Dear Mr. Turley:

RE: MUR 4836

I am in receipt of your letter dated October 30. Please find enclosed a copy of my letter dated October 20. This letter more or less explains my position in this matter. Ms. Boyle raises issues that, I would assume, do not come under your control. I am assuming that your issue with this matter, if indeed there IS an issue, has to do with campaign contributions.

My ex-husband and myself, and our grown, adult children, have given maximum contributions to conservatives running for Federal offices. Additionally, we were told years ago, if a minor child has his or her own bank account, with his or her own funds in that bank account, they could make a contribution, also. That is precisely what happened. Our grown older children were making more than adequate salaries to make their own contributions, and our youngest son, Leif, made his contribution from his own bank account and his own funds.

I believe this should conclude the matter. If you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you,

Barbara L. Vopnford-Martin
