RESPONSE OF C. BOYDEN GRAY
AND JEANNE FLETCHER IN MUR 4758

For the reasons stated below, the Commission should find "no reason to believe" that either C. Boyden Gray or Jeanne Fletcher has violated the Federal Election Campaign Act ("FECA"), and should dismiss the complaint against them.

I. THE COMPLAINT

On June 8, 1998, a complaint was filed with the Federal Election Commission ("FEC" or "Commission") against C. Boyden Gray and Jeanne Fletcher, alleging various violations of the federal election laws. In particular, the complaint alleged that Mr. Gray had knowingly and willfully violated 11 C.F.R. § 110.4(b) by making contributions in the name of another and that he had exceeded the annual federal contribution limit for individuals contained in 11 C.F.R. § 110.5(b). It further alleged that Ms. Fletcher had violated the prohibition against contributions in the name of another because of contributions from Mr. Gray made in her name.

The complaint appears to be based solely on an article that appeared in the Wall Street Journal on May 28, 1998. The complainant in this matter does not claim any additional knowledge of any of the purported events, but nonetheless has alleged violations not contained in the article. Specifically, the article never alleges that either Mr. Gray or Ms. Fletcher knowingly and willfully violated federal election laws, nor does it state that Mr. Gray attempted to make contributions in Ms. Fletcher's name. For these reasons alone, Respondents request that the FEC dismiss the complaint as not meeting the requisite standards of 2 U.S.C. § 437g.

Further, a thorough review of the FEC records and Mr. Gray's financial records indicates that the article upon which the complaint was based (if only in part) contained incomplete information concerning Mr. Gray's federal contributions, as this Response and attachments will demonstrate.

II. SUMMARY OF ARGUMENT

Mr. Gray is currently within all federal contribution limits for the years 1994 through 1996 mentioned in the complaint. A review of current Federal Election Commission ("FEC") data will also show that Mr. Gray is in compliance for all other years, including 1997 and 1998.

At no time did Mr. Gray make contributions in the name of Jeanne Fletcher, nor did she ever permit her name to be used. Instead, despite all clear documentary evidence and instructions to the contrary, several committees simply mis-reported Mr. Gray's contributions, because checks bearing his printed name were signed by Ms. Fletcher in her capacity as Mr. Gray's financial secretary.

Mr. Gray has at all times attempted to comply fully with all federal contribution limits. Years ago, and of his own volition, he established an internal system of record-keeping for compliance purposes, supervised by his financial secretary and his outside accountant, for the express purpose of ensuring that he complied with all federal political contribution limits. Because of confusion about the intricacies of the federal annual contribution limit and the nature of certain contributions, as well as mis-deposits and reporting by some recipient committees, there were moments in the past where the intended results were not achieved, despite Mr. Gray's best efforts. However, any problems were immediately remedied by Mr. Gray as soon as he became aware of them, with many of the necessary refunds or redesignations sought four years ago (long before any article or complaint raised the contribution limit issue).

For these reasons, Respondents respectfully request that the Commission vote to find "no reason to believe" that Jeanne Fletcher violated the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, and that it dismiss the complaint against C. Boyden Gray. As demonstrated herein, Commission precedent does not support proceeding against Mr. Gray where the alleged violations are as small and old as here, and where he has made a pre-existing good faith effort to create a compliance system and ensure that he did not exceed federal political contribution limits.

III. ARGUMENT

A. Mr. Gray is currently under the $25,000 annual federal individual contribution limit.

We attach to this Response a detailed review of FEC data and Mr. Gray's financial records and correspondence which shows that Mr. Gray is currently under the annual federal individual contribution limit of $25,000 for all years in which he has made political contributions, including 1994, 1995, and 1996. This review also specifies all refunds or redesignations sought and obtained by Mr. Gray. See Attachment A.

B. Mr. Gray's conduct was in any case never knowing and willful.

At no time did Mr. Gray knowingly or willfully violate the federal annual individual contribution limit of $25,000. Any past violations of the limit stemmed from honest misunderstandings of the limit's intricacies by personnel attempting to monitor compliance with federal limits, and from mis-attributions unbeknownst to Mr. Gray and beyond his control. Immediately upon discovering these misunderstandings and mis-attributions, Mr. Gray took prompt steps to seek refunds and redesignations to ensure full compliance with the federal annual limit.

Mr. Gray served in various positions at the White House from 1981 to 1993, during which time he rarely made individual political contributions. When Mr. Gray left government in 1993, he began making a few political contributions, well under the $25,000 limit. In some instances, Mr. Gray wrote checks for these contributions himself. In other instances, Jeanne Fletcher, Mr. Gray's personal financial secretary, wrote checks (acting as his agent and pursuant to his express authorization) from his account to candidates and committees as he directed, and, at the end of the year, broke down his expenses into categories, including political and charitable contributions. Fletcher aff. ¶ 9 (Attachment C). Ms. Fletcher did so as part of her general management responsibilities for Mr. Gray's personal affairs, which included attending to all requests for political contributions received by Mr. Gray. Fletcher aff. ¶¶ 2, 6. Ms. Fletcher began working for Mr. Gray in that capacity in July 1990, and continues to do so today. Id.

In 1994, fund-raisers began calling upon Mr. Gray with increasing frequency for contributions to federal candidates, as well as to PACs and party committees. Gray aff. ¶ 3 (Attachment B). When Mr. Gray began making more and larger political contributions, Ms. Fletcher, acting as his financial secretary, called the Federal Election Commission to ask for the rules concerning federal political contributions by individuals. Fletcher aff. ¶ 10. After Ms. Fletcher reviewed that material provided to her, she understood that a $25,000 annual federal individual contribution limit existed, but not necessarily the full complexity and intricacies of the limit. Id. Both Mr. Gray and Ms. Fletcher believed that PAC and party contributions he was making should be accounted for as "non-federal" contributions that did not count toward Mr. Gray's annual $25,000 federal limit. Fletcher aff. ¶ 10; Gray aff. ¶ 3.

At some point in 1994, Mr. Gray and Ms. Fletcher learned that some of the PAC and party contributions he had made counted toward the $25,000 annual federal limit, and that certain contributions that Mr. Gray had intended to be non-federal had been incorrectly reported as federal by the recipient committee. Gray aff. ¶ 4; Fletcher aff. ¶ 11. Mr. Gray and Ms. Fletcher immediately undertook a review of Mr. Gray's contributions up to that point. After adding certain of the PAC and party contributions to Ms. Fletcher's records of Mr. Gray's contributions to candidates, Mr. Gray realized that it would be necessary for him to request refunds and redesignations of certain contributions so that he would bring his total contributions within the limit. Gray aff. ¶ 4; Fletcher aff. ¶ 11. Mr. Gray did so immediately, and on his own initiative, and thereafter believed that he was in full compliance with the federal annual limit for 1994. Gray aff. ¶ 4; Fletcher aff. ¶ 11. See Exhibits 1-16.

Also at that time (four years ago), Mr. Gray established a compliance system to ensure that his future political contributions were carefully monitored, and that he remained within the federal limit at all times. Gray aff. ¶ 5. Ms. Fletcher both tracked Mr. Gray's contributions and, acting as his agent, signed checks for contributions authorized by him. Richard Scott, Mr. Gray's accountant, also reviewed these accounts periodically. Fletcher aff. ¶ 9. In this way, Mr. Gray attempted to ensure that he would be in compliance with all federal limits.

Using the system described above to monitor his contributions, Mr. Gray continued making contributions without incident until the spring of 1998. Fletcher aff. ¶ 12. Throughout that period, Mr. Gray believed himself to be in full compliance with the election laws at all times. Gray aff. ¶ 6.

In the spring of 1998, a reporter from the Wall Street Journal contacted Mr. Gray and suggested that Mr. Gray had exceeded the $25,000 limit in 1994, 1995, and 1996. Id. As in 1994, Mr. Gray immediately directed his staff to review his political contributions. Id. He discovered that some contributions were mis-deposited by the recipient committees into federal rather than non-federal accounts, and that others had been attributed to the wrong year on the annual contribution lists maintained as part of Mr. Gray's financial records. Gray aff. ¶ 6; Fletcher aff. ¶¶ 14, 15, 16.

This latter mistake occurred because of a misunderstanding about which year to attribute contributions to House and Senate candidates. Mr. Gray's records had been maintained so as to attribute those contributions to the year in which Mr. Gray made them, rather than the year of the election. Gray aff. ¶ 6. Only after reviewing material from the FEC web page, which Ms. Fletcher found to be vastly clearer than the information she received from the FEC in 1994, did she realize that contributions to candidates counted in the year of the election. Fletcher aff. ¶ 13.

