I. GENERATION OF MATTER

Dear for Congress, Inc. ("the Committee") was the principal campaign committee of Noach Dear for his campaign for the Democratic nomination for the United States House of Representatives (New York 9th District) in the 1998 primary, and registered with the Commission on July 19, 1997. Dear 2000, Inc. ("Dear 2000") is the principal campaign committee of

Mr. Dear for his campaign for the Democratic nomination for the United States House of Representatives (New York 9th District) in the 2000 primary, and registered with the Commission on December 21, 1999.

Audit Referral ("AR") 00-02 was referred by the Audit Division to the Office of General Counsel on January 27, 2000 and was generated from an audit of the Committee's activities during the 1998 election cycle, undertaken in accordance with section 438(b) of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended, 2 U.S.C. §§ 431-451 ("the Act" or "FECA").²

Attachment 1. The first matter referred by the Audit Division to this Office is the finding that the Committee accepted excessive contributions and did not disclose as debts those excessive contributions which it has not been able to refund. Id. The second matter referred is the finding that the Committee failed to file required 48-hour notices and filed untimely 48-hour notices during the period when such notices were required (from August 27 to September 12, 1998). Id. The final matter referred is the finding that the Committee accepted contributions made by one person in the name of another person. Id.

Matter Under Review ("MUR") 4935 was generated by a Complaint filed by Sandy Aboulafia, Vice President of the Women's Democratic Club of New York City ("Complaint"). Attachment 2.

² The Commission approved the Final Audit Report on January 13, 2000.

II. COMPLAINT AND REPSONSE

A. Complaint

The Complaint alleges, with respect to the 1998 election cycle, that the Committee accepted excessive contributions and prohibited corporate contributions, filed an incorrect Mid-year Report, and "failed to file required reports with the FEC on October 15, 1998, and January 31, 1998 [sic]." Attachment 2 at 2. In addition, the Complaint alleges that Friends of Noach Dear '93, which appears to be a campaign committee established under New York state law for the purpose of supporting Mr. Dear's candidacy for the New York City Council, funded a $20,000 poll which had the purpose of measuring whether Mr. Dear should become a candidate in the 2000 election for nomination for and election to the United States House of Representatives (New York 9th District), thereby making an excessive in-kind contribution to the Committee in connection with Mr. Dear's 2000 campaign.

B. Response

For its response to the Complaint, the Committee filed a letter dated March 1, 2000, in which it states that "each of [the] allegations [in the Complaint] was also raised in the Audit Report" and which incorporates by reference its response to the Interim Audit Report ("IAR") as its response to the Complaint.³ Attachment 3 at 1.

While there is overlap between the issues raised in the Committee's response to the IAR and the allegations in the Complaint, this overlap is not complete, notwithstanding the Committee's assertion to the contrary. Specifically, the Response to the IAR does not contain any response which specifically addresses Ms. Aboulafia's claims that the Committee accepted prohibited corporate contributions, filed an incorrect Mid-year Report, and failed to file reports due on October 15, 1998, and January 31, 1999.⁴

Indeed, the only claim which both is raised in the Complaint and is specifically addressed in the Response to the IAR is the claim that the Committee accepted excessive contributions. The Committee does not appear to deny the violation. Rather the Committee offers the explanation that it:

. . . attempt[ed] to comply with the broad provisions of the Act, while failing to grasp fully its more detailed provisions. While the Committee's staff and volunteers understood the practical rule that a couple together could contribute up to $4,000 for a candidate's effort to seek federal office, they did not grasp the series of technical and procedural requirements to which a committee must adhere in order to raise such amounts.

Attachment 3 at 3. The Committee offers no defense or explanation with respect to its acceptance of contributions greater than $4,000.

III. LAW

A. Contribution Limits

A contribution is a gift, subscription, loan, advance, deposit of money, or anything of value made by a person for the purpose of influencing any election for federal office. 2 U.S.C. § 431(8)(A); 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(a)(1). The Act and the Commission's regulations prohibit any person from making contributions to any candidate and his or her authorized political committees with respect to any election for federal office which, in the aggregate, exceed $1,000. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A); 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(b)(1). No candidate or political committee may knowingly accept any contribution that violates the contribution limitations. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f); 11 C.F.R. § 110.9(a).

B. Prohibited Contributions

Corporations are prohibited from making contributions in connection with federal elections. 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a); 11 C.F.R. § 114.2. No candidate or political committee may knowingly accept such a contribution. 11 C.F.R. § 114.2(d).

