Louisiana First (C00239251)
Carroll M. Chiasson, Treasurer
601 Poydras Street, Suite 2075
New Orleans, LA 70130

II. RELEVANT STATUTE: 2 U.S.C. §441a(f)

III. BACKGROUND:

Receipt of Apparent Excessive Contributions

The Senator Ben Bagert Committee to Put Louisiana First ("the Committee") has accepted during 1990, apparent excessive contributions totaling $23,805. These contributions were made by thirty-five (35) individuals and one (1) political committee. The apparent excessive contributions being referred include contributions designated for the primary election which exceed the primary limit and contributions designated for the general election which were not refunded, redesignated or reattributed, since the candidate did not participate in the 1990 General Election.

Presented below is a summary of the apparent excessive contributions received, the notices sent and the responses received. For specific details, please refer to the attached chart and its supporting documents. The chart is an alphabetical listing of all apparent excessive contributions received by the Committee.

A. Possible Violations Discovered During Initial Review

Review of the Committee's 1989-1990 reports discloses the receipt of contributions designated for the general election totaling $23,665. Ben Bagert withdrew from the Louisiana Primary held on October 6, 1990. According to 11 CFR §110.1(b)(3)(i)(C), since the candidate was not involved in the general election, these contributions should be refunded, redesignated or reattributed as set forth in 11 CFR §110.1(b)(5) or 11 CFR §110.1(k)(3).

These contributions were received on the following reports: 1989 Year End-$4,675, 1990 April Quarterly - $8,100, 1990 July Quarterly - $4,650, and 1990 12 Day Pre-Primary - $5,950.

On October 30, 1990 a Request for Additional Information ("RFAI") was sent to the Committee concerning its 1990 12 Day Pre-Primary Report (Attachment 2). The RFAI noted the receipt of contributions designated to the general election and noted that the use of these funds could result in individuals making excessive contributions since the candidate did not participate in the general election. The RFAI requested that the Committee refund or seek redesignation or reattribution of the contributions.

On November 8, 1990, the Committee responded in a letter (Attachment 3). In the letter the Committee asked the Commission if the general election contributions could be used to defray expenses which they state were incurred in anticipation of participating in the general election or expenses related to complaints in which they were respondents.

On November 29, 1990, a Second Notice was sent to the Committee (Attachment 4). The Notice provided copies of prior FEC rulings and explained in detail the application of these rulings to the Committee's situation. To date, the Committee has failed to respond.

The Committee's 1990 Year End Report discloses an additional $290 in contributions designated for the general election. The report did not disclose any refunds, redesignations or reattributions.

B. Additional Possible Violations Discovered During the Preparation of the Referral

The review of reports filed by the Committee during the preparation of this referral discloses the receipt of additional apparent excessive contributions totalling $140. These contributions were from one (1) individual reported on the Committee's 1990 12 Day Pre-Primary Report. The Committee has not been notified of these apparent excessive amounts. To date, the Committee has not refunded, redesignated or reattributed these apparent excessive amounts.

IV. OTHER PENDING MATTERS INITIATED BY RAD:

None.

Dear Treasurers:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the report(s) referenced above. The review raised questions concerning certain information contained in the report(s). An itemization follows:

-While it is permissible for a person to make a contribution for the general election prior to the primary election, the recipient committee must employ an acceptable accounting method to distinguish between primary and general election contributions. (11 CFR 102.9(e)) This general election amount should be maintained in the committee's account.

If the candidate does not participate in the general election, any contribution received for the general election must be returned to the donors, redesignated or reattributed in accordance with 11 CFR 110.1(b)(5), 110.2(b)(5) or 110.1(k)(3), as appropriate. The use of general election contributions to pay primary debts and obligations is prohibited under the Act as such use could result in individuals making contributions with respect to the primary election in excess of the $1,000 per election limit. Any subsequent report(s) filed with the Commission should disclose the refund, redesignation or reattribution of any general election contribution. Refunds, redesignations, or reattributions must be done within sixty days after the the October 6, 1990 Primary Election.

Panarem, Inc. ($1,820.09 + 1,820.90 - 0 = $3,640.18)

Southern Parking Systems ($2,225 + 2,225 - 0 = $4,450)

-When a committee reports receiving a loan from the candidate, it is necessary to clarify whether or not the candidate used his/her personal funds or borrowed the money from a lending institution or any other source. If the candidate borrowed funds from a lending institution, or any other source, please provide the name of the lending institution and the complete terms of the loan. If the loan(s) was from personal funds, please acknowledge that fact in an amendment to this report. It is important to note that "personal funds" is strictly defined by Commission Regulations and may be found in 11 CFR §110.10. (11 CFR §§100.7(a)(1) and 104.3(d))

Committee to Put La.
First, #C00239251

Dear Pat Sheppard:

This letter is in response (in part) to your letter of October 30, 1990, concerning our 12 Day Pre-Primary Report (7/1/90 - 9/16/90). We will, of course, make the necessary response to the Secretary of the Senate by correcting the errors you noted.

