RE: MUR 4821 - Richard Gollel

Dear Mr. Turley:

In reply to your letter of October 21, 1998 to Richard Gollel, which he received on January 29, 1999, I am enclosing a State of Designation of Counsel in which I am designated as his counsel. According to the information I have, it is quite obvious that he wrote the two checks, which you have forwarded copies of to him. At the time the contribution was made, $1,000.00 was paid to Lazio for Congress and $500.00 was used to buy a ticket for a political function for Lazio. At the time the checks were drawn, my client was unaware of his legal responsibility. He should have known that by purchasing the ticket that same would be applied as part of the aggregate maximum allowed.

Very truly yours,

Richard D. Morris, Esq.
