MUR 4101

Dear Mr. Noble:

I am writing this letter, pursuant to 2 U.S.C. Section 437g (a) (1), to formally file a complaint against the Hulshof for Congress Committee ("the Committee"). Kenny Hulshof is a Republican candidate for the Congressional seat in Missouri's 9th District. A review of the Committee's FEC reports indicates that several provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and the Commission regulations, have been violated.

Missouri's primary election occurred on August 2, 1994. The Committee's October 15, 1994 FEC Quarterly Report indicates that nineteen (19) contributions that were designated for the August 2, 1994 primary election were made after that date. Since the Committee had no net debts outstanding, those contributions are in violation of 11 CFR 110.1 (b) (3) (i) and (iii). Alternatively, even if contributions had been made before the August 2, 1994 primary election, the Committee still would not have been able to designate them for the primary election since Mr. Hulshof did not officially become a candidate until August 31, 1994, after the primary which was held on August 2, 1994. The FEC Regulations at 11 CFR 110.1 (b) (3) (i) and 102.9 (e) state, in short, that a candidate is entitled to an election limit only if he or she seeks office in that election. The Committee's October 15, 1994 FEC Quarterly Report reveals that a total of thirty (30) contributions were designated for the primary election. Consequently, it appears that this category of violation totals thirty (30) rather than nineteen (19) in number.

Also, in violation of per election contribution limitations the Committee's FEC reports reveal that the Committee accepted contributions of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) each from Judy Davis and William Davis for the general election of November 8, 1994. These amounts are in excess of the One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) limit per election per person.

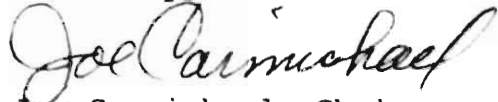

Finally, an examination of the Committee's FEC Reports reveals that the Committee did not file a Schedule B for the October 15, 1994 Quarterly Report, in violation of 2 U.S.C. Section 434 (a) (2) (A) (iii) and 11 CFR Section 104.5 (a) (1) (iii).

Attached, please find additional documentation which provides a more detailed explanation of the Committee's federal election violations. If I can be of further assistance to you in this matter, I can be reached by telephone at (417) 864-5957.

Sincerely,

Joe Carmichael, Chairman
Missouri State Democratic Party
P.O. Box 719

Hulshof says Missouri election law is confusing

By CARL MANNING
Associated Press Writer

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Kenny Hulshof says the way Missouri's election law works could confuse voters about his Republican candidacy for the 9th District congressional seat held by Democrat Harold Volkmer.

Moreover, it may make some people reluctant to contribute to a hopeful who hasn't become the official candidate in the sprawling district, Hulshof campaign manager Brad Scott said Thursday.

"There is confusion in the minds of the voters and the contributors who wonder why they should give to a provisional candidate," Scott said from Hulshof's campaign headquarters in Columbia.

"It won't limit the amount of money we can raise, but it will limit our ability because some people might be uneasy because he isn't the official candidate," Scott said.

At issue is the interpretation of the law governing when Rick Hardy can officially withdraw as the GOP candidate and allow the official nomination of Hulshof, an assistant state attorney general.

Hardy, a University of Missouri professor, announced June 6 he was dropping out of the GOP primary after getting treatment for depression.

The announcement happened after the legal deadline for removing Hardy's name from the ballot. As a result, Hardy's was the only name on Tuesday's GOP primary ballot for Congress. Although the secretary of state's office didn't tally votes in uncontested races, Hardy still racked up 2,203 votes in Boone County, his home area around Columbia.

Hulshof's name is to be listed on the November ballot, once the 9th Congressional District Republican Committee officially nominates him. The committee already has given its provisional approval.

The secretary of state's office said Hulshof can't be nominated by the district committee until the election results are certified by the Board of State Canvassers, which may not happen until early September.

That could push the district committee's official nomination of Hulshof as far back as mid-September. The earliest he could be nominated by the district committee is Aug. 30, unless the Board of Canvassers finishes work before then.

Gene Wiseman, state director of elections, said Thursday that "we are just following the law, which says there must be certification first."

Hulshof disagreed.

"The plain language of the law indicates that Hardy has now become the Republican nominee. In my opinion, state law now authorizes you to accept Hardy's withdrawal forthwith," he said in a letter to the secretary of state's office.

Wiseman said there's nothing to prevent Hulshof from campaigning, which he has been doing.

Republican candidate in limbo

LAURA JOHNSTON
Missouri Staff writer

Sen. Hulshof the man chosen by Republicans to replace Rick Hardy in the 9th Congressional district race questioned Wednesday the Secretary of State's interpretation of Missouri's election law that prevents him from becoming an official candidate.

Hulshof was selected in June as replacement candidate for outgoing Missouri professor Hardy in the race for the Missouri House of Representatives.

primary ballot.

But election laws say Hardy can't withdraw from a race until a winner has been declared. Since county officials have until Aug. 18 to send the results to the state of Missouri, the Board of Canvassers can't verify them until September. Until Hardy is officially declared the Republican winner and resigns, Hulshof isn't officially the Republican candidate.

"He can't file until after we certify the election," said Margaret Freeman, an employee in the office of election.

"This situation has not arisen in my 15 years experience," Deputy Secretary of Election Services Joe Carroll said. "We are just following the state laws."

Because of the law, Hulshof's campaign is in political limbo.

Hulshof said he will continue to campaign, even though he is not officially on the ballot.

The situation is uncommon, Hulshof said in a press release. "I want to get on with my race and on with the issues," he said. "Let's move past this issue. It's time to bring on Harold Yalkow."

RE: MUR 4101

Dear Mr. Keller:

The Federal Election Commission received a complaint which indicates that Hulshof for Congress ("Committee") and you, as treasurer, may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). A copy of the complaint is enclosed. We have numbered this matter MUR 4101. Please refer to this number in all future correspondence.

Under the Act, you have the opportunity to demonstrate in writing that no action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer, in this matter. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath. Your response, which should be addressed to the General Counsel's Office, must be submitted within 15 days of receipt of this letter. If no response is received within 15 days, the Commission may take further action based on the available information.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public. If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address and telephone number of such counsel, and authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

Dear Sir:

We have received a copy of the complaint filed against us by Mr. Joe Carmichael, chairman of the Missouri State Democratic Party, which has been designated MUR 4101.

Because of the press of business created by the November 8 general election and by the need to collect information in preparation for the filing of our 30-Day After the General Election report, we respectfully request an extension of twenty (20) days to file our response to the complaint.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any questions about this request.

RE: MUR 4101

Dear Ms. Taksar:

In response to your letter of Nov. 1, we make the following reply. We were reported to have donated $2,000 per person to the general election of Kenny Hulshof. This is wrong and is a clerical error.

June 27, 1994 check # 1271

This check was written by William E. Davis for $2,000.00. It was designated for Judith D. Davis($1,000) for the primary and William E. Davis($1,000) for the primary. This check was inappropriately designated by the Hulshof campaign as for the general election.

August 15, 1994 Check #1274 and #1275

Check # 1274 was for $1,000 and was signed by William E. Davis(HUSBAND). The $1,000 was intended for the general election.

Check # 1275 was for $1,000 and was signed by William E. Davis. The $1,000 was intended for the general election and designated as from Judith D. Davis(WIFE).

At this point, then each of us had given a total of $2,000 / person or $4,000 for the couple. Unfortunately, $2,000 dollars had been attributed to Judith D. Davis in the General Election and $2,000 had been designated from William E. Davis for the General election and no credit was given for the primary election for either of us.

