Chairman
Federal Election Commission

Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Chairman Elliott:

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C.A. 437g(a)(1) and 11 C.F.R. 111.4(a), this letter is a formal complaint and request that the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission" or "FEC") find reason to believe that the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee (the "Mueller Committee")¹ has violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act" or "FECA"), in connection with (i) the "off-year" filing requirements for

1. The Mueller Committee is the principal campaign committee of Margaret Mueller in connection with her candidacy for election to the United States House of Representatives from the 11th Congressional District of Ohio. Ms. Mueller was the Republican nominee for this seat in 1986 and 1988 and has just obtained the Republican nomination for the 1990 election in that district. As the principal campaign committee of a candidate for the House of Representatives, the Act requires the Mueller Committee to comply with reporting requirements for authorized committees. 2 USCA 434(a).

calendar year 1989 and (ii) various filing requirements for the 1988 federal elections for the United States House of Representatives.

Because one of the primary functions of the FECA is to ensure full disclosure of campaign activity, the Mueller Committee's violations are very significant and ought to be so treated by the Commission. The Mueller Committee has violated the Act in two fundamental ways; by completely failing to file required reports (e.g. the 1989 mid-year and year-end reports) (Part I, below) and by failing to disclose campaign finance information as required, including by not timely disclosing over $400,000 in "last-minute" contributions prior to the 1988 elections (Part II, below). As a new election approaches, it is imperative that the Mueller Committee not be allowed to repeat its cavalier approach to federal election laws and the regulations issued by this Commission.

Each element of this complaint provides a compelling justification for enforcement action by the Commission. Taken as a whole, the complaint demonstrates that the Mueller Committee has shown a pattern of total disregard for the FECA, amounting to knowing and willful violations of the Act. We, therefore, respectfully request that the Commission undertake enforcement proceedings against the Mueller Committee and seek the penalties set forth in the Act, including those for "knowing and willful" violations. For each violation, the Act provides for: (i) a $5,000 civil penalty; (ii) a $10,000 civil penalty where the violation was "knowing and willful"; or (iii) a $25,000 fine or imprisonment up to one year if the Justice Department prosecutes.

I. THE MUELLER COMMITTEE VIOLATED THE ACT BY FAILING TO FILE REPORTS FOR CALENDAR YEAR 1989.

As a principal campaign committee for a House candidate, the Mueller Committee was required to file two separate contribution and expenditure disclosure reports for 1989, one on July 31 for the period January 1 through June 30 and another on January 31, 1990, for the period July 1 through December 31.² The Mueller Committee has not filed its off-year reports.

The Commission itself has notified the Mueller - Committee twice of its failure to file (copies attached as Exhibit A), and the Mueller Committee has itself admitted, in three letters to the Commission that it has failed to make the required filing (copies attached as Exhibit B). Such notifications and admissions not only underscore the fact of the violations here but actually make them "knowing and willful" violations.

2. 2 U.S.C. 434(a)(2)(B) and 11 C.F.R. 104.5(a)(2).

Several points are worth noting with regard to these violations. First, the obligation to file these reports exists regardless of whether a committee has any activity during the period covered by the report. This obligation rests independently with the Committee and its Treasurer. Moreover, the Commission has no authority to waive the requirement to file or to extend the deadline. Since the Mueller Committee has now missed the mid-year report deadline by more than 138 days and the end-of-year report deadline by more than 338 days, any informal "grace period" has surely expired by now.

Second, while the lack of knowledge concerning filing requirements is no defense, this particular candidate can hardly maintain that she is unfamiliar with the obligations of running for federal office. She has stood for election twice and is now her party's nominee for a third time. She must be familiar with the process by now, or at least must be held to be familiar with the obligations of being a candidate.

Further, while lack of funds is no excuse for failing to file these reports, this candidate has shown an extraordinary ability to fund her own campaigns and can hardly complain that she was unable to obtain sufficient funds to get these reports completed. She has been perfectly willing to provide funds to influence the voters of the 11th District, and the Commission should insist that she bear the minimal, but critical, responsibility for reporting on her campaign's finances. (In 1988, she spent over $900,000 of her own funds in the election campaign.)

Finally, this is not a situation in which a losing candidate for election has faded from the political landscape and the failure to file post-election reports has little relevance to any election, past or future. Here, Ms. Mueller has once again received her party's nomination for this office, and the voters of the 11th District will once again be judging her abilities and character. The candidate owes those voters compliance with federal election law, and the Commission should impress upon her the seriousness of that obligation.³ Given Ms. Mueller's reemergence as a candidate and the serious difficulty she and her committee have had with regard to compliance with the FECA,

3. The most recent Mueller Committee filings indicate continued non-compliance. With respect to a last-minute contribution before the May 8, 1990 primary election, the Mueller Committee failed to ensure the notification reached the Clerk of the House within 48 hours. See Exhibit H attached hereto and Advisory Opinion 1988-32 (CCH ¶ 5935). In addition, the report for the 1990 primary elections apparently was filed late. Contrary to the assertions set forth in the Mueller Committee's April 28, 1990 letter to the Commission, according to the House Clerk's files, the pre-primary report was sent by certified mail on April 24, 1990, one day after the April 23rd deadline for mailing by registered or certified mail. See Exhibit H attached hereto and 11 C.F.R. 104.5(a)(1). These failures continue a pattern of late filings, as set forth in detail in this complaint at Part II, A, 2, pp. 6-13.

direct and prompt enforcement of the law should be a high priority for the Commission.

II. THE MUELLER COMMITTEE VIOLATED THE ACT DURING THE 1988 ELECTIONS BY MISSING FILING DEADLINES AND FAILING TO DISCLOSE REQUIRED INFORMATION.

A. THE MUELLER COMMITTEE VIOLATED THE ACT BY FAILING TO COMPLY WITH THE ACT'S REQUIREMENTS TO ENSURE TIMELY DISCLOSURE OF CAMPAIGN INFORMATION

Because of the increased importance of disclosure in election years when voters are faced with election decisions, the Act requires a greater number of reports and imposes specific disclosure requirements for periods immediately preceding elections.⁴ As enumerated below, the Mueller Committee repeatedly failed to meet the Act's requirements for filing reports and notifications on campaign receipts and disbursements for the 1988 election year.

The pre-election reports and related disclosure requirements are perhaps the most critical elements of the FECA's disclosure objectives. Both the individual voter and the press focus their attention on elections and on information about candidates immediately prior to an election. Lack of compliance with the election year disclosure requirements violates not only the express provisions of the Act but also frustrates the fundamental objective of providing the public with accurate information on candidates for federal office in a timely manner so that the public can make an informed voting decision.

4. 2 U.S.C.A. 434(a)(2)(A), 11 C.F.R. 104.5(a)(1) (requiring pre-election, post-general-election and quarterly reports) and 2 U.S.C.A. 434(a)(6), 11 C.F.R. 104.5(f) (requiring notification in writing of $1000 or greater contributions received after the 20th day, but more than 48 hours before, any election).

Failure to provide reports on receipts and disbursements in a timely manner by nature delays dissemination of critical information about a candidate. Moreover, late filings or failures to report reduce the time available to the press and others to analyze the often lengthy reports or react to new information and follow up before the election. Repeated failure to meet the requirements also gives an unfair advantage to the late filer who has more time to utilize the information in the reports of the opponent than does the candidate who adheres to the Act's requirements.

1. The Mueller Committee Violated The Act By Failing To Provide Required Notice Of $1000 Or Greater Contributions Immediately Prior To An Election.

The Mueller Committee violated the Act by failing to disclose over $400,000 in last-minute contributions immediately prior to the 1988 general election. The Act requires authorized committees to report contributions of $1000 or greater when received within a period between twenty days and 48 hours before an election.⁵ An authorized committee must provide such written notice within 48 hours of receipt of the contribution in question. Loans to a committee are considered contributions under the Act.⁶ In the period between October 28, 1988 and November 1, 1988, the Mueller Committee received seven separate contributions of $1000 or more totalling $428,000. None of these seven contributions were reported to the Clerk of the House of Representatives (the "Clerk") within the time limits required by Section 434(a)(6) of the Act. (See Exhibit C, attached).

The failure of the Mueller Committee to comply with Section 434(a)(6) is a clear violation of the Act. But not only did the Mueller Committee fail to provide the required notice within 48 hours of receipt of the contribution, the notice was sent by regular mail posted on election day ensuring its receipt by the Clerk well after election day. Further, no identification of the contributors as required by the Act was provided even in this late notice. The public and the press were thereby deprived of critical information regarding extraordinary last-minute contributions made by the candidate herself and by others.

