COUNSEL

Lawrence M. Noble, Esq.
General Counsel
Federal Election Commission
999 E street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Mr. Noble:

The National Republican Senatorial Committee charges that the Robb for Senate Committee and Moran for Congress '94 violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("FECA") 2 USC 431 et seq. by making and receiving prohibited contributions in excess of legal limits which violate 2 USC 441b(a) and (f) and by failing to disclose the total amount of receipts and disbursements in violation of 2 USC 434(b).

The Moran for Congress '94 Committee is spending well in excess of the contribution limit (i.e. $1,000) to support the Robb for Senate Committee. Jim Moran paid for a direct mail letter which states "I urge you to also support the other qualified candidates in this election, including Senator Chuck Robb. We cannot allow the advances that were initiated and passed by the Democratically-led Senate to be threatened by Oliver North and his message, which signals a retreat into the politics of divisiveness and gridlock." Jim Moran and Chuck Robb's political brochures are included in this mailing as enclosures.

Secondly, Jim Moran is broadcasting a political advertisement on television which is in direct support of Chuck Robb by featuring Oliver North in a negative context. At least 50% of the production costs and broadcasting costs of this political advertisement should be attributed to the Robb Campaign. These costs obviously far exceed the $1,000 contribution limit from one principal campaign committee to another. The television advertisement states that it is paid for by Moran for Congress '94. Jim Moran is quoted in a Washington Post article as saying "the ad was designed to boost not only his campaign but that of U.S. Sen. Charles S. Robb (D-Va.) by stirring local passions against North. It's designed to help Chuck. I don't need it at this point."

The actions of Robb and Moran are clearly in violation of the FECA and the FEC regulations. In addition to filing this complaint with the Commission, identical materials are being provided to the Election Crimes branch of the Public Integrity Section of the United States Department of Justice. These materials are being provided to the Department of Justice since this matter involves knowing and willful actions by these parties and significant sums of money. These factors provide the basis for a criminal investigation in addition to civil enforcement by the Commission. Finally, the experience and sophistication of the individuals involved in these actions is such that there can be no reasonable doubt that these violations are a knowing and willful effort by Robb and Moran to circumvent and violate the FECA.

The National Republican Senatorial Committee respectfully urges the Commission to conduct a prompt and thorough investigation into the allegations in this Complaint, and to declare that the Robb and Moran committees have violated the FECA and Commission regulations.

Sincerely,

Edwina Rogers

Respondents.

COMPLAINT OF THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL COMMITTEE

1. This complaint charges that the respondents violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, ("FECA") 2 USC 431 et seq., by making and receiving prohibited contributions in violation of 2 USC 441b(a) and (f), 11 CFR 114.2(c) and by failing to disclose the total amount of receipts and disbursements as required under the 48-hour notice regulations (2 USC 434b; 11 CFR 104.3, 104.8, 104.9, 104.10, and 104.13). In addition, expenditures by the Moran Committee, which have resulted in in-kind contributions to the Robb Committee, far exceed the amount permitted by FECA violating provisions of 2 USC 441a. Finally, the experience and sophistication of the individuals involved with this program is such that there can be no reasonable doubt that this violation is a knowing and willful effort by them to circumvent and violate the FECA.

PARTIES

2. The complainant, the National Republican Senatorial Committee ("NRSC") is a "political committee" registered with the Federal Election Commission ("FEC") in accordance with the law and established by Republican Members of the United States Senate to support incumbent and non-incumbent Republican Senate candidates.

3. The respondents, Robb for Senate Committee and Moran for Congress '94, are principal campaign committees registered at the Federal Election Commission.

APPLICABLE STATUTES AND REGULATIONS

4. Contribution Includes All In-Kind Expenditures. The term "contribution" includes any gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money or anything of value made by any person for the purpose of influencing any election for federal office. The term "anything of value" includes all in-kind contributions. 11 CFR 100.7(a)(i)(iii)(A); 11 CFR 100.7(b). In addition, the FECA considers any goods or services without charge or at a charge which is less than the usual and normal charge for such goods or services to be a contribution. In-kind contributions must be reported just as monetary contributions are reported to the FEC. 2 USC 431(8); 11 CFR 100.7(a)(1)(iii).

5. Reporting Requirements. The FECA requires principal campaign committees to disclose the total amount of receipts and disbursements for each reporting period and to itemize receipts and disbursements in excess of $200. 2 USC 434(b); 11 CFR 104.3(a) and (b). The FEC regulations provide that an in-kind contribution shall be considered to be made on the date that the goods or services are provided by the contributor. 11 CFR 110.1(b)(6).

