SENSITIVE

Dear Sir or Madam:

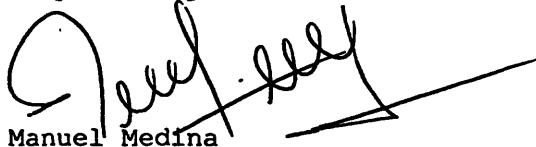

It has come to my attention that the Henry Cuellar for Congress Campaign has run "robo-calls" (also known as voice broadcasting advertisements) without a disclaimer, violating both the letter and spirit of the campaign laws. The advertisements ran sometime on December 19 or 20, 2003.

The ads, which falsely attack Congressman Ciro D. Rodriguez, do not identify their source or funding, nor do they contain the candidate's voice. Nonetheless, the ads appear coordinated with the Cuellar campaign since they contain comments nearly identical to public statements made by the Cuellar campaign.

Enclosed is a copy of the Cuellar campaign telephone advertisement.

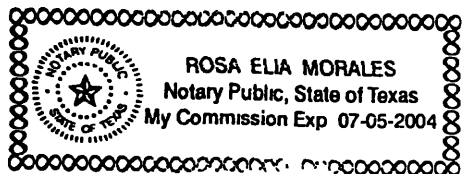

Please investigate the Cuellar campaigns failure to contain a disclaimer or otherwise identify the source or funding of its telephone attack ads.

Respectfully,

Manuel Medina