This letter concerns the primary vs. general election funds. In your letter you list three options for handling the general election funds because we did not make the general election. You say any contribution received for the general election must be returned to the donors, redesignated or reattributed.

Are there additional options? For example:

A. Normal cost accounting procedures would allow for a proration of certain expenses between both elections. We incurred expenses in anticipation of being in the general election which really do not belong designated as primary expenses. Is this incorrect? Please provide me copies of FEC rulings on this subject.

B. Of greater concern is the expenditures we must make in the near future in order to defend ourselves concerning two complaints filed against us and other Republican Senatorial Candidates. These current expenditures will not concern the primary election and will be incurred after October 6, 1990. Can we use available funds for these future needs? Please provide me copies of FEC rulings on this subject.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely;

Carroll M. Chesser

Carroll M. Chiasson, Treasurer

Identification Number: C00239251

Reference: 12 Day Pre-Primary Report (7/1/90-9/16/90)

Dear Mr. Chiasson:

On October 30, 1990, you were notified that a review of the above-referenced report(s) raised questions as to specific contributions and/or expenditures, and the reporting of certain information required by the Federal Election Campaign Act.

In your response dated November 5, 1990 you asked whether there were additional options other than the ones listed in our letter to you dated October 30, 1990.

-You state in your letter that your committee "incurred expenses in anticipation of being in the general election which really do not belong designated as primary expenses." You ask whether you may use "normal cost accounting procedures, which would allow for a proration of certain expenses between both elections." You further indicate that you anticipate making expenditures in the future in order to defend yourself against complaints filed against you by other senatorial candidates, and that these expenditures would not concern the primary election and would be made after October 6, 1990. You ask whether you may use available funds for these future needs and you request copies of FEC ruling on these matters.

Commission regulations provide that when a contribution is designated by the donor for a particular election, it is treated as made for that election. (11 CFR §110.1(a)(2)(i), 110.2(a)(1) and 102.9(e)) As you know, it is unlawful under the Act for an individual to make contributions to any candidate or his/her authorized committee with respect to any election to federal office which in the aggregate exceed $1,000. (2 U.S.C. §441a(a)(1)(A) and 11 CFR §110.1(a)(1)) It is, however, permissible for a person to contribute to a principal campaign committee for the general election prior to the primary election so long as the contribution is designated for the general election and the committee employs an acceptable accounting method to distinguish between primary and general election related contributions. See 11 CFR §§110.1(a)(2) and 102.9(e). The Commission has approved acceptance of contributions designated for one particular election before there is an established necessity for such an election provided that these contributions are separately accounted for and are returned to the donors in the event that the election is not held or the candidate is not a participant. Advisory Opinion 1980-68; see also Advisory Opinion 1980-122, 1982-49, 1985-41, copies enclosed.

The use of general election contributions to pay primary debts and obligations or to pay for "anticipated" General election expenses and/or legal defense expenses is prohibited. It appears that current regulations and past advisory opinions clearly show that contributions designated for a particular election must be used for that election or must be returned to the donors, redesignated or reattributed in accordance with 11 CFR §§110.1(b)(5), 110.2(b)(5) or 110.1(K)(3) as appropriate.

Please note that you may request in writing an advisory opinion concerning the application of the Act to your particular situation. (11 CFR §112.1(a))

If this information is not received by the Commission within fifteen (15) days from the date of this notice, the Commission may choose to initiate audit or legal enforcement action.

If you should have any questions related to this matter, please contact Pat Sheppard on our toll-free number (800) 424-9530 or our local number (202) 376-2480.

I. GENERATION OF MATTER

This matter was referred to the Office of the General Counsel by the Reports Analysis Division ("RAD"). (Attachment 1). The referral concerns possible violations of 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by Senator Ben Bagert Committee to Put Louisiana First (the "Bagert Committee") and Carroll M. Chiasson, as treasurer. During 1990 the Bagert Committee accepted apparent excessive contributions totaling $23,805. These contributions were made by thirty-five (35) individuals and one (1) political committee.¹ (See Attachment 1, pg. 4-9) The apparent excessive contributions include contributions designated for the general election which would be excessive, inasmuch as the candidate did not participate in the 1990 General Election. In addition, the Bagert Committee accepted an apparent excessive contribution of $140 designated for the primary election from an individual who also made an excessive contribution to the general election.

II. FACTUAL AND LEGAL ANALYSIS

A. Excessive Contributions to General Election

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1), no person shall make contributions² to any candidate and his authorized political committee with respect to any election for Federal office, which in the aggregate, exceed $1,000.00. Furthermore, under 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), no candidate or political committee shall knowingly accept any contribution or make any expenditure in violation of the provisions of this section.

Pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(b)(3)(i)(C), if a candidate is not a candidate in the general election, all contributions made for the general election shall be either returned or refunded to the contributors or redesignated in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(b)(5), or reattributed in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(k)(3). According to 11 C.F.R. §§ 110.1(b)(5) and 110.1(k)(3) when a committee receives an excessive contribution, one which exceeds the donor's limit or the campaign's net debts outstanding for an election, the committee has the option of asking the contributor to redesignate and/or reattribute the contribution.

