DEMOCRATIC SENATORIAL CAMPAIGN COMMITTEE,

Plaintiff,

MUR 4265

v.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN SENATORIAL
COMMITTEE and SENATOR PHIL GRAMM,

Defendants

INTRODUCTION

Bob Packwood kept diaries with meticulous notations about his political activities. One such diary entry in 1992 records his planning with National Republican Senatorial Committee ("NRSC") Chair, Phil Gramm, to commit massive "soft money" violations of the campaign finance laws to assist in his reelection effort that year. In fact, in Oregon and other states in that cycle and the next, NRSC under Senator Gramm committed energy, planning, and resources to "soft money" activities to influence Senate elections.

Only in Oregon, however, did one of the conspirators diligently record the violation as it was planned -- a violation which came to pass when NRSC transferred over ninety thousand dollars in soft money to the Oregon State Party to fulfill the commitment made to Packwood.

DSCC has raised with the Commission the need to investigate, urgently, this pattern of soft money violations of the law by NRSC. To date, the Commission has done nothing. DSCC has been required to appeal the Commission's failure to act to a United States District Court, alleging that for almost two years, from 1993 to the date of suit, the Commission took no action whatsoever to investigate NRSC's soft money program. Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee v. Federal Election Commission, No. 95-0349 (D.D.C. filed Feb. 22, 1995). That case is still pending before United States District Judge Joyce Green.

Now with the revelation of the Packwood diary, the Commission is compelled to confront a clear-cut violation of law, recorded by one of the perpetrators on the basis of a direct conversation with Senator Gramm. As shown below, none of the "explanations" so far offered by Senator Gramm can save him or NRSC an investigation and the application of the full measure of penalties afforded under the Act.

THE DIARY ENTRY

The Packwood Diary entry -- the unaltered original version -- notes in March 1992, the NRSC "soft money" plan for his race discussed directly with Senator Gramm. "What was said in the room," he writes, "would be enough to convict us all of something." He records the understanding among those in the room that "it will be used for his (Packwood's) benefit."

Packwood then writes: "I think that's a felony."

Packwood's altered version reads differently. His story of a felony is transformed into an account of a mere "argument" -- the kind, the Senator wishes us to believe, that he has had "all my life." Supposedly, now, the only question under discussion in the room concerns how much money -- not what kind of money -- NRSC would transfer to the State Party.

THE TRANSFER

The soft money commitment by NRSC reflected in the original diary entry, the true one, is followed over the coming months by transfers by NRSC of well over hundred thousand dollars in "soft money" to the Oregon State Party. NRSC utilized soft money in other Senate races in the same cycle, as alleged in complaints by DSCC filed in 1993 and 1994, and in the action this year in United States District Court demonstrating that the Commission failed to take action as required by law. In all these instances NRSC attempted with "soft money" to secure decisive and illegal advantage for its candidates in close Senate races.

THE GRAMM "EXPLANATIONS"

1. "He Didn't Mean It"

Senator Gramm, faced with the diary entry, has offered two explanations. One, supported by Packwood, seeks to dismiss the entry as inaccurate. Mr. Gramm has embraced Mr. Packwood's disavowal of his diary entry.<sup>1</sup> Mr. Gramm would have it believed that Packwood mangled his account of a conversation in which he directly participated, or derived some satisfaction from lying to his own diary. This claim is insupportable on two counts.

First, Packwood seemed convinced enough of the accuracy of the account, that he took pains, at great legal risk, to alter it. If Packwood was prepared to accept responsibility for a pattern of false entries in his diary, it is unclear why he would trouble to change the entry.

Second, in other more convenient circumstances, Senator Gramm has conceded that a diary generally reflects an individual's most truthful, unsparing recollections and impressions. Only two years ago, Senator Gramm harshly assailed the claim by Mr. Joshua Steiner, similar to the one Packwood now makes, that his diary entries on certain "Whitewater" related matters were not accurate. Mr. Gramm stated then, as he would deny now, that by its nature a diary is evidence of a diarist's true beliefs and recollections.

Indeed, in a letter Senator Gramm prepared with other colleagues, he called on independent counsel, Kenneth Starr, to investigate Mr. Steiner for criminal misconduct on the basis of his sworn denial of the validity of his diary entries. Gramm and his colleagues claimed that by "departing from the plain meaning of his diary entries," Steiner "departed from the truth."

Then, in Whitewater hearings before the Senate Banking Committee, the Senator stated:

There's no way that you can undo what you have written . . . because it speaks so much more clearly in pure terms that [sic] clearly you felt, than anything you could ever say today.<sup>2</sup> and again . . .

The power of your written word expressing your heartfelt feelings in a diary that the world was never to see is so powerful that it destroys your testimony today.<sup>3</sup>

Overall, Gramm was clear in saying that he would "give greater credence" to a diary than a later recantation, because "people wrote them from their heart, they assumed they were never going to be read."

The Commission should take Gramm at his word and evaluate the diaries as significant, contemporaneous, and truthful evidence that Senator Gramm conspired with his colleague, Mr. Packwood, to illegally funnel "soft money" into a Senate race.

2. "He Didn't Understand The Law"

Gramm also suggests that Mr. Packwood didn't understand the law. The March conversation, Gramm claims, involved innocent exchanges of views about well established and lawful party activity. Gramm states: "This is no crime. Party-building activities are perfectly legal."<sup>4</sup> There is substantial basis for the contrary conclusion -- that a Commission investigation is required and that the investigation will turn up evidence of intention to violate the law and subsequent illegal conduct.

The law prohibits corporate spending in federal elections. 2 U.S.C. § 441b. Parties no more than other political committees must comply with this law. NRSC did not. In fact, the Commission promulgated new regulations in 1991 specifically to control "soft money" spending by parties. The new rules, the Commission announced then, were designed "to provide additional safeguards against the use of impermissible funds in federal election activity." 55 Fed. Reg. 26,059 (June 26, 1990). NRSC has made a sham of these "safeguards."

Senator Gramm and Mr. Packwood directly discussed, and NRSC executed, a plan to commit "soft money" to the support of his reelection candidacy. The activities of NRSC do not fall within the purview of "party building" as claimed by Gramm. Any allowance for non-federal funding by NRSC or any other party committee must rest on a claim that the elections in connection with which the money is spent include non-federal elections. By Packwood's own account, however, the conversation with Senator Gramm concerned his race and only his race -- a federal race. NRSC was obligated by federal law to spend only federal funds to influence that race.

The statute provides specifically as follows:

[E]xpenditures made by any person in cooperation, consultation, or concert, with, or at the request or suggestion of, a candidate, his authorized political committees, or their agents, shall be considered to be a contribution to such candidate.

2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(7). In this instance, NRSC's spending was specifically coordinated with a federal candidate and by acknowledgment between the party and the candidate, made for his benefit. The monies thus spent are "contributions" to the Packwood re-election campaign. Because these NRSC contributions were made with "soft money," they are, by definition, illegal.

On the other hand, Senator Gramm may argue in desperation that his intention was to assist Senator Packwood along with other candidates, including non-federal candidates. Thus, he might claim, the NRSC's soft money reflected only that part of his intention concerned with non-federal candidate support. This explanation is also without merit. The Commission regulations promulgated in 1991 require any activity benefiting both federal and non-federal candidates to be funded with a mix of funds. 11 C.F.R. § 106.5. Some federal money is required for these party building activities. Only recently the Commission cautioned the Republican National Committee that any activities promoting a federal candidate had to include some federal funding. Advisory Opinion 1995-25 (Aug. 24, 1995).

In any event, how Oregon spent the "soft" funds received from NRSC has never been established. An investigation is clearly required to address how the money was spent in the service of supporting Packwood's reelection.

CONCLUSION

The Commission should act to investigate thoroughly without delay.

RESPONSE OF OREGON REPUBLICAN PARTY

This response is submitted on behalf of the Oregon Republican Party ("Respondent") and Barton Delacy as Treasurer, in reply to the Complaint filed on September 26, 1995, by the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee and designated Matter Under Review 4265.

The Oregon Republican Party has not been named as a party to this action. Nevertheless, the allegations contained in the complaint concern acts undertaken by the Oregon Republican Party, and involve the same facts and circumstances as those alleged in the complaints filed in MUR 4258 and MUR 4262. Consequently, rather than responding separately to the allegations contained in the complaint in MUR 4265, the Oregon Republican Party respectfully directs the attention of the Commission to the responses filed by the Oregon Republican Party in MUR 4258 and MUR 4262, copies of which are attached hereto and incorporated herein.

RELIEF

The Oregon Republican Party respectfully requests the Commission to dismiss the complaint as having already been thoroughly considered and conciliated by the Commission in MUR 3524, and to enter a finding of that there is no reason to believe that a violation occurred, other than the violations addressed and remedied in MUR 3524.

