RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL COUNSEL
90 AUG 15 PM 3:00

The Democratic Party of Georgia (DPG) alleges that:

- 1) Sam Jones and his campaign committee, Friends of Sam Jones, conspired with Harold Mays and others to circumvent federal campaign finance law by laundering cash contributions by Harold Mays in excess of federal limits through the use of Mays's employees.
- 2) Sam Jones and his campaign committee failed to report major in-kind contributions from Harold Mays in the form of materials and distribution and erection crews for large plywood signs placed across the Tenth Congressional District during the Republican Primary campaign.

The following constitute the bases for these allegations:

1) Detailed information regarding these allegations was provided during the month of June by an individual who, while declining to provide his name, identified himself as an employee of Harold Mays. Between June 25 and July 12, the individual called and spoke to me and my staff assistant, Harry Bainbridge, approximately every other day. In his initial call, the individual stated that he had recently become aware that his name appeared on the Friends of Sam Jones FEC disclosure of April 15, 1990. This FEC disclosure covers the period between January 1, 1990 through March 31, 1990 and was filed with the FEC on April 14, 1990. He said that he was alarmed by this revelation because he had never personally contributed to the organization and further stated that he firmly believed that the contribution so listed had been made by Harold Mays. The individual stated that he was incensed at being portrayed as an ardent supporter of a candidate whom he did not support, but that he was fearful of being fired if he failed to go along with his employer's scheme. He also stated that he was concerned that federal law was apparently being violated and that his name was involved.

2) Following receipt of the aforementioned information, DPG staff reviewed Sam Jones's FEC disclosure covering the period of January 1, 1990 through March 31, 1990. This examination shows a listing of the following $1,000 by employees of Harold Mays to Friends of Sam Jones:

RAY ADAMS ($1,000)	MANAGER, MAYS EQUIPMENT
VINCENT GUOBAITIS ($1,000)	MANAGER, MAYS EQUIPMENT
MURL MEYER ($1,000)	SECRETARY, REX AUTO PARTS
THOMAS STYCZYNSKI ($1,000)	AIRPORT MANAGER, THOMSON AVIATION

3) Subsequent to his initial call, the individual called and provided additional information regarding these allegations. In one call, he said that Harold Mays was assisting Sam Jones's campaign by erecting large plywood signs across the Tenth Congressional District, particularly in Gwinnett County. In fact, the individual stated on at least two occasions that he was calling from Gwinnett County where he was participating in the sign erection effort. For a period of approximately two weeks, the individual called us on a regular basis and stated that he and other Mays employees were being used for these purposes. He stated that Mays had three paid crews of two employees each in the field erecting signs. He also stated that Mays had a supply truck and driver shuttling back and forth to a location in Augusta where materials for the signs were assembled. This information, combined with the facts that Harold Mays contributed $1,000 to the campaign on January 27, 1990, and that the campaign listed a total of only $750 in expenditures and obligations to Mays between January 1, 1990 and July 2, 1990 clearly indicates that Mays exceeded federal contribution limits with respect to the Sam Jones campaign for the Republican primary.

4) Based on the information provided by the individual described above, the Respondents have committed the following violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act:

- 1) Making contributions in the name of another, and/or helping or assisting others to make such contributions, in violation of 2 U.S.C. S441f and the Federal Election Commission's regulations, 11 CFR S110.4(b);
- 2) Making contributions in violation of the limitations of Federal Election Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. S441a and the Commission's regulations, 11 CFR S110.1;
- 3) Failure to report in-kind contributions to the Friends of Sam Jones Committee in connection with a primary election for federal office, in violation of the Commission's regulations, 11 CFR SS104.3, 104.13.

Charles Schroder
Executive Director,
Democratic Party of Georgia

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 15th day of August 1990.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL COUNSEL

91040865127

The Democratic Party of Georgia (DPG) alleges that:

1) Sam Jones and his campaign committee, Friends of Sam Jones, knowingly received and Harold Mays knowingly made in-kind corporate contributions through Rex Auto Parts, an Augusta, Georgia business owned by Mr. Mays. These corporate contributions were made in the form of custodial services provided to the Sam Jones campaign headquarters at 2605 Washington Road, Augusta, Georgia between mid-May and August 21, 1990.

The basis for this allegation is a newspaper article which appeared in the Augusta Chronicle on August 22, 1990 and was written by reporter Linda Day. A copy of this article is attached and labeled Exhibit A.

In the article, Ms. Day stated that she went to the Sam Jones campaign headquarters on Tuesday, August 21 and observed an employee of Rex Auto Parts, Michael Berkman, in the process of removing trash from the site.

Ms. Day further reported that Mr. Berkman said, "(Mr. Mays) told me personally to go by every week and pick up the trash. I come over and pick up the trash once a week. I'm just doing my job." Ms. Day also reported that Mr. Berkman said that he was not a campaign volunteer and that he had been picking up the trash at the headquarters since mid-May.

Ms. Day also reported that a former employee of Harold Mays, Wayne Davis, also stated that he had picked up trash from the Sam Jones campaign headquarters and said that this was one of the reasons that he quit his job after a year and a half as a Mays employee.

Of particular interest in the article is Mr. Mays's recorded statement that "I hadn't thought to (charge Mr. Jones) but I guess I'll have to now". This statement confirms that Mr. Mays's had been supplying in-kind services through one of his corporations and reveals that he intended to continue to make such illegal in-kind contributions if he had not been caught at it.

A second statement of interest in Ms. Day's article is that reportedly made by Sam Jones's campaign manager, Scott Place. Ms. Day reported that Mr. Place said he wasn't aware that Mr. Mays had an employee picking up garbage for the campaign. Mr. Place reportedly further said "Anytime that Harold Mays has done something for the campaign we've paid for it. If this kid's time costs money, we'll pay for it."

I believe that Mr. Place did know who was responsible for picking up the trash at the Sam Jones campaign headquarters and that the service had monetary value. His statement again reveals a willingness by those involved to comply with Federal campaign finance law only when forced to do so by public scrutiny.

2) Sam Jones and his campaign committee, Friends of Sam Jones, have conspired to conceal the source of in-kind utility payments in the form of telephone and electric service for the campaign. An examination of the committee's FEC disclosure statements covering the period January 1 through June 27, 1990 show no expenditures for these items.

That a Congressional campaign in a district stretching over approximately 140 miles would not incur significant telephone costs is inconceivable. I believe that the campaign has incurred significant telephone costs during the period covered by the aforementioned FEC disclosures and has attempted to handle the costs as unreported in-kind contributions.

Furthermore, it is also inconceivable that a campaign would not incur any electrical bills. Electricity is necessary in running any office. During the months of May and June I believe that the electrical bills would be significant due to air conditioning costs. I believe that the campaign has incurred significant electrical costs during the period covered by the aforementioned FEC disclosures and has attempted to handle the costs as unreported in-kind contributions.