6. Debts Must Be Reported. FEC regulations provide that debts of $500 or less must be reported as of the time payment is made or not later than 60 days after such obligation is incurred, whichever comes first. A debt of over $500 must be reported as of the date on which the debt is incurred (with certain exceptions not applicable here). 11 CFR 104.11(b).

GROUND FOR COMPLAINT

I. MAKING AND RECEIVING PROHIBITED CONTRIBUTIONS IN EXCESS OF LEGAL LIMITS

7. The Moran for Congress '94 Committee is spending well in excess of the contribution limit (i.e. $1,000) to support the Robb for Senate Committee. Jim Moran paid for a direct mail letter which states "I urge you to also support the other qualified candidates in this election, including Senator Chuck Robb. We cannot allow the advances that were initiated and passed by the Democratically-led Senate to be threatened by Oliver North and his message, which signals a retreat into the politics of divisiveness and gridlock." Jim Moran and Chuck Robb's political brochures are included in this mailing as enclosures. (See Exhibit 1 for a copy of the letter and the political advertisement brochures.) Obviously, Chuck Robb is aware of Jim Moran's efforts since the Robb Campaign gave the Moran Campaign the brochures to include in the mailings.

8. Secondly, Jim Moran is broadcasting a political advertisement on television which is in direct support of Chuck Robb by featuring Oliver North in a negative context. At least 50% of the production costs and broadcasting costs of this political advertisement should be attributed to the Robb Campaign. These costs obviously far exceed the $1,000 contribution limit from one principal campaign committee to another. The television advertisement states that it is paid for by Moran for Congress '94. (See Exhibit 1 for Washington Post article outlining Moran television advertisement on North). Jim Moran is quoted in this article as saying "the ad was designed to boost not only his own campaign but that of U.S. Sen. Charles S. Robb (D-Va.) by stirring local passions against North. It's designed to help Chuck. I don't need it at this point."

9. A contribution includes any direct or indirect payment, services, or anything of value to the federal political committee in connection with the election. 11 CFR 114.1(a)(1). The term anything of value includes all in-kind contributions such as mailings and television advertisements. The provision of any goods or services without charge or at a charge which is less than the usual and normal charge for such goods or services is a contribution. 11 CFR 100.7(a)(1)(iii)(A). These expenditures by the Moran Committee, which have resulted in in-kind contributions to the Robb Campaign, far exceed the amount permitted by the FECA violating provisions of 2 USC 441a.

II. FAILING TO DISCLOSE TOTAL AMOUNT OF RECEIPTS AND DISBURSEMENTS

10. There is no indication in either respondents' FEC reports of any direct or in-kind contributions or expenditures for the costs associated with the mailings and the television political advertisement. The Moran for Congress '94 and the Robb for Senate Committee have violated provisions of the FECA by failing to properly disclose these contributions and expenditures. 2 USC 434b; 11 CFR 104.3, 104.8, 104.9, 104.10, and 104.13. The Robb for Senate Committee has failed to file "48-hour notices" of these contributions as required on FEC form 6. (See Exhibit 3 for FEC reports.)

11. Further, the Robb Committee did not list these expenditures as debts meaning the Robb Committee had plans to reimburse the Moran Committee for these expenditures. Regulation 11 CFR 104.11(b) provides that debts of $500 or less must be reported as of the time payment is made or not later than 60 days after such obligation is incurred, whichever comes first. A debt of over $500 must be reported as of the date on which the debt is incurred (with certain exceptions not applicable here.) As noted above, FEC regulations provide that an in-kind contribution shall be considered to be made on the date that the goods or services are provided by the contributor. 11 CFR 110.1(b)(6). Thus, the respondents are in violation of this provisions of the law assuming there were plans to reimburse the Moran Committee for the expenditures attributable to Robb.

III. KNOWING AND WILLFUL EFFORT BY ROBB AND MORAN TO CIRCUMVENT THE ACT WARRANTS CRIMINAL INVESTIGATION

12. The actions of Robb and Moran are in violation of the FECA and the FEC regulations. In addition to filing this complaint with the Commission, identical materials are being provided to the Election Crimes branch of the Public Integrity Section of the United States Department of Justice. These materials are being provided to the Department of Justice since this matter involves knowing and willful actions by these parties and significant sums of money. These factors provide the basis for a criminal investigation in addition to civil enforcement by the Commission. The experience and sophistication of the individuals involved is such that there can be no reasonable doubt that these violations are a knowing and willful effort by Robb and Moran to circumvent and violate FECA. (2 USC 437g(d) United States v. Jackson 433 F. Supp. 239 (W.D.N.Y. 1977), aff'd, 586 F.2d 832 (2nd Cir. 1977), denied 440 U.S. 239 (1978); United States v. Tonry, 433 F. Supp. 620 (W.D.La. 1977); United States v. International Union of Operating Engineers, 638 F.2d 1161 (9th Cir. 1979), cert. denied 444 U.S. 1077 (1980). Criminal cases ground on the Act's penal section are ordinary federal crimes and will be prosecuted first without having been processed by the Federal Elections Commission.)

