to winning the election, and talking about how a balanced budget can be achieved without raising taxes $157 per month.

3. The audio tape is the sound track of the video. I thought it might be useful if you had the ability to listen to the tape while you are driving between appearances.

The Brochure is camera ready with the exception of the final panel. Included in this package you will find suggested copy for that panel which should be used by your campaign to personalize the piece. Copies of this brochure (with copy from the NRCC on the back panel) are being mailed to every daily newspaper and major television station in the country. If you need help in getting this brochure finished call us immediately.

We will be sending several copies of the finished brochure with the NRCC copy and disclaimer as an example of how it looks when printed.

The Supporting Materials are:

1. A sample press release.
2. A sample introduction for the five minute video tape program.
3. A written statement explaining the Team approach to election.
4. A paper showing what percentage of the time individual Democrats supported the President, and what percentage of the time they voted the same way as Geraldine Ferraro, and their party support score (as computed by Congressional Quarterly).
5. A booklet filled with supporting facts, statements, and talking points.
6. Copies of the Congressional Record text of Rep. Gingrich's floor statements.
7. A Velox (camera ready art) of the brochure.
8. Suggested copy for the blank panel of the brochure.

As outlined in the statement explaining the project, voters generally have only two choices in voting for Member of Congress. They can either vote for the Democrat or they can vote for the Republican.

National polling data, our field reports from districts all over the country, and our political senses tell us that that running as a team with President Reagan is generally a net plus for Republicans. Being tied to Walter Mondale is a net negative for most Democrats.

8 5 0 4 0 5 1 4 0 4 6

This program is being supported by:

-- This package which is being sent to Republican Candidates for Congress throughout the nation;

-- A smaller package (containing only some of these materials) which is being sent to over 1,500 newspapers, broadcast outlets, columnists, and opinion leaders;

-- A briefing for the national media based in Washington, D.C. on Tuesday, October 16 explaining the program and pointing out the fact that many Democrats are still running away from the Mondale candidacy;

-- A multi-million dollar national advertising program which will continue to make the case that voters should support the Republican running in their district.

EARNED MEDIA:

WE STRONGLY SUGGEST YOU PLAN TO HOLD A PRESS CONFERENCE sometime during the week of October 15 (preferably on Wednesday, October 17) to show the five minute tape, and to talk about the voters' choice between the two teams. If you can move the discussion to that kind of a choice -- The Republican team which promises NOT to raise taxes versus the Democrat team which has promised again and again to raise taxes by $157 per month-- then you will have sent a strong message to your voters for the last three weeks of this campaign.

You should have the brochure reprinted (with your logo, disclaimer, and personalized copy on the blank panel) and distributed throughout the district. If there is a literature drop planned by a state-wide candidate, your county or district party organization, or Reagan-Bush, then see if you can have this brochure included.

In any event, see that they are left in libraries, at grocery stores, in hotel or motel lobbies -- any place where people are likely to pass by and pick up this type of material.

Use these points in all of your speeches and in your public statements. Even if your opponent says he is not in favor of the tax increase, accuse him of not telling the truth.

Walter Mondale is the embodiment of the mainstream of the Democratic party. He is not an outsider like Jimmy Carter. He is not the creation of the left-wing activists like George McGovern, he is the Democratic party.

Your opponent should be made to say, out loud, at every opportunity that he is voting for, and supporting Walter Mondale. You should say, at every opportunity, that you are supporting Ronald Reagan and the Republican view of the future.

8 5 0 4 0 5 1 4 0 4 7

If your opponent will not say he is voting for Mondale (or if he says he is supporting President Reagan), then you should look at the sheet which lists the comparisons between your opponent and the President. Look to see what percentage of the time he has voted WITH the administration. Then look across to see what percentage of the time he has voted the same way as Geraldine Ferraro. If the Ferraro percentage is higher than the administration percentage you have found a credibility gap. He has supported the Mondale approach, because he has voted that way. He has not supported the President's approach because he has only voted with the administration X percent of the time.

If you have any questions on how to handle this, call Rich Galen in the NRCC Public Affairs office.

The five minute program will be shown on one or more national cable systems over the next few weeks beginning on October 16. We have produced another version with a "donut" at the end for you to personalize the message. This donut permits you to appear for 45 seconds at the end of the tape to give your message -- much as Guy Vander Jagt does on the tape we have sent you. If you would like this version please call Ed Blakely at the NRCC Communications Division for details.

You should purchase time in five minute blocks on over-the-air stations, on cable outlets, or both. Again, we can help you produce the ending and advise you on how to proceed.