On October 5, 1990 Ben Bagert withdrew from the October 6,

1990 Louisiana primary. Bagert's name was left on the ballot, but no votes cast for him were counted.³ RAD's review of the Bagert Committee 1989-1990 reports disclosed the receipt of contributions designated for the general election totaling $23,665.⁴ A Request for Additional Information ("RFAI") was sent to the Bagert Committee on October 30, 1990. The RFAI notified the Bagert Committee that the receipt of contributions designated to the general election and the use of these funds could result in individuals making excessive contributions since the candidate did not participate in the general election. The RFAI also requested that the Bagert Committee refund or seek redesignation or reattribution of the contributions. The Bagert Committee responded by a letter, dated November 8, 1990, which questioned whether the general election contributions could be used to defray expenses which the committee had incurred in anticipation of participating in the general election or

3. Incumbent Senator J. Bennett Johnston and David Duke also participated in the primary election.

4. These contributions were received in the following reports: 1989 Year End - $4,675, 1990 April Quarterly - $8,100, 1990 July Quarterly - $4,650, and 1990 12 Day Pre-Primary - $5,950. The Bagert Committee 1990 Year End Report disclosed an additional $290 in contributions designated for the general election. This report did not disclose any refunds, redesignations or reattributions of the contributions. In addition, RAD's review the reports filed by the Bagert Committee disclosed that the Bagert Committee accepted an apparent excessive contribution of $140 designated for the primary election. This excessive contribution was received from one (1) individual who also made an apparent excessive contribution for the general election. These reports did not disclose any refunds, redesignations or reattributions of the contributions.

expenses related to complaints in which they were respondents.⁵

In Advisory Opinion 1986-12 the Commission noted that a candidate "could lawfully receive (and retain) primary election contributions on or before that date [the date of withdrawal from the primary election]" The Commission further noted that a candidate should return all contributions designated by the donors for the general election since the candidate was not a candidate in that election, and also return all contributions made after the date of withdrawal. The Commission also addressed the issue of general election contributions limitations for candidates who run in primary election for a federal office in Louisiana and do not participate in the general election in Advisory Opinion 1984-54. The Commission concluded that candidates in Louisiana who are not required to run in the general election are still required to submit pre-general and post-general election reports. Furthermore, the Commission concluded that candidates may accept lawful contributions with respect to the general election without regards to the fact that they did not participate in the general election.

This matter was referred to this Office because the situation presented here in this referral is distinguishable from that involving the other candidates who participated in the

5. On November 29, 1990, a Second Notice was sent to the Bagert Committee, which provided copies of prior Commission rulings and also explained in detail the application of these rulings as it related to the Bagert Committee's situation. The Bagert Committee has not responded to this notice.

Louisiana primary.⁶ Since Ben Bagert withdrew from the Louisiana primary election, the Bagert Committee could not accept contributions for the general election.⁷

Based upon the foregoing, it appears that the Senator Ben Bagert Committee to Put Louisiana First and Carroll M. Chiasson, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting excessive contributions totaling $23,805 and by failing to refund, redesignate or reattribute the excessive contributions within sixty days from the date of the receipt of the contributions.

6. We understand that RAD will not be referring the Johnston campaign for accepting general election contributions.

7. The O index for the 1989-90 election cycle shows that as of January 31, 1990 the Bagert Committee had $3,084.07 cash on hand, and $133,355.57 in debts owed by the Bagert Committee. It appears that the Bagert Committee may have net debts outstanding from primary. In addition, it appears that the Bagert Committee may have used the funds raised against the general election limits to pay primary election expenses incurred prior to Ben Bagert withdrawal. It should also be noted that the (D) index for the 1989-1990 election cycle shows the following party committees made coordinated expenditures on behalf of Louisiana candidates in connection with the general election: Victory '90, the Louisiana Republican Party expended $12,586 on Ben Bagert's behalf and the National Republican Senatorial Committee expended $97,311 on Ben Bagert's behalf and contributed $17,500 to his campaign; the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee expended $125,500 on J. Bennett Johnston's behalf and contributed $17,500 to his campaign; the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee Inc. expended $47,797 on Foster L. Campbell's behalf and contributed $5,000 to his campaign; the National Republican Congressional Committee expended $49,423 on behalf of James Otis McCrery III and contributed $4,995 to his campaign. Other Louisiana candidates who had coordinated expenditures made on their behalf were Wilbert J. Tauzin, Faye Williams and David Thibodaux. Most of these expenditures were made prior to the October 6 primary.

RE: MUR 3339
Senator Ben Bagert Committee to Put Louisiana First and Carroll M.
Chiasson, as treasurer

Dear Ms. Chiasson:

On June 11, 1991, the Federal Election Commission found that there is reason to believe Senator Ben Bagert Committee to Put Louisiana First (the "Committee") and you, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). The Factual and Legal Analysis, which formed a basis for the Commission's finding, is attached for your information.