RELIEF

13. The National Republican Senatorial Committee respectfully urges the Commission to conduct a prompt and thorough investigation into the allegations in this Complaint, and to declare that the Respondent has violated the FECA and Commission regulations.

Respectfully submitted,

Crime and Violence

Jim Moran was an original co-sponsor of the Brady Law and fought for passage of legislation banning semi-automatic assault weapons. He strongly supported "truth in sentencing" to make criminals serve their full sentence as well as quicken trials. He believes that our communities, schools, and streets will only be safer when criminal punishment is "swift, certain, and severe," and balanced with effective prevention efforts.

The Local Economy

Jim adamantly opposed the Navy move from Crystal City. He has obtained federal funds for a supercomputer and business development center to make Northern Virginia the nation's leader in high technology. He was instrumental in passing NAFTA, reforming real estate tax laws and reducing unfunded federal mandates.

Federal Employees and Military Retirees

The Moran Bill restores military retiree COLA's. Jim has been one of the leaders in getting higher federal pay increases as well as opposing the inequities of "Reinventing Government."

Environment

Jim was given the top environmental award from the nation's environmental groups for his legislative leadership.

Commuter Tax

Jim led the fight against D.C. Statehood.

Health Care

Understanding the need for strong community-health programs, Jim Moran introduced the only major legislation in Congress strengthening the nation's public health system.

Dear Friend:

I want to thank you in advance for participating in the upcoming election as an absentee voter. I commend you for making an extra effort to participate in the electoral process and hope you will support my candidacy.

When I was first elected to Congress in 1990, I pledged to protect a woman's right to choose, preserve our environment, bring economic growth to our region, reduce the federal deficit, and fight the crime that is destroying our communities.

Since my election, I have been proud to support and sponsor legislation to accomplish those goals, including the Freedom of Choice Act, the Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act, the Family and Medical Leave Act, and most recently, the Crime Bill, which included an amendment I sponsored to protect the privacy of licensed drivers. While much has been accomplished over the last four years, there is much more that I want to do.

As a member of the Appropriations Committee, I have fostered the development of high technology enterprises throughout the district, creating new growth and job opportunities in our region. My ultimate goal is to make our region the nation's leader in high technology and information management. I hope that, with your support, I can continue working on these and other important issues affecting our regional and national interests.

I urge you to also support the other qualified candidates in this election, including Senator Chuck Robb. We cannot allow the advances that were initiated and passed by the Democratically-led Senate to be threatened by Oliver North and his message, which signals a retreat into the politics of divisiveness and gridlock.

I appreciate your consideration and support on November 8th. Once again, thanks for taking the time to participate in this important election.

Sincerely,

Moran Airs First TV Attack

McSarrow Calls Ad a Sign of His Strength

By Charles W. Hall
Washington Post Staff Writer

As the familiar face of Republican Senate candidate Oliver L. North stares from the television screen, the voice speaks ominously of "Ot-lie's World," a place where women's reproductive rights are ignored, assault weapons are legal and lying is a way of life.

But as the narrative continues, the candidate's hair thins and his eyebrows arch. Through the wonders of computer enhancement, North turns into another Republican candidate, one who is challenging Rep. James P. Moran Jr. (D-Va.).

As the metamorphosis is completed, the announcer intones, "Kyle McSarrow is part of Ot-lie's World."

As Northern Virginia's 8th District House race enters its final week, Moran is using a tool he never employed in a politically brutal contest with McSarrow two years ago: a televised attack ad.

And paradoxically, McSarrow said the ad is a sign of his growing strength.

"They are freaked out," McSarrow said of the Moran campaign. "All they can do is try to demonize me. If you wanted the classic sign of a desperate candidate, that ad is it."

EIGHTH, From B1

Moran, by contrast, said the ad is a reflection of his challenger's weakness. He said the ad was designed to boost not only his own campaign but that of U.S. Sen. Charles S. Robb (D-Va.) by stirring local passions against North.

"It's designed to help Chuck. I don't need it at this point," Moran said. "I've seen the polling numbers. Kyle can think what he wants."