2) Based on the above information, the Respondents have committed the following violation of the Code of Federal Regulations:

- 1) Making contributions in violation of 11 CFR 114.2 (b) which states:

"any corporation whatever or any labor organization is prohibited from making a contribution or expenditure, as defined in §114.1(a) in connection with any Federal election.";

- 2) Failure to report in-kind contributions to the Friends of Sam Jones Committee in connection with a primary election for federal office, in violation of the Commission's regulations, 11 CFR SS104.3, 104.13.

The Democratic Party of Georgia (DPG) requests that the Federal Election Commission audit:

- 1) All personal bank and checking accounts and trust funds of Harold Mays;

- 2) All business bank and checking accounts and trust funds of Harold Mays including:
- 1) Mays International Trucking;
 - 2) Mays Equipment Company;
 - 3) Rex Auto Parts;
 - 4) Thomson Aviation;
- 3) All personal bank and checking accounts and trust funds of Sam Jones;
- 4) All bank and checking accounts of the Friends of Sam Jones organization.

We believe that an investigation of these records will yield evidence pertaining to the complaint filed against Sam Jones, the Friends of Sam Jones, and Harold Mays in regards to alleged money laundering from Harold Mays through his employees to the Sam Jones campaign.

Mays admits using his employee for campaign

By Linda Day
Staff Writer

Harold Mays, the Augusta businessman who denied last week using his employees in Sam Jones' Republican congressional bid, admitted Tuesday that at least one of his employees has done some work for the campaign.

A former employee has said he also worked for the campaign, and cited it as one of the reasons he quit his job.

On Tuesday, one of Mr. Mays' employees, Michael Berkman, was spotted taking garbage away from Mr. Jones' Washington Road campaign headquarters.

"(Mr. Mays) told me personally to go by every week and pick up the trash. I come over and pick up the trash once a week. I'm just doing my job," Mr. Berkman said.

Mr. Berkman, who was wearing a blue uniform shirt with a Rex Auto Parts label on the chest, stood next to a white Mitsubishi pickup truck loaded with five bags of garbage.

He said he is not a campaign volunteer, but has been picking up the trash at Mr. Jones' Washington Road campaign headquarters since the campaign moved there in mid-May.

But his employer, Harold Mays, who owns Rex Auto Parts, Mays International Trucks, Mays Equipment Co. and Thomson Aviation, said Mr. Berkman has picked the trash up only a couple of times.

Mr. Jones' campaign manager, Scott Place, said he wasn't aware that Mr. Mays had an employee picking up garbage for the campaign.

"Anytime that Harold Mays has done something, we've paid for it," he said. "If this kid's time costs money, we'll pay for it."

A former Rex Auto Parts employee, Wayne Davis, said he also had picked up trash from the Jones campaign headquarters, and said it was one of the reasons he quit his job after nearly 1½ years as a Mays employee.

Workers say company time was wasted

"I didn't want to get in the middle of it," he said. "I went over there and picked up trash a couple of times and Mike and I picked up some furniture and took it to a small place at Mays International."

"I didn't think it was right because I'm not backing Sam Jones. I didn't feel it was right to use company time."

Mr. Mays said, "I hadn't thought to (charge Mr. Jones) but I guess I'll have to now."

Because Mr. Mays had not charged the campaign, his employees' services could be viewed as either a contribution from a corporation, which is prohibited in federal elections, or an in-kind contribution.

Mr. Mays is prohibited from providing the campaign with in-kind contributions because he has already contributed the maximum $1,000 to Mr. Jones' campaign.

His contributions toward Mr. Jones' bid to unseat Democratic Rep. Doug Barnard from his 10th Congressional District post already have been brought into question by the Georgia Democratic Party, which filed a complaint with the Federal Elections Commission in Washington, D.C., last week.

Mr. Jones, his campaign committee and Mr. Mays were named in a complaint charging Mr. Mays with laundering $4,000 in campaign contributions through four of his employees. It also says he used his workers to erect Mr. Jones' signs in Richmond, Columbia and Gwinnett counties without charging the campaign for the work.

Mr. Mays has denied the charges and said he has not told any of his other employees to do any work for the Jones campaign.

Mr. Mays said that Mr. Place agreed to pay him $7.50 every time Mr. Berkman or any of his employees pick up the trash.

But such a deal could raise problems with the federal campaign finance laws, said Fred Eiland, spokesman for the Federal Elections Commission, which polices federal campaign finance laws.

"When a vendor does something, if it's over $500 (worth of services or goods) and not paid within 30 days it does have to be identified as a debt," he said.

"Anything under $500 not paid in under 60 days would have to be identified as outstanding."

"The debts have to be reported continuously until they are paid off."

There is no note of the debt in Mr. Jones' campaign disclosures for April or in the July report filed with the Secretary of State's office.

Federal Elections Commission
Office of General Council
Attn.: Deborah Curry
Washington, DC 20463

Ref: MUR 3112

Ms. Curry:

This letter is my response to a complaint filed by the Democratic Party of Georgia, Mr. Charles Schroder as its executive director.

I have received a complaint and amendment addressed to Harold Mays, owner-Mays Equipment Rental Company; also another addressed to Harold Mays. Since my companies, Mays Equipment, Rex Auto Parts, Mays International Truck Sales are owned by myself as sole proprietorship and all complaints carry the same reference number, MUR 3112, I hope this one response will be sufficient.

The first complaint of using my employees names as contributors without their knowledge is a lie. Enclosed are statements and copies of their personal checks that they contributed to Friends of Sam Jones. Ray Adams should be listed as General Manager of Mays International Truck Sales; Murl N. Meyer should be listed as office manager of Rex Auto Parts Company.

The second charge of my employees putting up signs is also a lie. The signs were put up by staff members and volunteers.

According to the complaint, one of the four persons listed had to be the so called "phone caller", and also the person putting up the signs. It doesn't make any sense that I contribute, use an employee's name, a department head no less, and send him out to put up signs in Gwinnett County.

RECEIVED

The amended complaint, based on a news story in the Augusta Chronicle has some facts that are correct, but has several omissions and errors.

Sam Jones' headquarters is a rented house, two bedroom, one bath located at 2605 Washington Road. Having a "small operation" the headquarters did not accumulate much trash, mostly newspapers, and I personally was hauling off the trash and putting it in the dumpster at my store. The night after the Primary, July 18th, we had a "victory" party. The 19th, when I started to load the bags, I thought since I have a delivery man coming within 100 feet of the house, why don't I get him to check on the trash once a week. I instructed my employee, Michael Berkman, to check on the trash once a week only when he was in that area, and to put the trash in the dumpster at the store. I did not think of this as any monetary value and certainly do not feel this qualifies Mr. Berkman as a campaign worker. Mr. Scott Place, Sam Jones' campaign manager was not aware of who and when the trash was being removed and when brought to his attention insisted that I bill the campaign for this service, which I have at $7.50 per pick-up. After checking with Mike and Wayne, the first pick-up was on July 19th, with Mike picking up three times, Mike and Wayne picking-up one time, and Wayne one time for a total of five times. I did not instruct Wayne to pick-up, Mike did that on his own. Also, Wayne had only worked for Rex Auto Parts since May 7, 1990. The reason Wayne gave his supervisor for quitting was different from the paper story.