Under the Act, you have an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer. You may submit any factual or legal materials that you believe are relevant to the Commission's consideration of this matter. Please submit such materials to the General Counsel's Office within 15 days of your receipt of this letter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath.

In the absence of any additional information demonstrating that no further action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer, the Commission may find probable cause to believe that a violation has occurred and proceed with conciliation.

In order to expedite the resolution of this matter, the Commission has also decided to offer to enter into negotiations directed towards reaching a conciliation agreement in settlement of this matter prior to a finding of probable cause to believe. Enclosed is a conciliation agreement that the Commission has approved.

If you are interested in expediting the resolution of this matter by pursuing preprobable cause conciliation and if you agree with the provisions of the enclosed agreement, please sign and return the agreement, along with the civil penalty, to the Commission. In light of the fact that conciliation negotiations, prior to a finding of probable cause to believe, are limited to a maximum of 30 days, you should respond to this notification as soon as possible.

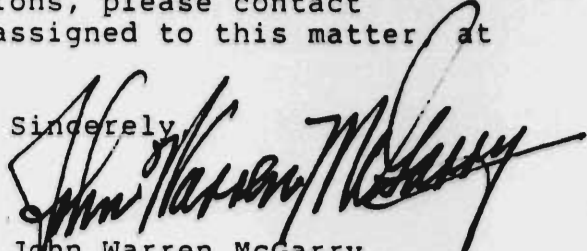

Requests for extensions of time will not be routinely granted. Requests must be made in writing at least five days prior to the due date of the response and specific good cause must be demonstrated. In addition, the Office of the General Counsel ordinarily will not give extensions beyond 20 days.

If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address, and telephone number of such counsel, and authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. §§ 437g(a)(4)(B) and 437g(a)(12)(A), unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the investigation to be made public.

For your information, we have attached a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling possible violations of the Act. If you have any questions, please contact Lawrence D. Parrish, the attorney assigned to this matter at (202) 376-8200.

Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1), no person shall make contributions¹ to any candidate and his authorized political committee with respect to any election for Federal office, which in the aggregate, exceed $1,000.00. Furthermore, under 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f), no candidate or political committee shall knowingly accept any contribution or make any expenditure in violation of the provisions of this section.

Pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(b)(3)(i)(C), if a candidate is not a candidate in the general election, all contributions made for the general election shall be either returned or refunded to the contributors or redesignated in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(b)(5), or reattributed in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(k)(3). According to 11 C.F.R. §§ 110.1(b)(5) and 110.1(k)(3) when a committee receives an excessive contribution, one which exceeds the donor's limit or the campaign's net debts outstanding for an election, the committee has the option of asking the contributor to redesignate and/or reattribute the contribution.

On October 5, 1990 Ben Bagert withdrew from the October 6, 1990 Louisiana primary. Bagert's name was left on the ballot, but no votes cast for him were counted. The Commission's review of the Bagert Committee 1989-1990 reports disclosed the receipt of contributions designated for the general election totaling $23,665. A letter was sent to the Bagert Committee on October 30, 1990. The letter notified the Bagert Committee that the receipt of contributions designated to the general election and the use of these funds could result in individuals making excessive contributions since the candidate did not participate in the general election. The letter also requested that the Bagert Committee refund or seek redesignation or reattribution of the contributions. The Bagert Committee responded by a letter, dated November 8, 1990, which questioned whether the general election contributions could be used to defray expenses which the committee had incurred in anticipation of participating in the general election or expenses related to complaints in which they were respondents.²

In Advisory Opinion 1986-12 the Commission noted that a candidate "could lawfully receive (and retain) primary election

contributions on or before that date [the date of withdrawal from the primary election]." The Commission further noted that a candidate should return all contributions designated by the donors for the general election since the candidate was not a candidate in that election, and also return all contributions made after the date of withdrawal. The Commission also addressed the issue of general election contribution limitations for candidates who run in primary election for a federal office in Louisiana and do not participate in the general election in Advisory Opinion 1984-54. The Commission concluded that candidates in Louisiana who are not required to run in the general election are still required to submit pre-general and post-general election reports. Furthermore, the Commission concluded that candidates may accept lawful contributions with respect to the general election without regard to the fact that they did not participate in the general election. Since Ben Bagert withdrew from the Louisiana primary election, the Bagert Committee could not accept contributions for the general election.

Based upon the foregoing, there is reason to believe that the Senator Ben Bagert Committee to Put Louisiana First and Carroll M. Chiasson, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting excessive contributions totaling $23,805 and by failing to refund, redesignate or reattribute the excessive contributions within sixty days from the date of the receipt of the contributions.

treasurer

Dear Mr. Parrish:

I wish to thank you for your having returned my call recently.

As I mentioned, I am quite eager and anxious to conclude these matters with the Federal Election Commission.

My treasurer from the U.S. Senate race has resigned and it seems that I will have to handle this myself.

At the moment, I am the leading candidate (according to the polls) in the Louisiana election for Attorney General, which will take place next month.