November 3, 1994

Around October 28th we were notified by the Hulshof campaign that we needed to come in and re-write our checks. We were told that the FEC required each spouse to sign their own checks. On Nov. 3, 1994, the Hulshof campaign refunded $3,000 to William E. And Judith D. Davis. This now meant that we had only donated $1,000 at that time total as a couple, and this $1,000 was credited to William E. Davis in the Primary. We then each wrote and signed individual checks for $1,000 to the Hulshof Campaign for the General Election.

To date, then our donations look like this

	PRIMARY	GENERAL
WILLIAM E. DAVIS	$1,000	$1,000
JUDITH D. DAVIS		$1,000

26044744539

We believe quite simply that the donation to the primary was originally mislabeled as a donation to the general election. We hope this satisfies the FEC. We will await your response.

Sincerely,

Judith D. Davis

REC'D
FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL
DEC 19 10 03 AM '94

COMES NOW Calvin Keller, treasurer of the Hulshof for Congress Committee, to respond to the complaint filed by Joe Carmichael, chairman of the Missouri State Democratic Party, and to demonstrate that no action should be taken on the complaint as provided in 11 CFR 111.6(a):

Allegation 1--Acceptance of allegedly excessive contributions. Complainant alleges that the candidate Kenny Hulshof was not a candidate in the primary election and therefore the Hulshof for Congress committee could not accept any contributions designated for that election.

As a matter of law, complainant's allegation is without foundation. Complainant focuses on the regularly held August 2, 1994 primary election in Missouri and wrongly assumes that this election is the one at issue. In reality, the primary election in which Kenny Hulshof was a candidate occurred on August 30, 1994. This becomes clear after a review of the events leading to that election.

When filing for office closed in Missouri on March 29, Rick Hardy of Columbia was the only candidate seeking the nomination of the Republican party in the August 2 primary. On June 6, Hardy announced through his campaign staff that he intended to withdraw from the race for Congress. However, under Missouri statute, the period for withdrawing from the primary election had closed (the deadline for such withdrawal being eleven Tuesdays prior to the primary election, or May 17). Mo. Rev. Stat. 115.359(1). Hardy's name therefore remained on the primary election ballot.

In the primary election held on August 2, Hardy received a majority of the Republican votes cast. These results were totalled by the Board of State Canvassers as required by law, Mo. Rev. Stat. 115.511(1), and on August 29, 1994, Hardy was certified as the Republican nominee. At that time, a new period opened in which candidates could withdraw from the general election, Mo. Rev. Stat. 115.359(1), and Hardy withdrew that same day. (See Exhibit A.)

Under Mo. Rev. Stat. 115.359 (1) and 115.363 (2) (2), whenever a vacancy on the general election ballot results from the withdrawal of the nominee, a party nominating committee shall meet to elect a new nominee. In this case, the party nominating committee was the Ninth Congressional District Republican Committee, which met in Hannibal, Missouri on August 30. The Committee elected Kenny Hulshof as the new nominee of the Republican party at that time.

Under regulations of the Federal Election Commission, a meeting such as that held by the Ninth Congressional District Republican Committee is a separate "election" for campaign finance purposes:

A caucus or convention of a political party is an election if the caucus or convention has the authority to select a nominee for federal office on behalf of that party.

11 CFR 100.2(e). In this situation, the Ninth Congressional District Republican Committee had the sole authority to select the party's nominee for Representative in Congress under Missouri law. Mo. Rev. Stat. 115.363(2)(2), 115.371(1). Kenny Hulshof was therefore a candidate in a primary election conducted by the Ninth Congressional District Republican Committee and was eligible to receive contributions for that election.

Allegation 2--Acceptance of contributions for the primary, allegedly in excess of net debts outstanding. Complainant's confusion over the actual date of the primary, as discussed above, leads him to believe erroneously that the Hulshof for Congress committee accepted contributions designated for the primary, but made after the primary had occurred, that were in excess of net debts outstanding.

Most of the contributions complainant lists in his Exhibit G occurred prior to the August 30 primary. Complainant's own list of primary election contributions includes only $3735.91 made after the August 30 primary.

As of August 30, 1994, the correct date of the primary election as discussed previously, the Hulshof for Congress committee had cash on hand of $21,267.01, and debts and obligations of $26,072.22, for net debts outstanding of $4805.21. Obviously, this is greater than the $3735.91 received after the August 30 primary.

Allegation 3--Contributions from Judy and William Davis. Complainant alleges that the Hulshof for Congress committee accepted $2000 from both Judy and William Davis and that such contributions exceeded the $1000 per person per election contribution limit.

Because of bookkeeping errors connected with these contributions, the Hulshof for Congress committee refunded $3000 of the Davis couple's contributions by check issued on November 1.

Allegation 4--Omission of Schedule B from October 15 Quarterly filing. Complainant notes that the Hulshof for Congress committee inadvertently omitted a copy of Schedule B from its October 15 Quarterly report.

The Hulshof for Congress committee filed an amendment to its October 15 Quarterly report to correct this deficiency. The amendment is dated October 24.

OFFICE OF GENERAL COUNSEL

Dear Mr. Noble:

I am writing this letter to inquire as to the status of a complaint filed by the Missouri Democratic Party against the campaign committee of Kenney Hulshof who ran for Congress in Missouri's Ninth Congressional District.

The complaint was filed in a letter to you dated October 24, 1994. As we have not received correspondence from you as to the receipt of the complaint, we are again forwarding to you a copy of the original complaint with accompanying documents.

We would appreciate the Commission reviewing the enclosed documents. We feel that several provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and Commission Regulations have been violated.

We are awaiting your reply. If you feel I can be of further assistance in this matter, I can be reached by telephone at (417) 864-5957.

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION
RECEIVED

Dear Mr. Noble:

I am writing this letter, pursuant to 2 U.S.C. Section 437g (a) (1), to formally file a complaint against the Hulshof for Congress Committee ("the Committee"). Kenny Hulshof is a Republican candidate for the Congressional seat in Missouri's 9th District. A review of the Committee's FEC reports indicates that several provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and the Commission regulations, have been violated.

Missouri's primary election occurred on August 2, 1994. The Committee's October 15, 1994 FEC Quarterly Report indicates that nineteen (19) contributions that were designated for the August 2, 1994 primary election were made after that date. Since the Committee had no net debts outstanding, those contributions are in violation of 11 CFR 110.1 (b) (3) (i) and (iii). Alternatively, even if contributions had been made before the August 2, 1994 primary election, the Committee still would not have been able to designate them for the primary election since Mr. Hulshof did not officially become a candidate until August 31, 1994, after the primary which was held on August 2, 1994. The FEC Regulations at 11 CFR 110.1 (b) (3) (i) and 102.9 (e) state, in short, that a candidate is entitled to an election limit only if he or she seeks office in that election. The Committee's October 15, 1994 FEC Quarterly Report reveals that a total of thirty (30) contributions were designated for the primary election. Consequently, it appears that this category of violation totals thirty (30) rather than nineteen (19) in number.

Also, in violation of per election contribution limitations the Committee's FEC reports reveal that the Committee accepted contributions of Two Thousand Dollars ($2,000.00) each from Judy Davis and William Davis for the general election of November 8, 1994. These amounts are in excess of the One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) limit per election per person.

Finally, an examination of the Committee's FEC Reports reveals that the Committee did not file a Schedule B with the October 15, 1994 Quarterly Report in violation of 2 U.S.C. Section 434 (a) (2) and 11 CFR section 104.5 (a) (1) (iii).