To sum up the answers to the amended complaint:

Rex Auto Parts is not a corporation.

The first trash pick up was July 19, 1990.

The campaign has been billed for 5 pick-ups at $7.50 ea.

The house rent, $900.00 per month, includes gas, water and electricity. Even though Ms. Day's story confirmed this with the Landlord, Mr. Norman (not Nick as she printed) Boulus, Mr. Schroder still makes a complaint of this rent payment.

It is my understanding that the phone bills were temporary misplaced; phones at different locations than bills were addressed to, but have since been paid. The Campaign Committee will furnish more details on these matters.

I see both of these complaints as nothing more than harassments by a candidate who use to be a personal friend, but has turned very mad and vindictive toward me, since I cannot force myself to support a Congressman with such a lousy record as Mr. Barnard. Immediately after the first disclosure reports of Sam Jones were available, my employees and I, at last count, have received 71 phone calls asking, "why, how, did you, force to, what reason, etc., did you contribute to Sam Jones' campaign. We had people to come to our places of business, questioning employees, following employees, casing the locations and intimidating my people and even my family members at their homes. These people say they are reporters, researchers, investigators and usually when asked for identification, they would hang up the phone or leave the property.

I hope this letter and the one from Sam Jones' Campaign Committee will answer and resolve all complaints.

Thank you,

Harold Mays

To Whom It May Concern:

It is with concern that I am writing this letter. In recent weeks I and also my office have been plagued with phone calls from people who would not properly identify themselves when requested to do so, or would hang up, concerning my contribution to the Friends of Sam Jones. This act tends to make me believe that the calling parties are someone connected with the Democratic Party, since they would have muck to gain if they could discredit Sam Jones or his supporters. These tactics, as we all known do not work well when there is nothing to substantiate claims and usually backfire on the user.

I do not like to disclose my finances, but in the matter I have personally contributed $1,000.00 to the Friends of Sam Jones. I also plan to do what I can to help support Sam Jones in whatever degree I can. Georgia need a Congressman like Sam Jones.

RE: MUR 3112

Dear Ms. Curry:

Thank you for the opportunity to address the complaints of the Georgia Democrat Party. I believe these complaints are a smoke screen to the real issues of the campaign. I want to address each of the accusations listed in the original complaint and the amended version.

Laundering Campaign Contributions - On August 17, 1990, I called a news conference with the four contributors to my campaign who are accused by the Georgia Democrat Party of making contributions with money given to them by Harold Mays for the purpose of laundering his money. Each of the four supporters made statements to the press, and answered reporters' questions. They produced sworn statements that they had not laundered campaign funds and produced copies of the checks and FEC disclosures to prove our position. I have never known Harold Mays to be unethical in any situation - he is an honorable man. He serves as the chairman of the "Friends of Sam Jones" committee. I do not believe that he laundered money through his employees at all. The accusation is untrue.

Work Crews of Harold Mays Erecting Campaign Signs - The signs were erected by paid campaign staffers Bill Adams and Phil Foil and volunteer workers. Mr. Mays organization billed (noted in the FEC disclosures) this campaign for materials and other items he procured for sign construction. There is no truth whatever in this accusation.

Garbage Pick Up - I had no knowledge of or agreement with Harold Mays or his company to pick up garbage at our Headquarters. I, along with other volunteers, have taken garbage from there with no thought of violating FEC rules.

After Mr. Schroder filed his complaint, I learned that Mr. Mays did instruct his delivery man to go by our Headquarters when he was in the area (about once per week) and check on the trash. I was told that he picked up garbage bags on five occasions. There was certainly no intent to violate any law, otherwise we would not carry out the act in front of a newspaper reporter. Not long after we received the original complaint, the landlord from whom we rent our headquarter building told me that garbage pick up was included in the rental cost. I instructed my campaign manager to take care of the garbage pick up. He had paid $7.50 for each of the five pick ups.

Utility Bill Payments from an Illegal Source - Mr. A. S. Quinn, our Treasurer has included copies of submitted and paid utility bills since the opening of our Headquarters. Again, there is absolutely no truth in this accusation.

We are a small campaign running against giants. We will do the right thing and the ethical thing. If we make a mistake we will correct it.

I respectfully request that this issue be resolved as quickly as possible because the people of the 10th District need to know. Also, know of my willingness to work with you to resolve this matter.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Sam Jones

A. S. Quinn
Responding as Treasurer:

MUR 3112

Accusation 1

Knowingly receiving illegal in-kind contributions from Rex Auto Parts and/or Harold Mays for "custodial services".

Several Campaign volunteers have hauled away trash in their privately owned vehicles since the beginning of this campaign. The thought of the paid and volunteer campaign staff is to pitch in and help wherever housekeeping is needed in and around the campaign headquarters. It should be noted also that I have personally seen Mr. Mays load trash from our garbage cans into his own automobile.

Mr. Norman Boulus, owner and landlord of the building where our campaign headquarters is located, told the Candidate all that was needed was to put our trash in his dumpster between his building and ours
(Mr. Boulus runs a business next door to our headquarters). The cost of trash removal is actually covered in the rent payment.

91040865165

Obviously, there has been no intent on anyone's part to circumvent any FEC law. After the primary, apparently we had a much larger amount of trash than usual to be removed, and unbeknownst to me or any other paid or volunteer staff member, Mr Mays had one of his delivery men pick up the trash. This campaign has asked for and received billing for five trash pickups @ $7.50 each.

Accusation #2

Concealing sources of in-kind contributions for campaign telephone and power expenses.

a. Telephone charges

The original campaign telephone number (404/733-9616) was the Candidate's business telephone number. From the first day the headquarters was opened until June of 1990, all telephone charges were paid by Sam Jones, since that time the listing has been changed. In July, 1990, a telephone system was installed in the Augusta headquarters using the numbers 404/736-4700 and 404/733-9616. The Gwinnett County headquarters telephone Number is 404/717-0492. All are listings for the Sam Jones Campaign.

Charges for the above numbers were billed in July, 1990 and paid during that month from the campaign checking account. Copies of bill are attached. It should also be noted that all deposits for that 736-4700 listing were made before the second line was installed.

b. Electricity charges

All charges for electricity have been paid to the owner/landlord of the headquarters building, along with rent and water payments. Both water and power bills are sent to the landlord and the campaign is billed for them. Copies are attached.

Accusation 3

Conspiracy to accept "laundered" campaign contributions from Harold Mays through certain of his employees.

91040865167

This campaign received in normal fashion personal checks from each of the four individuals listed in the complaint by Mr. Schroder. Each of these persons stated publicly in the media that they had made the contributions of their own free will, and that they had received no funds from Harold Mays with which they were to make contributions. Copies of their sworn statements and copies of their cancelled checks are also attached.

910408865168

Accusation 4

Failure to report in-kind contributions from Harold Mays for labor and materials to erect campaign signs through the 10th District of Georgia.