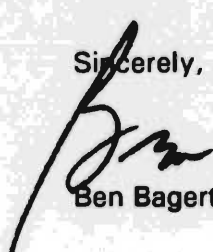

Accordingly, I am requesting that you furnish me an additional extension of time within which to conclude these matters with the Federal Election Commission.

Not being familiar with these matters, I am not certain as to what a reasonable request of time would entail. However, the primary election in which I am engaged will be concluded on October 19, and the general election on November 16.

If this matter could be extended until after the general election, I would be most appreciative.

Thanks again for returning my call.

Sincerely,

Ben Bagert, Jr.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. BACKGROUND

On June 11, 1991, the Commission found reason to believe Senator Ben Bagert Committee to Put Louisiana First (the "Committee") and Carroll M. Chiasson, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). On June 20, 1991, a letter was sent notifying the Committee that the Commission had found reason to believe that the Committee had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). On August 7, 1991, a follow-up letter was sent to the Committee. On August 15, 1991, the Commission received a letter dated August 11, 1991, from Carroll M. Chiasson who stated he had not received the initial notification letter. He further stated that he was no longer the treasurer for the Committee and that inquiries should be directed to state Senator Ben Bagert.

On September 17, 1991, a third letter was sent to Senator Ben Bagert, notifying him that the Commission had found reason to believe that the Committee had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). On October 7, 1991, the Office of General Counsel received a letter from Senator Ben Bagert stating that he is currently participating in an election for the Office of Attorney General for the state of Louisiana. Senator Bagert stated that the primary election will be held on October 19, 1991 and the general election on November 16, 1991. Senator Bagert requested an extension of time until after the general election to respond to the Commission's findings.

In light of the circumstances outlined in Mr. Bagert's letter, this Office has granted the Senator Ben Bagert Committee to Put Louisiana First an extension of time of 45 days or until November 25, 1991, in which to respond to the Commission's findings.

Attention: Lawrence Parrish, Esq.

To the members of the commission:

This letter is submitted in response to George R. Rishel's letter of September 17, 1991 which was directed to me. Therein he advised that on June 11, 1991 the Federal Election Commission found reason to believe that the Senator Ben Bagert Committee to Put Louisiana First and Carroll M. Chiasson, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. sec. 441a(f). He further stated that I would be given an opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken against the committee or Carroll Chiasson.

I hope that the following information will demonstrate to your satisfaction that no further action should be taken against the committee, the treasurer, or myself.

Because I would like to bring this matter to a prompt conclusion, I will not burden you with the details of technical legal arguments that might operate to relieve me, personally, of any responsibility under the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971. Nevertheless this response should not be interpreted as a waiver of any such rights or defenses which might be available to me and to the extent that any exist, they are herewith reserved. Further, I must confess that many of the matters related in this letter are, at best, no more than "reliable conjecture" since the contributions that were received during my campaign for the Senate were handled by the committee treasurer and I am unable to provide details of the treatment they were given. Finally, I have not had an opportunity to review the campaign reports on file with your office prior to making this response. But in order to avoid further delay on my part I will assume as true, for purposes of this response only, your assertion that contributions that were received for the "General" election were not properly refunded or redesignated.

In the latter part of 1989 my political prospects were bright indeed. I had just led a statewide campaign in support of an environmental initiative to preserve Louisiana's diminishing wetlands resources. This was Louisiana's first environmental referendum and my efforts were widely acclaimed as a turning point for our state which for too long had demonstrated a perverse tolerance for environmental degradation. After considerable prodding and encouragement from both local and national Republican operatives, I agreed to run for the U.S. Senate.

Carroll Chiasson witnessed this prodding. He saw personnel from the National Republican Senatorial Committee traipsing in and out of my office as they touted the many resources that Washington would make available to my campaign. Among those Washington "experts" who called on me was an authority on campaign finance and FEC compliance who pledged that Chiasson, as campaign treasurer, would enjoy adequate technical assistance and advice from the NRSC. Thus assured by the NRSC, Chiasson agreed to act as campaign treasurer and commenced his duties with the same fervor and optimism that I began mine as a candidate.

In early 1990 I won the official endorsement of the Louisiana Republican party. No sooner did I set out on the campaign trail, when something totally unexpected happened. Our state, which had been suffering chronic and persistent economic hardship for nearly ten years, had been targeted by David Duke as fertile soil for planting the seeds of a racially charged political message. With the unwitting cooperation of the news media, David Duke began to dominate the debate in the senate election. The press corps, most of whom disliked Duke, began to demonstrate a morbid addiction to the "Duke Story". News reports of his rallies were prominently carried in the local newspapers which, at first, did not seem to mind cooperating with Duke by reporting as fact, his exaggerated estimates of the number of those in attendance. Lured by these early news stories many curiosity seekers began to attend Duke rallies and invariably their attendance was interpreted by the media as a sign of political support. It seemed that a symbiosis existed between Duke and the media. He needed the free publicity and they needed to report the incredible story that a former NAZI and KKK Wizard had been welcomed by the electorate as a major candidate for one of the highest political offices in the nation. To perpetuate its story, the media needed to downplay my candidacy as the mainstream challenger to the incumbent senator. It was with much amazement and even greater personal distress that I observed the media's eagerness to report on Duke's "issues" in great detail while they ignored my "boring" proposals that stressed economic development, education, and environmental protection. With media complicity Duke had accomplished a most unusual feat. Duke had gone beyond merely dominating the political debate. He became the issue.