5. 2 U.S.C.A. 434(a)(6), 11 C.F.R. 104.5(f).

6. 2 U.S.C.A. 431(8)(A)(i), 11 C.F.R. 100.7(a)(1).

Section 434(a)(6) is specifically designed to ensure prompt public disclosure of such contributions before the election, when such information is of value to the voters. If it is to have its intended effect, Section 434(a)(6) must be enforced rigorously. Otherwise, as in the instant case, candidates will readily avoid the potentially negative publicity attendant to disclosure of enormous last-minute contributions. The public and press are deprived of the opportunity to determine who or what interests are financing such a last-minute rush of money into a campaign's coffers. Therefore, the Commission should find reason to believe the Act has been violated by the Mueller Committee on the basis of failure to comply with Section 434(a)(6).⁷

2. The Mueller Committee Violated The Act By Failing To Comply With The Act's Filing Deadlines For Reports.

Consistent with the idea behind the 48-hour notification provisions of Section 434(a)(6), the Act in Section 434(a)(2)(A)(i) requires that candidate committees file full pre-election reports disclosing receipts and expenditures before both

7. While the failure to disclose over $400,000 in last minute contributions before the 1988 general election is particularly egregious, as noted in footnote 3 on p.5 of this complaint, the Mueller Committee failed to comply with the Commission's requirements for timely notification of a 1990 pre-primary last minute contribution as well.

elections. Again, the Act seeks to provide current information on a given campaign before the election (i.e., at a time when the press and public are likely to be most interested). As explained in detail below, the Mueller Committee violated the Act by filing its 1988 pre-general election report late. Taken out of context, this violation may appear technical in nature. When considered in light of the importance of providing pre-election information in a timely manner and in light of the repeated nature of the violations set out elsewhere in this letter, this failure is serious and warrants enforcement action.

The Commission's regulations make clear that, if sent by registered or certified mail, "[a pre-election] report shall be mailed no later than the 15th day before any election."⁸ The 1988 general election was held on November 8th. The 15th day before the general election (and, as a consequence, the filing deadline for mailing the pre-general election report) was October 24, 1988. The Mueller Committee's filing shows, however, that the report was sent by certified mail on October 25, 1988 after the filing deadline imposed by the Act (a copy of the pre-general election report is attached hereto as part of Exhibit F). The Mueller Committee's 1988 pre-general election report therefore violates Section 434(a)(2)(A)(i) of the Act and 11 C.F.R.

104.5(a)(1).⁹

As noted above, pre-election disclosure of campaign receipts and disbursements is an integral feature of the FECA. Failure to adhere to the deadlines imposed by the Act lessens the time in which the public is exposed to information about federal candidates and inhibits further inquiry into a campaign's finances. The incident set forth above in and of itself constitutes a violation of the Act and warrants enforcement activity by the Commission.

The Mueller Committee, however, went even further in its near total disregard of the filing deadlines imposed by the Act with respect to the remaining reports required to be filed in an election year. The Act sets up more than a good-faith-effort standard with respect to filings but rather expressly provides specific deadlines. According to the Commission's files, the

9. It appears that but for the fortuitous efficiency of the Postal Service, the 1988 pre-primary report would have been late as well. The pre-primary report was apparently sent by regular mail and therefore was required to be received by the Commission by April 21, 1988 for the May 3rd primary election. The deadline for mailing the report by certified or registered mail was April 18th in order to ensure its receipt at the Commission by April 21st (the 12th day preceding the primary). The Mueller Committee mailed the report by regular mail on April 20th (after the deadline for registered or certified mail) but it was received by the Commission the next day, April 21st.

Mueller Committee was late on four out of five of the remaining reports that provide information in an election year:

- 1) 1987 Year-End Report. This report was mailed on February 1, 1988 in violation of the January 31, 1988 deadline. See 2 U.S.C.A. Section 434(a)(2)(A)(iii).¹⁰
- 2) Second Quarter Report. This report was apparently mailed or delivered on July 18, 1988 in violation of the July 15, 1988 deadline. See 2 U.S.C.A. Section 434(a)(2)(A)(iii).
- 3) 3rd Quarter Report. This report was mailed on October 19, 1988 in violation of the October 15, 1988 deadline. See 2 U.S.C.A. Section 434(a)(2)(A)(iii).
- 4) Post-General Election Report. This report was sent by regular mail and was received on January 3, 1989 in violation of the December 8, 1988 deadline. See 2 U.S.C.A. Section 434(a)(2)(ii).

This pattern of violations of a candidate for federal office should not be tolerated.¹¹ Unless candidates are held accountable for violations of the deadlines imposed by the Act,

10. For other than the pre-election reports, a report is deemed timely filed upon delivery to the Commission on or before the due date or upon deposit as registered or certified mail if postmarked no later than midnight of the day of the filing date. If the report is sent by first-class mail, it must be received by the filing date in order to be timely filed. See 2 U.S.C.A. 434(a)(5), 11 C.F.R. 100.19.

11. As noted at footnote 3 on p. 5 of this complaint, the Mueller Committee continues to miss deadlines imposed by the Act as indicated by late disclosure of a last minute contribution before the 1990 primary election and its 1990 pre-primary report which was mailed late in violation of the Act.

the likelihood that individuals will chance non-compliance in the future is increased and the effectiveness of the Act in providing full disclosure to the public is eroded. The Commission should therefore impose the sanctions provided for under the Act for failure to file on time in the context of this series of repeated and continuing violations.

B. THE MUELLER COMMITTEE VIOLATED THE ACT'S PROVISIONS REQUIRING FULL DISCLOSURE OF RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS.

In addition to filing late, the Mueller Committee repeatedly failed to provide the information required by the Act with regard to receipts and disbursements. The Act and regulations set forth specific requirements for full disclosure of information concerning contributors to a committee and recipients of disbursements from a committee. Like the timeliness requirements discussed in the previous section, the full disclosure provisions are intended to provide the voting public with sufficient information about a candidate's campaign in order to make an informed voting decision. As set forth in detail below, the Mueller Committee's reports were woefully deficient in complying with these important disclosure requirements.

1. The Mueller Committee Violated The Act By Failing To Disclose The Identification Of Contributors Of
More Than $200.

The contribution disclosure provisions ensure that, assuming timely filing, the public is provided with an adequate level of information about contributors to a campaign. Disclosure of names and addresses allows voters to know whether a candidate receives financial support within the state which forms a candidate's potential constituency or whether a candidate relies on out-of-state money. Further, the reports allow one to determine whether a candidate receives support primarily from certain areas within the state or district. Disclosure of the identification of larger contributors allows (i) assessment of the occupations of those who tend to give significant amounts and (ii) disclosure of the employers of such individuals. The amount and kinds of information required are critical to the scheme of sweeping and thorough public disclosure envisioned by the Congress.

The Act and regulations require that each report itemize receipts and disclose the date, amount and identification of each person who makes a contribution which, individually or in the aggregate per calendar year, exceeds $200.¹² The identification required in the case of an individual contributor includes disclosure of the person's occupation and name of his or her employer.¹³ As detailed below, the Mueller Committee violated these provisions by routinely failing to provide the identification of individuals who contributed over $200.

attached). The pre-general election report contained seven incidents of failure to provide required identification (see Exhibit F, attached) and the post-general election report contained two such incidents (see Exhibit G, attached).

Each of the above incidents constitutes a violation of the Act, and the Third Quarter report presents a particularly egregious set of violations. The Third Quarter report itself warrants enforcement action. Taken together, however, the 1988 election year reports of the Mueller Committee establish a pattern of violations of the disclosure provisions of our election laws which should not be tolerated.

2. The Mueller Committee Violated The Act By Failing To Fully Disclose
Disbursements

The Mueller Committee improperly disclosed disbursement information by using prohibited terms and by failing to supply required information. The Act and regulations require authorized committees to itemize disbursements by providing the name and address of recipients and the purpose of expenditures where they exceed $200 in the aggregate per calendar year.¹⁴ Disclosure of disbursements provides information on the manner in which a campaign chooses to attempt to influence voters. It also allows for some oversight of expenditures to help ensure that contributed funds are used for legitimate purposes in the eyes of the public. Failure to comply with the disclosure obligations defeats the purpose behind these requirements. As detailed below, the Mueller Committee committed specific violations of 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4) and engaged in a pattern of violations that again shows a disregard for the most basic requirements of the FECA.