Materials for the signs and chargers for the truck used to transport materials to erect campaign signs were billed by Mr. Mays organization and are carried as liabilities on Federal Election Commission reports, as they should be. All work was done by campaign staff members and volunteers.

The Democratic Party of Georgia (DPG) alleges that:

1) Sam Jones and his campaign committee, Friends of Sam Jones, conspired with Harold Mays to circumvent federal campaign finance law by laundering cash contributions by Harold Mays in excess of federal limits through the use of names of non-existent individuals.

The following constitute to basis for these allegations:

1) A Mary Mays is listed on the April 15th quarterly campaign contribution disclosure of the Friends of Sam Jones Committee as follows:

NAME	EMPLOYER/OCCUPATION	DATE	AMOUNT
MARY MAYS	NONE	1/27/90	$1000
1233 GORDON PARK RD	HOMEMAKER
AUGUSTA, GA 30901
	YTD TOTAL
FOR: PRIMARY			$1000.00

2) Upon investigation, the Democratic Party of Georgia discovered that the address listed for Mary Mays was that of Rex Auto Parts, a business owned by Harold Mays. A call was made to Rex Auto Parts on October 3, 1990. The phone was answered by a man who identified himself as "L.J." I asked to speak with Mary Mays. L.J. stated that he did not know a Mary Mays and in fact had never heard of Mary Mays. He said that the business (Rex Auto Parts) was owned by Harold Mays and that a woman named Murl worked there, but that her last name was not Mays. I asked again if he had ever heard of Mary Mays. He said no. I asked if he considered himself to be in a position to know if there had been a Mary Mays associated with that address or the business. He replied that "I guess so because I have worked here for 26 years."

3) The address given on said disclosure for Mary Mays is identical to the address given for Harold Mays.

4) Based on the above information, the Respondents have committed the following violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act:

- 1) Making contributions in the name of another, and/or helping or assisting others to make such contributions, in violation of 2 U.S.C. S441f and the Federal Election Commission's regulations, 11 CFR S110.4(b);
- 2) Making contributions in violation of the limitations of Federal Election Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. S441 and the Commission's regulations, 11 CFR S110.1.
- 3) Accepting contributions made in the name of another in violation of the Federal Election Commission's regulations 11 CFR S103.3(b) and 11 CFR S103.3(b)(2).

- 4) Each treasurer of a political committee, and any other person required to file any report or statement under these regulations and under the Act, shall be personally responsible for the timely and complete filing of the report or statement and for the accuracy of any information or statement contained in it as stated in the Federal Election Commission's regulations 11CFR 104.14(d).

The treasurer is obligated to check to make certain that, in cases of a check drawn on a joint checking account, the contributor is considered to be the owner whose signature appears on the check as stated in the Federal Election Commission's regulation 11CFR 9034.2(c)(1).

If the manner in which this contribution is reported is a simple error, the campaign and campaign officials have had ample time for correction. However, I believe this contribution and the manner in which it was reported is an attempt to circumvent federal campaign finance law.

Complaint, Friends of Sam Jones
Additional Information

Dear Ms. Curry:

Today this Campaign received your letter about the additional complaint from the Democratic Party of Georgia.

As Treasurer, I must accept responsibility for accurate reporting to the FEC. Below is a description of how this error occurred.

1. When recording the contribution for "Mary Mays", Volunteers who record contributions are instructed not to necessarily use the name of the person whose name is captioned at the upper left corner of the check. This procedure is used since the person whose name is signed in the signature block may not be the person whose name appears on the check, as in the case of a joint family checking account. Please refer to the attached photocopy of the actual cashier's check presented by and FOR Rex Mays. This check was clearly intended as a contribution for Rex Mays.
2. The Bank official signing the actual check last name could be interpreted as many different names such as "Mayes", "Hayes", "Noyes", "Rayes", etc. The signature is simply not clear.
3. The complainant even admits that this may be a simple error, which it is. On the 15 of October I faxed a letter to Emily Leonard outlining how this error occurred and listing two other minor changes which occurred early in the campaign.

Note, please, that I asked Ms. Leonard if I should file an amended return. As of today I have received no response from her or anyone else concerning this letter.

There has never been any effort by me or any other volunteer or paid member of the Sam Jones for U. S. Congress to circumvent any law of any kind. This was simply an error for which I must take responsibility.

I regret that this error occurred, however, the Democratic Party of Georgia has used the FEC on more than one occasion in this campaign as a political tool to harass this campaign. This additional complaint, too, is groundless and without merit.

Sincerely,

A. S. Quinn

Dear Ms. Leonard:

The purpose of this letter is to notify your office of a change only recently noted on the April 15, 1990 FEC Disclosure statement.

I am attaching copies of the appropriate sheets bearing changes as follows.

1. Schedule A, Page 1 of 4, for line number 11(a)1 item #1 beginning "Ray M. Adams...". His occupation should read Mays International Trucks , Manager.
2. Schedule A, Page 2 of 4, for line number 11(a)1 item #10 beginning "Mary Mays..." (photocopy attached). This should read Rex Mays, occupation Salesman, Mays International Trucks. This error was made by a volunteer while putting together written information received with the Rex Mays check. Rex Mays withdrew money from his bank account and had a Cashier's check drawn against his account. The person who signed the check was, by coincidence, named Mary W. Mayes.
3. Schedule A, Page 2 of 4, for line number 11(a)1 item #11 beginning "Murl Meyer ...". Mrs. Meyer's occupation should read Office Manager.

Please notify me if an amended return will be required.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Noble,

I am responding to the above numbered complaint, although I am told the Sam Jones for Congress has some time back filed an amendment to correct a mistake made by a volunteer while listing the names of donors.

As the enclosed copies of the checks and donor cards should prove that an understandable error was made by the person listing donations. I feel this should be a proper response.

Rex Mays made the donation as the notation on the left hand corner designates and again I was told this error was found and amended a good time back.

RE: Friends of Sam Jones
Candidate's Response
MUR 3112

RECEIVED
FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE CLERK
90 NOV 15 AM 10:40

Dear Ms. Curry:

I am pleased to respond to further allegations made by the Democratic Party of Georgia.

The item concerning Mary Mays was, simply put, a clerical error. The volunteer(s) who processed the contribution in question are instructed to not only go by the name of the contributor printed on the upper left hand corner, but to check the signature on the lower right corner of the check. If there is a discrepancy in names, the name in the signature block will be the one deemed to be the contributor.

If one looks at the check in question he/she will see that the signature looks as though it could be Mary Noyes, Mary Hays, Mary Rayes, etc., etc. The volunteer deemed it to be Mary Mays.

Let me state that there was certainly no intent to record this contribution incorrectly. As soon as we found out about the error, our Treasurer sent a letter to your office inquiring about the procedure to follow to rectify the mistake.

Undeniably, this is another politically motivated allegation. I believe that our people have performed very well in handling our campaign financial affairs. These charges from the Democrat Party are groundless and totally without merit.

