I.

II.

III.

On May 23, 1997 respondent filed an amended FEC report disclosing that $285,316.22 of the $425,000 had been illegally transferred on October 18. See Attachment B. At the same time, respondent also disclosed an additional illegal transfer of $80,203.89. Attachment C. In so doing, respondent knowingly and willfully violated 11 CFR 106.5(g)(i) and 11 CFR 106.6(e)(ii) of the Federal Election Campaign Act.

For example, following this transfer, respondent spent over $300,000 from its federal account on campaign mailings, phone banks, advertisements, and other get-out-the-vote activities. Attachment D. Complainant alleges that respondent knowingly and willfully transferred these funds illegally in order to finance these last-minute campaign expenses.

Related to this transfer, respondent received a check in the amount of $400,000 from the Republican National Committee on October 11, one week before the illegal transfer was made. Attachment E. Complainant alleges that respondent knowingly and willfully transferred this money in violation of federal law, without regard to allocation ratios and other rules, as part of its $425,000 transfer on October 18 to its federal account.

Such transfers are part of a pattern of knowing and willful illegal activity that the respondent has committed. On August 29, 1996, respondent received a check for $100,000 from Services Group of America to its state exempt account. Attachment F. The next day, August 30, 1996, respondent transferred $100,000 from its exempt account to its federal account, an action that clearly deserves further investigation as to whether this amount constituted an allocable transfer. Attachment G.

Complainant further alleges that respondent knowingly and willfully violated federal law with the intention of funneling new "hard money" contributions into its state non-exempt (hard) account. By increasing the funds available in its federal account, through the transfer of illegal funds, respondent was then able to pay its federal account expenses. Respondent could then deposit incoming "hard money" contributions that would have qualified as federal contributions into its state non-exempt (hard) account -- thereby increasing the amount of hard money available for state campaigns. Attachment H contains respondent's reports of contributions deposited to its state non-exempt account from the period October 11, 1996 through November 30, 1996. Complainant's calculations indicate that $236,695.07 of these contributions would have qualified as federal contributions.

Complainant notes that respondent continues to be in violation of the law, due to its refusal to transfer back the $365,520.11 in illegal funds from its federal account. Respondent said it would do this by June 30, 1997 (See Attachment I), but on its July 31, 1997 mid-year FEC report, respondent reveals it has only transferred $126,000 (line 26) -- meaning that $239,520.11 of these two transactions remain in its federal account. Attachment J. Further, respondent failed to disclose this debt as required on its 1997 mid-year report (line 10, Attachment J).

Finally, complainant alleges the foregoing violations were committed knowingly: the Chairman and chief operations supervisor of the Washington State Republican Party at the time of the violations was the former Attorney General of the State of Washington, whose office conducted compliance prosecutions in the state. There are few individuals in the state of Washington who have a more thorough knowledge of election laws and regulations than former Attorney General Ken Eikenberry. Complainant also notes that the respondent has had a Certified Public Accountant, Mr. James E. Coates, under contract for a number of years, who oversaw compliance with state and federal campaign finance regulations.

IV.

Complainant is not a candidate for political office and is not filing the complaint on behalf of or at the request or suggestion of any candidate.

V.

In support of the foregoing allegations, complainant presents and files the following documents:

Attachment A: Respondent's FEC 30th day report following the General Election, showing $425,000 transfer.

Attachment B: Respondent's amended FEC 30th day report dated May 23, 1997, showing overtransfer.

Attachment C: Respondent's amended FEC 30th day report dated May 23, 1997, showing additional overtransfer.

Attachment D: Selected Expenditures from Respondent's FEC 30th day report following the General Election, disclosing GOTV spending.

Attachment E: Respondent's PDC C3 report dated October 11, 1996, showing receipt of RNC check for $425,000.

Attachment F: Respondent's PDC C3 report dated August 29, 1996, showing receipt of $100,000 check.

Attachment G: Respondent's 1997 FEC 12th day preceding General Election report (August 29, 1996 through October 15, 1996), showing transfer of $100,000 check.

Attachment H: Contributions deposited to respondent's state non-exempt account during the period October 11, 1997 through November 30, 1997.

Attachment I: Respondent's letter to the FEC dated May 23, 1997, describing additional overtransfers and indicating repayment by June 30, 1997.

Attachment J: Respondent's FEC 1997 mid-year report, showing loan payment of $126,000 and failing to disclose debts owed by the federal account (line 10).

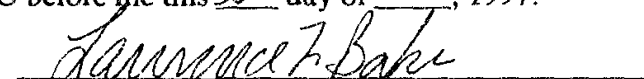

Respectfully submitted,

Paul Berendt, Chair
