I. INTRODUCTION

The complaint in this matter raises, for the first time, the issue of whether a candidate or officeholder can have two "leadership PACs." The complaint contends that PAC to the Future, a non-connected PAC registered with the Commission since 1999, operates as a leadership PAC allowing Representative Nancy Pelosi to make contributions to other federal candidates.

According to the complaint, Team Majority, which filed with the Commission as a non-connected PAC in April 2002, also operated as a leadership PAC associated with Representative Pelosi and was formed by her to evade the contribution limits set forth in the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act") and the Commission's regulations. Specifically, the complaint alleges that the two PACs are affiliated and therefore share a common contribution limit; that limit, according to the complaint, has been exceeded on several occasions. The complaint identifies the campaign committees of Chellie Pingree, Martha Fuller Clark, Lincoln Davis, Dutch Ruppersberger, Joe Turnham and Dan Wofford as having accepted excessive

1 contributions as a result of the two PACs' affiliation. Sally Hambrecht, William Hambrecht and 2 George Zimmer are identified in an attachment to the complaint as having made excessive
3 contributions to the PACs.

4 Based on the available information, PAC to the Future and Team Majority appear to be 5 affiliated, and this Office recommends the Commission find reason to believe they violated the 6 Act by failing to properly report their affiliated status and by making and receiving contributions
7 that, when aggregated, exceeded the contribution limits of the Act. In addition, this Office
8 recommends the Commission find reason to believe Joe Turnham for Congress and four 9 internally generated candidate committees (noted by asterisks on p. 1) violated the Act by 10 receiving excessive contributions from the two PACs. This Office recommends the Commission 11 dismiss the complaint as to Nancy Pelosi for Congress, take no action at this time concerning 12 George Zimmer, and find no reason to believe that Representative Pelosi or any of the other 13 respondents violated the Act or Commission regulations.

14 II. APPLICABLE LAW

15 A. *Contribution Limits

16 A multicandidate PAC is limited to receiving $5,000 per calendar year from individual
17 contributors. 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(a)(1)(C), 441a(f). Further, an authorized candidate committee
18 may accept $5,000 from a multicandidate PAC during each election. 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(a)(2)(A),
19 441a(f). If a committee accepts contributions that exceed these limits, its treasurer shall either 20 refund the excessive contributions or seek redesignation or reattribution within sixty days. See 21 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(3).

B. Affiliation

The Act states that for purposes of the limitations set forth in 2 U.S.C. §§ 441a(a)(1) and 441a(a)(2), all contributions made by political committees “established or financed or maintained or controlled by any . . . person . . . or by any group of . . . persons, shall be considered to have been made by a single political committee.”<sup>1</sup> 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(5). Committees established, financed, maintained or controlled by the same person or group of persons are “affiliated committees.” 11 C.F.R. § 100.5(g). Contributions made to or by such committees shall be considered to have been made to or by a single committee. 11 C.F.R. §§ 100.5(g) and 110.3(a)(1).

When registering with the Commission, a political committee must include in its Statement of Organization “the name, address, relationship, and type of any connected organization or affiliated committee.” 2 U.S.C. § 433(b)(2).

III. PAC TO THE FUTURE AND TEAM MAJORITY

A. Facts

PAC to the Future is an unauthorized multicandidate committee that has been registered with the Commission since March 24, 1999 and qualified for multicandidate committee status on September 28, 1999. PAC to the Future’s Statement of Organization lists former California Lieutenant Governor Leo McCarthy as its treasurer, and states that it is not affiliated with any other committee. Team Majority is an unauthorized multicandidate committee that initially registered with the Commission under the name “Team Pelosi” on April 1, 2002.<sup>2</sup> The committee amended its name to “Team Majority” on July 24, 2002, in response to a letter from

<sup>2</sup> Prior to filing the initial Statement of Organization for Team Pelosi, Mr. McCarthy contacted a RAD analyst. The RAD analyst’s telecon indicated that Mr. McCarthy called on February 26, 2002 and “wanted to know if a

24 04 407 1355

1 RAD reminding the committee that an unauthorized committee's name may not include the 2 name of a candidate. See 2 U.S.C. § 432(e)(4). Team Majority's Statement of Organization also 3 lists Leo McCarthy as its treasurer, and states that it is not affiliated with any other committee.