14. 2 U.S.C.A. 434 (b)(5)(A), 11 C.F.R. 104.3(b)(4).

11 C.F.R. 104.3(b)(4)(i)(A) contains examples of proper and improper descriptive terms for the disclosure of the purpose of disbursements. Among the terms that the regulations state "would not meet the requirements of 11 C.F.R. 104.3(b)(4)" is the use of the words "expenses" or "expense reimbursement" as the sole description. Yet, the Mueller Committee's post-general election report uses the term "expense" in connection with a $354.64 expenditure and "reimbursement of expenses" for a $1,675.80 expenditure.¹⁵ Further, it is clear the recipient of these disbursements was available to provide information to the Mueller Committee, since the same individual received salary disbursements.¹⁶ Other similar violations in the post-general election report include "exp. for Oct." (Schedule B, p. 5, Item H

15. See Schedule B, p. 4, Item C and Schedule B, p. 5, Item G of the Mueller Committee post-general election report (1988), attached hereto as part of Exhibit G.

16. See id., Schedule B, p. 5, Item F (found at Exhibit G hereto).

- $288.45, found at Exhibit G hereto), "expense" (Schedule B, p. 6, Item A - $5,000) and "expenses" (Schedule B, p. 8, Item G - $723.73, found at Exhibit G hereto). The post-general election report of the Mueller Committee therefore directly violates the regulations for use of improper descriptive terms.

Moreover, the Mueller Committee uses the term "buying services" for the extraordinarily large expenditures of $140,000 and $200,000 just before the 1988 general election.¹⁷ 11 C.F.R. Part 104.3(b)(4)(A) provides that use of a term such as "outside services" does not meet the regulatory requirements.

When combined with the Mueller Committee's numerous other violations of the disbursement disclosure regulations, the specific violations detailed above show a pattern of violations by the Mueller Committee. Both the Second and Third Quarter 1988 reports of the Mueller Committee contained numerous violations including failure to disclose either the addresses of recipients or the purposes of expenditures. Taken together, those two reports contain 37 violations of the disbursement disclosure regulations (see Exhibits I and J respectively).

The specific and repeated violations of the disbursement disclosure regulations by the Mueller Committee warrant enforcement action by the Commission. The regulations provide authorized committees with clear guidance on the matter of disbursement disclosures. The Mueller Committee reports contravene this guidance and otherwise violate the Act's requirements. Therefore, the Commission should impose upon the Mueller Committee the sanctions available under the FECA.

CONCLUSION

While enforcement of the disclosure provisions of the FECA presents the Commission with difficult resource allocation decisions, the violations committed by the Mueller Committee warrant the use of the Commission's enforcement resources because of their extreme and repeated nature. The disregard of the 48-hour notification requirements such that disclosure of extraordinarily large contributions was delayed until after the 1988 general election, the Mueller Committee's repeated filing in contravention of express deadlines and its failure to file certain reports at all, and the Mueller Committee's failure to comply with informational requirements all frustrate the disclosure objectives of the FECA. Each instance constitutes a violation.

Further, the pattern of disregard for the Act's requirements should not be tolerated by an active candidate during an election year. Unless such behavior is sanctioned as provided under the Act, the likelihood of future violations is increased, not only for the Mueller Committee but for other committees which perceive an ability to avoid compliance. As a consequence, the public will be deprived of the timely and complete disclosure sought by Congress. The Commission should therefore enforce the Act by seeking sanctions against the Mueller Committee.

Because Ms. Mueller is an active candidate with ongoing reporting obligations, it is possible that future reports of the Mueller Committee will disclose further violations of the Act. Further, given this pattern of disregard for the law, this candidate and her committee may have violated the Act in other respects. We will advise the Office of General Counsel of the existence of any further violations we uncover.

The undersigned declares under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Sincerely,

Dear Ms. Kornegay:

This letter serves as my response to Lois G. Lerner's letter dated July 25, 1990 relative to alleged possible violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 (FECA) having been committed by the above referenced campaign, and by me individually, acting in my capacity as campaign treasurer.

The allegations listed in the complaint filed with the Commission by Richard M. Bates, Executive Director of the Democratic Congressional Committee, can be generally summarized within three categories:

- I) failure to file the mid-year and year-end 1989 Financial Reporting Disclosure Form. (Part I)
- II) failure "to disclose campaign finance information as required . . ." (Part II)
- III) late filing of the Twelfth day report preceding the Primary election of May 8, 1990 in the State of Ohio and failure to ensure notification of the Clerk of the House within forty-eight hours of receipts of a "last-minute" contribution. (Footnote 3)

Let me begin my response by providing a historical account of my involvement with the Mueller for Congress Committee (Committee). I was appointed to serve as Committee Treasurer on March 9, 1990 and officially accepted the appointment on March 20, 1990 (see Exhibit A enclosed - FEC Form 1, Statement of Organization). Mr. J. Thomas Dean (c/o Blakely, Dean, Wilson & Klingenberg, Attorney at Law, 96 Liberty St., Suite 204, Painesville, OH 44077) served as Committee Treasurer during Mrs. Mueller's unsuccessful 1986 and 1988 candidacies. With these facts in mind, I will attempt to address the allegations presented in Parts I and II of the complaint, but defer to Mr. Dean for those items to which I am unable to respond. Therefore, I believe that I should be held responsible for responding to those allegations contained in Footnote 3 only.

Ms. Cheryl Kornegay, Esquire
July 5, 1990

My response will be organized in mixed order, first addressing the allegations referenced in III above; followed by those referenced in I above; and finally by those referenced in II above.

Late filing of the Twelfth Day Report Preceding the Primary election on May 8, 1990 in the State of Ohio:

I strongly object to the inference contained in the Complaint which suggests that this report was "apparently . . . filed late". Review of the date stamped copy of page 1 of the copy obtained by the Complainant from the FEC (Exhibit B) leads me to reach the same conclusion. However, it appears that an erroneous date was inadvertently stamped on the document. To my best belief and knowledge, the report was mailed via Certified Mail on April 23, 1990 from and by a representative of the MailBoxes Etc. franchise located in Lyndhurst, OH. In support of this belief, I am enclosing the following documentation (Exhibit C):

- 1) US Postal Service Receipt for Certified Mail
(No. P 892-683-898) dated April 23, 1990.
(Article 1)
- 2) MailBoxes Etc. cash register receipt dated April 21, 1990 in the amount of $2.60.
(Article 2)
- 3) US Postal Service Domestic Return Receipt
(No. P 892-683-898) stamped received by the Office of the Clerk of Congress on April 30, 1990.
(Article 3)

You will note from review of Article 1, that the total postage charged for this service was $2.20. Please also be advised that the date notation was made by the MailBoxes Etc. employee and not by me or other member of the Committee. The $.40 difference between the postage charged and the amount listed on Article 2 represents the fee assessed by MailBoxes Etc. in the provision of this service.

Failure to Ensure Notification of a "Last-Minute" Contribution Received Before the May 8, 1990 Primary Election:

Exhibit D, a copy of a letter to the FEC I mailed on May 3, 1990 reporting the Committee's receipt of a $1,000 contribution received on May 2, 1990, indicates that it was received by the FEC on May 8, 1990. While I acknowledge that the constructive receipt by the FEC was outside of the forty-eight hour notification period, I believed that I was appropriately complying with the written requirement for such filing by ensuring that the notification was mailed via Certified Mail within the required time-frame. My review of the footnote 3 of the Complaint suggest that my interpretation was in error. If the FEC chooses to side with Mr. Bates on this issue, I would like to provide assurances to the FEC that best efforts will be made in the future to ensure that physical notification is received by the FEC within the specified time-frame. However, I would appreciate your assistance in disclosing which methods (e.g. facsimile, overnight courier) are acceptable to the FEC.

Failure to File the Mid-Year and Year-End 1989 Financial Reporting Forms:

The Committee acknowledges the fact that both 1989 Financial Reporting Forms have yet to be provided. Please be assured that the Committee's failure to make these filings does not result from a "cavalier approach to federal election laws and the regulations issued by" the Commission as Mr. Bates' complaint suggests. Mrs. Mueller, the Committee and I all consider compliance with FECA and FEC regulations as vital to the process of running a fair and ethical campaign. However, as result of a number of problems encountered, the Committee has yet to be successful in filing these forms.