Attached, please find additional documentation which provides a more detailed explanation of the Committee's federal election violations. If I can be of further assistance to you in this matter, I can be reached by telephone at (417) 864-5957.

Sincerely,

Joe Carmichael, Chairman

Kenny Hulshof hit the campaign trail Tuesday, less than a day after he was selected by the Ninth District Republican Committee to replace Rick Hardy as nominee for representative of the Ninth District.

Hardy abruptly withdrew from the race earlier this month, citing severe depression caused from the stress of campaigning.

Hulshof, a Columbia resident, has been a state Assistant Attorney General since 1989. Before that, he worked as a prosecutor and public defender for six years.

"I think I can build upon my experience in law enforcement and take it to the voters," Hulshof said. "I think one of the primary issues, at least according to the polls, that is on voters' minds is crime and punishment. That is an area of expertise that I have quite a bit of experience in, so I bring that to the campaign."

The Republican Committee passed a resolution Monday for provisional endorsement of Hulshof. Hardy will remain on the August primary ballot, after which he is expected to withdraw. Ninth District Republicans will officially endorse Hulshof as the challenger to nine-term incumbent Harold Volkmer, D-Hannibal, after the primary.

Hulshof will work with Hardy's pickup manager, who he said are committed to the efforts, ideals and goals that Hardy had set for the Republican party.

It is somewhat of a disadvantage to get a late start, Hulshof said. "But at the same time, it's also an advantage for me to step into this organization that's already in place."

Hulshof did not want to go into a detailed discussion about issues at his first press conference. He did say, however, that he shares most Republican viewpoints.

"I don't think that this particular campaign has one single issue that is going to cause one candidate to win, and another one to lose," Hulshof said. "I think there are a variety of issues that are important."

Hulshof mentioned crime and punishment and taxing and spending as concerns of voters.

Hulshof says Missouri election law is confusing

By CARL MANNING
Associated Press Writer

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Kenny Hulshof says the way Missouri's election law works could confuse voters about his Republican candidacy for the 9th District congressional seat held by Democrat Harold Volkmer.

Moreover, it may make some people reluctant to contribute to a hopeful who hasn't become the official candidate in the sprawling district, Hulshof campaign manager Brad Scott said Thursday.

"There is confusion in the minds of the voters and the contributors who wonder why they should give to a provisional candidate," Scott said from Hulshof's campaign headquarters in Columbia.

"It won't limit the amount of money we can raise, but it will limit our ability because some people might be uneasy because he isn't the official candidate," Scott said.

At issue is the interpretation of the law governing when Rick Hardy can officially withdraw as the GOP candidate and allow the official nomination of Hulshof, an assistant state attorney general.

Hardy, a University of Missouri professor, announced June 6 he was dropping out of the GOP primary after getting treatment for depression.

The announcement happened after the legal deadline for removing Hardy's name from the ballot. As a result, Hardy's was the only name on Tuesday's GOP primary ballot for Congress. Although the secretary of state's office didn't tally votes in uncontested races, Hardy still racked up 2,203 votes in Boone County, his home area around Columbia.

Hulshof's name is to be listed on the November ballot, once the 9th Congressional District Republican Committee officially nominates him. The committee already has given its provisional approval.

The secretary of state's office said Hulshof can't be nominated by the district committee until the election results are certified by the Board of State Canvassers, which may not happen until early September.

That could push the district committee's official nomination of Hulshof as far back as mid-September. The earliest he could be nominated by the district committee is Aug. 30, unless the Board of Canvassers finishes work before then.

Gene Wiseman, state director of elections, said Thursday that "we are just following the law, which says there must be certification first."

Hulshof disagreed.

"The plain language of the law indicates that Hardy has now become the Republican nominee. In my opinion, state law now authorizes you to accept Hardy's withdrawal forthwith," he said in a letter to the secretary of state's office.

Wiseman said there's nothing to prevent Hulshof from campaigning, which he has been doing.

Republican candidate in limbo

by LAURA JOHNSTON
Missourian staff writer

Kenny Hulshof, the man chosen by Republicans to replace Rick Hardy in the 9th Congressional district race, questioned Wednesday the Secretary of State's interpretation of Missouri's election law that prevents him from becoming an official candidate.

Hulshof was selected in June as a replacement candidate for Hardy, a former MU professor who withdrew from the race for health reasons. Hardy's name appeared unopposed on this week's primary ballot.

But election laws say Hardy can't withdraw from a race until a winner has been declared. Since county officials have until Aug. 18 to send the results to the state of record, the Board of Canvassers can't verify them until September. Until Hardy is officially declared the Republican winner and resigns, Hulshof isn't officially the Republican candidate.

"He can't file until after we certify the election," said Margaret Freeman, an employee in the office of election

"This situation has not arisen in my 15 years experience," Deputy Secretary of Election Services Joe Carroll said. "We are just following the state laws."

Because of the law, Hulshof's campaign is in political limbo.

Hulshof said he will continue to campaign, even though he is not officially on the ballot.

The situation is uncommon, Hulshof said in a press release. "I want to get on with my race and on with the issues," he said. "Let's move past this issue. It's time to bring on Harold Volkmer."

FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

WASHINGTON DC 20463

January 18, 1995

Joe Carmichael, Chairman
Missouri State Democratic Party
P.O. Box 719
Jefferson City, MO 65101

RE: MUR 4101

Dear Mr. Carmichael:

This is in response to your letter dated January 10, 1995, in which you requested information pertaining to the complaint you filed on October 25, 1994, with the Federal Election Commission.

The Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") prohibits any person from making public the fact of any notification or investigation by the Commission, prior to closing the file in the matter, unless the party being investigated has agreed in writing that the matter be made public. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A). Because there has been no written agreement that the matter be made public, we are not in a position to release any information at this time.

A letter, dated November 1, 1994, was sent to you acknowledging the receipt of your complaint. See Attachment. We will notify you as soon as the Commission takes final action on your complaint.

Sincerely,

Mary L. Taksar

FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF THE CLERK

Mr. Lawrence Noble
General Counsel
Federal Election Commission
999 E Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20463

RE: MUR 4101

Dear Mr. Noble,

I am writing this letter pursuant to 2 U.S.C. Section 437g (a) (1) to add additional information to a complaint (RE: MUR 4101) filed in October, 1994, and to formally file an additional complaint against the Hulshof for Congress Committee (the Committee). Kenny Hulshof was a candidate for the congressional seat in Missouri's 9th District. A review of the Committee's FEC reports indicates that several provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 as amended, and the Commission regulations, have been violated.

Missouri's primary election occurred on August 2, 1994. Under Missouri Law Richard Hardy's name appeared on the primary ballot. On August 29, 1994, Hardy was certified as the primary winner and on that same day he officially withdrew from the race. On August 30, 1994, Kenny Hulshof was officially named as a replacement candidate. On August 31, 1994, Hulshof filed for 9th District Congress. The FEC regulations at 11 CFR, Section 110.1 (B) (3) (i) and 102.9 (E) state, in short, that a candidate is entitled to an election limit only if he or she seeks office in that election. The Committee's (12th day preceding primary) report (amended) and received by the FEC approximately January 31, 1995, and (October 14, general) report (amended) and received by FEC approximately February 11, 1995, continues to redesignate to primary contributions received as General election contributions. They also continued to accept primary contributions after the primary election receiving some as late as September 30, 1994. Indeed, in the Committee's October 15, 1994 report (amended) they show no net debt outstanding. Those contributions received for the primary are in violation of 11 CFR, Section 110.1 (B) (3) (i) and (iii).