4 In their responses to the complaint, Team Majority, PAC to the Future, Representative
5 Nancy Pelosi and Nancy Pelosi for Congress do not deny that both PACs operated as 6 Representative Pelosi's "leadership PACs."<sup>3</sup> All of their responses acknowledge that 7 Representative Pelosi engaged in fundraising for the two PACs. In their joint response, Nancy
8 Pelosi for Congress and Representative Pelosi state that "[a]s a leader of her party," 9 Representative Pelosi "has been instrumental in raising funds for Democratic candidates 10 throughout the country. She has done this in innumerable ways . . . [including] through non-11 connected PACs that support Democratic candidates, such as Team Majority and PAC to the candidate can have more than one leadership PAC." According to the telecom, the RAD analyst told him "that was fine and directed him to cites regarding non-connected committees." The telecom also stated that the RAD analyst "told him a leadership PAC is technically not associated with any one candidate and is just out there raising and contributing money to whomever." Although not raised in Team Majority's response, the press has reported that Mr. McCarthy acknowledged that while he did not seek legal advice before establishing Team Majority, "he said he checked with the FEC and said that he was assured there was 'no impediment of any kind' to creating a second PAC that would mimic the first." Ethan Wallison, Pelosi PAC Stirs Questions, ROLL CALL (Oct. 24, 2002) available at <http://www.rollcall.com/pages/news/00/2002/10/news1024b.html>.

<sup>3</sup> The press has repeatedly characterized the two PACs as associated with Representative Pelosi and this Office is not aware of any reports that she has disavowed this characterization. See, e.g., Ethan Wallison, Pelosi's PAC Stirs Questions, ROLL CALL (Oct. 24, 2002) available at <http://www.rollcall.com/pages/news/00/2002/10/news1024b.html> (referring to "twin leadership PACs that have enabled . . . Nancy Pelosi . . . to double up on hard-dollar contributions" and "Pelosi's second PAC, Team Majority"); Kevin Freaking, Past Generosity Plays Into Democrats' Race for House Job, THE ARKANSAS DEMOCRAT GAZETTE (Nov. 14, 2002) available at 2002 WL 102852273 ("Pelosi's contributions came through her personal campaign account, her political-action committee, PAC to the Future, and a second PAC called Team Majority . . ."); Hans Nichols, McCain PAC Last in Giving, THE HILL (Feb. 12, 2003) pp. 1, 8 (referring to "Nancy Pelosi's . . . organization, PAC to the Future" and stating that "Pelosi also had a separate PAC, Team Majority . . ."). In addition, at least two letters to the Commission on PAC to the Future's letterhead identified Representative Nancy Pelosi as the PAC's Chair. See also ALMANAC OF FEDERAL PACS: 2002–2003 (Edward Zuckerman ed.)(2002) (listing PAC to the Future as a "leadership PAC" sponsored by Nancy Pelosi).

1 In alleging that Representative Pelosi established two PACs which "had both the intent
2 and effect of circumventing the [Act's] contribution limits . . . , " the complaint relied on an 3 alleged statement to the press by Leo McCarthy, treasurer of both PACs, that the "main reason
4 for the creation of the second PAC, frankly, was to give twice as much [sic] hard dollars."
5 Comp., p. 2.<sup>4</sup> In its response, Team Majority did not disavow the press statement or the alleged 6 circumvention scheme. Rather, it simply stated that it "has chosen not to contest the politically
7 motivated concerns expressed in public." (Team Majority Resp., p. 1.) However, "to avoid any 8 question about its activities, or the activities of PAC to the Future, [Team Majority] has taken the 9 following steps to suspend its operations:"

- 10 • The PAC refunded all contributions from donors who had also given to PAC
- 11 to the Future, which, when aggregated, would have exceeded $5,000 . . . .
- 12 • The PAC has sought refunds from each candidate who received a contribution
- 13 from both Team Majority and PAC to the Future which, when aggregated,
- 14 exceeded $5,000 . . . .

17 Team Majority's response also stated its intention "to terminate, once the refund checks 18 have been negotiated and refunds are received from the candidates in question."<sup>5</sup> (Id. at 2.) In 19 its response, PAC to the Future acknowledges that the complaint alleged that it was affiliated 20 with Team Majority, then states that "[i]t is the understanding of PAC to the Future that, to avoid 21 any question about its activities, Team Majority" had taken the steps set forth above in Team
22 Majority's response.

