MUR 5020

SENSITIVE

GENERAL COUNSEL'S REPORT #4

I. ACTIONS RECOMMENDED

Enter into pre-probable cause conciliation with Mirage Casino Resorts, Inc. ("MGM Mirage"); find reason to believe MGM Mirage executive Punam Mathur violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) and enter into pre-probable cause conciliation with her; enter into pre-probable cause conciliation with Gormley for Senate Primary Election Fund and Alan C. Staller, as treasurer ("the Committee"); approve the attached conciliation agreements, and take no further action as to Steve Wynn, Mark Juliano, and Richard Bronson, and close the file as to them.

MUR 5020 involves allegations relating to three series of events that raised funds for the Committee in 2000.<sup>2</sup> This report addresses a fundraiser MGM Mirage held in Las Vegas for <sup>1</sup> All of the facts recounted in this matter occurred prior to the effective date of the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act of 2002 ("BCRA"), Pub. L. 107-155, 116 Stat. 81 (2002). Accordingly, unless specifically noted to the contrary, all citations to the Federal Election Campaign Act, as amended ("the Act"), are prior to the effective date of BCRA and all citations to the Commission's regulations are to the 2002 edition of Title 11, Code of Federal Regulations, published prior to the Commission's promulgation of any regulations under BCRA.

<sup>2</sup> The Commission previously addressed fundraising by Donald Trump and Harrah's Entertainment, Inc. The Commission took no further action as to several respondents associated with the fundraiser held at Trump's personal residence. See GCR #2 (July 29, 2003). The Commission entered pre-probable cause conciliation with Harrah's Entertainment, Inc. and two executives of subsidiary corporations, Herbert Wolfe and David Jonas, after they facilitated the making of $37,275 in contributions. See GCR #3. The Commission additionally generated and later admonished Joseph Jingoli, Jr. for the making of an excessive in-kind contribution to the Committee when Jingoli paid for the airfare of Gormley to travel to Las Vegas to attend a fundraiser. See GCR #3.

1 Gormley. The Commission previously found reason to believe that MGM Mirage and its then 2 CEO and Chairman, Steve Wynn, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) of the Act.<sup>3</sup> Based on 3 Respondents' responses to the reason to believe findings and the investigation, this Office 4 believes that conciliation with MGM Mirage is appropriate. This Office also recommends that 5 the Commission find reason to believe one MGM Mirage executive, Punam Mathur, violated the 6 Act for consenting to the making of facilitated contributions, and that conciliation is appropriate.
7 This Office further recommends the Commission take no further action against Respondents 8 Steve Wynn, Richard Bronson, and Mark Juliano, and close the file as to them.

9 This report also discusses the Committee's liability with regard to the allegations in the 10 complaint. The Commission previously found reason to believe that the Committee violated 11 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b), 441a(f) and 441b. Based on the Committee's response to the reason to 12 believe finding and the investigation, this Office believes that conciliation with the Committee is 13 appropriate.

14 III. FACTS AND ANALYSIS

15 A. MGM Mirage and the Fundraising in Las Vegas

16 1. Facts

17 On February 9, 2000, a fundraiser was held for Gormley in Las Vegas, Nevada in a 18 private room at Le Cirque, a luxury restaurant in the Bellagio Hotel.<sup>4</sup> Attachment 1. The 19 Committee rented the room at Le Cirque for $1,000. Attachments 1 at 3; 2 at 1. Le Cirque also <sup>3</sup> In Wynn's response, counsel argues that he is not a proper respondent stating that there was a lack of substantial evidence, a lack of involvement in the alleged violations, and a lack of legal support for naming Wynn as a respondent as he had not been named in the complaint but only in a newspaper article indicating that he had been involved in the planning of the event, a fact disputed by Wynn in his response Attachment 4 See discussion of Wynn's involvement in the fundraiser, infra.

1 provided catering for the fundraiser. Attachments 3 at 2; 5 at 10-15. A receipt for the event
2 provided by the Committee and MGM Mirage shows that catering, with taxes and a 20% service
3 charge, cost $1,718.51. Attachments 2 at 4; 5 at 11. Thus, the total cost of the fundraiser (room 4 rental plus catering) was $2,718.51. The Committee sent a check to the Bellagio for "event 5 costs" of $1,718.51 on February 17, 2000. Attachments 2 at 5; 5 at 12-15.

6 According to the Committee, Wynn approached Gormley directly and asked to host the 7 fundraiser for him. Attachment 6 at 1. Punam Mathur, Vice President of Corporate Diversity
8 and Community Affairs at MGM Mirage, who handled all governmental relations for MGM 9 Mirage in 2000, said that Wynn's only involvement in the fundraiser was "committing to have an 10 event at Le Cirque." Attachment 8 at 1-2, 4. The Committee stated that Wynn "planned the 11 event himself," although it stated that it was "unaware of the steps taken by Wynn in planning the 12 event . . . [or] of the individuals who were in fact involved in the planning and execution of the 13 event;" that it "did not invite anyone to the event;" that the "host had his own invitation list;" and 14 that the "campaign is not aware of how persons were invited to the event." Attachment 6 at 1.
15 Though the candidate came to the fundraiser with two friends and his brother and son, interviews 16 previously discussed in GCR #3 suggest they were more interested in Las Vegas than the 17 fundraiser.

