Dear Mr. Roessner:

In response to your letter and our telephone conversation I am submitting this letter as additional material that I believe is pertinent to the Commission's interest in this matter.

In September of 1998 Morris Cohen, Ralph Tabbush and myself decided to make a contribution to the Dear for Congress, Inc. committee. My decision to make the contribution was entirely voluntary. I gave $ 1000.00 of my own money to one of the individuals and he went and purchased money orders and sent it on to the committee. The Bank's limit on money orders is $ 500.00 so two were purchased. I paid for the cost of my money orders with my own money. No person gave me money (or any other thing of value) for the purpose of buying the money orders in order to make the contribution to the Dear for Congress, Inc. committee.

I believe that this letter should settle any questions you have about my contribution to the Dear for Congress, Inc. committee.

Yours truly,

NAT CHENEY