Just as McSlarrow, a young, conservative lawyer, and Moran, a longtime liberal, differ on virtually every question of government policy, the two agree on little about the politics shaping this year's election.

McSlarrow, who won 43 percent of the vote two years ago—when Republican President George Bush was being swept out of office—said he is almost certain to do better this year.

"In the worst Republican year since 1974, in a year when we were outspent 3 to 1, we still got 43 points," said Bill Wilson, McSlarrow's campaign manager. "In what is going to be the worst Democratic year ever... we're supposed to believe Kyle's going to do worse? I don't think so."

Moran, 49, acknowledges that this year is vastly more difficult for Democrats than 1992, but he and supporters said he has succeeded in establishing a strong and separate political identity from President Clinton. According to their internal polls, they said, Moran leads McSlarrow by 2 to 1.

McSlarrow, 34, has focused his campaign on several issues that he hopes can pry away voters in a traditionally Democratic district that includes Arlington, Alexandria and much of southern Fairfax County.

McSlarrow has lashed out at Moran's record on crime, charging him with voting for making Pell Grant low-income scholarships available to felons and with supporting, on certain votes, death penalty appeals on the basis of racial inequities.

In addition, McSlarrow has accused Moran of failing to protect active and retired federal and military employees—who make up 107,000 of the district's 300,000 voters. He has accused Moran of selling out his district's interests to support Clinton's agenda.

"McSlarrow has run a more credible campaign than in 1992," said Mark J. Rosell, a political science professor at Mary Washington University who closely watches Northern Virginia politics.

"He's raised more money and used local issues to better affect, and for that he deserves credit."

But in a district where Arlington and Alexandria make up 50 percent of the vote—the two jurisdictions gave overwhelming margins to 1993 Democratic gubernatorial candidate Mary Sue Terry, who lost statewide—any Republican campaign is difficult, Rosell said.

"Given the very Democratic-leaning nature of the district, it's an uphill battle," he said.

Like the candidates themselves, the polling data released by each campaign markedly is different.

McSlarrow's last poll, in early September, showed him trailing Moran by 15 points, Wilson said. But he said telephone surveys have suggested that the gap has closed since then.

Wilson also said that only 38 percent of those polled said they specifically favored Moran's reelection and that, for the first time, pollsters found more voters in the district—42 percent—who favored a Republican over a Democrat for the seat. He attributed that switch to a sharp drop in Clinton's popularity among district voters since the spring, from an approval rating of 58 percent to 34 percent, according to the campaign's polls.

Moran's campaign manager, Mame Reiley, scoffed at that portrayal, saying that 50 percent to 55 percent of those answering Democratic pollsters said they would vote to reelect Moran over any challenger and that 69 percent said they saw Moran as hard-working and honest, even if they didn't agree with him politically.

"Jim Moran compares very favorably with most of the Democratic incumbents we've worked with this year," said Alan Secrest, a pollster working for 30 Democratic congressional candidates. "He's established his honesty and integrity, he's worked hard on issues that make a difference in day-to-day lives, and he's been willing to distinguish himself from Clinton when needed."

As in 1992, Moran has raised more money than McSlarrow. According to the campaigns' Oct. 15 statements to the Federal Election Commission, Moran reported raising $800,000 while McSlarrow had raised $369,000.

At first, the state Republican Party declined to designate McSlarrow's campaign as one deserving full financial support. State party leaders later reversed their position and gave $60,000 to McSlarrow after he convinced them his race could be won.

"Kyle came to us with more information, and we were just darned impressed," said David Johnson, a spokesman for the Republican Party of Virginia. "He persuaded us that, even given the numbers in the district, people are sick and tired of Moran and that the anti-Clinton message is working there too."

OFFICE OF THE SENATE
SECRETARY OF THE SENATE

October 24, 1994

Secretary of the Senate
Room 232
Hart Senate Office Building
Washington, DC 20510-7116

We have enclosed FEC Form 3 for Robb For The Senate Committee, a principal campaign committee for Charles S. Robb of Virginia, for the Twelfth day report preceding the General Election to be held on November 8, 1994 in Virginia, covering the period of October 1, 1994 through October 19, 1994, inclusive.

This report includes memo entries for contributors to cover the money received from the 1994 Virginia Victory Dinner Committee, an authorized joint fundraising committee registered with our committee. The memo entries are listed in Schedule A along with the regular receipts. However, I have included a detail schedule of the contributions as an addendum to our report to aid in your tracking.

Very truly yours,

C. R. Suddith, Jr.
Deputy Treasurer

RE: MUR 4124

Dear Ms. Rogers:

This letter acknowledges receipt on November 3, 1994, of the complaint which you filed on behalf of the National Republican Senatorial Committee alleging possible violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). The respondent(s) will be notified of this complaint within five days.