Respectfully Submitted,

MUR 4258

RESPONSE OF RESPONDENT
OREGON REPUBLICAN PARTY

RESPONSE OF RESPONDENT OREGON REPUBLICAN PARTY

1. INTRODUCTION

This response is submitted on behalf of the Oregon Republican Party ("Respondent") and Barton Delacy as Treasurer, in reply to the Complaint filed on September 15, 1995, by the Center for Responsive Politics and designated Matter Under Review 4258. For the reasons stated herein, the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission") should either dismiss the complaint as having already been thoroughly considered and conciliated by the Commission and Respondent in MUR 3524, or find no reason to believe that Respondent violated any provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. § 431 et seq. (the "Act").

2. THE COMPLAINT

The Complaint alleges "on information and belief" that the National Republican Senatorial Committee ("NRSC") and the Oregon Republican Party ("Respondent") violated the Act, by making coordinated expenditures on behalf of the reelection campaign of Senator Robert Packwood in excess of the limits provided by the Act.

The allegations contained in the Complaint have been investigated by the Commission pursuant to a previously filed complaint, reference number MUR 3524, filed by the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee ("DSCC"). Respondent disputed the allegations contained in MUR 3254. Nevertheless, Respondent elected to enter into a conciliation agreement with the Commission

(the "Conciliation Agreement") disposing of MUR 3254. A copy of the Conciliation Agreement is attached as Exhibit 1. The terms of the Conciliation Agreement were publicly announced by the DSCC through a press release dated September 28, 1993. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 2.

3. THE CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

On May 15, 1992, the DSCC filed a complaint with the Commission (MUR 3524) alleging that, in connection with the reelection of Senator Robert Packwood, Respondent disregarded the legal expenditure limits of the Act by failing to report expenditures for certain advertisements attacking Les AuCoin (the "AuCoin advertisements"). At the time that the advertisements occurred, Les AuCoin was one of the Democratic candidates running in the Democratic primary for the U.S. Senate seat held by Senator Packwood. The DSCC maintained that such expenditures should have been reported as coordinated expenditures.

Respondent maintained that the expenditures for the advertisements should be reported as "operating expenses" not subject to any limits. The advertisements did not advocate the reelection of Senator Packwood, and occurred prior to the general election at a time when the Democratic party nominee had not been selected. The Commission disagreed, and maintained such expenditures should be reported as coordinated expenses.

Respondent subsequently elected to enter into a conciliation agreement (the "Conciliation Agreement") with the Commission. The Conciliation Agreement provides that Respondent failed to properly report costs of more than $55,000 associated with radio and television advertisements. Under the Conciliation Agreement, Respondent agreed to: (1) pay a civil penalty of $10,000, consisting of a $1,000 initial payment and nine consecutive monthly installment payments of $10,000 each; and (2) amend its reports on file with the Commission to report all expenditures for radio and television advertisements as expenditures governed by 2 U.S.C. § 441a(d). Respondent has paid the $10,000 civil penalty in full, has amended its reports on file as directed by the Commission, and fully complied with all other terms of the Conciliation Agreement.

4. ANALYSIS

The violations of law alleged in the Complaint concern the same matters addressed and resolved by the Commission under the Conciliation Agreement. Specifically, the Complaint, in Exhibits

4 and 5, seeks to use the very amended reports prepared and filed by Respondent, as directed by the Commission and required under the Conciliation Agreement, as evidence of violations of the Act in MUR 4258.

Respondent does not wish to recontest the findings of the Commission that the AuCoin advertisements were coordinated expenditures that should have been allocated to the coordinated limit for Senator Packwood's reelection campaign. Respondent does however oppose any attempt to reopen the matters conciliated under MUR 3524.

Finally, Respondent maintains that reopening the matters conciliated in MUR 3524 is a breach the Conciliation Agreement. Specifically, paragraph X, page 8 of the Conciliation Agreement provides that:

"This Conciliation Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties on the matters raised herein, and no other statement, promise, or agreement, either written or oral, made by either party or by agents of either party, that is not contained in this written agreement shall be enforceable."

Further, the Conciliation Agreement was a settlement of disputed claims by the Commission and Respondent, which Respondent entered into to permanently resolve all claims of wrongdoing in connection with the expenditures at issue in MUR 3524. To reopen such matters would damage Respondent, and have broad implications far beyond MUR 4258, including calling into question the efficacy of all future conciliation agreements and the good faith of the Commission.

5. RELIEF

Respondent respectfully urges the Commission to do the following:

- a. Dismiss the Complaint as having already been thoroughly considered and conciliated by the Commission;
- b. Declare that Respondent has previously entered into a Conciliation Agreement with the Commission discharging all of the violations of law alleged in the Complaint; and
- c. Declare that Respondent has fully complied with the terms of the Conciliation Agreement and has discharged all of its obligations under the Conciliation Agreement.

Respectfully submitted,

BEFORE THE FEDERAL ELECTION COMMISSION

In the Matter of Oregon Republican Party and Craig C. Brenton, treasurer

MUR 3524

CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

This matter was initiated by a signed, sworn, and notarized complaint by the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee. The Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found reason to believe that the Oregon Republican Party and its then-treasurer, Bert Farrish, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(3)(A), 434(b)(6)(B)(iv) and 441b(a); and 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a)(1)(i).

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and the Oregon Republican Party and its current treasurer, Craig C. Brenton ("Respondents"), having participated in informal methods of conciliation, prior to findings of probable cause to believe, do hereby agree as follows:

I. The Commission has jurisdiction over the Respondents and the subject matter of this proceeding, and this agreement has the effect of an agreement entered pursuant to 2 U.S.C.

§ 437g(a)(4)(A)(i).

II. Respondents have had a reasonable opportunity to demonstrate that no action should be taken in this matter.

III. Respondents enter voluntarily into this agreement with the Commission.

IV. The pertinent facts in this matter are as follows:

1. The Oregon Republican Party is a State committee within the meaning of 2 U.S.C. § 431(15).

2. Craig C. Brenton is the treasurer of the Oregon Republican Party. Neither Craig C. Brenton nor any other current officer of the Oregon Republican Party was an officer of the Party at the time the events which are the subject of this agreement took place.

3. Senator Robert Packwood was the presumptive candidate of the Oregon Republican Party for the 1992 Oregon general election for the U.S. Senate at the time of the events in this matter.

4. At the time of the events in this matter, Representative Les AuCoin and businessman Harry Lonsdale were running in the Democratic primary election to be that party's U.S. Senate candidate in the 1992 Oregon general election.

5. Robeson Marketing Communications is an unincorporated business which provided services relating to the production and placement of the newspaper and radio ads which are the subject of this matter.

6. Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441e(d)(3), a State committee of a political party may not make any expenditure in connection with the general election campaign of any candidate for the office of Senator who is affiliated with that party, which exceeds the greater of two cents multiplied by the voting age population of the State, or $20,000. For the 1992 election cycle, the State committee in Oregon was allowed to spend up to $120,091.76 on such expenditures for its candidate. See FEC Record, Volume 16, Number 3 (March 1992).

7. A State committee such as the Party must report such expenditures, known as coordinated campaign expenditures, separately. See 11 C.F.R. § 104.3(b)(1)(viii). A party does not have to consult or coordinate with the candidate for a coordinated campaign expenditure to occur. See Advisory Opinion 1984-15.

8. In reporting coordinated campaign expenditures, a committee must include the name of the person receiving such expenditures; the date, amount and purpose of such expenditures; and the name of, and office sought by, the candidate on whose behalf the expenditure is made. See 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(6)(B)(iv).

9. A communication is considered to be "in connection with a general election," and thus a coordinated campaign expenditure, where it both depicts a clearly identified candidate and conveys an electioneering message. See Advisory Opinion 1984-15.

10. Every report filed by a committee shall disclose the identification of every person who makes a contribution when that contribution is in excess of $200 within the calendar year, together with the date and amount of any such contribution. See 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A). The term contribution includes the provision of any service at a charge that is less than the usual and normal charge. See 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(a)(1)(iii)(A). If a service is provided at less than the usual and normal charge, the amount of the contribution is the difference between the usual and normal charge for the service at the time of the contribution and the amount charged to the political committee. Id.

11. Pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a), it is unlawful to use corporate or labor union monies in connection with a federal election. Oregon law allows a state political committee to accept contributions from corporations and labor unions.

12. Pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a)(1)(i), a political committee must establish a separate federal account, and must make all disbursements, contributions, expenditures and transfers in connection with a federal election from this account.

13. On March 26 and 29, 1992, the Oregon Republican Party, without consulting or coordinating with Senator Packwood, ran a newspaper ad in The Oregonian which criticized Representative AuCoin for bouncing checks at the bank at the U.S. House of Representatives. The ad clearly identified Representative AuCoin, and suggested that, because of his involvement with the House Bank, he was out of touch with the voters of Oregon. As a result, the newspaper ad sought to diminish Representative AuCoin's support in the primary election. The cost of production and placement of this ad totalled $12,409.48.