C. Contributions Made In The Name Of Another

The Act prohibits any person from making a contribution in the name of another person. 2 U.S.C. § 441f. The Act also prohibits any person from knowingly permitting his or her name to be used to effect a contribution made by one person in the name of another person. Id. Finally, the Act prohibits the knowing acceptance of a contribution made by one person in the name of another person. Id.

D. Reporting Requirements

Each treasurer of a political committee shall file reports of its receipts and disbursements. 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(1). Each report shall disclose for the appropriate reporting period all receipts. 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(2). Each report also shall disclose for the appropriate reporting period all disbursements, including contribution refunds. 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(4)(F). Finally, each report must disclose the political committee's outstanding debts. 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(8).

A political committee's quarterly report is due to be filed no later than the fifteenth day following the close of the quarter. 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(a). A political committee's year-end report is due to be filed on January 31 of the following year. Id.

E. 48-Hour Notice Requirements

The Act requires the principal campaign committee of a candidate to notify the Clerk of the House, the Secretary of the Senate, or the Commission, as appropriate, in writing, of any contribution of $1,000 or more received by any authorized committee of such candidate after the twentieth day, but more than 48 hours before, any election. 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A); 11 C.F.R. § 104.5. Notification must be made within 48 hours after the receipt of the contribution and must include the name of the candidate, the office sought by the candidate, the identity of the contributor, the date of receipt, and amount of the contribution. Id. This notification is in addition to all other reporting requirements under the Act. 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(B).

F. Testing The Waters And Polling

The Commission's regulations state that funds received and payments made solely for the purpose of determining whether an individual should become a candidate are not contributions. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(1) and 100.8(b)(1). However, if the individual subsequently becomes a candidate, any funds received are contributions and any payments made are expenditures subject to reporting requirements of the Act. 11 C.F.R. § 101.3. The individual is required to retain records of the names of each contributor, the dates of receipt and amounts of all contributions received and all expenditures made in connection with determining whether he or she should become a candidate. Id. Such contributions and expenditures must be reported with the first report filed by the principal campaign committee of the candidate, regardless of the date the funds were received. Id.

The purchase of opinion poll results by a candidate or a candidate's authorized political committee or agent is an expenditure by the candidate or a potential expenditure under 11 C.F.R. § 100.8(b)(1). 11 C.F.R. § 106.4(a). Additionally, if a political committee or other person not authorized by a candidate to make expenditures purchases such poll results and a candidate, a candidate's authorized political committee, agent, or another unauthorized political committee subsequently accepts the poll results, an in-kind contribution by the purchaser to the candidate or other political committee and an expenditure by the candidate or other political committee results. 11 C.F.R. § 106.4(b). If an individual uses such poll results to decide whether to become a candidate, a contribution or expenditure does not exist until he or she becomes a candidate. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(1) and 100.8(b)(1).

IV. ANALYSIS

A. Contribution Limits

In connection with its audit of the Committee, the Audit staff reviewed copies of contribution checks accepted by the Committee for the 1998 election cycle. Attachment 1 at 4. Based on this review, it appears that the Committee accepted contributions in excess of $1,000 from 327 contributors. Id. The aggregate amount of contributions in excess of $1,000 accepted by the Committee was $563,913. Id. Based on the dates on which the checks were executed, it appears that the Committee first began accepting contributions in excess of $1,000 on or about July 11, 1997. See Attachment 4 at row 636. Of the 327 contributors of amounts in excess of $1,000, it appears that 26 contributors gave amounts in excess of $4,000: Steven Renee Adelsberg, Shael Bellows, Joseph P. Billig, Trina Cayre, Abraham Chehebar, Jerome Cooper, Samuel Cygler, Yosef Davis, Michael Fuchs, Eugene Gluck, Edith Gross, Harry Gross, Frank Johnson, Jomarr Realty Company, Boris Kandov, Benjamin Landa, Shimon Lefkowitz, Abraham

Leser, Andrew Lowinger, Joseph Mermelstein, Boris Motovich, Serge Muller, J.L. Rajchenbach, Carl Rosen, Manny Weiss and Steve Zakheim.⁵ Attachment 4.