Other apparent limit issues arose because of a misunderstanding of how fees for Mr. Gray's attendance at party conferences and events had been reported by recipient committees. Neither Ms. Fletcher nor Mr. Gray viewed such payments as federal contributions, but rather as payments for administrative costs: the fees were often labeled "registration fees" in the correspondence from the party. However, recipient party committees had in some cases reported them as federal contributions. Fletcher aff. ¶ 15.

Additional confusion arose from banking errors. Mr. Gray had a central account at Wachovia Bank, in North Carolina, that was occasionally used for large contributions. For example, in May, 1995, Mr. Gray wanted to make a $10,000 contribution to the NRSC. Instead of requesting that money be transferred from that account to his Washington, D.C., account, Ms. Fletcher simply asked Mr. Gray's account executive at Sheets, Smith and Associates (Mr. Gray's financial advisors) to have the check drawn on the Wachovia account. Fletcher aff. ¶ 14. The account executive then directed Wachovia to write the check, and although Mr. Gray intended this contribution to be non-federal, Wachovia failed to designate it as such when it sent the check to the NRSC. Id. FEC records show that it was erroneously deposited in the NRSC's federal account. This happened again in 1997.

Finally, a review of Mr. Gray's contribution records indicated that some of his contributions had been mis-attributed to Ms. Fletcher, despite clear indications in every case that the check was written on Mr. Gray's personal account and constituted his own contribution. Fletcher aff. ¶ 16.

Armed with this new information, including the revised understanding of which years to attribute contributions to candidates, Mr. Gray immediately took extensive efforts to ensure that he was in compliance with the annual federal limit (as he thought he had been all along). Mr. Gray promptly sought refunds and redesignations where necessary, and he did so before learning of the existence of this complaint. Gray aff. ¶ 6.

These events demonstrate that Mr. Gray in no way intentionally or willfully violated the $25,000 federal annual contribution limit for individuals. As soon as Mr. Gray began making frequent and substantial political contributions, Mr. Gray's staff, at his direction, reviewed the pertinent rules and regulations. Immediately upon learning in 1994 that they had misunderstood the rules concerning PAC and political party contributions, Mr. Gray and his staff re-examined his 1994 contributions to date and promptly requested all the redesignations and refunds they believed necessary for compliance with the federal limit. At the same time, they swiftly instituted a new internal accounting system and practices to ensure that Mr. Gray stayed within the legal limits. When, in 1998, they learned of a misunderstanding about how to attribute contributions to candidates, and also that certain contributions had been incorrectly reported by the recipients either as federal instead of non-federal, or as coming from Ms. Fletcher rather than Mr. Gray, Mr. Gray and his staff again undertook an immediate and thorough review of his contributions. Mr. Gray then promptly sought refunds and redesignations as necessary for compliance with the $25,000 annual federal contribution limit. Currently, the record indicates that Mr. Gray is under the $25,000 limit for all years in which he has made contributions.

C. Mr. Gray did not attempt to make contributions in Jeanne Fletcher's name and Ms. Fletcher did not allow her name to be used by him.

At no time did Mr. Gray ever make any contributions in Ms. Fletcher's name. Ms. Fletcher was responsible for signing checks on one of his three accounts, including checks to political candidates, parties, and committees as authorized by Mr. Gray as part of her general management responsibilities of his personal finances. Fletcher aff. ¶¶ 4, 7. Such contributions were always made on checks imprinted with Mr. Gray's name, with "C. Boyden Gray Contribution" typed on the memo line, and to Mr. Gray's knowledge were always transmitted with a letter or response card or other instruction clearly identifying the contribution as his. Gray aff. ¶ 2. See copies of checks, response cards, and solicitations at Exhibit 17. Each of these contributions was made as a result of a solicitation to Mr. Gray, was made with his personal funds out of his personal bank account, and was accounted for as his in his personal records. Gray aff. ¶ 2.

Any errors in mis-reporting these contributions as coming from Ms. Fletcher, who signed the checks only as Mr. Gray's agent, were solely those of the recipient committees. Whenever Mr. Gray or Ms. Fletcher has discovered that a contribution had been wrongly attributed to her, they promptly asked for a reporting correction. Gray aff. ¶ 2; Fletcher aff. ¶ 16. See Exhibit 18.

These facts clearly demonstrate that Mr. Gray did not attempt to evade the annual federal contribution limit by making donations using Ms. Fletcher's name instead of his own. She signed his checks not to lend her name to his contributions, but solely in her capacity as his agent, authorized to sign checks on his behalf. Indeed, the FEC has implicitly held that having one's secretary sign one's checks for political contributions is acceptable. See MUR 3929/3867, Matter of Elsie H. Hillman (MUR 3867, First General Counsel's Report at n. 15). That is precisely what occurred here. Both Mr. Gray and Ms. Fletcher intended all such checks signed by Ms. Fletcher to be contributions from Mr. Gray alone, and the checks clearly reflected this fact. Any attributions to the contrary are solely the fault of the recipient, and Mr. Gray has requested that all such attributions be promptly corrected.

D. Any past violations by Mr. Gray are de minimis and should not be pursued by the Commission.

To the extent that Mr. Gray has, in the past, been over the annual contribution limit, the FEC should not pursue an enforcement action against him. The FEC has failed to pursue and sanction a number of allegations of violations of the $25,000 limit of a far greater magnitude. Since the FEC began reviewing allegations of violations of the federal annual limit in earnest in the early 1990s, it has reviewed approximately eighty such allegations.¹ Of those, only a quarter have resulted in civil penalties against respondents for violations of the limit. Most other MURs were closed without imposing a civil penalty. Thus, the Commission has taken no action whatsoever in approximately three-quarters of MURs alleging violations of the $25,000 limit released since 1992.

The MURs in which the FEC has taken action are readily distinguished from Mr. Gray's situation here. The long-standing efforts of Mr. Gray and his staff to comply with federal contribution limits include calling the FEC to request information on the applicable rules, instituting a bookkeeping and check-writing system expressly to ensure compliance with those rules, and immediately requesting refunds and redesignations upon becoming aware of inadvertent problems. For years prior to the filing of the complaint in this matter, Mr. Gray and his financial staff worked diligently to ensure compliance with federal annual contribution limits. As explained in detail above, any errors (either by Mr. Gray and his staff, the bank, or recipient committees) were inadvertent, and actions were taken to remedy them as soon as they were noticed. This contrasts markedly from the common situation in annual limit MURs where respondents have made no attempt to comply with the law and have not acted to address potential problems until after complaints have been filed.

IV. CONCLUSION

The Commission should find no reason to believe that Jeanne Fletcher violated the law in this matter. In light of Mr. Gray's demonstrated and long-standing efforts to ensure his personal compliance with the annual contribution limit, the confusion resulting from misunderstandings of the intricacies of the annual limit, and Mr. Gray's voluntary actions to address annual limit issues as soon as he became aware of them, the FEC should also dismiss the complaint against Mr. Gray at this time.

STATEMENT OF C. BOYDEN GRAY
IN MUR 4758

1. I am C. Boyden Gray, and I have reviewed the complaint filed in this matter.

2. At no time did I ever make any contributions in the name of my financial secretary, Jeanne Fletcher. Ms. Fletcher is responsible for signing checks on one of my accounts, including checks to political candidates, parties, and committees as authorized by me, as part of her general management responsibilities of my personal finances. Such contributions are always made on checks imprinted with my name, and to my knowledge are always transmitted with a letter or response card or other instruction clearly identifying the contribution as mine. Each of these contributions is made as a result of a solicitation to me, is made with my personal funds out of my personal bank account, and is accounted for as mine in my personal records. Any errors in mis-reporting these contributions as coming from my secretary, Jeanne Fletcher (who signed the checks as my agent), are solely those of the recipient committees. Since over eighty percent of the contributions made by me in this manner were correctly reported by the recipient committees, why the remaining contributions were incorrectly reported is unclear to me. All such committees have now been contacted at my direction and requested to correct their FEC reports.

3. When I left government in 1993, I began to be asked frequently for political contributions to PACs and party accounts, as well as to federal candidates. At that time, I incorrectly understood that my contributions to these PACs and party committees were "non-federal" and therefore did not count against my $25,000 annual federal limit.

4. I do not remember exactly when in 1994 I learned that some of my PAC and party committee contributions counted toward the $25,000 annual federal limit and/or had been incorrectly reported as federal instead of non-federal on the recipient committee's reports.

However, as soon as this was brought to my attention, I immediately undertook an effort to review all of my contributions to that point, to obtain either refunds or redesignations where necessary, and to ensure that I was within the annual contribution limit for that year.