14. In the week preceding the May 19th primary election, the Oregon Republican Party, without consulting or coordinating with Senator Packwood, broadcast a radio ad which also criticized Representative AuCoin for bouncing checks at the House Bank. The radio ad clearly identified Representative AuCoin, and suggested that he was lying to the voters of Oregon regarding his involvement with the House Bank. The Oregon Republican Party spent $42,886.09 on the production and broadcast of this ad.

15. The newspaper and radio ads were intended to help Senator Packwood in the general election either by helping to defeat Representative AuCoin in the Democratic primary election and enabling Senator Packwood to face a perceived weaker candidate in the general election, or helping to weaken Les AuCoin for the general election contest against Senator Packwood.

16. Costs associated with the radio and newspaper ads were coordinated campaign expenditures by the Oregon Republican Party on behalf of Senator Robert Packwood.

17. Respondents did not identify costs associated with the ads as being made to advance Senator Packwood's general election effort; rather, Respondents reported most of these costs generically as "Other Federal Operating Expenditures."

18. The Oregon Republican Party pre-paid Robeson Marketing Communications $9,991.73 for the media placements for the newspaper ad. The first of two invoices for the newspaper ad totaled $292.80 more than the Party had pre-paid. Robeson forgave the $292.80 rather than requiring payment by the Party.

19. Respondents did not report this in-kind contribution by Robeson Marketing Communications.

20. The Oregon Republican Party pre-paid Robeson Marketing Communications $43,334.00 for the remaining fees and expenses for the newspaper ad and for all fees and expenses relating to the radio ads. When the actual bill came to more than $45,000, Robeson drew upon funds previously paid to it from the Oregon Republican Party's non-federal account for payment of the balance of approximately $1,670.

21. The Oregon Republican Party contends that Robeson applied the funds previously paid from the party's non-federal account without the consent of the Party. However, until notified of an apparent violation by Commission staff some seven months later, the Party did not seek reimbursement of any of the amounts applied from its non-federal account and did not begin its efforts to satisfy the remainder of the bill with clean funds from its federal account.

V. 1. Respondents failed to properly report costs of more than $55,000 associated with the radio and newspaper ads critical of Les AuCoin, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(6)(B)(iv).

2. Respondents failed to report receipt of an in-kind contribution from Robeson Marketing Communications, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A).

3. Respondents used funds prohibited by the Act to pay part of the costs at issue in this matter, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) and 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a)(1)(i).

VI. Respondents will pay a civil penalty to the Federal Election Commission in the amount of Ten Thousand dollars ($10,000), pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(5)(A), such penalty to be paid as follows:

1. One initial payment of $1,000 due sixty days from the effective date of this agreement;

2. Thereafter, nine consecutive monthly installment payments of $1,000 each;

3. Each such installment shall be paid thirty days from the date of the previous installment;

4. In the event that any installment payment is not received by the Commission within five days of the date it becomes due, the Commission may, at its discretion, accelerate the remaining payments and cause the entire amount to become due upon ten days written notice to the respondents. Failure by the Commission to accelerate the payments with regard to any overdue installment shall not be construed as a waiver of its right to do so with regard to future overdue installments.

5. Respondents will amend their reports on file with the Commission to accurately report all the expenditures (including the in-kind contribution) for the radio and television ads as Section 441a(d) expenditures.

VII. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance with this agreement. If the Commission believes that this agreement or any requirement thereof has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

VIII. This agreement shall become effective as of the date that all parties hereto have executed same and the Commission has approved the entire agreement.

IX. Respondents shall have no more than 30 days from the date this agreement becomes effective to comply with and implement the requirements contained in this agreement and to so notify the Commission.

X. This Conciliation Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties on the matters raised herein, and no other statement, promise, or agreement, either written or oral, made by either party or by agents of either party, that is not contained in this written agreement shall be enforceable.

Oregon GOP Fined
for Irregularities in '92 Packwood Race

WASHINGTON--The Oregon Republican Party will pay a $10,000 civil penalty for campaign violations committed on behalf of Senator Bob Packwood's 1992 re-election effort.

The Federal Election Commission (FEC) said the Oregon Republican Party violated federal campaign law by failing to report spending on media attacks against former U.S. Rep. Les AuCoin.

"The Oregon Republican Party made an inordinate effort to intervene in the Democratic primary," said Don Foley, executive director of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee (DSCC), which filed an FEC complaint against the Oregon GOP. "This is the price for stepping over the line."

AuCoin prevailed in the Democratic primary over Harry Lonsdale, and challenged Packwood in the Oregon general election last fall.

"(The Oregon Republican Party) failed to properly report costs of more than $55,000 associated with the radio and newspaper ads critical of Les AuCoin, a violation of (federal law,)" said a legal agreement signed by the FEC and the Oregon Republican Party.

The state GOP will pay a $10,000 penalty to the FEC in monthly installments of $1,000.

Packwood spent $5.7 million in his 1992 re-election effort.

MUR 4262

Respondents.

1. INTRODUCTION

This response is submitted on behalf of the Oregon Republican Party ("Respondent") and Barton Delacy as Treasurer, in reply to the Complaint filed on September 15, 1995, by the Center for Responsive Politics and designated Matter Under Review 4262. For the reasons stated herein, the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission") should either dismiss the complaint as having already been thoroughly considered and conciliated by the Commission and Respondent in MUR 3524, or find no reason to believe that Respondent violated any provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. § 431 et seq. (the "Act").

The Complaint alleges "on information and belief" that the National Republican Senatorial Committee ("NRSC") and the Oregon Republican Party ("Respondent"), Senator Phil Gramm, Senator Robert Packwood and the Re-elect Packwood Campaign Committee violated the Act by using non-federal funds, transferred from the NRSC to the Respondent, in violation of the Act.

The allegations in the Complaint concern matters investigated by the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission") pursuant to a previously filed complaint, reference number MUR 3524, filed on May 15, 1992 by the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee ("DSCC"). Respondent disputed the allegations contained in MUR 3254. Nevertheless, Respondent elected to enter into a conciliation agreement with the Commission (the "Conciliation Agreement") disposing of MUR 3254. A copy of the Conciliation Agreement is attached as Exhibit 1. The terms of the Conciliation Agreement were publicly announced by the DSCC through a press release dated September 28, 1993. A copy of the press release is attached as Exhibit 2.

3. POSITION OF RESPONDENT

In 1992, the NRSC transferred a total of $96,500 to Respondent for "party building" purposes. As indicated in the attached affidavit of Craig Berkman, and notwithstanding any entries that Senator Packwood may have made in his personal diaries, all amounts received by Respondent from the NRSC during this period were deposited into Respondent's "state" (i.e. non-federal) bank account. The funds were not commingled with the funds contained in Respondent's "federal" bank account, and were never intended to be used for any purpose other than permissible "party building" activities. The attached affidavit of Craig Berkman also outlines all of the expenditures from Respondent's non-federal account during the period at issue. No expenditures were intended or, except as noted below, actually made in connection with Senator Packwood's reelection campaign or in connection with any other federal election.

As previously stipulated in the Conciliation Agreement, a technical violation did inadvertently occur with regard to funds from Respondent's "state" bank account being used in connection with Senator Packwood's reelection campaign. The Conciliation Agreement, at page 5, states that:

"The Oregon Republican Party pre-paid Robeson Marketing Communications $43,334.00 for the remaining fees and expenses for the newspaper ad [attacking potential Democratic Party nominee Les AuCoin] and for all fees and expenses relating to the radio ads. When the actual bill came to more than $45,000, Robeson drew upon funds previously paid to it from the Oregon Republican Party's non-federal account for payment of the balance of approximately $1,670."

The violation described above occurred when Robeson Marketing Communications, without Respondent's consent, applied funds previously paid from Respondent's "state" bank account.

Respondent has paid in full a civil penalty of $10,000 in connection with the violation, and others noted in the Conciliation Agreement, and has fully complied with all other terms of the Conciliation Agreement. Exhibit 3 attached hereto is a copy of a transmittal letter and accompanying enclosures to the letter (consisting of FEC Forms 3X amended as required under the Conciliation Agreement and other changes resulting from Respondent's review and reconciliation of its financial records) that was sent by certified mail by Respondent to the Commission and the Oregon Secretary of State on October 22, 1993. Copies of canceled U.S. Postal Service receipts for certified mail for this letter are also included in Exhibit 3. Page 2 of the letter includes an "explanation" of the changes incorporated in the amended reports, and includes the above amounts erroneously applied by Robeson Marketing Communications.

The violation of the Act noted above has already been thoroughly considered and conciliated by the Commission, and Respondent has satisfied all of its obligations under the Conciliation Agreement.

4. RELIEF

Respondent respectfully urges the Commission to dismiss the Complaint as having already been thoroughly considered and conciliated by the Commission, or alternatively find no reason to believe that Respondent violated any provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act, 2 U.S.C. § 431 et seq. (the "Act").

