Alan Groesbeck, as treasurer)

SENSITIVE

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT

I. ACTIONS RECOMMENDED: Close the file as to Sam Brownback for US Senate and Alan Groesbeck, as treasurer ("the Committee"), and approve the appropriate letter.

II. DISCUSSION:

On May 17, 2001, the Federal Election Commission found probable cause to believe that John and Ruth Stauffer ("the Stauffers") violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1) by making excessive contributions to the Sam Brownback for US Senate Committee.

On that same day, the Commission found probable cause to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C.
§ 441a(f), but took no further action. The Respondents were notified of the Commission's actions on May 21, 2001.

On July 5, 2001, the Committee notified this Office that it was disgorging $19,000 in excessive contributions made by John and Ruth Stauffer to the U.S. Treasury. Attachment 1. A check in that amount, made out to the U.S. Treasury, was enclosed with this correspondence.
Pursuant to the conciliation agreement, Mr. and Mrs. Stauffer had requested that the Committee refund $19,000 in contributions the couple made during the 1996 election cycle. This written request also informed the Committee that the Stauffers waived any and all claims to the refund and directed that the money be disgorged to the U.S. Treasury. See Attachment 1 (Letter dated July 3, 2001).

As the Respondents have now disgorged the $19,000 in excessive contributions made by the Stauffers to the Committee, this Office recommends that file be closed as to Sam Brownback for US Senate and Alan Groesbeck, as treasurer.

III. RECOMMENDATIONS

1. Close the file as to Sam Brownback for US Senate and Alan Groesbeck, as treasurer.
2. Approve the appropriate letter.