You will be notified as soon as the Federal Election Commission takes final action on your complaint. Should you receive any additional information in this matter, please forward it to the Office of the General Counsel. Such information must be sworn to in the same manner as the original complaint. We have numbered this matter MUR 4124. Please refer to this number in all future communications. For your information, we have attached a brief description of the Commission's procedures for handling complaints.

Sincerely,

RE: MUR 4124

Dear Mr. Smith:

The Federal Election Commission received a complaint which indicates that the Robb for the Senate Committee ("Committee") and you, as treasurer, may have violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). A copy of the complaint is enclosed. We have numbered this matter MUR 4124. Please refer to this number in all future correspondence.

Under the Act, you have the opportunity to demonstrate in writing that no action should be taken against the Committee and you, as treasurer, in this matter. Please submit any factual or legal materials which you believe are relevant to the Commission's analysis of this matter. Where appropriate, statements should be submitted under oath. Your response, which should be addressed to the General Counsel's Office, must be submitted within 15 days of receipt of this letter. If no response is received within 15 days, the Commission may take further action based on the available information.

This matter will remain confidential in accordance with 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(4)(B) and § 437g(a)(12)(A) unless you notify the Commission in writing that you wish the matter to be made public. If you intend to be represented by counsel in this matter, please advise the Commission by completing the enclosed form stating the name, address and telephone number of such counsel, and authorizing such counsel to receive any notifications and other communications from the Commission.

Re: MURs 4116 and 4124: Charles S. Robb and Robb for Senate,
Alson H. Smith, Treasurer

Dear Ms. Smith:

Enclosed please find designations of counsel from Senator Charles S. Robb and his principal campaign committee, Robb for Senate and Alson H. Smith, treasurer, for the two above-referenced matters under review.

We would like to request an extension of time of 20 days to respond to the MURs. Because of the Thanksgiving holiday and the post-election vacation plans of many of the Committee's staff, it would be extremely difficult to gather the necessary information to respond within the original 15 day period allowed by the Commission. The Commission's letter was received on November 15 — the original response would be due, therefore, on November 30. With the 20 day extension, the response will be due on December 20, 1994.

If you have any questions or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned.

Very truly yours,

Robert F. Bauer
Judith L. Corley

Re: MUR 4124, Moran for Congress '94 Committee

Dear Ms. Smith:

I understand from your office that you are not going to be available today, so I am sending this letter to you to arrive on the morning of November 29.

As the enclosed Statement of Designation of Counsel reflects, I represent the Moran for Congress '94 Committee in connection with the above-referenced complaint to the FEC. I received the complaint earlier today, with its voluminous attachments, and I have spoken briefly with the committee official who received the complaint. I am undertaking an investigation into the factual and legal elements of the violations alleged in the complaint.

My information is that the Moran Committee received the complaint on November 14, and that its response is due on November 29. Having just received the complaint in my hands, I am unable to respond to the substance of the complaint because my investigation has only begun. I am therefore requesting an extension of time in which to provide a response on behalf of the Moran for Congress '94 Committee.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Kenneth E. Labowitz

Re: MUR 4124, Moran for Congress '94 Campaign Committee

Dear Ms. Smith:

On behalf of the Moran for Congress '94 Campaign Committee, I am responding to the complaint filed with the Commission by the National Republican Senatorial Committee regarding expenditures and receipts in connection with the 1994 Congressional and Senatorial campaigns.

The complaint addresses two matters: a mailing by the Moran for Congress '94 Committee that included brochures prepared by Senator Charles Robb's campaign committee; and a story in the Washington Post newspaper concerning Congressman Moran's motives in the running of television ads promoting his own re-election. The newspaper story suggested that Congressman Moran was running the ad not to benefit himself in his contested election, but for the benefit of Senator Robb and his campaign. Each of these matters will be addressed in my response.

Robb brochures in the Moran campaign mailing: On or about September 23, 1994, the Moran campaign made a bulk mailing of Moran campaign information, including a letter from Congressman Moran, to voters in the Eighth District of Virginia. Included among the inserts with the letter was a grip card prepared by the Robb campaign committee, advocating the re-election of Senator Robb. Previously, the Moran campaign had made a reported contribution of $1,000 to the Robb campaign.

Subsequent to the election, the Moran campaign requested and received from the Robb campaign a refund of the $1,000 contribution. In addition, the Moran campaign advised the Robb campaign that the cost of the Moran mailing in late September should be treated as an in-kind contribution to the Robb campaign.