CONCILIATION AGREEMENT

This matter was initiated by a signed, sworn, and notarized complaint by the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee. The Federal Election Commission ("Commission") found reason to believe that the Oregon Republican Party and its then-treasurer, Bert Farrish, violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(3)(A), 434(b)(6)(B)(iv) and 441b(a); and 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a)(1)(i).

NOW, THEREFORE, the Commission and the Oregon Republican Party and its current treasurer, Craig C. Brenton ("Respondents"), having participated in informal methods of conciliation, prior to findings of probable cause to believe, do hereby agree as follows:

15. The newspaper and radio ads were intended to help Senator Packwood in the general election either by helping to defeat Representative AuCoin in the Democratic primary election and enabling Senator Packwood to face a perceived weaker candidate in the general election, or helping to weaken Les AuCoin for the general election contest against Senator Packwood.

16. Costs associated with the radio and newspaper ads were coordinated campaign expenditures by the Oregon Republican Party on behalf of Senator Robert Packwood.

17. Respondents did not identify costs associated with the ads as being made to advance Senator Packwood's general election effort; rather, Respondents reported most of these costs generically as "Other Federal Operating Expenditures."

18. The Oregon Republican Party pre-paid Robeson Marketing Communications $9,991.73 for the media placements for the newspaper ad. The first of two invoices for the newspaper ad totaled $292.80 more than the Party had pre-paid. Robeson forgave the $292.80 rather than requiring payment by the Party.

19. Respondents did not report this in-kind contribution by Robeson Marketing Communications.

20. The Oregon Republican Party pre-paid Robeson Marketing Communications $43,334.00 for the remaining fees and expenses for the newspaper ad and for all fees and expenses relating to the radio ads. When the actual bill came to more than $45,000, Robeson drew upon funds previously paid to it from the Oregon Republican Party's non-federal account for payment of the balance of approximately $1,670.

11. The Oregon Republican Party contends that Robeson applied the funds previously paid from the party's non-federal account without the consent of the Party. However, until notified of an apparent violation by Commission staff some seven months later, the Party did not seek reimbursement of any of the amounts applied from its non-federal account and did not begin its efforts to satisfy the remainder of the bill with clean funds from its federal account.

V. 1. Respondents failed to properly report costs of more than $55,000 associated with the radio and newspaper ads critical of Les AuCoin, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(6)(B)(iv).

2. Respondents failed to report receipt of an in-kind contribution from Robeson Marketing Communications, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(3)(A).

3. Respondents used funds prohibited by the Act to pay part of the costs at issue in this matter, in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 442b(a) and 11 C.F.R. § 102.5(a)(1)(i).

VI. Respondents will pay a civil penalty to the Federal Election Commission in the amount of Ten Thousand dollars ($10,000), pursuant to 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(5)(A), such penalty to be paid as follows:

1. One initial payment of $1,000 due sixty days from the effective date of this agreement;

2. Thereafter, nine consecutive monthly installment payments of $1,000 each;

3. Each such installment shall be paid thirty days from the date of the previous installment;

4. In the event that any installment payment is not received by the Commission within five days of the date it becomes due, the Commission may, at its discretion, accelerate the remaining payments and cause the entire amount to become due upon ten days written notice to the respondents. Failure by the Commission to accelerate the payments with regard to any overdue installment shall not be construed as a waiver of its right to do so with regard to future overdue installments.

5. Respondents will amend their reports on file with the Commission to accurately report all the expenditures (including the in-kind contribution) for the radio and television ads as Section 441a(d) expenditures.

VII. The Commission, on request of anyone filing a complaint under 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(1) concerning the matters at issue herein or on its own motion, may review compliance with this agreement. If the Commission believes that this agreement or any requirement thereof has been violated, it may institute a civil action for relief in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia.

VIII. This agreement shall become effective as of the date that all parties hereto have executed same and the Commission has approved the entire agreement.

IX. Respondents shall have no more than 30 days from the date this agreement becomes effective to comply with and implement the requirements contained in this agreement and to so notify the Commission.

X. This Conciliation Agreement constitutes the entire agreement between the parties on the matters raised herein, and no other statement, promise, or agreement, either written or oral, made by either party or by agents of either party, that is not contained in this written agreement shall be enforceable.

Oregon GOP Fined for Irregularities in '92 Packwood Race

WASHINGTON--The Oregon Republican Party will pay a $10,000 civil penalty for campaign violations committed on behalf of Senator Bob Packwood's 1992 re-election effort.

The Federal Election Commission (FEC) said the Oregon Republican Party violated federal campaign law by failing to report spending on media attacks against former U.S. Rep. Les AuCoin.

"The Oregon Republican Party made an inordinate effort to intervene in the Democratic primary," said Don Foley, executive director of the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee (DSCC), which filed an FEC complaint against the Oregon GOP. "This is the price for stepping over the line."

AuCoin prevailed in the Democratic primary over Harry Lonsdale, and challenged Packwood in the Oregon general election last fall.

"(The Oregon Republican Party) failed to properly report costs of more than $55,000 associated with the radio and newspaper ads critical of Les AuCoin, a violation of (federal law)," said a legal agreement signed by the FEC and the Oregon Republican Party.

The state GOP will pay a $10,000 penalty to the FEC in monthly installments of $1,000.

Packwood spent $5.7 million in his 1992 re-election effort.

Gentlemen:

Re: Amended Forms 3X
FEC ID No. C00153031

Enclosed are amended reports showing changes required under Item VI (5) of our Conciliation Agreement, as well as other changes resulting from our review and reconciliation of the financial records.

The amended reports cover the period from January 1, 1992 through June 30, 1993. Explanations of the changes are as follows:

01/01/92 - 03/31/92

Itemized receipts increased by the amount of the in-kind contribution of $292.80.

Itemized disbursements decreased by the amount of coordinated expenditures included on Schedule F.

Coordinated expenditures of $10,284.23 are correctly reported on Schedule F, including the in-kind contribution of $292.80.

04/01/92 - 06/30/92

Itemized disbursements decreased by the amount of coordinated expenditures included on Schedule F.

Coordinated expenditures of $43,334.00 are correctly reported on Schedule F.

07/01/92 - 09/30/92

Unitemized receipts decreased by $4,003.42.

10/01/92 - 10/14/92

This report is filed to correct the cash balance and annual cumulative amounts as the result of the amendments to prior periods.

10/15/92 - 11/23/92

This report is filed to correct the cash balance and annual cumulative amounts as the result of the amendments to prior periods.

Re: MUR 4262; MUR 4265

Dear Sir or Madam:

I represent the Oregon Republican Party ("Respondent") with respect to the above-referenced matters under review.

Enclosed please find the Affidavit of Craig Berkman, referenced in Respondent's Response to MUR 4262 sent to you on Wednesday, October 25, and received by you on Thursday, October 26. Our letter of October 25 indicated that this affidavit would be forwarded to you under separate cover. We are faxing to you the affidavit, without the accompanying exhibits; we will be sending the original affidavit to you, including the exhibits, by overnight mail.

This affidavit is also the final attachment to Respondent's Response to MUR 4265.

Please direct all notifications and other communications from the Commission regarding the above to me.

Very truly yours,

DAVIS WRIGHT TREMAINE

I, Craig Berkman, being duly sworn, do depose and say:

1. I am competent to testify to, and have personal knowledge of, the matters stated herein.

2. I have reviewed the Complaint filed in the above-referenced matter. At all times relevant to the Complaint, I was the Chairman of the Oregon Republican Party.

3. On or about April 24, 1992, the National Republican Senatorial Committee ("NRSC") transferred $24,000 to the Oregon Republican Party by wire transfer. On or about April 24, 1992, the $24,000 received from the NRSC was deposited into the "state" bank account of the Oregon Republican Party. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a copy of the bank statement of account showing that the $24,000 was deposited into the state account.

4. On or about May 5, 1992, the NRSC transferred $10,000 to the Oregon Republican Party by check. On or about

May 8, 1992, the $10,000 received from the NRSC was deposited into the state bank account of the Oregon Republican Party. Attached hereto as Exhibit 2A and 2B are copies of the bank deposit slip and bank receipt of deposit, respectively, showing that the $10,000 was deposited into the state account.

5. On or about May 11, 1992, the NRSC transferred $15,000 to the Oregon Republican Party by check. On or about May 12, 1992, the $15,000 received from the NRSC was deposited into the state bank account of the Oregon Republican Party. Attached hereto as Exhibit 3A and 3B are copies of the bank deposit slip and bank receipt of deposit, respectively, showing that the $15,000 was deposited into the state account.

6. On or about May 20, 1992, the NRSC transferred $10,000 to the Oregon Republican Party by check. On or about May 21, 1992, the $10,000 received from the NRSC was deposited into the state bank account of the Oregon Republican Party. Attached hereto as Exhibit 4A and 4B are copies of the bank deposit slip and bank receipt of deposit, respectively, showing that the $10,000 was deposited into the state account.