The problems encountered appear to primarily result from a lack of timely record keeping. Shortly prior to my appointment as Committee Treasurer, I was provided boxes of documents which support the financial activities of Mrs. Mueller's 1988 campaign. Upon beginning the process of preparing the mid-year 1989 Financial Reporting Form, the Committee noted several clerical errors which require the amendment of the Financial Reporting Forms covering the periods October 1, through October 19, 1988 and October 20, through December 31, 1988. In order to correct these reports and assure their accuracy, as well as the accuracy of both 1989 Financial Reporting Disclosure Forms, the Committee engaged the services of an independent Certified Public Accountant that knowledgeable in the filing of these documents. Based upon this CPA's recommendation, amendments have been drafted of both of the 1988 reports disclosed above, as well as both 1989 reports. The review of these reports was completed on July 2. The forms were signed by Mr. J. Thomas Dean on July 3 and will be mailed under separate cover.

While the Committee again offers its apology for the late filing of these reports, we again stress the Committee's intent and desire to file accurate reports. This desire has required an unexpectedly long time delay. As to providing an explanation as to why the filing of the 1989 reports was not attempted prior to March of this year, I again defer to my predecessor, Mr. J. Thomas Dean.

Failure to Disclose Campaign Finance Information as Required:

It is difficult for me to respond to the allegations detailed at length in Mr. Bates complaint relative to the alleged failure to disclose campaign finance information during 1988. I am also unable to speak to the completeness of the records of the 1988 campaign provided to me by Mr. Dean. I can however relay my belief that a best effort was made by Mr. Dean and his assistants to accurately comply with the filing requirements. This belief is evidenced by my review that leads me to conclude that Mr. Dean responded to all inquiries made by the FEC relative to the various filed 1988 reports. I again defer to Mr. Dean for a more thorough response to these allegations.

Conclusion:

I hope that this response will prove successful in disproving the allegations made against me and Mrs. Mueller's 1990 Campaign. On behalf of Mrs. Mueller, let me assure you that we will provide a best effort to satisfactorily answer all of the allegations made in Mr. Bate's complaint. However, as result of the passage of time, we are unsure as whether or not satisfactory information can be obtained in response to each allegation. I would be most happy to provide such other information available to me that you might require.

Most sincerely yours,

September 25, 1990

Federal Election Commission
999 E Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Commissioners:

On June 18, 1990, the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (DCCC) filed a lengthy complaint with the Federal Election Commission (FEC) concerning numerous violations by Margaret Mueller, a candidate for Congress in Ohio's 11th congressional district.

As the complaint states, over the course of two election cycles, Mrs. Mueller's campaign committee failed to file numerous reports required by law and failed to file numerous other reports after the statutory deadlines. Further, many of the reports which the committee filed were grossly inaccurate or incomplete.

Mrs. Mueller is again a candidate for Congress in the 11th District. As the election date is less than seven weeks away, we respectfully urge you to act promptly on this complaint. In 1988 Mrs. Mueller spent over $1 million in her race and, as the complaint states, much of this spending was hidden in a deliberate attempt to deceive the voters and the press. Mrs. Mueller again appears poised to spend hundreds of thousands of dollars in her quest for office. Unless the Commission takes immediate action to investigate these prior violations and to enforce the reporting requirements, she may continue these practices, again refusing to fully disclose her campaign finances. As I am sure you will agree, it is crucial to the voters that her flagrant violations of the law and her cavalier attitude toward fair elections not be tolerated.

Again, I urge you to move expeditiously on this matter.

Sincerely,

RICHARD M. BATES

I. GENERATION OF MATTER

Richard Bates, Executive Director of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, filed the complaint in this matter, alleging that the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee and Gerald Wolanin, as treasurer (hereinafter "Committee"), had violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act") in connection with non-election year reporting requirements in 1989 and with regards to various reports for Mueller's 1988 and 1990 campaigns for the House of Representatives, 11th Congressional District. Margaret Mueller was an unsuccessful candidate for the House of Representatives in 1986 and 1988, and has received the Republican nomination for the 1990 election.

A response has been received from the Committee's current treasurer, Gerald Wolanin, who has served in that capacity since March 20, 1990. Mr. Wolanin contends in the response that because he was not the Committee's treasurer during the 1986 and 1988 campaigns, he should not be held accountable for allegations in the complaint related to those elections. The Commission also received a letter from Candidate Mueller in which she indicates that the matter need not be kept confidential.

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Failure to File Reports on a Timely Basis

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(B), if a political committee is the principal campaign committee of a candidate for the House of Representatives or the Senate, in any calendar year other than a year during which there is a regularly scheduled election, the treasurer must file a report of receipts and disbursements covering the period beginning January 1 and ending June 30, no later than July 31, and a report covering the period beginning July 1 and ending December 31, no later than January 31 of the following calendar year.

In an election year, 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(A) requires a committee treasurer to file a pre-election report, a post general report and additional quarterly reports of receipts and disbursements. Additionally, 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A) requires that principal campaign committees notify the Clerk, the Secretary, or the Commission and the Secretary of State, as appropriate, in writing, of any contribution of $1,000 or more received by any authorized committee of a candidate after the 20th day, but more than 48 hours before any election. The notification must be made within 48 hours of receipt of the contribution and must include the name of the candidate and the Office sought by the candidate, the identification of the contributor, and the date of receipt and amount of the contribution.

The complainant alleges that the respondent failed to file a 1989 Mid-Year and a 1989 Year-End report, which were due on July 31, 1989 and January 31, 1990, respectively. See 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(B). In its response, the Committee's treasurer explains that he has served as the Committee's treasurer since March 20, 1990, and does not have first hand knowledge of the events prior to that date.¹ However, Mr. Wolanin notes that the reports were not filed as a result of a number of problems, but primarily "from a lack of timely record keeping." (See Attachment A, page 3). The Committee has engaged the services of a Certified Public Accountant who recommended that amendments be filed to the reports. Although the response asserts that amended reports would be filed shortly, no such amendments have been filed to date. Accordingly, it is recommended that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(B).

With respect to reports for the 1990 election cycle, the complainant suggests that the pre-election report preceding the May 8, 1990 primary election required pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(A)(i), was mailed after the April 23, 1990 due date. (See Attachment A, page 7). The respondent explains that the report was apparently inadvertently stamped with the wrong date of April 24, 1990 by a representative of a private mail service in Lyndhurst, Ohio. In support of its assertion, the committee submitted a receipt dated April 21, 1990 from the private mail service for mailing the report and a receipt from the United States Postal Service for certified mail. This receipt bears a handwritten notation indicating that it was mailed on April 23, 1990. The certified mail receipt shows that the report was delivered on April 30, 1990. Given the above, it is recommended that the Commission find no reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(A)(i) with respect to the 1990 pre-primary report.

The complainant further alleges and the Committee acknowledges that a "48 hour" notification sent to the Clerk of the House on May 3, 1990 to document receipt of a $1,000 contribution six days before the May 8, 1990 primary election was not received by the Clerk of the House until May 8, 1990. (Attachment A, page 9). The treasurer explains that he believed the notification was acceptable if it was mailed via certified mail within the required 48 hour time frame. While some of the financial reports required under the Act may be considered timely if mailed by certified mail on the due date, see e.g. 11 C.F.R. § 104.5, the Act and the regulations require that the candidate notify the Clerk of the House of last minute contributions within 48 hours of receipt of the contribution.² 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(f). It is therefore recommended that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A).

The complainant also challenges the timeliness of the reports filed by the Committee during the 1988 election cycle. In particular, complainant alleges that the Mueller Committee:

1. filed the 1988 pre-election report less than fifteen days before the November 8, 1988 general election. The fifteenth day before the election was October 24, 1988; the Committee's report was sent by certified mail on October 25, 1988;
2. failed to file the July Quarterly Report by the July 15, 1988 deadline; this report was apparently mailed or delivered on July 18, 1988;
3. failed to file the October Quarterly Report by the October 15, 1988 deadline; this report was mailed October 19, 1988;
4. failed to file the Post General Election Report by the December 8, 1988 deadline; this report was sent by regular mail and was received on January 3, 1989; and
5. failed to file the 1987 Year-End Report by the January 31, 1988 deadline; this report was mailed February 1, 1988.