We strongly urge you to consider including this team concept into your spot advertising over the last weeks of the campaign. Feel free to lift portions of statements from any of the materials and re-use it as it best suits your campaign.

This is a very powerful message. I recognize that each district is unique, but there are some themes which we believe transcend district variables. The concept of being a member of the team which favors continued economic growth and is opposed to $157 per month in new taxes is one of those themes.

I hope this material is useful to you. I sincerely believe that, if it is used properly, it can mean the difference of winning and losing some close elections. It WILL mean controlling the agenda for the final three weeks of the campaign. That is a vitally important accomplishment.

SUBJECT: MUR 1830

On October 22, 1984, the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC") filed a complaint against the National Republican Congressional Committee ("NRCC") and the Republican National Committee ("RNC"), alleging the NRCC and RNC violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d) (3) expenditure limitations by not allocating expenditures to individual candidates when running television ads asking citizens to vote against Democratic Congressmen.

Due to the complexity of the issue, no decision will be possible until the close of the 15 day response period or upon receipt of the responses.

Dear Mr. Franks:

This letter is to acknowledge receipt of your complaint which we received on October 23, 1984, against National Republican Congressional Committee and Republican National Committee which alleges violations of the Federal Election Campaign laws. A staff member has been assigned to analyze your allegations. The respondent(s) will be notified of this complaint within 24 hours. You will be notified as soon as the Commission takes final action on your complaint. Should you have or receive any additional information in this matter, please forward it to this Office. For your information, we have attached a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling complaints.

Please be advised that this matter shall remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A) unless the respondent notifies the Commission in writing that they wish the matter to be made public.

RE: MUR 1830

Dear Mr. McDonald:

This letter is to notify you that on October 23, 1984, the Federal Election Commission received a complaint which alleges that National Republican Congressional Committee violated certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). A copy of the complaint is enclosed. We have numbered this matter MUR 1830. Please refer to this number in all future correspondence.

Under the Act, you have the opportunity to demonstrate in writing, that no action should be taken against National Republican Congressional Committee in connection with this matter. You may respond to the allegations made against you within 15 days of receipt of this letter. The complaint may be dismissed by the Commission prior to receipt of the response if the alleged violations are not under the jurisdiction of the Commission or if the evidence submitted does not indicate that a violation of the Act has been committed. Should the Commission dismiss the complaint, National Republican Congressional Committee will be notified by mailgram. If no response is filed within the 15 day statutory requirement, the Commission may take further action based on available information.

You are encouraged to respond to this notification promptly. In order to facilitate an expeditious response to this notification, we have enclosed a pre-addressed, postage paid, special delivery envelope.

Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

RE: MUR 1830

Dear Mr. McManus:

This letter is to notify you that on October 23, 1984, the Federal Election Commission received a complaint which alleges that Republican National Committee violated certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). A copy of the complaint is enclosed. We have numbered this matter MUR 1830. Please refer to this number in all future correspondence.

Under the Act, you have the opportunity to demonstrate in writing, that no action should be taken against Republican National Committee in connection with this matter. You may respond to the allegations made against you within 15 days of receipt of this letter. The complaint may be dismissed by the Commission prior to receipt of the response if the alleged violations are not under the jurisdiction of the Commission or if the evidence submitted does not indicate that a violation of the Act has been committed. Should the Commission dismiss the complaint, Republican National Committee will be notified by mailgram. If no response is filed within the 15 day statutory requirement, the Commission may take further action based on available information.

You are encouraged to respond to this notification promptly. In order to facilitate an expeditious response to this notification, we have enclosed a pre-addressed, postage paid, special delivery envelope.

Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

COMMUNICATIONS

Dear Sirs:

Yesterday, October 22, 1984, the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee filed a complaint alleging violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act by the National Republican Congressional Committee and the Republican National Committee. This complaint was filed by DCCC Executive Director Martin D. Franks.

By simple error, only a copy of the original, notarized complaint was filed with the FEC. The original was mistakenly date-stamped as DCCC's file copy, while the copy remained with the Commission. DCCC seeks to rectify this error forthwith, by filing now the proper, original, notarized complaint by Martin D. Franks on behalf of DCCC.

We regret any inconvenience this error has caused the Commission.

Very truly yours,

I. INTRODUCTION

The Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee ("DCCC") files this Complaint over substantial and ongoing violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 ("the Act"), 2 U.S.C. § 431 et seq., by the National Republican Congressional Committee ("NRCC") and the Republican National Committee ("RNC").