7. On or about June 16, 1992, the NRSC transferred $15,500 to the Oregon Republican Party by check. On or about June 17, 1992, the $15,500 received from the NRSC was deposited into the state bank account of the Oregon Republican Party. Attached hereto as Exhibit 5A and 5B are copies of the bank deposit slip and bank receipt of deposit, respectively, showing that the $15,500 was deposited into the state account.

8. On or about July 9, 1992, the NRSC transferred $11,000 to the Oregon Republican Party by check. On or about July 10, 1992, the $11,000 received from the NRSC was deposited into the state bank account of the Oregon Republican Party. Attached hereto as Exhibit 6A and 6B are copies of the bank deposit slip and bank receipt of deposit, respectively, showing that the $11,000 was deposited into the state account.

9. On or about July 27, 1992, the NRSC transferred $11,000 to the Oregon Republican Party by check. On or about July 29, 1992, the $11,000 received from the NRSC was deposited into the state bank account of the Oregon Republican Party. Attached hereto as Exhibit 7A and 7B are copies of the bank deposit slip and bank receipt of deposit, respectively, showing that the $11,000 was deposited into the state account.

10. The total amount received by the Oregon Republican Party from the NRSC during 1992 was $96,500. All amounts received from the NRSC during 1992 were deposited into the Oregon Republican Party's state bank account. All amounts received from the NRSC in 1992 were intended by the Oregon Republican Party to be used for party building purposes. None of the amounts received from the NRSC during 1992 were ever intended to be expended, except for permissible state party purposes.

11. Attached as Exhibit 8 is a certified copy of the Oregon Republican Party's Contributions and Expenditures reports for the 1st pre-election, 2nd pre-election and post election reporting periods for the Primary Election of 1992 and for the 1st pre-election reporting period for the General Election of 1992, filed with the Oregon Secretary of State. Part II of each report in Exhibit 8 shows all of the expenditures made from the state account. Except as noted below with respect to approximately $1,670 in expenditures to Robeson Marketing Communications, all of the expenditures were solely for party building purposes; the funds within the state account were not commingled with funds within the Oregon Republican Party's "federal" bank account, and none of the expenditures from the state account were impermissible expenditures on behalf of Senator Packwood or any other federal election.

12. In 1992, prior to the Democratic Party primary in Oregon, the Oregon Republican Party pre-paid Robeson Marketing Communications $43,334.00 for services rendered in connection with a series of advertisements. The prepayment was from the Oregon Republican Party's "federal" account. When the actual bill from Robeson came to more than $45,000, Robeson drew upon funds previously paid to it from the Oregon Republican Party's non-federal account for payment of the balance. Robeson's actions were taken without the knowledge or consent of the Oregon Republican Party.

13. In 1992, the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee filed a complaint with the Federal Election Commission (the "Commission") against the Oregon Republican Party. Upon consideration, the Commission determined that although inadvertent and not the result of actions by the Oregon Republican Party, the actions taken by Robeson Marketing Communications constituted use of funds prohibited by the Federal Election Campaign Act (the "Act") to pay part of the costs of the advertisements. The Oregon Republican Party subsequently entered into a Conciliation Agreement with the Commission concerning this and other alleged violations of the Act.

14. Apart from the violation involving Robeson Marketing Communications discussed above, I am not aware of any other instance in which the Oregon Republican Party made impermissible expenditures from its non-federal account in connection with Senator Packwood's reelection campaign, or in connection with any other campaign in a federal election.

RE: MUR 4265 National Republican Senatorial Committee and Maureen Goodyear, as Treasurer<sup>1</sup>
The Honorable Phil Gramm, United States Senator

Dear Mr. Noble:

This response is submitted on behalf of the National Republican Senatorial Committee ("NRSC" or "Committee") and Maureen Goodyear, as Treasurer, and the Honorable Phil Gramm, United States Senator, in response to a Complaint filed on September 26, 1995, by the Democratic Senatorial Campaign Committee and designated Matter Under Review ("MUR") 4265.

Apart from some extra hyperbole, the DSCC's Complaint raises issues that are identical to the allegations raised in a Complaint filed by the Center for Responsive Politics (MUR 4262). The NRSC has on this date submitted a complete response in that matter, and encloses it with this letter to serve as its response to MUR 4265.

Accordingly, the Commission should find no reason to believe the above-named Respondents violated any provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act, and close the file.

Respectfully submitted,

RE: MUR 4262    National Republican Senatorial Committee, Maureen Goodyear as Treasurer<sup>1</sup>
The Honorable Phil Gramm, United States Senator

Dear Mr. Noble:

This response is submitted on behalf of the National Republican Senatorial Committee ("NRSC" or "the Committee") and Maureen Goodyear, as Treasurer, and the Honorable Phil Gramm, United States Senator, in response to a Complaint filed on September 15, 1995, by the Center for Responsive Politics and designated Matter Under Review ("MUR") 4262.

For the reasons stated herein, the Federal Election Commission ("FEC" or "Commission") should find no reason to believe that the above-named Respondents have violated any provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. 2 U.S.C. Sections 431-455 ("FECA" or "the Act").

COMPLAINT

The Complainant alleges "on information and belief" that the $96,500 the NRSC transferred from its nonfederal account to the Oregon Republican Party "were intended to be expended, per the March 6, 1992, conversation between Senators Packwood and Gramm, to influence Senator Packwood's re-election campaign." Complaint at par. 22. The Complainant further alleges that because these funds did not comply with the requirements of the FECA, the use of such funds to influence Senator Packwood's re-election violated "applicable" provisions of the FECA. Id.

Complainant's sole source of support for its "beliefs" are the much-discredited entries of Senator Packwood's diary. As will be discussed below, all Respondents agree the diary entry is false, and the NRSC and its past-Chairman never had a conversation with Senator Packwood resembling the one described in his diary.

Second, the Complaint actually does not allege any illegal activity on the part of the NRSC and Senator Gramm. Transfers of nonfederal funds between affiliated party committees are completely lawful under the Federal Election Campaign Act.

Third, and most importantly, there is not even one hint of an allegation or evidence in the Complaint that the Oregon Republican Party actually misspent the nonfederal money the NRSC transferred to it. Accordingly, the Commission should find "no reason to believe" Senator Gramm and the NRSC violated any provisions of the Act.

FACTS

1. From April 24, 1992, through July 9, 1992, the NRSC made a total of $96,500 in transfers from its nonfederal expenditures account to the Oregon Republican Party. (See NRSC Reports on file with the Commission as attached to the Complaint).
2. Each of these transfers was made to offset the Administrative costs of the Oregon Republican Party (See Attachment 1).
3. It is the practice of the NRSC to send a letter with every nonfederal transfer to a Republican state party committee that specifically states the money the NRSC is transferring has come from the NRSC's nonfederal account, that the state party should deposit this transfer into its nonfederal (or "state") account, and that "utilizing this money in any way to influence a federal election is strictly prohibited." (See Attachment 2).
4. In the Report of the Senate Ethics Committee on the matter of the Packwood diaries, Senator Packwood testified on page 124<sup>2</sup> that his March 6, 1992, diary entry "was simply wrong" and "did not even reflect the essence of something that the other Senator [Gramm] said to him." (Attachment 3).
5. James Cecil, who was present at the meeting between Senators Gramm and Packwood when the alleged statements took place, has submitted a sworn affidavit that "Senator Gramm told Senator Packwood that the NRSC would fully fund his campaign, referring to the amount of coordinated expenditures that federal law allows ... During the meeting, Senator Gramm told Craig Berkman, the Chairman of the Oregon Republican Party, that he would work with him on party-building activities. No specific dollar amounts were discussed. ... There were no statements or conduct that suggested that anyone had, would, or should act improperly or illegally." (Attachment 4).

6. Craig Berkman has publicly stated in a September 9, 1995, article in the Houston Chronicle that "he, Packwood and Gramm and several aides had a 10-minute meeting after a Republican Party function and discussed the money that was to be used for party building. Berkman said no mention was made of using the money for Packwood's campaign. Berkman said he was stunned to read the allegation in the Packwood diary." (Attachment 5).
7. Senator Packwood has again publicly stated in a recent broadcast of "CBS's Face the Nation" that his diary entry at issue here "was totally wrong." (Attachment 6).
8. Senator Gramm, in a recent letter to the Senate Ethics Committee, stated that "Senator Packwood's diary entry reflects an obvious misunderstanding of the election law that governs contributions by party committees such as the National Republican Senatorial Committee to state parties for the purpose of "party building activity. ... The [Oregon Republican Party] was specifically directed not only to use the funds for party building projects only, but to publicly report the contribution as required by law. ... It was my policy to make (this) legal prohibition explicitly clear." (Attachment 7).
9. The United States Senate Select Committee on Ethics has already reviewed this matter "and concluded that no further action will be taken by the Committee." (Attachment 8).