The Mueller Committee's response did not address any of the alleged reporting violations noted above. This Office recommends, therefore, that the Commission find reason to believe that the Mueller Committee violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(a)(2)(B)(ii), 434(a)(2)(A)(iii) and 434(a)(2)(A)(ii).

2. The complainant also alleges that the Committee failed to comply with Section 434(a)(6) during the 1988 election. Specifically, the complaint states that the Committee failed to file 48 hour notifications for seven last-minute contribution of $1,000 or more, totaling $428,000, for the period between October 28 and November 1, 1988. The contributions consisted of loans made by the candidate to the Committee and a $2,000 individual contribution. The Committee has offered no explanation for its failure to file the required 48 hour reports or employer and occupation information for the individual contribution. The Committee, it is noted, did report these contributions to the Clerk of the House on November 8, 1988.

B. Failure to Provide Contributor or Disbursement Information

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A) a committee must disclose the identification of each person who makes a contribution of $200 or more. In the case of individuals, 2 U.S.C. § 431(13)(A) requires that the name, address, occupation and employer of the contributor be reported. Similar information must be provided by committees in connection with reports filed under 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A).

The statute also requires that committees disclose disbursements made during the reporting period and to provide the name and address of each person to whom an expenditure is made in the aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year. See 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5)(A). See also, 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4) setting forth examples of how to report disbursements.

The complainant alleges that the Mueller Committee in several instances failed to provide identifying information for contributors as required pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A) and 2 U.S.C. § 431(13)(A). The 1988 October Quarterly Report (See Exhibit D of Complaint) in particular presented multiple instances of failure to name the contributor's employer or occupation. Again, the response does not address the Committee's failure to provide the required identifying information. It is therefore recommended that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A).

Finally, the complainant contends that the Mueller Committee improperly disclosed disbursements by using prohibited terms and by failing to supply information required by 2 U.S.C.

§ 434(b)(5)(A). The complainant points out that the 1988 post-general election report uses the term "expense" in connection with a $354.64 expenditure and "reimbursement of expenses" for a $1,675.80 expenditure.

The term "expenses" and "expense reimbursement" are specifically listed in 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4)(i)(A) as terms that would not meet the requirements of 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4) for reporting the purpose of an expenditure. The complainant points out that the Committee also used the term "expense" and "expenses" for expenditures of $288.45, $5,000 and $723.73 in the 1988 post-general report. Finally, the complainant alleges that the use of the term "buying services" for expenditures of $140,000 and $200,000 does not meet the regulatory requirements of 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4)(i)(A). The Committee offered no response to the complainant's allegations regarding the Committee's descriptions for expenditures. Accordingly, it is recommended that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5)(A).

Despite the numerous reporting violations that have been cited by the complainant, it does not appear that respondents' reporting violations amount to knowing and willful conduct, which would warrant the additional penalties intended for such conduct.

III. WAIVER OF CONFIDENTIALITY REQUEST

Finally, this Office notes that the Committee has waived the confidentiality provided pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437(a)(12). See Attachment C. Accordingly, requests for information would be considered by the Commission provided such requests are in writing and subject to the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, the Government in the Sunshine Act and all relevant privileges which would limit or preclude the release of such requested information.

IV. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Find reason to believe that the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee, and Gerald Wolanin, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(a)(2)(A), 434(a)(2)(B), 434(a)(6)(A), 434(b)(3)(A), and 434(b)(5)(A).

2. Find no reason to believe that the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee and Gerald Wolanin, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(A)(i) with respect to the 1990 preprimary report.

3. Approve the attached factual and legal analysis.

4. Approve the appropriate letter.

RE: MUR 3078

Dear Mr. Wolanin:

On June 25, 1990, the Federal Election Commission notified the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee ("Committee") and you, as treasurer, of a complaint alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). A copy of the complaint was forwarded to you at that time.

Upon further review of the allegations contained in the complaint, and information supplied by you on behalf of the Committee, the Commission, on November 14, 1990, found that there is reason to believe the Committee and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(a)(2)(A), 434(a)(2)(B), 434(a)(6)(A), 434(b)(3)(A), and 434(b)(5)(A). The Factual and Legal Analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer. You may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Please submit such materials to the General Counsel's Office within 15 days of receipt of this letter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

In the absence of any additional information demonstrating that no further action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation.

If you are interested in pursuing pre-probable cause conciliation, you should so request in writing. See 11 C.F.R. § 111.18(d). Upon receipt of the request, the Office of the General Counsel will make recommendations to the Commission either proposing an agreement in settlement of the matter or recommending declining that pre-probable cause conciliation be pursued. The Office of the General Counsel may recommend that pre-probable cause conciliation not be entered into at this time so that it may complete its investigation of the matter. Further, the Commission will not entertain requests for pre-probable cause conciliation after briefs on probable cause have been mailed to the respondent.

Requests for extensions of time will not be routinely granted. Requests must be made in writing at least five days prior to the due date of the response and specific good cause must be demonstrated. In addition, the Office of the General Counsel ordinarily will not give extensions beyond 20 days.

If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address, and telephone number of such counsel, and authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

The Commission also hereby acknowledges your letter of October 25, 1990, wherein you requested a waiver of your right to confidentiality pursuant to 2 U.S.C. 437g(a)(12)(A). Accordingly, the Commission will consider requests for information concerning this matter subject to the following considerations. First, requests must be in writing. Second, such requests will be considered by the Commission subject to the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, the Government in Sunshine Act, and all relevant privileges which limit or preclude the release of requested information.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

MUR: 3078

RESPONDENTS: Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee, and
Gerald Wolanin, as treasurer

I. GENERATION OF MATTER

Richard Bates, Executive Director of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, filed the complaint in this matter, alleging that the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee and Gerald Wolanin, as treasurer (hereinafter "Committee"), had violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act") in connection with non-election year reporting requirements in 1989 and with regards to various reports for Mueller's 1988 and 1990 campaigns for the House of Representatives, 11th Congressional District. Margaret Mueller was an unsuccessful candidate for the House of Representatives in 1986 and 1988, and has received the Republican nomination for the 1990 election.

A response has been received from the Committee's current treasurer, Gerald Wolanin, who has served in that capacity since March 20, 1990. Mr. Wolanin contends in the response that because he was not the Committee's treasurer during the 1986 and 1988 campaigns, he should not be held accountable for allegations in the complaint related to those elections. The Commission also received a letter from Candidate Mueller in which she indicates that the matter need not be kept confidential.

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Failure to File Reports on a Timely Basis

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(B), if a political committee is the principal campaign committee of a candidate for the House of Representatives or the Senate, in any calendar year other than a year during which there is a regularly scheduled election, the treasurer must file a report of receipts and disbursements covering the period beginning January 1 and ending June 30, no later than July 31, and a report covering the period beginning July 1 and ending December 31, no later than January 31 of the following calendar year.

In an election year, 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(A) requires a committee treasurer to file a pre-election report, a post general report and additional quarterly reports of receipts and disbursements. Additionally, 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A) requires that principal campaign committees notify the Clerk, the Secretary, or the Commission and the Secretary of State, as appropriate, in writing, of any contribution of $1,000 or more received by any authorized committee of a candidate after the 20th day, but more than 48 hours before any election. The notification must be made within 48 hours of receipt of the contribution and must include the name of the candidate and the office sought by the candidate, the identification of the contributor, and the date of receipt and amount of the contribution.

The complainant alleges that the respondent failed to file a 1989 Mid-Year and a 1989 Year-End report, which were due on July 31, 1989 and January 31, 1990, respectively. See 2 U.S.C.

§ 434(a)(2)(B). In its response, the Committee's treasurer explains that he has served as the Committee's treasurer since March 20, 1990, and does not have first hand knowledge of the events prior to that date.¹ However, Mr. Wolanin notes that the reports were not filed as a result of a number of problems, but primarily "from a lack of timely record keeping." The Committee has engaged the services of a Certified Public Accountant who recommended that amendments be filed to the reports. Although the response asserts that amended reports would be filed shortly, no such amendments have been filed to date. Accordingly, there is reason to believe that the Committee has violated 2 U.S.C.

§ 434(a)(2)(B).

With respect to reports for the 1990 election cycle, the complainant suggests that the pre-election report preceding the May 8, 1990 primary election required pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(A)(i), was mailed after the April 23, 1990 due date. The respondent explains that the report was apparently inadvertently stamped with the wrong date of April 24, 1990 by a representative of a private mail service in Lyndhurst, Ohio. In support of its assertion, the committee submitted a receipt dated April 21, 1990 from the private mail service for mailing the report and a receipt from the United States Postal Service for certified mail. This receipt bears a handwritten notation indicating that it was mailed on April 23, 1990. The certified mail receipt shows that the report was delivered on April 30, 1990. Given the above, there is no reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(A)(i) with respect to the 1990 pre-primary report.