23 A review of PAC to the Future's and Team Majority's disclosure reports reveals that 24 there are numerous campaign committees that received contributions from both PACs that, when aggregated, exceed the contribution limit for a multicandidate political committee.<sup>6</sup> (See Attach. 1 at 2.) Of the six authorized committees notified of the complaint by the Commission, four responded.<sup>7</sup> Each acknowledged receiving contributions from both PACs, but each asserted that it had refunded any contribution from Team Majority that would have been excessive if the PACs were affiliated. (See Clark Resp., p. 1; Davis Resp., p. 1; Ruppertsberger Resp., p. 1; Wofford Resp., p. 2.) Disclosure reports confirm these assertions. However, they also show that one notified respondent, Joe Turnham for Congress, and four other campaign committees that were neither named in nor notified of the complaint, apparently received, but did not timely refund, similar contributions. These four other committees are (1) Julie Thomas for Congress Campaign Committee, (2) Van Hollen for Congress,

<sup>4</sup> See Ethan Wallison, Pelosi PAC Stirs Questions, ROLL CALL (Oct. 24, 2002) available at <http://www.rollcall.com/pages/news/00/2002/10/news1024b.html>.

<sup>5</sup> Thus far, Team Majority has not filed a notice of an intent to terminate.

As of August 4, 2003, neither the PACs' nor the campaign committees' reports reflect refunds of any of the PACs' contributions.

In their joint response to the complaint, William and Sally Hambrecht, contributors to the PACs, stated that they "were not aware that [the] two PAC[s] were set up inappropriately," but that "Nancy Pelosi's office" returned "each contribution [they] made to the second PAC."

<sup>6</sup> Although not all the PACs' contributions and receipts exceeded the Act's limits, there was substantial overlap. For example, PAC to the Future and Team Majority received contributions for the 2002 general election from 20 of the same contributors, which amount to 14% of the individual contributions received by Team Majority and 6% of the individual contributions received by PAC to the Future. Additionally, both PACs made contributions to many of the same authorized candidate committees. Of the contributions that Team Majority made to authorized candidate committees, 92% were to authorized candidate committees that received contributions from PAC to the Future. Further, of the contributions PAC to the Future made to authorized candidate committees for the 2002 general election, 34% of the authorized candidate committees received contributions from Team Majority. Of the contributions that Team Majority and PAC to the Future received from the same contributors, 37% (14 out of 38) were within thirty days of one another, including five made on the same day, and 53% (20 out of 38) were within sixty days of one another.

1 (Hambrecht Resp., p. 1.) The Hambrechts enclosed copies of the refund checks with their 2 response. (Id., Attach.)

3 In his response to the complaint, George Zimmer, another contributor to both PACs,
4 stated that both he and his wife, Lorri Zimmer, contributed to PAC to the Future in July 2002.
5 (Zimmer Resp., p. 1.) They also made a $5,000 contribution to Team Majority in August 2002
6 believing that "this PAC met all requirements that were necessary to satisfy Federal Election
7 fundraising regulations . . . ." (Id.) According to the response, the Zimmers "even received a
8 personal letter from Nancy [Pelosi] indicating the specific PAC name to give [their] donation
9 to," and the "PAC's treasurer gave no indication . . . in phone calls that questions had been raised
10 about the PAC's affiliation with PAC to the Future . . . ." Moreover, Team Majority's
11 "paperwork referenced a separate Committee ID and appeared in line with other" organizations
12 to which they had contributed in the past. (Id.) The Zimmer response also stated that in late 13 October 2002, the Zimmers "received checks from Team Majority which refunded [the] two 14 donations to" Team Majority and were "informed that the appropriateness of the PAC's 15 fundraising activities had been questioned." (Id.) Since contributions are required to be 16 reported, the Zimmers believed "the refund of our contributions would be communicated as 17 well." (Id.)

