v.

Complainant,

COMPLAINT

MUR 3896

Mary M. Ashmore

Respondent,

COMPLAINT OF CENTER FOR RESPONSIVE POLITICS

1. This complaint charges that the respondent has violated the Federal Election Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. § 431 et seq., as amended ("FECA"), by making aggregate contributions in excess of the limits permitted by the FECA.

PARTIES

2. The complainant, the Center for Responsive Politics, is a nonprofit, nonpartisan research group incorporated in the State of Iowa and headquartered in Washington, D.C., that studies Congress and related issues. Founded in 1983, it was designed to research matters concerning the organization and operation of Congress as an institution and to examine potential reforms that could improve both its internal operation and its responsiveness to the American public. The patterns of contributions of money to federal candidates has been one of its chief areas of study.

3. The respondent is an individual contributor to various candidates and political committees.

95043663034

APPLICABLE STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

4. The FECA limits contributions by any one individual to an aggregate total of $25,000 per calendar year. Contributions to a candidate or the candidate's authorized committee made in a year other than the calendar year of the election with respect to which the contribution is made are considered to be made during the calendar year in which such election is held. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(3); 11 C.F.R. § 110.5.

GROUND FOR COMPLAINT

5. According to FEC records, respondent Mary M. Ashmore made contributions subject to FECA in the amounts and to the persons identified in the list attached to this complaint as Exhibit 1. Attached as Exhibit 2 are copies of the FEC records for each contribution listed in Exhibit 1. All exhibits reflect the records on file at the FEC as of December 15, 1993.

6. On information and belief, respondent Mary M. Ashmore made contributions attributed to the 1992 calendar year in the amount of $31,000. These contributions exceeded by $6,000 the $25,000 contribution limit imposed by the FECA and Commission regulations on all contributions by any individual in a calendar year.

RELIEF

7. The Center for Responsive Politics respectfully urges the Commission to conduct a prompt and thorough investigation into the allegations in this Complaint, and to declare that the Respondent has violated the FECA and Commission regulations.

Respectfully submitted,

Ellen S. Miller

Re: Mary M. Ashmore
MUR 3896

Gentlemen:

On behalf of Mrs. Mary M. Ashmore whom this firm has the pleasure to represent, I am enclosing herewith her Statement of Designation of Counsel as per the information forwarded to her in your letter under date of January 28, 1994.

In Mrs. Ashmore's defense, I would like to point out to you that she is a single lady who is elderly and who is scheduled for surgery this coming week. She is not in any way familiar with the rules and regulations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 and if she had been, she would never have contributed money in excess of the legal limit.

At this time I do not know whether or not she may have violated the Election Act but in due time she will attempt to make copies of the cancelled checks which will enable me to determine whether she did or did not technically violate the Federal Election Campaign Act.

If the Act was violated, it certainly was not done purposely.

I remain

Sincerely yours,

GENERAL COUNSEL'S MONTHLY REPORT

I. INTRODUCTION

This report is the General Counsel's Report to recommend that the Commission no longer pursue the identified lower priority and stale cases under the Enforcement Priority System.

II. CASES RECOMMENDED FOR CLOSING

A. Cases Not Warranting Further Pursuit Relative to Other Cases Pending Before the Commission

A critical component of the Priority System is identifying those pending cases that do not warrant the further expenditure of resources. Each incoming matter is evaluated using Commission-approved criteria and cases that, based on their rating, do not warrant pursuit relative to other pending cases are placed in this category. By closing such cases, the Commission is able to use its limited resources to focus on more important cases.

Having evaluated incoming matters, this Office has identified 10 cases which do not warrant further pursuit relative to the other pending cases.<sup>1</sup> A short description of each case and the factors leading to assignment of a relatively low priority and consequent recommendation not to pursue each case is attached to this report. See Attachments 1-11. As the Commission requested, this Office has attached the responses to the complaints for the externally-generated matters and the referral for the internally-generated matter following the narrative. See Attachments 1-11.

B. Stale Cases

Investigations are severely impeded and require relatively more resources when the activity and evidence are old. Consequently, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission focus its efforts on cases involving more recent activity. Such efforts will also generate more impact on the current electoral process and are a more efficient allocation of our limited resources. To this end, this Office has identified 34 cases that do not warrant further investment of significant Commission resources.<sup>2</sup> Since the recommendation not to pursue the identified cases is based on staleness, this Office has not prepared separate narratives for these cases. As the Commission requested, in matters in which the Commission has made no findings, the responses to the complaints for the externally-generated matters and the referrals for the internally-generated matters are attached to the report. See Attachments 16-45. For cases in which the Commission has already made findings and for which each Commissioner's office has an existing file, this Office has attached the most recent General Counsel's Report. See Attachments 12-15.

This Office recommends that the Commission exercise its prosecutorial discretion and no longer pursue the cases listed below effective June 26, 1995. By closing the cases effective June 26, 1995, CED and the Legal Review Team will respectively have the additional time necessary for preparing the closing letters and the case files for the public record for these cases.

Dear Ms. Miller:

On January 21, 1994, the Federal Election Commission received your complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission exercised its prosecutorial discretion to take no action in the matter. This case was evaluated objectively relative to other matters on the Commission's docket. In light of the information on the record, the relative significance of the case, and the amount of time that has elapsed, the Commission determined to close its file in this matter on July 5, 1995. This matter will become part of the public record within 30 days.

The Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

RE: MUR 3896
Mary Ashmore

Dear Mr. Broberg:

On January 28, 1994, the Federal Election Commission notified your client of a complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. A copy of the complaint was enclosed with that notification.

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission exercised its prosecutorial discretion to take no action against your client. This case was evaluated objectively relative to other matters on the Commission's docket. In light of the information on the record, the relative significance of the case, and the amount of time that has elapsed, the Commission determined to close its file in this matter on July 5, 1995.

The confidentiality provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. In addition, although the complete file must be placed on the public record within 30 days, this could occur at any time following certification of the Commission's vote. If you wish to submit any factual or legal materials to appear on the public record, please do so as soon as possible. While the file may be placed on the public record prior to receipt of your additional materials, any permissible submissions will be added to the public record when received.
