RE: MIN 4582

Mr. F. Andrew Turley
Supervisory Attorney
Central Enforcement Docket
Federal Election Commission
Washington, DC 20463

Dear Mr. Turley:

I'm proud to say that I'm a long standing member of the Republican Party.

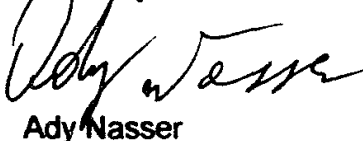

At one time, I was an active participant. Unfortunately, over the years, my involvement waned for reasons I cannot explain.

More recently, I decided that it was time for me to re-involve myself in some way.

Being acquainted with John Ensign and his family was the deciding factor. So, when Mr. Chairez was out canvassing area voters, we had the chance to meet and talk. At this time I felt that this was the opportune moment to do something – a well meant gesture. I made a campaign contribution to the Republican Party.

Unbeknownst to me, there are guidelines as well as deadlines that must be followed and met when involving contributions. If in fact the guidelines were violated, there was no intent to violate or deceive.

Sincerely,

Ady Nasser