My NRSC "allies" were likewise deeply troubled that my message was evoking such little attention. They insisted that I endorse and adopt as my own, some of the "ideas" that Duke was expressing. I refused. They insisted that the public wanted to vote for a "good Duke" and that I had to become the "good Duke." I declined. During the weeks of disagreement that ensued I allowed them to finance a few TV ads which featured the topic of welfare reform which I had pursued quietly and conscientiously as a state legislator long before Duke burst onto the political scene. It was a bad mistake. The ads were silly. They looked insincere. After their first run on television a test poll was done which showed that I had made some gains with the electorate but not as much as my NRSC "allies" had expected. They insisted that I continue to run the "welfare" ad at my own expense. When I refused, they advised that NRSC would pull out of my campaign and would not fulfill the support commitments it had made during their candidate recruitment phase of the campaign to unseat the democratic incumbent. It was their feeling that unless I became the "good Duke" I would never overtake David Duke but instead would force a runoff election between Duke and the incumbent democrat which Duke would very likely win.

I continued the campaign without NRSC assistance but was troubled that they were denying me campaign funds which were rightfully mine under a joint fundraising agreement that I had entered into with other individuals with NRSC acting as a type of agent or trustee. By now it was August of 1990 and each time I inquired about the funds that were due me, NRSC demanded that either I agree to become the "good Duke" or withdraw as a candidate. They repeated their fear that unless I employed their strategy, Duke would outpoll me and gain a runoff position with the incumbent democrat with damaging consequences to the National Republican Party and the president as well. They were concerned that the stigma of Duke's racism, coming on the heels of Willie Horton, would be easily transferred to the Republican Party in a highly publicized runoff election between the democratic incumbent and the "republican" Duke.

Duke had by no means locked up a runoff berth in the election at this time so I insisted that the best way for Washington republicans to handle the "Duke problem" was for the party to honor its commitment to me and I would take care of the rest.

By September of 1990 I made a formal demand on NRSC that my funds in their possession be disbursed or I would take legal action. I stated that I was entitled to these funds without condition. NRSC again refused to release the funds but this time, instead of hinging their declination on my unwillingness to employ their political strategy, they falsely claimed that the terms of our joint fundraising agreement limited the use of my funds to the general election. They were attempting to hide their heretofore transparent effort to run my campaign strategy in the smoke of a self-manufactured disagreement over the meaning of the terms of our agreement.

I believe that this use of the term "general election" in the context of the fundraising dispute with my former NRSC "allies" led to a misunderstanding on Carroll Chiasson's part which may have set the stage for mistakes in handling campaign funds that are related in your letter of June 20, 1991.

As the last days of the election approached the Republican senators, who comprised the same committee which had initially recruited me to challenge the democrat, began to publicly endorse him. Each offered as his reason the need to keep Duke from getting into a runoff election. This destroyed any hope that I had of making the runoff. My credibility as a candidate was ruined. If the republicans would not support me, why should the voters. My window of opportunity was no longer open. My local advisers assured me that I would run a creditable third and this, in turn, would position me nicely for some other statewide electoral effort. But we all knew that my continued candidacy would only serve to assure Duke a runoff slot, subject Louisiana to national ridicule, and in all probability result in Duke's election to the senate.

I confided my intention to withdraw to a few staunch supporters. Suddenly I was smothered with an avalanche of complaints that a withdrawal would spell the end of my political career which were, apparently, correct. I am no longer a public official and have incurred the ill will of many of my old supporters not to mention the wrath of the Duke following in this state who correctly attribute Duke's defeat to my withdrawal. They believe that with the momentum of a four week runoff election, Duke would have defeated the weakened democratic incumbent.

After my withdrawal Carroll Chiasson was notified that the Democrats and common cause had filed a complaint with the FEC which presented him with the threat of significant civil liability. Chiasson had no legal representation and, understandably, did not trust the NRSC which had offered him assistance. With little other choice, Carroll Chiasson resigned as treasurer. I certainly understand.

I hope that you understand that Michael Miliken would have a easier time selling bank stock in BCCI from his prison cell than I would have had in persuading someone to assume the responsibilities of treasurer to an already failed campaign. Without a treasurer, with considerable debt and creditors clamoring for money, without knowing about the sources of the contributions that resulted in a modest balance in our campaign account, and without knowing who had contributed his limit and who had not, I paid some bills to those who had claims against the campaign for supplies and services. My campaign debts far exceed my ability to raise campaign funds. I will have to retire these debts from my personal funds should I be fortunate enough to earn such a sum of money in the future. At present I am incapable of satisfying these debts. Neither I nor Carroll Chiasson could possibly pay a civil penalty.