Any casual viewer of television, in most Congressional districts in the United States, will be familiar with the subject of this Complaint: NRCC/RNC commercials advocating the election of Republican nominees to the United States House of Representatives. Despite warning from DCCC, including an offer by DCCC to join NRCC and RNC in an urgent Advisory Opinion Request to the Commission to settle the matter without litigation, NRCC and RNC have persisted and will continue to persist in financing these advertisements in violation of the requirements of the Act.

The Act does not, of course, prohibit per se the showing of these advertisements. The Act does, however, require NRCC and RNC to allocate the costs of these advertisements to the political party spending limitations which apply by law to their activities on behalf of House Republican nominees. NRCC and RNC refuse to comply with these spending limitations, and they have refused to do so in an apparent effort to circumvent the requirements of the law in the closing weeks of the campaign when the Democratic Party (and the Commission) must race the clock to bring these illegal acts to account.

II. REQUEST FOR EXPEDITED TREATMENT

In light of the foregoing, and with specific attention to the detailed showing below on the law and facts, DCCC requests expedited Commission action on the allegations in this Complaint. The NRCC/RNC advertisements in question virtually blanket this nation's Congressional districts. These advertisements unambiguously relate to the general election campaign of identifiable candidates in each Congressional district, namely, Republican nominees for election to the House of Representatives. The NRCC and RNC, however, are now financing this advertisement without regard to the candidate spending limitations of § 441a(d)(3) of the Act.

This NRCC/RNC action flouts the clearest requirements of the statute, regulations and relevant Advisory Opinions. The law of this case is beyond reasonable argument. Under these circumstances, the Commission must take action to call NRCC and RNC to account, by expediting review of this Complaint and, upon finding "reason to believe," seeking immediate cessation of this violation by NRCC and RNC. If NRCC and RNC further refuse to comply with statutory limitations, the Commission must exercise its statutory authority to seek injunctive relief to bring an end to this violation of law. In sum, the Commission must act now to stop this violation before it further illicitly and unfairly influences the outcomes of U.S. House elections which lie only two weeks ahead.

III. THE FACTS: THE CURRENT MULTIMILLION NRCC/RNC ADVERTISING CAMPAIGN FOR HOUSE RACES

For some weeks now, with the intention of continuing through Election Day (November 6), NRCC and RNC have financed advertisements with the express purpose and effect of electing Republican nominees to the United States House of Representatives. The advertisements leave their function beyond question; they have none of the attributes of genuine, "generic" ticket-wide advocacy. Each of the advertisements so far broadcast to the general public focuses their attention on the choices facing each viewer, in each Congressional district, between the Republican and Democratic nominees for the House.

There are two advertisements which have so far been shown by NRCC and RNC to this effect. One might be termed the "other person" ad, and the other, the "elevator ad." The NRCC and RNC purpose in supporting specific House candidates, and House candidates only, is differently presented but functionally and legally the same in each.

These are the relevant lines from the "other person" ad, which is attached in full text as Exhibit A:

For twenty-nine years, Democrats have controlled the House.

Vote Republican.

(Emphasis added.) And this is the relevant text from the 85040514060

"elevator ad" which is also attached in full text as Exhibit B:

Say, aren't you our Democratic Congressman?

It is him!

Find out if your Congressman is for higher taxes or just vote Republican. . . .

8 5 0 4 0 5 1 4 0 6 1
(Emphasis added.) No viewer in any Congressional district would fail to grasp the clear and intended meaning of these advertisements--advertisements seeking their vote for the Republican nominee for the United States House of Representatives. There is no reference to Presidential,
Senatorial, Gubernatorial, nor any other candidates on the Republican ticket. The ad supports Republican nominees, and seeks the defeat of Democratic nominees, for only one office--the United States House of Representatives seat in the district of the viewer.

IV. THE LAW: REFUSAL OF NRCC AND RNC TO COMPLY WITH SPENDING
LIMITATIONS OF FEDERAL LAW

DCCC does not dispute the right of NRCC and RNC generally to mount an advertising campaign on behalf of its House nominees. NRCC and RNC may do so, have done so, and will continue to do so. At issue here, however, is the requirement of federal law that the costs of these national, House-related advertisements be allocated by NRCC and RNC to each of the Republican House nominees who benefit from them. This, NRCC and RNC have not done, refuse to do now, and apparently will refuse to do in the future--unless this Agency acts to correct this failure.