The complainant further alleges and the Committee acknowledges that a "48 hour" notification sent to the Clerk of the House on May 3, 1990 to document receipt of a $1,000 contribution six days before the May 8, 1990 primary election was not received by the Clerk of the House until May 8, 1990. The treasurer explains that he believed the notification was acceptable if it was mailed via certified mail within the required 48 hour time frame. While some of the financial reports required under the Act may be considered timely if mailed by certified mail on the due date, see e.g. 11 C.F.R § 104.5, the Act and regulations require that the candidate notify the Clerk of the House of last minute contributions within 48 hours of receipt of the contribution.² 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6) and 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(f). Accordingly, there is reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A).

The complainant also challenges the timeliness of the reports filed by the Committee during the 1988 election cycle. In particular, complainant alleges that the Mueller Committee:

2. The complainant also alleges that the Committee failed to comply with Section 434(a)(6) during the 1988 election. Specifically, the complaint states that the Committee failed to file 48 hour notifications for seven last-minute contribution of $1,000 or more, totaling $428,000, for the period between October 28 and November 1, 1988. The contributions consisted of loans made by the candidate to the Committee and a $2,000 individual contribution. The Committee has offered no explanation for its failure to file the required 48 hour reports or employer and occupation information for the individual contribution. The Committee, it is noted, did report these contributions to the Clerk of the House on November 8, 1988.

1. filed the 1988 pre-election report less than fifteen days before the November 8, 1988 general election. The fifteenth day before the election was October 24, 1988; the Committee's report was sent by certified mail on October 25, 1988;

2. failed to file the July Quarterly Report by the July 15, 1988 deadline; this report was apparently mailed or delivered on July 18, 1988;

3. failed to file the October Quarterly Report by the October 15, 1988 deadline; this report was mailed October 19, 1988;

4. failed to file the Post General Election Report by the December 8, 1988 deadline; this report was sent by regular mail and was received on January 3, 1989; and

5. failed to file the 1987 Year-End Report by the January 31, 1988 deadline; this report was mailed February 1, 1988.

Because the Mueller Committee's response did not address any of the alleged reporting violations noted above, there is reason to believe that the Mueller Committee violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(a)(2)(B)(ii), 434(a)(2)(A)(iii) and 434(a)(2)(A)(ii).

B. Failure to Provide Contributor or Disbursement Information

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A) a committee must disclose the identification of each person who makes a contribution of $200 or more. In the case of individuals, 2 U.S.C. § 431(13)(A) requires that the name, address, occupation and employer of the contributor be reported. Similar information must be provided by committees in connection with reports filed under 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A).

The statute also requires that committees disclose disbursements made during the reporting period and to provide the name and address of each person to whom an expenditure is made in the aggregate amount or value in excess of $200 within the calendar year. See 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5)(A). See also, 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4) setting forth examples of how to report disbursements.

The complainant alleges that the Mueller Committee in several instances failed to provide identifying information for contributors as required pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A) and 2 U.S.C. § 431(13)(A). The 1988 October Quarterly Report, in particular, presented multiple instances of failure to name the contributor's employer or occupation. Again, the response does not address the Committee's failure to provide the required identifying information. In light of the foregoing, there is reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A).

Finally, the complainant contends that the Mueller Committee improperly disclosed disbursements by using prohibited terms and by failing to supply information required by 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5)(A). The complainant points out that the 1988 post-general election report uses the term "expense" in connection with a $354.64 expenditure and "reimbursement of expenses" for a $1,675.80 expenditure.

The term "expenses" and "expense reimbursement" are specifically listed in 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4)(i)(A) as terms that would not meet the requirements of 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4) for reporting the purpose of an expenditure. The complainant points out that the Committee also used the term "expense" and "expenses" for expenditures of $288.45, $5,000 and $723.73 in the 1988 post-general report. Finally, the complainant alleges that the use of the term "buying services" for expenditures of $140,000 and $200,000 does not meet the regulatory requirements of 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(4)(i)(A). The Committee offered no response to the complainant's allegations regarding the Committee's descriptions for expenditures. Accordingly, there is reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(5)(A).

Despite the numerous reporting violations that have been cited by the complainant, it does not appear that respondents' reporting violations amount to knowing and willful conduct, which would warrant the additional penalties intended for such conduct.

This letter serves as my response to Lee Ann Elliott's letter dated November 27, 1990. As you are aware, Ms. Elliott's letter states, in part, "that there is reason to believe the Committee" (and, I as treasurer) "violated 2 U.S.C. paragraphs 434(a)(2)(A), 434(a)(2)(B), 434(a)(6)(A), 434(b)(3)(a), and 434(b)(5)(A). This letter also serves as a follow-up to our November 30th phone conversations.

In response to your November 30th request for a combination of this complaint with the subsequent DCCC complaint relative to the Committee's placement of an ad with the Order of the Sons of Italy in Americas, Mrs. Mueller has requested that I consent to such a combination on her behalf. Mrs. Mueller has requested that I reaffirm that there was no intent to violate FEC rules relative to the placement of advertisement. Rather, the Order of the Sons of Italy in Americas neglected to submit copy of the advertisement for the Committee's approval, and the Committee lost track of following up on the placement of such an inconsequential advertisement.

However, as discussed on November 30th, I continue to strongly argue that complaint number MUR 3078 be split into two components, those relative to the 1990 campaign and those relative to the 1988 campaign.

In the event that the FEC is agreeable to such a separation of the complaints, then I believe I should be only personally held responsible for responding to only one of the DCCC's allegations. Specifically, this allegation is referenced on page four in the attachment to Ms. Elliott's letter and refers to an allegation that an $1,000 contribution received on May 3rd was not received by the Clerk of the House until May 8, 1990. I again reiterate that there was no intentional effort of noncompliance with 2 U.S.C. paragraph 434(a)(6)(A), rather, there was a misinterpretation on my part relative to the means acceptable to effect such a notification within required forty-eight hour timeframe. Additionally, I would also like to add that since the required notification deadline (May 5th) fell upon a weekend date, that I assumed that the notification deadline was automatically extended to Monday, May 7th. Therefore, I am left to conclude that the notification was received only one day late. Furthermore, I would like to interject that I fully expected that U.S. Postal service would effect delivery by May 7th.

With respect to the complaints alleged by the DCCC against Mrs. Mueller's 1988 candidacy, I have asked that the Committee's predecessor Treasurer, Mr. J. Thomas Dean, Esquire respond to these alleged violations, which occurred during his tenure. Mr. Dean stated in a December 11th phone conversation that he would respond to these allegations under separate cover on December 12th (today). Hence, I request incorporation of his response to this letter through this reference.

However, I would like to add that in reviewing various FEC correspondence relating to exceptions discovered upon review of the Committee's various 1988 campaign filings, that 1) Mr. Dean was diligent in filing amended reports to correct these exceptions, and 2) the discovery of the deficiencies alleged in Mr. Bates complaint were apparently beyond the scope of the FEC's normal review function. Therefore, I am left only to conclude that the Committee, with exception of submission of the 1989 Mid-Year and End of Year reports, operated within the full spirit of campaign filing and disclosure requirements.

I would also like to reaffirm for the record that the 1989 Mid-Year and End of Year reports were filed with your office in early July 1990, which, as you are aware, contradicts the statements made in II(A) of the attachment to Ms. Elliott's letter.

Finally, Mrs. Mueller, Mr. Dean and I jointly agree that the Committee should pursue a "pre-probable cause conciliation", as referenced in the fifth paragraph of Ms. Elliott's letter.

Based upon the foregoing representations and statements, the Committee looks forward to a timely and favorably resolution of these matters. We would hope that such a resolution could be effected before year end, so that the Committee can petition for termination of both the 1990 and 1988 Committees within this timeframe.

As always, should you require additional information or care to discuss these matters in further detail, please feel free to contact me care of the above address or phone.

Most sincerely,

Gerald F. Wolanin, CPA

RE: MUR 3078

Dear Ms. Kornegay:

This letter is to supplement the letter sent to you by Mr. Gerald F. Wolanin, Treasurer for the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee.