18 MGM Mirage provided this Office with several invitations to the fundraiser. Attachment 19 3 at 3-8. The first invitation, dated January 11, 2000, appeared on Bellagio letterhead and was 20 from Bruce Aguilera, in-house legal counsel at the Bellagio. Id. at 3-4. It read:

<sup>4</sup> Le Cirque is not owned by or a subsidiary of MGM Mirage, but leases space in the Bellagio Hotel, which is a subsidiary of MGM Mirage. Attachment 8 at 4

Mr. Wynn is hosting an event for William Gormley to support his candidacy for the United States Senate. The luncheon event will be held on February 9 at 11 30 a m in Le Cirque.

The contribution limits are $2,000 per person. Therefore, a husband and wife can give a total of $4,000. However, each spouse must sign the check if the contribution is from a joint account. This donation will cover the primary and general elections. Checks should be made payable to "Gormley for U.S. Senate" and can either be brought to the luncheon or mailed to Gormley for U.S. Senate at 401 New Road, Suite 103, Linwood, New Jersey 08221.

William Gormley is currently a New Jersey State Senator.

Please RSVP to my assistant, Sheryl, at 693-7206.

I am available to discuss if you have any questions.

Thank you.

Attachment 3 at 3-4. At the bottom of that invitation are the initials "BAA:sc," suggesting that Aguilera instructed his secretary, Sheryl Courtney, to type the invitation. Id. A distribution list on the second page of the invitation lists seventeen top MGM Mirage executives, all of whom were in the corporation's restricted class.<sup>5</sup> Id. Mathur said she also received a copy of the invitation from Aguilera. Attachment 8 at 6. Next to several names on the distribution list of the invitation provided to this Office were hash marks or the notation "chk." Attachment 3 at 4. A handwritten note below the distribution list, which Mathur stated was in her handwriting, says that as of January 29, 2000, there were "7 RSVPs" and "4 chks in." Attachments 3 at 3; 8 at 6. Although Mathur claimed she did not know why she wrote this, Andrea Bearden, a former

1 assistant to Mathur, who worked at MGM Mirage for nearly six years, stated that this would not 2 have been written unless someone in Mathur's office was in possession of those four checks 3 prior to the fundraiser. Attachments 8 at 6; 9 at 10. Indeed, Bearden specifically recalled that 4 "several checks" were in her possession prior to the fundraiser. Attachment 9 at 3.

5 Among Mathur's responsibilities at MGM Mirage in 2000 was dealing with issues, 6 candidates, lobbying, elections and administering the Mirage Resorts PAC, including PAC 7 functions. Mathur acknowledged that the Gormley fundraiser was not a PAC event and that she 8 spoke to and invited "colleagues" outside of MGM Mirage to attend the fundraiser and to 9 contribute to Gormley. Attachment 8 at 2-3, 8. Mathur edited the invitation written by Aguilera 10 for this purpose after it had been distributed in-house. MGM Mirage furnished three such 11 invitations that are in the form of facsimile cover sheets on Mirage Resorts letterhead, dated 12 February 2, 2000, addressed to Jan Jones (identified by Mathur as Senior Vice President of 13 Governmental Affairs at Harrah's Entertainment, Inc. and a former mayor of Las Vegas); Delores 14 Owens (identified by Mathur as then a senior executive at Caesar's Palace); and Mark Brown, 15 (identified by Mathur as a Senior Vice President at Station Casinos), another invitation initiated 16 by Mathur went to Joe Brunini, another Mirage executive. Each of these facsimile cover sheets 17 has the initials "PM/ab" on the bottom, and three ask for RSVP's to be given to Bearden.
18 Attachment 3 at 3-8. Mather's former assistant Andrea Bearden said that the initials meant that 19 Bearden had prepared and faxed these documents. Attachment 9 at 10. According to Bearden, 20 she remembers the draft invitation written by Aguilera and she recalls getting direction from 21 Mather as to whom to invite to the fundraiser. Bearden also stated that preparing and faxing these types of documents was not unusual and she had done these tasks for other fundraisers. Id. at 3 and 12-13.

In addition to the invitations, MGM Mirage provided this Office with another document that suggests that at least 10 other people were invited to the fundraiser (hereinafter "the fundraising chart"), including several that were outside of the corporation.<sup>6</sup> Attachments 3 at 9; 8 at 5, 9. Although Mathur stated that she did not know who created or maintained the fundraising chart, or whose handwriting was on it, Bearden identified the handwriting as Mathur's.<sup>7</sup> Attachments 8 at 8; 9 at 9. In any event, the document shows that someone at MGM Mirage kept track of invitees, anticipated attendees, contributors, and the amounts of their contributions.