A. NRCC/RNC Expenditures in Connection with the General Election Campaign of its House Nominees Must Be Counted Against Statutory Limits

Section 441a(d)(3) of the Act requires that party committees allocate, to specified dollar limitations, any and all expenditures "in connection with the general election campaign of a candidate for federal office," including candidates to the United States House of Representatives. Section 441a(d)(3)(B) further specifies the dollar limitations which apply to party committee spending on behalf of House nominees, as follows:

(3) The national committee of a political party, or a state committee of a political party . . . may not make any expenditure in connection with the general election campaign of a candidate for federal office . . . which exceeds--

(B) In the case of a candidate for election to the office of Representative . . . $10,000.

Because the dollar limitation of § 441a(d)(3)(B) is annually adjusted to account for changes in the Consumer Price Index, 2 U.S.C. § 441a(c), the House candidate spending limitation now stands at $20,200.00 for the national and state committees, respectively, or a total of $40,400.00.

8 5 0 4 0 5 1 4 0 6 3
Upon information and belief, and as a matter of public record, NRCC exercises § 441a(d) authority as the "agent" of the Republican National Committee and the state committees in various states where Republican nominees are seeking election to the House. See, e.g., Advisory Opinion 1976-108. Upon further information and belief, NRCC has exercised this spending authority up to the maximum in most states, not counting any allocation required of the expenses of the "other person" and "elevator" advertisements. RNC, having ceded its § 441a(d)(3) authority to NRCC, has no further authority to make party expenditures to support House nominees.

Under these circumstances, when the Commission determines, as it must, that allocation of these advertisements to all affected Republican nominees is required, two legal consequences for NRCC will follow:

(1) If NRCC has not already exhausted the § 441a(d)(3) limitation on behalf of a given nominee, NRCC must amend relevant reports to reflect the required allocation. NRCC must, at the same time, account for the inclusion of this allocated spending in computing the status (or balance) of the limit for each nominee affected.

(2) Where NRCC has exhausted the § 441a(d)(3) limitation on behalf of a given nominee, the additional allocation required by these advertisements will place NRCC in excess of statutory limitation applicable to that nominee and in violation of the Act. This, in turn, will require conciliation with the Commission and appropriate civil penalties.

B. NRCC/RNC Advertisements Clearly Require Allocation to the Limits of § 441a(d)(3)

There is no doubt that the advertisements cited in this Complaint require allocation to applicable party spending limitations on behalf of House nominees. As a general rule, absent a clear exception, the Act limits contributions and coordinated expenditures by party committees to benefit their candidates and nominees. 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(a)(2)(A), 441a(d)(3).

Congress has delimited certain circumstances where, in the interests of party building and sound legal policy, those limitations would not apply. 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(B)(v) (slate cards); 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(B)(x) (state party production and distribution through volunteers of certain campaign materials); 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(B)(xii) (state party conduct of Presidential and Vice Presidential voter registration and get-out-the-vote activity). None of these exceptions apply to save NRCC's and RNC's position here. Moreover, of immediate relevance here, none of these exceptions apply to media spending of the kind addressed in this Complaint. Id. The statute recognizes that, where media is concerned, the application of statutory spending limitations is more broadly required, not properly subject to evasion.

Moreover, Federal Election Commission ("FEC") regulations address generally the circumstances where the spending of political parties and other committees require allocation to legal limitations. 11 C.F.R. § 106.1. Under these allocation regulations, the "general rule" requires the allocation of any expenditures where these have been "made on behalf of more than one candidate." 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a). The allocation must be based on the proportionate benefit each candidate reasonably expects to derive from the expenditure. 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(a). This regulation covers precisely a situation where, as here, an advertisement broadcast in hundreds of Congressional districts, on behalf of hundreds of Congressional nominees, benefits each one as his or her party's nominee for a seat in the House of Representatives. An allocation of the cost of the advertisements to each nominee's § 441a(d)(3) limitation is therefore required.

This broad allocation rule is subject to limited exceptions for certain defined overhead activities, including rent, personnel, fundraising and other "day-to-day costs" of operating a political committee. 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(c)(1). In addition, certain identified candidate-specific activities may be conducted without allocation, such as campaign worker training and generic voter registration and get-out-the-vote activity. 11 C.F.R. § 106.1(c)(2); see also FEC Advisory Opinion 1975-87. None of these exceptions apply here, and each is, in any event, subject to the condition that it will not apply where the spending is on behalf of a clearly identified candidate and directly attributable to that candidate.

11 C.F.R. §§ 106.1(c)(1), (2). The NRCC/RNC spending for these advertisements relates to, and is intended to support the candidacy of specific, clearly identifiable candidates in each Congressional district--the Republican nominees for the House.