Also, I would ask you to note a letter from the Hulshof Committee dated February 11, 1995, addressed to Ms Robin Kelly, Reports Analysis, Federal Election Commission. The Committee asserts that the 9th District Republican Committee had the authority to nominate Hulshof as a primary candidate under Missouri Election Law. I believe a close interpretation of Missouri Election Law 115.359 (i) (2), 115.363 (1) (2) (3) shows just the opposite. Hulshof could not be a primary election candidate and could only become a general election candidate after Hardy withdrew and he (Hulshof) filed on August 31, 1994.

Also, in violation of 11 CFR, Section 104.5 (48 hour notice) on the Committee's report due December 8, 1994, and received by the FEC approximately February 14, 1995, the Committee accepted on October 29, 1994, a contribution of $1,000.00 from Daniel Sanders for the general election. No 48 hour notice was given.

Further, in violation of 11 CFR, Section 110.1 the Committee's December 8, 1994, report and January 31, 1995, report continue to show general election receipts received after the general election date of November 8, 1994, when the Committee shows no outstanding net debt.

Finally, an examination of the Committee's FEC reports reveal that the Committee's December 8, 1994, report filed with the FEC on approximately February 14, 1995, and the January 31, 1995, report filed with the FEC on approximately February 21, 1995, are incomplete regarding contributions received and debts incurred in violation of 11 CFR, Section 104.3.

Attached please find additional documentation which provides a more detailed explanation of the Committee's federal election violations.

If I can be of further assistance to you in this matter, I can be reached by telephone at (417) 864-5957.

Sincerely,

Joe Carmichael, Chairman
Missouri State Democratic Party

5. Except as provided in subsections 3 and 4 of this section, no candidate's name shall be printed on any official ballot until the required fee has been paid.

115.359. 1. Any person who has filed a declaration of candidacy for nomination and who wishes to withdraw as a candidate shall, not later than the eleventh Tuesday prior to the primary election, file a written, sworn statement of withdrawal in the office of the official who accepted his declaration of candidacy. Any person nominated for an office who wishes to withdraw as a candidate shall, not later than the eighth Tuesday prior to the general election, file a written, sworn statement of withdrawal in the office of the official who accepted his declaration of candidacy.

2. The name of a person who has properly filed a declaration of candidacy, or of a person nominated for office, who has not given notice of withdrawal as provided in subsection 1 of this section shall, except in case of death or disqualification, be printed on the official primary or general election ballot, as the case may be.

115.361. 1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 3 of this section, if a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the incumbent dies, withdraws as provided in subsection 1 of section 115.359, or is disqualified after the filing deadline for any primary election, or if any candidate for the position of political party committeeman or committeewoman dies or withdraws as provided in subsection 1 of section 115.359, or is disqualified after the filing deadline for any primary election, leaving less candidates for the available positions than the number of available positions, filing for the office or position shall be reopened for a period of five working days, excluding holidays and weekends, following the death, withdrawal or disqualification, during which period new candidates may file declarations of candidacy.

2. If a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the incumbent or a candidate for the position of political party committeeman or committeewoman dies after 5:00 p.m. on the third Friday prior to the primary election, the election and canvass shall proceed, and the candidate's name shall be left on the ballot and, if a sufficient number of votes are cast for the deceased candidate to entitle him to nomination had he not died, a vacancy shall exist on the general election ballot to be filled in the manner provided in sections 115.363 to 115.377.

3. If a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the incumbent or a candidate for the position of political party committeeman or committeewoman becomes disqualified after 5:00 p.m. on the third Friday prior to the primary election, the election and canvass shall proceed, and the disqualified candidate's name shall be physically eradicated from the ballot so that no vote may be cast for that candidate.

4. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 3 of this section, if a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the only candidate for his party's nomination withdraws as provided in subsection 1 of section 115.359, or is disqualified after the filing deadline for any primary election, filing for that office shall be reopened for a period of five working days, excluding holidays and weekends, following the withdrawal or disqualification, during which period new candidates may file declarations of candidacy for that party's nomination.

5. If a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the only candidate for his party's nomination dies after 5:00 p.m. on the third Friday prior to the primary election, the election and canvass shall proceed, and the candidate's name shall be left on the ballot and a vacancy shall exist on the general election ballot to be filled in the manner provided in sections 115.363 to 115.377.

6. If a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the only candidate for his party's nomination becomes disqualified after 5:00 p.m. on the third Friday prior to the primary election, the election and canvass shall proceed, and the disqualified candidate's name shall be physically eradicated from the ballot so that no vote may be cast for that candidate and a vacancy shall exist on the general election ballot to be filled in the manner provided in sections 115.363 to 115.377.

115.362. 1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 3 of section 115.361, if a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the only candidate for his party's nomination withdraws as provided in subsection 1 of section 115.359, or is disqualified after the filing deadline for any primary election, filing for that office shall be reopened for a period of five working days, excluding holidays and weekends, following the death, withdrawal or disqualification during which period new candidates may file declarations of candidacy for that party's nomination.

2. If a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the only candidate for his party's nomination dies after 5:00 p.m. on the third Friday prior to the primary election, the election and canvass shall proceed, and the candidate's name shall be left on the ballot and a vacancy shall exist on the general election ballot to be filled in the manner provided in sections 115.363 to 115.377.

and the disqualified candidate's name shall be physically eradicated from the ballot so that no vote may be cast for that candidate.

115.363. 1. Except as provided in section 115.361, a party nominating committee of a political party may select a party candidate for nomination to an office on the primary election ballot in the following cases:

(1) If there are no candidates for nomination as the party candidate due to death or disqualification of all candidates after 5:00 p.m. on the last day in which a person may file as a candidate for nomination and at or before 9:00 a.m. on the second Monday prior to the primary election;

(2) If there are no candidates for nomination as the party candidate due to withdrawal after 5:00 p.m. on the last day in which a person may file as a candidate for nomination and at or before 5:00 p.m. on whatever day may be fixed by law as the final date for withdrawing as a candidate for the office;

(3) If there are no candidates for nomination as the party candidate due to death or disqualification of all candidates within seven days prior to the filing deadline and if no person has filed for the party nomination within that time.

2. A party nominating committee may select a party candidate for election to an office on the general election ballot in the following cases:

(1) If the person nominated as the party candidate shall die or become disqualified at or before 9:00 a.m. on the second Monday prior to the general election;

(2) If the person nominated as the party candidate shall withdraw at or before 5:00 p.m. on whatever day may be fixed by law as the final date for withdrawing as a candidate for the office.

3. If a person nominated as a party's candidate who is unopposed shall die or become disqualified at or before 9:00 a.m. on the second Monday prior to the general election or shall withdraw at or before 5:00 p.m. on whatever day may be fixed by law as the final date for withdrawing as a candidate for the office, the party nominating committee for any established political party may select a party candidate.

4. A party nominating committee may select a party candidate for election to an office in the following cases:

(1) For an election called to fill a vacancy in an office;

(2) For an election held pursuant to the provisions of section 105.030, RSMo, to fill an unexpired term resulting from a vacancy in an office that occurs within fourteen days prior to the filing deadline for the primary election and at later than the eighth Tuesday prior to the general election. If such vacancy occurs prior to the fourteenth day before the filing deadline for a primary election, filing for the office shall be as provided for in sections 115.305 to 115.359.