Alva E. Smith
December 15, 1994

The cost of the September Moran mailing that included the Robb grip card was determined to be $960.00, and the Robb campaign has been advised that that amount should be reflected in the Robb campaign reports as an in-kind contribution from the Moran campaign.

The Moran television ad: Prior to the election of November 8, 1994, the Moran campaign ran a television ad that is discussed in the newspaper article that is the subject of the Republican complaint. The ad was clearly identified as advocating the re-election of Congressman Moran; his Republican opponent, Kyle McSlarrow, was identified by name and with his photograph. Senator Robb's name was not mentioned in the ad, nor was he pictured or referred to in any way. The ad included no statements of support for Senator Robb nor were voters encouraged to vote for or against any candidate in the Senate race.

So far as we can determine, the complaint at issue here is not based upon the ad or its contents per se, but on a newspaper story that ran in the Washington Post subsequent to the appearance of the ad on television in the Washington market. The Post story that forms the basis for the complaint, while not identified by date, is a fairly typical pre-election piece describing the Moran-McSlarrow contest from the point of view of each candidate's views of his strengths and his opponent's weaknesses as Election Day approached. Each candidate expressed confidence in his own chances in the election, and downplayed the other's strategy and levels of support, in standard campaign fashion.

Absent from the newspaper story is any mention that Congressman Moran in any way acted in a coordinated fashion with Senator Robb's campaign to make any contributions to the senator's re-election effort. What is apparent from the Post article is that both candidates considered the Moran-McSlarrow election to be a serious, hotly-contested election whose outcome was very much in doubt prior to the balloting on November 8. Each candidate expressed confidence of his own ability to convey his message to the voters to attract the greatest number of votes in the approaching election.

The complaint asserts that the television ad "is in direct support of Chuck Robb" without substantiating any basis for this conclusion. Senator Robb was not identified by name or likeness in the ad, and the complaint does not state otherwise. There is no factual basis for the claim in the complaint that the ad "is in direct support of" anyone other than Congressman Moran. What is paramount here is the fact that Senator Robb had no involvement in the production, placement, payment, or content of the Moran campaign ad, as reflected in the attached affidavit from Name Reiley, chair of the Moran for Congress '94 Committee. The complaint does not make any attempt to substantiate a claim that any such involvement occurred.

The ad in question urged voters who viewed it to evaluate Mr. McSlarrow and Congressman Moran and make a choice between the two candidates in their race for Congress from the Eighth District of Virginia. There is no basis for attributing the content of this ad to the Robb campaign; there is no precedent in statute, regulation, case law, or FEC opinion letters for the attribution of direct or indirect campaign contributions to another candidate's campaign under these circumstances.

The Moran campaign ad was exactly that: paid advocacy in favor of Congressman Moran and against his opponent, Mr. McSlarrow. The ad was initiated, planned, executed, and paid for under circumstances that were and are entirely legitimate, paid for with Moran campaign funds properly accounted for in filings with the Commission. Neither Senator Robb nor his campaign contributed in any way to the preparation or placement of the Moran ads, and there is simply no basis under which the Commission can find a violation of any Federal statute or its regulations under these circumstances.

As reflected by the attached affidavit, there was no direct or indirect connection between the Moran and the Robb campaigns regarding this ad. The ad was solely a product of the Moran campaign's efforts to bring about the re-election of its candidate.

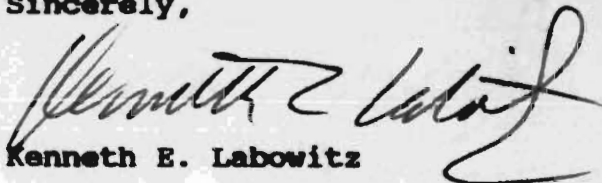

Conclusion: The statutes cited in the complaint are not implicated by the conduct complained of in the complaint of November 2. The Moran campaign has advised the Robb campaign as to the appropriate accounting to be made for the expenses associated with the September mailing that included the Robb grip card. The total in-kind contribution involved in the mailing is below the maximum permitted by statute. Regarding the television ad, there is no basis in fact for the contentions set forth in the complaint, because the reality is that the ad was conceived, produced, and aired entirely by the Moran campaign with no involvement by or coordination with any other campaign, including that of Senator Robb. The ad was run for the purpose of re-electing Congressman Moran in a strongly contested race, and cannot be treated as a direct or indirect contribution to any other race in these circumstances.