Bearden stated that one of her work responsibilities was to organize fundraisers for federal candidates; in Mathur's office, only she and Mathur did this activity. Attachment 9 at 1. She recalled booking a room for the Gormley fundraiser at Le Cirque and interacting with the catering department there on the menu for the event; she was told by Mathur that the menu should be set at $40 per person. Id. at 3 and 7. Both Bearden and Mathur concur that Mathur signed off on the menu. Attachments 3 at 2; 8 at 5; 9 at 12-13.

Bearden stated that it was a "regular occurrence for her and Mathur to collect contribution checks, and that Bearden had collected checks before, during and after events. Attachment 9 at

<sup>6</sup> The additional people outside of MGM Mirage that were listed on the fundraising chart were Charles Mathewson, Chairman of International Game Technology, Inc., a vendor to MGM Mirage, Don Synder, President of Boyd Gaming, a vendor to MGM Mirage, Mark Tratos, an attorney at Quirk, Tratos & Roet, Judy Patterson, an Executive Vice President at the American Gaming Association, and Nick Casiello and John Groom, who both worked at Harrah's. Attachment 3 at 9. Of these, Mathewson and Tratos each contributed $2,000 to the Gormley campaign, with checks dated February 8 and 9, 2000, respectively.

<sup>7</sup> At the top of the fundraising chart is part of a handwritten note that was cut off during transmission to this Office. Counsel informed this Office that the original note states the following: "Delores Owens Caesars – will send contribution $1k – Mark Juliano has check." Attachment 3 at 9.

1 5. In some cases, Bearden said that she was told to collect contributions at a fundraiser for a 2 federal candidate, bring them back to the office, copy and inventory them, and then send them on 3 to the candidate's committee. Id. Bearden stated that Mathur definitely knew Bearden was 4 collecting and forwarding checks to political committees and recalled that more than once, 5 Mathur said to her, "You're doing this on your lunch hour, right?" in response to questions
6 whether it was proper to use office resources for such tasks or when Mathur was giving Bearden 7 instructions about the handling or recording of contributor checks. Id. at 5-6.

8 Bearden further stated that her duties at MGM Mirage included doing "call downs," in 9 which she would confirm who would attend a particular fundraiser and how much they would 10 contribute, and if they were going to contribute but were not going to attend a particular 11 fundraiser, to send a runner to pick up the check from them. Attachment 9 at 3. Bearden stated 12 that MGM Mirage had a longstanding practice of collecting contribution checks from people who 13 did not plan on attending a particular fundraiser and sending them with someone else; sometimes 14 Mathur or Wynn might do a "shake down," as Bearden described it, to get a contribution, and 15 sometimes Mathur would come back from a meeting with someone else's contribution check; 16 other times Bearden would send a messenger from within the Corporate Diversity and 17 Community Affairs department to collect the check. Bearden stated that Mathur often wanted an 18 accurate count of how much had been contributed and the "total committed." Id. at 5-6, 8.

19 With respect to the Gormley fundraiser, Mathur said she recalled having no contribution 20 checks at her office, adding "No, we wouldn't have had them given to us." Attachment 8 at 6. In 21 contrast, Bearden had a clear and specific recollection that some contribution checks – and one 22 person's in particular – were collected by Mathur's office before the fundraiser. Bearden stated 23 that she contacted Bill McBeath, president of MGM Mirage subsidiary Treasure Island, and

1 asked if he planned to attend. Attachment 9 at 3. He purportedly said that he could not attend
2 but that he would still contribute to the Committee. Id. Bearden then directed an in-office 3 messenger to collect his contribution check, which the messenger did. Id. Shortly before the 4 fundraiser, however, Bearden was accused of losing McBeath's check and he allegedly wrote a 5 second check to replace the first.<sup>8</sup> Id. Bearden also recalled calling other invitees to the Gormley 6 fundraiser to ask who would attend and contribute. Id.

7 According to Mathur, she presumed that someone from the Committee would be at the 8 fundraiser to collect the contributions. Attachment 8 at 5. She stated that usually a campaign 9 staff member is at a table at the entrance to a fundraiser to collect contributions. Attachment 8 at 10 10. However, according to the Committee, Gormley, who had traveled from New Jersey to Las 11 Vegas to attend the fundraiser the day before,<sup>9</sup> did not collect any contributions at the fundraiser 12 and no staff from the Committee was at the event to collect the contributions. Attachments 5 at 13 4; 6 at 2. Both Mathur and Robert Elliott, Assistant Director of Community Affairs at MGM
14 Mirage, attended the event.<sup>10</sup> Attachments 8 at 10. They said that they observed some people 15 placing contribution checks on the restaurant hostess' podium but deny knowing what happened 16 to them after that. Attachment 8 at 10-11.