As former treasurer of his campaign committee, I assure the Commission that there was certainly a sincere effort made to provide all requests made by the Election Commission. There was no willful effort not to comply.

After the 1988 campaign was concluded, the campaign staff made up for the most part of young men and women from outside the State of Ohio, dispersed to their homes and there was no longer any meaningful contact with any of them. There was always some difficulty in communication occasioned by my being located in Painesville, Ohio, and the campaign staff in Garrettsville, Ohio, some 25 miles distant in a different county.

The undersigned had no control over receipts and expenditures. That was handled by the campaign committee itself. My job was to file the reports from information provided to me by the campaign staff. I know that the candidate, Margaret Mueller, and her campaign staff as well as myself, made a determined effort to account for all the financial activity of her campaign and comply with FEC regulations.

I think it is unfortunate that complaints have been filed in this instance from certain individuals on a few technical mistakes and omissions, particularly when virtually all of the sums of money received were accounted for. Most funds were provided by loans to the Committee from the candidate herself. I know that my experience was that Mrs. Mueller and her campaign staff complied with the spirit of the regulations and were not trying in any way to be deceitful or unresponsive.

Your consideration on behalf of Mrs. Margaret Mueller shall be appreciated.

Very truly yours,

J. Thomas Dean

Gentlemen:

This letter is a formal complaint pursuant to 11 C.F.R. 111.4 and 2 U.S.C. 437g(a)(1) based upon the belief that Margaret R. Mueller and the Mueller for Congress Committee have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act (the "FECA") and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto. Specifically, Margaret Mueller and the Committee have violated the contributions and expenditure prohibitions and limitations by failing to include a disclaimer on paid advertisements expressly advocating the election of Margaret Mueller, a candidate for Congress as required by 11 C.F.R. 110.11 and 2 U.S.C. 441 (d).

Margaret Mueller and the Mueller Committee violated the FECA and the Commission's regulations by failing to include a disclaimer identifying the source of funds or authorization for an advertisement that stated, "Vote for Margaret R. Mueller for Congress" placed in the October 7, 1990 Order of Sons of Italy in Americas, Annual Columbus Day Celebrations ad or journal book (see copy, attached). The campaign contribution and expenditure limitations require, among other things, that any person who makes an expenditure expressly advocating the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate through a magazine or any other form of general public political advertising must include a disclaimer that conforms to the format set forth in the regulations and provides adequate notice of the identity of the persons who paid for and authorized the communication. The ad placed by the Mueller Committee violates these requirements.

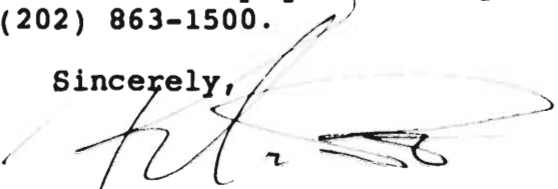

These disclaimer provisions serve an important function of the federal election laws in preventing candidates from placing or authorizing political advertising in a manner which incorrectly suggests that the message is an independent and unsolicited expression of support when in reality it is nothing more than a self-serving electioneering effort.

Dear Mr. Bates:

This is to acknowledge receipt on October 23, 1990, of your letter dated October 22, 1990. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") and Commission Regulations require that the contents of a complaint be sworn to and signed in the presence of a notary public and notarized. Your letter was not properly sworn to. Additionally, the attachment you mentioned in your complaint was missing.

You must swear before a notary that the contents of your complaint are true to the best of your knowledge and the notary must represent as part of the jurat that such swearing occurred. A statement by the notary that the complaint was sworn to and subscribed before him/her will be sufficient. We are sorry for the inconvenience that these requirements may cause you, but we are not statutorily empowered to proceed with the handling of a compliance action unless all the statutory requirements are fulfilled. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g.

Gentlemen:

This letter is a formal complaint pursuant to 11 C.F.R. 111.4 and 2 U.S.C. 437g(a)(1) based upon the belief that Margaret R. Mueller and the Mueller for Congress Committee have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act (the "FECA") and the regulations promulgated pursuant thereto. Specifically, Margaret Mueller and the Committee have violated the contributions and expenditure prohibitions and limitations by failing to include a disclaimer on paid advertisements expressly advocating the election of Margaret Mueller, a candidate for Congress as required by 11 C.F.R. 110.11 and 2 U.S.C. 441 (d).

Margaret Mueller and the Mueller Committee violated the FECA and the Commission's regulations by failing to include a disclaimer identifying the source of funds or authorization for an advertisement that stated, "Vote for Margaret R. Mueller for Congress" placed in the October 7, 1990 Order of Sons of Italy in Americas, Annual Columbus Day Celebrations ad or journal book (see copy, attached). The campaign contribution and expenditure limitations require, among other things, that any person who makes an expenditure expressly advocating the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate through a magazine or any other form of general public political advertising must include a disclaimer that conforms to the format set forth in the regulations and provides adequate notice of the identity of the persons who paid for and authorized the communication. The ad placed by the Mueller Committee violates these requirements.

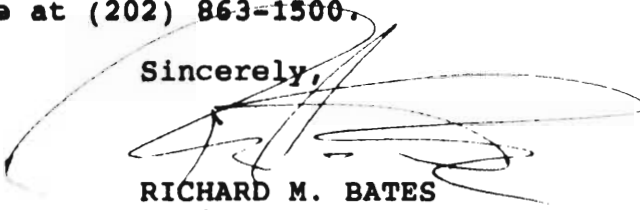

These disclaimer provisions serve an important function of the federal election laws in preventing candidates from placing or authorizing political advertising in a manner which incorrectly suggests that the message is an independent and unsolicited expression of support when in reality it is nothing more than a self-serving electioneering effort.

The advertisement is a clear violation of this important requirement and the Commission should find reason to believe a violation has occurred and seek appropriate sanctions against Margaret Mueller and the Mueller Committee. OCC 8621

Last May the Order of the Sons of Italy in Americas sent to Margaret Mueller a letter inviting her to come to the October 7, 1990 annual Columbus Day Celebration, and solicited an ad from the Mueller for Congress Committee.

On May 31 Mueller drew a $55.00 check to the Columbus Day Committee, mailed the check and a picture of herself to the committee, and entered on her checking account register "Campaign expenses." Mueller did not send in wording for a proposed ad.

The Columbus Day committee then printed an ad that stated "Vote for Margaret R. Mueller for Congress" without the annotation "paid for by the Mueller for Congress Committee" and without first having shown the proposed ad to Mueller: quite clearly, a failure of Communication.

Result: A formal complaint to the Federal Election Commission filed by the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee (of which Margaret's political opponent Dennis Eckart happens to be co-chairman and regional director). B-I-G Wow! Laughable-- if it were not another example of the bureaucratic power the incumbent Congressman throws about to intimidate, harass, and otherwise discourage honest citizens from running for political office.

The one humorous part of this game of itty-bitty is that Eckart's complainant, R. Bates, Executive director of the D.C.C.C., did not meet "certain specific requirements for the proper filing of the complaint" (quote, Lois G. Lerner, associate general counsel, FEC.)

In the Matter of)

Margaret Mueller for) MURs 3078 and 3155
Congress Committee, and)
Gerald Wolanin, as treasurer)

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. BACKGROUND

On November 14, 1990, the Commission found reason to believe in MUR 3078 that the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee and Gerald Wolanin, as treasurer, (the Committee) violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(a)(2)(A), 434(a)(2)(B), 434(a)(6)(A), 434(b)(3)(A) and 434(b)(5)(A).

The complainant in MUR 3078, Richard M. Bates, later filed a second complaint with the Commission regarding the Committee, designated as MUR 3155, alleging that the Mueller for Congress Committee had failed to file a disclaimer on a political advertisement in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441d.

I. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441d, whenever a person makes an expenditure for the purpose of financing communications expressly advocating the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate through any broadcasting, newspaper or any type of general public political advertising, the communication must clearly state who paid for the communication and whether or not it was authorized by the candidate or his or her authorized

The complainant alleges that a Mueller advertisement, which appeared in the October 7, 1990 Order of the Sons of Italy in America Columbus Day Celebration journal book, did not carry a disclaimer identifying who paid for it or whether it was authorized by the candidate or her committee. The advertisement (see Attachment A) consisted of the phrase "Vote for Margaret Mueller for Congress" and a photograph of the candidate, who is identified as "A Congresswoman who will pay attention to Ashtabula."