AFFIRMATION

I, Mame Reiley, hereby affirm under penalty of perjury that the following is true and based upon my personal knowledge:

I was chair of the Moran for Congress '94 Committee, and have personal knowledge of the planning, production, and placement of the television advertising done in connection with the 1994 re-election campaign of Congressman Moran. In my capacity as campaign chair, I have personal knowledge of the circumstances of the creation and placement of the television ad that is the subject of the complaint dated November 2, 1994, by the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee against the Moran for Congress '94 Committee and the Robb for Senate Committee.

The ad in question was conceived, produced, and placed solely by Moran campaign staff and consultants. The cost of producing and running the ad was paid for entirely by Moran campaign funds, appropriately reported on campaign finance filings. With regard to the production, content and placement of this ad, the Moran campaign had no contact, directly or indirectly, with the Robb for Senate campaign. The Moran campaign in no way coordinated the production, content, or placement of this ad with any individual employed by or contracting with the Robb for Senate campaign.

Re: MUR 4124: Robb For Senate Committee,
Alson H. Smith, Jr., Treasurer

Dear Ms. Smith:

This is the response of the Robb for Senate Committee ("the Robb Committee"), Alson H. Smith, Jr., treasurer ("Respondents"), to the complaint filed by the National Republican Senatorial Committee ("NRSC"). The complaint alleges that the Committee has violated federal campaign laws by accepting excessive contributions from the Moran for Congress Committee ("the Moran Committee") and by failing to disclose. These allegations are baseless and, as discussed below, not supported by the facts. The complaint should be dismissed by the Commission.

The complaint is based on two activities undertaken by the Moran Committee: a mailing of campaign materials and a television advertisement. Neither of these activities resulted in a prohibited contribution by the Moran Committee to the Robb Committee. Both will be discussed in turn below.

Mailing

The mailing involved a letter from Congressman Jim Moran urging support for the Democratic ticket in Virginia, and enclosing campaign materials from the Moran Committee and the Robb Committee. The production of the Robb Committee materials was undertaken and paid for by the Robb Committee. These were campaign materials used by the Robb Committee in a variety of contexts during the campaign. The Moran Committee offered to distributed some of the materials for the Robb

December 20, 1994

Committee and the Robb Committee provided copies of the already prepared brochures to the Moran Committee for inclusion in its mailing.

The Moran Committee treated the costs involved in the distribution of the materials as a contribution in-kind to the Robb Committee. The contribution was valued by the Moran Committee at $960. The Robb Committee reported this in-kind contribution on its post-general election report in an entry dated November 5, 1994. Because the amount of the in-kind contribution was less than $1,000, the Robb Committee was not obligated to include this contribution in its 48-hour reporting notices.

Advertisement

The television advertisement at issue was produced by the Moran Committee without any coordination or consultation with the Robb Committee. In fact, Senator Robb does not appear, nor is his name mentioned in the advertisement. Rather, the ad consists of a comparison of Congressman Moran's opponent, Kyle McSllarrow, to the policies espoused by controversial Republican Senate candidate Ollie North. The technique of comparing a candidate's opponent to an unpopular member of the other party in campaign advertising is a common one. Republican candidates, for example, used advertising this year which showed their Democratic opponents morphing into President Clinton.

By tying his opponent to Ollie North, the Moran Committee was promoting Congressman Moran's election, not Senator Robb's. The appeal to voters who did not support North, by making them less likely to support McSllarrow, is a tried and true campaign technique. The mere mention of the Republican Senate candidate, without any other reference to the Senate election or the Democratic Senate candidate in that election, cannot turn an effective campaign ad for the Moran Committee into a contribution to the Robb Committee.

Conclusion

The Moran Committee's activities did not result in any excessive contributions to the Robb Committee. The Robb Committee fully and properly reported the in-kind contribution from the Moran Committee. The allegations made by the NRSC are not valid and this complaint should be dismissed.

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

SENSITIVE

I. INTRODUCTION

This report is the General Counsel's Report to recommend that the Commission no longer pursue the identified lower priority and stale cases under the Enforcement Priority System.

II. CASES RECOMMENDED FOR CLOSING

A. Cases Not Warranting Further Pursuit Relative to Other Cases Pending Before the Commission

A critical component of the Priority System is identifying those pending cases that do not warrant the further expenditure of resources. Each incoming matter is evaluated using Commission-approved criteria and cases that, based on their rating, do not warrant pursuit relative to other pending cases are placed in this category. By closing such cases, the Commission is able to use its limited resources to focus on more important cases.

Having evaluated incoming matters, this Office has identified 34 cases which do not warrant further pursuit relative to the other pending cases.¹ A short description of each case and the factors leading to assignment of a relatively low priority and consequent recommendation not to pursue each case is attached to this report. See Attachments 1-34. As the Commission requested, this Office has attached the responses to the complaints for the externally-generated matters and the referral for the matter referred by the Reports Analysis Division because this information was not previously circulated to the Commission. See Attachments 1-34.