115.365. 1. The nominating committee authorized to select a candidate for nomination or election to office under the provisions of section 115.363 shall be one of the following:

(1) To select a candidate for county office, the nominating committee shall be the county committee of the party;

(2) To select a candidate for state representative, the nominating committee shall be the legislative district committee of the party;

(3) To select a candidate for state senator, the nominating committee shall be the senatorial district committee of the party;

(4) To select a candidate for circuit court judge not subject to the provisions of article V, section 25 of the state constitution, the nominating committee shall be the judicial district committee of the party;

(5) To select a candidate for representative in Congress, the nominating committee shall be the congressional district committee of the party;

(6) To select a candidate for statewide office, the nominating committee shall be the state committee of the party.

After any decennial redistricting, the nominating committee shall be composed from the new districts, and the old district lines shall be used in the selection of a candidate.

115.367. 1. In the event that the boundaries of a district have been altered, or a new district established for a candidate to be selected by a party committee since the last election in which a party candidate ran for such office, the members of the nominating committee shall be the members of the various nominating committees for that office, as provided in section 115.315 who reside within the altered or new district. The chairman of the nominating committee shall be the committee chairman of the county which polled the highest vote for the party candidate for

Hulshof says Missouri election law is confusing

BY MANNING
and Press Writer

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) — Hulshof says the way Missouri election law works is confusing and is keeping voters about his candidacy for the Republican congressional seat in the 9th district Democrat Harold Volk.

But, it may make some people reluctant to contribute to a hospital who hasn't become the official candidate in the sprawling district, Hulshof campaign manager Brad Scott said Thursday.

"There is confusion in the minds of the voters and the contributors who wonder why they should give to a provisional candidate," Scott said from Hulshof's campaign headquarters in Columbia.

"It will limit the amount of money we can raise, but it will limit our liability because some people might be uneasy because he is not the official candidate," Scott said.

The issue is the interpretation of the law governing when Rick Hardy can officially withdraw as the GOP candidate and allow the official nomination of Hulshof, an assistant state attorney general.

Hulshof, a University of Missouri professor, announced June 6 he was dropping out of the Congressional race after getting treatment for depression.

The announcement happened after the legal deadline for removing Hardy's name from the ballot. As a result, Hardy's was the only name on Tuesday's GOP primary ballot for Congress. Although the secretary of state's office didn't tally votes in uncontested races, Hardy still racked up 2,203 votes in Boone County, his home area around Columbia.

Hulshof's name is to be listed on the November ballot, once the 9th Congressional District Republican Committee officially nominates him. The committee already has given its provisional approval.

The secretary of state's office said Hulshof can't be nominated by the district committee until the election results are certified by the Board of State Canvassers, which may not happen until early September.

That could push the district committee's official nomination of Hulshof as far back as mid-September. The earliest he could be nominated by the district committee is Aug. 30, unless the Board of Canvassers finishes work before then.

Gene Wiseman, state director of elections, said Thursday that "we are just following the law, which says there must be certification first."

Hulshof disagreed.

"The plain language of the law indicates that Hardy has now become the Republican nominee. In my opinion, state law now authorizes you to accept Hardy's withdrawal forthwith," he said in a letter to the secretary of state's office.

Wiseman said there's nothing to prevent Hulshof from campaigning, which he has been doing.

RECEIVED
FEB 14 1995

Dear Ms. Kelly:

Attached please find our amendment to our October 15, 1994 quarterly Report. In addition to addressing the concerns raised in your letter of January 20, 1995, this amendment includes corrections based on a thorough transaction-by-transaction review of the Committee's activity during the reporting period.

Several contributions have been corrected to give proper designation to the appropriate election. As you may know, our situation in the Ninth District of Missouri was complicated significantly by our candidate's late entry into the race, upon the withdrawal of the previous Republican nominee Rick Hardy. Initially the Hulshof for Congress Committee's understanding was that Kenny Hulshof would be a general election candidate only, so contributions initially were reported as general election contributions.

Legal counsel informed us, however, that the nomination process for Kenny Hulshof constituted a "primary election" under 11 CFR 100.2(c)(1) and 11 CFR 100.2(e), since the Ninth Congressional District Republican Committee had authority to nominate Hulshof under Missouri election law.

Because the designation rules at 11 CFR 110.1(b) are mandatory, not discretionary, the Committee began reporting contributions made before August 30, 1994 (the date of the Ninth Congressional District Republican Committee's meeting) as primary election contributions. However, our previous treasurer failed to correct the contributions erroneously reported as general election contributions. This amendment corrects this deficiency.

This amendment also corrects our Schedule D debt and obligation payments to accord with disbursements reported on Schedule B. The $433.23 payment previously reported on Schedule D, to Alco Capital, Inc., is in error; the correct figure is $144.41. I have been unable to ascertain the origin of the $433.23 figure and believe it to be a typographical error.

Ms Robin Kelly
February 11, 1995
Page Two

The payment of $1,732.10 in payroll taxes was made to Boone County National Bank (as a tax deposit) rather than directly to the Internal Revenue Service. Accordingly, the payments were in fact listed in our previous Schedule B as payments to the Bank rather than to IRS. This amendment brings our Schedule D into accord with the payee's name as written on the checks disbursing the funds.

Finally, this amendment also includes additional employer and occupation information. On only one contributor were we unable to collect this information; a memo outlining our efforts to collect this information appears between pages 14 and 15 of Schedule A for Line 11a, Contributions from Individuals/Non-Committees.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have additional questions or concerns about this amendment.

Yours most sincerely,

Cordell E. Smith

Incomplete Reports

Ms. Robin Kelly
Reports Analysis Division

Washington, DC 20463

Dear Ms. Kelly:

Per your instructions in your phone call last Wednesday, I am filing our 30 Day After report as it presently stands. These data are incomplete, but they reflect the numbers entered into our database before our computer went down.

We are having a computer technician work on the problem, and I hope to be able to gain access to our data before too much longer. In the meantime, I am also re-constructing our records by hand, just in case. That will be a laborious task that will not be completed quickly (there are, after all, thousands of transactions involved), so obviously the preferred outcome would be a restoration of our database.

The report here includes some information of which I was already aware, so you will find several typed pages mixed in with the computer printouts. This makes the information somewhat better. Nevertheless, there obviously are a considerable number of disbursements among the missing data; I find it hard to believe a cash-on-hand figure of $70,869 twenty days after the election.

As I mentioned on the phone, I am very uncomfortable filing a report in this condition. Without your express direction to do so, I would file this type of report only with extreme reluctance. However, I am more uncomfortable with a report so long overdue, and if nothing else, at least this report discloses the information I have at present. An appropriate amendment to this report will be filed as promptly as possible, of course.

Yours most sincerely,

JOHN BECKER, TREASURER

HULSHOF FOR CONGRESS COMMITTEE'S RESPONSE TO COMPLAINT ALLEGING VIOLATIONS OF FEDERAL ELECTION
CAMPAIGN ACT OF 1971, AS AMENDED

FACTS

1. Kenny Hulshof was candidate for congress in Missouri's Ninth Congressional District in 1994.
2. On or about November 1, 1994, Mr. Calvin Keller, Treasurer of the Hulshof For Congress Committee (The Hulshof Committee) received notification from the Federal Election Commission (FEC) that a complaint had been filed by the Missouri State Democratic Party (Missouri Democratic Party) alleging violations by The Hulshof Committee of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (The Act).
3. The Treasurer for the Hulshof Committee filed a written response to said complaint with the FEC.
4. On or about August 9, 1995, Treasurer Keller received a letter from Mary L. Taksar (attorney for the FEC) notifying Mr. Keller that the FEC had received additional information from complainant Missouri Democratic Party. Said additional information submitted by Joe Carmichael of the Missouri Democratic State Party was neither sworn to nor signed in the presence of a notary public & notarized in violation of 11 CFR 111.4 (b) (2) Section 4 (b) (2) and therefore should be dismissed. 11CFR 111.4 (b) (2) states in pertinent part:

- (b) A complaint shall comply with the following:
 - (2) The contents of the complaint shall be sworn to and signed in the presence of a notary public and shall be notarized.