ANALYSIS

The entire foundation of the Complaint in this case is the false and uncorroborated hearsay contained in a diary. This hearsay has been recanted by its author and contradicted by every other participant in the conversation. No one believes the conversation took place the way Senator Packwood initially recorded it, and Senator Packwood, Senator Gramm, Craig Berkman and James Cecil all agree that the diary entry is "totally wrong." Accordingly, there is no fact at issue on which the Commission may even base a "reason to believe" finding.

But regardless of what was actually said, the important point for purpose of the Commission's legal analysis of this Complaint is that nothing unlawful happened. Every single transfer the NRSC made to the Oregon Republican Party was completely lawful under 11 C.F.R. 102.6(a)(1)(ii) ("transfers of funds may be made without limit on amount between and among a national party committee, a State party Committee and/or any subordinate party committee"). Not only does the statute and the Commission's regulations allow these transfers, they are necessary for the state parties to properly finance the nonfederal share of their non-allocable, administrative or party-building expenses. The Commission requires these expenses be paid with the correct portion of nonfederal funds, and the national parties are a necessary source for these payments.

Accordingly, the NRSC was well within its right in making the transfers at issue here. In fact, the NRSC goes the extra-step in reminding the recipients of its nonfederal transfers that the money may only be used for permissible purposes, must be properly reported, and may not be used "in any way" to influence a federal election.

Finally, the Commission was able to identify in MUR 3524 approximately $1,673.34 in coordinated party expenditures attributable to the Oregon Senate election that were paid from the Oregon Republican Party's nonfederal account. All parties agree that this was an error by the party's vendor, who, on his own initiative, debited the state party's nonfederal account to cover part of a federal bill. (See Attachment 9, December 31, 1992, Response of the Oregon Republican Party to MUR 3524 with a statement and invoice by the vendor.)

Obviously, the NRSC did not know about this vendor error. Even the Oregon Republican Party did not know about the vendor error until the Commission pointed it out to them a year later during the investigation in MUR 3524. To the extent this error is relevant to the Commission's determination in today's case: the error occurred prior to and not in connection with the transfer of NRSC funds, and the Commission has already conciliated the matter with the Oregon Republican Party. This conciliation acts as a bar to any further proceedings between the parties and their privies on the same issue. (See NRSC response to MUR 4258 on res judicata and collateral estoppel).

CONCLUSION

The Commission may only institute an enforcement matter if it actually has "reason to believe" a violation has occurred. Here there is no reason to believe any fact is in dispute: all parties agree to the facts of this case. There is also no reason to believe a law or regulation has been broken. In fact, even the Complainant does not make any claim that the nonfederal funds were actually used to influence Senator Packwood's re-election.

At best, the Complainant theorizes that a conspiracy existed to violate federal election laws. Not only did the conspiracy never happen, but a complaint must allege some violation before they can allege a conspiracy to commit it. Here, there is no allegation or evidence that a violation of law took place. Simply put, it is proper for the NRSC to transfer nonfederal money to a state party for their nonfederal administrative expenses.

Accordingly, the Commission should find no reason to believe the above-named Respondents violated any provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act, and close the file.

Respectfully submitted,

Craig M. Engle, Esq.

Senator Packwood testified that the meeting reflected in this entry actually took place. But beyond that, he stated that the entry was simply wrong. He testified that the conversation in fact reflected nothing that was illegal, that the entry was in jest, and that nobody in Senator X's position would take that kind of a risk.

1. I am over eighteen years of age and have the capacity to make and execute this affidavit. I have first-hand and personal knowledge of the matters stated herein.
2. At all times relevant herein, I was an employee of the National Republican Senatorial Committee ("NRSC").
3. In my capacity as an NRSC employee, I attended a meeting on March 6, 1992 in Seaside, Oregon that occurred immediately after Senator Gramm's speech to the Dorchester conference.
4. The other individuals attending that meeting were Senator Gramm, Senator Packwood, Craig Berkman, and Elaine Franklin. I have a good memory of the meeting. For example, I remember that Senator Packwood was wearing a white Dorchester Conference sweatshirt, and during the meeting pulled a can of beer out of a small cooler at his feet.
5. The meeting was informal in nature and lasted for a short period, perhaps 5 to 10 minutes.
6. During the meeting, Senator Gramm told Senator Packwood that the NRSC would fully fund his campaign, referring to the amount of coordinated expenditures that federal law and the Federal Election Commission permitted the NRSC to expend on behalf of Senator Packwood's campaign. No specific dollar amounts were discussed.
7. Also during the meeting, Senator Gramm told Craig Berkman, the Chairman of the Oregon Republican Party, that he would work with him on party-building activities. No specific dollar amounts were discussed.

Cash shift legal, says Gramm

Texan disagrees with Packwood

By BENNETT ROTH
Houston Chronicle Washington Bureau

WASHINGTON — Sen. Phil Gramm, R-Texas, Friday defended as "totally proper and legal," a campaign financial transaction that Sen. Bob Packwood suggested in his diaries may have been illegal.

The Senate Ethics Committee is investigating a section of Packwood's diaries in which he discussed a $100,000 contribution in 1992 from the National Republican Senatorial Committee to the Oregon Republican party. In the diary, Packwood, R-Ore., said Gramm, who chaired the NRSC at the time, implied the $100,000 could be sent to Packwood's Senate campaign, which would be a violation of campaign finance law.

"He (Gramm) says now, of course, there can't be any legal connection between this money and Sen. Packwood, but we know it will be used for his benefit," Packwood wrote after a meeting with Gramm. "I think that is a felony. I am not sure. This is an area of the law I don't want to know."

Packwood added, "What was said in that room would be enough to convict us all of something."

Gramm, who spoke to reporters Friday after addressing the Christian Coalition, said he recalled meeting with Packwood during the campaign. But Gramm said he made it clear the money had to be used for party-building purposes.

Gramm said he didn't even indirectly imply the money could be quietly funneled into Packwood's campaign.

"There was no wink. There was no nod. It was in writing that the funds went to build the party for voter turnout and for registration," he said.

The Gramm campaign also produced a letter to then-Oregon Republican Party Chairman Craig Berkman, regarding a portion of the money and stating "utilizing any of this money to influence a federal election is strictly prohibited."

Gramm said he had turned the letter over to the Senate Ethics Committee.

Berkman, in a telephone interview from Portland, recalled that he and Packwood and Gramm and several aides had a 10-minute meeting after a Republican Party function and discussed the money that was to be used for party building. Berkman said no mention was made of using the money for Packwood's campaign. Berkman said he was stunned to read the allegation in the Packwood diary.

"I was wondering whether he was using peyote that night," said Berkman.

The contribution in question was what is known as "soft money" funds raised by national political parties that are distributed to state parties to be used for local or state elections. The national political committees can only contribute a maximum of $10,000 for primary and general election campaigns of federal candidates.

In 1992, the Oregon GOP received $332,000 in soft money from national Republican senatorial and congressional campaign committees.

The Ethics Committee uncovered the reference as part of its investigation into sexual misconduct charges against Packwood.

Packwood on Thursday announced his resignation from the Senate after the Ethics Committee recommended he be expelled because of sexual and official misconduct.

Packwood's diaries included numerous references to his sexual escapades over the years.

Gramm said he did not understand why Packwood interpreted the meeting differently than he did. "You tell me what someone had in mind in writing a diary about their sexual exploits, and I'll explain this to you," Gramm said.

SEN. PACKWOOD: Oh, I never --

MR. SCHIEFFER: -- something you thought you could be indicted for?

SEN. PACKWOOD: I never conceived, nor did my attorneys, that the Ethics Committee would ever see this diary. They thought they had no right to it. We had a constitutional privilege to protect it. So I never at any time, until finally a subpoena and a court decision, ever thought that the Ethics Committee would ever have the diary.

MR. SCHIEFFER: Senator, at one point you talk about meeting with Phil Gramm, and you say in the diary how you were afraid, or that what he was offering to you -- and this was his offer to put $100,000 into your campaign as a way to skirt the campaign finance laws -- you talk about meeting with an NRA official, you talk about meeting with other lobbyists. Why will not people come away from this saying that the Senate is a place where one goes to do back room deals, and that's how you get your business done in the Senate?

SEN. PACKWOOD: Because those are all taken out of context, and not in the -- when you look at the full panoply of diary entries, you will see in this time and time and time again references that say, "I will not allow that as a quid pro quo," "I will not do this," or "These people think they can get in here and give money and get something, they're totally wrong -- I throw them out." But it's interesting you don't see any of those listed.

MR. SCHIEFFER: But you did say at one point that the deal Senator Gramm offered you, that both of you could be guilty of a felony.

SEN. PACKWOOD: Mmm-hmm. (In acknowledgement.) And that, was totally wrong.

MR. SCHIEFFER: It was totally --

SEN. PACKWOOD: Yeah.

MR. SCHIEFFER: You had the situation wrong?