Sincerely,

Samuel R. Jones

I. GENERATION OF THE MATTER

This matter was initiated by a complaint filed by Charles Schroder, Executive Director, of Georgia Democratic Party.
The complaint is against Sam R. Jones, Harold Mays and Friends of Sam Jones and A.S. Quinn, as treasurer (hereinafter "Jones Committee"). (Attachment 1, page 1). Since the allegations implicated another respondent, this office also sent a notification to Mays Equipment Rental Company. Subsequently, complainant filed an amendment to the complaint and included a new respondent, Rex Auto Parts. (Attachment 2, page 27). Due to the nature of the allegations, this office also sent notifications to Mays International Trucking and Thomson Aviation. Later, complainant filed an additional amendment to the complaint. (Attachment 3, page 33). Due to the nature of the allegations, this Office also sent a notification of complaint to Mary Mays.

Respondents filed responses that addressed the allegations raised by complainant in both the complaint and the first amendment to the complaint. (Jones Committee - Attachment 4, page 36; Sam J. Jones - Attachment 5, page 54; Harold Mays - Attachment 6, page 56). Subsequently, Respondents submitted additional responses to complainant's final amendment. (Jones Committee - Attachment 7, page 72; Sam R. Jones - Attachment 8, page 80; and Harold Mays - Attachment 9, page 83).

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Allegations

As noted, the allegations in the complaints were filed against Sam Jones, Friends of Sam Jones and Harold Mays. Sam R. Jones was a candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives in the Tenth Congressional District of Georgia. Georgia held its primary election on July 17, 1990, and its general election on November 6, 1990. Harold Mays is a businessman in Georgia and he owns several unincorporated businesses including: Mays Equipment Rental Company, Rex Auto Parts, Thomson Aviation and Mays International Trucking.

91040865204

According to the initial complaint, during the month of June an informant, who identified himself only as an employee of Harold Mays, contacted the complainant and indicated that he had become aware that his name was listed on Sam Jones' FEC disclosure reports of April 15, 1990. (Attachment 1, page 1). During the telephone conversation, the informant indicated that he had never contributed to Sam Jones and that he believed the contribution listed was actually made by Harold Mays. (Attachment 1, page 2).

Complainant has submitted FEC disclosure reports for the Jones Committee which show contributions to the Jones Committee by the following employees:

Ray Adams ($1,000)	Manager, Mays Equipment
Vincent Guobaitis ($1,000)	Manager, Mays Equipment
Murl Meyer ($1,000)	Secretary, Rex Auto Parts
Thomas Styczynski ($1,000)	Airport Manager, Thomson Aviation

According to the complaint, the informant indicated his non-support for Sam R. Jones along with his fears of being fired if he did not go along with his employer's scheme. Based on this information, complainant alleges a violation of the Act by respondents making contributions in the name of another or helping and assisting others to make such contributions.

Furthermore, complainant alleges that respondents violated the Act by making excessive in-kind contributions and by failing to report these in-kind contributions. This allegation is premised on information provided by the informant indicating that Harold Mays was assisting the Jones Committee by erecting large plywood signs in the Tenth District, primarily in Guinnett County. Informant stated that on two occasions he was called to Guinnett County to participate in the sign erection effort. (Attachment 1, page 2). The informant asserted that Harold Mays had used three paid crews (two employees each) to erect the signs and had supplied a truck and driver to go back and forth to a location in Augusta where materials for the signs were assembled.

Complainant believes that the violations at issue are all the more credible because of the fact that Mr. Mays had already contributed $1,000 to the campaign on January 27, 1990, and only $750 was listed in the Jones Committee's FEC disclosure reports as expenditures and obligations to Harold Mays.

Complainant's first amendment to the initial complaint added two more allegations to the complaint. (Attachment 2, page 27). First, the amendment alleges that Sam Jones and his committee knowingly received, and that Harold Mays knowingly made, in-kind corporate contributions through Rex Auto Parts, a business owned by Mr. Mays. According to the complaint, these in-kind corporate contributions were made in the form of custodial services provided by Harold Mays and Rex Auto Parts to the Jones Committee at its headquarters in Augusta, Georgia between mid-May and August 21, 1990.

Complainant bases his allegation on a newspaper article submitted with the amendment to the complaint. (Attachment 2, pages 31-32). According to the newspaper article, a Rex Auto Parts employee was observed removing trash from the Jones Committee's campaign headquarters. The article indicated that the

Mays employee was personally instructed by Mr. Mays to pick up trash at the headquarters once a week.

Complainant also alleges in the first amendment to the complaint that Sam Jones and the Jones Committee have conspired to conceal the source of in-kind utility payments. (Attachment 3, page 29). Complainant points out that the disclosure reports of the Jones Committee do not reveal expenditures for telephone and electricity. Complainant believes that the absence of utility bills for the Jones Committee is unreasonable because air conditioning costs increase in warm weather and the size of the congressional district would increase telephone usage.

Based on the foregoing, complainant alleges violations of the prohibitions on corporate contributions or expenditures and violation of the reporting requirements of the Act. Complainant requests that the Commission audit the personal bank accounts and trust funds of Harold Mays along with the business accounts of his companies. (Attachment 2, pages 29-30).

The final amendment to the complaint contained allegations that Sam Jones and his campaign committee conspired with Harold Mays to launder cash contributions through the use of nonexistent individuals. (Attachment 3, page 33). The basis for the allegation is the listing of a $1,000 contribution from Mary Mays on the Jones Committee's April Quarterly Report.

(Attachment 3, page 34). Investigation by the Democratic Party of Georgia revealed that the address listed for Mary Mays was identical to the address of Rex Auto Parts, a business owned by Harold Mays. Telephone inquiry to Rex Auto Parts indicated that no one at that address knew of the existence of Mary Mays. The complainant concludes, therefore, that a violation of the Act prohibiting the making and acceptance of contributions made in the name of another has occurred. Additionally, Complainant alleges that the contribution limits of the Act have also been exceeded.

B. Responses to the Complaint and First Amendment to the Complaint

The initial submissions of the Jones Committee, Sam R. Jones and Harold Mays responded to allegations contained in both the initial complaint and the first amendment to the complaint.

(Attachments 4, 5, 6). The submissions of the Jones Committee and Sam R. Jones were submitted under oath. The response of Harold Mays was submitted on behalf of Mr. Mays and his companies (Mays Equipment, Rex Auto Parts and Mays International Truck Sales). (Attachment 6, page 56).

1. Contributions in the name of another

Responses of the Jones Committee, Mr. Jones and Harold Mays deny that the four individuals in question made contributions with funds given to them by Harold Mays. (Attachment 4, pages 38-39; Attachment 5, page 54; and Attachment 6, page 56). According to the responses, each of the contributors have already made statements to the press and reporters indicating that they made these contributions of their own free will and without the funds of Harold Mays. In support of this contention, the submissions of the Jones Committee and Harold Mays contain affidavits, as attachments, from the four contributors and copies of their canceled checks to the Jones Committee. (Attachment 4, pages 41-48; Attachment 6, pages 60-64).