<sup>8</sup> McBeath's name on the original invitation distribution list had a "chk" by his name and was counted as being "in" Attachment 3 at 4. Bearden stated that McBeath's original check was located later and the original check replaced the second check he submitted after the fundraiser Attachment 9 at 3 n 3 The Gormley Committee provided this Office with a copy of a $2,000 check dated January 17, 2000 from Mr McBeath Attachment 7 at 3

<sup>9</sup> Gormley stayed at MGM Mirage during the fundraiser and paid for the hotel on his personal credit card Attachment 5 at 4, 8-9. Gormley was not reimbursed for this expense and it was not listed on any Committee report

<sup>10</sup> Mathur and Bearden have conflicting recollections on whether Bearden attended the fundraiser Mathur claimed that Bearden attended the fundraiser with her and that when Mathur saw the contributions on the hostess' podium at Le Cirque the only person she told about them was Bearden Bearden specifically recalled not feeling well that morning and that she did not attend the fundraiser Compare Attachments 8 at 10 with 9 at 4

1 Several people interviewed by this Office stated that Wynn gave a speech at the 2 fundraiser generally praising Gormley and emphasizing his importance to the gaming industry.
3 MGM Mirage stated that it believes approximately 29 individuals attended the fundraiser since 4 the Committee was billed for only 29 lunches. Attachments 2 at 2; 5 at 10-11. Some of the 5 attendees were invitees outside of the corporation. Attachment 2 at 2. Initially the Committee 6 stated in response to the Commission's reason to believe finding that the "attendees brought 7 campaign contribution checks to the event which were given to the candidate" and the candidate 8 "asked the host to send the checks to the campaign office" but that they were "not forwarded to 9 the campaign for several days following the event." Attachment 5 at 4-5. More recently, 10 however, the Committee stated "the host collected the contributions and forwarded them to the 11 campaign via overnight mail. There was a lag time between the event and when the campaign 12 actually received the contributions . . . . The host indicated that he would forward the 13 contributions when he had received them all; some of the late contributions were not received 14 until after the event."<sup>11</sup> Attachments 4 at 2, 4; 6 at 1-2. According to counsel for MGM Mirage 15 and the Committee, there are no documents that would independently confirm who handled or 16 directed the handling of the contribution checks at the fundraiser, or explain in greater detail how 17 the checks were transported from the MGM Mirage fundraiser in Las Vegas, Nevada to the

<sup>11</sup> Two of the fundraising invitations Mathur wrote stated that Mark Juliano was also a "host " Attachment 3 at 6-7 In his interview with this Office, Juliano said that while he attended the event, he was not the host, adding that, "Steve [Wynn] was definitely the host " Attachment 10 at 4 Although this Office tried to clarify with counsel for the Committee, among other things, whether the reference to "host" referred only to Wynn, she responded that "there are no real answers to your questions—I know that seems odd, but it is the truth " Wynn has specifically denied any personal involvement in collecting and forwarding the checks Attachment 4 at 3-4

1 Committee in Atlantic City, New Jersey. Nor did this Office find anyone who admitted to either 2 taking the checks or knowing who did.<sup>12</sup>

3 The Committee stated that it received $28,000 as a result of the MGM Mirage fundraiser, 4 but that it returned one $2,000 contribution check to a donor. Attachment 5 at 4-5; 11 at 1. This 5 is consistent with the Committee's 2000 April Quarterly Report disclosing that it received 26 6 contributions from people associated with MGM Mirage totaling $26,000. The Committee also 7 produced copies of the corresponding checks and the deposit slips it used.<sup>13</sup> Attachment 7. A 8 note on the front of one deposit slip, which included a majority of the contribution checks, states, 9 "3-16-00 per Jodi – These are all Steve Wynn's employees – signatures for designations will 10 follow – WLG wants checks deposited." Id. at 2. Some of the checks that the Committee said 11 were forwarded from the host were dated weeks before the fundraiser (in January) while a couple 12 of the checks were dated weeks after the fundraiser (in March). Id. at 3, 4, 5, 7, 8, 9 and 15 This 13 appears to support both Bearden, who said some checks came in to MGM Mirage prior to the 14 fundraiser, and the Committee, which said that MGM Mirage planned to hold all the checks until 15 the last ones came in and forward them to the Committee.

16 1. Analysis

17 The Act prohibits a corporation from making a "contribution" or expenditure in 18 connection with any election for federal office, 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a). A "contribution" includes 19 "anything of value" to any candidate or campaign committee, in connection with a federal 20 election. 2 U.S.C. § 441b(b)(2). The Act also prohibits any candidate, political committee, or

<sup>12</sup> One witness this Office interviewed said that he was directed by a member of Le Cirque's staff to a "white male" who took his contribution check, but this Office could not identify who that man was or his role, if any, with the Committee or MGM Mirage

1 other person from knowingly accepting or receiving any contribution prohibited by this section.

2 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a).