The Commission has, in fact, spoken clearly and decisively on the issue in this Complaint, namely, the required allocation of these advertisements for limitation purposes. The FEC has specifically held, for example, that § 441a(d) limitations clearly apply to expenditures which refer to a specific federal office, such as the office of U.S. Representative, regardless of whether a specific candidate is personally named. FEC Advisory Opinion 1984-15. In AO 1984-15, the Commission addressed a number of issues raised by the RNC with respect to the allocation of party committee expenditures under § 441a(d)(3). For purposes here, the key question related to the demarcation line between generic, nonallocable party spending, on the one hand, and fully allocable, limited § 441a(d) spending, on the other. In an opinion presenting questions of Presidential campaign spending, the Commission nonetheless responded with an analysis of § 441a(d) which applies to spending under that provision for Presidential, Senatorial and Congressional candidates. The Commission stated as follows:

9 5 0 4 0 5 1 4 0 6 8

Your fifth question does not state whether the proposed advertisement would refer to all Democratic presidential candidates without identifying any specific candidate or to all Democratic candidates for all Federal offices without identifying any specific candidate or office. If the reference is to all Democratic presidential candidates generally, the characterization of the advertisements and the reporting requirements for the disbursements would remain unchanged from that set forth above, [i.e., allocable to the limits of § 441a(d).] If, however, the reference is to all Democratic candidates generally without identifying (by visual image or audio content) any specific candidate or office, the disbursements would not then be attributable to any candidate or to any campaign for any particular Federal office. Instead, they would be characterized as advertisements promoting the Republican Party over the Democratic Party and to encourage voters to support the Republican Party generally. As such, the disbursements for such advertising would not be reportable as contributions to any specific candidate or as coordinated party expenditures in connection with any specific general election campaign for President, Senator, or Representative. (emphasis added)

Thus, the Commission made its position clear in the central and material respect relevant to the issue raised in this Complaint. Office-specific spending is not "generic," but fully allocable on behalf of the candidates seeking the offices cited. In AO 1984-15, this allocation principle was applied to require allocation of an advertisement advocating the defeat of "all Democratic Presidential candidates without identifying any specific candidate. . . ." Here, the advertisements of NRCC and RNC advocate the election of "all Republican Congressional candidates without identifying any specific candidate. . . ." The advertisements at issue in AO 1984-15 and here cannot be materially distinguished for purposes of this § 441a(d)(3) allocation analysis.

Moreover, on this point, AO 1984-15 and the general allocation regulations of the Commission at 11 C.F.R. § 106.1 are fully consistent. Under those regulations, and elsewhere in the Commission's regulations, spending for "clearly identified" candidates, subject to limitation, is defined to include disclosure of "the identity of the candidate . . . by unambiguous reference." 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.17, 106.1(d)(3). The reference to a campaign for a specific office, in a general election, is unambiguously a reference to the candidates seeking that office. This was the finding of the Commission in AO 1984-15, and it should be the finding here. Every viewer in the United States, seeing this commercial, is situated in a Congressional district now featuring only one Democratic Party nominee and only one Republican Party nominee. By advocating the election of a Republican to the House, the viewer is unambiguously urged to vote for X (the Republican) over Y (the Democrat). There could be no other meaning to these advertisements, nor any other impact, and these are indeed the same meanings and impact sought by NRCC and RNC in financing these advertisements.

For these reasons, the Commission's holding in AO 1984-15 is fully consistent with the allocation regulations of § 106 as they would apply to this matter. The NRCC/RNC advertisements call for one action and only one action, that is, the election of the Republican nominee in each district, and the defeat of the opposing Democratic nominee. In these circumstances, the federal campaign finance laws require allocation to the spending limit of § 441a(d)(3)--which NRCC and RNC have stalwartly refused to do.

V. CONCLUSION

In connection with expedited Commission review of this Complaint, DCCC requests (a) prompt conciliation with NRCC and RNC upon an expedited "reason-to-believe" finding, or (b) failing a willingness by NRCC and RNC to conciliate, resort to the federal courts to seek injunctive relief in time to avoid the effects of this illegal activity on this year's elections. Certain issues, for reasons of geographic scope or dollar volume, do not require resort by the Commission to extraordinary, expedited procedures. This issue involves millions of dollars expended by one committee to influence hundreds of House races. No case is more deserving of immediate Commission response than this one, especially where, as here, the facts and the law compel only one conclusion.