5. I also worked at that time with my financial secretary and accounting firm to establish the system described above (see ¶ 2) to ensure that my future political contributions were carefully monitored, and that I remained within the federal limit at all times. Before instituting that system in 1994, Ms. Fletcher signed only some of my checks for my political contributions, while I signed the others.

6. When I was contacted by the Wall Street Journal reporter this spring, he suggested that I was over my limit for 1994, 1995, and 1996. I immediately directed an examination of all of my contributions. I discovered that some contributions had been incorrectly attributed to Ms. Fletcher, that some contributions were mis-deposited by the recipient committees into federal rather than non-federal accounts, and that others had been attributed to the wrong year on the annual contribution lists maintained as part of my financial records. This latter mistake occurred because of a misunderstanding about to which year to attribute contributions to House and Senate candidates. Ms. Fletcher had been maintaining records so as to attribute those contributions to the year in which I had made them, not the year of the election. Thus, although I had believed throughout that I was in full compliance with the annual federal contribution limit, this new information caused me to reexamine my contributions and seek refunds and redesignations where required. I did this prior to learning of the existence of the complaint in this matter.

STATEMENT OF JEANNE FLETCHER
IN MUR 4758

1. My name is Jeanne Fletcher. I began working for C. Boyden Gray in 1990, at the White House Counsel's Office. Mr. Gray was Counsel to the President, and my title was "Personal Assistant" to the Counsellor, with particular responsibility for scheduling. Before that, I had worked in another position at the White House, as the Executive Assistant to the Chief of Staff to the Vice President.

2. I left the White House in July 1990, to continue my academic education. At the same time, I began working personally for Mr. Gray part-time, as a private financial assistant. I was in charge of his household payroll, bill paying, the rental to others of Mr. Gray's house in Maine, and bookkeeping.

3. I was hired by the law firm of Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering ("Wilmer"), which Mr. Gray by that time rejoined as a partner, in June 1994. From that time until September 1997, I served as Mr. Gray's legal secretary at the firm, and also continued separately to have responsibility for his personal bookkeeping. I did his personal work at home and at night, and was compensated for that work directly by Mr. Gray. In September of 1997, I found the legal secretarial workload more than I was interested in, and transferred to work for other attorneys at Wilmer, Cutler, and Pickering. However, I continued to work on Mr. Gray's personal financial affairs after hours and on weekends.

4. In July 1990, Mr. Gray opened a bank account with First American Security. Although I had signatory authority, it was his account and his money. Sometime after the account was opened, the bank was bought by Nationsbank. The account was later moved to Riggs.

5. In addition to that account, Mr. Gray has a second personal account as well. This account is used by him infrequently, and in circumstances where he needs to write a personal check immediately. If checks are written from this account for a candidate fund-raiser, I review them and incorporate them into my records at the end of each month, when I reconcile the bank statements of both accounts.

6. As part of my duties, I attend to all requests received by Mr. Gray for political contributions. I assemble the solicitations sent to Mr. Gray, and send them on to him for a response. I developed a system for this, writing the following on each solicitation:

_____ Yes

_____ No

_____ Amount

_____ Initial

7. After Mr. Gray completes these instructions, I make out a check from his Riggs (before that, Nationsbank, and before that, First American Security) account in the amount he has directed, and enter it into his computerized record-keeping system. I include the date, the amount, the payee, and the budget category. Initially, there were two categories for contributions, charitable and political, but the "political" category was later divided into federal and non-federal contributions.

8. When I send Mr. Gray's contribution to the candidate or committee, 95% of the time I include the completed response card. Occasionally, I send the check with a cover letter, if the response card is unavailable. In those few instances where neither a response card nor a cover letter is sent, it is because the check is being sent to individuals who are organizing fund-raisers, and have requested that the check be forwarded to them for delivery. In those cases, I usually call the individual fund-raiser and say that I am sending Mr. Gray's check over.

9. When Mr. Gray first began making political contributions, I did not have a method of tracking contributions except by budget category. There were no tax ramifications to the contributions, so Richard Scott (Mr. Gray's accountant) and John Sheets (Mr. Gray's financial advisor) did not get involved, and his contributions were fairly small (well under the $25,000 federal aggregate contribution limit). At the end of each month, I would reconcile the accounts, and send the canceled checks and registers to Mr. Scott, the accountant. At the end of the year, Mr. Scott would ask for a breakdown of budget categories. Occasionally, Mr. Scott would look over the accounts throughout the year.

10. I knew there was a annual $25,000 federal contribution limit, because I had called the Federal Election Commission and asked for the rules, but I evidently did not fully understand their complexity. I didn't know initially that some PAC or party contributions could count toward the annual federal limit, and I didn't realize that contributions to candidates that were made in 1993 could count in a later year. I just looked at the guide the FEC sent, and saw $25,000 a year; $1,000 for the primary; and $1,000 for the general, and thought that was that.

11. At some point in 1994, I discovered that PAC and party committee contributions sometimes counted towards the federal limit. I reviewed all contributions up until that point, and immediately asked for refunds and redesignations where necessary. In some cases, contributions intended to be non-federal had been mistakenly deposited in federal accounts. Once we completed the process of asking for refunds and redesignations in 1994, necessitated by the addition of some PAC and party contributions to my records of Mr. Gray's candidate contributions, we thought Mr. Gray was under the $25,00 limit for all years.

12. We continued to use this system without event until I received a call from a Wall Street Journal reporter in March 1998. The reporter had called a securities lawyer at Wilmer asking how contributions to Trent Lott by employees of the firm affected securities legislation. The Wilmer lawyer told the reporter that she didn't know that anyone at Wilmer had contributed to Lott, and the reporter told her that I had contributed. The reporter then called me at home, and I told him that the FEC's record of the contribution was a bookkeeping error, because I didn't make contributions of that size. I had made a few small personal political contributions, which I did not discuss with Mr. Gray. Mr. Gray would have known of only one contribution I made, to Phil Gramm, because Mr. Gray was the host of the event. (I went to that event and contributed, of my own free will. I knew Mrs. Gramm, because I worked with her when I was at the New York Stock Exchange and she was at the Commodity Futures Trading Commission.)

13. After calling me, the reporter sent a letter to Mr. Gray listing the FEC's records of Mr. Gray's contributions, and contributions listed in my name. I sent a copy to Mr. Scott, who did a quick reconstruction of Mr. Gray's political contributions. At that point, and for the first time, we realized that House and Senate contributions counted towards the limit for the year of the election, not the year in which they were made. Mr. Scott and I only discovered this by reviewing the information that the reporter sent to us, which consisted of a printout of FEC data listing contributions attributed to either Mr. Gray or myself, and a printout from the FEC web page of the rules concerning political contributions by individuals. The FEC web page materials were much clearer than the materials I received from the FEC in 1994. The effect of this discovery was that several House and Senate contributions had to be re-listed in the year of the election on our records, thereby indicating a $25,000 limit issue for 1994 and 1996. This came as a great shock to me because, while these contributions had always been included in my tally of

Mr. Gray's contributions, the off-year contributions to candidates were not included in the correct years in my earlier contribution summaries. There was no procedure for the computer program to attribute contributions made in 1993 to 1998, for example, and I didn't know it was necessary. Immediately after we informed Mr. Gray of this fact, he directed that we seek all necessary refunds or redesignations.

14. Some of the confusion occurred because of banking errors. Mr. Gray had a central account (the "agency" account) at Wachovia Bank, in North Carolina, that was occasionally used for large contributions. For example, in May 1995, Mr. Gray wanted to make a $10,000 contribution to the NRSC. I sent a request to Mr. Gray's account executive at Sheets, Smith and Associates, who at the time was Ms. Kimberly Cotten, that she direct Wachovia to draw the check on his agency account. She so directed Wachovia, but after Wachovia sent Mr. Gray's check, the NRSC deposited it in their federal account. Mr. Gray intended the contribution to be non-federal. All large party contributions were supposed to be non-federal. However, when Wachovia sent the check, they failed to designate it as non-federal, and FEC records show that it was erroneously deposited in the NRSC's federal account. That happened again, in 1997.

15. Other problems stemmed from a misunderstanding of how fees for Mr. Gray's attendance at party conferences and events had been reported by party committees. I did not view such payments as federal contributions, but rather as payments for administrative costs: the fees were often labeled "registration fees" in the correspondence from the party. After I reviewed the FEC data sent by the reporter and learned that such fees had been reported as federal contributions, Mr. Gray immediately asked for refunds from the appropriate committees.