SEN. PACKWOOD: Yes.

97043791980

MR. SCHIEFFER: You misunderstood the situation?

SEN. PACKWOOD: Yes, totally wrong.

MR. SCHIEFFER: At one point in the diaries you talk about one of the senators coming to see you, and I guess we now know it was Senator Danforth, who is an ordained priest. And at one point he said, "Senator Packwood, I don't sense any repentance on your part" -- and it was a fairly heated exchange.

SEN. PACKWOOD: Bob, it wasn't a heated exchange. Jack is not a heated person. But I'm not going to get into any more of the diary entries.

MR. SCHIEFFER: Are you repentant, senator?

SEN. PACKWOOD: I'm not -- Bob, I'm not going to get into any more of the diary entries. You've asked that question several times -- let's get on with it.

MR. SCHIEFFER: I'm asking about Senator Packwood and where he goes from here: Are you repentant about what you have done, senator?

SEN. PACKWOOD: Yes. Am I embarrassed? Am I apologetic? Do I wish I hadn't done it? Of course.

MR. SCHIEFFER: You are a member of Alcoholics Anonymous. You consider yourself a reformed alcoholic.

SEN. PACKWOOD: Well, let's -- well, go ahead and finish your question.

MR. SCHIEFFER: Do you plan to seek any other help, sir?

SEN. PACKWOOD: It -- I just want to comment on AA. As you know the term, two words, alcoholic and anonymous, and anybody that's in it does not talk about it or does not say they're in it. Just as to say I'm in an alcohol recovery program. I hope it works. I've been in it for a number of years. It seems to be working, and I intend to continue in it.

MR. SCHIEFFER: Do you think you should seek any other kind of help?

SEN. PACKWOOD: I have sought other help.

Letter by Senator Gramm to Senate Select Committee on Ethics

97043791982

United States Senate
WASHINGTON, D. C. 20510-4302

September 7, 1995

Hon. Mitch McConnell, Chairman
Hon. Richard Bryan, Vice Chairman
Select Committee on Ethics
Room 220
Hart Senate Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20510-6425

Dear Sens. McConnell and Bryan:

Thank you for forwarding the Committee's inquiry regarding a diary entry written by Sen. Bob Packwood on March 6, 1992. I am pleased to have this opportunity to respond.

Sen. Packwood's diary entry reflects an obvious misunderstanding of the election law that governs contributions by party committees such as the National Republican Senatorial Committee to state parties for the purpose of "party building activity." Contributions to state parties are both legal and normal, and it is expected that they will use the funding for such projects as promoting voter registration and get-out-the-vote drives. Federal election law not only permits contributions by the NRSC to state parties, but the practice is routine for most such party committees, both Republican and Democrat (see Sept. 7, 1995 letter from NRSC counsel, attached).

In the 1992 election cycle, the NRSC contributed to 15 state parties, including $96,500 to the Oregon Republican Party. The state party was specifically directed not only to use the funds for party building projects only, but to publicly report the contribution as required by law. Attached is a copy of an April 24, 1992 letter to Mr. Craig Berkman, chairman of the Oregon Republican Party which notes, in part, "utilizing any of this money in any way to influence a federal election is strictly prohibited." It was my policy to make the legal prohibition explicitly clear, and I understand that a similar letter accompanied each individual contribution to the Oregon Republican Party, as well as every contribution made to every other state party in 1992.

Finally, it appears from testimony by Sen. Packwood cited on Pages 123 and 124 of the Committee's report that, in fact, even Sen. Packwood said that his diary entry "was simply wrong" and "did not even reflect the essence of something that the other Senator said to him" (see attachment).

Yours respectfully,

A handwritten signature in cursive script, appearing to read "Phil Gramm".

RE: MUR 3524, Oregon Republican Party and Bert Farrish, as Treasurer

Dear Mr. Buckley:

Pursuant to your inquiry on December 30, 1992, we have looked into the matter of the credit on the account of $1,673.34. In turn, the Oregon Republican Party inquired with the vendor, Robeson Marketing Communications. As a result of the inquiry, we have discovered that the vendor made an error. Upon discovery of the error, the vendor immediately took corrective action.

Enclosed with this letter is a letter from Greg Robeson to the Oregon Republican Party dated December 30, 1992. In that letter, Mr. Robeson apologizes for improperly billing the Oregon Republican Party. He has refunded $1,673.34 to the Oregon Republican Party. That amount will be put back into the state account, and the reports to the Federal Election Commission will be revised to reflect that $1,673.34 remains owing to Robeson Marketing Communications.

Invoice 92-504 referred to in the enclosed letter was paid from the state account of the Oregon Republican Party, and not from the federal account. Funds permitting, the federal account will pay the outstanding $1,673.34 to Robeson Marketing Communications.

We hope that this clears up the confusion regarding the credit. Until you inquired about it, no one had noticed that the credit was given. No monies were disbursed from the state account of the Oregon Republican Party for the purpose of affecting any Federal race. An error was made by the vendor, which now has been corrected.

Candee,

I've attached a revised copies of invoices #92-503 and #92-504, originally dated May 13, 1992.

As we have discussed, I overbilled you $1,673.34 on invoice #92-504 to cover the outstanding balance on invoice #92-503. I did not realize that these expenditures were to come from mutually exclusive accounts and apologize for any confusion it may have caused.

I have enclosed a check in the amount of $1,673.34 to be replaced to the proper account.

Please let me know if you have any questions. Again, I apologize for the confusion.

Cordially,

Greg Robeson

Mary L. Tasker, Esquire
Office of the General Counsel
Federal Election Commission
Washington, D.C. 20463

Dear Ms. Tasker:

Re: MUR 4260, MUR 4261, MUR 4262, MUR 4265

I have your letters regarding various complaints. In this letter I respond to the allegations.

As an initial matter, I believe it is important to note one fact common to each of the complaints. Each is based solely on entries from my diary. As you may know, the diary itself was the subject of considerable discussion with the Senate Ethics Committee. Before the FEC uses my diary, for any purpose, it should be familiar with my testimony regarding my diary. This can be found in the depositions, which are part of the public record, see depositions dated January 17, 1995 and June 27, 1995 (sample pages are appended).

1. MUR 4260 -- the Auto Dealers complaint

The complaint filed in the above-captioned case charges that my campaign improperly consulted on independent expenditures conducted by, and therefore received excessive contributions from, the Automobile Dealers and Drivers for Free Trade PAC ("Automobile Dealers"). The complaint is baseless because the facts contained in it do not support the charges made. No violation occurred and the Commission should dismiss this matter promptly.

FACTS: This complaint charges that there was impermissible consultation or coordination between persons associated with my 1992 Senate campaign and the Automobile Dealers. The complaint states that the Automobile Dealers made independent expenditures of $65,539 in the form of telephone banks supporting my candidacy between October 27, 1992 and November 2, 1992.

The only evidence of alleged improper contact is an excerpt from my diary that has been made public. The diary entry is from March 20, 1992. It states, in part: "Apparently the Automobile Dealers are willing to do some spending against AuCoin."

As demonstrated by the enclosed affidavit from Elaine Franklin, my chief of staff and campaign manager who is referred to in the diary entry, and by my testimony before the Ethics Committee, there was no consultation, coordination or other impermissible contact between us (or anyone associated with my campaign to the best of my knowledge) and the Automobile Dealers regarding the October 27, 1992 to November 2, 1992 expenditures which are the subject of this complaint. Affidavit of Elaine Franklin, at paragraph 4.

LAW: Federal election law defines an independent expenditure as an expenditure expressly advocating the election or defeat of a clearly identified candidate that is made "without cooperation or consultation with any candidate, or any authorized committee or agent of such candidate," and which is "not made in concert with, or at the request or suggestion of, any candidate, or any authorized committee or agent of such candidate." 2 U.S.C. Section 431(17).

DISCUSSION: I do not recall the conversation the diary entry reflects that I had with Elaine Franklin. However, the activities discussed in the diary entry did not happen. There were no contacts regarding these expenditures that would violate 2 U.S.C. Section 431 (17). Franklin affidavit paragraph 4.

A fair reading of the complaint itself makes clear there was no violation of the Federal Election Campaign Act or the Regulations. First, the Automobile Dealers did not "do some spending against AuCoin." (emphasis added). There is no charge in the complaint, and no evidence in their reports filed with the Commission, that the Automobile Dealers ever spent any money against AuCoin (the complaint itself notes the independent expenditure was a phone bank in support of my candidacy). To my knowledge, there was no spending against AuCoin. Packwood affidavit paragraph 4; Franklin affidavit paragraph 3.

The second piece of evidence that there was no violation is the timing involved. The Automobile Dealers' spending that is the subject of the complaint began in October 1992. The diary entry upon which the complaint is based took place in March 1992, some seven months earlier, and prior even to the conclusion of the Democratic primary to select a candidate to run against me. There was no improper coordination in this case. In fact, it would be impossible (and certainly counterproductive) to coordinate or consult before a Democratic nominee was even selected.