Generally, the affidavits indicate that the four contributors (Ray Adams, Vincent K. Guobaitus, Murl Meyer and Thomas Styczynski) made personal contributions or donations of $1,000 to Friends of Sam Jones. The language of the affidavits also indicates that the contributions were freely made and without coercion from any person. (Attachment 4, pages 41-48). The affidavits do not, however, specifically address the issue of whether the contributions were subsequently reimbursed by Harold Mays.

With the exception of the cashier's check of Thomas Styczynski, the checks submitted were drawn on the personal account of the contributor. The amount of each check was $1,000 and dates of the checks in question were: January 25, 1990; January 26, 1990; March 28, 1990 and March 29, 1990.

2. Other Allegations

a. Trash Pick-up

Responses to the complaint and the first amendment to the complaint do not dispute that an employee of Mr. Mays, at his personal instruction, picked up trash from the Jones Headquarters on several occasions. (Attachment 4, page 36; Attachment 5, pages 54-55; and Attachment 6, page 56). According to Mr. Mays, after the July 18th primary he asked an employee, Michael Berkman, to check on the trash once a week when he was in that area. (Attachment 6, page 57). Mr. Mays states that the first trash pick-up was July 19th and that the trash was picked up by Berkman and another employee a total of five times. Mr. Mays indicates that because there was not much trash he did not consider his action to have monetary value. Mr. Mays states that the campaign was not aware of the trash pick up. Id. After the matter came to light, however, the Jones Committee requested billings for the services. Subsequently, Mr. Mays billed the Jones Committee at $7.50 per pickup.

The Jones Committee and Sam Jones also contend that they had no knowledge of Mr. Mays' agreement with his employees to pick up trash at the campaign's headquarters. (Attachment 5, pages 54-55) and Attachment 4, pages 36-37). The Jones Committee and Sam Jones note that after the filing of the complaint, the landlord of their campaign headquarters told them that trash pickup was included in the rent. Id. As noted, the Jones Committee has asked for and received a billing from Mr. Mays for five trash pickups at $7.50 each.

b. Utility Charges

All responses contend that utility bills have been paid by the Jones Committee. (Attachment 4, pages 37-38; Attachment 5, page 55; and Attachment 6, page 58). According to the Jones Committee, the original campaign telephone number was the candidate's business telephone number. (Attachment 4, page 37). The Jones Committee indicates that from the day the headquarters was open until June, 1990, all telephone charges were paid by Sam Jones. Id. The Jones Committee state that in July the listing was changed when a new telephone system (two numbers) was installed in the Augusta headquarters. Additionally, the Jones campaign had a telephone listed for the Guinnett County

Headquarters. All telephones numbers became listings for the Jones Campaign.

The Jones Committee states that it was billed in July 1990 by the telephone company and that these bills were paid during that month from the Committee's checking account. Copies of the June and July bills were attached. Copies of checks, however, were not submitted.

With respect to other utilities, the Jones Committee states that electrical charges were paid to the landlord along with rent and water payments. (Attachment 4, page 38). According to the Jones Committee, water and power bills were sent to the landlord and the campaign was later billed for these items by the landlord. Id. Copies of bills to the landlord for electricity and water were submitted. (Attachment 4, pages 52-53). A notation on the water bill indicates that the Jones Committee paid the bill. Id.

c. Sign Erection

Submissions by respondents deny that employees of Harold Mays erected campaign signs in the Tenth Congressional District of Georgia. (Attachment 4, pages 39-40; Attachment 5, page 54; and Attachment 6, page 56). All respondents assert that campaign signs were erected by campaign staff members and volunteers. Id.

Moreover, the responses of the Jones Committee and Sam R. Jones state that materials for the signs and charges for the truck used to transport the materials in order to erect the signs were billed by Mr. Mays' companies and disclosed in FEC reports. (Attachment 4, pages 39-40 and Attachment 5, page 54).

91040865211

C. Response to Second Amendment to the Complaint

The Jones Committee, Sam R. Jones and Harold Mays contend that the contribution recorded as being from "Mary Mays" was the result of clerical error. (Attachment 7, page 72; Attachment 8, page 80 and Attachment 9, page 83). The contribution in question was made via a cashier's check and the signator appears to be a "Mary Mays." According to the responses, a volunteer incorrectly read the name Mary Mays (a bank employee) off the check and then listed her name as the contributor. Submitted in support of this contention were copies of the cashier's check and donor card. (Attachment 7, page 74; Attachment 8, page 81; and Attachment 9, page 84). The left hand corner of the cashier's check contains "Rex Mays" as an entry on the memo line. Id. Respondents contend that the check was clearly intended as a contribution by Rex Mays, a salesman.

Subsequent to the filing of this complaint, the Jones Committee amended its reports to correct certain errors with respect to contributor information. (Attachment 7, page 77). The Committee has amended its report to show a change in Murl Meyer's and Ray Adams' contributor information. Specifically, Murl Meyers' occupation was changed from Secretary to Office Manager and Ray Adams' company was changed from Manager, Mays Equipment to Manager, Mays International Trucks. Additionally, the Jones Committee subsequently filed an amendment to their reports to explain the clerical error involving the misreporting of the Rex Mays contribution. The amendment corrected the misreported (Mary Mays) contribution to show that it was in fact made by Rex Mays, a salesman for Mays International Trucks.^{1/}

(Attachment 7, pages 76-77)

D. Law

Under the Act, the term "contribution" includes any gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money or anything of value made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for Federal office. 2 U.S.C. § 431(8). Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A), it is unlawful for any person to make contributions to any candidate and his authorized committee which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000. Similarly, 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), prohibits a candidate or committee from knowingly accepting contributions in violation of the contribution limitations of the Act. Additionally, pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441f, no person shall make contributions in the name of another person and no person shall accept contributions in the name of another person.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441b, corporate contributions or expenditures are prohibited under the Act. Additionally, 2 U.S.C. § 434(b) requires that a political committee accurately report its receipts, disbursements and debts.

E. Application of the Law

1. Contributions in the Name of Another

Complainant alleges that Sam Jones, the Jones Committee and ^{1/} There is a slight discrepancy in the materials submitted by respondents. The copy of the corrected contributor card indicates that Rex Mays is a salesman for Don's Automotive, whereas the amendment to the report indicates that Rex Mays is a salesman for Mays International Trucks. See Attachment 7, pages 74 and 77.

Harold Mays, laundered cash contributions in excess of the federal limits through the use of employees of Harold Mays. Respondents deny that Mr. Mays provided the funds for these contributions and contend that the contributors in question made such contributions of their own free will. Indeed, Respondents have submitted affidavits from the contributors in question supporting this contention. Respondents have also submitted evidence that the contribution allegedly made by a non-existent person (Mary Mays) was in fact a clerical error. Respondents' submissions on this issue indicate that the cashier's check for the contribution was signed by a bank employee (Mary Mays) and contained in the memo line the name of Rex Mays.

