Re: MUR 4960

Date: January 15, 2000

Quite clearly, an absurd mistake has been made by your office. The accusation made against me with regard to alleged violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971 has absolutely nothing to do with me. I have never assisted Hillary Rodham Clinton with any phase of her campaign or her move to the State of New York. My name is Caroline Huber, not Carolyn Huber, and I have never been "a longtime friend" of Mrs. Clinton's and have no intention of becoming one. Furthermore, I never had an "odd role in the Whitewater affair"; in fact, I had no role whatsoever in that affair. I have never been a "White House correspondence clerk," and I certainly did not discover "Hillary Clinton's infamous Rose Law firm billing records that had been subpoenaed from the White House during the Whitewater probe."

Your accusation against me is obviously based on media articles which were collected by "Judicial Watch" which I suspect of being a right wing organization dedicated to smearing the Clintons and anyone who might support them. Clearly your investigation into this matter has been cursory and extremely sloppy. I am appalled that my tax dollars are being used in this way, and I expect a retraction and an apology from your office right away.