26043744692

ADDITIONAL ALLEGATIONS OF VIOLATION FILED BY THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY AND THE HULSHOF COMMITTEE'S RESPONSE TO EACH ALLEGED VIOLATION

1. "The FEC regulations at 11 CFR, Section 110.1 (B (3) (1) and 102.9 (E) state, in short, that a candidate is entitled to an election limit only if he or she seeks office in that election." The Hulshof Committee's reports (received by FEC 1/31/95 and 2/11/95)." "continues to redesignate to primary contributions received as General election contributions."

RESPONSE:

The Act and regulations define "election" to include a general election, a primary election and "a convention or caucus of a political party which has authority to nominate a candidate" 2 U.S.C. Section 431(1)(A) and (B); 11 CFR 100.2(b), (c), and (e). The Commission has previously stated that the question of whether a particular event is an election, or a convention or caucus which has authority to nominate a candidate, is determined by an analysis of relevant state law. Advisory Opinions 1986-17 [5857], 1984-16 [5758], 1978-30 [5325].

2 U.S.C. Section 431 (1)(A) and (B); 11 CFR 100.2 (c) states in pertinent part:

(c) Primary Election. A primary election is an election which meets one of the following conditions:

(1) An election which is held prior to a general election, as a direct result of which candidates are nominated, in accordance with applicable State law, for election to Federal office in a subsequent election is a primary election.

Kenny Hulshof was not a Republican candidate for nomination as the ninth congressional district in the Missouri primary election held on August 2, 1994. Rick Hardy was the sole Republican candidate in the primary election for the congressional race. Hardy received a majority of the Republican votes cast. Rick Hardy wanted to withdraw from the general election race. However, he could not withdraw until the Missouri Secretary of State certified the election. The election was not certified until 8/29/95. Kenny Hulshof along with eight other candidates campaigned for the Republican nomination to replace Rick Hardy on the general election ballot. Pursuant to Missouri statute (115 359 (1) RSMo Supp 1994), whenever a vacancy on the general election ballot results from the withdrawal of the nominee, the party nominating committee shall meet to elect a new nominee

(see... Chapter 115.363 (2) (2) RSMo Supp 1994). The Ninth Congressional District Republican Committee met in Hannibal, Missouri on August 30, 1995 and elected Kenny Hulshof (from a group of nine candidates) as the Republican nominee replacing Rick Hardy to run in the general election November 8, 1995.

The nominating process (mandated by Missouri statute) qualified the Missouri Ninth Congressional Republican Committee meeting, held on August 30, 1995, the power to select a primary candidate replacement, Chapter 115.363.2(2) and 115.365.1(5) RSMo Supp 1994. Therefore the meeting may be considered an election (i.e. second primary) distinct and separate from the general election. The contributions received by The Hulshof Committee and designated "primary election contributions" were correctly reported.

Commission regulations expressly state that a contribution is designated either by the time the contributor makes the contribution (in the absence of a signed writing) or by provision of a signed writing specifying the election to which a contribution shall apply. 11 CFR 110.1 (b). The committee cannot redesignate contributions by changing the election indicated in a disclosure reports. Schedule A of FEC Form 3 merely discloses the election to which a contributor wishes his or her contribution to apply. Amendments to past FEC reports may correct inaccurate information in those previous reports, with respect to a contributor's intention, but those amendments cannot by themselves make a designation (or redesignation) take place. The Hulshof committee's amendments did not change the facts surrounding a contribution; they simply corrected the public record with respect to those contributions when errors in previously filed reports were discovered.

2. The Hulshof Committee "continued to accept primary contributions after the primary election receiving some as late as September 30, 1994. Indeed, in the Committee's October 15, 1994 report (amended) they show no net debt outstanding. Those contributions received for the primary are in violation of 11 CFR, Section 110.1 (B) (3) (i) and (iii)."

RESPONSE: See amended reports dated July 3, 1995 and filed with the FEC. See response #1 above. Commission regulations clearly permit a Committee to raise contributions for the primary election, after the primary has occurred, provided the contributions raised are less than the Committee's net debts outstanding for the primary election. 11 CFR 110.1(b)(3). Complainant alleges that the Hulshof Committee has received excess contributions under this requirement. Complainant does not indicate how he knows that the Committee's primary contributions, received after the primary date of August 30, 1995, exceed net debts outstanding.

Complainant's complaint is defective under Commission regulations, having failed to "differentiate between statements based on personal knowledge and statements based upon personal information and belief," 2 U.S.C. 437g(a)(1)(b)(c); 11 CFR 111.4(c), and to "identify... the source of the truth of such statements;" 2 U.S.C. 437g(a)(1)(d)(2); 11 CFR 111.4(d)(2). Complainant seems to be engaged in a fishing expedition which wastes everyone's time and energy and abuses the process authorized by the ACT.

3. The Hulshof Committee "asserts that the 9th District Republican Committee had the authority to nominate Hulshof as a primary candidate under Missouri Election Law. I believe a close interpretation of Missouri Election Law 115.359 (i) (2), 115.363 (1) (2) (3) shows just the opposite. Hulshof could not be a primary election candidate and could only become a general election candidate after Hardy withdrew and he (Hulshof) filed on August 31, 1994."

RESPONSE: See response to #1 above.

4. "... in violation of 11 CFR, Section 104.5 (48 hour notice) on the Committee's report due December 8, 1994... the Committee accepted on October 29, 1994, a contribution of $1,000.00 from Daniel Sanders for the general election. No 48 hour notice was given."

RESPONSE: See amended reports dated July 3, 1995 and filed with the FEC. This omission was inadvertent and clearly did not result from bad faith of the treasurer. There is no underlying campaign financing improprieties. The Hulshof Committee has worked continuously in good faith to report accurate and timely information to the FEC. The purpose of the Federal Election Campaign Act is to limit spending in federal election campaigns and to eliminate actual or perceived pernicious influence over candidates for elective office that wealthy individuals or corporations could achieve by financing the political war chests of those candidates. Orloski v. Federal Election Com'n 1986, 795 F2d 156, 254 U.S. App D.C. 111. The Hulshof Committee continues to work vigilantly to insure all reports are accurate and timely regardless of how many times it has to amend.

5. "... in violation of 11 CFR, Section 110.1 the Committee's December 8, 1994, report and January 31, 1995, report continue to show general election receipts received after the general election date of November 8, 1994 when the Committee shows no outstanding net debt."

RESPONSE: See amended reports dated July 3, 1995 and filed with FEC and previous responses from the Hulshof Committee.

6. "... an examination of the Committee's FEC reports reveal that the Committee's December 8, 1994, report filed with the FEC on approximately February 14, 1995, and the January 31, 1995, report filed with the FEC on approximately February 21, 1995, are incomplete regarding contributions received and debts incurred in violation of 11 CFR, Section 104.3."

RESPONSE: See amended reports dated July 3, 1995 and filed with FEC

Pursuant to 11 CFR 111.7 The Hulshof Committee respectfully requests the General Counsel make a recommendation to the FEC that no action should be taken on the above said allegations of violation for lack of reason to believe that respondent has committed a violation of statutes or regulations over which the Commission has jurisdiction and that the FEC dismiss said complaint.

Respectfully Submitted, disqualified after 5:00 p.m. on the third Friday prior to the primary election, the election and canvass shall proceed, and the disqualified candidate's name shall be physically eradicated from the ballot so that no vote may be cast for that candidate.