3 Corporations are also prohibited from using corporate resources to engage in fundraising 4 activities. 11 C.F.R. § 114.2(f). While the Act permits a corporation and its officers to make 5 partisan communications to its stockholders and executive or administrative personnel and their 6 families, 2 U.S.C. § 441b(b)(2)(A), if the activity goes beyond communication to “facilitating the 7 making of a contribution,” other than to the separate segregated fund of the corporation, it 8 becomes a prohibited contribution by the corporation. 11 C.F.R. § 114.2(f)(1). Examples of 9 facilitation include, but are not limited to, officials or employees of the corporation ordering or 10 directing subordinates to plan, organize, or carry out a fundraising project as part of their work 11 responsibilities and using corporate resources or facilities; using a corporate list of customers, 12 clients, vendors, or others not in the restricted class to solicit contributions in connection with a 13 fundraiser; providing catering or other food services, unless the corporation receives advance 14 payment for the fair market value of the services; and providing materials for the purpose of 15 transmitting or delivering contributions, such as stamps, envelopes or other similar items, and 16 collecting and forwarding contributions. 11 C.F.R. § 114.2(f)(2). Exceptions to the prohibition 17 against corporate facilitation of contributions include soliciting contributions to be sent directly 18 to candidates if the solicitation is directed to the corporation’s restricted class or soliciting 19 contributions which are to be collected and forwarded by the corporation’s separate segregated 20 fund in accordance with 11 C.F.R. § 110.6. 11 C.F.R. §§ 114.2(f)(3) and (4).

<sup>13</sup> The Committee also produced copies of other checks previously discussed in GCR #3 which it received bundled from Harrah’s Entertainment, Inc and two of its executives – Herbert Wolfe and David Jonas Attachment 7 at 24-32 (Wolfe), 33-54 (Jonas)

1 In response to the Commission's reason to believe findings, Respondent MGM Mirage
2 only addressed one aspect of the potential facilitation issue by stating "MGM does not believe 3 that Mirage provided any vendor, customer, or client list to the Gormley campaign." Attachment 4 1 at 4. The facts, however, show that Respondent MGM Mirage used corporate resources to 5 raise funds for Gormley and the Committee, and hence facilitated corporate contributions, in 6 violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a).

7 According to the Committee, Wynn approached the candidate and asked to hold a 8 fundraiser in Las Vegas; the Committee stated that it was unaware of what steps were taken by 9 Wynn or others thereafter. Wynn asserts that while he may have "consented" to MGM Mirage 10 holding the fundraiser in a lawful manner, his involvement, other than attending and speaking at 11 the fundraiser, stopped there. Specifically, Wynn denies being personally involved in any effort 12 to use corporate resources to collect and forward contribution checks to the Gormley Committee.
13 Attachment 4 at 3-4. The Committee has stated that it did not participate in the planning of the 14 fundraiser – the candidate was told when and where to show up and MGM Mirage did the rest.

15 Our investigation supports the Committee's view that MGM Mirage planned and carried 16 out the fundraiser. Mathur has said that by the time the event became known to her office, the 17 date and place for it had already been determined. Attachment 8 at 4. The initial invitation, 18 drafted by in-house counsel, on Bellagio letterhead, was directed to only individuals within the 19 restricted class and advised that the checks could be mailed directly to the Gormley Committee 20 or brought to the fundraiser by the individual contributor. Mathur, however, decided to extend 21 invitations and solicitations to individuals beyond the restricted class (and some outsiders 22 attended the fundraiser), and her assistant faxed out additional invitations (edited by Mathur) on

1 corporate letterhead, booked the event room, and planned the menu.<sup>14</sup> Bearden stated that all the 2 tasks that she performed relating to political fundraising were required of her as part of her daily 3 responsibilities and done at the direction of her supervisor, Punam Mathur. Attachment 9 at 12-4 13. Furthermore, someone within MGM Mirage created and maintained the fundraising chart, 5 which listed invitees (both in and outside of the corporation), anticipated attendees, contributors
6 and the amounts of their contributions. Thus, in connection with the event, MGM Mirage 7 facilitated the making of contributions, including by having officials of the company direct 8 subordinates or support staff to plan, organize and carry out the fundraising project as part of 9 their work responsibilities. According to Bearden, Mather's office also collected and held onto 10 some contributions checks before the fundraiser. As this Office confirmed from copies of 11 contribution checks in the possession of the Committee, Attachment 7, several of the checks had 12 dates that substantially preceded the fundraiser, the earliest being January 12, 2000. Bearden 13 remembers holding onto at least some of these contributions herself, and directing an in-house 14 messenger to collect a contribution check from MGM Mirage executive McBeath.

