Re: MUR 4788

Dear Ms. Dillenseger:

Thank you for your prompt response to our request for an extension of time and your willingness to extend the time to September 10, 1999. I do feel it necessary to clarify one point. As I stated in our telephone conversations, while our client will be responding to the Commission subpoena and request for written answers, we are not waiving the right to raise objections as to particular interrogatories or document requests or portions thereof. Any such objections will, of course, be made in writing.

I expect to begin sending you some material as early as this week. If you have any questions at any point, please contact me.

Sincerely,

OLSON, HAGEL, LEIDIGH,