While respondents have submitted evidence that all the contributions in the instant case were made by individuals recorded in the FEC disclosure reports of the Jones Committee, it is the opinion of this Office that there is reason to believe possible violations of 2 U.S.C. § 441f have occurred and further investigation on this issue is warranted.

First, two of the five checks submitted (Thomas Styczynski in the original complaint, see page 7 supra, and Rex Mays in the second amendment to the complaint) were cashier's checks. (Attachment 4, page 48 and Attachment 7, page 72). Since these checks were not drawn on the personal accounts of the contributors, the source of the funds used to make these contributions is not known.

Second, the contributions in question were made within days of each other. Each check was drawn either on or around

January 25, 1990, or drawn on or around March 29, 1990.

Furthermore, a review of the records on file at the Commission disclosing general election contributions seems to reinforce this pattern of these individuals making contributions within days of each other. Below is a chart of primary and general election contributions made by Harold Mays, his employees, and Rex Mays. While there is no allegation that the contributions of Harold Mays were reimbursed, we have included the dates and amounts of his contributions to show that the contributions, in general, occurred during a similar time period.

PRIMARY ELECTION CONTRIBUTIONS

Name	Amount	Date of Contribution
Ray Adams	$1,000	1-25-90
Rex Mays	$1,000	1-25-90
Vincent K. Guobaitus	$1,000	1-26-90
Harold Mays	$1,000	1-27-90
Murl Meyer	$1,000	3-28-90
Thomas Styczynski	$1,000	3-29-90

GENERAL ELECTION CONTRIBUTIONS

Name	Amount	Date of Contribution
Murl Meyer	$1,000	7-17-90
Harold Mays	$1,000	7-18-90
Rex Mays	$1,000	7-18-90
Vincent Guobaitus	$1,000	7-18-90
Ray Adams	$1,000	7-23-90

Third, the amounts contributed were the maximum permissible primary and general election contributions to the Jones Committee. Additionally, these amounts may have been disproportionate to the income of some of the contributors based on their occupations. For example, Murl Meyer, who was initially described as a secretary, gave a total of $2,000 to the Jones Campaign.^{2/} Rex Mays also assertedly gave a total of $2,000 to the Jones Committee and his occupation is listed as salesman for Mays International Trucks.^{3/}

Moreover, the basis for the allegations in the complaint is an unnamed informant who states specifically that he did not make the contribution and that he feared being fired if he did not go along with his employer's scheme. Thus, the affidavits affirming the voluntariness of the contributions, which were provided by Mr. Mays, the employer of the individuals, may not be reliable. Consequently, a serious question arises as to the real source of funds for these contributions. Furthermore, the amount ($9,000) of the potential violation, in this case, is not minimal.

Based on the foregoing, the Office of the General Counsel makes the following recommendations. First, in light of the possibility that Harold Mays may have made contributions in the names of others to the Jones Committee, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to ^{2/} As noted, subsequent to the filing of the complaint, the Jones Committee amended its reports to change Murl Meyer's occupation to office manager.

^{3/} Again it must be noted that the corrected contributor card indicated that Rex Mays was employed by Don's Automotive. The Jones Committee's amendment, however, indicates that he is a salesman with Mays' International Trucks. The October Quarterly Report disclosing Rex Mays' general election contribution shows Rex Mays as the owner of Rex Auto Parts which Harold Mays claims he owns as a sole proprietorship.

believe Harold Mays violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f. Additionally, since Harold Mays is alleged to have been the true source of the contributions in question and the making of these additional payments would mean that Mr. Mays had exceeded his personal limit under the Act, this Office recommends that the Commission find that there is reason to believe Harold Mays also violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A).

With respect to the individual contributors in the matter, it is possible that these employees allowed their names to be used to effect contributions to the Jones Committee, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441f. Consequently, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that Rex Mays, Murl Meyer, Ray Adams, Vincent Guobaitus and Thomas Styczynski violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f.^{4/}

Since we lack clarity at this time as to the knowledge and involvement of Sam Jones and his committee with respect to these transactions, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission take no action at this time against Sam R. Jones, and Friends of Sam Jones, and A.S. Quinn, as treasurer, regarding the section 441f allegations.

2. Other Allegations

a. Trash Pickup

Respondents do not dispute the allegation involving the pick-up of trash from the Jones Committee's headquarters.

^{4/} As noted, supra, notification of complaint was sent to Mary Mays at the same address as Harold Mays. The foregoing discussion, however, makes clear that the contribution attributed to Mary Mays (a bank employee) was the result of a clerical error.

Instead, Sam Jones and his committee contend that they did not know about the trash pickup. According to the Jones campaign, when it came to their attention they asked Mr. Mays to bill them. Respondents agree that Mr. Mays charged the Jones Committee $7.50 per pickup and the Jones Committee has been billed for a total of five pickups.

Mr. Mays, on the other hand, claims that he did not know that what he viewed as a limited trash removal was of any monetary value. When it was brought to his attention, as noted, he billed the campaign committee. The only area that appears to be in dispute is the time period or duration of the pickup. Complainant alleges that trash pickups commenced in mid-May while respondents state that trash pickups began in mid-July.

Complainant alleges a 2 U.S.C. §441b violation. The companies in question, however, are not corporations but are owned by Mr. Mays as sole proprietorships. Therefore, a corporate violation is not cognizable in this instance, and instead it appears that Harold Mays made an in-kind contribution to the Jones Committee by providing this service.

b. Utilities

Complainant has also alleged that Sam Jones and his campaign committee have conspired to conceal the source of payments for electricity and telephone service for the campaign. Complainant notes that the committee's disclosure report covering January 1 through June 27, 1990 showed no expenditures for these items.

With respect to telephone charges, respondents indicate that originally the campaign telephone number was the candidate's business phone and that until June of 1990, the telephone charges were paid by Sam Jones. According to respondents, a new telephone listing and telephone system was installed during July for the Sam Jones Campaign. Documents submitted by the Jones Committee consist of telephone bills for June and July. Two bills (June 13 and July 13) reflect billings covering telephone charges from May 13 - July 13, 1990). The other bill (July 5) reflects telephone charges to the Guinnett office. Each bill notes the payment of the bill by check.

Commission reports indicate that Sam Jones is a self-employed consultant. If Mr. Jones paid for the campaign's telephone service, then the candidate made contributions (in-kind) to his own campaign that should have been reported by his campaign committee. See 11 C.F.R. § 104.13. Jones Committee reports on file at the Commission indicate that Sam Jones made in-kind contributions to his campaign. The Jones Committee's 12 Day Pre-Primary Report covering the period 4/1/90 - 6/27/90 discloses $5,900.22 in contributions (in-kind) made by the candidate for travel and office expenses. Additionally, the Jones Committee's October Quarterly Report discloses $5,563 in contributions (in-kind) made by the candidate for travel and telephone. Since we do not know the amount of each telephone charge and the Jones Committee combined different items under a single entry, it is difficult to tell if all charges were reported during the time period that Sam Jones used his business phone on behalf of his campaign.