18 B. Legal Analysis

19 1. Affiliation

20 PAC to the Future and Team Majority have all but acknowledged that they are affiliated.
21 They do not deny that Representative Pelosi raised funds for Democratic candidates through both 22 of them. The PACs share a common treasurer who reportedly admitted to the press that the 23 primary reason for forming Team Majority "frankly, was to give twice as much [sic] hard

1 dollars." The Complaint alluded to and attached the press report containing this statement, and 2 the PACs did not disavow the quotation in their responses. Moreover, the treasurer's inquiry to 3 the RAD analyst regarding whether a candidate can have more than one leadership PAC, see 4 supra note 2, provides further support that his intention was to create a second committee with 5 the same purpose as the first. Rather than assert the legality of its actions, Team Majority has 6 sought to undo them, presumably because there is no basis upon which to challenge the affiliated 7 status of the two PACs and, since a second contribution limit is not legally available, there is no
8 longer any reason for Team Majority to exist. Stating that it will "not contest" the "concerns 9 expressed in public," Team Majority told the Commission it would seek refunds of all 10 contributions that would be considered excessive if the PACs were affiliated and that it would 11 suspend its operations. These facts are more than sufficient to support the reason-to-believe 12 findings recommended below that flow from the assumption that the PACs are affiliated, and 13 given their approach to date, it is unlikely that the PACs can or will mount a defense to an 14 affiliation theory.<sup>8</sup>

15 2. Excessive Contributions

16
17 Under the Act and the Commission's regulations, affiliated committees, such as PAC to 18 the Future and Team Majority, share a single contribution limit. See 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(5); 19 11 C.F.R. § 110.3(a). For the 2002 general election, both PACs made contributions to numerous

<sup>8</sup> By not asserting a defense based on his conversation with the RAD analyst, see footnote 2, Mr. McCarthy apparently recognizes that he could bind the Commission only by seeking an advisory opinion, and could not rely, under the circumstances, on a discussion with a Commission employee to avoid liability for the PACs. There is no indication that the analyst engaged in the "affirmative misconduct" necessary for an individual to estop the government, such as willfully, wantonly or recklessly providing incorrect information. See United States v. Marine Shale Processors, 81 F.3d 1329, 1349 (5th Cir. 1996); Cadwalder v. United States, 45 F.3d 297, 299 (9th Cir. 1993); Fano v. O'Neill, 806 F.2d 1262, 1265-66 (5th Cir. 1987). "Affirmative conduct" is something more than "mere negligence" on the part of the government agent. TRW, Inc. v. Federal Trade Comm'n, 647 F.2d 942, 951 (9th Cir. 1981). This Office will, however, further explore the reasonableness of Mr. Carthy's possible reliance on his conversation with the analyst, if raised, when negotiating the proposed civil penalty with the two PACs. See Marine Shale at 1349, n. 11.

1 committees, which, when aggregated, exceeded $5,000 to each committee. (See Attach. 1 at 2.)
2 Of those committees, see supra p. 7, all but five refunded the $5,000 excessive portion of the 3 contributions within sixty days. See 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(3). These five—the only recipient
4 committees against which this Office recommends proceeding—not only did not make timely
5 refunds to Team Majority, but apparently have not yet made any refunds, months after Team 6 Majority reportedly requested refunds. Accordingly, this Office recommends that the 7 Commission find reason to believe that PAC to the Future and Leo McCarthy, as treasurer, and 8 Team Majority and Leo McCarthy, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(a)(2)(A), and that 9 Joe Turnham for Congress and Pete Turnham, as treasurer; Julie Thomas for Congress Campaign
10 Committee and Stephen B. Jackson, as treasurer; Van Hollen for Congress and Jennifer Lewis
11 Smith, as treasurer;
12 each violated 2 U.S.C.
13 § 441a(f).<sup>9</sup>

14 The responses or the disclosure reports of the other authorized campaign committees, 15 which included five committees named as respondents in this matter, demonstrate that they 16 refunded the excessive portions of the contributions within sixty days. See 11 C.F.R.
17 § 103.3(b)(3). Accordingly, this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to 18 believe that the following respondents violated any provision of the Act or Commission
19 regulations in connection with this matter, and close the file as to each of them: Chellie Pingree 20 for U.S. Senate and Daniel N. Crewe, as treasurer; Clark for Congress and Marilyn Hoffman, as 21 treasurer; Committee to Elect Lincoln Davis and Sharon B. Davis, as treasurer; Dutch

<sup>9</sup> During conciliation, this Office will take into account, as mitigation for the two PACs, information showing that the refunds were timely requested, or, as mitigation for the recipient candidate committees, information that refunds were not timely requested.

