Re: Pre-MUR 354

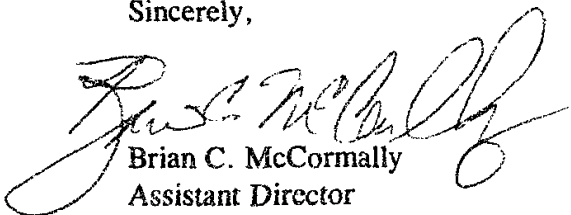

Dear Ms. Capper:

Enclosed please find the documents requested by your office relating to Hamilton Bank, N.A. ("Bank"), and the referral which the OCC sent to the FEC involving the Bank.

As you are aware from your discussion today with Alan Burch, an attorney on my staff, the Right to Financial Privacy Act prevents the OCC from disclosing documents with customer names or other identifying information. Accordingly, the names of Bank customers have been redacted from certain documents where they appear. If you need to review the originals, you may make arrangements to do so here at the OCC, though we cannot allow duplication of the originals.

If you would like to discuss the matter further, please do not hesitate to call me at (202) 874-4800.

Sincerely,

Brian C. McCormally

Dear Mr. Pannell,

In regards to your review of the $50,000 payment made to the Democratic National Committee (DNC) we would like to summarize the process followed by Senior Management to determine that the payment was a permissible transaction.

Senior management requested our former in house counsel to review the law and determine that the payment was permissible. In house counsel obtained a copy of the law and requested outside counsel to research and advise us on the matter. Attached is the copy of our former in house counsel letter confirming the events and a copy of outside counsels invoice.

A discussion was held at the board meeting related to the payment made to the DNC and in house counsel proceeded to be advised that the payment could be made to the "Building Fund".

At that time we proceeded to make the payment with the advice of counsel and the intent of this payment was to be for the "Building Fund". However, the documentation (our purchase order) prepared in house was not updated to reflect this research and unfortunately the check is not clear on the "Building Fund" designation. Nonetheless, both our in house counsel and myself had spoken to the Democratic National Committee's general counsel and other representatives of the DNC which were advised that the only way this payment would be made was if it was permissible and that it would have to be made to the "Building Fund".

I would like to re-emphasize to you the intent of other contribution and our communication with the DNC was to make a contribution to the Building Fund of the DNC.

I am available to answer any questions or any additional information you may need, please do not hesitate to contact me at (305) 717-5620.

RE: Contribution to the Democratic National Committee Building Fund

Dear Mr. Bingham:

Pursuant to your request, I confirm that with respect to the contribution made by Hamilton Bank, N.A. to the Democratic National Committee's Building Fund in April of 1996, outside counsel was consulted and advice was sought. As the billing records which you have in your file show, I spoke with attorneys at Kirkpatrick & Lockhart LLP's Washington, D.C. office who performed research at my request and further directed me to the rules and regulations of the Federal Election Commission. I reviewed such regulations and the facts surrounding a possible contribution to the "building fund" of a political party with such outside counsel. After such consultation and prior to the contribution being made, the Democratic National Committee's General Counsel was asked to produce the opinion, dated April 24, 1996, which you also have in your file.

Very truly yours,

Armin G. Seifart

Dear Ms. Diaz:

This will address the question you raised about the contribution made by Hamilton Bank to the Democratic National Committee on or about April 30, 1996, in the amount of $50,000.

This contribution was inadvertently deposited in the DNC's non-federal corporate account, but should have been deposited in the DNC's Building Fund account. This was an error by the DNC staff who processed the contribution and does not reflect any mistake on the part of the Bank.

The DNC will immediately transfer this contribution from the non-federal corporate account to the Building Fund, and correct its records accordingly.

If you have any questions concerning the above, or need additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me at 202-863-7110.

Dear Edwardo:

I would like to thank you for your generous support and tremendous efforts on behalf of President Clinton's reelection campaign and the Democratic Party. Due to your generosity, we were able to raise a record breaking $120 million in 1996, surpassing 1992's record by $50 million. We are extremely grateful for your important role in helping us carry out such key campaign components such as polling, media and get out the vote operations. Each of these were crucial to a successful election.

I have thoroughly enjoyed the opportunity to work with you and thank you once again for your tremendous efforts.