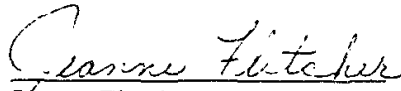

16. The following contributions, erroneously listed on FEC records at some point as being mine, were in fact entirely Mr. Gray's:

DATE	RECIPIENT	AMOUNT
12/7/93	Monahan for U.S. Senate (P)	$250
2/23/94	Jim Miller for US Senate (P)	$500
5/19/94	Lucas for Congress (P)	$250
6/30/94	Santorum '94 (G)	$1,000
8/24/94	Watts for Congress (P)	$1,000
9/13/94	Kevin Vigilante for Congress (P)	$500
9/17/94	Burr for Congress '94 (G)	$250
9/19/94	Tennesseans for Thompson (G)	$500
9/26/94	Ashcroft for Senate (G)	$1,000
11/16/94	Ashcroft for Senate Refund	($1,000)
9/19/94	DC Repub. Comm. – Federal Campaign Comm.	$250
9/21/94	Hatch Election Committee	$500
5/27/94	The Wish List	$1,000
8/9/95	The Capitol Committee	$1,000
3/27/95	Alexander for President, Inc. (P)	$1,000
12/1/95	Pickering for Congress (P)	$500
12/14/95	Watts for Congress 96 (P)	$500
2/5/96	Forbes for President Committee, Inc. (P)	$1,000
3/10/97	New Republican Majority Fund	$5,000
4/30/97	1997 Republican Senate-House Dinner	$1,000
6/2/97	Citizens for Arlen Specter - 1998 (P)	$500
3/17/98	J.D. Hayworth for Congress (P)	$500
5/31/98	Portman for Congress (P)	$500
5/28/97	Hatch Election Committee	$1,000

Each of these was Mr. Gray's personal contribution, made with his money, on his checks, from his bank account, with his name on the checks and the response cards or correspondence. My signature appeared only because I served as his secretary, authorized to sign on that account for bookkeeping purposes. At no time did Mr. Gray ever give me money to make political contributions on his behalf. Additionally, I never permitted my name to be used by him, and I never made contributions in my name for him. In each instance, as soon as Mr. Gray or I discovered that the committees noted above had erroneously reported the contribution as mine, a letter was sent to the committee asking them to correct their FEC report.

17. The Wall Street Journal reporter also provided me with information suggesting that a contribution of $290 to the NRSC made by Mr. Gray on September 10, 1996 had also been wrongly attributed to me. We were unable to locate such a mis-attribution on current FEC records, however. That contribution, however, is also a contribution made by Mr. Gray under the same circumstances described above for all other contributions that were erroneously attributed to me.

STATEMENT OF RICHARD K. SCOTT
IN MUR 4758

1. I am Richard K. Scott, head of the accounting firm of Richard K. Scott, C.P.A., P.A., in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. I am responsible for overseeing C. Boyden Gray's personal financial records and accounts, as part of providing tax and financial advice.

2. I have reviewed the two contributions attributed to Mr. Gray by the Committee to Re-elect Dana Rohrabacher as counting toward his annual federal $25,000 contribution limit for 1994. After reviewing Mr. Gray's records, I believe that the Rohrabacher Committee has double-reported this contribution. The FEC records show two contributions within days of each other, December 30, 1993, and January 21, 1994, while our records (including canceled checks) show only a single contribution to the Rohrabacher Committee for the 1994 election (both our records and the FEC data show a $500 contribution in August 1997 for the 1998 election). The 1993 contribution that I believe was double-reported was made by check 2663, dated December 30, 1993, which appears to have been deposited on January 26th, 1994. We notified the committee of this fact several months ago, requesting that it correct its FEC reports to remove the incorrect double-reporting of the 1994 contribution. A copy of that letter is attached.

Re: 1994 Contribution

Dear Sir or Madam:

On October 25, 1994 I forwarded a letter to the Orrin Hatch Committee requesting that my September 5, 1994 contribution in the amount of $500.00 (my check 3193), be refunded. A copy of the letter and other background information are enclosed for your convenience. According to Federal Election Commission records, this was apparently never done. In fact, this contribution is listed under the name of my secretary, Jeanne Fletcher, rather than under the account of C. Boyden Gray, the contributor.

This letter is written to request that this 1994 contribution of $500.00 be refunded to me, and a correction report filed with the Federal Election Commission.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter. I can be reached at 202-663-6888 if you have any questions or require additional information regarding this request.

Dear Mr. Gray:

This correspondence is in response to your letter dated March 30, 1998. We did not receive your letter until last week due to an incorrect address. For your records, all future correspondence should be directed to Karen H. Raye, Executive Director, The WISH List, 3205 N Street, NW, Washington, D.C., 20007.

You have requested The WISH List either redesignate or refund your 1994 contribution of $1,000 which was inaccurately reported as a contribution by your secretary, Jeanne Fletcher. We apologize for the error and any confusion it has caused.

Due to the considerable length of time that has passed, we have enclosed a refund check to you for the 1994 contribution in question. In addition, we will file an amended report with the Federal Election Commission to accurately attribute the contribution to C. Boyden Gray, and will show a refund of this Federal contribution to C. Boyden Gray on our next FEC report.

If you would like to make another contribution to The WISH List, we do have a non-federal account and we would be appreciative of your support for our non-federal activities.

Thank you.

Dear Madam:

On October 28, 1994 I forwarded a letter to The WISH List requesting that my May 3, 1994 contribution in the amount of $1,000 (my check 2918), be redesignated as non-federal funds. Dear Mr. Engle:

On October 18 and October 25, 1994, I forwarded letters (enclosed) to the NRSC requesting that contributions in the amount of $10,000, $5,000, and $250 be redesignated as non-federal contributions. The NRSC responded by redesignating the $15,250 (enclosed), but the FEC apparently did not acknowledge the redesignations. I therefore would appreciate it if you would confirm in writing that the correction report was filed with the Federal Election Commission for the redesignation of the $15,250.

In addition, my records show an additional conference fee payments to the NRSC in 1994 of $1,600, as follows: 3/9/94-$270; 3/22/94-$500; 4/25/94-$290; 9/2/94-$290; and 9/15/94-$250. Because the FEC apparently treats these fees as hard money contributions, I hereby request a refund of these contributions and that correction reports be filed on my behalf with the Federal Election Commission.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter. I can be reached at 202-663-6888 if you have any questions or require additional information regarding this request.

Dear Ms. Eudy:

Enclosed herewith is a letter dated October 18, 1994, forwarded by C. Boyden Gray regarding his 1994 contribution to the Senatorial Trust.

Unfortunately, as you can see, I inadvertently addressed the letter to 425 2nd St. N.W., rather than 425 2nd St., N.E. and the post office only returned the letter to Mr. Gray today.

I am once again forwarding his letter and apologize for any inconvenience and delay my error has caused.

Sincerely yours,

Jeanne D. Fletcher

Dear Ms. Eudy:

On April 18, 1994, I made a contribution to The Senatorial Trust in the amount of $10,000 (my check #2889).

I have recently discovered that I have exceeded the Federal limit allowable for campaign contributions and, therefore, respectfully request that my $10,000 contribution be redesignated to the NRSC Building Fund.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter. I apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Gray:

Please accept this letter as confirmation that on December 31, 1994, the National Republican Senatorial Committee transferred a total of $15,250 of your contributions from its Federal account to its Building Fund account. This amount, transferred at your request, lowered your total aggregate contributions to the NRSC's federal account for 1994 to $2,450.

Enclosed you will find a copy of the Schedule B denoting the transfer filed with the Committee's 1994 Year End report. If you have any further questions, please feel free to contact me.

Dear Mr. Engle:

On October 18 and October 25, 1994, I forwarded letters (enclosed) to the NRSC requesting that contributions in the amount of $10,000, $5,000, and $250 be redesignated as non-federal contributions. The NRSC responded by redesignating the $15,250 (enclosed), but the FEC apparently did not acknowledge the redesignations. I therefore would appreciate it if you would confirm in writing that the correction report was filed with the Federal Election Commission for the redesignation of the $15,250.

In addition, my records show an additional conference fee payments to the NRSC in 1994 of $1,600, as follows: 3/9/94-$270; 3/22/94-$500; 4/25/94-$290; 9/2/94-$290; and 9/15/94-$250. Because the FEC apparently treats these fees as hard money contributions, I hereby request a refund of these contributions and that correction reports be filed on my behalf with the Federal Election Commission.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter. I can be reached at 202-663-6888 if you have any questions or require additional information regarding this request.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Gray:

I write in response to your March 30, 1998, letter to this Committee that we received on April 7.

Attached please find a full refund of your generous 1994 contribution to the NRCC. I apologize for the Committee's failure to refund or redesignate your donation upon your original request of September 4, 1994. Because many more than 60 days have elapsed since our receipt of that contribution, we have chosen to refund the entire contribution to you (rather than redesignate it now as non-federal funds).