(1994) RSMo. Revised STATUTES of MISSOURI

115.361. 1. Except as provided in section 115.361, a party nominating committee of a political party may select a party candidate for nomination to an office on the primary election ballot in the following cases:

(1) If there are no candidates for nomination as the party candidate due to death or disqualification of all candidates after 5:00 p.m. on the last day in which a person may file as a candidate for nomination and at or before 9:00 a.m. on the second Monday prior to the primary election;

(2) If there are no candidates for nomination as the party candidate due to withdrawal after 5:00 p.m. on the last day in which a person may file as a candidate for nomination and at or before 5:00 p.m. on whatever day may be fixed by law as the final date for withdrawing as a candidate for the office;

(3) If there are no candidates for nomination as the party candidate due to death or disqualification of all candidates within seven days prior to the filing deadline and if no person has filed for the party nomination within that time.

2. A party nominating committee may select a party candidate for election to an office on the general election ballot in the following cases:

(1) If the person nominated as the party candidate shall die or become disqualified at or before 9:00 a.m. on the second Monday prior to the general election;

(2) If the person nominated as the party candidate shall withdraw at or before 5:00 p.m. on whatever day may be fixed by law as the final date for withdrawing as a candidate for the office.

3. If a person nominated as a party's candidate who is unopposed shall die or become disqualified at or before 9:00 a.m. on the second Monday prior to the general election or shall withdraw at or before 5:00 p.m. on whatever day may be fixed by law as the final date for withdrawing as a candidate for the office, the party nominating committee for any established political party may select a party candidate.

4. A party nominating committee may select a party candidate for election to an office in the following cases:

(1) For an election called to fill a vacancy in an office;

(2) For an election held pursuant to the provisions of section 105.030, RSMo. to fill an unexpired term resulting from a vacancy in an office that occurs within fourteen days prior to the filing deadline for the primary election and not later than the eighth Tuesday prior to the general election. If such vacancy occurs prior to the fourteenth day before the filing deadline for a primary election, filing for the office shall be as provided for in sections 115.305 to 115.327.

115.365. 1. The nominating committee authorized to select a candidate for nomination or election to office under the provisions of section 115.363 shall be one of the following:

(1) To select a candidate for county office, the nominating committee shall be the county committee of the party;

(2) To select a candidate for state representative, the nominating committee shall be the legislative district committee of the party;

(3) To select a candidate for state senator, the nominating committee shall be the senatorial district committee of the party;

(4) To select a candidate for circuit court judge not subject to the provisions of article VI, section 25 of the state constitution, the nominating committee shall be the judicial district committee of the party;

(5) To select a candidate for representative in Congress, the nominating committee shall be the congressional district committee of the party;

(6) To select a candidate for statewide office, the nominating committee shall be the state committee of the party.

2. After any decennial redistricting, the nominating committee shall be composed from the new districts, and the new district lines shall be used in the selection of a candidate.

115.367. 1. In the event that the boundaries of a district have been altered, or a new district established for a candidate to be selected by a party committee since the last election in which a party candidate ran for such office, the members of the nominating committee shall be the members of the various nominating committees for that office, as provided in section 115.365 who reside within the altered or new district. The chairman of the nominating committee shall be the committee chairman of the county which polled the highest vote for the party candidate for

5. Except as provided in subsections 3 and 4 of this section, no candidate's name shall be printed on any official ballot until the required fee has been paid.

115.359. 1. Any person who has filed a declaration of candidacy for nomination and who wishes to withdraw as a candidate shall, not later than the eleventh Tuesday prior to the primary election, file a written, sworn statement of withdrawal in the office of the official who accepted his declaration of candidacy. Any person nominated for an office who wishes to withdraw as a candidate shall, not later than the eighth Tuesday prior to the general election, file a written, sworn statement of withdrawal in the office of the official who accepted his declaration of candidacy.

2. The name of a person who has properly filed a declaration of candidacy, or of a person nominated for office, who has not given notice of withdrawal as provided in subsection 1 of this section shall, except in case of death or disqualification, be printed on the official primary or general election ballot, as the case may be.

115.361. 1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 3 of this section, if a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the incumbent dies, withdraws as provided in subsection 1 of section 115.359, or is disqualified after the filing deadline for any primary election, or if any candidate for the position of political party committeeman or committeewoman dies or withdraws as provided in subsection 1 of section 115.359, or is disqualified after the filing deadline for any primary election, leaving less candidates for the available positions than the number of available positions, filing for the office or position shall be reopened for a period of five working days, excluding holidays and weekends, following the death, withdrawal or disqualification, during which period new candidates may file declarations of candidacy.

2. If a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the incumbent or a candidate for the position of political party committeeman or committeewoman dies after 5:00 p.m. on the third Friday prior to the primary election, the election and canvass shall proceed, and the candidate's name shall be left on the ballot and, if a sufficient number of votes are cast for the deceased candidate to entitle him to nomination had he not died, a vacancy shall exist on the general election ballot to be filled in the manner provided in sections 115.363 to 115.377.

3. If a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the incumbent or a candidate for the position of political party committeeman or committeewoman becomes disqualified after 5:00 p.m. on the third Friday prior to the primary election, the election and canvass shall proceed, and the disqualified candidate's name shall be physically eradicated from the ballot so that no vote may be cast for that candidate.

4. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 3 of this section, if a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the only candidate for his party's nomination withdraws as provided in subsection 1 of section 115.359, or is disqualified after the filing deadline for any primary election, filing for that office shall be reopened for a period of five working days, excluding holidays and weekends, following the withdrawal or disqualification, during which period new candidates may file declarations of candidacy for that party's nomination.

5. If a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the only candidate for his party's nomination dies after 5:00 p.m. on the third Friday prior to the primary election, the election and canvass shall proceed, and the candidate's name shall be left on the ballot and a vacancy shall exist on the general election ballot to be filled in the manner provided in sections 115.363 to 115.377.

6. If a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the only candidate for his party's nomination becomes disqualified after 5:00 p.m. on the third Friday prior to the primary election, the election and canvass shall proceed, and the disqualified candidate's name shall be physically eradicated from the ballot so that no vote may be cast for that candidate and a vacancy shall exist on the general election ballot to be filled in the manner provided in sections 115.363 to 115.377.

115.362. 1. Except as provided in subsections 2 and 3 of section 115.361, if a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the only candidate for his party's nomination, withdraws as provided in subsection 1 of section 115.359, or is disqualified after the filing deadline for any primary election, filing for that office shall be reopened for a period of five working days, excluding holidays and weekends, following the death, withdrawal or disqualification during which period new candidates may file declarations of candidacy for that party's nomination.

2. If a candidate for nomination to an office in which he is the only candidate for his party's nomination dies after 5:00 p.m. on the third Friday prior to the primary election, the election and canvass shall proceed, and the candidate's name shall be left on the ballot and a vacancy shall exist on the general election ballot to be filled in the manner provided in sections 115.363 to 115.377.

Re: MUR 4101

Dear Sir:

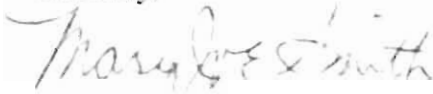

Regarding the above said complaint from the Missouri State Democratic Party alleging violations of certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign act of 1971, as amended, it has been over a month since Mr. Hulshof replied to said complaint. Mr. Hulshof is anxious to get this matter resolved. Please advise if this matter will be resolved by the end of 1995.