Therefore, the cooperation or consultation, request or suggestion that allegedly poisons this independent expenditure never happened. This complaint was filed only because of an entry from my diary about activity that never took place which was written seven months before the election it supposedly would have influenced.

While the wording of the diary entry is unfortunate, the complaint is not about any activity that violated the Act. Accordingly, this matter should be dismissed.

2. MUR 4261 -- the National Rifle Association
complaint

For the reasons set forth below, the complaint is without merit and must be dismissed by the FEC.

FACTS: The complaint charges that my campaign committee accepted illegal corporate contributions in the form of independent expenditures that the Center alleges were not independent, as a matter of law. These expenditures were made by the National Rifle Association's Institute for Legislative Action (NRA's Institute"), a membership organization constituted as a nonprofit corporation. The complaint includes as an attachment the NRA's Institute's "Report of Communication Costs by Corporations and Membership Organizations" showing two expenditures against Les AuCoin, my opponent in the 1992 general election.<sup>1</sup> Both expenditures are reported by the NRA as communications with the organization's "members."

DISCUSSION: In filing the complaint, the Center was apparently unaware that federal election law permits membership organizations to mail partisan communications to their members. 11 C.F.R.
Sections 100.8(b)(4), 114.3(a)(2), 114.3(c) and 114.7(h). "Any cost incurred for any communication by a membership organization to its members ... is not an expenditure ..." so long as an FEC Form 7 is filed. 11 C.F.R. Section 100.8(b)(4). Since the Center itself attaches the NRA Institute's required form, it is self-evident there is no violation.

<sup>1</sup> For the record, although not dispositive in this matter
(see below), the first expenditure cited in the complaint came on May 8, 1992, in advance of the Oregon primary in which Mr. AuCoin faced a Democratic opponent. This expenditure cannot be called an expenditure on behalf of me or my campaign committee, especially since the diary entry attached to the complaint concerns an October 6, 1992 meeting.

The Act specifically permits organizations such as the NRA's Institute to mail to its members the communications, even if partisan, that are the subject of this complaint. 11 C.F.R. Sections 114.3(a)(2) and 114.7(h). There is no allegation that the communications do not meet the requirements of the regulations, and it is my belief that they did comply with 11 C.F.R. Section 114.3(c).

CONCLUSION: The law does not consider the communications at issue a contribution or expenditure on behalf of the candidate supported or opposed; such communications are not considered independent expenditures, and there is no prohibition on showing such communications to a candidate. Id. Accordingly, there are no grounds for this complaint and it must be dismissed.

3. MUR 4262 and MUR 4265 -- the Phil Gramm complaints

After reviewing the allegations, the facts and the law, it is apparent that the sole reason this complaint was filed was that I made an statement in a publicly released diary entry. Since no actual violation of law occurred,<sup>2</sup> the Commission must dismiss this matter.

The complaint attaches reports to the Federal Election Commission from the National Republican Senatorial Committee ("NRSC") indicating that $96,500 in non-federal funds were transferred to the Oregon Republican Party in 1992. Such transfers are permissible under 11 C.F.R. Section 102.6(a)(1)(ii) ("Transfers of funds may be made without limit on amount between or among a national party committee, a State party committee and/or any subordinate party committee whether or not they are political committees ... and whether or not such committees are affiliated.") and 11 C.F.R. Section 110.3(c)(1) ("The contribution limitations of 11 C.F.R. Sections 110.1 and 110.2 shall not limit the transfers of funds between ... party committees of the same political party.").

<sup>2</sup> As a technical matter, the Conciliation Agreement in MUR 3524 notes that a state party vendor, Robeson Marketing Communications, without the state party's consent, did use $1,670 from the non-federal account to pay for a federal account disbursement. That matter has been fully conciliated in MUR 3524, and neither I nor anyone involved with my re-election committee knew about the activity or were involved in it.

My statement before the Senate Ethics Committee explains that entry. Both major parties make frequent transfers of both federal and non-federal dollars to their respective state parties to assist with party building activities, as permitted by federal and state campaign laws. This party building activity helps all candidates who run on the party's ticket in a given election.

In conclusion, these complaints should be dismissed for two reasons: first, we did not violate the Federal Election Campaign Act, and, secondly, the diary entry is explained by my testimony before the Senate Ethics Committee.

Sincerely,

RE: PHONE CONVERSATION WITH CANDY MUMM

The purpose of this memo is to document a phone conversation with Candy Mumm regarding the PAC Oregonians for Majority Rule, and in order that we may be consistent.

Back in September, we told her over the phone that this PAC did not need to file a supplemental report. You and I discussed the problems with the Supplemental list, and have acknowledged that they were erroneously left off of it. They indeed did owe a report.

She told me that this PAC needed to stay open, because of bills that were still coming in from the initiative drive, and that she did not plan to support or oppose candidates or measures during the general election.

I told her that she should still submit her supplemental and that because it was our filing officer error, we would not pursue a civil penalty with the PAC, regarding the lateness of that report.

Please let me know if you have any other questions.

ENFORCEMENT PRIORITY

SENSITIVE

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

MAR 11 1997

EXECUTIVE SESSION

I. INTRODUCTION

The cases listed below have been identified as either stale or of low priority based upon evaluation under the Enforcement Priority System (EPS). This report is submitted to recommend that the Commission no longer pursue these cases.

II. CASES RECOMMENDED FOR CLOSURE.

A. Cases Not Warranting Further Action Relative to Other Cases Pending Before the Commission

EPS was created to identify pending cases which, due to the length of their pendency in inactive status or the lower priority of the issues raised in the matters relative to others presently pending before the Commission, do not warrant further expenditure of resources. Central Enforcement Docket (CED) evaluates each incoming matter using Commission-approved criteria which results in a numerical rating of each case.

Closing such cases permits the Commission to focus its limited resources on more important cases presently pending before it. Based upon this review, we have identified 25 cases which do not warrant further action relative to other pending matters.<sup>1</sup> Attachment 1 to this report contains summaries of each case, the EPS rating, and the factors leading to assignment of a low priority and recommendation not to further pursue the matter.

B. Stale Cases

Effective enforcement relies upon the timely pursuit of complaints and referrals to ensure compliance with the law. Investigations concerning activity more remote in time usually require a greater commitment of resources, primarily due to the fact that the evidence of such activity becomes more remote and consequently more difficult to develop. Focusing investigative efforts on more recent and more significant activity also has a more positive effect on the electoral process and the regulated community.

We have identified cases which have remained on the Central Enforcement Docket for a sufficient period of time to render them stale 12 are not worthy of further action, and merit closure.<sup>4</sup>

We recommend that the Commission exercise its prosecutorial discretion and direct closure of the cases listed below, effective April 1, 1997. Closing these cases as of this date will permit CED and the Legal Review Team the necessary time to prepare closing letters and case files for the public record.

<sup>4</sup> These cases are: MUR 4139 (Enid 94); MUR 4150 (Frank Fasi); MUR 4257 (DSCC); MUR 4258 (NRSC); MUR 4260 (Packwood & Auto Dealers); MUR 4261 (NRA Institute for Legis.); MUR 4262 (Oregon Republican Party); MUR 4265 (NRSC; Sen. Phil Gramm); MUR 4272 (Bishop for Congress); MUR 4279 (Russ Berrie Co.); MUR 4284 (United We Stand America); and Pre-MUR 322 (Royal Hawaiian Country Club).

RE: MUR 4265

Dear Mr. Bauer:

On September 26, 1995, the Federal Election Commission received your complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act").

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission exercised its prosecutorial discretion to take no action in the matter. This case was evaluated objectively relative to other matters on the Commission's docket. In light of the information on the record, the relative significance of the case, and the amount of time that has elapsed, the Commission determined to close its file in this matter on April 1, 1997. This matter will become part of the public record within 30 days.

The Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437(g)(a)(8).

Sincerely,

The Honorable Phil Gramm
NRSC, Stan Huckaby, Treasurer

Dear Mr. Engle:

On October 3, 1995, the Federal Election Commission notified your clients, The Honorable Phil Gramm and Stan Huckaby, of a complaint alleging certain violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended. A copy of the complaint was enclosed with that notification.

After considering the circumstances of this matter, the Commission exercised its prosecutorial discretion to take no action against your clients. This case was evaluated objectively relative to other matters on the Commission's docket. In light of the information on the record, the relative significance of the case, and the amount of time that has elapsed, the Commission determined to close its file in this matter on April 1, 1997.

The confidentiality provisions of 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(12) no longer apply and this matter is now public. In addition, although the complete file must be placed on the public record within 30 days, this could occur at any time following certification of the Commission's vote. If you wish to submit any factual or legal materials to appear on the public record, please do so as soon as possible. While the file may be placed on the public record prior to receipt of your additional materials, any permissible submissions will be added to the public record when received.