15 At the fundraiser, Respondent MGM Mirage continued to facilitate the making of 16 contributions to the Committee. Respondent MGM Mirage has denied at various times during 17 the investigation that it ever "bundled" any contributions, and instead maintained that the 18 contributions were collected by the candidate, and given to someone at MGM Mirage to forward 19 to the Committee because the candidate brought no staff to the fundraiser who could carry out 20 that role. While there might be a case where a corporation that takes all legal steps regarding a

<sup>14</sup> The Committee did not pay for any costs of the fundraiser in advance, but did write a check to reimburse the Bellagio on February 17, 2000, which had paid Le Cirque, eight days after the fundraiser Attachment 2 at 5 MGM Mirage's provision of the catering services through its payment of the costs, rather than the Committee's advance payment, is another example of prohibited corporate facilitation 11 C F R § 114.2(f)(2)(D)

1 fundraiser is nevertheless caught holding the proverbial check, as MGM Mirage initially claimed, 2 the investigation shows that MGM Mirage did more than just transmit the checks collected at the 3 fundraiser to the Committee. Instead, as discussed above, in addition to planning and organizing 4 the fundraiser, MGM Mirage collected checks before the fundraiser and waited to send those 5 checks and the ones collected at the fundraiser until others came in after the event. Attachment 6 6 at 1. The Committee has stated that MGM Mirage sent the $28,000 in contributions by Federal 7 Express, although neither the Committee nor MGM Mirage has located any documents showing 8 how the contributions were forwarded to the Committee. However they were transmitted, MGM 9 Mirage also appears to have provided materials for this purpose.<sup>15</sup> Accordingly, Respondent
10 MGM Mirage violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) by facilitating the making of $28,000 in contributions 11 to the Committee. MGM Mirage has requested pre-probable cause conciliation, and this Office 12 recommends that the Commission enter into conciliation with MGM Mirage at this time.

13 Initially, the costs of the fundraiser – the food, beverages, and room rental fee – were also 14 in question. Respondent MGM Mirage asserted that it “did not make an impermissible in-kind 15 contribution to the Gormley committee in connection with the catering and room rental costs.” 16 Attachment 1 at 2 (emphasis in original). It provided a copy of the menu, the receipt, and the 17 check from the Committee after the event. MGM Mirage further stated that the “$40 per person 18 food cost charged to the Gormley committee (less discount) represents the fair market value for 19 such food (that is, what would be charged of any customer for the same food in the same

<sup>15</sup> Prior to the merger of MGM Grand and Mirage Resorts, both corporations' separate segregated funds had contributed to the Committee. Mirage Resorts, Inc PAC contributed $5,000 to the Committee on December 1, 1999 for both the primary and general elections, and MGM Grand, Inc PAC gave the Committee $1,000 on March 21, 2000. Although the Committee deposited the MGM Grand, Inc PAC check on the same date as those of the other MGM Mirage employees, we were not able to determine if the MGM Grand, Inc PAC check was sent in the same package or bundle as the individual fundraiser checks. Attachment 7 at 11.

circumstances).” Id. at 3. While this Office is not certain that a $40 per person food cost is in fact the fair market value for the food served, there is some leeway because there would be no contribution if the amount charged to the Committee was at least equal to the cost of such food or beverage to the vendor, to the extent that the aggregate value of such discount given by the vendor did not exceed $1,000 regarding any single election. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.7(b)(7); 114.1(a)(2)(v). This Office does not believe that additional investigation into the catering costs would be a good use of the Commission’s scarce resources, and it does not recommend further inquiry of this issue. Moreover, the Committee paid the costs charged to it for the catering costs, albeit after the event, and further provided evidence that the candidate paid for his own hotel room. See footnotes 9, 13 and 14, supra.

2. MGM Mirage Executives – Wynn, Bronson, Juliano and Mathur

This Office was unable to find information demonstrating Wynn’s personal participation in the fundraiser beyond his initiating and speaking at it. According to counsel for Wynn, Wynn may have consented to the event being held in a lawful manner, but he had no personal involvement in managing the event or in the collecting and forwarding of contributions to the Gormley committee. Attachment 4 at 3-4. A corporate fundraising event featuring a candidate, if limited to the restricted class, could have been carefully structured to avoid corporate facilitation. See 11 C.F.R. §§ 114.2(f)(4)(ii) and 114.3. Mathur could not recall any direct conversations she had with Wynn about the fundraiser, and could not recall any documents to or from Wynn pertaining to it. Attachment 8 at 4. Bearden stated that Wynn’s office was not involved in the planning or negotiations with Le Cirque for the Gormley fundraiser. Attachment 9 at 7. As such, we do not have enough information to proceed against Wynn on the theory that

1 he consented to corporate facilitation. Therefore, this Office recommends that the Commission
2 take no further action against Stephen Wynn and close the file as to him.

3 The information concerning Mathur is considerably stronger and shows that she was 4 personally involved in organizing the fundraiser. It was her job to oversee political events for the 5 corporation, so she should have been familiar with the rules concerning corporate facilitation.