Sincerely,

Armin Seifart, Esq.
Deputy General Counsel

Dear Mr. Seifart:

Per your request, this will confirm that it is lawful for the Democratic National Committee to accept a contribution to its Building Fund account from a national bank.

Section 316(a) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("FECA"), 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a), provides, in pertinent part, that:

It is unlawful for any national bank... to make a contribution or expenditure in connection with any election to any political office...

FECA provides that the term "contribution", when used in the FECA, is defined to exclude:

any gift, subscription, loan, advance or deposit of money or anything of value to a national or State committee of a political party specifically designated to defray any cost for construction or purchase of any office facility not acquired for the purpose of influencing the election of any candidate in any particular election for Federal office.

2 U.S.C. §431(8)(B)(viii). The FEC's regulations, 11 C.F.R. § 114.1(a)(2)(ix), further provide that:

For purposes of part 114 and section 12(h) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act (16 U.S.C. 791(h))--

(2) The term contribution and expenditures shall not include--

(ix) A gift, subscription, loan, advance, or deposit of money or anything of value to a national committee of a political party or a State committee of a political party which is specifically designated for the purpose of defraying any cost incurred with respect to the construction or purchase of any office facility which is not acquired for the purpose of influencing the election of any candidate in any particular election for federal office. . . .

This regulation makes clear that a political party committee may accept such donations to a building fund from a national bank, since such a donation does not constitute a "contribution" for purposes of the ban on corporate contributions in connection with any election set forth in 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) of FECA and part 114 of the Commission's regulations.

The DNC Building Fund is a separate bank account, into which are deposited only contributions designated for the "Building Fund," and the funds in which are used only for a purpose permitted by 2 U.S.C. § 441(8)(B)(viii) and 11 C.F.R. § 114.1(a)(2)(ix), i.e., to defray the costs of purchasing the Democratic National Headquarters building. None of the funds in the Building Fund are used in connection with any federal, state or local election or for any purpose whatsoever other than to defray the costs of the purchasing the Democratic National Headquarters building.

For these reasons, a donation to the DNC Building Fund does not constitute a "contribution" for purposes of 15 U.S.C. § 791(h), accordingly, a national bank may lawfully make a donation, without limitation in amount, to the DNC Building Fund.

Checks to the Building Fund should be made payable to "DNC--Building Fund."

It should be noted that all contributions to the DNC Building Fund are publicly disclosed on the reports filed by the DNC with the FEC.

It should also be noted that contributions to the DNC Building Fund are not tax-deductible.

If you have any questions or need further information concerning the above, please do not hesitate to contact me at 202-363-7110.

Dear Eduardo,

This letter will confirm the various conversations you have had with Charles Dusseau about becoming a Trustee of the Democratic National Committee. I can tell you from personal experience that the business networking opportunities and results I have had over the years, have made this investment one of the most effective I have made.

Trustees are invited to attend a minimum of one White House Dinner with the President and First Lady, along with Key Cabinet and Administration People in the State dining room. You are invited during the year to an assortment of small receptions and dinners, including with Cabinet members, key White House people and the Principals. Trustees are an honored guest at any Presidential or Vice Presidential fundraiser in the country. You will also receive VIP status at the Democratic National Convention, which will include parties, etc. and the use of a sky box. You will receive preferential treatment for appointments to Boards and Commissions. In addition, you will be assigned a contact at the DNC to assist you with any of your needs in Washington, D.C., tickets, appointments, etc. In your case, I will personally be there to assist.

In the immediate future, you have the opportunity to attend a small dinner with the President in Washington. These dinners usually have around twelve people, seated at the same table with the President, and last for a few hours of high quality dialogue. We have dinners scheduled on April 4th, 8th and 11th and a few small coffees at the White House during April, with a similar format. By acting now, you will also have a gold ring table at the April 29th Presidential Gala in Miami and be invited to a dinner afterwards with the President and twenty participants.

In addition, there are a number of possibilities we can discuss in person, regarding benefits in relation to Hamilton Bank's Latin American activities, which would include State Department, Commerce Department, White House (McClarty), Treasury, Exim Bank, IDB, OPIC and others. The annual Union membership is $50,000, made payable to the Democratic National Committee.

Thank you for your serious consideration of the above. Please let me know if I can be of further assistance. I'll look forward to hearing from you.

Warm regards,
