Re: MUR 4830

Dear Ms. Smith:

I am in receipt of the Complaint and cover letter in the above numbered Matter Under Review. While my name is included in the style of the complaint, although incorrectly spelled, I find no allegation made against me in the body of the Complaint. Mr. Turley's letter states that I may have violated sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended.

Could you advise me of what specific conduct I have committed that would constitute a violation of that law. It is quite impossible to defend myself without being made aware of the accusation made against me.

Is there any provision in the law that would allow me to recover expenses, fees and costs for the making of false allegations or a false complaint against me?

Very truly yours,

William W. Kilgarlin