Mr. Hulshof plans to run for Congress (9th Congressional District) in 1996. I am aware that anyone for any reason can file a written complaint with the FEC and that it takes the FEC reasonable time to investigate same. However, Mr. Hulshof firmly believes that as long as this accusation is pending his opposition will feel free to continually use it in the press as a negative (regardless of the truth of the matter) which is a tactic used all too readily by his opponents Mr. Volkmer and the Missouri Democrats.

Mr. Hulshof would appreciate having the matter resolved and the file closed by the end of the year if at all possible.

Thank you for your prompt reply.

Sincerely,

Mary Joe Smith

Re: MUR 4101
Complaint by Missouri Democrat State Party against Republican Hulshof For Congress Committee

Dear Ms. Sealander:

Regarding our phone conversation of this date and reference to my letter of October 17, 1995, it is my understanding that the above said matter has not been assigned to a staff attorney nor has the case been recommended to The Commission for dismissal.

The purpose for my phone call was twofold. There is a rumor floating around in the Ninth Congressional District of Missouri ... "the case (MUR 4101) is about to become active and very newsworthy...". Based upon your explanation of the complaint handling process, I am convinced the rumor is unfounded.

Because of the negative inference drawn by the public as a result of the filing of a complaint (regardless of the outcome of the case), a decision to activate the case at this point... (i.e. three months before the 1996 general election)... would be totally unfair to the candidate named in the complaint. Mr. Kenny Hulshof, especially in light of my client's written request in October of 1995 for an FTC resolution of said complaint (one way or another) by either dismissal or active prosecution by the end of the 1995 year ... before the start of the 1996 election year campaigns (See letter dated October 17, 1996).

I thank you again for your courtesy and professional manner with regard to this important matter.

Sincerely,

Mary Joe Smith
Attorney for the Hulshof For Congress Committee

SENSITIVE

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. INTRODUCTION

In accordance with the objectives of the Enforcement Priority System ("EPS") adopted by the Commission in May 1993, the Office of the General Counsel has periodically recommended that the Commission not pursue cases that are stale or that, in comparison to other pending matters, do not appear to warrant the use of the Commission's limited resources. This General Counsel's Report recommends the Commission not pursue 43 cases that fall within these categories.

II. CASES RECOMMENDED FOR CLOSING

A. Cases Not Warranting Further Pursuit Relative to Other Cases Pending Before the Commission

A critical component of the Priority System is identifying those pending cases that do not warrant the further expenditure of Commission resources. Each incoming matter is evaluated using Commission-approved criteria and cases that, based on their rating, do not warrant pursuit relative to other pending cases are placed in this category. By closing such cases, the Commission is able to use its limited resources to focus on more important cases.

Having evaluated incoming matters, this Office has identified 24 cases which do not warrant further pursuit relative to other pending matters.¹ A short description of each case and the factors leading to assignment of a relatively low priority and consequent recommendation not to pursue each case is attached to this Report. Attachments 1-24. As the Commission has previously requested, we have also attached responses and referral materials where that information has not been circulated previously to the Commission. Attachment 25.

B. Stale Cases

Investigations are severely impeded and require relatively greater resources when the activity, and the evidence of the activity, are old. Accordingly, the Office of the General Counsel recommends that the Commission focus its efforts on cases involving more recent activity. Such efforts will also generate more impact on the current electoral process and are a more efficient allocation of our limited resources. To this end, this Office has identified 19 cases that this Office believes are now too old to warrant the use of the Commission's resources

¹ These matters are MUR 4227 (Wellstone for Senate) (Attachment 1); MUR 4273 (Jesse Wineberry) (Attachment 2); MUR 4290 (Lincoln Club of Riverside County) (Attachment 3); MUR 4292 (Congressman Ron Packard) (Attachment 4); MUR 4293 (Willie Colon for Congress) (Attachment 5); MUR 4294 (Alan Keyes for President '96) (Attachment 6); MUR 4299 (JAW-V-CAP) (Attachment 7); MUR 4312 (Sonoma County Republicans) (Attachment 8); MUR 4316 (Ross Perot) (Attachment 9); MUR 4318 (Patrick Combs for Congress) (Attachment 10); MUR 4324 (Buchanan for President) (Attachment 11); MUR 4325 (Dan Garstecki for Congress '96) (Attachment 12); MUR 4329 (Golden Door) (Attachment 13); MUR 4330 (Trice Harvey) (Attachment 14); MUR 4333 (WSB-TV) (Attachment 15); MUR 4334 (Cox Communications) (Attachment 16); MUR 4336 (WSB-TV) (Attachment 17); MUR 4339 (WSB-TV) (Attachment 18); MUR 4341 (Soglin for Congress) (Attachment 19); MUR 4339 (Francis Thompson for Congress) (Attachment 20); MUR 4360 (Weyand Committee) (Attachment 21); MUR 4363 (WSB-TV) (Attachment 22); MUR 4364 (Friends of Jimmy Blake) (Attachment 23) and Pre-MUR 328 (Department of the Interior) (Attachment 24).

Because our recommendation not to pursue these cases is based on their staleness, this Office has not prepared separate narratives for these cases. we have attached responses and referral materials in those instances where the information was not previously circulated. Attachments 26-45.

This Office recommends the Commission exercise its prosecutorial discretion and no longer pursue the cases listed below effective September 3, 1996. By closing the cases effective that day, CED and the Legal Review Team each will have the necessary time to prepare closing letters and case files for the public record.

RE: MUR 4101

Dear Mr. Carmichael:

On October 25, 1994, the Federal Election Commission received your complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission exercised its prosecutorial discretion to take no action in the matter. This case was evaluated objectively relative to other matters on the Commission's docket. In light of the information on the record, the relative significance of the case, and the amount of time that has elapsed, the Commission determined to close its file in this matter on September 3, 1996. This matter will become part of the public record within 30 days.

The Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437(g)(a)(8).

RE: MUR 4101
Hulshof for Congress and John E. Becker, Sr., as treasurer

Dear Ms. Smith:

On November 1, 1995, the Federal Election Commission notified your clients of a complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. A copy of the complaint was enclosed with that notification.

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission exercised its prosecutorial discretion to take no action against Holshof for Congress and John E. Becker, Sr., as treasurer. This case was evaluated objectively relative to other matters on the Commission's docket. In light of the information on the record, the relative significance of the case, and the amount of time that has elapsed, the Commission determined to close its file in this matter on September 3, 1996.

The confidentiality provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. In addition, although the complete file must be placed on the public record within 30 days, this could occur at any time following certification of the Commission's vote. If you wish to submit any factual or legal materials to appear on the public record, please do so as soon as possible. While the file may be placed on the public record prior to receipt of your additional materials, any permissible submissions will be added to the public record when received.

If you have any questions, please contact the Central Enforcement Docket at (202) 219-3400.

RE: MUR 4101

Dear Mr. Davis:

On November 1, 1995, the Federal Election Commission notified you of a complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. A copy of the complaint was enclosed with that notification.

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission exercised its prosecutorial discretion to take no action against you. This case was evaluated objectively relative to other matters on the Commission's docket. In light of the information on the record, the relative significance of the case, and the amount of time that has elapsed, the Commission determined to close its file in this matter on September 3, 1996.

The confidentiality provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. In addition, although the complete file must be placed on the public record within 30 days, this could occur at any time following certification of the Commission's vote. If you wish to submit any factual or legal materials to appear on the public record, please do so as soon as possible. While the file may be placed on the public record prior to receipt of your additional materials, any permissible submissions will be added to the public record when received.

If you have any questions, please contact the Central Enforcement Docket at (202) 219-3400.

Sincerely,
