RE: MUR 4646

Dear Ms. Harris:

On February 23, 1979, the Federal Election Commission found that there is reason to believe you violated 2 U.S.C. § 431E, a provision of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"). At present, pursuant to section 212(a) of the Commission determined to enter into negotiations directed toward reaching a conciliation agreement in settlement of this matter prior to a finding of a civil liability.

Enclosed is a conciliation agreement that the Commission has approved in settlement of this matter. If you agree with the provisions of the enclosed agreement, please sign and return it, along with the civil penalty, to the Commission. In light of the fact that conciliation negotiations, prior to a finding of probable civil liability, are limited to a maximum of 30 days, you should respond to this conciliation agreement as soon as possible.

If you have any questions or suggestions for changes in the agreement, or if you wish to arrange an interview with a representative of the Commission, please contact me at (202) 691-4151.

Sincerely,
John F. Schumann
