FEDERAL ELECTION
COMMISSION
OFFICE OF GENERAL
COUNSEL

2002 DEC 13 P 2:14

Re: Complaint No. MUR 5333, before the Federal Election
Commission (Charlotte P. Jonas)

Dear Mr. Jordan:

This is a response to the above referenced complaint against Charlotte P. Jonas. Mrs. Jonas has previously designated me as counsel on this matter. This response is within the required time of 15 days from the date the complaint was received.

Mrs. Jonas has violated no federal law or Federal Election Commission ("FEC") regulation with respect to contributions made to John Swallow for Congress. It is our understanding, confirmed by the John Swallow campaign, that the state of Utah has three election cycles (Convention, Primary and General). It was also our understanding from the John Swallow campaign that Mr. Swallow was carrying a debt throughout all election cycles.

Mrs. Jonas made a total of $2,000 in contributions, with $1,000 being attributed to the Utah convention and primary election cycles. This is allowable under the relevant sub-sections of 11 CFR § 100.2 and 11 CFR § 110.1.

We respectfully request that the FEC dismiss this complaint. Please let me know if you require further information or have any questions.

Sincerely,

Murray H. Van Eman