1. These matters are: PM 309 (Attachment 1); RAD 95L-12 (Attachment 2); MUR 4118 (Attachment 3); MUR 4119 (Attachment 4); MUR 4120 (Attachment 5); MUR 4122 (Attachment 6); MUR 4123 (Attachment 7); MUR 4124 (Attachment 8); MUR 4125 (Attachment 9); MUR 4126 (Attachment 10); MUR 4130 (Attachment 11); MUR 4133 (Attachment 12); MUR 4134 (Attachment 13); MUR 4135 (Attachment 14); MUR 4136 (Attachment 15); MUR 4137

B. Stale Cases

Investigations are severely impeded and require relatively more resources when the activity and evidence are old. Consequently, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission focus its efforts on cases involving more recent activity. Such efforts will also generate more impact on the current electoral process and are a more efficient allocation of our limited resources. To this end, this Office has identified 11 cases that do not

warrant further investment of significant Commission resources.² Since the recommendation not to pursue the identified cases is based on staleness, this Office has not prepared separate narratives for these cases. As the Commission requested, in matters in which the Commission has made no findings, the responses to the complaints for the externally-generated matters and the referrals for the internally-generated matters are attached to the report because this information was not previously circulated to the Commission. See Attachments 35-45. For cases in which the Commission has already made findings and for which each Commissioner's office has an existing file, this Office has attached the most recent General Counsel's Report.

This Office recommends that the Commission exercise its prosecutorial discretion and no longer pursue the cases listed below effective October 16, 1995. By closing the cases effective October 16, 1995, CED and the Legal Review Team will respectively have the additional time necessary for preparing the closing letters and the case files for the public record.

2. These matters are: PM 250 (Attachment 35); PM 272 (Attachment 36); MUR 3188 (Attachment 37); MUR 3554 (Attachment 38); MUR 3623 (Attachment 39); MUR 3988 (Attachment 40); MUR 3996 (Attachment 41); MUR 4001 (Attachment 42); MUR 4007 (Attachment 43); MUR 4007 (Attachment 43); MUR 4008 (Attachment 44); and MUR 4018 (Attachment 45).

RE: MUR 4124

Dear Mr. Engle:

On November 3, 1994, the Federal Election Commission received a complaint submitted by Edwina Rogers alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission has determined to exercise its prosecutorial discretion and to take no action against the respondents. See attached narrative. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter on October 17, 1995. This matter will become part of the public record within 30 days.

The Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).

Sincerely,

Mary L. Taksar

MUR 4124
ROBB FOR SENATE COMMITTEE
MORAN FOR CONGRESS COMMITTEE

The National Republican Senatorial Committee ("NRSC") filed a complaint alleging that the Moran for Congress '94 Campaign Committee made and the Robb for Senate Committee received excessive contributions. These excessive contributions were alleged to have been in connection with a direct mail letter sent out by the Moran Committee which included Robb Committee materials and a political advertisement paid for by the Moran Committee that advocated the re-election of Senator Robb. Additionally, the NRSC alleges that the Committees failed to properly disclose the contributions and expenditures at issue.

In its response to the complaint, the Moran Committee states that the campaign made a bulk mailing including a letter from Congressman Moran to the voters in the Eight District in Virginia. According to the Committee, the bulk mailing included a grip card advocating the re-election of Senator Robb that was prepared by the Robb Committee. The Moran Committee indicates that it requested and received a refund of $1,000 for a contribution made earlier to the Robb Committee and that it informed the Robb Committee that the mailing should be treated by the Robb Committee as an in-kind contribution valued at $960. According to the Committee, it ran an advertisement advocating the re-election of Congressman Moran; however, the advertisement neither made reference to Senator Robb or his re-election campaign nor included a photograph of him.

The Robb for Senate Committee responds that the Robb Committee materials included in the Moran mailing were produced and paid for by the Robb Committee. The Robb Committee states that both Committees treated the costs involved in the distribution as an in-kind contribution to the Robb Committee valued at $960. The Robb Committee indicates that it reported the in-kind contribution in its Post-Election Report. According to the Robb Committee, the television advertisement, produced by the Moran Committee, compared Kyle McSlarrow to Oliver North and Senator Robb neither appeared in the advertisement nor was mentioned in it. The Robb Committee states that it did not consult with or coordinate with the Moran Committee regarding the advertisement.

This matter is less significant relative to other matters pending before the Commission.