In the IAR, the Audit staff recommended that the Committee provide documentation that established that the contributions were not excessive. Attachment 1 at 6. The Committee has made no demonstration that the contributions were not excessive. The Committee's response to the identification of apparent excessive contributions instead stresses the candidate's supporters' "relatively little experience with the Federal Election Campaign Act and its accompanying regulations" and explains that, although the Committee lacked full understanding of the technical and procedural requirements outlined by the Act, it attempted to comply broadly with the provisions of the Act through:

- Its efforts to limit each contribution attributed to an individual to $1000;
- Its efforts to seek reattribution letters;
- Its establishment of a separate account for funds raised for the general election and the fact that some contributors specifically designated their contributions to the general election;
- Its collection of employer and occupation data;

⁵ This Office believes that the proper ordering of the Commission's resources and priorities warrants taking no action with respect to individuals contributing excessive amounts less than $4,000. See Heckler v Chaney, 470 U.S. 821 (1985).

- Its filing of late contribution notices for approximately 91 percent of the funds received during the 20 days preceding the primary, with notices missing for only four contributions.⁶

Attachment 3 at 2-3. Further, the Committee explains that even its treasurer did not fully comprehend the Act's provisions when he informed the Audit staff that "he did not consider contributions in the amount of $2,000 made by checks drawn on joint checking accounts to be excessive." Attachment 3 at 3. The Committee's response also emphasizes its efforts to refund the excessive contributions and its commitment to disclosing pending refunds on Schedule D forms.⁷ Id.

Nothing in the Committee's response refutes or justifies its apparent knowing acceptance of contributions in excess of the $1,000 aggregate limit on personal contributions. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f); 11 C.F.R. § 110.9(a). The $1,000 contribution limitation is a fundamental restriction on the financing of federal election campaigns, and the Committee's attempt to dismiss this limit as an easily misunderstood or overlooked technicality should be rejected.

Accordingly, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.9(a) by knowingly accepting contributions in excess of the $1,000 aggregate limit on contributions imposed on persons other than multicandidate political committees in connection with Mr. Dear's primary campaign. Further, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the following individuals each violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(b)(1) by making contributions to the Committee in excess of $1,000 in connection with Noach Dear's primary campaign: Steven Renee Adelsberg, Shael Bellows, Joseph P. Billig, Trina Cayre, Abraham Chehebar, Jerome Cooper, Samuel Cygler, Yosef Davis, Michael Fuchs, Eugene Gluck, Edith Gross, Harry Gross, Frank Johnson, Jomarr Realty Company, Boris Kandov, Benjamin Landa, Shimon Lefkowitz, Abraham Leser, Andrew Lowinger, Joseph Mermelstein, Boris Motovich, Serge Muller, J.L. Rajchenbach, Carl Rosen, Manny Weiss and Steve Zakheim.

⁷ The Final Audit Report reflected that the Committee has thus far made refunds to 80 contributors totaling $254,550, rather than the refund to 107 contributors totaling $275,120 claimed by the Committee in its response. The Audit staff also noted that the Committee, as of the date of the Final Audit Report, had not disclosed on its Schedules D the debt resulting from the remaining refunds due to the contributors. However, the Committee's April Quarterly Report 2000 reflected the remaining refunds due as debts on the Schedules D.

B. Prohibited Contributions

The Complainant alleges that, based on the Committee's reports, Dear for Congress accepted and spent prohibited corporate contributions. Attachment 2 at 1. While conducting its audit of the Committee, the Audit staff reviewed copies of contribution checks accepted by the Committee during the 1998 election cycle and identified 19 possible prohibited contributors in the aggregate amount of $12,320.⁸ Attachment 5. These contributions were made by corporations between September 1997 and September 1998, and ranged in amount from $100 to $2,500.⁹ Attachment 5. The Committee's response to the Complaint offers no defense regarding these alleged prohibited corporate contributions. See Attachment 3.

Consequently, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) and 11 C.F.R. § 114.2(d) by knowingly accepting prohibited corporate contributions.

⁹ Fifteen of these contributions were paid to the order of Dear for Congress, three were made out to Noach Dear, and one to Friends of Noach Dear. Attachment 6.