Ruppersberger for Congress and David C. Deger, as treasurer; and Wofford for Congress and Andrew Greenberg, as treasurer.

Additionally, twenty individual contributors made contributions to PAC to the Future and Team Majority, which, when aggregated, exceeded the $5,000 contribution limit. 2 U.S.C.

§ 441a(a)(1)(C). (See Attach. 1 at 1.) A review of disclosure reports indicates that Team Majority refunded the excessive portion of all of these contributions within 60 days except for two: the contributions of George and Lorri Zimmer.<sup>10</sup> See 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(3). Since it appears that PAC to the Future and Team Majority accepted the Zimmers' contributions, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason to believe that PAC to the Future and Leo McCarthy, as treasurer, and Team Majority and Leo McCarthy, as treasurer, violated 2 U.S.C. § 441a(f). Because respondents Sally and William Hambrecht obtained refunds of the excessive portion of their contributions within sixty days, see 11 C.F.R. § 103.3(b)(3), this Office recommends that the Commission find no reason to believe that Sally and William Hambrecht violated the Act or Commission regulations in connection with this matter, and close the file as to them.<sup>11</sup>

3. Reporting Violations

As discussed above, there is reason to believe that PAC to the Future and Team Majority are affiliated. However, neither PAC disclosed the other PAC as an affiliated committee on its Statement of Organization. Therefore, this Office recommends that the Commission find reason <sup>10</sup> Both George and Lorri Zimmer made $5,000 contributions to PAC to the Future on July 17, 2002. They then each made $5,000 contributions to Team Majority on August 26, 2002. George and Lorri Zimmer's $5,000 contributions to Team Majority were refunded on October 29, 2002, sixty-four days after they were received.

<sup>11</sup> Besides George Zimmer, see infra p. 13, the Hambrechts were the only other individual contributors notified of the complaint.

1 to believe that PAC to the Future and Leo McCarthy, as treasurer, and Team Majority and Leo
2 McCarthy, as treasurer, each violated 2 U.S.C. § 433(b)(2).

3 4. Nancy Pelosi for Congress and Representative Nancy Pelosi

4 Representative Nancy Pelosi and her authorized campaign committee, Nancy Pelosi for 5 Congress, were notified as respondents, based on the complaint's allegation that Representative
6 Pelosi established both Team Majority and PAC to the Future and used them to circumvent the 7 Act's limits. It appears, however, that this Office improvidently notified Nancy Pelosi for 8 Congress, as the complaint does not contain any allegations against it or its treasurer.
9 Accordingly, this Office recommends that the Commission dismiss the complaint and close the 10 file with respect to Nancy Pelosi for Congress and Paul F. Pelosi, as treasurer.

11 Regarding Representative Pelosi, although the complaint alleged that her establishment
12 of two leadership PACs "had both the intent and effect of circumventing the contribution limits" 13 of the Act and the Commission's regulations, there is insufficient information in the complaint or 14 the public record to support reason-to-believe findings that she personally violated any provision
15 of the Act or regulations. Accordingly, this Office recommends that the Commission find no 16 reason to believe that Representative Nancy Pelosi violated any provision of the Act or 17 Commission regulations in connection with this matter.

18

5. George Zimmer

As noted, the excessive portions of the Zimmer contributions were not timely refunded.

See supra note 10. Based on the available information, it does not presently appear that George Zimmer knew that the two PACs were affiliated at the time he and his wife Lorri Zimmer contributed $5,000 apiece to each PAC. The Zimmer response, see discussion supra Part III.A., indicates that Mr. McCarthy, the PACs' treasurer, did not inform them during their phone conversations that the PACs were affiliated. However, the Zimmers may have information, including contacts with the PACs' treasurer and receipt of a personal letter from Representative Pelosi that may be helpful if pre-probable cause conciliations are not successful. Accordingly, this Office recommends taking no action at this time with respect to George Zimmer, anticipating that we will later recommend closing the file as to him.<sup>12</sup>

IV. DISCUSSION OF CONCILIATION AND INVESTIGATION

<sup>12</sup> Because George Zimmer's contributions were mentioned in an article attached to the complaint, but Lorri Zimmer's were not, only George Zimmer was notified of the complaint. Under the circumstances set forth above, there appears to be no reason to internally generate Lorri Zimmer as a respondent.