We remain grateful for all of the support you provide us and Republican candidates annually. I have taken the liberty of attaching information regarding the NRCC's Non-Federal account in case you are interested in making future contributions that will not apply towards the $25,000 annual limits.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if I can be of assistance to you in any way. Again, the NRCC apologizes for the inconvenience.

Sincerely Yours,

Bruce P. Mehlman

Re: 1994 Contribution

Dear Mr. Mehlman:

On October 18, 1994 I forwarded a letter to the National Republican Congressional Committee requesting that my September 5, 1994 contribution in the amount of $5,000 (my check 3206), be redesignated as non-federal funds. A copy of the letter and other background information are enclosed for your convenience. According to Federal Election Commission records, this was apparently never done.

This letter is written to request that this 1994 contribution of $5,000 be either redesignated as non-federal funds or refunded to me, and a correction report filed with the Federal Election Commission.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter. I can be reached at 202-663-6888 if you have any questions or require additional information regarding this request.

Dear Mr. Gray:

Here is a check for $1,500 from the Republican National Committee. This check represents a refund of two donations you made to the RNC, one for $1,000 which we received on February 9, 1994, and one for $500 which we received on September 15, 1994. I am also enclosing a copy of the document which accompanied your $500 check for your records.

I received a memorandum from Michael Toner of our Counsel's Office requesting I generate this refund. He informed me you had inadvertently exceeded the aggregate $25,000 contribution limit by that amount in 1994.

If I can be of further assistance please let me know.

Dear Mr. Toner:

I hereby request that my contribution of February 9, 1994 (check #7347), in the amount of $1,000 (RNC Gala) be refunded to me.

My contribution to Frank Lucas for Congress of May 3, 1994 in the amount of $250.00, (my check #2925) has been filed with the Federal Election Commission listing my secretary, Jeanne D. Fletcher, as the contributor. That contribution should be redesignated, naming C. Boyden Gray as the contributor. A copy of the check and background paperwork is enclosed for your convenience.

In addition, Federal Election Commission files show a contribution to the Republican National Committee on September 15, 1994, in the amount of $500. I have been unable to locate this contribution in my records, and would appreciate a clarification and a refund for this amount.

Re: 1994 Contribution

Dear Sir or Madam:

In a October 27, 1994 telephone conversation with my secretary, Judy Barrett assured her that my September 5, 1994 contribution to GOPAC in the amount of $1,000 would be designated as non-federal funds. A copy of the check and other background information are enclosed for your convenience. According to Federal Election Commission records, this contribution was apparently designated a federal contribution.

This letter is written to request that this 1994 contribution of $1000 be either redesignated as non-federal funds or refunded to me, and a correction report filed with the Federal Election Commission.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter. I can be reached at 202-663-6888 if you have any questions or require additional information regarding this request.

Sincerely yours,

C. Boyden Gray

Dear Mr. Gray:

Pursuant to instructions in your letter of March 30, 1998, GOPAC redesignated the $1000 contribution you had made to GOPAC in September of 1994 and transferred the funds from GOPAC-Federal to our non-federal account. The transfer was made on April 6, 1998, and reported to the Federal Election Commission on GOPAC's monthly report for April. We are amending our 1994 FEC reports to reflect this change.

On behalf of GOPAC, I apologize for the original error in attributing the contribution as federal and for not previously informing you of our correction of that error.

Thank you for your continued support of GOPAC.

Sincerely,

Dear Sir:

On December 30, 1993, I made a contribution to the Committee to Re-Elect Rohrabacher in the amount of $1,000.00 (my check #2663). It has come to my attention through Federal Election Commission records that $2,000 (not $1,000) has been credited to my Federal contributions account, putting me over the allowable limit for contribution to the Re-Elect Rohrabacher campaign. A copy of my check and background paperwork is enclosed.

I would appreciate it if you would verify this contribution in your records, and file a corrected report with the Federal Election Commission as soon as possible. Please forward a copy of your correction request to me for my files.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

STATEMENT OF RICHARD K. SCOTT
IN MUR 4758

1. I am Richard K. Scott, head of the accounting firm of Richard K. Scott, C.P.A., P.A., in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. I am responsible for overseeing C. Boyden Gray's personal financial records and accounts, as part of providing tax and financial advice.

2. I have reviewed the two contributions attributed to Mr. Gray by the Committee to Re-elect Dana Rohrabacher as counting toward his annual federal $25,000 contribution limit for 1994. After reviewing Mr. Gray's records, I believe that the Rohrabacher Committee has double-reported this contribution. The FEC records show two contributions within days of each other, December 30, 1993, and January 21, 1994, while our records (including canceled checks) show only a single contribution to the Rohrabacher Committee for the 1994 election (both our records and the FEC data show a $500 contribution in August 1997 for the 1998 election). The 1993 contribution that I believe was double-reported was made by check 2663, dated December 30, 1993, which appears to have been deposited on January 26th, 1994. We notified the committee of this fact several months ago, requesting that it correct its FEC reports to remove the incorrect double-reporting of the 1994 contribution. A copy of that letter is attached.

Pursuant to your request, Republicans Abroad has transferred your 1996 contribution of $1,000 from our federal hard money account to our non-federal soft money account. We will duly note on our next Federal Election Commission Report that your 1996 contribution of $1,000 was, indeed, a non-federal contribution.

I do hope that this change will be sufficient for compliance with FEC regulations. Thank you very much for your continued support of Republicans Abroad. Please let me know if we can ever be of assistance in the future.

February 4, 1994

Mr. C. Boyden Gray
1534 28th Street NW
Washington DC 20007

Dear Mr. Gray:

There are times in life when difficult decisions must be made and this is one of them. For the past twelve months I have explored my candidacy for the United States Senate. I have traveled extensively throughout Pennsylvania addressing the issues and discussing the ideas and values which have made our country strong and which are essential for our future. What has pleased me most is the reception I have received wherever I go. I have encountered many who share my views. I am especially honored by the support which I have received from many Pennsylvanians and people throughout the country.

On one hand, no better opportunity exists to put forth the agenda we believe will best equip our party to emerge victorious in November. On the other hand, our true opponent, Harris Wofford is amassing a war chest in the millions.

I have always believed that if one could not win a general election there is no purpose in winning a primary. While I believe I would win the primary and the party nomination for the United States Senate, I have taken a realistic view of the political landscape in Pennsylvania.

This year has proven to be an unusual year in Pennsylvania politics. An open seat for Governor, with a crowded field of candidates for that position, has seriously impacted the senate race. I made a reassessment earlier this year when it became clear to me that several scenarios were developing: Harris Wofford was raising significant amounts of money (a minimum of $2 million in the bank and a projection of $5 - $7 million by November) and without a Democratic primary all money raised would be available for the general election; the Pennsylvania Senate seat would be a litmus test for Bill Clinton, his presidency as well as for Hillary Clinton and health care reform; and Jim Carville, having lost the Governor's race in New Jersey could ill afford another loss as Wofford's campaign manager.

As I looked at November and where the efforts, energies and resources, both personal and financial, of the major Republican leaders and powerbrokers were going, it became clear that the Governor's race and the 5000 positions associated with it were the primary focus. In the Senate race the verbal support would be there but not the personal efforts and financial resources necessary to win, regardless of the candidate. Therefore, I have made the decision to withdraw from the United States Senate race.

It was a very, very difficult decision, but the right decision. My wife, Laurie and I sincerely appreciate the support you gave to my candidacy in the early stages. This support is the most important of all and we will never forget your friendship or your belief in me.

Rest assured that I will continue to aid in the fight we all so deeply believe in. It will simply take place in another form. Laurie and I want to offer our heartfelt thanks to you. I wish Gods speed as the fight is joined to advance those values and principles that unite us all as Republicans and more importantly as Americans.

With warmest best wishes,

Dear Boydan,

My campaign for the United States Senate has sprung into action, the heat is on and I could not be more excited. As I travel through the State of Virginia, I am greeted with strong support and kindness that grows and strengthens more each and every day.

Northern Virginia is one of the most crucial areas of my campaign for the United States Senate and we are feverishly working to meet our goals by the end of February. It is essential that we recruit hard working, well qualified delegates, as well as raise necessary campaign funds.

On February 24th we will be holding a reception and dinner at The Ritz-Carlton in Pentagon City. I would like for you to serve on my team as a Co-Chairman for this special event.

As a Co-Chairman you make a commitment to sell a minimum of 5 tickets to the reception and/or dinner.

JEANNE:

Boyden has agreed to co-chair the February 24 event AND purchase a dinner ticket for himself ($500). You do not need to return any form because I have already spoken to them and they are aware. I did tell them, though, that the check for $500 would be coming shortly.