6 Indeed, if her alleged remarks to Bearden that Bearden was collecting and copying checks on 7 "her lunch hour" are accurate, she apparently knows the rules only too well. Mathur, however, 8 decided to invite and solicit persons outside the restricted class. Moreover, while she professed 9 to have little involvement in or recall of the events leading up to the event, she admitted that she 10 wrote "ck" or "chk" next to several names on a distribution list and signed the menu proposed by 11 Le Cirque for the event. Her assistant Andrea Bearden stated that she faxed invitations, made 12 calls, booked the room, planned the menu, and collected some checks before the Gormley 13 fundraiser; according to Bearden, all of these activities were part of Bearden's daily work

14 responsibilities and done at the direction of her supervisor, Mathur. Bearden also stated that the 15 handwriting on the fundraising chart was Mathur's. Mathur's defensive statements that no 16 contribution checks would have been received in her office and her denial that her handwriting 17 appears on the fundraising chart conflict with Bearden's statements. Bearden departed MGM

18 Mirage on less than amiable terms and may therefore be vulnerable as a witness; however, this 19 Office believes that Bearden was more credible than Mathur because Bearden had specific recall 20 of tasks she performed in connection with the Gormley fundraiser, including her collection of the 21 McBeath checks, and that details of this sort lend credence to Bearden's other assertions. Even 22 without Bearden's statements, Mathur's job responsibilities, her own statements concerning the 23 invitations and solicitations she decided to send to persons outside the restricted class, the fact

1 that those invitations were demonstrably prepared and faxed by her assistant, and her admissions 2 that she signed off on the menu and that her handwriting relating to checks appears on the 3 distribution list are enough to support reason to believe findings that she consented to corporate 4 facilitation. Therefore, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe 5 Punam Mathur violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a). We also recommend that the Commission enter into 6 pre-probable cause conciliation with Mathur.

7 As to Bronson and Juliano, other than a few cursory witness comments about them, their 8 attendance at the event, and the Committee's assertion that Bronson interfaced with the 9 Committee with respect to some logistics, this Office was unable to find any information 10 concerning their personal participation in the fundraiser or facilitation. Accordingly, we 11 recommend that the Commission take no further action and close the file as to Mark Juliano and 12 Richard "Skip" Bronson.

B. The Gormley for Senate Primary Election Fund

1. Facts

The Commission previously found reason to believe that the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b), 441a(f), and 441b for its involvement in the Donald Trump fundraiser, in accepting contributions facilitated by Harrah's Entertainment, Inc., and by accepting contributions facilitated by MGM Mirage. The Committee contended in its response that many of the allegations were "factually incorrect and wholly without merit." Attachment 5. However, the Committee conceded that certain provisions of the Act "may have inadvertently been violated" and requested pre-probable cause conciliation. Id. at 2. Based on the facts surrounding the MGM Mirage fundraising discussed in this report and corporate facilitating of contributions by Harrah's previously discussed, see GCR #3, this Office now recommends entering conciliation with the Committee.<sup>17</sup> See Attachment 14.

2. Analysis

a. The Fundraising by Harrah's Entertainment *et al.

The Committee argues that the two Harrah's executives only solicited and received contributions from members of Harrah's restricted class. Attachment 5 at 3; see also GCR #3 (discussing corporate facilitation by Harrah's). The Committee also asserts that 11 C.F.R.

<sup>17</sup> The Committee states that Trump's fundraiser did not exceed the $2,000 food/beverage threshold and thus there was no excessive contribution from Trump. Attachment 5 at 3. The Commission previously decided to take no further action with regard to Trump and his fundraiser. See GCR #2 (discussing Trump's fundraiser), 11 C.F.R. § 100.7(b)(6). There is no information that the Committee accepted an excessive contribution from Trump or otherwise engaged in impermissible activity associated with that fundraiser.

1 § 114.9(a) permits the isolated use of a person's office in a corporate building and that this 2 instance falls within that permissible exception. Id. at 4. Further, the Committee maintains that 3 the two executives were not required to report as conduits or intermediaries because of their 4 status pursuant to 11 C.F.R. § 110.6(b)(2)(i)(E) as individuals expressly authorized by the 5 candidate or committee to engage in fundraising who also occupy a significant position within 6 the candidate's organization. Id. at 3. Finally, the Committee states that the campaign, not the 7 corporation, actually collected the contributions to avoid violation of the provisions of 11 C.F.R.
8 § 114.2(f).

9 As discussed in GCR #3, the question of whether Harrah's facilitated the making of 10 corporate contributions does not turn on whether the two Harrah's executives only solicited 11 members of their restricted class. See GCR #3 at 5, fn.5. Moreover, while there is evidence that 12 the Gormley campaign approached one of the executives, Herbert Wolfe, and asked him to help 13 raise funds, there is no indication that either of the Harrah's executives occupied a significant 14 position within the Committee, which is required under 11 C.F.R. § 110.6(b)(2)(i)(E) to exempt
15 them from conduit status. Thus, the Committee cannot avoid civil liability pursuant to section 16 441b(a) merely by having an agent receive the bundled contributions in person rather than 17 receiving the bundled contributions in the mail. Finally, as discussed in GCR #3, Harrah's 18 executives used corporate personnel and resources to solicit contributions and to collect $37,275
19 in contributions, thereby facilitating corporate contributions, and the Committee, by arranging 20 with Harrah's to pick up the bundled contributions at the corporate site, knew or should have 21 known that the corporation had facilitated their collection in violation of 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a).

