Dear Mr. Lehmann:

As reflected in the attached letter, Ms. Habie has been diligently attempting to obtain the check (#282) that remains outstanding from your document requests.

I regret the delay in obtaining the check, but I wanted you to know that Ms. Habie is doing everything she can to obtain this one remaining item. We will continue to pursue this matter and will, of course, promptly forward copies of the check to you as soon as we receive them from Mainstay, which hopefully will be within the next few days.

Please let me know if you have any questions concerning this matter.

Sincerely,

Todd Thomas

To whom it may concern:

Over a month ago I requested a copy (front and back) of check #282 from account I did not receive a response. On October 5, I called again and spoke to Steven Kopp who told me the matter would be taken care of within 2 days and I would be receiving a fax. I explained to him that I needed this matter expedited as I needed it for a legal matter. To date, I have not received anything.

I called again today and spoke to Chris Terazidis who informed me that the request has been put in, but he could not give me an indication as to when I might receive a copy of the check. I again explained that it is the U. S. Government that is requesting this check and I needed to be able to respond to my attorney. He reiterated that he did not have any control and I would receive a copy of the check as soon as it was "processed". This is unacceptable, and very poor customer relations. I would like a written response as to when I will be receiving a copy of this check.

Sincerely,

Amy Habie