By the way, I know that ^{DATE} is his McIntosh fundraiser, but he said he'd attend the dinner and then attend McIntosh (??); perhaps he will decide that is pushing it too close, and if so at least the $500 goes to a good cause!

Thx again, Jeanne.

Dear Boyden,

My campaign for the United States Senate has sprung into action, the heat is on and I could not be more excited. As I travel through the State of Virginia, I am greeted with strong support and kindness that grows and strengthens more each and every day.

Northern Virginia is one of the most crucial areas of my campaign for the United States Senate and we are feverishly working to meet our goals by the end of February. It is essential that we recruit hard working, well qualified delegates, as well as raise necessary campaign funds.

Dear Boyden:

On May 10 we have an important opportunity to elect another Republican to the House, and I am writing to ask for your help.

GOP State Representative Frank Lucas, our nominee in Oklahoma's sixth district, is a super candidate, won a tough primary and will be an outstanding Congressman. His opponent in this special election to fill the seat vacated by Glenn English is Senator David Boren's press aide, Dan Webber. Webber is 28, left the district when he finished high school and has never even paid taxes there.

Frank is a lifelong resident of the district, who is a conservative and has a proven track record as a legislator. While he had a hard-fought primary, he has the active support of his primary opponents, and the party is unified behind him.

Frank can win this election. I am personally asking you to make a $500 or $1,000 contribution to Frank's campaign. I also ask you to try to raise another $5,000 on his behalf.

If Frank Lucas has the money to get his message out, he will win. The issues are on his side, and we have a clearly superior candidate. Webber's strengths are that Boren is pulling out all stops for him, and Bill Brewster (whose agenda is to win Boren's seat in a special election after Boren resigns to become President of the University of Oklahoma) is also beating the bushes. Our Republicans in Oklahoma are full bore for Lucas, but the truth is, our greatest asset is Lucas himself.

You know the rules. The Lucas campaign, the address of which is below, can accept $1,000 per individual contribution and/or $5,000 per PAC.

The Democrats will pull out all stops, because they believe a loss of this seat would be a major setback and a substantial difficulty in their trying to pressure moderate and conservative Democrats to vote for their health care reform package. Obviously, they also think a Republican pick-up in Oklahoma-6 would improve our chances to win the Boren Senate seat, if it comes open, and the governorship this fall. I hope you will help me on this. The campaign is: Frank Lucas for Congress Committee, Post Office Box 26825, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma 73216-9909, or if you prefer, you can make your check payable to Frank Lucas for Congress Committee and mail it to me at the RNC, 310 First Street, S.E., Washington, D.C. 20003.

Sincerely,

Dear Boyden:

I am hosting a fundraising dinner in my home for the WISH LIST on Tuesday, April 26, and I hope you will be able to join us. As you may know, the WISH LIST has been extremely helpful to me and many other Republican women candidates for Congress. I know firsthand about this support -- WISH raised more than $55,000 from its membership for my winning U.S. Senate campaign last year.

Since its founding in 1992, WISH has contributed over $350,000 to Republican women candidates. WISH support played a significant role in the 1992 victories of several of my colleagues in the House -- Jennifer Dunn, Tillie Fowler and Deborah Pryce -- and last year helped to elect Christie Whitman Governor of New Jersey. WISH also helped Olympia Snowe in 1992, and now we all look forward to having her join me and Nancy Kassebaum as part of a Republican majority in the U.S. Senate.

As you know, early money is always critical to a campaign, and the WISH LIST has always been there for us. To meet the growing needs of even more women candidates, WISH must expand their base of support. I am committed to help WISH LIST in any way I can. That's why I'm hosting a dinner to introduce you and others to WISH TEAM 1000 members -- and to some of the outstanding women WISH has helped to elect to Congress.

I hope you will be able to join us on April 26 for what is sure to be a very enjoyable evening. I'm looking forward to welcoming you both into my home and into WISH. Your $1,000 contribution for our gathering (which can be corporate or PAC money) will help to support the election of more Republican women to the U.S. Congress.

My home is easy to find on Capitol Hill (just a few blocks from the Hart Building). Cocktails will be at 6:30 p.m., dinner at 7:00 p.m. Someone will be calling you in the next few days to answer any other questions you may have.

Dear Mr. Gray:

Hello! I wanted to give you an update on the campaign and inform you of our upcoming event in Washington. Although the event is planned for late July we are anxiously trying to meet our $300,000 fundraising goal before the June 30th FEC deadline. Your generosity before that date would be truly appreciated.

I've also enclosed a recent clip and a copy of the ad we ran in the Providence Journal. A distinct difference separates Patrick Kennedy and myself and without question my message is gaining momentum in Rhode Island.

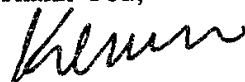

We are continuing to work hard both in Rhode Island and here in Washington. Last week, I was in town to attend several meetings and speak at the emergency physician's conference.

I met with Congressman Newt Gingrich who brought me to the weekly Whip meeting. He gave me the opportunity to address the group--many Members of Congress were enthusiastic about my message. They suggested I plan another event here in Washington. We are looking at the end of July, before Congress goes out on summer recess.

Thanks to your efforts our last event was a tremendous success raising over $20,000 and gaining favorable press. We are putting together a host committee and as a founding member of Team Vigilante I would like for you to be a part of the committee.

Please contact Carolyn Machado at (202) 682-4311.

Mr. C. Boyden Gray

Dear Boyden:

It is my pleasure to write to you today as co-chairman of Richard Burr's campaign for Congress. It is my pleasure because I find myself in the enviable position of helping one of the finest young leaders that the 5th District and this state have seen in a long time.

This letter is intended to solicit your support for Richard Burr - I'll tell you that up front. But unlike most campaign mail, I am going to tell you of my personal relationship with Richard and his family and why I want to see him represent me in the U.S. Congress.

It is my honor to serve as co-chairman with Richard's father, Dr. David Burr, pastor emeritus at First Presbyterian Church in Winston-Salem. Dr. Burr is possessed of a strong faith and a commitment to his community - qualities that he has passed on to his son Richard. And now Richard and his wife Brooke are passing those qualities on to their sons, Tyler and William.

Richard is a man who spent most of his life in the 5th District. He was educated at Wake Forest University where he lettered in varsity football. After college, he chose to stay in the community that he loved and to work and raise his family there. For over 16 years, Richard has been a successful businessman in the community and now, he wants to give something back to the community that he holds so dear. He wants to represent his community and his district in the halls of Congress.

As a moral family man and a conservative businessman, Richard is unlike any candidate you will ever meet. He wants to take a conservative message to Washington, speak clearly and loudly for the citizens of his district, and then come home and take his place as a husband, a father, and a community leader. He doesn't want to become a professional politician with a career in Washington. He wants to show the 5th District that they need a conservative voice speaking for them for the first time in 20 years.

Unlike any other candidate you will ever meet, Richard's only allegiance is to the citizens of the 5th District and the great state of North Carolina. Special interest groups will not guide his hand when he votes. Unlike his opponent, half of whose campaign war chest is filled with big-dollar contributions from labor unions and liberal special interest groups, Richard has only accepted contributions from those whose vision for the future is conservative.

Richard represents change in the relationship between government and the people. Richard represents getting government off of your back, out of your pocket, and out of the business of making you pay for every social program that the liberal element puts forward. Richard's opponent has proven that he will get in line with the liberal administration, put his hand deeper in your pocket, and add to the load that you carry in support of the ever-growing welfare society that the Clinton's are building.

Richard's opponent has proven time and time again that he would fit in perfectly with the current liberal agenda. He voted for the largest tax increase in the state's history which included increases in the state sales tax, the state corporate income tax, the personal income tax, and the state cigarette tax. He has also voted himself a pay increase every time the issue has come up since he went to the legislature. Folks, that clearly tells me his agenda is out of step with that of the working, tax-paying citizen of this district and this state.

And to make matters worse, when the legislature was spending an estimated $60,000 every day they were in Raleigh, Richard's opponent sponsored the action to repeal the law that mandated that legislators be out of town by a certain date. In doing this, the legislature stayed in town another ten days at a total cost of approximately $600,000. Folks, that's over half a million dollars of your money literally wasted to pay for legislators to drive to Raleigh and draw a salary.

So join me in contributing to help Richard Burr stop this gross waste by the liberals in Congress. It has to stop now or our children will be paying for the mistakes we voted for. For remember, you have a direct say in who votes for you in the halls of Congress. That means that your vote affects all of us so please contribute today and vote in November.