Additionally, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the following corporations each violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) and 11 C.F.R. § 114.2 by making prohibited corporate contributions: A. & E. Consultants of NY., Ltd, Ari H. Friedman Associates Ltd., Blue Spot Co., C.G.B.P., EDH Associates, Elite Insurance Agency, Inc., Health and Home Management, Horizon Insurance Agency, Ltd., Intimate Resources Ltd., Jacobowitz c/o Jay Import Company, Knit Nat Mills, Ltd., Inc., Kramer and Shapiro, Mark Milberg Marketing, Inc., Midway Nursing Home Associates, Northernway Mgt Corp. #1, Plymouth Rock Fuel Corp., Salvatore Realty Corp., Surfside Manor Home for Adults, and The Esplanade Hotel. Of the 19 corporate contributions, one was in the amount of $2,500, six were in the amount of $1,000, four were in the amount of $500, one was in the amount of $360, four were in the amount of $250, two were in the amount of $180 and one was in the amount of $100. Due to the relatively small dollar amounts apparently received from each corporation, the Office of General Counsel also recommends that the Commission take no further action, send an admonishment letter and close the file as it pertains to these corporations.

C. Contributions Made In The Name Of Another

In connection with its audit of the Committee, the Audit staff identified fifteen instances in which the Committee, during the 1998 election cycle, accepted from individual contributors¹⁰ two or more money orders bearing sequential serial numbers.¹¹ Attachments 1 and 7. It appears that, in several instances, money orders purporting to be from different individuals contained in a particular sequence were executed in the same handwriting, including the purported signature of the person drawing the money order.¹²

The Audit staff further noted that, in the case of three contributors who each contributed $1,000 via six consecutively numbered money orders, it appears that all three of the contributors were employed by Executive/Essex Gallery, Ltd. Id. It further appears from public records filed with the Commission that another sequence of money orders was contributed by employees of Byrne's Elegant Carriages.

In its referral, the Audit staff notes that the pattern of contributions made via sequential money orders suggests that the contributions may have been made by one person in the name of another. In its Response to the IAR, the Committee disputes this conclusion, arguing that "there is nothing inherently inappropriate or suspect about contributions made through money order." Attachment 1 at 10. With respect to the fact that it appears that money orders for contributions were issued seriatim, the Committee argues that "there is no prima facie evidence of contributions in the name of another. Rather, the evidence suggests only concerted political action." Id. at 11. Finally, the Committee submits signed statements from several of the contributors in question which, according to the Committee, "attest[] to the fact that their contributions came from personal funds." Id.

The opinion of this Office is that the circumstances surrounding the Committee's receipt of contributions present sufficient grounds for finding reason to believe that the Committee knowingly received contributions made by one person in the name of another, that the purported contributors knowingly allowed their names to be used to effect such contributions, and that an investigation is warranted. This Office notes that the money orders are not only numbered sequentially, but in many instances also appear to have been signed by a single individual. In addition, in several instances it appears that the purported contributors associated with a particular sequence of money orders worked for the same employer.

Furthermore, this Office is not persuaded that the signed statements submitted by some of the purported contributors of money orders adequately resolve the matter. In its letters soliciting a signed statement, the Committee informed the contributor:

The Noach Dear for Congress Committee is reviewing its 1998 receipts. Our records show that you made a personal contribution for [amount] in the form of a money order [serial number], dated [date]. If this information is correct, please sign the attached statement and return it to us in the enclosed stamped return envelope. If this information is incorrect, please note any changes.

Attachment 8 at 1. The prepared statements tendered to the contributors state "[t]his confirms that I contributed [amount] from my personal funds to the Dear for Congress Committee on [date], money order [serial number]."¹³ Id. at 2.

Neither the letter nor the prepared statement appear calculated to probe the question whether the money order contributions were made by one person in the name of another. The letter on its face appears to be seeking confirmation of various data, in particular the amount, date and money order number associated with the contribution, and the recipient's attention is in no way drawn to the fact that the statement also confirms that the contribution was made from personal funds. Furthermore, to the extent that any person knowingly agreed to allow his or her name to be used for the purpose of making a contribution for another, that person might well be reluctant to confess this fact in response to the Committee's letter. Finally, the statements submitted by the Committee address only some of the money order contributions in question, suggesting the possibilities that the Committee did not address its inquiry to all of the persons whose money order contributions are in question and/or that persons receiving the Committee's letter declined to sign the prepared statement.

