Dear Mr. Sandler:

This is in response to your letter of October 15, 1998, containing a proposal for your clients' partial compliance with the outstanding subpoena in the above-cited matter. We appreciate your efforts in attempting to informally resolve our differences regarding the subpoena. Subject to the clarifications discussed below, your proposal is acceptable. This Office will expect to receive all answers and documents, as set forth herein, within thirty (30) days of receipt of this letter.

This Office understands that your proposal is offered without prejudice to any of your or the Commission's legal positions, or to the Commission's right to bring an enforcement action in United States District Court to compel complete compliance with its subpoena. Further, all limitations, constructions of terms, definitions, etc. are accepted by this Office solely for the purposes of the present production, and do not constitute either a modification of the subpoena or a waiver of the Commission's right to demand complete compliance with the questions and production requests as written.