b. In-Kind Contributions and Reporting Violations

The Act prohibits any person from making contributions to any candidate or his or her authorized committee regarding any election for Federal office, which, in the aggregate, exceeds $1,000. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(1)(A). The Act also prohibits any candidate or political committee from knowingly accepting any contribution in violation of section 441a. 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). The Act also requires a political committee to report all receipts and disbursements. 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(2)(B). Here, Joseph R. Jingoli, Jr. had already contributed the maximum limit to the Committee when he paid $723 for the candidate's airfare to the MGM Mirage fundraiser in Las Vegas and therefore this payment constituted an excessive in-kind contribution. See GCR #3. The candidate knowingly accepted payment of his airfare to the fundraiser. Accordingly, the Committee was required to report the in-kind contribution and return or reimburse Jingoli for the excessive amount. See 2 U.S.C. § 434(b)(2)(B). It failed to do either, admitting that Jingoli's payment of Gormley's airfare to the fundraiser in Las Vegas "constituted an excessive in-kind contribution and the campaign failed to report and/or return the contribution." Attachment 5 at 4, 5. Moreover, the Committee concedes that Gormley paid his own hotel bill of $220 in connection with the fundraiser in Las Vegas on a personal credit card, but that the Committee failed "to report the in-kind contribution from Sen. Gormley to his own campaign." Attachment 5 at 4, 5; see 2 U.S.C. §§ 434(b)(2)(B) and (3), (5). Accordingly, the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(f) and 434(b)(2)(B) and (3), (5).

b. The MGM Mirage Fundraiser

As discussed supra, there is sufficient information that the Committee knowingly accepted $26,000 in contributions that were facilitated by MGM Mirage.<sup>18</sup> The Committee admits that, other than having the candidate show up, it did nothing in connection with this fundraiser and therefore it must have recognized that all of the planning and organizing, including inviting guests and soliciting contributions, booking the restaurant, and choosing the menu, and the advance costs associated with such activities, were borne by its corporate host. Attachment 6 at 1-2. Moreover, the candidate, as agent of the Committee, apparently knew that some guests had brought contribution checks to the fundraiser and either requested or acquiesced to the corporation forwarding the contributions to the Committee. 2 U.S.C. § 432(e)(2). In addition, the Committee knew that MGM Mirage was going to wait for additional contributions after the fundraiser before forwarding them to the Committee. Attachment 6 at 2. Lastly, the note on the Committee's deposit slip stating that the contributors were "all Steve Wynn's employees" further indicates that the Committee knew it received bundled contributions from MGM Mirage's employees. Attachment 7 at 2. Accordingly, the Committee violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a) by accepting $26,000 in contributions facilitated by MGM Mirage.

<sup>18</sup> Although MGM Mirage facilitated $28,000 in contributions, and the Committee received each of these contributions, it also returned one $2,000 contribution, thus, this Office views the Committee as liable only for $26,000 of facilitated contributions.

3. Conciliation

IV. RECOMMENDATIONS

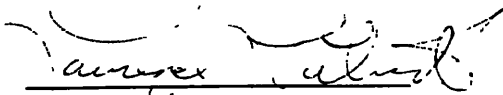

1. Enter into pre-probable cause conciliation with Mirage Casino Resorts, Inc., and approve the attached conciliation agreement.
2. Find reason to believe Punam Mathur violated 2 U.S.C. § 441b(a).
3. Enter into pre-probable cause conciliation with Punam Mathur, and approve the attached conciliation agreement.

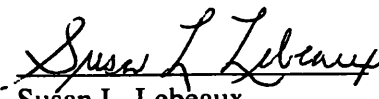

4. Take no further action as to Steve Wynn and close the file as to him.
5. Take no further action as to Mark Juliano and close the file as to him.
6. Take no further action as to Richard "Skip" Bronson and close the file as to him
7. Enter into pre-probable cause conciliation with Gormley for Senate Primary Election Fund and Alan C. Staller, as treasurer, and approve the attached conciliation agreement.
8. Approve the appropriate letters.

DATE: June 18, 2004

RE: MUR 5020
Deposit Slips and Documents Requested

Pursuant to your request concerning the above-referenced MUR, please find enclosed the copies of deposit slips and documents evidencing the deposits to the Gormley for Senate campaign for the time period February and March 2000.

In going through the 'batches', we noted that there is no number 206 or 183. This could simply be an error made in numbering the deposits. However, to be certain, I have requested that the client locate the checkbook and see if there are any notations regarding whether any deposits were made with those batch numbers. There are also deposits for batches 172A and 181A, but nothing for 172 and 181. I have also requested that the client look for those missing batch numbers/deposits when/if the checkbook can be located in the storage facilities.

I had hoped that they could locate the checkbook and we could find the missing records in order that you would have the complete records for the period requested. However, it is taking longer than I anticipated to track down the missing information, so I'm sending you what we have while we try to find the missing portions.

Please contact me at (202) 295-4081 if you have any questions regarding these documents. Thank you for your assistance.
