RE: MUR 5534
Business Alaska, Inc.

Dear Ms. Williams:

This is in reference to the complaint and supplements thereto that the Alaska Democratic Party filed with the Federal Election Commission on September 17, 2004 and October 19, 2004, concerning Business Alaska, Inc. Based on the complaint and supplements and the responses thereto, on April 4, 2006, the Commission found that there was reason to believe Business Alaska, Inc. violated 2 U.S.C. §§ 433, 434(a), 434(b), 434(c), 434(f), 441b and 441d, provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended ("the Act"), and instituted an investigation. After considering the circumstances of this matter, however, the Commission determined on July 14, 2009 to take no further action as to Business Alaska, Inc., in an exercise of its prosecutorial discretion as outlined in Heckler v. Chaney, 421 U.S. 821, and closed the file in this matter.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Statement of Policy Regarding Disclosure of Closed Enforcement and Related Files, 68 Fed. Reg. 70,426 (Dec. 18, 2003). A Factual and Legal Analysis further explaining the basis for the Commission's decision will follow.

The Act allows a complainant to seek judicial review of the Commission's dismissal of this action. See 2 U.S.C. § 437g(a)(8).