Ms. Mueller recalls in her response to the complaint (Attachment B) that the ad was solicited from her by the Order of the Sons of Italy. She reported that she sent the Columbus Day Committee a check for $55 and a photograph of herself, but did not send in proposed wording for the advertisement. She did not review the advertisement before it was printed. Ms. Mueller attributes the failure to include the disclaimer to a failure of communication between herself and the committee, which resulted in the advertisement being printed without first being reviewed by her.

The circumstances in this case indicate that the Mueller advertisement was in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441d. The language contained in the advertisement, "Vote Mueller for Congress" confirms that the advertisement expressly advocated the election of a political candidate for federal office. Further, the communication was a paid advertisement in a program booklet distributed at the Columbus Day Celebration of the Order of the Sons of Italy. The advertisement in the booklet is, therefore, similar to a communication in a "magazine," specifically covered by 2 U.S.C. 441d. See MUR 2607. While a communication failure may have resulted in the omission of the requisite disclaimer, it does not vitiate the violation. Accordingly, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee and Gerald Wolanin, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a).

III. DISCUSSION OF CONCILIATION PROVISIONS AND CIVIL PENALTY¹

1. Mr. Wolanin has orally requested that the request for pre-probable cause conciliation be extended to include a reason to believe finding, if any, on the Section 441d issue.

IV. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Merge MUR 3078 into MUR 3155
2. Find reason to believe that the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee, and Gerald Wolanin, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d.
3. Enter into conciliation with the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee, and Gerald Wolanin, as treasurer, prior to a finding of probable cause to believe.
4. Approve the attached proposed conciliation agreement, legal and factual analysis and the appropriate letter.

RE: MUR 3155

Dear Mr. Wolanin:

On July 16, 1991, the Federal Election Commission found that there is reason to believe that the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee ("Committee") and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a), a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") in connection with an advertisement that appeared in a program booklet distributed by the Order of the Sons of Italy in America. The Factual and Legal Analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information. On the same date, the Commission also determined to merge this matter with MUR 3078. Both matters will now be known as MUR 3155. Please use this number on all future correspondence to the Commission.

Furthermore, at your request, on July 16, 1991, the Commission determined to enter into negotiations directed towards reaching a conciliation agreement in settlement of this matter prior to a finding of probable cause to believe. Enclosed is a conciliation agreement that the Commission has approved.

If you agree with the provisions of the enclosed agreement, please sign and return the agreement, along with the civil penalty, to the Commission. In light of the fact that conciliation negotiations, prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, are limited to a maximum of 30 days, you should respond to this notification as soon as possible.

In the Matter of

Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee, and Gerald Wolanin, as treasurer

) MUR 3155

CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

This matter was initiated by signed, sworn, and notarized complaints. The Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found reason to believe that the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee and Gerald Wolanin, as treasurer, ("Respondents"), violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(a)(2)(A), 434(a)(2)(B), 434(a)(6)(A), 434(b)(3)(A), 434(b)(5)(A) and 441d.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and the Respondents, having participated in informal methods of conciliation, prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, do hereby agree as follows:

I. The Commission has jurisdiction over the Respondents and the subject matter of this proceeding, and this agreement has the effect of an agreement entered pursuant to 2 U.S.C.

§ 437g(a)(4)(A)(i).

II. Respondents have had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken in this matter.

III. Respondents enter voluntarily into this agreement with the Commission.

IV. The pertinent facts in this matter are as follows:

1. The Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee is an authorized political committee within the meaning of 2 U.S.C. § 431(6). Ms. Mueller was a Republican candidate for Congress in 1986, 1988 and 1990.

2. Gerald Wolanin is the treasurer of the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee, and has served in that capacity since March 20, 1990. Mr. Wolanin did not participate in any of the activities of the Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee prior to assuming the duties of treasurer.

3. The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), at Section 434(a)(6) requires that the principal campaign committee of a candidate shall notify the Clerk, the Secretary, or the Commission, and the Secretary of State, as appropriate, in writing, of any contribution of $1,000 or more received by any authorized committee of such candidate after the 20th day, but more than 48 hours before, any election. This notification shall be made within 48 hours after the receipt of such contribution and shall include the name of the candidate and the office sought by the candidate, the identification of the contributor, and the date of receipt and amount of the contribution.

4. Respondents failed to report a $1,000 contribution received six days prior to the May 8, 1990 primary election within 48 hours of its receipt as required by 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6). Respondents also failed to timely file 48 hour reports for candidate contributions of $ 426,000 and an individual contribution of $2,000 received prior to the 1988 general election, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6).

5. Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(A), in any calendar year during which there is a regularly scheduled election for which a candidate is seeking election, or nomination for election, the treasurer shall file a pre-election report, which shall be filed no later than the 12th day before (or posted by registered or certified mail no later than the 15th day before) any election

6. Respondents violated the filing deadlines provided in 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(A) by the following acts:

(a) Respondents filed the 1988 July Quarterly Report disclosing $35,792 in receipts and $22,348 in disbursements on July 21, 1988, 6 days late.

(b) Respondents filed the 1988 October Quarterly Report disclosing $239,335 in receipts and $106,183 in disbursements on October 24, 1988, 9 days late.

(c) Respondents filed a Report covering the 1988 Post General Election Reporting period, on January 3, 1989, 26 days late, disclosing $243,757 in receipts and $204,669 in disbursements for that reporting period.

7. Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(B) in any calendar year in which there is no regularly scheduled election, a principal campaign committee is required to file a report covering the period beginning January 1 and ending June 30, which shall be filed no later than July 31; and a report covering the period beginning July 1 and ending December 31, which shall be filed no later than January 31 of the following calendar year.

8. Respondents violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(2)(B) by the following acts:

(a) Respondents filed the 1987 Year-End Report disclosing no receipts or disbursements for the reported period on February 3, 1988, 3 days late.

(b) Respondents filed the 1989 Mid-Year Report disclosing $8,554 in receipts and $14,558 in disbursements on July 9, 1990, 343 days late.

(c) Respondents filed the 1989 Year End Report disclosing no receipts and $99 in disbursements on July 9, 1990, 159 days late.

10. Respondents failed to provide identifying information for numerous contributors in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A).

14. A Mueller for Congress advertisement that appeared in the Order of the Sons of Italy in America, 1990 Columbus Day Celebration Journal, did not carry a disclaimer identifying who paid for it or whether it was authorized by the candidate or her committee in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441d(a).

V. Respondents will pay a civil penalty to the Federal Election Commission in the amount of five thousand dollars ($5000), pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(5)(A).

VI. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance with this agreement. If the Commission believes that this agreement or any requirement thereof has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

VII. This agreement shall become effective as of the date that all parties hereto have executed same and the Commission has approved the entire agreement.

VIII. Respondents shall have no more than 30 days from the date this agreement becomes effective to comply with and implement the requirements contained in this agreement and to so notify the Commission.

Re: MUR 3155
The matter of Margaret Mueller for Congress Committee and Gerald Wolanin, as Treasurer [Federal Election Complaint]

Ms. Cheryl Kornegay
Office General Counsel
Federal Elections Committee
999 E. St N.W.
Washington D.C. 20463

Dear Ms. Kornegay,

Statement for the Record:

1. The defendants have entered into a conciliation Agreement with the FEC re: the captioned matter for one reason only: lack of funds with which to pay legal fees of further contesting the complaints and in particular the amount of the fine.
2. The defendants and Margaret Mueller individually [who is not a defendant] adopt the stance nolo contendere: "I do not wish to argue " for reasons cited in 1. above.
3. The facts are admitted except for allegation no 4.- the only allegedly untimely reporting that took place after March 20 1990, the date Mr. Wolanin assumed the duty of Treasurer. Mr. Wolanin states that he mailed the subject's reports timely and has certified mail receipts to prove it. The FEC claims that mailings were untimely because they did not receive them within the specified date. No constructive receipt as would be the case if the matter were one of mailing tax payments to the IRS. Why?
4. The only other transgression recited during Mr. Wolanin's term of duty was that set forth in Par. 14- no disclaimer in the ad. Mr. Wolanin did not place the ad and had no knowledge thereof.
5. The over-riding question remains: Why is the FEC pursuing this complaint against Mr. Wolanin of all people and a "Committee" for a 1988 election which lacks funds to pay the fine without a gift from Mueller individually to protect an innocent Wolanin? Why?

Yours truly,

Margaret R. Mueller