Accordingly, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f by knowingly accepting contributions made by one person in the name of another person. This Office further recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the following individuals each violated 2 U.S.C. § 441f by knowingly permitting his or her name to be used to effect contributions made by one person in the name of another person: Sarah Scherman, Bashev Dear, Bernard Strulovich, Hershel Perlstein, Joshua Weinstein, Hershel Biggelson, Aron Igel, Chaim Kahana, Hershel Klein, Pesach Lemberger, Arye Eingel, Luzer Obstfeld, Chaskel Elias, Moishe Geller, Mendel Sternhill, Chaim Sieger, Jose Bernstein, Yaakov Einhorn, Chaim Welt, Morris Cohen, Nat Cheney, Ralph Tabbush, Matthew Jones, Jr., Barney Freeman, Nelson Patino, Jon Hamill, Pearl Greenbaum, Irwin Kahan, Temi Kahan, Bill Huppert, Sterling Krieger, Sharon Avital, Susan Hyatt, Reuven Kaufman, Avrum Farber, Baruch Beilush, David Donenberg, Yitchak Ciper, Martin Wesel, Leah Brecher, Menachem Langer, Markus Mandelkorn, Sam Hollander, Michelle Portnor, Anchil Feder, Yakov Baum, Zev Anfang, Dovid Piller, Berel Oberlander, Pesach Ringel, Tom Hennessey, Joe Horagh, Tony Haugh, James Campbell, Conor McHugh, Frank Nolan, Joshua Salwartz, Alexander Vais, Yidel Klein, Leo Yakubowich and Zitta Yakubowich.

D. Reporting Requirements

1. Late Filed Reports

The Committee's quarterly report for the third quarter of 1998 was due to be filed with the Commission no later than October 15, 1998. 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(a). The Committee's 1998 year-end report was due to be filed with the Commission no later than January 31, 1999. Id.

The Complaint alleges that the Committee failed to file reports due to the Commission on October 15, 1998, and January 31, 1999.¹⁴ The Committee's response to the Complaint, which incorporates its response to the IAR, states that the failure to file the year-end report was the result of a deliberate decision by the Treasurer, and cites the Treasurer's concern with accounting issues and the desire for accuracy as the basis for his decision to not file the report. Attachment 3 at 4.

According to Commission records, the Committee filed its quarterly report for the third quarter of 1998 on October 16, 1998 (one day late) and its year-end report for 1998 on November 5, 1999 (278 days late). Consequently, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee violated 11 C.F.R. § 104.5(a) by failing to file a timely quarterly report for the third quarter of 1998 and by failing to file a timely year-end report for 1998.¹⁵

¹⁴ The IAR noted that the Committee's 1998 year-end report was due to be filed on January 31, 1999, and, that as of August 31, 1999, it had not been filed. However, the matter was not referred to this Office because the Committee filed amendments for a 1998 year-end report in November 1999.

¹⁵ On May 12, 2000, the Commission submitted final rules concerning an administrative fines program for violations of the reporting requirements of 2 U.S.C. § 434(a) to the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate for review for 30 legislative days before they are finally promulgated. 2 U.S.C. § 438(d). The proposed administrative fines program would apply to reporting violations occurring in 2000 and 2001, and provides

2. Improper Reporting

Both the Audit Referral and the Complaint raise the issue of incorrect reports by the Committee. However, this Office recommends a reason to believe finding based solely on the Audit staff's findings.¹⁶

The Audit staff noted in the Final Audit Report that the Committee's 1999 Mid-year Report disclosed starting cash on hand of $78,451 (as of January 1, 1999), total receipts of $101,596 and total disbursements of $300,878 (all refunds of contributions), and closing cash on hand of -$120,831. Attachment 1 at 5. The Final Audit Report further stated that, when questioned, the Treasurer stated that refund checks had been written, but not mailed due to insufficiency of funds. Id. Thus, it appears that the Committee improperly reported as disbursements amounts which should have been reported as debts. The Committee in no way disbursed refunds, because the recipients of the refunds would not have been able to cash the checks due to the Committee's insufficient funds and due to the fact that they never received the refund checks.

Accordingly, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(4)(F) by improperly reporting refunds which had not, in fact, been made. The Office of General Counsel further recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(8) by failing to report as debts those improper contributions which had not been refunded.

for a schedule of civil penalties. The proposed administrative fines program would not apply to the apparent violations at issue in this matter because the activity occurred prior to 2000

¹⁶ The Complaint notes that the Committee's 1999 Mid-year Report reports contribution refunds of over $300,000. Attachment 2 at 1. The Complaint argues that "these 'refunds' were not refunds at all because Dear for Congress raised money after the election to return money to these donors." Id. However, the Committee's use of money raised subsequent to the acceptance of illegal contributions to refund such contributions does not render the refunds invalid or unlawful.