It is conceivable that since the new telephones or listings did not occur until June, billing and payment of these charges by the Jones Committee may not have occurred until July 1990 or thereafter. Consequently, the charges and payments by the Jones Committee would not have appeared on the Jones Committee reports submitted by complainant because they covered activity from January 1 until June 27, 1990.

Subsequent reports filed by the Jones Committee, however, show numerous payments to Southern Bell for telephone service in July, August and September. Thus, it does appear that the Jones Committee did in fact make payments for telephone charges and there is no apparent evidence to the contrary.

Again, it is not clear from the face of these reports whether the Jones Committee accurately reported these transactions when the telephones listings were transferred to the Jones Committee because not all telephone documentation was submitted.^{5/}

Respondents also deny that they have concealed in-kind contributions for other utility expenses (electricity and ^{5/} For example, we only received bills covering May 3 - July 12, 1990 and since Sam Jones' business telephone number listing was changed to a listing for the Sam Jones campaign in June it is difficult to sort out if all telephone transactions were accurately reported. Additionally, no copies of checks were submitted by the Jones Committee even though the notation on the face of the bills submitted suggest payment by check.

water). Respondents contend that they have paid to the landlord of the building: rent, electricity and water. Respondents have submitted copies of a water bill and electricity bill addressed to the landlord.

Records on file at the Commission indicate that in initial filings the Jones Committee used the term "rent for office" to cover payments to the landlord, Norman Boulous, for the Augusta office. (Attachment 1, page 24). The response of the Jones Committee does not indicate the exact amount of the rent for the campaign office. Harold Mays, who appears to be closely connected to the Jones Committee, has indicated in his response that the rental amount was $900. Reports filed over several months indicate that the rental amount was not fixed but variable.

The rental amount paid by the Jones Committee to the landlord varies from a couple of payments of $900 to payments as high as $1,350. This variability and the amounts involved would seem to support respondents' contention that water and electricity were paid to the landlord. Moreover, after the filing of the complaint, respondents sought to make clear that the rental payments to the landlord in fact covered rent, water, and power by clearly listing these items together under one entry in describing disbursements to the landlord.

Based on the foregoing, the Jones Committee may not have accurately reported all telephone expense transactions, but it does not appear that the Jones Committee tried to conceal in-kind contributions in the form of payments for water and electricity expenses.

c. Sign Erection

Complainant has alleged that respondents failed to report in-kind contributions in the form of services by Mays' employees to erect campaign signs and in the form of a supply truck and driver used to transport the signs. Respondents have denied these allegations. Specifically, respondents have indicated that materials for the signs and charges for truck use were billed to the Jones Committee and disclosed in FEC reports. Additionally, respondents deny that Mays' employees were used to erect the signs. Rather, respondents contend that campaign volunteers were involved in the erection of the signs.

The allegations in the complaint about the involvement of Harold Mays' employees are quite specific. On the other hand, respondents deny any violation of the Act and a review of the disclosure reports during the time period in question reveal that the Jones Committee acknowledged owing a company owned by Mr. Mays (Mays Equipment) $750 for truck and bus rental. (Attachment 1, page 25). Therefore, it appears that certain debts for goods and services were disclosed by the Jones Committee, leaving only a question of whether the debts reported represent the full value of goods and services provided.^{6/}

With respect to the allegations involving trash pickup, utilities and sign erection, it is the opinion of this Office that while violations of the Act may have occurred, further investigation is not warranted on these issues. Conservation of Commission resources dictate that the more reasonable approach would be the pursuit of the more weighty allegations of 2 U.S.C. § 441f violations.

Accordingly, this Office recommends that the Commission take no action against Harold Mays with respect to the allegations involving trash pick-up and sign erection; take no action against the Jones Committee and A.S. Quinn, as treasurer, with respect to the allegations involving trash pick-up, utilities and sign erection; and close the file with respect to these allegations.

Because this Office's investigation will focus on the serious issue of whether contributions were reimbursed by Mr. Mays, this Office recommends the sending of the attached Subpoenas To Produce Documents and Orders to Submit Written ^{6/} Respondents have also indicated that materials for signs were provided and billed by Mr. Mays' organization. Though it is not clear, the responses seem to suggest that the payments to the Mays-owned companies for services rendered included charges for certain materials for the signs.

During this period, the Jones Committee also reported a $593 debt to Thomson Aviation, another Harold Mays company, for banner towing. Subsequent reports by the Jones campaign indicate additional billings for banner towing (Thomson Aviation) and bus and truck rental (Mays International Trucking) for services prior to the general election.

91040865223

Answers to Harold Mays, Murl Meyer, Ray Adams, Vincent Guobaitus, Thomas Styczynski and Rex Mays. Additionally, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission approve Subpoenas to Appear for Depositions to these same individuals. The Office of the General Counsel notes that the Subpoenas to Appear for Deposition will not be sent out at this time but instead will be held by this Office pending receipt of responses to the initial subpoenas and orders from these individuals. Based on our analysis of the submissions of these individuals a determination will be made as to whether to proceed to deposition of all of the individuals in question.

III. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Find reason to believe Harold Mays violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(a)(1)(A) and 441f by making contributions in the names of others.
2. Find reason to believe Ray Adams, Vincent Guobaitus, Thomas Styczynski, Murl Meyer and Rex Mays violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f.
3. Take no action at this time against Sam Jones, and Friends of Sam Jones and A.S. Quinn, as treasurer, with respect to the allegations of contributions made in the names of others.
4. Take no action against Harold Mays with respect to the allegations involving trash pick-up and sign erection on behalf of Friends of Sam Jones, and close the file with respect to these allegations.
5. Take no action against Friends of Sam Jones and A.S. Quinn, as treasurer, with respect to the allegations involving trash pick-up, utility charges, and sign erection, and close the file with respect to these allegations.

STATEMENT OF REASONS

In the Matter of)
Friends of Sam Jones and) MUR 3112
A. S. Quinn, as treasurer)
Harold Mays and Mary Mays and) Mays Equipment Rental Company,) et al.)

On August 13, 1991, the Federal Election Commission rejected the recommendations of the General Counsel to pursue this matter and voted to: 1) find no reason to believe Harold Mays violated 2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(1)(A) and §441f by making contributions in the names of others; 2) find no reason to believe Ray Adams, Vincent Guobaitus, Thomas Styczynski, Murl Meyer and Rex Mays violated 2 U.S.C. §441f by permitting contributions to be made in their names; 3) find no reason to believe Sam Jones, and Friends of Sam Jones and A. S. Quinn, as treasurer, violated the Act by accepting contributions made in the names of others; and 4) close the file. *

The allegations regarding contributions in the names of others were based upon a telephone call to the complainant from an anonymous informant. Respondents submitted affidavits from the contributors in question stating they had freely made their contributions to the Jones committee. Therefore, the Commission concluded there was insufficient evidence to proceed at that time and voted to close the file.

* The Commission also voted to take no action as to allegations that certain in-kind services had been provided to the Jones committee.