If a violation did occur, it was not intentional or deliberate. No political or electoral advantage was gained since it occurred after the election was over. Ironically the same decision which ended my political career has the stage for this FEC complaint. You see had I not withdrawn as a candidate, I would have fewer problems associated with redesignating funds for the general election, I would still hold public office from which it would be much easier to raise the necessary funds to retire my outstanding debts; but David Duke would also be holding public office and that's why I would do the same thing all over again.

I deeply regret however any violations of the campaign laws which may have occurred.

Sincerely

BEN BAGERT

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. BACKGROUND

On June 11, 1991, the Commission found reason to believe Senator Ben Bagert Committee to Put Louisiana First (the "Committee") and Carroll M. Chiasson, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) by accepting excessive contributions totaling $23,805.00.¹ As noted in the prior General Counsel's Report, on June 20, 1991, a letter was sent notifying the Committee that the Commission had found reason to believe that the Committee had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). On August 7, 1991, a follow-up letter was sent to the Committee. On August 15, 1991, the Commission received a letter dated August 11, 1991, from Carroll M. Chiasson who stated he had not received the initial notification letter. See Attachment 1. He further stated that he was no longer the treasurer for the Committee and that inquiries should be directed to State Senator Ben Bagert.

1. These contributions were made by thirty-five (35) individuals and (1) political committee.

On September 17, 1991, a third letter was sent to Senator Ben Bagert, notifying him that the Commission had found reason to believe that the Committee had violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). On October 7, 1991, the Office of the General Counsel received a letter from Senator Ben Bagert stating that he was currently participating in an election for the Office of Attorney General for the state of Louisiana and requested an extension of time until after the general election to respond to the Commission's findings. See Attachment 2. In light of the circumstances outlined in Mr. Bagert's letter, the Office of the General Counsel granted the Senator Ben Bagert Committee to Put Louisiana First an extension until November 25, 1991, in which to respond to the Commission's findings.

On January 28, 1992, the Office of the General Counsel received a response, requesting that the Commission take no further action in this matter, from Mr. Bagert, via fax, dated January 24, 1992. See Attachment 3. In responding to the Commission's finding, Mr. Bagert states:

[I] must confess that many of the matters related in this letter are, at best, no more than "reliable conjecture" since the contributions that were received during my campaign for the Senate were handled by the committee treasurer and I am unable to provide details of the treatment they were given.

Mr. Bagert asserts that because of "prodding and encouragement from both local and national Republican operatives," he agreed to run for the U.S. Senate seat. He accredited this attention from the local and national party as stemming from his efforts to initiate Louisiana's first environmental referendum.

Mr. Bagert further asserts that the National Republican Senatorial Committee promised financial and technical assistance on campaign finance. Mr. Bagert states:

Among those Washington "experts" who called on me was an authority on campaign finance and FEC compliance who pledged that Chiasson, as campaign treasurer, would enjoy adequate technical assistance and advice from the NRSC. Thus assured by the NRSC, Chiasson agreed to act as campaign treasurer and commenced his duties with the same fervor and optimism that I began mine as a candidate.

Mr. Bagert notes in his response that he won the Louisiana Republican endorsement in early 1990 and that sometime thereafter David Duke entered the campaign. Mr. Bagert notes further that upon Duke's entrance in the race for the U.S. Senate seat, "[w]ith the unwitting cooperation of the news media, David Duke began to dominated [sic] the debate in senate election... To perpetuate its story, the media needed to downplay my candidacy as the mainstream challenger to the incumbent senator." Mr. Bagert also indicates that during the course of his campaign the media started to focus on David Duke and he (Duke) went "beyond merely dominating the political debate" and "became the issue."

Consequently, Mr. Bagert asserts, the NRSC "allies" became troubled that Bagert's message was not getting enough attention and insisted that he adopt some of the same "ideas" that David Duke was expressing, which he declined. The NRSC "allies" allegedly advised Bagert that they would pull out of his campaign and would not fulfill their support commitments. Mr. Bagert states that "[i]t was their feeling that unless I became the 'good Duke' I would never overtake David Duke but instead would force a runoff election between Duke and the incumbent democrat which Duke would likely win."

Mr. Bagert further states that he decided to continue his campaign without the assistance of the NRSC, but remained concerned about the fact that the NRSC was denying him campaign funds that he felt was rightfully his under a joint fundraising agreement. See MURs 3131 and 3135. Sometime in September of 1990, Mr. Bagert states he made a formal demand to the NRSC for these funds, and the NRSC again refused to release the funds and claimed the terms of the agreement limited the use of the funds for the general election.² Mr. Bagert asserts that "this use of the term 'general election' in the context of the fundraising dispute with my former NRSC 'allies' led to a misunderstanding on Carroll Chiasson's part which may have set the stage for mistakes in handling campaign funds that are related in your letter of June 20, 1991."