I am enclosing a response card and envelope in hopes that you will send in $500, $250 or $100 to help change the course of our great country. North Carolina has a chance to send a true conservative to Washington from the 5th District. Please send in your contribution today and take a stand to stop wasteful spending by our elected officials. Your contribution does make a difference.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

James W. Broyhill

Dear Boyden:

I am hosting a small breakfast with Lamar Alexander as the third in a series of fundraisers to benefit the D.C. Republican Party, on Friday, September 16th at the Metropolitan Club, 1700 H. Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. We will meet in the private dining room on the fourth floor of the Club, and breakfast will begin promptly at 8:00 a.m. and end by 9:00 a.m.

This breakfast begins a series of meetings with potential candidates for the Republican Presidential nomination. As you know, Lamar Alexander finished a strong second to Senator Dole in the first straw preference poll for the 1996 nomination. I expect that he will discuss the political message that he is shaping for the 1996 campaign, what he is hearing on his Ford Explorer tour of the Nation, and the organization and financing of his campaign.

As before, please mail your $250.00 contribution payable to the District of Columbia Republican Committee (DCRC) to the address below prior to September 16th. In order to ensure the same frank exchange of views we enjoyed at the Haley Barbour and Newt Gingrich breakfasts, I intend to limit this breakfast to twenty contributors. Obviously, this is a rare opportunity to meet with a very serious candidate for the Presidential nomination.

Your contribution, incidentally, will be used to continue the D.C. Republican Committee's effort to support Republican candidates and get out our message in the November elections.

I hope to see you on September 16th.

With warmest regards,

Dear Mr. Gray,

I want to alert you to a potentially serious situation. Many good conservatives, who appreciate Orrin Hatch's distinguished service in the Senate, are taking his reelection for granted.

They assume because of Senator Hatch's outstanding leadership on behalf of conservative causes and values that he will have no real problem in 1994.

They're wrong. Orrin has repeatedly taken on Special Interests and Big Labor -- and won. He's made powerful enemies on the Left. They're desperate to silence his strong voice, and they're now amassing a huge war chest to defeat him.

Liberals and their news media allies sense our complacency and know knocking off a nationally-known conservative champion like Orrin Hatch would give an incalculable boost to the Liberal tax-and-spend cause in Washington.

As Republican Leader, I'm alarmed, because several early polls show Orrin is fighting for his political life against well-financed opposition. One survey actually has him running behind! To get his message out -- and prevent his well-financed opponents from dominating the agenda -- he needs help from friends like you.

I cannot overemphasize how much I need Orrin's help in the Senate. He never shrinks from an important fight, even though it means angering Left-wing Lobbies and powerful Special Interests.

That's why I asked Orrin who he's counting on for support. When I got this phone message from his office with your name on it, I knew I had to ask you for your Sustaining Membership for 1994 to help Orrin in what will be his toughest political battle ever.

Will you help by sending your financial support to Orrin with a Sustaining Member gift for 1994 of $1,000, $500, $250, $100, $50 or even $25 so he can match his opponent's outlays and keep the record straight? It's important: your support would put his mind at ease that he'll be able to run a strong campaign and allow him to stay focused on winning critical battles in the Senate.

Orrin is leading the fight to put real teeth in a landmark Crime Bill, making certain adequate funds are provided for more police officers, boot camps for first offenders, and more prisons.

(SENATORIAL TRUST DINNER TONIGHT)

Dear Boyden,

I hope you will join me in helping to elect John Ashcroft the next United States Senator from Missouri.

On Wednesday, September 21, I will host a reception in my Washington home, 2320 Tracy Place, N. W., from 6 - 8 o'clock, to provide an opportunity to interact with John and discuss with him key issues facing the Country. I would greatly appreciate if you would join me on that occasion and contribute as close to $1,000 as possible to his campaign.

John is the Republican nominee to succeed John Danforth. A former Governor of Missouri, he is widely favored to win the contest in November. A seasoned and wise campaigner, however, he is making every day count in his drive for an overwhelming victory.

I have known John for many years and have great respect for his integrity, his dedication to public service and his very considerable abilities. He will be a superb member of the Upper Chamber.

Checks should be made payable to Ashcroft for Senate and returned to me via the enclosed envelope (2320 Tracy Place, N. W., Washington, D. C. 20008).

I do hope you will join me to welcome John on September 21 and to help in the drive to insure his election this November!

Many thanks!!

P. S. I hope that a number of our friends in the Senate including Senators Bond, Pressler and Thurmond among others, will be with us during the evening. R.

Dear Boyden:

Many thanks for your most generous support of my campaign.

I continue to be pleased with our progress. Fundraising and organizational efforts are on track, and both the early polls and impartial observers indicate that the race is leaning my way.

We're clearly off to a great start. I'm delighted, but I'm far from overconfident. I expect a spirited race against Congressman Alan Wheat, the winner of the August 2nd Democratic primary, in a state that is equally divided politically.

One thing I'll guarantee. We'll run my campaign as if every vote counts, because it does in Missouri. I've run five statewide campaigns and won four times. I know what it takes to win, and I plan to run all-out.

During my two terms as governor, I worked to assist the vitality of Missouri's free enterprise system and I made fiscal responsibility in government a primary goal. It's this view of government's responsibility that I want to bring to Washington and the U.S. Senate.

I'll keep you advised of our progress and I solicit your observations and suggestions. Boyden, your continued interest is vital to my campaign, and I look forward to seeing and working with you in the future.

Again, thanks so much for your generous support and assistance.

Sincerely,

John Ashcroft

SUBJECT: Breakfast for Chip Pickering - December 5, 1995

PAGES: 1 (Including Cover)

MESSAGE: Julie Finley and I are giving a breakfast for Chip Pickering on Tuesday, December 5th from 8:00-9:00am at the Metropolitan Club, 4th Floor. Chip recently left Trent Lott's staff, where he handled telecommunications legislation, to return to Mississippi to run for the open Congressional seat which has been held by Congressman Sonny Montgomery for the last thirty years. Chip is an eighth-generation Mississippian and the son of Judge Pickering who ran against Thad Cochran twenty years ago. Judge Pickering's campaign was managed by the young Haley Barbour. Haley's nephew, Henry Barbour, who recently left the RNC, is managing Chip's campaign. Chip is a first-tier candidate in the Republican primary field, and the general consensus is that whoever wins the primary will win the general. Chip is a 32-year old, father of four, nuanced defense conservative. In my view, which I believe Haley Barbour shares, Chip is part of the next generation of Republican leadership which the Republican realignment of the South has produced. Although both Julie Finley and I have done considerable due diligence on this, first campaigns are difficult, even for someone as promising as Chip. I was hoping that those of us who want to get good Republicans running for office would each contribute $250 (or more if the spirit moves) to Chip's effort.

The Honorable C. Boyden Gray
Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering
2445 M Street, NW
Washington, DC 20037

Dear Boyden:

The success of any organization is contingent upon the caliber and cooperation of the members of its leadership. Needless to say, you are among those leaders whose name is synonymous with hard work and dedication to the achievement of our goals.

This is why we need your help now. Your active participation in a leadership role at the 1997 Republican Senate-House Dinner is crucial for laying the groundwork for more Republican victories in the 1998 mid-term elections. The mission of this year's Dinner is to solidify our control of both the Senate and the House. The theme is "A Celebration of the American Spirit."

We have set a goal of $7.5 million for the Dinner which will be held on Tuesday, June 24, 1997 at the Washington Convention Center.

Because the Dinner is a united effort between the National Republican Senatorial Committee and the National Republican Congressional Committee, its importance can not be emphasized enough -- both financially as well as visually for those critics who would like to see Republicans divided.

That's why we need you there. Specifically, we would like you to serve as Co-Chairman or Vice Chairman. Serving in an active leadership capacity entails:

- 1) Agreeing to raise or contribute either $100,000 as a Co-Chairman; $45,000 as a Vice-Chairman or $15,000 as a Dinner Committee Member. (Please review the attached page which describes each level.)
- 2) Attending at least one Leadership Committee "Phone Day" in Washington, D.C. with your personal list of potential Dinner participants. We stress your list because that's the only way we are going to expand our base and raise the goal we have established. Phone Days will be held on Thursday, April 17 and Wednesday, May 14.
- 3) Permission to use your name on the invitation, if you so desire.

Lunch will be provided and at the conclusion of the phone session, the "phoners" will attend a meeting with the members of the leadership from the House and the Senate.

Your participation in the 1997 Republican Senate-House Dinner has never been more crucial. We look forward to having your response soon.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Trent Lott

The Honorable Newt Gingrich

P.S. If you agree to be a member of the Leadership Committee, please fax or mail the attached response form as soon as possible so that you may be listed on the formal invitation. Or call Elizabeth Montgomery at (202) 675-6109.

Dear Colleague:

Please join us at the upcoming fundraising event for Senator Arlen Specter at La Colline, 400 North Capitol Street, NW, Washington, DC which is scheduled for

Friday, May 23, 1997
12:00 noon

Arlen Specter is Pennsylvania's senior Senator, presently in cycle and is seeking his 4th term.