E. 48-Hour Notice Requirements

The Audit Division identified four contributions with respect to which the Committee was required to file 48-hour notices, but failed to do so. Attachment 1 at 8. See also 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A). The aggregate amount of these four contributions was $7,000. Id. The Audit Division also identified 45 contributions with respect to which the Committee failed to file required 48-hour notices until more than 48 hours after receipt. Id. The aggregate amount of these 45 contributions was $70,500. Id.

The Committee's response to this issue is to state that, while it failed to file a required 48-hour notice within the time limit set by law with respect to the contributions identified by the Audit staff, it ultimately did file untimely notices with respect to approximately 91% of the funds in question. Attachment 3 at 3.

However, nothing in the Committee's response refutes or justifies its apparent failure to file required 48-hour notices within the time period prescribed by law. Accordingly, the Office of General Counsel recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(a)(6)(A) by failing to file required 48-hour notices, or filing untimely 48-hour notices, for 49 contributions in an aggregate amount of $77,500.

F. Testing The Waters And Polling

The Complainant alleges that Friends of Noach Dear '93 funded a poll of residents within the 9th Congressional District.¹⁷ Attachment 2 at 2. The poll thus encompassed some voters outside Mr. Dear's Council District but within the larger 9th Congressional District. Id.

According to the Complaint, the poll appeared calculated to measure the viability of Mr. Dear challenging Anthony Wiener, the incumbent representative for the 9th Congressional District.

Attachment 2 at 4. The Friends of Noach Dear '93 City Council Disclosure Statement dated July 15, 1999, reveals that it paid Penn, Schoen and Berland $20,000 on June 28, 1999 for polls.

Id. at 6.

On December 21, 1999, Mr. Dear filed a Statement of Candidacy with the Commission for the 2000 election cycle and named Dear 2000, Inc. as his principal campaign committee. Attachment 9. Upon his declaration of candidacy, any funds he received or spent in connection with determining whether to become a candidate became a contribution or expenditure, respectively. 11 C.F.R. § 101.3. This would include any poll purchased by or accepted by Mr. Dear or his authorized political committee. 11 C.F.R. § 106.4. Although Friends of Noach Dear '93 is not a "political committee" under the Act, to the extent that it engaged in activities intending to influence Mr. Dear's candidacy for federal office, it would be viewed as having made an in-kind contribution to his federal campaign. 2 U.S.C. § 431(8). See also Advisory Opinion 1985-38 (by incorporating the name of a federal candidate into its name, state political committee would not become a "political committee" under the Act, but would make an in-kind contribution to the federal candidate's campaign committee). Thus, it appears that the poll purchased by Friends of Noach Dear '93 in June 1999 became a reportable in-kind contribution to Dear 2000 when Mr. Dear became a candidate for federal office in December 1999. 11 C.F.R. § 106.4. See also Advisory Opinion 1998-18 (the donation of poll results for testing the water purposes becomes a contribution when the prospective candidate becomes a candidate, and thus, subject to the Act's limitations). As the cost of the poll was $20,000, this was an excessive in-kind contribution to Dear 2000 for the 2000 election cycle. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.9(a)

Accordingly, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that Dear 2000 violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.9(a) by knowingly accepting contributions in excess of the $1,000 limit on contributions in connection with Noach Dear's 2000 campaign. Further, because Dear 2000 did not report the poll as either an in-kind contribution or as an expenditure, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that Dear 2000 violated 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(2) and 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(4).¹⁸ Moreover, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that Friends of Noach Dear '93 violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A) and 11 C.F.R. § 110.1(b)(1) by making contributions to Dear 2000 in excess of $1,000.

V. PROPOSED DISCOVERY, CONCILIATION AND INVESTIGATION

A. Dear for Congress and Contributors

With respect to the apparent excessive contributions greater than $4,000 to the Committee, this Office recommends that the Commission offer to enter into conciliation with the contributors prior to a finding of probable cause to believe.

¹⁸ The April Quarterly Report for Dear 2000 reveals a $40,000 disbursement to Penn, Schoen and Berland on January 11, 2000 with a notation of "political consultants." Attachment 10. It is unclear whether this expenditure is connected in any way to the Friends of Noach Dear '93 poll