As the last days of the election approached Mr. Bagert states that the same committee, comprised of the Republican senators who had initially recruited him to run for the U.S. Senate seat, began to endorse his Democratic opponent. He stated that this "destroyed" any hopes that he had of making the runoff. Even though his local advisers assured him that he would finish a credible third, which would put him in a position to run for other statewide electoral efforts, it was Mr. Bagert's belief that if he continued his candidacy it would only serve to assure Duke a runoff slot and "... in all probability result in Duke's election to the Senate." Therefore, Bagert asserts that he withdrew from the race to keep this from happening. Furthermore, because of his withdrawal, Bagert asserts that he has "incurred the ill will of many of my old supporters not to mention the wrath of the Duke following in this state who correctly attribute Duke's defeat to my withdrawal."

2. It should be noted that the Selected List of Receipts & Expenditures index for 1991 through 1992 indicates that on April 5, 1991, the Republican Senatorial Inner Circle 1990-91 contributed $183.00 and that the Republican Senatorial Inner Circle 1990 contributed $4,757.00 to the Senator Ben Bagert Committee to Put Louisiana First. Both Contributions were designated for the primary election. See Attachment 4.

After Mr. Bagert's withdrawal, Mr. Bagert states that Carroll Chiasson was notified that the "Democrats" and "Common Cause" had filed a complaint (MURs 3131 and 3135) with the Commission "which presented him with the threat of significant civil liability." Mr. Bagert further notes that Mr. Chiasson had no legal counsel and did not trust the NRSC even though they offered him assistance. Mr. Bagert states this was the main reason why Mr. Chiasson resigned as treasurer and also why he could not persuade someone to assume the responsibilities of treasurer to an already "failed campaign." Furthermore, Mr. Bagert states the following:

Without a treasurer, with considerable debt and creditors clamoring for money, without knowing the sources of the contributions that resulted in a modest balance in our campaign account, and without knowing who had contributed his limit and who had not, I paid bills to those who had claims against the campaign for supplies and services. My campaign debts far exceed my ability to raise campaign funds. I will have to retire these debts from my personal funds should I be fortunate enough to earn such a sum of money in the future. At present I am incapable of satisfying these debts. Neither I nor Carroll Chiasson could possibly pay a civil penalty.

Mr. Bagert concluded his response by stating that "[i]f a violation did occur, it was not intentional or deliberate." Furthermore, he asserts that had he not withdrawn as a candidate he would not be in the situation he is in now and would have fewer problems associated with redesignating funds for the general election, but David Duke would also be holding public office had he not withdrawn as a candidate.

It appears from Mr. Bagert's response that there are numerous mitigating circumstances surrounding this matter. First, the facts in this matter concerning David Duke's effects on Mr. Bagert's campaign upon Duke's entrance in the race for the U.S. Senate seat in Louisiana are pretty much indisputable. During the course of the campaign for this seat, there was a lot of national media coverage which focused on David Duke and his chance of winning this election because of Louisiana's unique electoral process.³ Second, due to the circumstances

3. Under Louisiana's electoral process, if a candidate runs unopposed in the primary election or receives a majority of votes cast in that election, the primary election results in the final selection of a single individual to the office that is up for election. Upon determining the final selection of the single individual the electoral contest for that office is over. No general election for that office is then held in Louisiana in November. In Advisory Opinion 1984-54, the Commission addressed the issue of general election contributions limitations for candidates who run in primary election for a federal office in Louisiana and do not participate in the general election. The Commission concluded that candidates in Louisiana who are not required to run in the general election are still required to surrounding this matter, it appears that after Carroll Chiasson resigned from the Committee Mr. Bagert was unable to persuade anyone to fill the position of treasurer who would have been responsible for ensuring that the Committee refunded, redesignated or reattributed excessive contributions. Third, Mr. Bagert notes in his response that the Committee is in considerable debt and that he will have to retire these debts from his personal funds if he is "fortunate enough to earn such a sum of money in the future," since he is presently incapable of satisfying them. He has also indicated that because of his financial status he is not in a position to pay a civil penalty. A review of the Committee's 1991 Year End Report indicates that the Committee has $2,984.00 cash on hand and $129,444.00 in debts owed.

Based upon the many mitigating circumstances, Louisiana's unique electoral process, the likelihood of the Committee being unable to pay a civil penalty in this matter, based upon its present financial status, and the issue of whether Mr. Bagert can be held personally liable for the violations of the Committee, this Office believes the Commission should exercise its prosecutorial discretion and recommends that the Commission take no further action against Senator Ben Bagert Committee to submit pre-general and post-general election reports. Furthermore, the Commission concluded that candidates may accept lawful contributions with respect to the general election without regards to the fact that they did not participate in the general election. The ability to accept general election contributions is not available to candidates, such as Mr. Bagert, who withdraw prior to the primary.

Put Louisiana First and Carroll M. Chiasson, as treasurer, and to close the file in this matter.

II. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Take no further action against Senator Ben Bagert Committee to Put Louisiana First and Carroll M. Chiasson, as treasurer.

2. Close the file.