Arlen's 17 years in the Senate have given him seniority with the Chairmanship of the Appropriations Subcommittee on Labor, Health and Human Services and Education, which places him just a couple of steps away from the Chairmanship of the very important Appropriations Committee. In addition, he serves as Chairman of the Veterans' Affairs Committee and is a member of the Judiciary Committee and Government Affairs Committee.

A contribution in the amount of $1,000.00 is requested. Checks should be made payable to "Citizens for Arlen Specter" and sent to

Mr. Robert Griffin
The National Republican Senatorial Committee
425 2nd Street, N.E.

We hope that you will be able to join us on May 23.

Thank you.

Dear Boyden:

Thank you for your very generous support of Rob Portman's previous campaigns for Congress. As you probably know, he must run for reelection again this year. We hope you will agree with us that he has once again earned your strongest support.

Recently you should have received an invitation in the mail to attend a breakfast fundraiser for Rob on Tuesday, March 3rd. Former Senate Majority Leader and presidential candidate, Bob Dole, will speak at the breakfast. Immediately following, Senator Dole has agreed to meet with Rob's top supporters. A photographer will be on hand for those interested in a picture. This VIP reception will be limited to those who have contributed $1,000 per person, or $1500 per couple, to Rob during the 1997-1998 election cycle. We hope you will be able to join Rob and Bob Dole at this special gathering.

You probably receive a lot of solicitations from candidates. We certainly do. But, Rob only holds one major fundraiser every two years and we believe he deserves an extra effort on our part. He is exactly the kind of person we want in public life, and has worked hard to earn our support at the highest level.

In fewer than five years in office, Rob has been a positive force for change in the Congress and has achieved remarkable results. He has authored several major bills that have been signed into law, including legislation to:

- stop unfunded mandates,
- support drug-free communities,
- greatly simplify pension rules and expand private retirement savings, and
- exclude capital gains taxes on the sale of a primary residence.

He has gained well-deserved national recognition for his tireless efforts to restructure the IRS, and his comprehensive IRS reform bill recently passed the House by an overwhelming margin. His new legislative initiatives in the areas of tax reform, teenage drug prevention, and conservation, among many others, represent more creative solutions to pressing national problems.

While we are impressed with all of his legislative activities in Washington, Rob continues to be a true representative of our area. He and Jane have kept their home here and Rob returns every week to a busy schedule of constituent meetings. As you probably know, Rob and his staff are accessible, responsive and effective.

Rob has chosen not to accept any PAC money. This makes your individual contribution even more important. We need to show our support for Rob because he is doing the right thing and making a real difference.

We hope you will join us at the VIP reception on March 3rd. A return envelope is enclosed for your convenience.

Thanks in advance.

Sincerely,

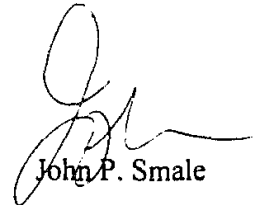

Robert H. Castellini

RE: Incorrect Designation of 1994 Campaign Contribution

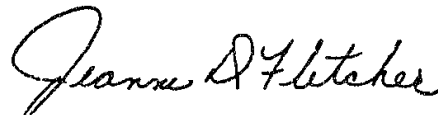

Dear Sir:

On May 3, 1994, Mr. C. Boyden Gray made a contribution in the amount of $250.00 (check #2925) to the Frank Lucas for Congress campaign. We recently learned that the report to the Federal Elections Commission of that contribution listed Jeanne D. Fletcher as the contributor rather than C. Boyden Gray. Please see attached correspondence from Mr. Gray to the Republican National Committee. A copy check #2925 is also enclosed for your convenience.

Please redesignate the above-referenced contribution naming C. Boyden Gray as the contributor.

Thank you for your cooperation.

My contribution to Frank Lucas for Congress of May 3, 1994 in the amount of $250.00, (my check #2925) has been filed with the Federal Election Commission listing my secretary, Jeanne D. In addition, Federal Election Commission files show a contribution to the Republican National Committee on September 15, 1994, in the amount of $500. I have been unable to locate this contribution in my records, and would appreciate a clarification and a refund for this amount.

Re: 1994 Contribution

Dear Madam:

On October 28, 1994 I forwarded a letter to The WISH List requesting that my May 3, 1994 contribution in the amount of $1,000 (my check 2918), be redesignated as non-federal funds. A copy of the letter and other background information are enclosed for your convenience. According to Federal Election Commission records, this was apparently never done. In fact, this contribution is listed under the name of my secretary, Jeanne Fletcher, rather than under the account of C. Boyden Gray, the contributor.

This letter is written to request that this 1994 contribution of $1,000 be corrected, either redesignated as non-federal funds or refunded to me, and a correction report filed with the Federal Election Commission.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter. I can be reached at 202-663-6888 if you have any questions or require additional information regarding this request.

Dear Mr. Gray,

This correspondence is in response to your letter dated March 30, 1998. We did not receive your letter until last week due to an incorrect address. For your records, all future correspondence should be directed to Karen H. Raye, Executive Director, The WISH List, 3205 N Street, NW, Washington, D.C., 20007.

You have requested The WISH List either redesignate or refund your 1994 contribution of $1,000 which was inaccurately reported as a contribution by your secretary, Jeanne Fletcher. We apologize for the error and any confusion it has caused.

Due to the considerable length of time that has passed, we have enclosed a refund check to you for the 1994 contribution in question. In addition, we will file an amended report with the Federal Election Commission to accurately attribute the contribution to C. Boyden Gray, and will show a refund of this Federal contribution to C. Boyden Gray on our next FEC report.

If you would like to make another contribution to The WISH List, we do have a non-federal account and we would be appreciative of your support for our non-federal activities.

Thank you.

Re: Alexander for President, Inc. (ID# C00300673) - 1995 Year-End FEC Report

Dear Sir/Madam:

It has been brought to my attention that an adjustment made on a previous Alexander for President, Inc. ("AFP") FEC Report has not yet been fully corrected. The adjustment relates to a contribution drawn on a joint checking account in the name of Mr. C. Boyden Gray and Mrs. Jeanne D. Fletcher. Originally, this receipt was reported as a contribution from Mrs. Fletcher. AFP filed a correction on its 1995 Year-End FEC report to properly attribute the contribution to Mr. Gray. Mr. Gray's records with the Federal Election Commission reflects this correction, however, Mrs. Fletcher's records still indicate a contribution of $1,000 to AFP.

Attached is a copy of background material including the original correction from the 1995 Year-End FEC Report. Please correct Mrs. Fletcher's account to reflect this correction.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Todd Eardensohn
Treasurer

Dear Ms. Fletcher,

Per your request, I am returning the following contribution. Federal law requires the campaign to credit the signer of the check with the contribution and further stipulates that the signer's name must also appear on the masthead of the check. In order for us to credit Mr. Gray with a contribution, these guidelines must be followed.

Dear Jeanne,

Thanks so much for your generous contribution. Your support means a lot to me.

I will continue the fight to cut waste and inefficiency in government, reform our tax code and the IRS, and reduce teenage drug abuse. While we've made some progress in these and other important areas, so much more remains to be done.

I am proud to have you on the Portman for Congress team. Together, we can help create a better America for future generations.

Jane and I send you our best wishes.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. de Waal:

With regard to my letter to you of July 27, 1998 in response to your request for information of June 25, 1998 (copies enclosed), I did not acknowledge a contribution to the Hatch Election Committee more recent than my check #5576, dated May 19, 1997. Dear Colleague:

We are hosting a fundraising reception for Senator Orrin Hatch on Monday, May 19, in the home of Lynda Nersesian. The address is 4801 Foxhall Crescents, NW and directions can be requested by calling the number below. The buffet dinner will begin at 6:00 p.m. You are welcome to bring your spouse and/or children and join Orrin and his wife, Elaine, for this festive occasion.

We do not need to tell you about Senator Hatch's support of the health industry. Lately Senator Hatch has been attacked by some for his legislation on children and his position on giving federal judge nominees fair hearings. It seems like an opportune time for his friends to rally around him. Senator Hatch's twenty years in the Senate have been marked by his tenaciousness and hard work. Any suggestions to the contrary are just ridiculous.

The requested contribution is $1000 and checks can be made to the Capitol Committee, 9115 Westerholme Way, Vienna, Virginia. 22182. For those that can't make a PAC-to-PAC contribution, please make checks payable to Hatch Election Committee at the address above. Please RSVP to Susan LaMontagne at 202/347-3333 if you will be able to join us on the 19th. We look forward to seeing you.
